

Index

- Africa, 25, 128, 235
 'all good things go together', 23
 'Asian financial crisis', 3
 Asia. See East Asia
 'Asian miracle', 31
 'Asian values', the debate about, 32
- 'balanced constitution'. See 'stability' and the 'balanced constitution'
 'bureaucratic authoritarianism' as developed by O'Donnell, theory of, See also Latin America, 'bureaucratic authoritarianism' in 1960s
- capitalism, 13, 22 Chaebôls, 177, 197, 198
 'clash of civilisations', 24
 communism, 13, 92
 conditionalities tied to aid and trade, 20
 under the 'Washington consensus', 16 Confucianism
 as a culturalist argument, 26 and democracy, 33
 and 'rule of law' in Asia, 24
 consociationalism. See 'stability' and consociationalism
- 'debt crisis' of 1982, 16
 democracy. See 'liberal democracy' democracy–development connection cross-national quantitative studies of, 59, 118, 126 five possible connections on each dimension, 28 importance of, 13
 Marxist conceptualisations of, 48 six possible connections, 29 three main lines of thinking, 28
 'trade-off' or 'cruel choice' arguments, 24
 democratisation
- democracy 'by default', 66, 79, 109 and 'economic crises', 101
 general questions about, 126
 'overloaded', 87
 pacts, 71
 as 'political crafting' (second wave theories), 62 preceded by political liberalisation, 64 as a process of institutionalising uncertainty, 65, 71
 'promotion of democracy', 19, 91
 reforma vs ruptura, 64
 as resulting from economic development ('first wave' theories), 59 as running-together of many processes, 14 as a 'structurally contingent' process ('third wave' theories), 68 sustainability of, 86
 'third wave' of, 13
 transition from authoritarianism, 92 transition from communism, 92 transition to democracy, 63 transition vs consolidation, 69
demokratia, 39
 dependency export, 183
 external, 176
- East Asia
 authoritarianism as a problematic concept, 185, 186 and 'developmental' state, 173 and HDI, 213
 'inclusionary institutionalism', 192
 role of authoritarianism in economic development, 184
 'state-led' development, 172 and 'strong' state, 172
 'economic crises'. See democratisation and 'economic crises'

Cambridge University Press

0521808839 - Liberalism, Democracy and Development

Sylvia Chan

Index

More information

272 Index

- economic development
 - 'late', 156
 - 'late-late', 156
 - as 'pre-condition' for 'liberal democracy' ('first wave' theories), 59
- economic liberalisation
 - and enforcement of liberties, 99
 - and globalisation, 79
 - and power of state, 83
 - relationship with political
 - democratisation, 18
 - and structural adjustment in 1980s, 15
 - simultaneously with democratisation, 14
 - and sustainability of democratisation, 86
- 'economic liberties'
 - as a check to political power, 45
 - dependent on 'liberal democratic' shell of capitalist states, 48
 - more likely to be secured under democracy, 47
 - threaten equality (economic and political) when unchecked, 45
- 'economic limits to politics', 146
- 'end of History', 22, 77
- endogenous selection, 120
- Friedman, Milton, 45
- globalisation,
 - and economic liberalisation, 79
 - and end of Cold War, 80
 - the state under. See state, the, under globalisation
- 'good governance'
 - as applied to East Asia, 31
 - elements of, 16
 - theory and practice, 17
- Human Development Index (HDI), 213
- import substitution, 154, 173, 198
- 'inclusionary institutionalism', 192
- interdependence. See globalisation
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 16
- 'late' development. See economic development, 'late'
- 'late-late' development. See economic development, 'late-late'
- Latin America
 - 'bureaucratic authoritarianism' in 1960s, 154
 - compared with Africa, 171
 - compared with Asia, 182, 197
 - compared with Europe, 90
 - reasons for not being the focus of this study, 128
 - reasons for resisting 'liberal democracy', 25
 - rise of democratisation in 1980s, US foreign policy towards, weak constitutional protection, Lee Kuan Yew, 32, 161, 162
- 'liberal democracy'
 - culturalist arguments against, 23
 - desirability vs feasibility, 23, 26, 27
 - and 'external security', 134
 - and 'internal security', 135
 - as a necessary condition of development, 18
 - its recognition of the 'economic limits to politics', 146
 - relationship with culture, 23
 - and war, 134
- 'liberal triumphalism'
 - extent and sustainability of, 20
 - a product of post-Cold War era, 13
- liberalisation
 - economic. See economic liberalisation
 - 'modernisation' school, 59
 - 'neo-authoritarianism' in China, 165
 - neo-classical economics, 157, 171, 174
 - neo-classical political economy school, 156, 158
 - neo-liberalism, 85
 - political liberalisation
 - preceding democratisation, 64
 - 'political liberties'
 - the republican argument, 47
 - rational choice theories, 62
 - rent-seeking, 156
 - representation
 - how it works, 50
 - what it means, 150
 - 'republican' liberalism, 47, 136
- Schumpeter, Joseph
 - democracy as a political method, 65
- 'security'
 - external, 134
 - internal, 135
- 'stability'
 - and the 'balanced constitution', 140
 - and consociationalism, 143
 - and divided government, 140

- and a multiplicity of secondary groups, 139
- political stability vs stability of social decisions, 139
- ‘social conflict as pillars’ of democratic system, 141
- and two-party system, 141
- state, the
 - autonomous vs dependent, 174
 - ‘bringing the state back in’, 172
 - changes under economic liberalisation. See economic liberalisation and power of state
 - ‘developmental’. See East Asia and ‘developmental’ state
 - under globalisation, 81
 - ‘minimal’, 156
 - policy instruments, 180
 - ‘rolling back the state’. See neo-liberalism
 - ‘strong’, 172, 173, 178
- structural adjustment. See economic liberalisation and structural adjustment in 1980s
- ‘third wave’. See democratisation, ‘third wave’ of
- United States
 - its power post-Cold War, 20
- war and democracy. See ‘liberal democracy’ and war
- ‘Washington consensus’, 16