

Index

- absolute deprivation, and injustice, 36, 58–9
 accommodation, and deescalation of conflict, 116 active listening, technique of, 153, 154 actual coercion, 23–4
 affirmative action programs, 53
 African National Congress (ANC), 114–15
 Aho, James, 149
 alternatives, and payoff matrices, 15, 16
 American Bar Association, 184t
 Arias, Oscar, 169
 Association for Conflict Resolution, 186t attack, and beginning of overt conflict, 80. See also trigger events
- balanced sociation, 149–50
 Banks, Michael, 156–7
 Bellah, Robert N., 42
 belligerence, due to culture or personality: and Bosnian conflict, 135; and civil rights movement, 59; definition of, 36–7, 198n8; and university conflict, 85
 Berger, Peter, 155
 Biko, Steven, 54
 Black consciousness, in South Africa, 54
 Black Panthers, 164
 Bolivar, Simon, 3
 bonding rituals, 155
 Bondurant, Joan, 171
- Bosnia: deescalation and peace agreement, 133–4; escalation of conflict in, 129–32, 143–7, 193–5; and intermediation, 168; and moderating efforts, 132–3, 171–2; and negotiation, 158–9, 160–1, 202n4; and origins of conflict, 122–9, 188–95; and theoretical analysis, 134–43. See also Dayton Agreement; Kosovo; Yugoslavia
 bottom-line demands, and negotiation, 160, 161
 Boulding, Kenneth, 163
Brown v. Board of Education (1954), 58
 bureaucratic power, 35
 Burgess, Ernest W., 12
 Burton, John, 156
 business schools, and specialized training in conflict resolution, 184t
- careers: and conflict resolution, 5–6; and professional training in conflict management, 182–5; routes to, 185–7. See also education; intermediation; mediation; professional mediators
 Carmichael, Stokely, 54
 Carter, Jimmy, 133, 169
 Castro, Fidel, 99–100
 Catholic Church, and values, 46–7
 Center for Conflict Resolution, 4 changing conditions: and deescalation of conflict, 113–16, 118–19; and escalation of conflict, 110–13, 117–18

- charismatic power, 35
 civil disobedience, 3, 150. See also satyagraha
 civil rights movement: and African American struggle for equality, 50–3; and civil disobedience, 150; and cooperation, 162; and escalation of conflict, 119–21; and fairness, 161; and formulation of strategy, 64; and history of social conflict, 4–5; and interaction rituals, 155; and power strategies, 164; prestige and values, 32; theoretical analysis of, 55–62; worldwide influence of, 53–5
 civil wars, in developing world, 5. See also Nicaragua
 class, and conflict scholarship, 2. See also Marxist theory
 Cleaver, Eldridge, 54
 coercion: and Bosnian conflict, 137–9, 140–1; and conflict behavior, 28, 175;
 and conflict solidarity, 111–12; and deescalation, 114; definition of, 23–5;
 degree of, 26–7. See also force
 cognitive dissonance, 111
 Coleman, James, 98, 100, 166, 170–1, 203n6, 204n7
 colonialism, and history of social conflict, 3, 5
 communication: and communal values, 45–6; and moderation or prevention of conflict, 151–4, 203n1;
 and solidarity, 71–2, 74–5; and workshops, 156
 Communist Party of Yugoslavia (CPY), 189, 191, 194
 communities, and free interaction, 44–7, 86
 Community Relations Division, U.S.
 Department of Justice, 5, 162
 competition, as distinct from conflict, 13–14
 Concert of Europe, 2 conflict: causes of, 176–8; and control of escalation, 162–71; and cooperation,
 157–62; definition of, 12–14, 27–8, 174,
 196n1; development of knowledge on,
 1–6; economic and effective ways of dealing with, 6–7; and intermediation, 167–8; management of, 178–80; review
 of basic concepts, 174–8; theorizing about, 7–10. See also conflict action and actors; conflict behavior; deescalation;
 escalation; hostility; incompatibility;
 moderation; overt conflicts; resources;
 solidarity; theory
 conflict action and actors: and coercion, 25; definition of, 13, 22–7, 175;
 principles of, 7; and process of skill development, 180–5; and rationality, 199n17; and theory, 63–9; and university conflict, 92, 93f conflict behavior: definition of, 13, 28, 175; and hostility, 22, 28; reasons for occurrence of, 9–10; use of term, 8, 23
 conflict mapping, 67
 Conflict Resolution in Education, 184t consultation, and moderation of conflict, 151
 Contact Group (CG), 123, 133, 141
 context, and conflict mapping, 67 cooperation: civil rights movement and mass noncooperation, 53–4; and empowerment, 198n1; and institutions, 161–2; and moderation efforts, 157–62;
 and noncoercive conflict action, 25–6
 COPRED Global Directory, 184t
 Coser, Lewis A., 150
 critical theory, 8–9
 Croatia. See Bosnia
 Cuba: Castro and communist revolution,
 99–100; and missile crisis of 1962,
 19–20, 21, 22
 cults, and group separation, 43
 culture: and belligerence, 36–7, 59, 60;
 and civil rights movement, 61–2; and group separation, 42–3; and principles of distributive justice, 33–4. See also ethnicity; identity; society
 Czechoslovakia, and extreme force, 99
 Dahrendorf, Ralf, 39, 40, 70, 82, 199n14
 Dayton Agreement, 133–4, 146, 160–1, 168, 171–2, 202n4. See also Bosnia decision making, theory of rational, 20 deescalation, of conflict: and Bosnian conflict, 133–4, 137–43, 144f; and changing conditions, 113–16, 118–19;
 and conflict moderation, 170–1;
 reciprocation and unilateral, 101
 Deutsch, Morton, 67, 98
 dispute system design, 171 distributive justice, 33–4 domination: and injustice, 35; and power inequality, 31
 Doob, Leonard, 157

- Douglass, Frederick, 51
 DuBois, W. E. B., 51, 57
 dynamics, and conflict mapping, 69
- economics. See poverty; resources; wealth education, in conflict management:
 and balanced sociation, 149–50; and professional training in conflict management, 182–5; and university programs, 6, 184t, 185–7. See also careers; university conflict emotion control, 152
 empowerment: and cooperation, 198n1;
 and social movements in 1970s, 5–6;
 and university conflict, 95–6. See also power
 equal concessions, and negotiation, 161 equality, and civil rights movement, 50–3 equilibrium point, and escalation of
 conflict, 106–7, 111
 equity principle, and negotiation, 160–1
 escalation, of conflict: in Bosnia, 129–32, 137–47, 193–5; and changing conditions, 110–13, 117–18; and civil rights movement, 119–21; control of,
 162–71; main ingredients of, 98–103, 117, 177–8; mathematical model of, 103–10; prevention of, 172; and
 university conflict, 92
 Esquipulas process, 165, 169
 ethnicity: and civil rights movement, 52; and conflict in Bosnia, 126, 127, 128, 192; as focus of conflict scholarship, 2–3; and group identity,
 43. See also culture; identity; university
 conflict
 European Union (EU), and Bosnian conflict, 123, 132, 146, 168, 172
- faculty tenure. See university conflict fairness, and negotiation, 159–61. See also injustice
 feedbacks: and Bosnian conflict, 139, 140, 142, 143f, 144f; and increases in escalation, 111–13, 118f; leading to deescalation, 114–16, 119f
 Fisher, Roger, 158
 Florida, and 2000 presidential elections, 53 force, and power strategies for control of escalation, 163. See also coercion;
 violence
 foreign affairs, and controversy on realistic perspective, 101–2 foreign observers, 169–70
 free interaction: and communal values, 45–6; and ideology, 74–5; and solidarity, 70–2
 free riding problem, 78 frustration: and hostility, 73–4; and
 university conflict, 91
 frustration-aggression theory, 73
- Gamson, William, 94
 Gandhi, Mohandas, 4, 54, 171
 Gandhi Peace Foundation, 3
 gangs, prestige and leadership of, 31–2
 Garvey, Marcus, 58
 gender. See sexism
 Germany: Nazis and World War II, 99;
 and power inequalities after World War I, 31
 goals: and conflict mapping, 68; as distinct from interests, 17;
 identification of, 18–19; and university conflict, 94–5. See also incompatibility Goffman, Erving, 154, 159, 203n3 government: and conflict within organizations, 200n5; and incompatibility of roles, 60–1
 graduate study, in conflict management, 184t grievances: and hostility, 73, 102–3; and
 university conflict, 91
 GRIT (graduated reciprocation in tension reduction), 170
 groups: definition of, 71; and identity, 43–4; and incompatibility of values, 42–3; integration of, 96–7. See also interaction; solidarity
 Guevara, Che, 100
 Gurr, Ted R., 34
- Habermas, Jürgen, 9, 44–5, 47
 Hamilton, Charles, 54
 Hegel, Georg, 6
 history: and origins of conflict in Bosnia, 122–9, 188–95; of social conflict since 1800, 2–6; and social movements, 51
 Homans, George, 33–4, 71, 72, 160, 198n2 horizontal differentiation: and incompatibility of roles, 41; and
 university conflict, 85, 91

- hostility: and Bosnian conflict, 136, 138–9, 142, 144; and civil rights movement, 56–7; and communication, 152; and conflict behavior, 22, 28; and conflict mapping, 68; and conflict solidarity, 73–4; and definition of conflict, 13, 19–22, 176; and escalation of conflict, 102–3; implications of, as cause of conflict, 9–10; and university conflict, 90–1
- identity: and Bosnian culture, 127; values and personal or group, 43–4. See also culture; society
- ideology: and Bosnian conflict, 128, 135, 136, 139, 142; and civil rights movement, 120; and conflict solidarity, 74–5; and university conflict, 90
- Ignatieff, Michael, 126
- incompatibility, of goals: and Bosnian conflict, 126, 135, 136f; causes of, 47–9f, 177; and civil rights movement, 55–7, 62, 63f; and contested resources, 29–37, 47–8, 199n3; definition of, 13, 28, 175–6; and roles, 37–41, 48; and university conflict, 83–8; and values, 41–7, 48–9; of workers and managers, 16t. See also goals; payoff matrix; roles
- independence movements, and colonialism, 5
- India, and caste system, 34. See also Gandhi; satyagraha
- individualism, and values, 42
- individual perceptions, and conflict solidarity, 111
- industrial revolution, 2
- industrial systems, and values, 46, 86, 88, 92
- injustice: and civil rights movement, 57–8; and contested resources, 33–5; and objective fact, 198n3; and university conflict, 92. See also fairness
- institutions: and conflict moderation, 161–2; distinction between organizations and, 198n10
- instrumental rationality, 20
- integration, of conflict group, 96–7
- integrative bargaining, 158–9
- interaction: and concept of rituals, 154–5; and group solidarity, 71, 72; and university conflict, 90. See also free interaction; groups
- interests: and conflict mapping, 68; as distinct from goals, 17; as distinct from values, 64–5; identification of, 18–19; and university conflict, 94–5
- intermediation, and control of conflict escalation, 167–9. See also mediation
- international peace development, 186t
- interpersonal conflicts, and overt conflicts, 82
- interposition, and control of conflict escalation, 169–70
- Israel: and Camp David negotiations, 65–6; and conflict with Syria, 110; and Palestinian conflict, 160, 179, 197n13
- Jackson, Jesse, 53
- Japan, and within-group interaction, 42
- justice, three principles of, 160. See also distributive justice; injustice
- Kant, Immanuel, 6
- Kardelj, Edvard, 191, 192
- Kelman, Herbert, 156
- Kennedy, John F., 19–20, 21, 22
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 53, 54, 59, 164, 171
- Kosovo, escalation of conflict in, 115–16, 146, 170, 178
- Kriesberg, Louis, 9, 79, 111
- Krushchev, Nikita, 19–20, 21
- labor-management mediation, 186t
- labor movement: and civil rights movement, 51; and history of social conflict, 3–4; and incompatibility of goals of workers and managers, 16t
- law, and specialized training in conflict management, 184t
- Lesley University, 184t
- liking, and group solidarity, 71
- limiting factors, and conflict mapping, 69
- listening skills, 152–3
- Luckmann, Thomas, 155
- Malcolm X, 54, 58
- management, of conflict: development of techniques, 6; professional training in, 182, 184t, 185. See also moderation
- Mandela, Nelson, 114–15
- mapping, of values, 66–7
- marriage, and interpersonal conflict, 24
- Marx, Karl, 2, 3, 8–9, 38–9, 40–1
- Marxist theory: and conflict scholarship, 2; and modes of production, 38–9; and theory of conflict, 8–9

- mathematical models: and basic equation, 103; and deescalation, 113–14; and equilibrium, 105; and escalation, 109–11; and terminology, 103–4
- matrix representation. See payoff matrix
- McKersie, Robert B., 33
- mediation: and control of conflict escalation, 166–7; professional training in, 184t, 186t. See also intermediation
- Milosovich, Slobodan, 128, 138, 193
- misunderstanding, and communication, 152
- Mitchell, Christopher, 156–7
- mobilization: and Bosnian conflict, 136–7; and conflict solidarity, 77–8; and overt conflict, 79; and university conflict, 89, 92, 95–6
- moderation, of conflict: and Bosnian conflict, 132–3; and control of escalation, 162–71; and cooperation, 157–62; and prevention of serious conflict, 148–57; synergistic effect of approaches to, 171–2
- multimodal intermediation, 168–9
- Myrdal, Gunnar, 57–8
- Napoleonic Wars, 2
- National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 51, 53
- nationalism: and conflict in Bosnia, 123, 128, 191–2; and group identity, 44
- Native Americans, and belligerent cultures, 36, 37, 109–10
- natural limits, on conflict resources, 115
- negotiation, and moderation of conflict, 158–9, 178–9
- Nicaragua, and civil war, 164–5, 169
- nonrational action, and hostility, 21–2
- North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO): and Bosnian conflict, 123, 132–3, 134, 140, 141, 143, 146, 168, 172; and Kosovo conflict, 114–15
- Northern Ireland, and Good Friday Agreement of 1998, 66
- Obando y Bravo, Cardinal Miguel, 169
- open conflicts. See overt conflicts
- Organization for Cooperation and Security, 170
- organizations: and conflict solidarity, 76–7, 114–15; distinction between institutions and, 198n10; and government, 200n5; and university conflict, 91, 95–6
- outcomes, and payoff matrices, 15
- l’Overture, Toussaint, 3
- overt conflicts: and Bosnian conflict, 136–7; causes of, 80–2, 177; and interpersonal conflicts, 82; and resources, 78; and solidarity, 70–8; typical beginnings of, 79–80; and university conflict, 88–93
- overwhelming force, 178
- Owen, David Lord, 132
- Palestinians, and conflict with Israel, 160, 179, 197n13
- Park, Robert E., 12
- Parsons, Talcott, 45, 46
- Patfoort, Pat, 170
- payoff matrix: and conflict actors, 181–2t; and conflict mapping, 68; and identification of goals and interests, 18–19; and incompatibility of goals, 175–6; and negative payoffs, 197n12; and rational decision making, 20, 204n8; and representation of conflict, 14–18
- peace movement: and careers in conflict resolution, 186t; and civil disobedience, 150; and history of social conflict, 4
- Peace Research Institute (Oslo), 4
- personality, and belligerence, 37, 59
- persuasion: and noncoercive conflict action, 25, 27; and strategy formulation, 66
- Poland, German invasion of in 1939, 99
- policy sciences, and specialized training in conflict management, 184t
- Porter, Jack N., 166
- positive functions, and conflict mapping, 69
- poverty, and civil rights movement, 58–9
- power: and escalation of conflict, 99, 163–5; and frequently contested resources, 30–1; and injustice, 33; and prestige, 32; and university conflict, 85. See also bureaucratic power; charismatic power; empowerment; traditional power
- prestige: and frequently contested resources, 31–2; and injustice, 33; and university conflict, 85
- prevention, and moderation of conflict, 148–57

- primary parties, identification of, 67–8
 priority principle, and negotiation, 160 production, and Marxist theory, 38–9 professional mediators, 167
 professional training, in conflict management, 182, 184t, 185 proportionality principle, and negotiation, 160
 Pruitt, Dean G., 98
 Public Conversations program (Boston), 157 public policy, and specialized training in conflict resolution, 186t pure cooperation, 26, 27
- Quakers, and intermediation, 167
- racism, institutional, and university conflict, 83, 84, 89–90. See also civil rights movement
 Randolph, A. Philip, 51
 Rapoport, Anatol, 108
 rationality: and conflict action, 199n17;
 in conflict behavior and hostility, 19–22; and escalation of conflict, 99; in payoffs and decision making, 20, 204n8; and retaliation, 101; and system values, 46. See also instrumental rationality; nonrational action; value rationality realism, and controversy on foreign policy, 101–2 reciprocated escalation and reciprocity: and Bosnian conflict, 138, 142; and management of conflict, 179; and retaliation, 100–2 reconciliation: of potential conflict groups, 154–7; and teams, 169
 Red Cross, 132
 reframing, and cooperation, 157–61
 relative deprivation, 34, 85
 resources, contested: and Bosnian conflict, 127, 136, 138, 139; and civil rights movement, 57–60; and deescalation of conflict, 115, 118, 119; and escalation of conflict, 112; and incompatibility of goals, 29–37, 47–8, 199n3; and overt conflicts, 78, 81; and university conflict, 85, 95–6. See also power; prestige; wealth retaliation: and Bosnian conflict, 140, 145; and deescalation of conflict, 114; and reciprocated escalation, 100–1 reverse discrimination, 53
 revolutions of 1848, 2
- rewards, and noncoercive conflict action, 26, 27
 Richardson, L. F., 105, 108 rituals, and interaction, 155
 Robeson, Paul, 58
 roles: and civil rights movement, 60–1; differentiation of, and values, 47; and university conflict, 85. See also incompatibility
 Rubin, Jeffrey Z., 98
 rumors, and beginning of overt conflicts, 79–80
- safety valves, and prevention of conflict, 150
 satyagraha, 3, 170–1. See also civil disobedience; Gandhi secondary parties, identification of, 68
 self-limiting escalation, 170–1 separation, and incompatibility of values, 41–4 Serbia and Serbs. See Bosnia sexism: and civil rights movement, 52; university conflict and institutional, 83 similarity, and group solidarity, 71, 72
 Simmel, Georg, 3, 96, 149, 201n1
 single text agreement technique, 168 slavery, and civil rights movement, 50–1, 59, 61
 Slovenia. See Bosnia
 social movements, and civil rights activism, 51, 53, 55
 social reality construction, 155–7
 social sciences, and professional training in conflict management, 184t society: charisma and leadership of tribal, 35; and importance of social conflict, 149; interaction and tribal, 199n15. See also culture solidarity: and Bosnian conflict, 128, 136, 138, 139, 140, 142, 144; and deescalation of conflict, 114–15, 119; and escalation of conflict, 111–12, 117–18, 120–1; and overt conflicts, 70–8, 81; and university conflict, 89, 90–1. See also groups
 South Africa: influence of U.S. civil rights movement in, 53–5; and release of Nelson Mandela from prison, 114–15
 Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 150, 164
 Soviet Union, and Yugoslavia, 190–1
 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 4

- strategic deescalation, 115
 strategic escalation, 112–13, 118, 139 strategies: civil rights movement and formulation of, 64–7; university conflict and development of, 97 structural changes, and conflict escalation, 112 Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 164 symbolic injury, and coercion, 23–4
 Syria, and conflict with Israel, 110
 systems: and rationality, 46; and values, 44–7
- Taplin, Ruth, 166
 Texaco, and racial discrimination, 52 theory, of conflict: benefits of, 9–10; and Bosnian conflict, 134–43; and civil rights movement, 55–62; and conflict action, 63–9; and conflict actors, 180, 181–2; and definitions of conflict, 13; generality and simplicity of, 7–8;
 limitations of, 8
 third parties: and control of escalation, 165–70; identification of, 68; and intervention in Bosnian conflict, 145.
See also United Nations
 Thoreau, David Henry, 3
 threats, and coercion, 24–5, 27
 tit-for-tat strategy, 179, 203n6, 204n7
 Tito, 188–9, 190, 191, 192
 Tönnies, Ferdinand, 44
 traditional power, 35
 transformative mediation, 167 tribal societies: and charisma in leadership, 35; and interaction, 199n15
 trigger events, and overt conflicts, 82, 177
 trust, and negotiation, 159
 Turkey, and conflict in Bosnia, 124, 127, 128, 135
- unilateral deescalation, 113, 170–1
 unilateral escalation, 99–100
 United Auto Workers, 4
 United Nations: and Bosnian conflict,
 123, 132–3, 134, 139, 140, 141, 143, 145, 168, 203n7; and civil wars in developing world, 5; and interposition, 170; and postwar reconstruction of Yugoslavia, 189
 university conflict: and goal incompatibility, 83–8; and intermediation, 167–8; and overt conflict, 88–93; and productivity of conflict emergence, 93–7. See also education
 Ury, William, 158
 U.S. Department of Justice, 5, 162
 U.S. Institute of Peace, 4
 U.S. Mediation and Conciliation Service, 161
- value rationality, 20
 values: and Bosnian conflict, 127; and civil rights movement, 61–2; as distinct from interests, 64–5; and incompatibility of goals, 41–7, 48–9;
 mapping of, 66–7; and prestige, 32;
 and university conflict, 86, 88, 92.
See also communities; systems
 Vance, Cyrus, 132
 vertical differentiation: and incompatibility of roles, 38–41, 61; and
 university conflict, 85, 91
 violence, and coercion, 27. See also force voting rights, 53
- Walton, Richard, 33
 war, and depletion of conflict resources,
 115. See also civil wars; peace
 movement; World War I; World War II
 warning signs, 79
 wealth: and frequently contested resources, 30; and injustice, 33; and
 university conflict, 85
 Weber, Max, 20, 35
 Wells, Ida, 51
 Witness for Peace, 169
 World War I, 188
 World War II, 4, 51, 99
- Yugoslavia, and origins of conflict in Bosnia, 123, 124f, 125, 126, 128, 135, 188–95
- Zartman, William I., 159
 zero-sum game, 17