Abkhazia 277
ad hoc multilateral peace operations 93, 97, 101–103, 357 Canadian involvement in 130
funding by participants 369 Indian concerns as to use of 179 ad hoc opportunism, avoidance of 383 African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights 7 alliances 46, 84
American Convention on Human Rights 7 Aristotle assertive multilateralism, Austria 86, 58 balance of power 82, 84
Berger, Thomas U. 64
Blair, Tony 303, 304, 314
Bosnia 95
Canadian participation in UNPROFOR 133
French UNPROFOR leadership 284
NATO airstrikes in 96, 97, 133, 149
Norwegian participation in UNPROFOR 159 Srebrenica Dutchbat, position in international law 117–121
monitoring and observation missions 128–129 UK participation in 306, 313–318 use of force in 96, 355–356
Bush, George H.W. 92, 94
Cambodia 210, 224–225
Canada 68–69
declarations of war by 128
enforcement operations involvement in 139 parliamentary concerns as to 139–143
Great Lakes crisis and 135–136 Haiti, involvement in 138
military deployments, legal basis for 128–129
monitoring and observation missions 134
NATO, commitment to 132, 131
non UN peacekeeping operations 131–132, 137 peacekeeping budgetary constraints 152 domestic bureaucratic tensions 135, 137
multidimensional operations 138
parliamentary debate and control 130, 133–137, 148–149, 150
role in 62–63, 71, 130–131, 132, 149
public opinion 72, 149
UN mission to Somalia 143–147
UN monitoring and observation missions 134
UN Security Council, accountability concerns 150–151 US unilateralism, concerns as to 151 cease-fire 215
“Chapter Six-and-a-Half” operations 89, 90, 94
Russian legislation providing for 270–271
Chapter VII Operations 306–307 use of force, authorization for 354 Chirac, Jacques 291, 292 role in Former Yugoslavia 291 Chrétien, Jean 136, 140
Churchill, Winston 304
Cold War 25, 62, 91, 180, 379
new global order following 381 collective security 13, 40, 41 constitutorial commitments to 39–40 democratic accountability and 13–14, 366, 380
enforcement or compliance operations, participation in 368 Germany, constitutional consideration of 239, 240
international institutions and 349–350
League of Nations and 15, 82–83
United States, attitude towards 338 Westminster model of government and 51, 162 collective self-defense 41 democratic accountability analyses framework 28–31
democratic accountability and 13–14, 379–380
collective use of military forces 379 consensus-based foreign policy considerations 155, 175 enforcement action, United States by 369 enforcement operations 362–364 enforcement operations with humanitarian aims, 368, see also humanitarian intervention evolving mixed system of 375–378 France international and domestic standards 280
parliamentary control 296
future prospects 34–35
Germany 237, 238–239, 253
armed forces of 233
individual citizen's involvement 241
non-delegation doctrine 243
India 199–201, 203
interaction with international institutions 8, 9, 28 international institutions and, 8, 10, see also United Nations Security Council Japan 14, 208, 210, 214, 218, 219–221, 222, 229–230 military forces, use of 4, 12
Norway
Enlarged Foreign Policy Committee 163 national consensus as to 155 political decision-making and 77
Russian Federation, parliament lacking ability to control executive 278–279 study methodology 5
study outline 31–34
UN mandated peace operations 25–26
United Kingdom effectiveness of 319–322 use of force under UN mandate 310–319 War Cabinet, role of 302–304, 322
use of force 61
auspices of international institutions under 351–352, 367–368 control of executive action 365–366 mixed system of 321, 375–378 United States and 344
democratic deficit 80
democratic government, authorization for use of force 27 democratic polity, characteristics of 10 democratization 349, 350 Diefenbaker, John 131, 135
assertive internationalism 131
Dutchbat 117–121
East Timor 137, 184, 216, 306
elections 8, 10
Ethiopia 15, 86
European Convention on Human Rights, 7, see also human rights, humanitarian intervention European Security and Defense Identity, development of 296–297 European Union
foreign policy, role of peacekeeping in 298 international military operations, role in 296–297 rapid reaction force 293, 297 regional collective security function 299 former colonial powers
France 283, 285
interventionism 97
Former Yugoslavia
French participation 284
German participation 56–58
NATO Implementation Force 159, 162, 307, 309–310
Nordic stand-by UN force, participation by 161 Norwegian participation, legality of 168–170 peacekeeping and enforcement, parliamentary authorization for 55, 133–134 UN embargo, Germany, participation in 96, 117–121, 118–120, 133, 159 United Nations Protection Force, role in 50, 133 use of force in 183 see also Bosnia, Kosovo France
armed forces deployment parliamentary debate and control 294–296, 298–299 presidential powers 289, 294
cohabitation, effect on foreign policy 291–292 colonial legacy and 283, 285
constitution
renunciation of war by 45 responsibility for military affairs under 51 crisis decision-making 292–293 democratic accountability, international and domestic standards 280
multipolarity, preference for 287–288 obtaining permanent Security Council membership 282 peacekeeping
Africa 289
RECAMP initiative 289, 286
use of troops based in 285–286, 289
casualties, attitude towards 289
Congo, dissatisfaction with 283 constitutional framework 289
financial commitment to 284–285
involvement in 282
participation in 283, 285
reluctance to accept international supervision 283 Rwanda, operations in 290–291 Suez, dissatisfaction with 283, 305
public opinion 289, 290, 291
role in UN decision making process 284 self-defense 293
“Uniting for Peace”, opposition towards 287, 354
use of force
categories employed on international operations 280–281 flexibility as to 285
importance of mandate for 281
legitimacy and effectiveness considerations 281–282
Geneva Conventions 1949 110, 112, 113
Germany 55, 56–58, 63, 64, 67, 70, 78
armed forces
“citizens in uniform” concept 251 civilian control of 248–250
deployment
international authorization for 239 international law, conformity with 236, 240
parliamentary debate and control 237, 241–244, 247, 252–253 urgent, executive power to authorize 245, 247 post deployment change request by legislature 245–246 rules of engagement 250–251 collective security, constitutional consideration of 239, 240 constitutional approval for UN authorized operations 234–235 constitutional collective security provision 236, 240 contribution to western European defense 232–233
democratic accountability 233, 237, 238–239, 253 extent of citizen’s involvement 241
non-delegation doctrine 243
separation of powers 245
international operations, public opinion and 237 NATO, membership of 232, 234
pacificist movement, 1980s development of 235
parliamentary system 241
participation in UN embargo against Former Yugoslavia 236
peacekeeping
casualties, attitude towards 250
post Cold War involvement in 234
post war rearmament 233
public opinion 71–72, 235, 247, 250, 252–253
use of force
constitutional consideration of 232, 241, 243–244, 242
global parliament, prospects for 382
Gorbachev, Mikhail 19, 91, 259, 261
Gulf War
Canadian participation 139–143, 139
constitutional authority to commit troops 54–55
financial contribution in lieu of troop commitment 56–58, 59, 209
Germany and 56–58, 64, 235
Japan and 56–58, 64, 209
UK participation 311–313
US participation 49, 54, 64–65, 92
Hain 138
Hammarskjöld, Dag 160, 283
Held, David 11
Hobbes, Thomas 81
human rights 350
norms, acceptance of 350
humanitarian intervention 93, 95, 173, 174, 314, 315–316, 350, see also Somalia and Kosovo development of 379, 379 Indonesian dimension 282
intra-state conflicts, authorization for 25, 355–356, 379 NATO, membership of 232, 234
pacificist movement, 1980s development of 235
parliamentary system 241
participation in UN embargo against Former Yugoslavia 236
peacekeeping
casualties, attitude towards 250
post Cold War involvement in 234
post war rearmament 233
public opinion 71–72, 235, 247, 250, 252–253
use of force
constitutional consideration of 232, 241, 243–244, 242
global parliament, prospects for 382
Gorbachev, Mikhail 19, 91, 259, 261
Gulf War
Canadian participation 139–143, 139
constitutional authority to commit troops 54–55
financial contribution in lieu of troop commitment 56–58, 59, 209
Germany and 56–58, 64, 235
Japan and 56–58, 64, 209
UK participation 311–313
US participation 49, 54, 64–65, 92
Hain 138
Hammarskjöld, Dag 160, 283
Held, David 11
Hobbes, Thomas 81
human rights 350
norms, acceptance of 350
humanitarian intervention 93, 95, 173, 174, 314, 315–316, 350, see also Somalia and Kosovo development of 379, 379
French dimension 282
Indonesian rejection of 185, 204
intra-state conflicts, authorization for 25, 355–356, 379 public awareness as to need for 368 humanitarian relief operations, Japanese involvement in 215, 216, 217 independent commissions of inquiry, UK use of 302 India
armed forces 195–196, 199
deployment, parliamentary debate and control 189, 194, 199
personnel, legal liability on international operations 198 civil–military relations 194–195
colonialism, legacy of 177–178, 181–182
democratic accountability 199–201, 203
democratic credentials 177
foreign policy, UN support for 179–180, 204 humanitarian intervention doctrine, rejection of 185, 204 National Security Council, role and organization of 196–197 opposition to secession through terrorism 202
peacekeeping
bureaucratic and executive control 189–190
casualties, attitude towards 197, 199
decision-making agencies 190 decision-making process 190–191 military operational decision-making 190–191 participation factors 188 motives 188
role in 63, 69, 176, 178–179, 180, 182–183
response to Sierra Leone crisis 186–188 response to Sri Lankan crisis 201–203
Suez, view on 181
UN standby brigade group
United Nations Security Council
fears over US domination 204
membership aspirations 188
Indochina 131–132
French involvement in 283
non UN peacekeeping in 131–132, 176, 178–179, 183 supervisory commission, Indian role in 181–182 International Committee of the Red Cross 109, 111–112
International Criminal Court, 123, see also international tribunals international humanitarian law applicability in context of UN peace support operations 109–114 role of Dutchbat in Srebrenica 117–121 international institutions 20th-century development of 378 cosmopolitan democracy and 11
democratic accountability and 10, 27, 28, 381
democratic deficit and 11
interaction with national democracies 8, 27, 28, 39–40 majority rule and 9
participation, constitutional considerations 40–41 international law, individual, status of 379 international tribunals, jurisdiction 374 internationalization, effect on democracy 349 intra-state conflict 26–27 humanitarian intervention in 355–356, 379 probable 21st-century developments 381 Ireland 54, 58
neutrality of 58
peacekeeping, role in 54, 62
public opinion in 72
Japan 55, 56–58, 63, 64, 70, 78
Cambodian peace process, role in 210, 224–225 collective self-defense, constitutional prohibition on 212 democratic accountability 14, 208, 210, 214, 218, 219–221, 222, 229–230 enforcement measures, constitutional prohibition on participation in 214 humanitarian relief operations, involvement in 215, 216, 217 “moderate approach” of 228, 229 parliamentary cabinet system 218, 219, 223, 224 peace operations, constitutional restrictions 207–208, 210–211 peacekeeping bureaucratic and political controls 221
casualties, attitude towards 223, 224–225, 229 requirement for UN General Assembly or Security Council resolution 215, 217
public opinion 71, 209, 210–211, 222, 223, 224, 229
security policy, participation in international military operations 210, 229 Self-Defense Forces
civilian control of 226–227
deployment, parliamentary debate and control 210, 213, 214, 218, 219–221, 222, 223, 225–226, 229 liability under international humanitarian law 227–228 peacekeeping and 70, 208–209 prohibition on dispatch abroad 211–212 rescue of civilians by 217 restrictions on use of force by 211–212, 213, 217 United Nations Security Council, membership aspirations 210 use of force compliance with Peacekeeping Law 214 historical perspective 226–227 parliamentary consideration of 214 judicial review, United Nations Security Council decisions 288, 184 just war doctrine 26
Kant, Immanuel 44
Kellog-Briand Pact 13, 85
Keohane, Robert O. 11
democratic deficit and 11
Korea 17, 24, 52–53, 160
UN mandated UK participation 310–311
UN mandated US participation 88
Kosovo 4, 19, 41–42, 73–74
Canadian participation 143, 149
German participation 56–58, 247
justification for intervention in 173, 174, 355–356
NATO airstrikes 97–99, 100, 143, 149, 247, 314, 344
Norwegian participation 168–170
participation in, parliamentary approval for 55–56, 141–143
Russian participation 276, 278
UN Security Council authority for NATO intervention 287–288, 356 unilateral action by NATO, Indian criticism of 183–184 United Kingdom participation 303, 304, 306
US participation, Congressional approval for 50, 364–365, 371
Kurds, humanitarian assistance to 92
Kuwait, 17, 24, 91, 209, see also Gulf War Lansing, Robert 15
law of war, military forces participating in UN and NATO missions and 28 League of Nations 13, 14–15, 46
collective security and 82–83
institutional legacy of 82–83
opposition to 82–83
US isolationism and 46–47
legal status, military personnel acting under UN and NATO auspices 104–107, 373–375 Leviathan 81
Lloyd George, David 14
Madison, James 44, 46
majority rule 6
international institutions and 9, 25, 26
Malkoud, Clovis 65
Manchuria 15, 86
mass media, role of 70–71, 160
Mediterranean Dialogue 81
Mexico 53
middle powers, peacekeeping role of 62, 63, 68
military forces
authorization for use by international institutions 349 civilian control 370, 371, 375
civilian responsibility for 372, 375 collective use, democratic accountability of 379
democratic accountability and 4, 12, 27, 28, 152
study methodology 5, 12
deployment, Norwegian constitutional practice 162–163 domestic political factors 75 expanded role of 378–379 Germany, rules of engagement 250–251 international authorization for use 352 international operations, participation in 4–5 Japan
civilian accountability and 226–227 constitutional prohibition 214, 216 legal responsibility during international operations 373–375 multilateral organizations and 84–85
national authorization for use 361, 371
parliamentary control 128–129
Russian Federation, legislative provisions for deployment 269, 270–272, 274–277 unilateral and unrestrained use of 349 unilateral use 3–4
United Nations’ missions, participation in 17–18, 19–25, 27, 28 use authorization by democratic governments 27 mission creep 319, 359, 364, 368
Mitterand, Francois 290, 291, 292
Mladic, Ratko 119
multinational military operations, constitutional issues 52–53
multipolarity 287–288
NATO 18–19
airstrikes
authorization for 168–170
use by 96, 97–99, 100
attitude of Russian Federation towards 276 broad enforcement responsibility difficulties 382 Canadian commitment to 132, 131 compliance with law of war 28 consensual decision-making 79 democratically controlled robust military capability 382
evolving role of 40, 41
French intervention in case of attack 293
German membership of 232, 234, 239
Norwegian participation 154, 168–170
Operation Allied Force in Kosovo 4, 17, 19, 352, 380 basis for intervention 41–42 target selection 371
operations, UN Security Council approval for, 159 UK commitment to 305, 307–309 unanimity and delegation under North Atlantic Treaty 343–344 unilateral action in Kosovo, criticism of 183–184 United Nations Charter, legitimacy under 18 Nehru, Jawaharlal 179, 180
new world order, United Nations role in 93, 92
non governmental organizations 11, 73, 80, 289
Non-Aligned Movement 178, 179, 379
Nordic stand-by UN force 160–161
Former Yugoslavia and 161
Norwegian parliamentary approval for 161
North Atlantic Council 3, 13
Norway armed forces, deployment, parliamentary debate and control 157, 158
personnel, legal liability on international operations 164–165 voluntary participation in international operations 164–165 constitutional law foreign control of armed forces 165–168 participation in international operations 162–163 constitutional practice, participation in international operations 162–163
enforcement operations, involvement in 160
foreign policy consensus basis 155, 175 development of 154, 155, 170–171 humanitarian intervention 172–174 sovereignty, security and UN involvement 171–172
monitoring and observation missions 156
NATO, membership of 154
Nordic stand-by UN force, parliamentary approval for 161 peacekeeping international mandate compliance operations 158–159 participation in UN missions 154 royal prerogative 163
UN mission to Somalia, role in 158
UNEF Gaza contingent, deployment of 156–157
UNIFIL contingent deployment of 157–158 factors leading to withdrawal 157, 158 Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm see Gulf War overflight rights 56, 59
peace operations ad hoc multilateral undertakings 93, 97, 101, 102, 103
Canadian involvement, political and cultural factors 130
Peace of Westphalia 13, 81
Pearson, Lester 131, 65
permanent neutrality 45–46
use of force and 76
political leadership, participation in peacekeeping and 65–66
prerogative power 163, 211, 300–301 public debate, use of force 382
public opinion 71–73, 209, 210–211
Rambouillet accord 183, 314
RECAMF, African regional peacekeeping initiative 289, 286 regional arrangements 99–101 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, social person concept of 154, 175 rule of law 6, 8–9, 25, 26
Russia 66, 67, 68, 76
Balkans, interest in 276 international operations, involvement during Soviet period 257, 258–263 see also Russian Federation Russian Federation armed forces deployment constitutionality of 277 Federal Council powers 265–266
parliamentary debate and control 274–277
presidential powers 263–264, 265, 271, 274, 277, 278
enforcement operations, legal basis for participation in 274 Federation Assembly, powers of 265 Kosovo, criticism of involvement by Tatarstan Republic 276 parliament lacking ability to control executive 278–279 peacekeeping casualties, attitude towards 275 official doctrine provision for 272–274 participation in CIS deployment to Abkhazia 277 statutory power to deploy armed forces 209, 270–272 relations with NATO 276
Index

Rwanda 95
  death of UN peacekeepers 373
French involvement 290–291
Scandinavia 53, 63, 66–67, 76
  Nordic stand-by UN force 160–161
  Former Yugoslavia and 161
  secret treaties of alliance 46
  separation of powers 43, 45, 245, 326–327
  September 11 2001 3
  German response to 252
  North Atlantic Council, response by 3
  United Nations Security Council, response by 3 Sharma, Kamalesh 185, 186
Slavic brotherhood 276
  societal groups, opinion-forming role of 73
Somalia 93
  Canadian participation 143–144
  Indian participation 182–183
  Norwegian participation 158
  Unified Task Force operation in 94 Soviet Union 88–89, 90
  state sovereignty, human rights, maintenance of 173, 383
  Suez 130–131, 305, 307–309, 156–157
  French view of 283, 305
  Indian view of 181
  superpowers 91, 335–338
Switzerland 58
Tatarstan 276
Thucydides 81
Treaty of Osnabrück 81
UN and NATO operations 1948 to 2000 17–18, 384–395, 396–398 participating states 399–414 UN peacekeepers
  death of 72, 74, 79, 373 hostages 133, 149, 186, 187 unitary actor approach 61
United Kingdom
  armed forces,
  deployment, parliamentary debate and control 300–302, 307, 309–310
  royal prerogative and 300–301, 317–318, 322
  international criminal tribunal jurisdiction over 302
Cyprus, involvement in 305–306
  democratic accountability, effectiveness
  of 319–320, 321–322
East Timor, parliamentary scrutiny of 317–319
Gulf War, role in 311–313
  independent commissions of inquiry 302
Korea
  involvement in 310–311
  parliamentary scrutiny and 320
  involvement in 303, 304, 308–309, 313–318
  parliamentary scrutiny and 315–319, 321–322
  ministerial responsibility, crimes against humanity 302
NATO, membership of 305, 307–309
  peacekeeping
  casualties, attitude towards 310
  executive decision-making and 300
  public opinion 310–311, 321, 303, 358
  Suez, role in 305
  UN peacekeeping, rapid troop deployment commitment 306 “Uniting for Peace” resolution, attitude towards 305
  use of force, government accountability for 321
War Cabinet, role of 302–304, 322
  United Nations
  competition from regional alliances 79, 97–99
  evolving role of 41
  intra-state conflicts, involvement in 89
  United Nations Charter 13, 14, 15–18, 87 Article 43 agreements 361 changing US attitude towards 341–342
  collective security and 15–16, 17, 26–27, 47, 83, 380
  collective security guarantees in 83 NATO, legitimation of 18 right of self defense 40, 84
  United States ratification of 338–339
  United Nations’ enforcement operations, democratic accountability and 362–364
  United Nations’ mandates constitutional position of Norwegian
  armed forces 165–168
  implementation by national authorities 371–372
  legal responsibility under 107–108 need for 161, 168–170, 171 responsibility for 373

© Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org
Cambridge University Press
0521807476 - Democratic Accountability and the Use of Force in International Law
Edited by Charlotte Ku and Harold K. Jacobson
Index
More information
United Nations’ missions accountability for 372
command structure 370
compliance with norms of law of war 28 financial contributions to 369 military forces, participation in 17–18, 19–25, 28, 69, 70, 384–395, 396–398, 399–414
neutral states, participation in 76, 58 subsequent modifications to 359, 369 United Nations’ monitoring and observation missions 134, 306, 361–362, 156
United Nations’ peace support operations applicability of international humanitarian law, 109–114, 122, 112, see also humanitarian intervention
“experts on mission,” legal status of 114–116, 122
regionalism and universalism, relationship between 304–305
status of military personnel 107–108 United Nations peacekeeping
Canadian participation 62–63, 71, 130,
130–131, 132, 133, 134–135, 149 classical formulation of 94 Congo 134–135
cost-inhibitions to participation 53 Cyprus 132
financial commitment to 68, 90, 188, 284–285, 369
France, use of troops stationed in Africa 285–286
French participation 283, 285
german participation 67, 64, 70, 71–72, 78, 234
host state consenting to 25, 215,
Indian participation 63, 69, 176, 178–179, 180, 182–183, 188
international tribunals, jurisdiction and 374
Ireland, participation 54, 72, 69
Japanese participation 70, 208–209, 215, 217
key characteristics 89
legal status and responsibility of participants 104–107
legislative control over executive decision-making 362
Model Status-of-forces Agreement 108–109
multidimensional operations 138, 151
Norwegian participation 154, 155, 157–158
parliamentary inquiries into 59
participation considerations 188–189
role of societal groups 73 parties, consent to 89
rapid troop deployment commitment 306
regional arrangements and 99–101
Russian participation 66, 67, 76
financial considerations 68
Scandinavian practice 53, 63, 66–67
Suez 130–131
US participation in 64, 69–70, 77
financial considerations 68
US public opinion and 72–73, 79 voluntary participation, Norwegian army 164–165
United Nations Security Council 3, 26–27
accountability of 130, 150–151, 358–359, 372
approval of NATO operations by 159 approval of use of force by US 339–341
arbitrary exercise of power by 184, 185 Chapter VII operation authorization by 365–367, 354
collective security role of 83–84 competency of 288
consultation with contributing states 152, 361
democratic accountability and 378
developing states, under-representation on 185
France
active role played on 285–287, memorandum obtained by de Gaulle 282 humanitarian intervention, authorization for, 93, 357, see also humanitarian intervention
intra-state conflicts and 26–27, 357 judicial review of 288, 184 Kuwait, response to 91–92
lack of democratic accountability 185–186
legitimacy of 287–288, 299
modification to missions by 359, 369 permanent membership 16, 47, 64, 65, 87, 181, 210, 288, 305
veto, use of 358
proceedings, transparency of 359–360, 361
Index

representation of diverse membership 288, 360 resolutions, unilateral interpretation by members 289 secretariat, shortcomings of 372 Soviet Union, boycott by 88–89 superpower cooperation with 91, 204 transfer of powers to General Assembly if deadlocked, 180, 354, see also “Uniting for Peace” resolution use of force, authorization by 92, 288, 289, 378 veto 358
alternative role of General Assembly 354 use of by United States 339 voting, basis for 358
United Nations Truce Supervision Organization 88 United States
alliances, wariness of 334, 342
changing attitudes to UNC Article 43 agreements 341–342 Constitution,
  power to declare war 323, 324–327, 329
treaty authorizing use of force 325
use of force and 44, 323
democratic accountability, use of force and 344 enforcement actions democratic accountability for 369 global capacity for 369
military force structure 335–338 multilateral use of force and 344
peacekeeping
  casualties, attitude towards 79, 131, 332, 344
disproportionate contribution by 336–338 presidential power to declare war 324–325, 327
public opinion 332–334, 345
UN Charter, ratification by 338–339
use of force
  approval by UN Security Council 339–341 law governing 323–324
membership of international organizations and 334, 338 North Atlantic Treaty and 328, 329 party politics and 329–332 protection of national interests 365 separation of powers and 326–327
UN Charter and 328
War Powers Resolution and 327–329, 331
“Uniting for Peace” Resolution 88, 89, 90, 271, 354, 357–358
French opposition towards 287, 354, 303, 358
Indian abstention from vote on 354 Universal Declaration of Human Rights 6–7
use of force
  ad hoc coalitions 97, 101, 102, 103
  authorization, reliance upon Chapter VII 354
  UN Security Council by 92
  Bosnia in 96
  civilian control 370, 371, 375
  consensus-building, protection of 383 constitutional renunciation 56 emerging democracies, decision to use by 78 enforcement action 74, 75
  Former Yugoslavia 183
France
categories for use in international setting 280–281
flexibility as to 285
importance of mission mandate for 281
legitimacy and effectiveness considerations 281–282 future trends 79–80
Germany
armed forces operating under international auspices 237–238 constitutional position 232 parliamentary approval requirement 241–242 international pressure and 77–78 Japan, constitutional prohibition on 211–212, 213, 214, 216, 217 mass media, role in 70–71
means of ensuring compliance 179 multilateral 80
multilateral authorization, legitimacy and effectiveness of 350 multilateral consultation by states 382
multilateral organizations and 84–85
national authorization for 361 negative experience of 79 political considerations in 61–62, 65
public debate 382
public opinion and 71–73
UN peacekeepers by 107–108
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>use of force (cont.)</th>
<th>membership of international organization and 334</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>UN Security Council</td>
<td>USSR, participation in UN Missions 257, 258–263</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>approval of use by US 339–341</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>authorization of 92, 288, 289, 378</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UN Security Council or General Assembly, authorization by 180</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United Kingdom</td>
<td>War</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>government accountability for 321</td>
<td>renunciation of 39, 45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>royal prerogative and 300–301</td>
<td>republican theory of 44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>War Cabinet and 302–304</td>
<td>use of conscripts in 45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>authorization, political reasons for 335</td>
<td>West Timor, humanitarian relief operation 216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>law governing use of 323–324</td>
<td>Wilson, Woodrow 13, 14, 47, 85, 379</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>