Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1

1 Porfirian Progress in “Mexico’s Chicago” 8

2 Revolution Comes to Monterrey 31

3 Work, Gender, and Paternalism at the Cuauhtémoc Brewery 54

4 Making Steel and Forging Men at the Fundidora 82

5 The Democratic Principles of Our Revolution: Labor Movements and Labor Law in the 1920s 107

6 Every Class Has Its Leaders: ASARCO, The Great Depression, and Popular Protest in Monterrey 145

7 Stay with the Company or Go with the Reds 166

8 State Your Position!: Conservatives, Communists, and Cardenismo 202

9 The Quotas of Power: Organized Labor and the Politics of Consensus 229

10 The Persistence of Paternalism 251

11 The Institutionalized Revolution 282

Select Bibliography of Primary Sources 315

Index 317