

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

Index

- Abbott, Edith, 49
 Abe, Isoo, 302–03, 304–05
 abolition of slavery, 42
 accommodation: in politics, 9;
 successful, 34
 Addams, Jane, 240, 242, 247, 259n
 Adler, Dankmar, 62
 adult education, 182, 183–84;
 Alekseev, 348; pragmatism, 188;
 worker schools, 190. See also education; vocational education advertising, 55
 African-Americans: city charter reform, 251; contemporary, 369;
 early race relations, 44–46, 45n;
 Great Migration, 45, 258–59,
 262; Harrison support, 328;
 reformers, 245; strikebreakers, 157, 261; tenements, 262–63
 agrarianism, 299
 agricultural machinery, 52
 Alaverdian, Stepan, 266, 282–83 alcohol consumption, 204. See also liquor sales; Prohibition
 Alekseev, Aleksandra, 345
 Alekseev, Nikolai, 333–49; new industrial political regime, 31;
 significance, 319–20
 Alekseev, Semyon, 336, 337
 Alexander II: municipal liberalization,
 91; vocational education, 183
 Allen Law, 150, 151–52, 153, 155
 All-Russian Society of People's
 Universities, 198
 All-Russian Union of Towns, 282
 almshouses, 279, 283
 Altgeld, John Peter, 149, 149n annexation movement, 236–38, 239 anti-Bolshevik red scare of 1919, 262 anti-Semitism, 35, 347
 architects, Chicago, 61–67
 architecture: Chicago, 61–67; Moscow, 72–74; Osaka public buildings, 220–22; Western, in Japan, 218, 220, 221–22
 Arnold, Bion J., 161, 167, 171–72
 Arnold Report, 161
 art collections: 84, 84n; Tretiakov
 Gallery, 196, 345
 Art Nouveau, 221
 assembly-line production, 54
 Association of Industry and Trade
 (Moscow), 86
 authoritarianism, 93 authority: notions of, 305; politics of balance, 36
 autocracy, 179–82
 automobiles, Osaka, 222, 354 balloon-frame construction, 43, 43n banking: Japan, 214; Moscow, 16n, 87; Osaka, 111–12; St. Petersburg, 16n; zaibatsu system, 214–15
 Bank of Japan building, 219, 220
 Barcelona, 361
 Bauman, Nikolai, 287
 beautification, urban, 213, 214
 Beman, Spencer, 63
 Bloom, Sol, 59, 59n
 Bogolepov, Nikolai, 181–82 Bolsheviks: 191n, 290–91; people's university, 199

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

452

Index

- book trade, 203; Moscow, 79, 79n boss politics: Alekseev, 346–47; New York, 13; Osaka, 125–26, 126n, 128. See also political machine bourgeoisie: attitudes/prejudices,
 Chicago, 9–11; industrial, 20
 Brennan, George “Red,” 328
 British Arts and Crafts style, 221 brokers, 39–40
 budgets: housing in Moscow, 286;
 Osaka, 212; port-improvement
 project, 224–25, 226
 Buenos Aires (Argentina), 117n
Burakumin communities, 120, 120n
 bureaucracy: corporate, 27–28;
 Osaka, 126
 Burke, Robert E. “Bobby,” 327
 Burnham, Daniel, 62
 business class, U.S., 8
 Busse, Fred A. “Fat Freddie,” 165, 166
- cable traction railways, 147, 148 capitalism, 18–19; aggressive foreign policy, 213; capitalist cities in transition, 21–25; contradictions and tensions, 19; creative destruction, 20–21; Meiji elites, 102; monopoly, 215; Moscow-style, 342; Old Believer, 80–83; Osaka, 103. See also laissez-faire cartelization, 110, 214, 215 case study approach, 34–35, 366– 67 Catherine the Great, 81, 85n Catholic women, 244–45
 Central Hall (Osaka), 219, 220–21
 centralization, 210
 Central Relief Association (CRA),
 247
 Cermak, Anton “Tony,” 253, 257, 264 charity: Alekseev, 345, 346; Moscow, 93, 187–88, 283–84, 348–49;
 Osaka, 307; public education, 205; women’s role, 195
 charter reform, 233; opponents, 255–56; reforms, 238–40; women reformers, 240–45
 Chekhov, Anton, 32, 282
- Chernyshevsky, Nikolai, 191
 Chicago: contemporary, 368, 369–70; lakefront parkland, 170n; natural advantages, 40–41; origins of city’s name, 39n; Porkopolis,
 39–69; as skyscraper metropolis,
 65; street figures, 9–11; toughness,
 356
 Chicago Board of Trade, 60, 103n
 Chicago City Railway Company,
 142–43
 Chicago Commons, 240
 Chicago Federation of Labor, 156,
 163, 171, 249, 251
 Chicago Industrial School, 245
 Chicago Literacy Committee, 179
 Chicago Mercantile Exchange, 60
 Chicago New Charter Convention,
 249
 Chicago Race Riot of 1919, 259–64
 Chicago School: of commercial architecture, 62, 63, 65; of pragmatist philosophy, 264; of
 Social Work, 242
 Chicago School Board, 249
 Chicago Union Traction Company,
 146, 147, 162
 Chicago West Division Railway
 Company, 142
 Chicherin, Boris, 343, 345
 children, 275; child labor, 308;
 infants, 276, 277; orphanages, 279
 Chinese nationals, 121, 121n cholera outbreak, 277, 279
 churches, Moscow, 73
 Citizens Association (Chicago), 240 city charter issue. See charter reform
 City Club (Chicago), 243–44
 City Council Street Railway Commission, 152–53, 160
 city planning, 212–13, 215; Gilded Age, 236; Meiji, 216–18; Osaka under Seki, 354
 civic action, periodic systemic collapse, 99, 101
 civic associations, 243–48
 civic consciousness, 9
 civic culture, Moscow, 204

- Civic Federation of Chicago, 161, 235, 246–47, 248–49, 251; redistricting wards, 254–56
- civil society, 6, 32
- Civil War, 42
- Clos i Matheu, Joan, 361
- commercial cities, 357; boom-and-bust cycles, 18; London, 16
- Committee on Local Transportation, 152, 160–61
- Committee of Public Safety, 290
- commodity fetishes, 47
- Communist International, 303
- Communist Party: Japan, 304; USSR, 191n, 199
- community, notion of, 20
- commuter rail lines: 148, 148n; Osaka, 207–08. See also railways
- comparative perspective, 2; central issues, 11–12; cultural and economic particularity, 30–34; importance of, 4–7; power and wealth, 13
- complexity, administrative, Kawasaki region, 14
- Compromise Ordinances, 164–65, 166, 167; as consumer issue, 172; criticized, 170, 171; optimal outcome, 172
- construction, values in Chicago, 65n
- consumer culture, Moscow, 204
- consumer preferences, 172
- contentiousness, 9
- contestation, 29
- Cook County, Illinois, 237
- corporate bureaucracy, 27–28
- corporations: middle-class reforms, 171; railways as early, 55
- corruption: achievement versus, 330; Big Bill Thompson, 263; Chicago City Council, 150; Dunne on, 254; Merriam on, 320; Osaka, 125; Osaka real estate, 227; Osaka tram routes, 208; port-improvement project, 225–26; relative organization, 331; Russian officials, 275–76; traction issue, 148
- Cottage Grove Avenue, 60–61
- Coughlin, John “Bathhouse,” 138, 154, 327, 328, 330
- Cowperwood, Frank Algernon, 135–36
- Crawford, Charles H., 148
- creative cities, 362–63
- Creiger, DeWitt C., 147
- cultural centers: Chicago, 56–57; Moscow, 367
- Daley, Richard J., 253, 257, 264, 333
- Darrow, Clarence, 165
- death penalty protests, 185
- debt, public: Chicago city revenues, 67–68, 69
- Delianov, Ivan, 181
- democracy: compromises, 19–20; as consumer preferences, 172; municipal ownership as extending, 171, 172; tolerance of necessity of, 29
- democratization, 29n
- De Priest, Oscar, 45, 263
- Diet, 123, 210, 211
- diversity, 9; Osaka, 102–3
- Dolgorukov, Vladimir, 96
- Dreiser, Theodore, 135–36, 142
- drinking, 204
- drunkenness, 204
- Dukhovskii, Mikhail, 190, 205
- Duma: criticisms, 83–84; elections, 342, 342n, 343; hierarchy, 344; Moscow city, 92
- Dunne, Edward F.: 1907 referendum, 253–54; on Altgeld veto, 149; background, 159; election loss, 165, 166; ethnic delegates, 251; intolerance of opposition, 168; municipal ownership issue, 157–60, 163, 164–65
- Du Saible, Baptiste Point, 41
- economic development, Osaka, 102–6
- economics: capitalist cities in transition, 21–25; Chicago’s contemporary, 369; compared, 5–6; consumption patterns in Osaka, 107, 110–11; Moscow, 77–78; postindustrial globalized, 369–70; transitional economies, 23

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

454

Index

- Edo-Tokyo: commercial, 341, 351–52; as major city, 106; rice riots, 310; state power, 18; transitional era, 109. See also Tokyo
- education: budgets, 185–86; legislation in Russia, 184; mass education in Moscow, 174–206; new models, 183–84; Osaka, 125, 127, 127n, 315; peasants, 195; reform, 176–77; voluntarism among Russian women, 195
- elections, competitive, 30
- electricity, 30, 50; suburbs, 141n
- electric railway service, 147
- elevated “loop” railways, 147, 148, 170
- elites: capitalism, 102; Chicago early, 42, 43; civic reform organizations, 248; distribution of power studied, 12; emergence of new, 24–25; established elites and social fragmentation, 25–28; Japanese foreign policy, 213; local notables in Japan, 124; Moscow, 258; Moscow merchant-industrial, 80–87; municipal political in Russia, 98–99; new rich in Russia, 84, 89; nontraditional, 173; old versus new, 6; physicians in Russia, 281; survival skills in industrial capitalism, 24
- Ely, Richard, 63, 64n
- employment, municipal, 127
- Eta* outcastes, 119, 120
- expenditures, 126, 126n
- expert regime, 129–30; politicians versus, 164; progressive intellectuals, 350
- factional machines, 332
- factory girls, 297, 308, 309
- factory housing. See worker barracks
- family: Moscow, 93
- Ferris Wheel, 58, 59
- Finance Ministry, Japan, 226
- fires. See Great Fire of 1871
- Fisher, Walter, 166
- Fitzpatrick, John, 156
- flophouses, 266–67, 271, 284
- foreigners, in Japan, 121–22, 121n
- Fujita Denzaburo, 112, 122
- Fukuda Tokuzo, 299
- gangsters, 263, 264
- garden cities: Osaka, 7, 217
- Garden Ring Boulevards: housing, 268, 270, 271; industrialization, 75, 75n, 77
- Ger’e, Vladimir, 192–94, 205, 206
- German Americans in Chicago, 262, 263
- Germany: economic development, 301–02; influence on social research, 319, 351–52
- giant city, 7–8, 11; capital, 15
- Giedion, Sigfried, 42n
- Godai Tomoatsu: 114–15, 114n–115n; harbor project, 223
- Golitsyn, Vladimir, 199, 348, 349
- Goto Shimpei, 293, 301–2, 302n
- governors, provincial (gubernaiia), 94, 96, 96n
- Great Fire of 1871: capital, 42; as defining moment, 47, 47n
- Great Migration, 45, 258–59, 262, 369
- growth, of cities, 8; Chicago, 39; mediation of difference, 12–15; pluralism and, 11
- Guchkov, Fyodor, 186
- Guchkov, Nikolai, 186, 205, 206
- handicraft production, 334, 335, 336
- harbor redevelopment. See port-improvement program
- Harlan Commission, 151, 152
- Harlan, John Maynard, 150, 151, 152, 171–72; loss to Dunne, 159
- Harrison, Carter Henry, Jr., 326–33; authority dissipated, 155; caricature, 169; characterized, 136, 171, 332–33; charter reform, 249; Merriam contest, 238–39; ninety-nine-year leases, 143; origins, 320–21; politics of inclusion, 234; as reform boss, 334; shady allies, 154; significance, 319–20; support, 154; on traction wars, 133; traction worker strike, 157; transport issue, 168, 257; Yerkes

- franchise extension, 154–55;
Yerkes as nemesis, 136, 152
- Harrison, Carter Henry, Sr.: assassination, 325–26; background and career, 320–26; characterized, 332–33; first professional politician, 31; politics of inclusion, 234; significance, 319–20; as symbol, 333; vexing issues, 144
- Hayashi Ichizo, 312, 315
- Haymarket bombing, 324, 324n
- health care, 281. See also public health
- Hearst, William Randolph, 163
- Hidaka Yutaka, 221–22
- highway construction, 354
- Hinin* community, 119, 120
- Home Ministry, Japan: city planning, 213; influences on planning, 216,
217; municipal socialist reform,
305; Nakanoshima, 218; rail service, 229; social welfare, 315
- home-ownership, 60
- home rule issue: Chicago, 248–53, 257
- Hopkins, John P., 137–38
- housing: apartments, 270; Chicago,
49–51, 49n; for city employees, 285; domestic design, 55;
employer-provided, 266; Moscow, 265–91; Moscow survey, 282;
Moscow worker, 75–77, 89–90, 271; Osaka, 116–17; policy in Moscow, 283–86; population per unit, 266; regulation, 50–51, 50n;
St. Petersburg, 265, 266, 267;
subsidized, 267
- Humphrey Act, 149, 150
- Humphrey, John “Farmer,” 149, 151
- Hunter, Robert, 49
- Ianzhul, Ivan, 190
- Ikegami Saburo: 129, 129n; public works, 209; stability of tenure, 212
- illegitimate births, 276, 283
- Illinois Constitution of 1870, 235
- immigrants: brutal working conditions, 43–44; Catholic reformers, 244; Chicago, 41;
ethnicities, 46; extra-electoral activities, 26; Harrison, Jr., 332;
Harrison, Sr., 322, 322n, 323, 324; housing, 50; lifestyle conflicts, 51–52; mass reception, 24; slaughterhouses, 54;
temperance reform, 252
- Imperial Foundling Home (Russia), 283
- Imperial Mint project, 218
- imperial rule, in Japan, 123;
centralized power, 210–12; Korea,
118; Osaka, 130
- imperial rule, in Russia: education,
184; education supporters, 205,
206; municipal authority limited,
99; municipal governance, 92–93,
94, 96–99; old versus new elites,
6; periodic systemic collapse,
99–101; reform subverted, 360;
suffrage limited, 99
- impermanence, 8
- indoor plumbing: Chicago, 50;
Moscow, 271–72
- industrial capitalism, 18–21
- industrial elites, Osaka, 116
- industrialization: alcohol, 204;
balancing, 306; class divisions, 292; critics of state, 100; factory size in Chicago, 262; Osaka, 213; physical urban environment, 8;
proto-industrialization, 21, 21n–22n; second cities, 15;
vocational education, 183; women workers, 194–95, 202; World War
I Chicago, 258–59
- industrialization in Moscow, 288;
merchant elites, 335; Moscow family fortunes, 85; Old Believer communities, 82; peasant migrants, 77–80; production,
87–88; proto-industrialization,
22n; Russian, 79–80; St.
Petersburg, 288; Stalinist era, 271;
worker housing, 271
- industrialization in Osaka, 103;
Godai on, 115n; labor conditions, 307; labor force, 295–98; Meiji transition, 109, 110, 111–14;
paternalism, 299; social strata, 128–29
- infant mortality rates, 277

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

456

Index

- infectious disease: cholera, 277, 279;
housing in Moscow, 284, 285–86;
Osaka industry, 294; plague in Japan, 295; Russia, 267, 277
- innovation: agricultural processing, 52, 53–54; conditions for, 46;
diffusion, 46; education, 200, 202;
middle-strata markets, 363; Old Believer communities, 82; Osaka, 105; technological, 43; transition, 23–24
- insane asylum, 346
- intellectuals, 350
- international community, in Japan, 121–22, 121n
- Iwamoto Einosuke, 220–21
- Japan Credit Mobilier, 226
- Jews: Russian Jewry expelled, 31, 31n, 347, 347n
- Kanai Noburu, 301
- Kataoka Yasushi, 220, 221
- Katayama Sen, 302–04
- Kawakami Hajime, 305
- Kawasaki region, 14, 362
- Kazan' University, 192
- Kelley, Florence, 240
- Kelly, Edward J., 253, 257, 264
- Kenna, Michael "Hinky Dink," 138, 154, 327, 328, 330
- Kennelly, Martin H., 264
- Khitrov market/district, 276–77, 284
- Kievan Rus', 71
- Kimura Nisaburo, 310
- Kizevetter, Aleksandr, 200
- Kobe, 223, 225, 229, 230
- Korean community, 118–20
- Kotoku Shusui, 305, 305n
- Krausz, Sigmund, 9–11
- kremlin, 71
- Ku Klux Klan, 262
- kustarniki* group, 343
- Kwan Steamship Union, 298
- Kyoto, 106, 122; municipal governance, 124
- labor relations: advance and retreat,
294–95; early Chicago, 43–44,
44n; Moscow-region factories,
338; municipal ownership issue,
156–57; open shop issue, 157;
Osaka, 116; Russia on eve of revolution, 289; strikebreakers, 157, 261; World War I in Osaka, 308–9
- labor unions: charter reform, 249;
Chicago, 170–72; Chicago
Federation of Labor, 156, 163,
171, 249, 251; cooperative strikes,
171; new unionism, 156–57;
restiveness in Osaka, 214,
298–300; rice riots, 313; Russia,
88, 287, 288; women in textiles,
296–97
- laissez-faire: criticized, 300–302,
351–52; streetcar franchise battles, 139–40
- Lenin, Vladimir I., 291
- liberalization, 29n
- liberals, Moscow, 349
- libraries: Japan, 219, 220; Moscow, 188
- life in cities, complexity and density, 29
- limited liability corporations, 306
- liquor sales: regulation, 252–53,
254, 256; saloon licenses, 253,
253n
- literacy: activists in Russia, 190;
peasants, 195; Revolution of 1905, 182; Russian societies, 189–90; workers, 190–91, 202–3
- literacy committees, 178–79, 183;
major, described, 189–90
- literacy rates, 79; army recruits, 176;
Moscow, 174; Russia, 175;
Russian women, 194; school
cohorts, 176
- Local Improvement Movement
(Osaka), 302–6
- London: state power, 18; trade-driven metropolitan development, 15–16
- Lorimer, William "Blond Boss," 151, 159
- lumber, Chicago, 52
- lynchings, 262
- McCormick, Cyrus, 42
- machine politics. See political machine

- Madden, Martin B., 137
 Maltbie, Milo Roy, 161
 management, emergence, 27–28
 Manchester, 202
 Mann Act, 331
 manufacturing: agricultural machinery, 52; variety in Chicago, 54 market system, impact in Japan, 293
 Marshall Field's, 55
 mass education in Moscow, 174–206
 Matsumura Toshio, 228
 mayors: decentralized system in Chicago, 69; Moscow Duma,
 343–44; Osaka, 124–25, 127–30,
 211; prefectural system, 350;
 Russia, 96; town chiefs, 96
 Mead, George Herbert, 264
 Medill, Joseph, 321–22
 megaropolis, 118, 118n
 Meiji Japan, 102; centralization, 210;
 constitution, 210–11; early years, 222–23; governance, 123–25;
 merchant elites, 210; municipal administration, 210–12
 merchant elites: “authentic” Russian, 341; expulsion of Jewish merchants, 347, 347n; Russian, characterized, 187
 merchant elites, Japan, 106; aristocrats versus, 210; municipal leadership, 124
 merchant elites, Moscow: Alekseev as anathema, 340; art interests, 367; charity, 188; charity and economic pragmatism, 202; commercial education, 341; energetic, 348–49; family networks, 85–86; firstguild, 335, 335n, 342n, 347n; housing, 268, 270–71; literacy rates, 179; mayors, 99, 99n; new arrivals, 25; Old Believer, 80–83;
 old-fashioned ways, 364; origins,
 274–75, 334–35; peasant origins,
 274–75, 334–35, 338;
 philanthropy, 346; St. Petersburg versus, 89n; women's education, 191–95
 merchant elites in Osaka:
 characteristics, 106–7, 107n;
 imperial modernizers, 364–65;
 Japan, 106; municipal governance,
 125; Nomura saga, 116; rice riots,
 313; status, 222–23; Sumitomo
 origins, 215
 Merriam, Charles E.: background, 239; civic reform, 238–40; conflict in governance, 238; on corruption, 320; on ninety-nine-year leases,
 143; as Progressive reformer,
 238–40; reformer support,
 326–27; report on revenue raising,
 68–69; “scrambled” government, 237 meshchanie group, 343
 middle class: Big Bill Thompson appeal, 263; charter reform, 233–34, 256; Chicago, 43, 55; corporate, 27–28, 55; markets as focus, 363; Moscow, 90, 349;
 Moscow housing, 268, 270;
 Osaka, 129, 217–18; rice riots,
 313
 Midway Plaisance, 59
 Midwest Stock Exchange, 60 migrants: Chicago, 41, 41n;
 Korean (in Japan), 118–20;
 Moscow, 77–79; women factory workers, 296. See also Great Migration
 migration: peasants, 274;
 Southern, to Chicago, 258–59,
 262
 Military Revolutionary Committee, 290
 Ministry of Education, Russia, 178;
 literacy committees, 190;
 reactionary autocracy, 179–82;
 university admissions, 197
 Ministry of Finance, Japan, 296
 Ministry of Internal Affairs, Russia, 284
 mint, in Japan, 218
 Miuskoi Square, 199
 modernity, 40
 modernization: Japan, 21n; Moscow versus Europe, 30n
 Mongol hordes, 71
 moral economy, 293, 306, 352
 Morozov, Ivan, 84n
 Morozov, Savva, 85 mortality rates, 77

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

458

Index

- Moscow: contemporary, 368–69;
cultural accomplishments, 367;
early centrality, 71; fire of 1812, 70; Harrison on, 325;
historiography examined, 1–3;
imperial political ascendancy,
370–71; nature of Russian “difference,” 363–66;
unpredictability, 90
- Moscow Kremlin, 74, 75
- Moscow Literacy Society, 189–90
- Moscow Society of People’s
Universities, 198
- Moscow University, 185, 188, 189
- Moscow Workhouse, 283
- Mueller Law, 162, 163, 164, 165
- municipal administration: Meiji, 210–12
- Municipal Assembly (Osaka), 124, 125
- municipal governance: Chicago, 67–69; compared, 31–32; early twentieth century Chicago, 234–38; growth and politics, 11;
housing conditions, 275; housing in Moscow, 284; laissez-faire criticized, 300–306; major Japanese cities exempted, 124;
Moscow, 91–94; Osaka, 123–30, 215; Osaka Municipal (Prefectural) Assembly, 217; poverty relief in Moscow, 279;
scrambled, 237–38
- Municipal Hygienic Laboratory
(Osaka), 307
- Municipal Improvement Act of 1888
(Japan), 216
- Municipal Industrial Research
Laboratory, 307, 308
- municipalization movement, 156, 165
- municipal ownership issue, 156–57;
authority granted, 162–64;
contested, 168; defeat, 165;
Dunne, 157–60, 254; electoral support, 164; mixed approaches, 168; public support, 164
- municipal political structure:
Moscow, 92–93. See also mayors
- municipal services: Moscow, 344
- municipal socialists, 302–6, 354
- Municipal Voters’ League, 152, 246, 247–48, 251
- Nagomachi slums, 207, 214
- Nagouchi Magoichi, 219, 220
- Naidenov, Nikolai, 83–84, 92, 340
- Naidenovskaia group, 92
- Naito Konan, 300
- Nakanoshima Park, 219
- Nakanoshima Public Center, 218–22
- Napoleonic invasion, 70, 81–82
- Naumov, Dimitrii, 281
- neighborhoods: Chicago, 47–51
neo-russkie housing style, 270
- newspapers and literacy, 203–4
- new unionism, 156, 170–72
- New York City: power and wealth,
13; as skyscraper metropolis, 65
- Nicholas II, 288–89; reform approach, 366
- Nikolaevskii House for the Care of Widows and Orphans, 336, 345
- Nikon, Patriarch, 81, 83
- Ninety-Nine-Year Act, 143–44, 148; review, 160, 162
- Nishimura Sutezo, 223
- Nobonshugi* ideology, 299, 310
- Nomura Jitsusaburo, 115
- Nomura Securities, 116
- Nomura Tokushichi (Shinnosuke), 115–16
- North Chicago City Railway Company, 142, 145–46, 162
- Novgorod, Nizhnii, 86–87
- October Revolution, 290–91
- Odessa, 97
- Ogawa Shigejiro, 315
- Okada Shinichiro, 219, 220–21, 221–22
- Okuma Shigenobu, 300
- Old Believers: capitalism, 80–83;
district, 336; economic success,
84; Guchkov as education leader,
186–87; origins, 81
- openness, 24, 359
- open shop issue, 157
- open society, 46, 103
- orphanages, 279, 283, 336
- Orthodox Church, 72; charity, 187;
education links, 180, 181, 182;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

Index

459

- Old Believers, 81; schismatics, 81, 82
- Osaka: contemporary, 369, 370; economic development, 102–6; Harrison on, 325; Korean community, 118–20
- Osaka City Hall, 221
- Osaka Cotton Spinning Company, 111, 112, 296, 297–98
- Osaka Guild of Cereal Dealers, 298
- Osaka Municipal (Prefectural) Assembly, 208, 217
- Osaka Prefectural Library, 219, 220
- Osipov, Evgenii, 281
- outcastes, 119–20, 120n, 299–300
- overcrowding, 272
- Oz, 39
- Pastukhov, Nikolai, 203
- patronage networks: informal order to chaos, 257; Osaka, 212; scrambled government, 68; volatility and diversity, 51
- peasant economy, Russia, 22n
- peasant markets, 363
- peasants: education, 195; emancipation in Russia, 174; literacy issue, 175, 181, 195; migration, 274; origins of merchant families, 274–75, 334–35, 338
- people's universities, 197–200
- Peter the Great, seat of power, 70, 72
- philanthropy: merchant elites, Moscow, 346; Shaniavskii family, 197; Silver Age Muscovite, 187–88
- physicians, 281
- Pirogov, Nicholas, 281
- pluralism: diversity and power, 9; Moscow, 91; social, 31
- Pobedonostsev, Konstantin, 180, 181
- political culture, 134
- political machine: Cermak, 253, 264; charter reform, 233, 257–58; Chicago diversity, 332; as effective middle ground, 13; factional, 332; failure of pragmatic pluralism, 258; Harrison, Jr., 137, 138; longevity in Chicago, 362; Lorimer, 151; Meiji Japan, 211, 212; Osaka, 125–26, 128; pragmatic pluralism, 361; public interest, 20; race card, 64; redistricting plan, 255; reformers versus, 234; scrambled government, 68. See also boss politics
- political parties: factional struggles, 51; Moscow, 91–92; Osaka, 129, 130
- politicians: brokers and deal-makers, 39–40; Chicago, 39–40; pragmatic, 361; similarities, 35–36
- politics: of balance, 36; as management of competing interests, 13
- poorhouses, 283–84
- popular journalism, 203
- population: Chicago growth, 139, 140, 144; compared, 5; density in Moscow, 272; Moscow, 272
- populist (narodnik) movements, 192
- port-improvement program, 209–10, 215, 222–26
- poverty: charity in Moscow, 93; discovery in Japan, 292–95; disease and, 277; indigent homes, 283–86; Korean migrants to Osaka, 119; Moscow, 89–90, 272, 276, 279; Osaka, 214, 292–95, 307–9; social roots, 293–95; urban industrial, as moral enigma, 293
- power: class and ethnic dominance, 28–29; dispersion and urban size, 19; distribution issues, 12; Moscow's culture of absolute, 370–71; shifting alliances, 14–15
- Powers, Johnny “de Pow,” 138; description, 153–54
- pragmatic pluralism: Alekseev in Moscow, 348; argued, 6; capitalism in formation, 19; Chicago, 69, 167; choices and diversity, 29; compromises, 20–21; consumer preferences, 173; failure analyzed, 319, 357–58; Harrisons in Chicago, 333; housing in Moscow, 267, 279, 286; human value of others, 312–13; industrial capitalism, 18–21; limits, 362; loss

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

460

Index

- pragmatic pluralism (cont.)
 in Moscow, 360; mass general education, 179; mass literacy, 202;
 moderate reform, 360–61;
 Moscow's education activists,
 205–6; Osaka, 126–27, 216;
 policy disputes, 34–35; Progressive reformers, 257; public education,
 202; “Red Summer” of 1919,
 233, 260–64; rice riots, 309–10,
 312–13; ruthless, 348; Seki
 Hajime, 349–50; tolerating offensive behavior, 20; as transition strategy, 352–53;
 violence, 362–63
- pragmatism: adult education, 188;
 American, 56; Progressive Era, 246
- Prairie School, 61
- prefectures, 123, 124; corruption in Osaka, 227; Japan's structure, 211; system in operation, 350
- primary education, 177–79; free, in Russia, 186; girls, 191; universal compulsory, 184
- Pris, 40
- private economic development,
 15–18; nonlinear, chaotic nature,
 16, 18
- private interests, 134
- profit motive, 16
- Progressive Era: business class bias, 248; challenges of change, 330;
 Chicago's reform leaders, 56–57
- Progressive movement: charter reform, 233, 238–45; Merriam, 238–40; methods, 319; pluralism issue, 257
- progressivist entrepreneurs group, 92
- Prohibition, 252, 253, 254, 330, 331
- protests: by students, 182, 185; street widening plan, 217n
- proto-industrialization, 21, 21n–22n
- provisional nature of city, 40
- public debt, port-improvement
 project, 226–28
- public education: Chicago, 25
- public good, 20
- public health: Moscow, 277, 279;
 Osaka, 315; Russia, 280–83
- public interest, 134
- public libraries, 188
- public transit policy, 167–70
- public transportation. See railways;
 traction wars; transport
- public utilities: Chicago franchises, 144, 145; contest in U.S., 134;
 reform, 252, 253
- public works: Osaka, 127, 209–10
- Pullman, George M., 63, 64n
- Pullman Palace Car company, 137, 138
- Pullman strike, 247, 249
- Pullman (town), 62–64
- race relations, strikebreakers, 157
- race riots, 259–64; Chicago, 45– 46
- racial issues: Chicago Race Riot of 1919, 259–64; divisions in Chicago, 233; Korean community in Japan, 118–20; migration from South, 258–59, 262; race riots, 259–64
- railways: Chicago significance, 148n;
 Chicago suburbs, 62; commuter rail, 148, 148n; as early corporations, 55; elevated “loop,” 147, 148; Japan, 223n, 224, 225;
 Moscow, 75–76, 78; Moscow's industrial region, 79; Osaka, 116–17; Osaka harbor, 229;
 refrigerated rail cars, 54
- real estate: Chicago, 60, 323–24,
 359; Osaka, 227
- red scare of 1919, 262
- “Red Summer” of 1919, 233, 260–64
- reform: battle over in Chicago, 167;
 charter reform in Chicago, 233,
 238–45; Chicago's reform leaders,
 56–57, 240–45; civic federation movement, 248; educational, 25–26, 176–77; elitist structural reformers, 236; eras compared, 4;
 Great Reforms of 1861, 22;
 housing policy, 279; imperial, 366;
 industrial labor, 299; labor unions (Chicago), 156–57; liquor sale regulation, 252–53, 256; local improvement groups, 302–6;
 methodology, 319; Moscow, 279;
 Moscow municipal, 342; Osaka,
 129–30; public utilities, 252, 253;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

Index

461

- Russia, 176–77; Russian, analyzed, 32, 34; streetcar service, 141–42; traction issue, 148; tsarist, 288–89; women’s role, 195, 240–45; women’s suffrage, 252, 256; workers as urban poor, 295
- religion: Buddhism, 104; Old Believers, 81, 84
- religious conflict, Chicago, 52
- religious tolerance: Alexander II, 82; Catherine the Great, 81
- resistance: working-class, 25
- retail trade, 55
- Revolution of 1905, 100–101; Chekhovian world and counterreform, 32, 34; labor unions, 88–89; literacy, 182; municipal governance, 91
- revolutions and civil wars, 32
- rice riots, 121, 129, 309–13; effects of, 313–16; significance, 292
- rice trade, 103, 105, 106; decline, 109
- Robins, Margaret Dreier, 241–42
- Roosevelt, Theodore, 327
- Root, John Wellborn, 61n, 65, 67
- rural education, 177–78; women, 194
- Russia: European orientation, 4; lack of accommodation, 9; multiple realities, 1–3; professionalization, 364; reforms, 176–77; school saturation levels, 175–76; self-identity, 83–87
- Russian Revolution: 1n, 2–3, 289
- Russification of non-Russian peoples, 180, 181
- Russo-Japanese War, 213, 217, 286
- Sabashnikov, Mikhail, 196, 199
- Sabashnikov, Vasilii, 196
- safety nets, social, 306
- St. Ignatius College, 244, 328
- St. Louis, river transport, 42n
- St. Petersburg: Bolsheviks, 290; bookstores, 79n; budget, 97; death rates, 277n; distrust of, 340, 341–42; expulsion of Jews, 347; housing, 270; industry, 288; merchants, 89n; Moscow compared, 72, 85n; as new capital, 70
- St. Petersburg Committee on Literacy, 189–90
- St. Vincent’s College, 244
- samurai, 24
- sanitary standards, 265, 267
- school saturation levels, 175–76
- scrambled government, 68
- second cities, 15; group power, 18; Moscow as, 70
- segmented systems, 235–36
- segregation, Chicago, 44
- Seki Hajime, 349–55; background, 351; deputy mayor, 352, 354; expert regime, 129–30; on harbor improvement program, 230; indigent workers, 294; labor law reform, 99; planning, 306; regime transformation, 32; significance, 319–20; social reform agenda, 307; social services, 316; stability of tenure, 212
- self-government, Moscow, 92
- self-identity, Russia, 83–87
- serfs, emancipation of, 174
- settlement of Chicago, 41
- settlement houses, 51n, 240–42
- Settsu Cotton Spinning Plant, 119
- sewage, Osaka, 209
- Shaniavskii, Al’fons, 196–99, 205
- Shaniavskii, Lidiia Alekseeva Podstvenna, 197–99
- Shaniavskii People’s University, 185, 196–202
- Shchukin, Sergei, 84n
- Shibusawa Eiichi, 111–12, 295, 297–98
- Shinnosuke. See Nomura Tokushichi (Shinnosuke)
- Sisters of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd, 244–45
- skyscrapers, 61; Chicago contribution, 64–67
- slaughterhouses, 52, 53–54
- slavery, 321; abolition, 42
- slums: Chicago’s studied, 49–51; Nagomachi, 207, 214; Osaka, 207, 213, 294
- Smolnyi Institute, 191n
- social activism, municipal, 306–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

462

Index

- social class: attitudes, 275; class consciousness, 2–3; distribution of power, 12; hierarchy and wealth, 26n; machine politics, 13; mixing of, 9; Moscow, 89, 89n, 267–68; nineteenth-century observers, 19; October Revolution, 290; Osaka industry, 292; polarization in Moscow, 265; urban planning and progress, 306; “worker problem” in Japan, 354
- social fragmentation, 6, 25–26, 332
- socialism, social breakdown, 88
- Socialist Revolutionaries, 291
- Social Policy Association (Japan), 300
- social statistics, 280, 281–82, 307
- social welfare, 314–16
- social work, 242
- Society for the Training of Well-Born Girls, 191
- Solodovnikov family, 285
- soslovie* (caste) system, 364
- sosloviia* (guild), 98
- speculative apartments (income house), 270
- Stanislavskii-Alekseev, Konstantin, 367
- state: industrial development, 22n
- state hegemony, 18
- Stead, William Thomas, 246
- Steffens, Lincoln, 42, 356
- stereotypes, 11
- stock exchanges, 60; Osaka, 112
- Stolypin conservative coup, 32, 34; Moscow’s social groups, 101; retrenchment from reform policies, 184; union movement, 288, 289
- Stolypin, Petr, 32, 34, 184, 185; Moscow University battle, 200
- streetcar companies: early history, 142–44; horse-drawn, 142–43, 148; Moscow, 271, 272; rides per person, 147, 147n
- streetcar safety, 354
- streetcars in Chicago. See traction wars
- street railways: improvements, 167; municipal ownership, 254
- strikes: Chicago, 44, 156–57, 171; Osaka, 298–300; Pullman strike, 247, 249; rice riots, 309–13; Russia, 287; Russian, in 1917, 289–90
- students: demonstrations, 182, 185
- subsidized housing, 267
- suburbanization, 207
- suburbs: annexing Chicago, 236–38; electricity, 141n; Moscow, 77; Osaka, 116, 217–18; railways to Chicago, 62; streetcar service, 141
- subway lines: 164–65, 165n
- suffrage: Chicago municipal structures, 67; comparative, 31; extra-electoral activities vis-à-vis, 26; Japan, 32, 123, 124, 211; limited, 30; Moscow Duma elections, 342, 342n; New York, 13; Russian municipalities, 98–99, 98n; women’s, 252, 256; workers, 334n
- Sullivan, Henry Louis, 62
- Sullivan, John J., 159n
- Sullivan, Roger, 136–37, 138, 154; boodle boss, 331; Dunne supporter, 159, 166
- Sumitomo clan, 112; Godai contact, 115n; harbor project, 223; origins, 215; zaibatsu, 220, 221
- Sumitomo Kichizaemon XV, 220
- Suzuki, Shikajiro, 207
- synergy, 46
- Sytin, Ivan, 203
- Taisho era, 129
- Taisho style, 222
- Tatsuno Kingo, 219–20
- tax revenues: annexing Chicago suburbs, 236–37; comparative rates, 67–69; competition in Illinois, 235, 235n; liquor sales, 252–53; Moscow, 97; Osaka, 127, 212; Osaka school districts, 125
- teachers’ unions: Chicago, 156, 171; Russia, 178
- teamsters, 156, 171
- temperance issue, 252, 254
- tenements: African-American, 262–63; Chicago, 49–51, 49n
- Tennoji Park, 216
- textile industry: Osaka, 111, 112, 112n, 114, 119, 128; Osaka labor force, 295–98

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

Index

463

- Thompson, William "Big Bill," 151, 257, 263–64
- Tokyo: centralization, 370; Meiji planners, 216; municipal governance, 124; significance, 102; social services, 316n; streetcar strike, 304. See also Edo-Tokyo
- Tokyo Commercial School, 351–52
- Tokyo University, 212
- tolerance, forced, 20
- Tolstoi, Dmitrii, 179–80, 197
- Tolstoi system, 180
- traction wars, 133–73; Dunne, 155–60; later legacy, 170, 359; municipal ownership ending, 160; ninety-nine-year leases, 142–44; significance, 134
- trade: Moscow, 87; Osaka, 103–4, 105, 120, 121, 128; Osaka with Korea and China, 225; rice, 103–04
- transient workers, 274, 275
- transport: Chicago as axis, 43; Chicago's continental system, 52; Osaka budgets, 212; Osaka tram lines, 139n; planning in Osaka, 222; refrigerated rail cars, 54; evolutions in, 5n; Seki Hajime focus, 354. See also railways
- Tretiakov Gallery, 196
- Tretiakov, Sergei, 339–40, 343, 345
- tsar, for Caesar, 72
- Tsuruhara Sadakichi, 215–16
- Union League Club of Chicago, 245–46
- Union Stockyard, 237
- universities: All-Russian Society of People's Universities, 198; Kazan' University, 192; Moscow Society of People's Universities, 198; Moscow University, 185, 188, 189; people's, 195–202; people's universities, 185, 197–200; Russian, 185, 188–89, 191–95; Shaniavskii People's University, 185, 196–202; Tokyo University, 212; women, 191–95
- University of Chicago, 51, 240, 242
- urban development, 207; social dimension, 209
- Urban Planning Law of 1919 (Osaka), 222, 354
- urban size, 5, 7–12, 358–59, 368
- urban studies, comparative, 6
- utilitarian approach, 305
- utility services: Chicago administration, 237. See also public utilities
- Uvarov, Sergei, 179, 180
- Uyemura, Mayor, 208
- Vakhterov, Vasilii, 178, 205, 206
- Veblen, Thorstein, 122
- vice campaign, 246–47
- village life, social relations, 274–75
- violence: Chicago, 259; Japan, 292; Osaka, 128–29; pragmatic pluralism, 362–63
- vocational education, 181; Alexander II, 183; as reactionary, 182–83
- voting: Russian municipalities, 98–99, 98n; Union League Club of Chicago, 245–46
- ward system: elite civic associations versus, 246; mayor versus, 68; Osaka, 126; redistricting wards, 254–55; Sullivan, Roger, 136–37, 138; ward boundaries redrawn, 254–55
- wars, 4
- waste management, 54
- water, Osaka, 209
- Waters, Thomas J., 218
- wealth: Chicago, 26n; U.S., 26n
- welfare agencies, 314–16
- Werno, Charles, 164–65
- West Chicago City Railway Company, 146, 147, 162
- West Chicago Street Railroad Tunnel Company, 146
- White City, 59–60, 61n
- white-collar workers, Chicago, 55
- Woman's City Club, 243–44
- women: African-American reformers, 245; Catholic, 244–45; education, in Russia, 191–95, 197; employment, 245; extra-electoral activities, 26; peasant literacy, 175; population in Moscow, 275; Progressive movement, 240–45;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-80179-9 - Second Metropolis: Pragmatic Pluralism in Gilded Age Chicago, Silver Age
Moscow, and Meiji Osaka

Blair A. Ruble

Index

More information

464

Index

- women (cont.)
 reform, role, 195; Russia, 93–94, 95; Russian higher education, 181; suffrage movement, 252, 256; transient workers, 274; women's question, 94n, 191
- women workers, 194–95, 202; Japan, 308; Osaka, 295–97; worker barracks, 271
- worker barracks, 285; Osaka, 296, 297, 309; women, 271
- worker schools, 190
- workhouses, 283–84
- working class: adult education, 182, 183–84; cooperative strikes in Chicago, 171; educational policy, 25–26; Osaka, 128–29, 299–300; as outcasts, 299–300; Russia, 364; transient, 274; as urban poor, 295; women workers, 194–95, 202; “worker problem” in Japan, 354
- working class in Moscow, 75–77, 78, 88; housing, 90; literacy, 190–91, 202–03; women, 202
- World's Columbian exposition, 57–60; charter reform, 246–47; elevated rail transit, 147; Harrison as mayor, 325; street types, 11
- World War I: Chicago impact, 258–59; impact on Osaka, 114, 118, 120; industrial workers, 308–9; Moscow politics, 286, 289–91
- Yamaguchi Hanroku, 216–17
- Yamaguchi Plan (1899), 209–10, 216
- Yamashita, Mayor, 228
- Yates, Richard, 143
- Yerkes, Charles Tyson: audit, 161; background, 145; defeats, 155; description, 135–36; opposition to, 151–52; political ties, 138; Powers as ally, 153; traction companies, 145–48
- Yokohama, 370
- zaibatsu* system, 110, 213n, 214–15
- Zamoskvorech'e district, 338
- zemstvo*: health system, 280, 281; local autonomy, 96–97; origins and function, 177; primary education, 177; public health statistics, 280, 281–82; revenues, 177
- Zurich, 192