
Index

- abuse 3, 157
 and delinquency 48, 50, 93–4, 99
 and economic stress 28–9, 30, 31, 37, 86, 99
 adult participation in crime 95–9, 100–1 aggregate crime rates 117–18
 and adult participation in crime 95–9 criminal opportunity theory and 147–53 effects of economic stress 118–19 aggregate-level studies 3
 on delinquency generation 78–101
 on effect of economic stress on child maltreatment 28–36
 Agnew, R. 59–60
 Australia 1, 40, 43, 122–3, 127
 Australian Institute of Family Studies 43
- Becker, G. S. 8–9
 behaviour problems 166, 180
 Belknap, J. 17
 Billingsley, A. 31
 Blackson, T. C. 63
 Blumstein, A. 19, 104, 108–9
 Bottoms, A. E. 118, 144–6
 Box, S. 17
 Braithwaite, J. 14–15, 18, 21, 22–3
 British Crime Survey 135
 ‘broken windows’ theory 139–43
 Bruinsma, G. J. N. 55–6
 Bursik, R. J. 129, 131, 132
 Bushway, S. 169, 173
- Cantor, D. 23–5, 27
 capable guardians 149, 151
 Chaffin, M. 38
 Chapman, B. 170
 Chicago, association between crime and stress 10
- child maintenance, importance in reducing
 economic stress 166–9
 child maltreatment 124
 and delinquency 49–50
 role of social stressors 37–40
 role of social supports 40–2
see also abuse; neglect childcare, role in reducing economic stress 165–6
 children, early interventions with to reduce delinquency 179–82
 Chiricos, T. 15–16, 119
 Cloward, R. A. 7
 coercion theory 61–2
 Cohen, L. E. 8, 149–50, 151
 Coleman, J. S. 176–7
 Coles, C. M. 139, 140, 141 collective efficacy 138–9
 community organisational participation 134–5 Conger, R. D. 34, 36
 contact with delinquents see delinquent peer influence control theory 11, 46–51
 role of delinquent peers 53–6 role of economic stress 51–2
 Coohy, C. 41, 42
 Crane, J. 106–7
 Cressey, D. R. 11 crime statistics 12
 criminal career theory 104–6, 117
 criminal opportunity theory 14, 23–5, 27, 156
 and aggregate crime rate variation 147–53
 and offender supply theory 153–5 criminal participation rates 117–18
 cross-sectional studies 2, 16, 23, 121, 151
 crowded dwellings 39, 88, 92, 94

208 INDEX

- delinquency generation aggregate-level research 78–101
 individual-level research 67–77
 delinquent parents 56–8, 66 delinquent peer influence 60, 62, 63–5, 66, 108 control theory and 53–6
 economic stress and 22–3
 parental supervision and 102
 delinquent siblings 56–8, 66 delinquent subcultures 128
 delinquents, contact with susceptibles 110, 123, 125, 170
see also delinquent peer influence depression 30, 34, 38
 development strategies 171, 172, 173
 developmental intervention programs 179–82
 Devery, C. 17
 DiBlasio, F. A. 38, 39
 differential association theory 53–4, 59
 direct effect hypothesis 129
 Dishion, T. J. 64
 disorder, leading to serious crime 141–2, 143
 dispersal 171, 173
 divorce 43, 175
 drug abuse 30, 38, 63
 early onset anomaly 13–14, 26, 119
 economic disadvantage 2–3, 128 role of Government in reducing spatial concentration 170–4, 182 economic growth 163, 164, 182
 economic stress 3, 4, 6–9, 10–12, 118–19, 158–9
 effect on parenting 28–36, 71–2, 75, 76, 85–6
 and growth of offender populations 106, 108, 120–1, 124–5 interaction with social stress 43–4, 45 role of in control theory 51–2
 in social disorganisation theory 129–30, 136, 155
 social status and 14–15
see also ESIOM paradigm
 economic theories of crime 8–9, 10, 18 educational attainment 44, 164
 Elder, G. H. 32
 Elliott, D. S. 59, 136–7
 enterprise zones 172–3
 epidemic models of delinquency 106–12, 155, 159
 and social disorganisation theory 128–31, 136, 155 stable condition values 112–13
 testing 123–4
 ESIOM (economic stress-induced offender motivation) paradigm 6–9 abandoning 25–6
 anomalies 13–25, 119–23, 124–5
 challenges to 9–13
 estrangement in peer groups 55
 ethnic heterogeneity 128, 130–1, 133, 175 ethnicity, and child maltreatment 39–40 expected utility of crime 8–9 family dissolution 136, 165, 175
 economic stress and 43, 44, 45
 family income 69, 70
 child maltreatment and 29, 31
 parental supervision and 71, 72
 family size
 child maltreatment and 38–9
 delinquent peers and 60–1 family socialisation 61–2 Farrington, D. P. 13, 20, 58 fear of crime 140–1, 142
 Felson, M. 149–50, 151, 153
 Field, S. 17
 frequency of offending 104, 105, 122
 friendship networks 135, 136
 Garbarino, J. 41
 Gaudin, J. M. 40–1
 genetic predisposition 57
 geographical mobility 128, 130, 133, 142, 151
 child maltreatment and 39
 Giovannoni, J. M. 29, 31
 Gold, M. 49, 64
 Gottfredson, D. C. 104, 133
 Government 158–9
 early intervention programs 179–82
 role in reducing economic stress 160–70;
 in neighbourhoods 170–4
 role in reducing social stress 174–9
 Grasmick, H. G. 129
 Greenberg, S. W. 134
 Greenwood, P. W. 181
 Gregory, R. 123
 Groves, W. B. 135–6
 Hagan, J. 25–6, 170
 Halpern, A. 168–9
 Hampton, R. 30
 Harris, K. M. 35–6, 51
 Harrison, M. 167–8
 Heimer, K. 63
 Herbert, D. T. 118
 Hirschi, T. 11, 54–5, 104
 ‘hot spots’ 14, 148–9
 Hughes, M. A. 171, 172
 Hunter, B. 123, 172

- Hyde, S. W. 118
- income 17–18, 43, 152
 and victimisation risk 151–2
see also family income
- income change, effect on parenting 32–3
- income inequality 1, 22, 122–3
- income inequality anomaly 17–18, 27, 120
- inconsistency problem 16, 23, 26, 120
- individual-level evidence anomaly 19–20, 26, 119
- individual-level research 2, 152
 on delinquency generation 67–77
- informal social controls 128, 132–9, 141, 150
- integrated control theories 58–63, 63–4
- Jarjoura, G. R. 18, 132
- Job Compact (Australia) 170
- Johnstone, J. W. C. 18
- Junankar, P. N. 43
- Kain, J. F. 171, 172
- Kapsis, R. E. 132
- Kapuscinski, C. A. 43
- Kelling, G. L. 139, 140, 141
- Kenyon, P. 169–70
- Kobrin, S. 118
- Kotch, J. B. 38, 41
- labelling 12, 105
- labour market programs, role of in reducing economic stress 169–70
- Lacharité, C. 41
- Land, K. C. 23–5, 27
- Larzelere, R. E. 33–4, 49, 52
- Latham, M. 179
- Laub, J. H. 34–5
- Lauderdale, M. 29, 42
- Lempers, J. 32, 51
- Lewis, O. 161
- Loeber, R. 47–8, 57
- Marmer, J. K. 35–6, 51
- Martin, M. J. 29
- material support, effect on child maltreatment 42
- materialist theory 7
- Matka, E. 146–7
- Matsueda, R. L. 63
- Mazerolle, P. 121–2
- McCarthy, B. 56
- McCord, J. 48–9
- McGahey, R. M. 19
- McKay, H. D. 10, 128, 129, 131–2
- McLoyd, V. C. 33
- mobility strategies 171–2, 173, 174
- motivation to offend 7, 8–9, 20, 23, 25, 60
see also ESIOM paradigm
- Murray, C. 161
- Nagin, D. S. 105
- National Youth Survey 54, 59, 105, 121–2
- neglect 3, 157
 economic stress and 29, 31, 37, 86, 88, 99
 effect on delinquency 48, 49, 50, 86–7, 88, 93–4, 99
- neighbourhood effect anomaly 18–19, 22, 27, 120
- neighbourhood effects 73–4, 77, 88, 89, 91, 99
- neighbourhood organisation, and social disadvantage 106–7, 136–7
- neighbourhood poverty 190–4
- neighbourhood social capital 178–9
- Nelson, K. E. 38–9
- Newberger, E. 30
- non-utilitarian crime anomaly 16, 25, 26, 119
- Norstrum, T. 17
- offender population 104, 105–6
 growth of 106–12, 114–17
- offender supply theory 153–5
- officially recorded crime 12
- Ohlin, L. E. 7
- onset of criminal activity 13–14, 159–60
- operant conditioning 59
- out-migration of residents 139, 140–1, 142, 155
- parent–child attachment 11, 35, 36–7, 47, 51, 54, 60, 66, 100
- parental discipline 3, 32, 50, 52, 57, 62, 66, 77
 economic stress and 33–4, 35
- parental supervision 61, 100, 122
 economic stress and 32, 33, 34, 35, 52, 71, 72
 effect on delinquency 31, 47, 49, 50, 60, 64, 73–4, 75, 76–7, 100, 122
- parenting 4, 20, 102, 165 effect of social and economic stress on 2, 71–2, 75, 76, 85–6, 120
 effect on delinquency 46–51, 56–8, 63–4, 66, 72–3, 75, 86–7
- participation in property and violent crime 90–3
- participation in crime, effect of social and economic stress on 69–71, 82, 85, 87–93, 99
- partners, support from 41
- Paternoster, R. 105, 121–2
- path analysis 93–5, 100
- Patterson, E. B. 133
- Patterson, G. R. 33–4, 49, 52, 64
- Persky, J. J. 171, 172

210 INDEX

- Piggott, J. 170
 police, and recorded crime 12 poverty 94, 97, 99, 142, 150 and child maltreatment 42, 43–4
 Government efforts to reduce 160–2, 164
 and involvement with delinquency 51, 88, 92, 99
 spatial concentration 190–4 property crime 17, 120, 152
 effects of parenting and economic stress on 90–1, 94, 100
 public housing 143, 173–4
 allocation policy 143–5
 criminogenic effects 145–7
- relevant improvement over chance (RIOCI) 47–8
- Rengert, G. 154
 repeat victimisation 14, 148
 Reuter, P. 169, 173
 Robertson, J. F. 63
 routine activity theory 149–53
 Rowe, D. C. 58
- Salmelainen, P. 40, 105
 Sampson, R. J. 34–5, 52, 57, 60, 132, 135–6, 139, 178 school performance 8, 166
 Schuerman, L. 118
 Schwartz, J. E. 134–5
 self-reported offending 11, 12, 18, 54–5, 122
 Shaw, C. R. 10, 128, 129, 131–2
 Sheffield, public housing 144–6
 Sherman, D. 41
 Sherman, L. W. 181, 182
 Silbereisen, R. K. 32, 36, 51
 Simcha-Fagan, O. 134–5
 Simons, R. L. 63
 single parent families 33, 150, 176
 child maintenance for 167–9 child maltreatment in 37–8 and delinquent peer influence 61 and involvement in crime 69–70, 74, 75, 77, 94
 and parental supervision 71, 75 welfare benefits for 167, 175
 Skogan, W. 139, 140, 141, 142
 Smith, C. 49
 Smith, D. A. 105, 132
 social aspirations 37
 social capital 174–9
 social control 60
 peer influence and 61–2, 64–5 strain theory and 59, 60
 see also informal social controls social disadvantage 136–7
 social disorganisation theory 127–31, 139–40, 155–6 criticisms 131–2
 and informal social controls 132–9 social networks 40–2, 102, 120, 130, 131, 176, 177, 178 disruption to 39–40, 131
 social opportunity theory 7–8, 9, 10, 16, 18
 Braithwaite's adaptation 22–3, 27
 social services 177
 socioeconomic status 14–15, 21, 121, 122
 of neighbourhoods 18–19
 and parental discipline 33–4
 Sorensen, E. 168–9
 Spearly, J. L. 29, 42
 Stafford, M. 55
 stake in conformity 55
 Steinberg, L. 61
 Steuerle, C. E. 166
 Stouthamer-Loeber, M. 47–8, 57 strain theory 7, 9, 10, 59, 60 supply of motivated offenders 4, 149, 151, 152, 153, 156 need to reduce 159
 supply of opportunities 23–5
 see also criminal opportunity theory; social opportunity theory surveillance hypothesis 29–36, 82, 99 susceptibility to involvement in crime 109–10, 114, 120, 121
 Sutherland, E. H. 11
 Sydney, public housing and crime rates 146–7
- Tarling, R. 109
 teenage parenthood 44, 164
 theory integration 21–5, 58–63, 153–5
 Thomas, L. P. 41
 Thornberry, T. P. 49
 time series studies 2, 16–17, 23, 118–19, 121
 tolerance of crime 140–3
 Tomison, A. 40
 Triplett, R. 4, 18, 105
 Tucker, T. 167–8
 tutelage 56
- unemployment 85, 104, 119, 151, 160
 crime and 15–16, 20, 23–5, 26
 Government efforts to reduce 162–4, 169–70
 United States of America 1, 149–51 child abuse and neglect in 3, 157–8 unsupervised peer groups 136
- victimisation 132, 135
 risk of 148, 150, 151–2, 156; proximity to motivated offenders 152–3, 154

Cambridge University Press
0521790948 - Delinquent-Prone Communities
Don Weatherburn and Bronwyn Lind
Index
More information

- violent crime 15, 16, 17, 120, 152
 effects of parenting and economic stress on 91–2, 94, 100
Vondra, J. I. 36
- Walters, J. 29
War on Poverty 160–1, 162
Warr, M. 54, 55
Watters, J. 29
Weintraub, K. J. 49, 64
welfare system 160–3
Western Australian Child Health Survey 41, 67–9
- Weston, R. 43, 168
White, J. L. 13
white-collar crime 184n2
Widom, C. 48
Wiles, P. 118
Wilson, L. 33
Wilson, W. J. 43, 150, 161–2
- Yoshikawa, H. 180, 182
- Zingraff, M. T. 49–50
Zuravin, S. J. 38, 39