

Index

- abortion, 99, 118, 133
- absolute entrenchment, 136n14
- abstraction and judgment, 279–80
- accountability, 85, 90–1
- Ackerman, Bruce, 26, 76–7, 78, 80, 86, 90, 97n64, 102, 135n11, 151n129, 218–19
- Act of Union (1707), 154
- adjudicated Constitution, 240; gap between Constitution and, 241, 242; judicially unenforced constitutional rights at one with, 251; limited scope of, 243–4
- adjudicated constitutional outcomes, 265
- adjudication: constitutional, 105, 111, 213, 238–9; constitutional, interpretation central to, 177, 183; constitutional, pragmatist approach to, 146n78; non-rule-based, 48; pattern of, over time, 244
- administrative regulation, authority of, 210
- affirmative action, 99, 133
- African-Americans, 244
- agency, authorship in default of, 85
- akrasia, 2, 11, 13, 282, 286, 287
- Alexander, Larry, 1–15
- allegiance to Constitution, authorship and, 66–7
- allocation of power, norms regarding, 129
- Amar, Akhil R., 228n11
- amendment(s), 3, 8, 100, 101, 102–3, 105, 153, 161, 185, 187, 219, 226–7, 236; difficulty of, 137n15, 264–5; enforcing, 122; justification of, 174; opportunity for, 289–90; procedure for, 33–4, 195–6
- amendment process, 135n11, 228n11
- America, demo-graphy in, 211–26
- American Civil Liberties Union, 140n41
- American Legal Realism, 16
- anarchy, 2, 3, 4
- Andros, Sir Edmund, 40
- Answer to the Nineteen Propositions, 18
- antidiscrimination norm, 106–7, 112
- architecture, constitutional, 237
- argument, constitutional, 146n78
- argument from consent, 162–4
- argument from rule of recognition, 160–2
- aristocracy, 280
- Aristotle, 279, 280
- Arrow, Kenneth, 11, 13
- Articles of Confederation, 255
- associations, rights of, 21–2
- assurance, precommitment and, 292–5
- Austin, John, 207, 208
- authoritative voice, 212
- authority: consent as source of, 162; of constitutional law, 219, 222; constitutional-legal, 76; grounds of, 210–11; legitimate, 194–7; of makers

- of originating constitution, 158–60; present-day, 81–2; public/private, 19–20, 22; of sovereign, 18; of state,
 19, 21; submission to, 79
- authority (constitution), 1, 3–4, 5, 6, 7–8, 16, 30, 58n108, 72, 152–93; and authorship, 67, 74, 157–69; bases for, 8; doctrine of sources of, 178; theory of, 157–76
- authority–authorship syndrome, 5–6, 67, 68–9, 78–9; responsibility and, 84–5; sovereignty as explanation of, 74–5
- authors of constitution: authority of, 157–69; in legitimacy, 176; meaning intended by, 186; see also constitution-makers; founders;
 framers
- authorship, 64–98; constitutional-legal, 76; in default of agency, 85; founding act of citizens', 91–2; of laws, 71;
 and normative authority, 67;
 rightness and, 82
- autonomy, 275, 281, 287; of individual, 19–20; of precommitment, 188–9;
 rational, 284–5; see also Ulysses' autonomy (model)

- Barber, Sotirios, 270n23
- basic norm, 73
- Beard, 227n3
- bedrock, constitutional, 105–6, 107, 111, 112, 120, 124
- Beitz, Charles, 294
- best-it-can-be interpretation, 198, 199, 200, 201–3, 219
- bias, obligation to reform, 239, 240–1, 242, 243
- Bickel, Alexander, 132, 211, 213, 218, 227n3
- Bill of Rights, 29, 101, 105, 106, 130,
 139n28, 224, 278–9
- Bill of Rights of 1689 (England), 18, 154
- bills of rights, 18, 19, 21, 253, 259, 280, 282; entrenched, 132; with judicial review, 271–2, 274; liberal, 89
- bindingness, 65–6, 68, 70, 73–4; legal,
 74; normative, 74; of U.S.
 Constitution, 71–2
- Black, Charles, 206–7, 208
- Black, Hugo, 138n18
- Blackstone, William, 18
- Bobbitt, Philip, 146n78
- Bodin, J., 195
- Bork, Robert, 105, 205, 206–7, 208, 209
- Bracton, Henry de, 18
- Brennan, William, 119, 137n18
- Britain, 155, 158; constitution of, 154;
see also United Kingdom
- British Commonwealth, 159
- British Labour Party, 155
- Brown versus Board of Education*, 222
- burdens of judgment, 89, 284
- Burke, Edmund, 291–2

- Calder versus Bull*, 28
- Canada, 136n15
- Cardozo, Justice Benjamin, 114, 116
- case law, 206
- cases, constitutional, 132
- causal mechanisms versus external judgment, 276–81
- censure, 43, 45
- change, constitutional, 8, 34, 76, 185, 186, 191, 274, 288–9; ability to respond to, 4, 24, 38; conservative attitude toward, 175; dangers of, 292; reasons for, 187; see also amendment(s)
- charismatic legitimacy, 25
- Charles I, king of England, 18
- Charter Oak, 40
- Charter of Rights and Freedoms
 (Canada), 136n15
- charter-sense constitution(s), 65
- checks and balances, 41
- choice, 9; act of, 216, 217
- civil rights, 166
- civil rights legislation, 255
- Civil War, 227n3
- civility, moral duty of, 96n56

- coercion, 89, 90; in liberal constitutional democracy, 82–5
- Coke, Sir Edward, 59n125
- Coleman, Jules, 94n20
- collective action, 26; communal conception of, 287–8
- collective welfare, 24, 25
- command theory of law, 207
- commerce clause doctrine, 225
- commitment, 9; over time, 9
- commitment thesis, 216–17
- commitments, 224, 225; constitutional, 219, 220, 222–3
- common ideology, 154
- common law, 32, 154, 158, 206; judicial development of, 132
- common-law jurisdictions, 177
- compliance without sanctions, 43–50
- concept of law (methodology), 199, 205–8
- conceptualism, 190
- conduct: rules and, 39–41; universal principles of, 192
- conflicts: involving indeterminate norms, 112–16, 118–19, 123; moral conflicts transmuted into constitutional, 99, 133
- Congress, 48, 102, 103, 109, 116, 122, 139n28, 224, 225, 237, 241–2; and specification of norms, 128; and Supreme Court, 123–5, 126, 127, 131
- Connecticut Charter of 1662, 40
- conscience: constitutional, 256, 257, 258, 263, 266; in liberal constitutional democracy, 82–5
- consent, 9; act of, 216, 217; argument from, 162–4; to fundamental laws, 87–8; hypothetical, 162, 163; implied, 228n10; to rule by Constitution, 196; in self-government, 212, 213; as source of authority, 162
- conservation and innovation, 183, 184
- conserving interpretation, 181, 182, 183, 184, 186, 189, 190, 191
- constitution(s), 16, 20, 68, 84; authority and interpretation of, 152–93; charter sense of, 65; coercion by, 85; as collection of agreed-upon symbols from a metaconstitution, 2–3; and concerns of justice, 250; distinction between content and purposes of, 259; features of, 153–4, 156; fixed, 39; historically first, 73; kind of, 152–7; as law of laws, 70; legal effectiveness of, 32; moral merit of, 183–6; political-institutional-legal-textual senses of, 92n6; as proposition of fact, 68–74; protection against amendment, 136n14; provision for revising, 80; restricting state, 22; role of, 235, 239; as rule of recognition, 160–1; same now as when adopted, 191; as social fact, 71; value of, 248; what it is/what it ought to be, 181–2, 183–4; see also United States Constitution
- constitution(s), old, 169, 191; authority of, 165; legitimacy of, 194–7; self-validating, 173
- Constitution<sub>1</sub>, 94n25, 99–100, 101, 108, 118, 121; deference of Supreme Court in interpreting, 124–5; interpreting, 107–12, 118, 120
- Constitution<sub>2</sub>, 94n25, 99–100, 101, 108, 118, 121; deference of Supreme Court in interpreting/specifying, 125–33; interpretation/specification of, 112–19, 120; norms of, 104–7
- constitution-makers, 42, 44, 45, 225; intentions of, 35, 36–7, 38–9, 48; nature of activity of, 158–60; theoretical authority of, 61n143; and written law, 40; see also authors of constitution; founders; framers
- constitution-making, 29–31, 33; legitimacy and, 31; popular sovereignty in, 137n17
- Constitution of 1789, 6

- constitution-writing, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223
- constitutional crisis, 58n108
- constitutional-cultural notion, 80, 81
- constitutional culture, 100, 104, 107–8, 121, 122; textualist sensibility of, 111–12
- constitutional decisions, morally justified, 178
- constitutional democracy, two views of, 75–6
- constitutional development, 156; separated from politics, 185–6
- constitutional doctrine, 132–3, 260
- constitutional founding, 72; see also Founding (the)
- constitutional history, 48, 49, 218–19
- constitutional institutions, accounts of, 236–8
- constitutional justice, see domain of constitutional justice
- constitutional law, 4, 20, 39, 48, 77, 86–7, 91, 152, 153, 155, 156, 239–40; antidemocratic nature of, 195; authority of, 222; changing, 182, 183; and constitutional interpretation, 209; foundations of, 194–8; general theory of, 180; general theory of interpretation of, 190–8; inscriptive politics in, 218; interpretive approaches in, 198–211; normative judgment in, 226; normative openness of, 219; in philosophy of interpretation, 198; stability and continuity in, 186
- constitutional method, methodologies of, 198–211
- constitutional notion, 68, 93n15
- constitutional order: based on moral vision, 137n17; and liberal state, 17–22; and public action and democracy, 24–7; and rule of law, 22–4
- constitutional populism, 79, 82, 85–6, 87, 90; and the “generation” problem, 76–8
- constitutional problem of time, 8–9, 195–7, 198, 209, 210, 211
- constitutional reform, 174, 175, 186; British, 271–2, 274, 280, 288, 294
- constitutional revolution, 3, 8, 58n108
- constitutional structure, debates about, 294, 295
- constitutional text, see text (Constitution)
- constitutional theory, 152–3, 156–7, 180, 197; normativity of, 156; parts of, 157
- constitutionalism, 24–5, 54n47, 227n3, 236, 238; American, 16–63, 195, 196, 197, 213; as artifice, 49–50; conflict with democratic decision-making, 10–13; core elements of, 17; defining features of, 19; and democracy, 218; fixed rules in, 144n64; foundational questions of, 194, 197; philosophical inquiry regarding, 1–15; premises of, 32; revolutionary, 214; security central to, 27; and self-government, 197; universal features of, 248; see also written constitutionalism
- “Constitutionalism” (Hamilton), 16
- constitutionalism thesis, 217–19
- constitutive rules, 290–2
- constraints, constitutional, 271, 272, 274–6, 277–8, 279, 282, 286, 289–90, 294–5; as precommitments, 290–2, 293
- consumer protection legislation, 166, 167
- contemporary-consensus school, 213
- contemporary consent, 8
- content-independent: as obligation to apply the law, 44; as reason for action, 45, 46
- continuity, 24, 172, 174–6, 178, 181, 183, 184, 186, 189
- convention(s), 32, 100, 101, 174, 186
- conventional rule, 161–2
- coordination, 8, 167, 168, 171, 172
- countermajoritarian difficulty, 197, 198, 209, 218, 271, 272

- countries: constitutional interpretation in, 157, 176–80, 185; constitutions in, 152, 159, 169; lacking constitutions, 154–5; legal traditions of, 156
- courts, 10, 11, 12, 41–3, 49, 161; changing law by, 182; and constitutional meaning, 29; constitutional role of, 42; as courts of law, 207; doctrine of role of, 184–5; innovative interpretations by, 186; and interpretation, 177, 178, 179, 187, 189, 190; of last resort, 42, 43, 46; make the constitution, 191; moral considerations of, 184, 190–1; as norm-specifiers, 7, 113; other agencies of government complying with decisions of, 60n135; role of, 60n132; see also Supreme Court
- Crown (the), 168
- custom as social source of law, 171
- customary law, 32, 154, 157, 158, 206; repealed, 161
- Czech Republic, 168
- Czechoslovakia, 168
- decision making: mechanism of, 231n46; public, 291; see also democratic decision-making
- decision-making authority, 52n25
- decision procedures, 273
- decisional pathology, 282, 283
- decisional possibility (bindingness), 65–6, 85
- Declaration of Independence, 17, 18, 19, 223
- declarations of rights, 19, 21, 30
- deference of Supreme Court in interpreting Constitution, 123–5
- deliberation, 292, 293
- democracy(ies), 4, 34, 74–82, 86–7, 153, 188; and constitutional justice, 247, 250–1; constitutional order and, 24–7; constitutionalism and, 218; defined, 292; deliberative, 293; as demo-graphy, 213, 214, 216, 218, 219, 226; disagreements in, 294; egalitarian logic of, 239; fundamental rights in, 212; ideal form of, 244; majority rule in, 231n46; and political justice, 249; and popular sovereignty, 271–4, 278; self-rule in individual sense/in group sense, 252; temporally extended, 214; theory of, 172
- Democracy and Distrust* (Ely), 127, 232n52, 244
- democratarian theories of domain of constitutional justice, 244–7, 261, 265–6
- democratic debate, 90, 91
- democratic decision-making, 4–5, 6, 25–6; in conflict with constitutionalism, 10–13
- democratic institutions, 293
- democratic procedure, 88
- democratic process, 91
- democratic sovereignty, 74
- democratic will, entrenched rules against, 13
- demo-graphy: in America, 211–26; democracy as, 213, 214, 216, 218, 219, 226
- Derrida, Jacques, 201, 229n23
- Descartes, René, 229n23
- determinacy, 114
- Dickerson, Reed, 115
- directives, constitutional, 100; bowing to old/issuing new, 101–4; fidelity to, 136n12
- disagreement(s), 279–80, 293–4; good-faith, 289; about national laws, 120–4; precommitment and, 271–99; about rights, 282, 283–4, 286; or weakness of will, 281–5; see also reasonable disagreement
- discourse, constitutional, 236
- disestablishment of constitutional directives, 101–2, 103, 135n12
- disobedience, 4
- dissent/dissidents, 293, 295
- distancing devices, 190, 191

- distribution, fair, 166, 167 distributive justice, 243, 249–50, 256, 258 division of labor: constitutional, 236; among organs of government, 184–5 division of powers, 21 domain of constitutional justice, 235–70; continuing need for, 242–4; democratic theories of, 244–7; and extant constitutional tradition, 258–63; idea of, 235; and justice-seeking accounts, 239–44; political legitimacy and, 254; shape of, 257; understanding of, 265–7 domain of political justice, concerns of members of new political community as guide to, 247–51
Dred Scott versus Sanford, 123 dualist democracy, 97n64 duality, 215
 durability, 155
 Dworkin, Gerald, 19
 Dworkin, Ronald, 87, 197–8, 199,
   201–3, 219, 245, 261, 267n1, 272,
   278–9, 287–8
 Eastern Europe, 295 economic justice, 242–3, 255, 258, 262–3 economy, 186, 258
 education/educational opportunities, 166, 241, 260, 262
 egalitarian logic of democracy, 239
 Eighth Amendment, 37
 Eleventh Amendment, 223
 Elster, Jon, 276–7, 290, 291
 Ely, John, Hart, 110, 127–8, 212,
   232n52, 244–5, 247, 261
 enacted law, 157, 158 enforcement mechanisms, 119
 English political-legal culture, 130
 English Revolution of 1688–9, 17–19 entrenched (Constitution), 153, 185, 186 entrenched rules, 2, 3–4, 5, 13, 34 entrenchment, absolute, 136n14 equal membership, 253–4, 256, 258, 260, 261, 264, 266
 equal protection clause, 225, 233n66, 241, 278–9
 equal protection doctrine/law, 6, 204, 217, 221, 223
 equality, 248, 259
 essentialism, 190
 European Communities Act of 1971, 154 European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, 117, 122, 295n1
 European Court of Human Rights,
   117–18, 122, 126, 147n85, 295n1 executive branch: and deference to judicial, 131; and Supreme Court, 120, 121
 existential possibility (bindingness), 65 experience, constitutional, 263; domain of constitutional justice and, 258–63 expertise in authority, 167–8 external judgment, causal mechanisms versus, 276–81
 fact of reasonable interpretative pluralism, 88–9
 facticity, 7–8, 84
 facts: adjudicative, 112; difficulties about, 169–73
 fair and open government, 253–4, 256, 257, 258, 260, 261, 264, 266
 Fallon, Richard, 146n78 family law, 168
 federalism, 149n110, 153
Federalist, The, 30, 42, 143n56, 294 fidelity and innovation, 180–3
 “Fidelity in Constitutional Theory” (conference), 76–7
 Fifth Amendment, 106, 112, 139n88,
   233n66
 Filmer, Robert, 18
 Finnis, John, 29
 First Amendment, 106, 108, 116,
   142n49
 Fish, Stanley, 200 force, normative, 86 formal legal doctrines, 190–1

- Foucault, Michel, 229n23 foundational law, 218; constitution as, 210 foundational principles, 214 foundations of constitutional law, 194–8 founders, appeals to, 31
 Founding (the), 78, 219, 252, 255 founding generation(s), 33, 236; and judges, 37–8, 246, 264 founding moment, 273
 Fourteenth Amendment, 38, 99, 102, 105–6, 109–10, 112, 120, 122, 125, 128, 133, 138n28, 221–2, 223, 233n66, 241–2, 255, 279, 280 framers, 5, 25, 68, 81, 237; see also authors of constitution; constitution-makers framing generations, 265; and partnership with judiciary, 246, 264 Frankfurter, Felix, 129
 free riding, 171
 free speech, 257
 freedom, 275; opposition to, 295; time and, 9, 213–14 freedom of association, 21 freedom of expression, 188, 260, 261 freedom of speech, 106 freedom of the press, 106, 188 freedom to write, 218, 219
 Fuller, Lon, 115 fundamental law(s), 83, 87; codified set of, 89; constitution as, 45; justified character of, 88; mistaken constitutional precedents in, 105–7; rightness of, 82 fundamental-legal regime, 82, 83 fundamental rights, 212 future (the), norms to govern, 100 future generations, authority over, 164–9
- Gadamer, Hans-Georg, 118–19, 143n56, 228n16 “generation” problem, constitutional populism and, 76–8 generations: later, bound by old constitution, 195–6; prior, 79
- Germany, 136n14
 Gilmore, Grant, 27
 goals, disagreement with, 171, 172
Goldberg versus Kelly, 268n9 good life (the), 17, 26 governance, 1–2 government, 155; activist, 233n64; branches of, in constitution, 153; consent and, 163, 164; constitutional, 42–3, 49, 60n135; constitutional rules and, 24–5; division of labor among organs of, 184–5; form of, 173; keeping in order, 17–27, 39; under law, 40; limits on, 4, 37, 38, 45, 49; by popular majority, 292; power of, 4, 22, 37, 45, 188, 222, 253; relationship between subjects and, 17; structural features of, 259; written instruments of, 27–8 government assistance to meet basic material needs as constitutional right, 149n109; see also right to minimum welfare governmental authority, 236 governmental institutions, 21 grants of power, constitutional, 222, 224–5
Griswold versus Connecticut, 244–5, 260–1 group intention, 35
 Guinier, Lani, 294
- Habermas, Jürgen, 86–8, 89, 90, 91, 92
 Hamburger, Philip, 38
 Hamilton, Alexander, 21, 30, 42, 55n62
 Hamilton, Walton H., 16–17, 23, 29, 39, 48
 Hand, Learned, 132, 137n18, 227n3
 Hart, H. L. A., 38, 114, 115, 116, 143n60, 160
 Hart, Henry, 115
 Havel, Vaclav, 168
 hermeneutics, 197, 198; see also universal hermeneutics (methodology)

- historical acts of constitutional creation, 77, 78, 79, 86 historical legitimacy, 33, 35 historical-political act, 31, 32, 33 historical truth, 58n112
 historicist accounts, 9, 10, 236–7, 239, 265
 Hobbes, Thomas, 18, 42, 195, 197, 211, 272–3
 Holmes, Stephen, 195, 276, 287, 290, 291, 292, 293 homosexuality, 99, 133 human rights, international law of, 146n75 human-rights codifications, 89–90 hypothetical consent theories, 232n55
- identity (constitution), 1, 6 incommensurability, 189–90 independence, 244, 253–4, 256, 258, 260–1, 264, 266 indeterminacy, 112–16, 119, 183, 187, 190; of law, 181, 182; of moral reasons, 171–2; test of, 58n114 individual rights, 21–2, 48, 173; basic, 88; majorities and, 274 individuals: bound by laws they oppose, 287–8; in liberal constitutional democracy, 82–3; liberties of, 24, 236; as relevant moral unit in political discourse, 19–20; and self-government, 215, 216 innovation, 24, 186, 187, 189, 190–1; conservation and, 183, 184; fidelity and, 180–3 innovative interpretations, 8, 191 institution(s), 1–2; accounts of constitutional, 236–8; governmental, 21; symbolic value of, 168; see also legal institutions; political institutions institutional authority, lifetime of, 165 institutional relations in specifying norms, 7 institutional role, 183–6 intent, 29–33
 intention: of adopters, 144n69; in interpretation of texts, 114–16 intentional action, 66 intentional constitution, 64 intentionalism/intentionality, 65, 199, 206, 229n23; see also universal intentionalism intentions of authors/framers, 35, 36–7, 38, 68, 279; binding, 10; interpreting according to, 5, 9, 31–2, 38–9; meaning of Constitution dependent on, 9, 10; norms in, 6, 7 intergenerational dimension to precommitment, 287, 288–9 intergenerational heuristics, 77, 78–9 International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, 146n75 interpretability, 68
 interpretation, 1, 6, 8, 9, 24–5, 28, 58n108, 99, 107–19, 176–91, 197–8, 235; of Constitution, 112–19; of constitutions, 152–93; correctness of, 36; explanatory/descriptive, 182; and fidelity/innovation, 180–3; intention of constitution-makers and, 5, 9, 31–2, 38–9; and interpretive doctrines, 176–80; Janus-like aspect of, 177–8; legitimacy and, 194–234; methodologies of, 198–211; normative account of, 180; normative judgment and, 237; originalist mode of, 81; and paradigm-case method, 219–26; sources of guidance in, 197; study of, 176–7, 180; two senses of, 118–19
 interpretive doctrines, nature of, 176–80, 185 interpretive method, 9, 194, 197 interpretive theory, 157, 199, 203, 207; general, 180, 183, 197–8; see also unified theory of interpretation
 Iredell, Justice James, 28
 Israel, 50n1
 Jackson, Justice Robert, 29

- James II, king of England, 19
 Japan, 136nn14, 15
 Jefferson, Thomas, 28, 40, 195, 211, 287
 Jehovah's Witnesses, 129
 Jones, Thomas, 62n157
 judge-made law, 209
 judges, 4, 42, 190, 227n3, 236, 238–9;
 authority of decisions of, 210;
 conforming to law, 43–50; and continuity/innovation, 24; debating content of constitutional notion, 68;
 deciding according to sound policy, 145n70; declaring law, 232n53; founding generations and, 37–8; in historicist accounts, 237;
 interpretation by, 8, 176, 178–9, 203,
 207, 222, 225, 226, 229n18;
 interpretive method(s) of, 209, 210;
 judgment of, 247; justice-seeking, 239; and moral authority, 160; moral judgment of, 267n6; power of, to alter law, 39; role expectations of, 47; see also judiciary judgment, 113; abstraction and, 279–80;
 of judges, 247
 judicial activism, 184, 209 judicial amendment, 8 judicial aristocracy, 11 judicial branch: as arbiter of disagreements, 121; deferral of other branches to, 131
 judicial competence, 244 judicial constitutional decisions subject to legislative override, 209 judicial constitutional review, 55n62 judicial decision making, 236 judicial deviations, 48–9 judicial enforcement, 9, 10, 249, 250; distinguishing between Constitution and, 240–2
 judicial independence, 43 judicial interpretation, 89, 259 judicial intervention in name of democracy, 245, 246 judicial invention, 48 judicial restraint, 227n3, 246 judicial review, 1, 6, 60n132, 111, 119–20, 123, 129, 130, 131–2, 151n129, 232n52; bill of rights with, 271, 272, 274; disagreement in, 282–3, 285; justification of, 137n18, 280–1; in precommitment, 275; proposed modification of,
 135n11
 judicial role, 238
 judicial supremacy, 12, 120, 122–3, 130, 131 judicial underenforcement, 240–2, 243–4, 264, 265, 269n22
 judiciary, 196, 238, 249, 251; enforcing unenumerated rights, 127–8; judgment about rights by, 12; life-tenured, 236; moral judgment of, 279; partnership of, with framing generations, 264; power of judgment of, 280; principles/precepts enforceable by, 256–7, 265; role of, 42, 246; specification of norms of, 128 jurisprudence, 259–60, 264; “plain-meaning,” 213
 justice, 9–10, 83, 89; administration of, 188; congruence with, 85, 88, 90; as fairness, 89; and legitimacy, 89 justice, constitutional, 237, 246, 248, 249; architecture of, 244; boundaries of, 244; concerns of, 258; justifying and constraining burdens of membership in political community crucial project of, 252–3; limits of, 265–7; principle of parsimony in, 257, 266; see also domain of constitutional justice justice-based constitutional interpretation, 221
 justice-bearing provisions
 (Constitution), 235
 justice-seeking accounts, 9–10, 85, 236, 238, 239–44, 246, 247, 263, 264, 265, 266
 justiciable, 153

- justification, 86, 88, 91; in liberal constitutional democracy, 82–5; moral, 90, 92; principle and practice in, 169–76
- Kafka, Franz, 27
- Kant, Immanuel, 87
- Karst, Kenneth, 270n23
- Kay, Richard S., 4–5, 7, 8, 16–63
- Kelsen, Hans, 72–3, 84, 92, 93n16
- knowledge of constitution, 175
- Kronman, Anthony, 113
- language, 28–9; of constitution-makers, 38–9; of legal text(s), 114–16; meaning of, 35–6; modes of understanding, 204; need for clarification of constitutional, 109–10
- law: as artifice, 49–50; authority of, 32, 157–8; autonomous, 186–91; awareness of, 60n130; and conduct/practice, 17, 41, 90; constitution as, 153, 154 (see also constitutional law); Constitution as, 67; constitutive/fundamental, 75–6; development of, 155, 177; dichotomy between understanding and applying, 118–19; dual character of, 9, 169–71; good/bad, 165, 170; government under, 40; language and meaning of, 28; legislated character of, 65; limitation by, 23; and morality, 158, 159, 161, 169–72; nature of, 206–8; normative aspect of, 170; state and, 18–19; temporal limit on, 167, 168; theory of, 159, 207–8; unconditional moral imperatives in, 166–7; unified interpretive method applicable to, 205–7; varies, 152; what it is/what it ought to be, 181, 182
- law-following, 43–50; explanations for, 41–3
- lawmaker(s): identity of, and validity of law, 158; intentions of, 206
- lawmaking, 82, 83, 88; constitutional, 80–1; higher, 218–19
- Lawson, Gary, 150n112
- Laycock, Doug, 129
- Least Dangerous Branch, The* (Bickel), 213
- legal authority and moral authority, 159–60
- legal communication, 28
- legal considerations where law is autonomous, 186–91
- legal development, autonomous, 157
- legal directives, deliberately indeterminate, 58n113
- legal doctrine, 190–1
- legal institutions, 155, 160; temporally limited authority of, 167, 169
- legal interpretation, 179–80, 208
- legal nonvolitionism, 68–74, 83, 84
- legal order, 69, 71, 73; coercion by, 85; grounding of validity of, 72–3
- legal positivism, 69, 71
- legal-recognitional standard, 70, 71, 72
- legal rules, 27, 46, 114; authority of, 47; compliance with, 41; potency of, 40–1; regarded as binding, 44; submission to, 43
- legal structure, Constitution and, 153
- legal system(s), 69–70, 153; law(s) founding, 194; rules of interpretation of, 179; tribunals in, 239
- legal text(s), application of, 68
- legal validation, 73
- legality, 205
- legislating/legislation, 65, 70; and authority of Constitution, 71–2; mediation through, 171, 172–3; of sovereign, 74, 75; U.S. Constitution as, 64–8
- legislating people, 77, 79–80, 81
- legislative branch: and judicial supremacy, 131; and Supreme Court, 121–2
- legislative protection, 9, 10
- legislature, 25–6; and intention of framers, 11, 12; mediates between law and morality, 170–1; restraint of, 260–1

- legitimacy, 87, 194–7; democratic, 25, 26; and interpretation, 194–234; justice and, 89; of law, 91, 170; moral/legal conditions in, 160; through practice, 173–4; requirements of, 209
- legitimacy (constitution), 30–3, 34, 35, 45, 157, 161, 173, 174, 175, 187–8, 215; authors of constitution in, 176; over time, 33–5
- legitimation (methodology), 199, 208–11
- liberal conscience to liberal justice, 82–3
- liberal constitutional democracy, 76, 81–2, 85–92; coercion, justification, and conscience in, 82–5
- liberal constitutional responsibility, 83–4
- liberal justice, liberal conscience to, 82–3
- liberal political moralists, 87
- liberal state, 25–6; constitutional order and, 17–22
- liberalism, 19, 215
- liberty, 248, 259
- liberty-bearing provisions (Constitution), 235, 236, 237–8, 242, 247, 257, 259–60, 264
- Lincoln, Abraham, 123, 297n31
- literary criticism, 28
- litigation, 48
- local–global dualism, 248
- local governments, 264
- local interpretive practices, 169, 179
- localism, 264
- Lochner* versus New York, 243, 258
- Lochnerizing, 260
- Locke, John, 18, 22, 39, 52n25, 87, 255, 272–3, 286
- MacCormick, Neil, 22, 49–50, 115
- M'Culloch* versus Maryland, 58n116
- Madison, James, 21, 30, 143n56, 259, 282
- Magna Carta, 59n125, 119
- majoritarian politics, 103–4
- majority(ies), 4, 127, 226, 282, 293; can be unjust, 274; in constitution-making, 35, 36; current, thwarted by constitutionalism, 11–12; past, 11; and precommitment, 289
- majority decision, 293
- majority rule, 231n46
- majority will and legitimacy, 196–7
- majority will conception of self-government, 212
- Marbury* versus Madison, 27, 28, 30, 31, 137n18
- margin of appreciation doctrine, 126
- market economy, 255, 263
- Marshall, John, 27, 28, 29, 30, 58n116, 137n18
- material well-being, 255–8, 261, 263, 270n23
- Matthews* versus Eldridge, 268n9
- meaning, 29–33, 35; intended, 36
- mediation, legal, 171, 172–3
- medical care, 240, 262
- merit reason(s), 174, 187–9
- metaconstitution, 2–3, 8
- metarules, 2, 3, 4
- methodologies: of constitutional method, 198–211; interpretive, 1
- Michaels, Walter Benn, 30
- Michelman, Frank I., 5–6, 8, 29–30, 32, 64–98, 194, 245, 261, 268n11
- Mill, John Stuart, 52n25, 87, 231n45
- minimalism, 150n112
- minorities, 24, 196, 274, 282, 295; opposition and dissent by, 293
- minority rights, 231n46
- Montesquieu, Baron de la Brède et de, 23, 40
- Moore, Michael, 137n18
- moral agency, 85
- moral approach to interpretation, 179
- moral authority, legal authority and, 159–60
- moral authority of law, moral authority of its authors and, 170
- moral conflicts transmuted into constitutional conflicts, 99, 133

- moral considerations: in constitution, 7–8, 238; where law is autonomous, 186–91
- moral expertise, 7, 8
- moral imperatives, unconditional, 166–7
- moral justification, 90, 92
- moral knowledge, 217
- moral merit of constitution, 183–6
- moral principles, concretizing, 172
- moral reasoning, 6
- moral rights, 1; determined by judiciary, 11
- moral shortfall of Constitution, 239–40, 242, 265
- moral status of norm(s), 69
- moral theory of law, 207
- moral views, contemporary, 5
- morality: in interpretation, 178, 179, 180–1, 184; law and, 158, 159, 161, 169–72; of structure of state organs, 185; underdetermines content of constitution, 173, 174, 175–6, 183
- Mrs. Murphy exemptions, 260
- nation-states, 18
- national government of limited powers, 253
- natural law, 137n17, 212
- natural rights, 18, 19, 22, 27–8
- negative positivism, 94n10
- negative power, 54n58
- New Deal, 77, 78, 227n3, 233n64
- New Zealand, 50n1, 294
- Ninth Amendment, 106
- normative authority, 67
- norms, 2, 84; defined, 93n16; determinate, 115; dichotomy between understanding and applying, 118–19; difficulties about, 169–73; grounding, 71; and grounding validity of other norms, 73; indeterminate, 7, 125–6; metaconstitutional, 5, 13; ontology of, 7; primary, 69; right- or liberty-granting, 128, 130, 131–2; secondary, 70; specification of, 7, 125–6, 128–30
- norms, constitutional, 6, 262; constituting Constitution, 99, 100; Constitution as, 68–9; and Constitution<sub>2</sub>, 100, 104–8; for constitutional essentials, 65; enforcement mechanism of, 119; indeterminate, 112–16, 118–19, 126, 128–9, 131, 132, 135n11, 146n78, 150n113; interpreting, 118–19; new, 57n106; Supreme Court interpretation of, 121, 122
- Oakeshott, Michael, 20
- obedience to law, 43–50
- obligations, 225; consent and, 164
- opportunity to thrive, 253–4, 261–2, 264, 266; defense of, 254–8
- order reasons, 187
- Oregon, 140n41
- original intent, 1, 31–2, 220, 221
- original meaning of constitution, 8
- original position, 87, 89
- original understanding, 222, 225
- originalism, 9, 14n11, 150n112, 199, 205, 209, 213, 218, 222; past will in, 232n51
- originary constitutive moment, 91–2
- originating constitutions, nature of authority of makers of, 158–60
- Paine, Thomas, 20
- paradigm-case method, 9, 116, 219–26
- parliamentary democracy, 238
- Partial Constitution, The* (Sunstein), 294
- particular (the), 263–5
- Passions and Constraint* (Holmes), 290
- past (the): and authority of constitution(s), 164–9; governing the present, 9
- past will, 212, 213, 216, 219; in originalism, 232n51
- people (one), 9

- people(s), 216; acts of speech of, 231n45; attaining self-government, 217–18; consent of, 35; as constituent authority, 30–1, 32, 33; constitution as act of, 210; constitutional rules issuing from, 57n101; contemporary will of, 78, 79, 86; freedom to repudiate, 226; popular sovereignty of, 290; precommitment and disagreement, 285–90; representatives of, 32; and self-government, 214–15; temporally extended, 219–20; title to rule, 74–82; who established and amended the Constitution, 134n7
- permit, intent to, 222, 223, 224
- Perry, Michael J., 6–7, 8, 38, 57n106, 58n113, 114, 60n132, 94n25, 99–151
- personal autonomy, 22
- personal rights and liberties, 65
- persons in self-government, 215
- philosophy of language, 28
- physician-assisted suicide, 99, 133
- plan(ning), 22–3, 24
- pluralist society, 26, 27
- Pocock, J. G. A., 59n125
- police state, 20
- political action/acts, 77, 100
- political actors, 236
- political akrasia, see akrasia
- political association, 20
- political authority: basis of, 167–8; boundaries of, 166; distribution of, 18
- political community, 103–4, 105, 106, 215, 267, 290; burdens of membership in, 251–4, 266; commitments to minimum welfare of its members, 262; concerns of members of, as guide to domain of political justice, 247–51; and indeterminate norms, 113, 114; judging and constraining disappointments and burdens of membership in, 247–58; plurality of, 286; procedural rules of, 292
- political consensus, 154–5
- political culture, 25, 294, 295
- political decision-making, 273–4; precommitment and disagreement in, 286, 291, 294
- political decisions: causal mechanisms versus external judgment of, 276–7; preference-driven/judgment driven, 249
- political discourse, 19, 20, 293
- Political Equality* (Beitz), 294
- political government, plan of, 65
- political identity, 74–82; and rightness, 79–82
- political institutions, 19, 20, 242, 246; constitutive rules of, 290–2; responsibility for maintenance of constitutional guarantees lies in, 262
- political justice, 236, 238, 239, 240, 241, 244, 246, 247, 259, 263; domain of, 247–51; fundamental demands of, 267; historicist account founded in, 267n2; limits of constitutional justice and, 265–7; material requirements of, 257–8; opportunity to thrive in, 256; right to minimum welfare in, 262; in/and U.S. Constitution, 254
- political-legal culture (American), 132; rights in, 130–1
- political-legal systems, 216
- political legitimacy, 199, 205, 254
- political morality, 1–2, 3, 4, 11, 24, 45, 46, 157, 190; court's view of, 12; interpreting according to, 9; judicial review and, 130
- political opposition, 293
- political order, 17
- political philosophy, 198, 199
- political power, allocation of, 131
- political practice, 264
- political procedures, 290–1, 295
- political-regime constitution(s), 65
- political structure, 153, 155, 295

- political theory, 18–19, 198, 209, 210–11
- political thought, 282
- political views, contemporary, 5
- politics, 103, 104; constitutional, 218–19; constitutional development separated from, 185–6; and constitutions, 155, 156, 174, 247; inscriptive, 217–18; insulation of constitutional judgment from, 236; judgment in, 280; justice in, 250–1
- polity, goals of, 54n47
- Politzeistaat*, 20, 53n47
- popular assent in legitimizing constitutional rules, 57n101
- popular authorship, 213
- popular choice, judicially unenforced constitutional rights and, 251
- popular constitutional decision making, 236
- popular mobilizations, 78, 79, 80–1
- popular sovereignty, 79–80, 81, 277, 290, 293; in constitution-making, 137n17; democracy and, 271–4
- popular voice, 219; and constitutional text, 211–13, 218
- popular will, 212–13, 219; self-government by, 213
- popularity thesis, 214–15
- positive law, 19
- Posner, Richard, 58n113, 115, 146n78
- power: exclusive, 225; limits of, 21, 37; of words engrossed on parchment, 27–39; see also public power; state power
- powers, rights and, 224
- practice, 186, 189; in justification, 169–76; knowledge of, 175; legitimacy through, 173–4; quasi-constitutional, 121, 123
- practice, constitutional, 244; accounts of, 235–9, 248; backward-looking, 237, 239, 265; forward-looking, 239, 265; justice-seeking view of, 247; justification of, 263–4
- precedent, 223; overruling, 138n23
- precepts, constitutional, need for parsimonious clarity in, 256, 257
- precommitment, 13, 274–6, 277–8, 295; and assurance, 292–5; causal mechanism or external judgment as, 279–81; constitutional constraints as, 290–2, 293; and disagreement, 271–99; motivation of, 281–5; of the people, 285–90
- predicted will, 212, 213, 216, 219
- preference-driven questions, 249
- pre-political rights, 212–13, 220
- present will, 211, 212, 213, 216, 219, 226, 227n3; self-government of, 213
- president, 128; deferring to Supreme Court, 123–4, 131
- principle in justification, 169–76
- principles: and application, 144n69; of justice, 1–2, 9, 11
- principles, constitutional, 223, 224, 226; judicially unenforceable, 242
- privileges and immunities, protecting, 105–6, 109–10, 120, 139n28
- problem of political liberalism, 89
- procedural-sense democracy, 87, 97n74
- process, 244
- process-based school, 213
- processualism, 218
- prohibit, intent to, 222, 224
- proposition of fact, constitution as, 68–74
- psychological repose, 27
- psychology of powers, 21
- public accountability of public actions (principle), 190
- public action, constitutional order and, 24–7
- public issues, constitutional, 127
- public life, 175
- public opinion, 86, 286, 287
- public power, 16, 18, 22, 32, 37, 44, 48; controlled by enforcement of superior law, 16; rules for governing exercise of, 44; sphere of, 18
- public reason, 239

- public sphere, 26
 Pufendorf, S., 195
- quasi-constitutional practice, 121, 123
 “quasi-constitutional” status, 57n106
- racial justice, 260 racial segregation, 99, 133
 Rapaczynski, Andrzej, 111 rational action, 189, 190 rational necessity, 66–7 rational possibility (bindingness), 65 rationality of precommitment, 284, 288–9
 Rawls, John, 26, 87, 88, 89, 96n56, 232n55, 267n5, 284
 Raz, Joseph, 4, 7–8, 22, 24–5, 31, 58n108, 152–93, 194, 207, 208 reading the Constitution as written, 219–20, 222, 226 reason, 88, 97n74; constitutional, 81; will and, 75 reasonable disagreement, 91, 283–4; about compelling government interest, 116–17; about conflict resolution, 112; about meaning of norms of constitution, 111, 120, 124 reasonable pluralism, 88, 89, 91 reasoning: interpretive, 179, 180; legal, 183 reasons in consent/authority, 163, 164
Rechstaat, 53n47
 Reconstruction, 78, 253, 255
 Reconstruction amendments, 77, 247, 253 regime: constitutional, 85, 91; fundamental-legal, 82, 83 regulation: mutual, 41–2; public, 19; by rule, 24
 Reid, John Phillip, 51n10 religious freedom, 106, 108–9, 116, 129, 260, 261 Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 109, 116, 122, 125 reluctant judgment accounts, 267n6 representative government, 75, 78 republican virtue, 20–1 republicanism, 215 reserved right of revolution, 34 responsibility: and authority–authorship syndrome, 84–5; liberal constitutional, 83–4 Restoration, 18 restraint, written rules as instruments of, 27–9 restraint(s), constitutional, 20, 21; implementation of, 31–2 right (the), 208 right- or liberty-granting norms, 128, 130, 131–2 right reason, 65; act(s) of, 9 “right reason” style of interpretation, 231n40 right to minimum welfare, 239, 240–1, 242, 243, 256–8, 261–3, 264, 266–7 right to privacy, 213, 244–5, 261 rightness, 76, 77, 79, 81, 86; of fundamental laws, 82; political identity and, 79–82 rightness considerations, 75, 76 rights, 137n17; constitutional, 130, 212, 219; constitutional, and ideal of self-government, 213; core application of constitutional, 220–6; disagreement about, 282, 283–4, 286; enforcement of unenumerated/enumerated, 127–8; established by framers, 11–12; fundamental, 212; interpretation of constitutional, 220, 223; judicially unenforced, 251; paradigm cases of constitutional, 222; and powers, 224; private, 20; protection of, 18, 105–6; unenumerated, 233n65; written, 222 rights-foundationalism, 97n64 rigidity, 4, 26
 Roman Empire, 154
 Rosenfeld, Michel, 26
 Rousseau, J.-J., 195, 211, 231n45
 Rubinfeld, Jed, 8–9, 54n49, 57n101, 194–234 rule-following, 4, 6 rule of law, 4–5, 37, 48, 53n47, 208; constitutional order and, 22–4; force of, 46

- “rule of law” state, 20
- rule of recognition, 1, 5, 6, 71, 72; argument from, 160–2; from historical practice, 77; ultimate, 70
- rules, 3, 4, 27; authoritative, 5; and conduct, 39–41; constitutive, 290–2; constraining, 16; distinct from standards, 7; entrenched, 2, 3–4, 5, 13, 34; fixed, 17, 27–8, 31–2, 33, 39, 45, 144n64; formal promulgation of, 40–1; good enough, 2; ignorance of consequences of, 61n144; imposition of, on the state, 21–2; indeterminate, 38, 114; interpretation of, 5; of interpretation, 179–80; merits of, 157–8; metaconstitutional, 6; stable and knowable, 25, 34–5; unwritten, 233n72; written, 5, 27–9; see also legal rules
- rules, constitutional, 23–4, 25, 26, 27, 33–5, 37, 223, 224; courts and, 43;
 fixed quality of, 24; interpretation and application of, 35–9, 42, 44–5; legitimacy of, 32–3; limits imposed by, 29–30; meaning of, 36, 39, 58n108; restraining capacity of, 43,
 44; writtenness of, 28
- rules of application, 226
- Sacks, Albert, 115
- safety regulations, 166, 167
- Sager, Lawrence, 9–10, 37, 221, 235–70
- sanctions, 41–3; compliance without, 43–50
- Sandalow, Terrance, 149n109
- Scalia, Antonin, 140n41
- Schauer, Frederick, 94n25
- Schmitt, Carl, 231n45
- security, 23, 27
- selective attention, 47
- self-determination, 22, 245, 252
- self-government, 25, 78, 80, 81, 88, 226–7, 275; conception(s) of, 211–13, 214, 215, 217–18, 219;
 constitution as act of, 210;
 constitutionalism and, 197;
 individuals’ interests in, 82–3; and legitimacy of constitution, 195;
 precommitment as, 279–81, 287–8
- self-legitimation, 169, 174–5, 176
- self-life-writing, 214, 215
- self-referentiality problem, 199–203;
 way out of, 203–5
- self-rule, 75, 77, 81; collective, 79; in individual sense/in group sense, 252
- self-validation, 173
- separability thesis, 94n20
- separated powers, constitutional system
 of, 41
- sex-based discrimination, 99, 133
- Shelly* versus Kramer, 243
- Sherman Antitrust Act, 206
- side constraints, 184
- Slaughter-House Cases*, 141n42
- slavery, 241–2, 253, 264
- slaves, emancipated, 255
- social acceptance: of constitution, 65, 66–7, 70; in validity of norms, 69
- social choice, 11
- social conditions: and change in law,
 186; and constitutional theory, 155, 156
- social contracts, 212
- social fact(s), 89, 170, 171, 172;
 recognition rule is, 70, 71
- social institutions mediate between law and morality, 170–1
- social practice, 73; as legal practice,
 94n19
- social processes, “subjectless,” 83, 84
- social welfare programs, reform of, 262
- societas*, 20
- society(ies), 215, 216; and constitutions, 155
- “soft” positivism, 94n19
- South Africa, 72
- Southern black codes, 221–2
- sovereign, authority of, 18
- sovereign will, 208, 211, 212

- sovereignty, 66; theory of, 74–82
 Soviet Union, 295
 specification, 6, 132, 143n56; of Constitution<sub>2</sub>, 112–19, 125–33; of indeterminate norms, 150n113 speech, acts of, 231n45 speech-modeled self-government, 211–13, 218
 stability, 5, 25, 26, 34, 153, 155, 174–6, 183, 185, 186, 187
 standards, 7
 state: constitutional obstacles to flexibility of, 25; courts as organs of, 184–5; limiting power of, 18–19, 22, 23; as means to accomplish corporate goals, 24; purpose of, 18, 20; as subject of constitutional restraint, 21;
 and subjects, 52n25
 state agencies, mutual regulation of, 41–2
 state authority, specification of, 34 state constitutions, 19; declarations of rights in, 30
 state governments, 105, 106, 112, 122,
 138n28, 264, 279
 state law(s), 126–7
 state power, 27, 33; in constitutionalism, 34; to impose burdens “onerous and unexpected,” 54n49; justification of, 32; limits on, 29, 51n10; risks of, 17; scope of, 22
 state ratification conventions, 26, 30–1, 35 state regulation, danger of, 22 states, 21; politics of, 104 status quo neutrality, 269n16 statutes, 103, 161; authority of, 210; interpretation of, 206; old, 165;
 validity of, 157
 Stevens, 141n41
 Stevens, Wallace, 49 substantive legitimacy, 33–4, 35
 Sunstein, Cass, 269n16, 294
 supermajoritarian amendment process, 226
 Supreme Court, 5, 29, 42, 43, 48,
 49, 96n62, 108, 118, 213, 239, 241–2, 243, 260; deference of, in interpreting Constitution, 123–33;
 and independence, 260–1; Lincoln on, 297n31; role of, in constitutional adjudication, 105, 111; striking down laws as unconstitutional, 104–7;
 supreme in interpreting Constitution,
 99, 119–33
 Supreme Court justices, 43, 102, 109, 112, 119, 120, 236
 supreme law, Constitution as, 70, 153 supremacy of Supreme Court, 119–24 symbolic value in authority, 167, 168 symbols/symbolism, 2, 3, 6, 8 temporal orientation of self-government, 211, 212
 temporality, 213–14, 219; see also time Tempting of America, The (Bork), 205 text (Constitution), 10, 58n108, 99, 112, 134n6, 137n18, 219, 236, 240;
 interpreting, 118, 119; popular voice
 and, 211–13
 text(s), 29–33, 67, 68, 218; “correct” interpretation of, 28; decoding, 237; democratically enacted, 196; giving lives, 214; historical inquiry into, 110, 111; interpretation of, 114–16, 200, 203–4; meaning of, 38; taking seriously, 219; true or correct meaning of, 201; unintelligibility of, 108
 Thayer, James Bradley, 117, 126, 128,
 129, 130, 227n3
 theory of interpretation, 157, 179;
 general, 197–8; mistakes in, 182–3; unified, 203, 205, 210
Theory of Justice (Rawls), 232n55 theory of law, 159, 170, 207–8; unified, 207
Thirteenth Amendment, 241, 242
 Thomas, 225
 Tiedeman, Christopher, 194

- time: in commitment, 216–17, 223;
 constitutional legitimacy over, 33–5;
 and freedom, 213–14; see also constitutional problem of time
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 21, 282
- tort law, 166
- totalitarian state, 23
- tradition, constitutional, 265; domain of constitutional justice and extant, 258–63
- Trial, The* (Kafka), 27
- tribunals, 239
- trust, 17, 39–50
- Truth and Method* (Gadamer), 143n56
- Twenty-seventh Amendment, 133n1
- Two Treatises* (Locke), 18
- Tyranny of the Majority, The* (Guinier), 294
- Ulysses' autonomy (model), 54n47, 275, 279, 281, 283, 284, 285–90, 291
- uncertainty, 23
- underdetermination argument, 173, 175–6, 183, 187, 189
- unified theory of interpretation, 203, 205, 210
- unified theory of law, 207
- unintelligibility, 119
- United Kingdom, 168, 273, 295;
 constitutional reform in, 271–2, 274, 280, 288, 294
- United States, 295; constituent authority in, 30
- United States Constitution, 3, 5, 21, 25, 27, 30, 35, 38, 40, 169, 195, 217,
 278; Article I, 108, 225; Article II,
 108, 110; Article III, 120; Article V,
 34, 70, 80, 101, 102, 103, 105,
 135n11, 195–6; Article VII, 70; authority-as-law of, 70; distinctness of, 209–10; distinguishing between its judicial enforcement and, 240–2;
 and domain of constitutional justice, 235–9; everyday knowledge of,
 68–9; as highest law, 77;
 historicist/justice-seeking accounts of, 9–10; judicially unenforceable portion of, 244, 248–9, 250;
 judicially unenforced, 251; as law, 205, 207, 208; legal force of, 71–2;
 as legislation, 64–8; meaning of, 29; moral shortfall of, 239–40; political justice in, 254; power-granting provisions of, 222; Preamble, 100; ratification of, 30–1; as ultimate legal grounding, 73; what it is, 99–151; see also under specific amendments; interpretation
- United States government, 49
- universal (the), 263–5
- universal hermeneutics (methodology), 199–205
- universal intentionalism, 197, 199–200, 203–5
- universitas*, 20
- Unwritten Constitution* (Tiedeman), 194
- validity, 90, 91; changing reasons for, 169
- values, ordering of, in choice of regime, 26–7
- vulgar deconstruction position, 197, 199, 200, 201, 203
- Waldron, Jeremy, 4, 10–13, 130–1, 132, 271–99
- Warren Court, 244
- “We the people,” norms established by,
 100, 101, 104, 105–7, 108–12, 114–15, 120
- We the People* (Ackerman), 151n129
- weakness of will, disagreements on, 281–5
- Weber, Max, 25
- Wechsler, Herbert, 149n110, 207
- West Virginia State Board of Education versus Barnette*, 129

- will, 86; act(s) of, 9; collective, 215, 216; democratic, 219–20; and reason, 75
- will of the governed, 212–13
- will of the people, 76, 293; contemporary, 90
- Wilson, James, 30
- words on parchment, 17, 47; power of, 27–39
- working democracy, 245–6, 265
- worst-it-can-be interpretation, 230n26
- writing, 213–19
- written constitution, 153, 154, 195, 210
- written constitutionalism, 213, 218–19, 226–7; foundations of, 198; unwritten rules of constitutional law within, 233n72
- writtenness, 1, 9, 27–9, 137n18, 153