

Index

- abortion: theory in research on, 23, 282; and social movements, 321; on moral order map, 343; and terrorism at clinics, 364, 375. See also anti-abortion movement
- academic disciplines: integrity of defined in study of religion, 27–8; and multidisciplinary exchange, 28–9
- activism. See social movements
- Acuña, Rodolfo, 405–6
- Adas, Michael, 374, 378
- African Americans: and family influence on religious choices, 158; and feminist theory, 288; and womanist culture, 290–91; and church involvement in politics, 208–9. See also race
- African-American women, 283
- agency: and motivations for religious choices, 157; and identity, 211–12; of Latinas, 401–5
- Ali, Yousef, 283
- Alinsky, Saul: and community organizing, 389
- American Sociological Association: and academic specialization, 4
- Amish, 338
- Ammerman, Nancy, 12, 69, 273, 413; on shifting composition of congregations, 226
- Anderson, Benedict: on rituals of modern nationalism, 42–3
- anti-abortion groups, 319. See also abortion
- antisemitism: and intergroup relations, 244
- apartheid: opposition to by religious organizations, 389
- Appleby, Scott, 380
- Armstrong, Elizabeth, 107
- Asad, Talal: on ritual, 38
- assimilation: of Jews, 263, 264; and moral order, 345–6
- atheism: and Soviet Union, 52
- Aum Shinrikyô, 375
- Baha'i, 51; as organized religion, 54
- Baird, Robert, 104
- Baltzell, E. Digby, 305
- Baptists, 128
- Barrera, Mario, 405–6
- Barrett, David, 107
- Base Christian Communities, 388, 408
- Bass, Dorothy, 144
- Bataille, Georges, 364
- Bauman, Zygmunt: on identity, 209, 210
- Becker, Penny E., 238
- Behringer, Wolfgang, 377
- Bell, Catherine: on ritual, 43–4
- Bellah, Robert, 4–5, 10, 185–6, 271, 398; and Sheilaism, 57; on individualism in religion, 139–40, 141; and polarization, 333; on civil religion, 354, 355
- Benford, Robert D., 317
- Benjamin, Walter, 376
- Berger, Helen, 285
- Berger, Peter, 71; contributions to sociology of religion, 66–7; rejection of secularization paradigm by, 96; and church-sect typology, 125; on religious organizations as bureaucracies, 127; and privatization of religion, 143 and identity, 210
- Beyer, Peter, 10
- Billiet, J., 67

- Bin Laden, Osama, 376
 birth control: use of by Catholics, 403
 Bloch, Jon, 285
 Bolce, Lewis, 306
 born-again Christians, 19; in typology of religious identity, 146. See also fundamentalism
 Boulard, F., 67
 Bourdieu, Pierre, 211
 Braam, A. W., 192
 Brasher, Brenda, 281
 Braude, Ann, 278–9
 Britain: evolution of sociology of religion in, 67–8
 Brooks, Clem, 306–7
 Brown, Steven, 36
 Brunner, Edmund deS., 105
 Buddhism, 341, 389; historic differentiation of, 47, 48, 50; as individualistic, 344; self-immolation of monks, 369
 Bunch, Charlotte, 411
 Burkert, Walter, 364 capital punishment: on moral order map, 343
 Carter, Jimmy, 19
 Carter, Steven, 355
 Casanova, Jose, 70, 72, 329
 Catholic Campaign for Human Development, 392–3
 Catholicism, 10; and challenges to church doctrines, 6; and evolution of sociology of religion in France, 67; transnational movements within, 72; church attendance rates, 86–8, 113; anomalous vitality of in sociopolitical conflict model, 117; and family ideology and church programs, 169, 170, 171, 172, 174–5, 176; and religious identity, 6, 208
 Catholics: and politics, 305, 340; use of birth control by, 403
 Cavendish, James C.: on church attendance, 87
 Chafetz, Janet, 283
 Chang, Patricia, 11, 280
 change theory: and core and periphery, 338
 Chaves, Mark, 11, 280
 Chicano Movement: and Latina feminism, 404
 Christian Coalition, 304, 325, 327
 Christian crusades: as religious colonization, 371
 Christian Democracy movement, 117
 Christian Democratic parties: in Europe, 310–12, 313
 Christian right, 319; and politics, 59, 304; and social movements, 318, 319, 320, 325, 326; and violence, 375–6; and conservative political movements, 395
 Christian Scientists, 369
 Christianity: historic differentiation of, 48
 Christiano, Kevin, 226 church attendance: critiques of studies of, 85, 87–90, 92–3; decline in, 90–2; impact of on health, 195. See also Protestants: church attendance rates; Catholics: church attendance rates; Jews: synagogue attendance Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, 338; violence against, 377 civil religion, 13, 221; in unregulated religious economy, 102 civil society, 348; defined, 349; as western concept, 349–53; and civil religion, 353–7; and mutual dependency of civil religion and, 357–8; and faith-based organizations, 395–6
 Civil Rights Movement, 19, 318, 319, 328; church support for, 208–9, 393; and women's movement, 323–4; influence of on Black Pentecostals, 415
 Clark, Mathew, 415
 class, 12, 66; as sensitizing concept, 22; in studies of religion, 24; intersection of with race and gender, 278, 288 clergy: women as, 280–1, 282
 Cohen, R. D.: on impact of religion on health, 194, 199
 Cohen, Steven M.: The Jew Within, 264–5
 Cohn, Norman, 373, 377
 Coleman, S.: on Pentecostalism, 72
 Collins, Patricia Hill, 403; and black feminist thought, 288–9, 292
 Collins, Randall, 32, 34; on ritual, 40 colonialism, 13, 371; and anticolonial violence, 374–5 communalism: and moral project, 335–6, 341 community: as sensitizing concept, 22
 Comte, Auguste, 17, 97; and secularization theory, 111

- conflict: intragroup, 341–2; mainstream versus peripheral, 342–43; and new religious pluralism, 343–6. See also sociopolitical conflict model; social conflict; violence
- Confucianism: historic differentiation of 48–9, 50; as culture rather than religion, 52
- congregations: impact of family schema on structure and programs of, 167, 168–178; number of immigrant, 227; as different from immigrants' home-country religious organization, 232–33; tensions in multiethnic, 233–4
- Conservative Judaism. See Jewish identity: and denominations
- conversion: and religious identity, 208–9, 268
- Cornwall, Marie: on influence of education on religious choices, 161
- Coser, Rose Laub, 362
- Crapanzano, Vincent, 44
- Crawford, Sue, 280
- Cubbit, Tessa, 406–7
- cults: in church-sect typology, 126; and coercion, 369
- culture wars: contrasted with new voluntarism, 141–2; thesis undercut by congregational rhetoric and practice, 165, 166–7; religious roots of, 306–7; and social movements, 322, 327 in civil society, 349–50. See also pluralism
- Cushman, Philip, 142
- Czikszentmihalyi, Mihaly, 147
- Daoism: historic differentiation of, 47, 48
- Dashefsky, Arnold, 12, 248
- Davidman, Lynn, 12, 98, 281
- Davie, Grace, 10
- De Maio, Gerald, 306
- De Tocqueville, Alexis, 104, 351
- Deacon, Terrence: on origin of language, 32–5, 36, 38
- death anxiety: decline of in older adulthood, 183
- Demerath, Jay, 13, 297
- demography, 11
- Denny, Frederick, 228
- denominations: and religious socialization, 158–60; and instability of religious identities, 218–9; impact of on voting behavior, 300, 302. See also Jewish identity: and denominations
- depression: impact of religion on, 191–4, 200, 203
- Diaspora: and Jewish identity, 241
- Díaz-Stevens, Ana-Maria, 228, 283, 404
- Dillon, Michele, 6, 12, 208, 269, 282, 285, 330, 340
- Dissanayake, Ellen, 35
- Dobbelaere, Karel, 98
- Dogmatists: in typology of religious identity, 146–7
- Dolan, Jay, 105
- Durhan, Thomas, 280
- Durkheim, Emile, 4, 5, 7, 17, 21, 96, 119, 190, 279; and Elementary Forms of the Religious Life, 18, 31; and ritual, 32, 34, 35, 40, 364; contributions to sociology of religion, 62, 64–5; and secularization theory, 111, 202; and civil society, 350, 353–4, 356
- Ebaugh, Helen Rose, 8, 12
- Edgell, Penny, 12
- education: and Jewish identity, 247, 248, 249. See also socialization: and educational influences; parochial education
- egalitarianism, 13
- Eiesland, Nancy, 218, 238
- Eisenstadt, S. N., 362, 370–1, 373, 375
- Elazar, Daniel J., 243
- Ellison, Christopher: and impact of religion on health, 195–6
- Emirbayer, Mustafa: and agency, 212
- Engelman, U. Z., 254
- Engels, Frederick, 96, 373
- Erikson, Erik, 5, 185
- ethnic identity, 8, 9, 12, 22: religious institutions and reproduction of, 230–2; maintenance of through religion, 400–1; and Latina challenges to traditional roles, 401–5
- Etzioni-Halevy, Eva, 359
- Europe: evolution of sociology of religion in, 67–71
- evangelicalism: and theory in research on, 23; as entrepreneurial, 128–9; individualistic appeal of, 140–1; and family ideology, 166, 169–71; and social activism in Latin America, 388. See also Protestantism: growth of in Latin America
- Ewick, Patricia: on creating plots, 213

- faith-based social justice organizing, 9, 13, 319, 387–8; and immigrants, 232; around the world, 388–9; in the U. S., 389–93; contributions of to democracy, 393–7; weaknesses of, 397–8; role of religion in, 398–9; in Mexican border communities, 407–11
- Falun Gong: violence against, 52, 377
- Falwell, Jerry, 19, 304, 328
- family: as anchoring schema of congregational rhetoric and practice, 165–6, 169–178; in recent studies, 166–7; tensions between rhetoric and programs for at congregational level, 169–78
- Fellowship of Reconciliation, 319, 328
- feminism: current literature on, 9, 12, 276–9; and religion and the body, 284; goddess religions, 284–5; and feminist theory, 285–6. See also women; gender; Smith, Dorothy
- Fenton, John Y., 228
- Fields, Karen, 94, 228
- Finke, Roger, 11; on education and religious choices, 161
- Finney, Charles, 128
- Fishman, Sylvia Barack, 255
- France: evolution of sociology of religion in, 67
- Freeman, Walter, 35, 36, 38
- Frehill, Lisa M., 283
- Freire, Paolo, 388
- Frend, W. H., 373
- Freston, P.: on Pentecostalism, 72–3
- Freud, Sigmund: and religious skepticism, 6
- Fukuyama, Francis, 350
- fundamentalism, 10; ideal type of, 73–4; in typology of religious identity, 146–7; and civil society, 352
- Furstenberg, Frank, 167
- Gamson, William A., 317, 404
- Garcia, Alma M., 404
- Garfinkel, Harold: and identity, 210
- gender, 12, 292–3; and theory in research on, 22–3; and religious participation, 64; and religious socialization, 163; and Orthodox Jews, 249–51; and critiques of androcentric biases, 279; as a variable, 280; and American Jews, 281–2
- Genia, Vicky, 144
- George, Linda: on impact of religion on health, 191
- Gerami, Shahin, 283
- Gerard, Susan E., 281
- Gilkes, Cheryl Townsend, 290–1
- Gill, Anthony, 107
- Girard, René, 364, 364–5
- Glass, Jennifer: on children's influence on parents, 156
- Glazer, Nathan, 258
- Glick-Schiller, Nina: and transnational religious ties, 236
- Goffman, Erving: on ritual, 32, 34, 40; on identity, 210
- Goldbourt, U.: and impact of religion on health, 196
- Goldman, Marion S., 282
- Goldstone, Jack, 362
- Gordon, Milton M., 258
- Gorski, Philip, 11, 14
- Greeley, Andrew M., 182; on influence of education on religious choices, 161
- Greenblum, Joseph, 258, 259
- Greenslade, Helen, 406–7
- Griffith, Marie, 281
- Gurr, Ted, 363
- Guth, James, 280
- Habermas, Jurgen, 5, 330
- Hadaway, C. Kirk: on church attendance, 86, 88, 89
- Haddad, Yvonne Yazbeck, 228
- halakhah, 241
- Hall, David, 261
- Hall, John, 9, 13, 378
- Hamberg, Eva, 69
- Hamm, Thomas D.: on Quakers, 340
- Hammond, Philip: and spiritualism, 143; on religious identities, 207
- Hardy-Fanta, Carol, 402, 405
- Hare Krishna, 51
- Hart, Stephen, 395
- Hartman, Harriet, 281
- Hartman, Moshe, 281
- health, 9, 12; impact of religion on, 190–1, 194–204. See also depression
- Heaven's Gate cult, 369
- Heelas, Paul, 71
- hegemony: as supported by civility, 352
- Heilman, Samuel C., 263

- Herberg, Will: on ecumenicalism, 165
 Herman, Simon N., 257
 Herrera, Marina: and Latina history, 401
 Hertzberg, Arthur, 241
 Hervieu-Léger, Daniele, 147
 Hewitt, John: on identity, 209
 Higginbotham, Evelyn Brooks, 413
 Himmelstein, Jerome L., 336
 Hinduism, 341; historic differentiation of, 47, 48, 50; and Sikhism, 51
 Hirschman, Charles: and polarization of public discourse, 332
 Hispanics. See women: Latina historical research perspective, 10, 11
 Hochschild, Arlie, 172
 Horowitz, Bethamie, 242, 263
 Hout, Michael, 11, 182; on influence of education on religious choices, 161
 Howell, Julia Day, 282
 human capital: and religious preferences, 153
 Hummer, R. A., 82; and impact of religion on health, 195–6
 Hinduism: as individualistic, 344
 Hunter, James D.: and culture war, 332
- identity, 6, 9, 11, 12; as sensitizing concept, 22; as problem of agency and structure, 211–12; as narrative construction, 213–15; ingredients for understanding, 215–16; locating and constructing religious identities, 216–17, 222–4; religious narratives of, 217–220, 220–222. See also ethnic identity; Jewish identity
 Idler, Ellen: on impact of religion on health, 190–1 immigrants: religion as supporting, 14, 73; historical context, 225–8; recent research on religion and, 228–230; religion and incorporation of into American society, 232, 237–8, 238–9; in congregations, 232–4, 238; second generation, 234–5; and transnational religious ties, 236–7, 238; need for future research on, 237–9. See also ethnicity; women: role and status in immigrant religious organizations India: and anticolonial violence, 374 individualism, 344: as sensitizing concept, 22; in civil society, 350–1 inequality, 13; and religion as emancipatory resource, 8–9 institutional ethnography, 286, 287
 intermarriage: and changes in religious affiliation, 157; as threat to Judaism, 254–6 International Society for Krishna Consciousness, 51 intersectionality paradigm, 288
 Iranian revolution, 18
 Isaacson, Lynne, 282
 Islam: historic differentiation of, 48, 50; and women, 283; and violence, 376
 Israel: and mortality and religion study, 196; Jewish identity in, 242–3, 247–9
- Jackman, Mary: on violence, 361, 365
 Jacobs, Janet L., 281
 James, William, 144
 Jehovah's Witnesses, 51; violence against, 377
 Jenkins, Brian, 362
 Jewish identity, 208, 240–1, 258–60, 261–3; history of, 241; conceptualization of, 242; and group identification, 242–3; measurement of, 244–6; postmodern instability of, 246–7; sources of in US and Israel, 247–9; gender and, 249–51; and religiosity of American and Israeli Jews, 251–4; and intermarriage, 254–6; and denominations, 256–8, 274–5; of moderately affiliated, 264–5; of non-observant, 265–6; as ethnic culture, 266–7, 269, 271–5; as genic, 267–70. See also antisemitism
 Jews, 12; and synagogue attendance, 251–4; secular, 242–3
 Johnson, Carson D.: on influence of education on religious choices, 161
 Jones, Jim: and mass suicide, 18, 365, 378
 Judaism, 340; historic differentiation of, 48; and gender, 281–2
 Jurgensmeyer, Mark, 362, 372, 380
 Jung, Carl, 183
- Kaplan, Marian: on impact of religion on health, 194
 Kashima, Tetsuden, 228
 Kasinitz, Philip, 235
 Katzenstein, Mary, 282
 Kaufman, Deborah, 281
 Kertzer, David, 318

- Khomeini, Ayatollah Ruhollah, 18
 Kivisto, Peter A., 226
 Kniss, Fred, 13, 370
 Knox, Ronald, 368–9, 373
 Koenig, Harold: on impact of religion on health, 191, 196
 Konieczny, Mary Ellen, 280
 Korea: faith-based social justice organizing in, 389
 Kuhn, Manford H., 242
 Kumaris, Brahma, 282
 Kurien, Prema: on collective moral authority, 345

 Lakoff, George, 177
 Lambert, Frank, 128
 language: origins of 32–5, 36–7
 Lanternari, Vittorio, 374
 Larson, David: on impact of religion on health, 191 law and justice, 13, 14
 Layman, Geoffrey C., 306
 Lazerwitz, Bernard, 12, 244
 Le Bras, Gabriel, 67
 Lehnerer, Melodye, 283
 Levitt, Peggy: and transnational religious ties, 236
 Lewin, Kurt, 243
 Lewis-Beck, Michael, 313
 Lewy, Guenter, 373 liberation theology, 59, 72. See also faith-based social justice organizing libertarianism: and moral project, 335, 336
 Liebman, Robert C., 126
 Liebman, Charles, 247
 life course research, 9, 10, 181
 Lifton, Robert Jay, 141
 Lin, Irene, 228
 Lincoln, C. Eric, 413
 Lipset, Seymour Martin, 244, 309, 350
 Luckmann, Thomas, 59; contributions to sociology of religion, 66; and identity, 210
 Lummis, Adair T., 229

 MacIntyre, Alasdair: and reflexivity, 145
 Maffesoli, Michel, and identity, 210–11
 Maffy-Kipp, L. E., 225
 Mamiya, Lawrence H., 413
 Mann, Horace, 105–6
 Manning, Christel, 281, 282
 Mansbridge, Jane: on feminism, 277–8

 Manville, Julie, 280–1
 Manza, Jeff, 8, 13
 Marcum, John P.: on church attendance, 89
 Marler, Penny Long: on church attendance, 89 marriage. See intermarriage
 Martin, David, 116; on Pentecostalism, 73, 75; on growth of evangelical Protestantism in Latin America, 106
 Marty, Martin E.: and public/private split in religion, 332–3 martyrdom, 378–9. See also Jones, Jim Marx, Karl, 17, 21, 96; and religious skepticism, 6, 7, 17; contributions to sociology of religion, 62–3; and secularization theory, 111
 mass media, 10
 Massey, Douglas, 4 material culture: in sociology of religion, 26
 Mauss, Marcel: and ritual, 39
 McCarthy, John: and social movements defined, 151–2
 McCullough, Michael, 12, 82
 McFadden, Susan, 184
 McKinney, William: on new voluntarism, 141
 McLeod, Hugh, 116
 McNeill, William: on rhythmic ritual and bonding, 41–2
 McPartland, Thomas S., 242
 McRoberts, Omar, 14
 Mead, George Herbert: and identity construction, 213
 Mead, Sidney, 104
 Medalie, J. H.: and impact of religion on health, 196
 Medding, P. Y., 255
 Medina, Lara, 405
 Mennonites, 338; and intragroup conflict, 341; as conscientious objectors, 342–3; and conflict between religions, 370
 mental health. See depression
 Mercer, Calvin, 280
 Methodists, 128
 methodology: observation-based, 10; quantitative and qualitative in sociology of religion, 24–5; demographic terms defined, 80–1; demography and religious research, 82–3; lack of demographic data on religion, 83–4
 Meyer, Katherine, 283
 minority groups, 64. See also race; immigrants

- Minow, Martha: and identity, 212
 Mische, Ann: and agency, 212
 Moaddel, Mansoor, 283
 mobilization: as sensitizing concept, 22 modernization theory, 9, 18, 19, 71, 97; and individual moral authority, 334–5, 336, 343. See also secularization moral order: religious groups analyzed in terms of, 336–41; and religious pluralism, 343–6; as multidimensional, 346–7
 Moral Majority, 304 morality: and ideology, 13
 Mormons. See Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints movement: as sensitizing concept, 22; culture, 316, 317–18
 Moynihan, Daniel P., 258
 Mullins, Mark, 229
 Murphy, P. E., 192
 Myers, Scott: and parental influence on religious choices, 155
- Nam, C. B.: and impact of religion on health, 195–6
 Namier, Lewis, 373
 narrative: in construction of identity, 213–15, 217–22
 Nason-Clark, Nancy, 289–90 nationalism, 13; role of rhythmic ritual in, 42–3; religion as factor in, 48; and civil religion, 357
 Native Americans: spirituality of differentiated from religion, 52
 Neitz, Mary Jo, 12–13, 98, 285; on conversion and charismatic Catholics, 208–9, 221 neoinstitutional theory, 123; and study of congregations, 23; role of culture in, 129–30; weaknesses of application to religion, 130–3 neopagan cults: shock value of, 154. See also Wicca
 Nettl, Bruno, 35
 Neuhaus, Richard, 355
 new paradigm. See rational choice theory
 New Age: as religious movement, 57
 Niebuhr, H. Richard: and church-sect typology, 125, 126 normative issues: in sociology of religion, 26–7 normativity, 26–7; compared with empirical questions, 7
- Numrich, Paul, 227, 228; and American Buddhists, 345
- Olson, Laura, 280
 Operation Rescue, 318, 325
 ordination: of women. See clergy: women as Orsi, Robert, 144, 228, 261, 274
 Orthodox Jews: impact of feminism on, 250–1. See also Jewish identity: denominations
- Pacific Institute for Community Organization (PICO), 385–7, 391
 Palmer, Susan, 282
 Pardo, Mary, 402, 404, 406
 Pareto, Vilfredo, 363
 Park, Robert E., 258
 parochial education, 161
 Parsons, Talcott: contributions of to sociology of religion, 66 patriarchy: in evangelical ideology, 166–7, 169–71, 172; Latinas' subversion of, 309
 Pattillo-McCoy, Mary: and social movements, 221
 Pax Christi, 319
 Paxton, Pamela, 351
 Pentecostalism, 10, 14, 94, 340; as transnational phenomenon, 71, 72. See also fundamentalism
 Pentecostals, Black: image of as otherworldly, 412; and activism, 414–22
 Peña, Milagros, 13, 283, 291–2
 Pettersson, Thorleif, 69
 Philippines: faith-based social justice organizing in, 389
 Phillips, Bruce A., 245 pluralism: in new paradigm, 98–9; in religious economy model, 100–1, 104–6, 113; in sociopolitical conflict model, 116–17; and legitimation of alternative family schema, 166; as result of schisms, 126; in moral order, 343–6; as challenge to civil religion, 355 polarization: as undermining democracy, 395 politics, 9, 14, 297–8, 313–14: boundary between religion and, 51; and politicized religion, 55–6, 59–60; religion and voting behavior, 298–301; U. S. religion and, 301–9; western European religion and, 309–13
 Portes, Alejandro: on assimilation, 345
 Portillo, Cesar, 386

- postcolonial theory: and feminism, 278 power: as sensitizing concept, 22 prayers in school: supreme court ruling on, 106
 Prell, Riv-Ellen, 247
 Presser, Stanley: on church attendance, 89, 90, 92
 profane time: Durkheim's definition of, 31
 Protestantism: church attendance rates, 85, 86, 113; growth of in Latin America, 106–7; schisms in, 126; and family ideology and church programs, 169, 170, 171, 172–4, 176; and politics, 305–6, 307–10; as basis of civil society, 351–2
 Putnam, Robert, 350, 396: on decline of voluntary associations, 140, 351
 Qi Gong: as religious movement, 57
 Quakers, 340
 qualitative methodology. See methodology:
 quantitative and qualitative in sociology of religion
 queer theory: and gender, 278
 Raab, Earl, 244
 race, 12; research on, 22–3; intersection of with class and gender, 278, 288; and diversity in faith-based social justice groups, 391. See also inequality; ethnicity; minority groups
 Radcliffe-Brown, A. R.: on ritual, 38
 Rappaport, Roy: on significance and meanings of ritual, 37–9
 Ras Tafarianism, 374 rational choice theory, 62; weaknesses of, 21–2; compared to secularization theory, 68–70; and fundamentalism, 74 rationality: and emotionality as intertwined, 4–5; in religion, 5–6
 Reed, Andrew, 104
 Reed, Ralph, 325, 327
 reflexivity, 6, 145
 Reform Judaism. See Jewish identity: and denominationalism religion and religions: statistics on beliefs, 7–8; reasons for studying, 7–9, 22–3; conceptual ambiguity of, 45–7; historical and global differentiation of, 47–50; contested boundaries of, 50–3; social forms of, 53–8; challenges of in global society, 58–60; defined, 65, 138 and political activism, 348. See also Hinduism; Daoism; Shinto; Buddhism; Christianity; Judaism; Islam; Confucianism; Catholicism; Protestantism; Mormonism; Pentecostalism; fundamentalism religious economies, 108–9; regulation of, 100–1; sacralization of, 101–2; and competition and commitment, 102–4; America as example of, 104–6; in Latin America, 106–7; in Quebec, 107–8 religious economies model (REM): compared to secularization theory, 110, 111, 113–15, 120–2 religious organizations: as bureaucracies, 127–9; new research agendas on, 134–6 religiousness: relation between spirituality and, 179–80; subjects of study of spirituality and, 180–1; in second half of adult life, 181–3; and vital involvement in late adulthood, 185–7; as buffer in late adulthood, 187–9
 Réme, J., 67
 Richardson, Herbert, 146
 Riddle, Donald W., 373
 right-wing parties: in European politics, 313
 Rimor, M., 255
 ritual, 10, 13; and social activism, 13, 318; and theory in study of, 23; as demarcator of social boundaries, 32; and origin of language, 32–5; and origin of music, 35–7; nature of, 37–9; in various spheres of life, 39–43; in neoinstitutional theory, 129, as evoking religious narrative and identity, 216; of civic religion, 353–4; and violence, 364–5
 Rizzo, Helen, 283
 Robbins, Thomas, 378
 Robertson, Pat, 19, 304, 325
 Rogers, R. G.: and impact of religion on health, 195–6
 Rokkan, Stein, 309
 Roof, Wade Clark, 11
 Rose, Arnold M., 244
 Rose, Caroline B., 244
 Rosenthal, E., 254
 Rossi, Alice, 6, 182, 183
 Roth, Guenther, 366
 Rousseau, Jean Jacques: and civil religion, 353, 354, 356
 Rule, James, 363

- sacred time: Durkheim's definition of, 31
 Saint-Simon, Herni: and secularization theory, 111
 Schaff, Philip, 104
 Scheepers, Peer, 313
 Schnittker, J., 192
 Schoenfeld, Stuart, 244
 Schuyler, Philip D., 378
 Scientology, Church of, 341; as organized religion, 54
 Scott, James, 362
 scriptural authority, 13. See also fundamentalism Second Vatican Council: and social justice, 388 sects: and church-sect typology of Weber and Troeltsch, 124–5 Secularists: in typology of religious identity, 147 secularization: impact of on voting behavior, 300–1, 310, 312
 secularization theory, 9, 10, 11, 21, 61, 62, 120–2; and decline of ritual, 40; compared to rational choice theory, 68–70; in global perspective, 71; and church attendance, 93; old paradigm of, 96–8; new paradigm of, 98–100; historical development of, 111–13; religious economies model compared to, 111, 113–15; sociopolitical conflict model as alternative to, 115–119; sociocultural transformation model as alternative to, 119–20; and civil religion, 355. See also modernization
 Seligman, Adam, 350
 Sen, Amartya: and social influences on religious choices, 154
 Sewell, William H., 177; and agency, 212
 Shand, Jack, 181
 Shapiro, Howard M., 248
 Sheilaism, 139; and individualistic religion, 57
 Shema, S. J.: on impact of religion on health, 194, 199, 199
 Sherkat, Darren, 11
 Shinto: historic differentiation of, 47, 48, 50
 Sikhism: boundaries between Hinduism and, 50–1
 Silbey, Susan S.: and creating plots, 213
 Simmel, Georg, 363
 Sklare, Marshall, 249, 258
 Skocpol, Theda, 363
 Smith, Christian, 98, 319
 Smith, Dorothy: and institutional ethnography, 285, 286–8, 292
 Smith, Jonathan Z., 364
 Smith, Timothy, 12
 Snow, David A., 317
 social capital: as sensitizing concept, 22; contributions of faith-based organizations to, 395–6 social class. See class social cleavages: impact of on voting behavior, 298–300, 307–8 social conflict, 331; religion as motivating force in, 100, 103–4; and bipolar conceptions of American religion, 332–6;
 social construction of meaning, 66 social control: violence as, 368, 369 social gospel, 66
 social identity theory: as base for studying religious identity, 209–11 social justice: as component of Jewish identity, 272 social movements: and religious activism, 9, 13; as form of religion, 56–7; and religion and movement culture, 317–18; religious organizations and, 318–20; American political life and, 320–6; ideology and organization of, 326–9; in public sphere 329–30. See also faith-based social justice organizing social structure: symbolic roles of in ritual, 34, 40 socialization: and formation of religious preferences, 153–4; and social influences, 153–5; and parental and family influences, 155–8, 162; and denominational influences, 158–60, 162; and educational influences, 160–2; and Jewish identity, 248–9 sociocultural transformation model: as alternative to secularization model, 119–21 sociologists: attitudes of on religion, 17–19 sociology of religion: attitudes to religion in discipline of, 16–20; theory in, 21–4; methodology of, 24–5; normative concerns in, 26–7; disciplinary integrity of, 27–8; and multidisciplinary exchange, 28–9 sociopolitical conflict model: compared to secularization theory, 115–119, 121–2. See also social conflict
 Somers, Margaret: and social narratives, 213

- Sorel, Georges, 362
 Southern Baptists, 393
 spirituality, 9, 14; defined, 138; and individualism, 138–42; rising importance of in context of individualism, 143–6; and typology of religious identities, 146–8; relation between religiousness and, 179–80; subjects of study of religiousness and, 180–1; in second half of adult life, 183–5; and vital involvement in late adulthood, 185–7
 Stacey, Judith, 281, 285 standpoint theory, 286, 287, 288
 Stark, Rodney, 11, 116; on influence of education on religious choices, 161
 Stephens, Laura, 11
 Stinson, Linda: on church attendance, 89, 92
 Stokes, Kenneth, 184
 Stolzenberg, Ross M.: on influence of education on religious choices, 161
 Strauss, Anselm L., 248
 Strawbridge, William: on impact of religion on health, 194, 199 stress. See depression subculture: as sensitizing concept, 22
 Sutton, John C., 126
 Swidler, Ann, 144, 266, 341
 Tabory, Ephraim, 12
 Tai Chi: as religious movement, 57 terrorism: mystic and apocalyptic orientation as ground for, 371–3. See also World Trade Center attack; abortion: and terrorism at clinics
 Texas Industrial Areas Foundation, 389n5, 390n7, 391
 Thompson, E. P., 360
 Thorne, Barrie, 285
 Thumma, Scott: on identity of evangelical gays, 208
 Tibet, 389
 Tilly, Charles, 363
 Tobin, G. A., 255
 Tractarians: as entrepreneurs, 128 traditionalism: and moral authority, 335, 336, 341 transcendence: as defining characteristic of religion, 58
 Transcendental Meditation, 52; as religious movement, 57
 Traugott, Michael, 90
 Trinh, Sylvania, 378
 Troeltsch, Ernst: and church-sect typology, 124–5
 Turner, Victor, 419
 Unification Church, 51
 Verba, S., 394
 Vidal, Jamie, 400
 Vietnam War: anti-war movement, 19 violence, 9, 12, 13, 14, 259–60, 379–81; against battered women, 289–90, 406–7, 410; defining violence, 360–2; general theories of, 362–4; religious, 364–5; and social order, 365–7; typology of religion and, 367–8; under hierocratic domination, 368–70, 380; and competition between religions, 370–1; and colonization, 371; and religion in counterhegemonic conflicts, 371–3; and nationalism, 373–4; and anticolonialism, 374–5; and countercultural religious conflicts, 375–9. See also social conflict
 Visser, Margaret, 40–1
 Visser, Max, 313
 voluntary associations; in civil society, 350, 351 voting behavior: and religion, 8, 13
 Voyé, Liliane, 67, 98
 Wallace, Ruth: and feminism, 279
 Walzer, Michael, 373
 Warner, R. Stephen, 226, 227, 228; and rational choice theory, 68–9; on identity formation through music and movement, 217–8; and pluralism, 343; and defacto congregationalism, 345
 Waugh, Earle, 228
 Waxman, Chaim, 242
 Weber, Max, 7, 17, 18, 19, 21, 69, 119, 121, 123, 202, 279, 372; study of religions by, 17, 18; contributions to sociology of religion, 62, 63–4, 65–6; and secularization theory, 111; and church-sect typology, 124–5; on religion and social order, 365–6, 367; on monopolistic religion, 368
 Wicca, 52; as religious movement, 57; and spiritual seeking, 147; and goddess religions, 284–5
 Williame, J-P., 65, 67

- Williams, Rhys, 13
- Wilson, Bryan: on secularization, 97; and church-sect typology, 126
- Wink, Paul, 12
- Wirth, Louis, 244
- Witness for Peace, 319, 328
- women: changes in church attitudes to roles of, 169, 171–2; impact of religion on mortality rates for, 198, 199, 200, 202; role of in immigrant churches, 231, 235–36; status of in Judaism, 249–51; in Protestant mainline churches, 280–1; in evangelical churches, 281; in Catholic churches, 282; Latina, 283, 291–2, 401–11; African-American, 283, 290–1; battered women, 289–90. See also feminism
- Wood, Richard, 13; and social movements, 221
- Woodhead, L., 71
- World Trade Center bombing, 4, 362
- Wright, Nathan, 8, 13
- Wuthnow, Robert, 10, 126; on academic specialization, 4, 7; on spirituality, 138–9, 144, 145; on decline of denominationalism, 159; and liberal/conservative split in liberal Protestant denominations, 332; on moral order, 333, 334; on division in civil religion, 355–6
- Yaari, S.: and impact of religion on health, 196
- Yang, Fenggang, 229
- Yinger, J. Milton: and church-sect typology, 126
- Zablocki, Benjamin, 362
- Zald, Mayer: and social movements defined, 151–2
- Zionism. See Jewish identity: and denominationalism