

Index

- absorption, into Israeli society, 75–76
 agricultural survey, in Burundi and Rwanda, 168–69
 Albanians, in Macedonia, 21–23, 22(table)
 Alexis Carrel Foundation, 136
 Algeria, 129–30
 allophones, 107–8, 117 (n. 12)
 American Anthropological Association, 47–48
 American Civil Rights movement, 44
 American Indians, 53, 58
 early US censuses, 7–8
 increase in self-identification, 84
 inequality in eighteenth-century US census, 50
 racial categorization on birth certificates, 4
 US Census Race Categories 1790–2000, 67(table)
 as vanishing race, 55–56
 ancestry question
 defining ethnicity, 25–26
 ethnic groups in the US, 83–85
 Israelis, 76–77
 language identity and, 99
 losing ethnicity over time, 82
 US Census, 17–18
 apportionment, as purpose of census, 49–50
 aptitude, as a construction of racial identity, 10–11
 Arab American Institute, 59
 Arab populations, 74, 77–78. See also Moslems
 Arafat, Yassar, 78
 Asia, Central. See Uzbekistan
 Asian, as racial category, 58, 150
 Asian-American lobbies, 58
 assimilation
 of foreigners in France, 132–33
 of Jews, 74–75
 language identity, 100–2
 linguistic assimilation in Belgium, 105–6
 reversing language assimilation in Canada, 106–8
 Australia, 8, 18
 Austria and Austria-Hungary
 categorizing people of Czech descent, 28
 citizenship determination, 8
 Czech-German language dispute, 100–2
 defense of ethnic identification in Austria-Hungary, 126
 identity formation through categorization, 32–33
 language of use as ethnic indicator, 26
 trilingual border area affecting census, 109–10
 Azevedo, Fernando de, 63
 Balfour declaration (1917), 78
 Balkan region, 21
 Banyarwanda people, 162
 Basque people, 20
 Belgium. See also Burundi and Rwanda
 Flemish speakers, 117(n. 10)
 French speakers, 117(n. 11)
 institutional denial of violence in Rwanda, 172(n. 6)
 language as categorization criterion, 28–29, 94, 96
 linguistic assimilation, 105–6
 Ruanda-Urundi censuses, 149–52
 territorial aspects of language identity, 31, 113–14
 Bilingual Act of 1969 (Canada), 112
 bilingualism, 113
 in Belgian schools, 31
 Flemish speakers in Belgium, 105–6
 politics of language use, 97–98

- Blacks, 48–49
 in Brazilian censuses, 63
 as OMB racial category, 58
 racial categorization on birth certificates, 4
 Ruanda-Urundi, 150
 shifts in ethnic categorization and groups, 72–73
 US censuses, 50–52, 84–85
- Bohemia, language dispute in, 101, 109–10
- Bosnians, and language identity, 92
- branco (white) category, 60, 63
- Brazil
 Brazilian Color Questions and Categories, 1872–1991, 68(table)
 history of the color question, 60–65
 racial categorization constituting racial discourse, 43–44
 similarities to US censuses, 44–46, 65–68
- Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics (IBGE), 62–65
- Britain. See also India, Imperial citizenship determination, 8
 national character, 12
 race and ethnicity questions, 20, 66
 Race Relations Act of 1976, 13–14
 “White” categorization, 37(n. 6)
- Bukhara, 187, 189, 191
- Bulgarians, 21–23, 22(table), 36(n. 2)
- Burundi and Rwanda, 148–72
 censuses as big business, 169–71
 colonial-era censuses, 149–52
 counting methods for Hutu and Tutsi, 155–57
 development organizations in, 167–69
 early censuses, 151
 ethnic identity in Rwanda, 3
 Hutu social revolution in Rwanda, 162
 institutional denial of violence, 171 (n. 3), 172(n. 6)
 postcolonial power struggles, 162–67
 post-independence census techniques, 152–54
 racial identity and aptitude, 11
 racist origins of ethnic categories in Belgian colonies, 157–62
 refusal to count specific nationalities in Burundi, 23
- caboclo (mestizo Indian) category, 61
- Canada
 allophones, 107–8, 117(n. 12)
 ethnic group classifications, 73, 79–83
 ethnic origins of ancestors, 25
 founding communities, 37(n. 7)
 language identity, 3, 37(n. 8)
 language situations, 97
 linguistic rights, 112
 minorities categorization, 14–16
 reversing language assimilation, 106–8
 territorial multilingualism, 113–14
- Canadian Heritage agency, 82
- caste, as categorization criterion, 28
- categorization
 cultural categories, 8–102
 identity formation through, 31–35
 as means for abusing and manipulating power, 170–71
 nature of social and national categories, 124
 objectives of data collection, 71–74
 OMB’s Statistical Directive categories, 58–60
 political and social importance of, 35–36
 power over ethnic groupings, 27–31
 rise of population statistics, 5–8
 state certification of collective identities, 2–5
- Celtic Coalition, 59
- Census Advisory Committee on Spanish Origin Population, 6
- Central Asia. See Uzbekistan
- Chinese, as racial category, 53
- citizenship: French census position on, 127–28
- Civil Rights Act (1964), 57
- Civil Rights Commission (US), 29
- clans, 155, 160, 186–87
- coffee cultivation, 46
- Colombia, 66
- colonialism
 caste as categorization criterion, 28
 counting Ruanda-Urundi’s population, 149–52
 cultural categories, 9–10
 demarcation of identities, 3
 French census, 129–30
 French cultural categories in North Africa, 37(n. 11)
 identity formation through categorization, 31–33, 182–84
 racist origins of ethnic categories in Belgian colonies, 157–62
 religion and counting, 194–95
 technology of counting, 192

Cambridge University Press

0521808235 - Census and Identity: The Politics of Race, Ethnicity, and Language in National Censuses - Edited by David I. Kertzer and Dominique Aré

Index

More information

204 Index

- color, as racial category, 48–49. See also Blacks; mulatto; Whites
Brazilian censuses, 60–65
Brazilian Color Questions and Categories, 1872–1991, 68(table)
mulatto category, 11, 48–49, 51–56, 150
US Census Race Categories 1790–2000,
67(table)
- community identity, 186–87
- Constitution, US, 49
- constructivist tradition, of statistics use, 124–25, 157
- Council of Europe, 113
- Croats, and language identity, 92
- Cuba, 66
- cultural identity
countries' refusal to count specific
nationalities, 23–25
defining cultural nationality, 94–95
homeland concept, 108–12
mother tongue versus language of use, 98–102
scientific validity of, 18–23
- culture, defined, 197(n. 1)
- Czech language, 26, 28, 100–2, 109
- Czechoslovakia, territoriality and, 109
- Darwinism, 52
- Department of Social Studies and Indicators (DIESO), 64
- development, economic, 164, 167–69
- discrimination
countries' refusal to count ethnic groups, 25
ethnic categorization as means of combating, 140
foreigners versus citizens in France, 131–32
French ethnic survey, 135–37
institutionalized discrimination in Rwanda, 164–65
positive discrimination, 13
violence prevention programs and educational policy, 141–42
- Dominican Republic, 66
- education issues, 141–42
- elitism
in Brazil, 61–63
self-identification of Tutsi and Hutu, 155–56
- Employment Equity Act
(Canada, 1986), 15
- entitlement, to social programs, 30–31
- Estonia, 97
- ethnic density, 86–87
- Ethnic Group Question, 37(n. 6)
- ethnic identity. See also France,
immigration and categorization debate
Austrian language dispute, 101
in Canada, 79–83
Central Asia under Soviet rule, 180–87
construction of identity through
censuses, 182–87
defining ethnicity, 134
denial of ethnicity in Burundi, 166
French colonial censuses, 129–30
French debate over, 121–22
implications of ethnic measurement, 85–88
Israeli ethnic group classification, 74–79
objectives and construction of categories
and groups, 71–74
postcolonial power struggles in Burundi
and Rwanda, 163–64
versus racial identity, 11–18
racist origins of colonial ethnic categories, 157–62
Ruanda-Urundi, 149–52
self-identification of Tutsi and Hutu, 155–56
- ethnic intensity, 87
- ethnonyms, 185–86
- Europe. See individual countries
- Federal Indian Affairs Bureau
(FUNAI), 65
- fertility survey, in Burundi and Rwanda, 168
- Finland, 3, 99, 113
- Flanders, language assimilation
in, 105–6
- foreigners, 8
versus citizens in France, 131–33
countries' refusal to count ethnic
groups, 23–25
French census position on, 127–28
French terminology, 144(n. 4)
versus immigrants in France, 122
Romas as Hungarians, 19
- Foucault, Michel, 6
- France, 121–45. See also France,
immigration and categorization
debate; French language Balkan demographic data, 19
country of origin concept, 8
cultural categories, 9

- France (cont.)
 French cultural categories in North Africa, 37(n. 11)
 identity formation through categorization in Algeria, 32–33
 linguistic rights for minorities, 112
 opposition to census data collection, 7
 refusal to count ethnic groups, 24
 religion and language, 116(n. 3)
- France
 immigration and categorization debate, 121–22
 censuses used in colonial territories, 129–30
 construction of reality, 140–42
 historical perspective on, 126–27
 immigrant behaviour survey, 130–35
 issues and social perspective, 122–26
 response to survey criticism, 135–37
 social thought and statistical characterization of the individual, 135–37
 stability of French censuses, 127–29
 underlying tradition of discrimination and racism, 143–44
- French Institute of Demography, 19
- French language. See also Belgium; Canada
 immigration and language identity, 92–93
 linguistic assimilation in Belgium, 105–6
 reversing language assimilation
 in Canada, 106–8
- Futuna, 130
- General Directory of Statistics (Brazil), 61–62
- genocide, in Rwanda and Burundi, 153–54, 157–62, 165–66, 169
- “Geographic Mobility and Social Integration” (MGIS), 130–35
- German language disputes, 100–2, 116
 (n. 2, 3)
- Germany
 citizenship determination, 8
 immigrant and ethnic group
 identification, 73
 Masurian language dispute, 110–11
- Germany, Nazi, 118(n. 14)
 racial categorization based on lineage, 12, 66
 racial categorization on birth
 certificates, 4
 self-identification, 38(n. 13)
 territoriality by language, 111–12
- Gourou, Pierre, 156
- Greece
 identifying the Macedonian population, 21–23, 22(table)
 religious identity, 3, 36(n. 1)
- Guatemala, 49
- Gypsies. See Romas
- Habyarimana, 163–64
- Handlin, Oscar, 88(n. 2)
- Hiernaux, Jean, 156
- Hispanic groups
 formulation of Hispanic category, 6
 as OMB racial category, 58
 race versus ethnicity in US censuses, 83–85
 shifts in ethnic categorization and
 groups, 72–73
 subcategorization of, 29
- Hispanic Origins Question, 58
- HIV/AIDS, 168
- home language, 107. See also language of use; mother tongue
- homeland concept, 108–12
- Hungary
 categorizing Romas, 19
 citizenship determination, 8
 language identity, 102, 116(n. 5), 117
 (n. 7)
 mother tongue defined, 99–100
 Transylvania dispute, 117(n. 8)
- Hutu Manifesto (1957), 158
- Hutu people, 148. See also Tutsi people Burundi’s refusal to count, 23
 colonial elitism and racism, 157–59
 methodologies for counting, 155–56
 postcolonial power struggles in Burundi, 162–65
 post-independence violence, 153–54
 race versus ethnicity, 13
 racial identity and aptitude, 11
 social revolution in Rwanda, 162
- identity, collective, 1–8
- identity categories. See ethnic identity;
 language identity; racial identity;
 religious identity
- identity formation, through categorization, 31–35
- Imagined Communities* (Anderson), 5
- immigrants and immigration, 36(n. 4).
See also France, immigration and categorization debate
 absorption in Israel, 89(n. 3)
 American history, 88(n. 2)

206 Index

- immigrants and immigration (cont.)
 bases of ethnic group categorization, 13–18, 36(n. 2), 73
 citizenship determination, 8, 127–28
 classification in Israel, 74–79
 countries' refusal to count ethnic
 groups, 24–25
 ethnic groupings in Canada, 79–80 French debate over ethnic
 categorization, 121–26
 language identity and, 92–93
 race versus ethnicity in Africa, 13
 regional versus national identity, 37
 (n. 9)
 reversing language assimilation in Canada, 106–8
- India, Imperial, 28, 31–32, 182–83
- individual, categorization of the, 125–26, 132, 137–39
- INED. See National Institute of Demographic Studies
- INGOs. See international
 non-governmental organizations
- INSEE. See National Institute of Economic Statistics
- integration, 132–33
- Interagency Committee for the Review
 of Racial and Ethnic Standards (ICRES), 59–60
- intermarriage
 ethnic differentiation in households, 86–87
 French immigration and questions
 of nationality, 122–23
 in Israel, 77
 Ruanda-Urundi, 150
 self-identification among Hutu and Tutsi, 161–62
- international non-governmental organizations (INGOs), 193
- International Statistical Congress, 8–9, 94–97, 113
- Irish people, 92
- Islam. See Moslems
- Israel
 absorption of immigrants, 89(n. 3)
 ethnic group identification and classification, 73–79
 ethnic origins, 89(n. 4)
 refusal to count ethnic groups, 24
 religious identity, 3
- Italian people, 37(n. 5, 9)
- Japanese, as racial category, 53, 84
- Jews
 in Algeria, 130
 ethnic group identification in Israel, 74–75, 89
 as ethnic group in Canada and US, 83
 French information file on, 135
 racial categorization on birth
 certificates, 4
- Kateb, Kamel, 130
- Kazakhstan, 38(n. 12), 187–88,
 197(n. 5)
- Kewri people, 23
- Kirgizia, 187
- Kohn, Hans, 96
- language identity, 3, 92–94
 Austrian Czechs, 28
 Belgian Flemish identity, 28–29
 Canada, 37(n. 8), 118(n. 13)
 Canadian Official Languages Act of 1969, 15–16
 Central Asia, 179–80, 197(n. 2)
 defining ethnicity, 25–27
 impact on nationalist politics, 114–16
 language of use, 98–108
 linguistic rights, 112–14
 Macedonian population, 22–23
 nationality and, 94–97
 politics of language use, 97–98
 reversing language assimilation
 in Canada, 106–8
 Tajik identity question, 187–90
 territorial aspects, 31, 108–9
 language of use, 98–108
language parlée (spoken language), 94–96
- Lebanon, 198(n. 14)
- Lithuania, 12
- Macedonia, 19–23, 22(table)
- mahalla* (urban neighborhoods), 193–94
- Malaya, 194, 197(n. 6)
- Malaysia, 10, 49, 184
- Maquet, Jacques, 156
- Masurian language and people, 92, 110–11, 115
- Mauritania, and refusal to count specific
 nationalities, 23
- mestiço category, 61–62
- MGIS. See “Geographic Mobility and Social Integration”
- Middle Eastern, as racial category, 59
- migration. See immigrants
 and immigration

Cambridge University Press

0521808235 - Census and Identity: The Politics of Race, Ethnicity, and Language in National Censuses - Edited by David I. Kertzer and Dominique Aré

Index

More information

Index

207

- Ministry of Immigration and Absorption (Israel), 89(n. 3)
- minority populations
- British Race Relations Act of, 1976, 13–14
 - Canadian censuses, 14–16, 80
 - constructing nationality in Uzbekistan, 196
 - entitlement to social programs, 30–31
 - linguistic rights, 112–14
 - minority-majority electoral districting, 57–58
 - non-Jewish Israelis, 77–78
 - refusal to count specific nationalities, 23–25
 - Uzbek-Tajik identity question, 187–92
- mixed-race groups. See multiculturalism
- modernity, 192–95
- Moslems, 74, 77–78, 130, 194–95
- mother tongue, 27, 115
- criticism of French survey categories, 134
 - defining nationality through language identity, 94–97
 - home language question in Canada, 118(n. 13)
 - Hungarian censuses, 117(n. 7)
 - as language indicator, 26
 - language of the group versus the individual, 109
 - versus language of use, 98–108
 - Tajik-Uzbek question, 190–91
 - two languages of use, 98
- Mughals, 9
- mulatto category, 11, 48–49, 51–56, 150
- multiculturalism, 17–18
- bilingualism, 98
 - Canadian ethnic interest groups, 82
 - collective identity and, 1
 - lack of multiracial identification choice in the US, 84
 - multiple responses in censuses, 85–86
- multilingualism, 113
- multiracial, as census category, 59
- national character, 12
- National European American Society, 59
- National Institute of Demographic Studies (INED), 122, 130–36
- National Institute of Economic Statistics (INSEE), 121, 130–35
- nationalism, 1, 27
- impact of language and territoriality, 114–16
 - inherited traits as authentic identity, 11–12
 - language identity, 92
 - state certification of collective identities, 3
 - territoriality of ethnic groups, 108–12
- nationality, 3
- Central Asia under Soviet rule, 176–87
- constructing nationality through census questions, 195–96
 - as cultural community rather than bounded locale, 94–95
 - early Soviet Union, 103
 - French survey, 128, 133–34, 144(n. 4)
 - language identity and, 94–97
 - nature of social and national categories, 124
 - Tajik-Uzbek identity question, 187–92
- Native Americans. See American Indians
- Native Hawaiian or other Pacific Islander, 59–60
- native language. See mother tongue
- Negro, as US Census category, 56–57.
- See also* Blacks
- neighborhoods, ethnic differentiation in, 86–87
- New Caledonia, 130
- nonwhite, as racial category, 51–56
- Nott, Josiah, 51
- octoroons, 53
- Office of Management and Budget (US), 17, 58–60
- Official Languages Act (Canada, 1969), 15–16
- OMB. See Office of Management and Budget
- one-drop rule, 4, 34, 55–57, 59
- Organization for Security and Cooperation (OSCE), 113
- origin, country of
- Canadian census, 80
 - defining ethnicity, 134
 - French census position on, 128
 - Israelis, 76–77, 89(n. 4)
 - multiple origins and memories concept, 138–39
 - race and ethnicity in US censuses, 83–85
 - versus self-identification, 85–86
- OSCE. See Organization for Security and Cooperation

208 Index

- Ottoman Empire, 7, 21
 overpopulation, in Burundi and Rwanda, 168
- Pakistan, 23–24, 30–31
 pardo (mixed or brown) category, 60, 62–63
 passport policy, Soviet, 180–81
 Persian language, 189, 198(n. 11)
 politicization, of Uzbekistan's census, 176–77
 polygenism, 51–56
 Polynesia, 130
 positivist tradition, of statistics use, 124–25, 157
 possessive individualism, 34
 power
 efforts to influence categorizations, 27–31
 elitism in colonized Burundi and Rwanda, 157–59
 postcolonial struggles in Burundi, 162–63
 preto (black) category, 60, 63
 principle of nationalities, 21
 Prussia, 99, 110
 public opinion, 178, 186
- quadroons, 53
- race
 Brazilian Color Questions and Categories, 1872–1991, 68(table)
 Canadian censuses, 80
 versus color in Brazilian censuses, 60–61
 as discourse, 46–49
 versus ethnicity in US censuses, 83–85
 Hutu and Tutsi counting, 156
 identification of migrant populations, 127
 indigenous French, 133
 US Census Race Categories 1790–2000,
 67(table)
 Race Relations Act (Britain, 1976), 13–14, 66
 racial discourse, 43–44, 48, 51–57
 racial identity, 43–68
 constituting racial discourse, 43–44, 46–49
 construction of, 10–11
 cultural identity as a social construct, 20–21
 versus ethnicity, 11–18
 OMB Statistical Directive categories, 58–59
 racial democracy in Brazil, 63–64
 US–Brazil comparison, 44–46
 US census, 3, 49–51
 Racial Problems in Hungary
 (Seton-Watson), 12
 racism
 Brazil's whitening population, 62
 French history of, 136–37
 genocide in Rwanda and Burundi, 153–54, 157–62, 165–66, 169
 polygenism, 51, 53–56
 religious identity
 Central Asia, 179–80, 194–95
 Greece, 36(n. 1)
 Israeli minorities, 77–78
 Soviet census, 198(n. 16)
 Rhodesia, 13
 Romanians, 102, 117(n. 8)
 Romas (Gypsies), 19
 Romero, Silvio, 62
 Ruanda-Urundi, 149–52. See also Burundi;
 Burundi and Rwanda
 Russia, 27, 97–98. See also Soviet Union Russia, Imperial
 Central Asian population, 179–80
 defense of ethnic identification, 126
 language identity, 103
 mother tongue defined, 99–100
 religion question, 177
 Rwagasore, Louis, 162–63
 Rwanda. See Burundi and Rwanda
- Samarkand, 187, 189–91
 sample surveys, 152–53
 Sart people, 186, 198(n. 10)
 segregation, 45–46, 53–55, 57, 132
 self-identification, 31–35, 38(n. 13)
 in Brazilian censuses, 63
 in Canada, 79
 construction of identity through
 censuses, 182–87
 ethnic categories versus ethnic characteristics, 138
 ethnic groups in the US, 83–85
 versus national origins, 85–86
 Tutsi and Hutu, 155–56
 Serbs, in Macedonia, 21–23, 22
 (table), 92
 Seton-Watson, R.W., 12
 slavery, 45–46, 49–56, 61
 Slovaks, 12

- social categories. See categorization;
 ethnic identity; language identity;
 racial identity; religious identity
 social programs, entitlement to, 30–31
 Society for German-American Studies, 59
 South Africa, 3, 13, 66
 sovereignty, impact on census
 design, 179
 Soviet Union. See also Uzbekistan
 Central Asia social and ethnic ties, 192
 efforts to influence categorizations, 27
 ethnic categorization on birth
 certificates, 5
 forces behind census design and
 implementation, 177–78
 identity formation through
 categorization, 32
 impact on Israeli immigration, 75
 Kazakhstan, 38(n. 12)
 language identity, 102–5
 nationality ethnonyms, 185
 politics of language use, 97–98
 refusal to count specific nationalities, 23–25
 religious questions on Soviet censuses, 198(n. 16)
 state formulation of ethnic
 nationalities, 6
 territoriality by language, 111
 Stalin, Josef, 184
 state government
 certification of collective identities, 2–5
 forces behind census design and
 implementation, 177–78
 identity formation through
 categorization, 31–35
 links to language identity, 92–94
 power and population statistics, 6–7
 statistical analysis
 censuses as big business in Rwanda and Burundi, 169–71
 census techniques in Rwanda and Burundi, 152–54
 debate over French survey, 137–40
 observations on Rwanda–Burundi
 censuses, 154–55
 scientific validity of cultural identity, 18–23
 statistical measuring in French
 immigrant populations, 123–24
 uncritical acceptance of data, 140–41
 US Census Bureau's racial categorization as, 54–55
 statistical realism, 19
 subjectivity, of cultural identity, 19–20
 Sudetenland, 102, 110
 Sweden, 7, 73
 Switzerland, 94, 96, 99
 Tajik population, 187–92
 taxation, as reason for census, 7, 50, 150–51
 territoriality, 108–16, 187–92
 Teschen area, 109
 Transylvania dispute, 117(n. 8)
 Turkey, 3, 112
 Turkic language, 189, 197(n. 2)
 Turkmenistan, 187
 Turks, in Macedonia, 21–22, 22
 (table), 23
 Tutsi people, 148. See also Hutu people
 colonial elitism and racism, 157–59
 methodologies for counting, 155–56
 postcolonial power struggles
 in Burundi, 162–65
 post-independence violence, 153–54
 race versus ethnicity, 13
 racial identity and aptitude, 11
 refusal to count Hutu, 23
 Twa people, 155–56, 160
 Ukrainian nationality dispute, 103–5
 Umgangssprache (language of use), 26,
 28, 100–1, 116(n. 6)
 United States
 citizenship determination, 8
 efforts to influence categorizations, 27
 ethnic ancestries and categorizations,
 17–18, 33–34, 83–85
 Hispanics as ethnic group, 29
 language identity and immigrants, 92–93
 mulatto people, 51–56
 OMB's Statistical Directive categories,
 58–60
 racial categorization constituting racial discourse, 43–44
 racial identity, 3, 11, 16–17, 49–60
 rise of census-taking, 7–8
 shifts in ethnic categorization and
 groups, 72–73
 similarities to Brazilian experience, 44–46, 65–68
 US Census Bureau's racial
 categorization as statistical analysis, 54–55
 US Census Race Categories 1790–2000,
 67(table)

Cambridge University Press

0521808235 - Census and Identity: The Politics of Race, Ethnicity, and Language in National Censuses - Edited by David I. Kertzer and Dominique Arel

Index

More information

210 Index

- The Uprooted (Handlin), 88(n. 2)
- Uzbekistan, 176–99
- aggregation of Central Asian identities, 185–86
 - constructing nationality through census questions, 195–96
 - global counting systems, 193–95
 - identity formation through categorization, 32
 - regional ethnic terms, 197(n. 3)
 - rise of bilingualism, 98
 - state role in categorization, 178–87
 - Uzbek-Tajik identity question, 187–92
- Venezuela, 66
- violence
- French violence prevention policy, 141–42
 - institutional denial of, 171(n. 3)
 - transborder nature of collective identities, 1
 - Tutsi-Hutu genocide, 153–54, 157–62, 165–66, 169
- Voting Rights Acts (US), 44, 57
- Wallis, 130
- Walloon language, 105–6
- Whites, 48–49
- Brazil's whitening population, 60–63
 - in US censuses, 50–56, 58, 84–85
 - whitening in Brazilian population, 63
- World Bank, 193
- World War II, 110, 118(n. 14)
- yellow, as census categorization, 63, 65
- Zionist movement, 74–75