

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

The index lists subjects and persons – ancient and modern – treated in the text, not including the notes or Bibliographies.

- abandonment of children, 281–2 abbreviations (nomina sacra) for divine names, 192, 337. See also chi-rho symbol Abercius (Aberkios), epitaph of, 171, 172, 295–6, 303, 314, 315, 351
 Abgar Ukkama, foundation legends associated with, 364–5
 Abgar VIII of Edessa, 356
 Abitina, martyrs of, 520, 522 ablutions. See baptism; public baths; ritual bathing, Jewish abortion, 281–2 abstinence. See celibacy; fasting Achaea. See Greece and Aegean islands Achilles, bishop of Alexandria, 557
 Achilles Tatius, 83
 Acilius Glabrio, 505
 Acmonia (Phrygia), synagogue built by Julia Severa at, 63
 Acta tradition, 193
 Acts of Andrew, 315, 323
 Acts of the Apostles, 189
 Acta tradition spawned by, 193
 Alexandria, hint of early presence of Christianity in, 336 Antioch as centre of early Christianity in, 351
 canonicity of, 212, 213
 councils and synods, 429
 dedication to patron Theophilus, 159, 189 ‘early catholicism’ (institutionalisation of Christianity) evidenced in, 123 eucharist as portrayed in, 163 evidence of Jewish Christianity in, 95
 extension of Christian mission to Gentiles, 88
 Gentile Christianity, sources for, 106
 God-fearers described in, 64
 historiographical nature of, 189
 Jewish diaspora communities identified in, 56
 origins of Gentile Christianity for, 107 Rome, natural attraction of, 399 social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158 uniformity of early Christianity as presented by, 97
 Acts of the Edessan Martyrs, 364 Acts of John
 Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian literary culture of, 315, 325
 on celibacy, 276
 Johannine corpus, relationship to, 128, 136, 325
 Acts of Mar Mari, 365
 Acts of Paul, 213, 276, 323
 Acts of Paul and Thecla, 124, 315, 321
 Acts of Peter, 276, 315, 323
 Acts of Thomas, 276, 357–9, 362
 Adam and Eve and the fall, Irenaeus on, 271
 Adamantius, on Marcion, 196
 Adauctus, 310
 Addai and conversion of Abgar Ukkama, 364 Addai and Mary, Liturgy of, 11
 Adiabene, conversion to Judaism of royal dynasty of, 65 Adversus haereses. See entries at Irenaeus of Lyons adversus Judaeos tradition, 221–3
 Aelia Capitolina, Jerusalem, built on ruins of, 67, 77, 299

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Aemilian, interrogation of Dionysius, bishop of Alexandria by, 516
- Aesop, 81
- Africa. See North Africa
- agapē* or love-feast, 166, 423
- Agrippa, M. Vipsanius, 83
- Agrippa I of Judaea, 40, 76
- Agrippa II of Judaea, 43, 76
- Agrippinus, bishop of Carthage, 387, 431, 480
- Alban, St, and demographics of early Christianity in Britain, 308
- Alcibiades (Christian of Gaul), 370, 376
- Alexander, bishop of Alexandria, 522, 554–6, 557, 559, 562, 564
- Alexander the Great
- Alexandria founded by, 334
 - early history of Judaea and Galilee, 38
 - greater antiquity of ‘barbarian’ cultures in world of, 231
 - Roman empire and, 69
 - spread of Jewish diaspora following conquests of, 53
- Alexander, bishop of Jerusalem, 333, 470
- Alexander of Lycopolis, anti-Manichaean writings of, 347
- Alexander the Phrygian (Christian of Gaul), 370, 376
- Alexander Severus, emperor, 512
- Alexander, Philip, 99
- Alexandria, 334
- Arian controversy and (see Arius and Arianism)
 - bank, early church functioning as, 340
 - bishops of. See chart, xxii–xxiii, 339
 - Catechetical School (didaskaleion) of, 340–4, 493–500
 - ecclesial structure in, 338–40
 - Jewish diaspora of, 55, 60, 65, 67, 71
 - Johannine community, location of, 127
 - Melitian schism in, 522, 557, 559
 - origins of Christianity in, 336–7
 - persecution of Christians in, 513, 514, 515, 516, 522
 - philosophical schools of, 487
 - relations with Christians elsewhere, 344–5
 - social and religious cultures of Christianity in, 337–40
- allegorical interpretation
- Irenaeus on, 266
 - Marcion’s literal interpretation of Jewish scriptures vs., 200–1
 - moral use of literature, Origen’s borrowing of pagan justification of, 499
 - North African preference for typology vs., 395
 - Origen’s use of, 258, 494, 496–500
 - Pauline texts used by Origen to justify, 498
 - Philo on interpreters of Jewish law, 59
 - religious truths, allegorical nature of, 499
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 219–20, 221
- almsgiving and care of the poor, 157–8, 289–91
- Amastris (Asia Minor), demographics of early Christianity in, 308
- Ambrose of Milan, 3, 546
- Ambrosius, patron of Origen, 493, 513
- Ammia, prophetism of, 321
- Ammianus Marcellinus, 544
- Ammonius Saccas, 490
- Amos (prophet), Jesus compared to, 51
- Ananus (high priest), 50, 91
- Anatolius, bishop of Laodicea, 333
- Ancyra, Council of Nicaea originally to be held at, 558
- Andresen, Carl, 238
- Andrew, apostle
- Acts of Andrew*, 315, 323
 - Enkratism in Asia Minor and Achaea, 323
- Anicetus, bishop of Rome, 320, 377, 404, 406
- Annius Anulinus, 520
- anonymous charges against Christians, 507, 508
- Anthony, Life of*, 193
- anti-Semitism
- adversus Judaeos* tradition, 221–3
 - demise of Jewish Christianity contributing to, 102
 - Marcion and, 200, 222
 - Matthew, presumptions and actualities regarding, 94, 216
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix involving, 222, 224
- Antioch
- Council of Nicaea, hearing preliminary to, 557, 560
 - Diocletianic persecutions originating from incident in, 519
 - early Christianity in, 351, 353–4
 - ecclesial structure at, 150
 - epigraphy and Christian demographics, 303
 - Gentiles attracted to Judaism in, 64, 121
 - ‘Golden Church’ of Constantine at, 546, 547
 - Paul of Samosata, controversy over, 362–3, 432

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Pauline mission in, 109
 theology associated with, 353
- Antioch, Council of, 553, 554, 566
- Antiochus Epiphanes, 39
- Antiochus III, 66
- Antiochus of Ascalon, 235
- Antipas. See Herod Antipas
- antiquity, Graeco-Roman respect for, 223–4, 230–3, 239, 240, 242
- Antitheses* (of Marcion), 200
- Antoninus Pius, emperor, 67, 231
- Apelles (follower of Marcion), 409
- Aphrahat, 98
- Aphrodisias (Caria), Jewish associations of, 63
- Apicius, 81
- Apocalypse of Baruch*, 525
- Apocalypse of Ezra*, 525
- Apocalypse of John*. See Revelation
- Apocalypse of Paul*, 193
- Apocalypse of Peter*, 193, 212, 213
- apocalypticism of early Christianity Asia Minor and Achaëa, 320, 322
 celibacy, Christian views on, 276
 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity, 338 eucharist, eschatological significance of, 167 Johannine apocalypticism, 137–40 literary genre of apocalyptic, importance
 of, 193
 Matthean apocalypticism, 188
 North African martyr cult, 391
 Origen's criticism of, 533–4
 Pauline apocalypticism, 113
 politics and government, attitude towards, 524, 525, 527, 530–3, 535, 536 unfulfilled expectations, Christian conundrum of, 27
- apocalypticism of Jesus social structure of followers as eschatological renewal movement, 146–8 eschatological tension between 'now' and
 'not yet', 27 modern recognition of importance of, 18 plausible historical account of, 26–9 Schweitzer's Quest of the historical Jesus on, 17
 Strauss' Life of Jesus critically examined on, 17
- apocalypticism, Jewish, Jude and Revelation echoing, 96
- Apocryphon of John* (Secret book according to John)
- Gnosticism, historical emergence of, 249, 250, 346
- Johannine corpus, relationship to, 128
- Apolinarius of Hierapolis, Claudius, 315, 326
- Apollo
 Christian appropriations of, 12, 571, 570–2, 580 Constantine's dedication to Sol Invictus, 541 Constantine's vision of, 541 oracle at Didyma and origins of Diocletianic persecutions, 519 traditional gods and religions, popular waning of, 518
- Apollonius, 326
- Apollo of Alexandria
 Egyptian Christianity, origins of, 336 identified as Alexandrine Jew in Acts, 122 Jewish Christian missionary to Gentiles, viewed as, 122
 territorial disputes with Pauline mission, 115
- apologetics. See also specific apologists, e.g.
 Justin Martyr
 change in tone and nature in 3rd century, 512 greater antiquity of Jewish culture, arguments based on, 230–3 monotheism, development of Christology out of defense of, 452–3 North African, 388, 392–3
 politics and government, attitude towards, 530 Roman tradition of, 82
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix in, 223–4
- aporias as used in Gospel of John, 129
- apostates. See heresy and schism; lapsi
- apostle as early Christian ministry, 416
- Apostles' Creed, 428, 566
- apostolic authority
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, apostolic traditions of, 322–5
 Clement of Alexandria's claim of relation to, 257
 episcopate as continuation of, 254, 255, 269, 419, 475
 Gaul's connection to, 370
 Irenaeus' concept of, 268–70 John's gospel, symbolic opposition of disciples in, 134
 Paul's singular prominence in second-century Christianity, 202

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- apostolic authority (cont.)
 Peter, assignment of authority to, 133, 149, 411, 477–9 separate apostle's authority, tendency of Christian communities to invoke, 201, 202 Theudas (disciple of Paul), Valentinus claimed as student of, 253, 256, 323
- Apostolic constitutions*, 416, 424
- Apostolic tradition*
 almsgiving and care of the poor, 290, 291 attribution to Hippolytus of Rome, 279 baptism, 422
 creeds, use of, 425
 fasting, 289
 occupations acceptable and unacceptable for Christians, 286, 287
 prayer rituals prescribed by, 279, 288 priestly typology for episkopoi, 420 slaves converting to Christianity, 286
- appropriation of Greco-Roman material culture and motifs by Christians, 570–4, 577–80
- Apuleius, 236
- Aquila of Sinope, 319
- Aquila (Roman Christian), 117, 401
- Aquileia, surviving early church structure at, 575
- ara pacis*, 82
- Arabia (Nabataea)
 Pauline mission in, 109, 150
 rural Christianity in, 311
- Arch of Constantine, 541, 542
- archaeology. See also entries at catacombs
 Christian demographics as evinced by, 304
 Christian presence in 2nd–3rd century Palestine, disputes regarding, 299
 Egypt, evidence for Christianity in, 331
 Galilean history and, 40, 42
 Gaul's lack of evidence from, 366 Jewish diaspora, as source of information regarding, 53, 60
 modern historical use of, 22
 North African Christianity, sparse evidence for, 381
 Roman Christianity, 398
- Archelaus, 39, 48
- architecture. See also archaeology, material culture, house churches, synagogues, and specific structures, e.g. Santa Sabina, Rome
 basilica form, 584, 585
 Christian enculturation of, 581–5
- Constantine's church-building activities, 546–8, 584 liturgical requirements, 583, 584 mithraea, 583
 Roman empire, 82–3
 shrines, 570, 576
 surviving early church structures, 575, 582
- Archontics, 249
- Aristeas*, Letter of, 61, 182
- Aristides of Athens, 315
- Aristobulos III, 48
- Aristobulos the Peripatetic, 62
- Aristophanes, Irenaeus' familiarity with, 266
- Aristotle and Aristotelianism family, household, and paternal authority, 275, 277, 283
 rhetoric, use of, 81
 Roman rediscovery of, 78
- Arius and Arianism, 554–6
 in aftermath of Nicene council, 564–7
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, 327
 Christian education and, 487
 Constantine and, 545, 550
 Constantine II, Arianism of, 551
 Council of Nicaea and, 554–6, 557, 562–7
 death of Arius on privy, 565 excommunication of Arius, 564 homouousios, use of, 555
logos theology and, 556
 monotheism and Christology, development of doctrines of, 466
 Nicene Creed, content of, 562–4
 'out of nothing' (ex ouk ontōn) formula, 554, 555, 563
 persecution of Christians, legacy of, 522 preliminary hearing at Antioch (prior to Nicaea), 557
- Arles
 Christian community in, 378
 Council of, 482, 523, 544, 545, 553–4, 559
- Armenia, demographics of early Christianity
 in, 308
- Arnobius of Sicca, 310, 313, 392
- Arrian, philosophical approach of, 78
- Arsinoite nome
 banking with Alexandrian church, 340 literary evidence for early Christian demographics of, 305
- art. See archaeology; architecture; material culture
- Artapanus, 232
- Artemon, 457
- Ascension of Isaiah*, 315, 321

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- asceticism. See also celibacy; fasting; monasticism Diatessaron, 354
 Marcionite, 197
 martyrdom, practices linked to phenomenon of, 291
 Syrian Christianity and Acts of Thomas, 357
 Asclepius, cult of, 79 Asia Minor, ch. 17. See also specific towns, cities, and regions, e.g. Phrygia apostolic traditions of, 322–5
 chiliasm (millenarianism) in, 320, 322
 demographics of early Christianity in, 308, 317–18
 diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity, 318–19 epigraphy from, 314
 Jewish Christianity in, 97, 98, 319–20
 Jewish communities of, 316, 317
 literary culture of, 315–16, 328
 Montanism (New Prophecy movement), 316, 321–2, 325–7 orthodoxy and proto-orthodoxy in, 325–7
 pagan religion in, 315
 Pauline mission in, 109–12
 prophetism in, 321
 public distaste for Christians in, 318, 505, 508
 social and cultural characteristics, 316–17
 Trinitarian theology in, 324, 327
 unity and universality, Christian sense of, 328–9
 Athanasius, bishop of Alexandria Arius' death on privy recounted by, 565 canon, 39th Festal Letter of 367 CE as defining moment in, 191, 213
 on Council of Nicaea, 552
 Irenaeus as influence on, 273
 Nicene Creed and, 561, 562, 564 persecutions, legacy of, 522 preservation of christological correspondence of Dionysius of Rome and Dionysius of Alexandria by, 466, 467 tribulations as bishop, 565 atheism charges against Christians of, 452, 505, 521, 569 Epicureanism viewed as, 489
 Athenagoras
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, Christian literary culture of, 315
didaskaleion (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 341
 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity as evidenced by, 340 legatio pro Christianis made by, 509
logos theology of, 456
 on monotheism and creation, 444–5 prayers for emperor and empire, 528
 social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 159
 Athens
 Areopagus, Paul's address at, 568, 569
 demographics of early Christianity in, 309
 Pauline mission in, 113, 114
 Attalus (Christian of Gaul), 370, 376
 Attica, Pauline mission to, 114–17 Atticus on creation of world in time, 436 origins and derivation of philosophy, 236
 Augustine of Hippo City of God, 551
 mixed faith marriage of mother Monica, 279 slaves and children, equality of, 283 validity of schismatic baptisms, re-eruption of controversy over, 483 Augustus Caesar
 patronage of Jewish communities, 66
 Philo's admiration for, 525 providence seen in contemporaneity of Jesus with, 529, 533 reign of, 69–70
 Roman building programme of, 82
 Aurelian, emperor, ousting of Paul of Samosata with aid of, 363, 468
 Aurelius Manos, 310 Aurelius Victor, 539 auspicium, 79
Authoritative teaching, 338 authority apostolic (See apostolic authority) councils and synods, 477
 episcopal (See episkopoi, authority of) Gnosticism's basis for, 250, 253, 268
 Origen's concept of, 259
 Roman insistence on, 404–6, 411–12, 460
 Roman primacy, Cyprian's assertion of Petrine authority not related to, 478 tradition of Church, Irenaeus' concept of, 268–70
 Valentinian basis for, 253, 254, 255, 256, 323
 Aux deux lauriers, Roman catacomb of, 517

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Ba'al Hammon cult in North Africa, 384–5, 518
- Babatha, 67
- Babylas, bishop of Antioch, 470, 514
- Babylonia, Jewish diaspora of, 53, 67
- Babylonian Talmud, 53
- Bacchanal conspiracy, 504
- Bacchus/Dionysos
 Christian appropriation of cult motifs of, 570, 572, 580
interpretatio graeca applied to Yahweh as, 80
- Bagnall, Roger, 349
- bandits, Jesus and his followers viewed as, 147
- bank, early church in Alexandria functioning as, 340
- baptism, 160–3
Apostolic tradition, ritual in, 422 architectural requirements, 584 children, 283 complete immersion vs. pouring water over head, 160 Constantine's, 549 death and resurrection, association with, 160, 162
Didache, ritual in, 422
 Dura Europos, Christian house church at, 161, 414, 575, 576, 584
 Gnostic, 251
 heretics/schismatics/idolators, validity of baptisms performed by, 394–5, 479–83, 560 institutions of church, development of, 422–3
 Jesus, baptism in name of, 162
 Johannine Christianity, 141
 John the Baptist, 161–2, 580
 oil, anointing with, 163
 Pauline development of, 120
Philippians 2:6–11 used in, 162 purity and holiness, association with, 161–2 reconciliation of sinners following, 394–5, 411–12, 426–8, 472–4, 476, 555 ritual bathing of Jews, associated with, 160, 161 visual representations of, 580
- Bar Kochba revolt, 67
 Christian community of Jerusalem dispersed by, 299 importance of Jewish diaspora and, 53
 Jewish Christianity affected by, 99
 'parting of the ways' model and, 215
 Roman empire affected by, 77
- Barabbas, 147
- barbarians
 derivation of Graeco-Roman culture and philosophy from, views regarding, 230–3, 235–7
 Goths, invasions of, 506, 514
 Graeco-Roman world-view of self as distinct from, 105
- Bardaisan and Syriac Christianity, 356–7
- Barnabas. See also Epistle of Barnabas
 Egyptian Christianity, origins of, 336
 Jerusalem meeting of early Christian missionaries, 103 non-Pauline missions to Gentiles, 121 Paul's loss of as partner, 109 third generation of Pauline writings (early second century), 106
- Baruch, Apocalypse of*, 525
- Basil of Caesarea, 546, 560
- basilica form of church architecture, 584, 585
- Basilides
 Egyptian Christianity, origins of, 336, 348
 Egyptian Gnosticism and, 345, 346
 Gnostic identity questioned, 248 legitimation strategy used by, 255 monotheism and creation according to, 441–2 negative theology of, 441
- Basilides, Gospel of*, 190
- bathing. See baptism; public baths; ritual bathing, Jewish
- Bauer, Walter, xvi, 97, 99, 318, 336, 397
- Baur, Ferdinand Christian, 123
- Ben Sira*, Greek version of, 62
- Berenice, Jewish diaspora of, 60
- Beroea
 demographics of early Christianity in, 309
 Jewish diaspora of, 56
 social class of early Christians, 159
- Berossus, 232
- Beryllus of Bostra, Origen's examination of, 429, 458
- Bible. See also gospels, Jewish scriptures, 'New Testament', 'Old Testament', Septuagint, and specific books, e.g. Galatians illustration of early Christian scriptures, 176 interpretation of (See interpretation of scripture) Irenaeus' conception of, 266–8 liturgical reading, interpreting, and exhorting from, 168
 North Africa, Latin Bible of, 386

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- scripture and canon, distinguishing, 204
Syriac Bible and Diatessaron, 354–5
- biographical culture. See entries at literary culture
- bibliomachy or ‘battle of the literatures’, 178
- Biblis (Christian of Gaul), 370
- biographical nature of Mark, 185
- bird flight and behaviours, divination of (auspicium), 79
- birkat-hamminim*, 100, 132, 227
- birth control, 281
- bishops. See episkopoi
- Bithynia-Pontus, Pliny on Christians of. See Pliny the Younger and Trajan, correspondence regarding Christians of
- Blandina and her mistress (Christians of Gaul), 370, 372
- Boethusians, 48
- Book of Thomas the Contender*, 359
- Bornkamm, Günther, 20
- Boscoreale, art and architecture of, 82
- Bostra, Pauline mission in, 109
- Bousset, Wilhelm, 15, 247
- Boyarin, Daniel, 244
- Brahmans associated with origins and derivation of Greek philosophy, 236
- Brent, Allen, 405, 406
- Britain, demographics of early Christianity in, 307
- Brown, Raymond E., 88
- buildings. See architecture
- Bultmann, Rudolf K., 19, 20, 247
- burial practices. See also entries at catacombs Christian nekropoleis, 303 funerary inscriptions, Christian, 302–4
Jewish diaspora, 62
material culture of early Christianity, funerary context of, 574
sarcophagi, 575, 577, 578, 579, 580, 587
- Caecilian, bishop of Carthage, 522, 544, 558
- Caesarea Maritima
Christian roots in, 300, 308
Jewish diaspora of, 55, 65
Origen’s move to, 300
- Caesariani*, 515
- Caius, Johannine writings attacked by, 324
- Calepodius, Roman catacomb of, 515
- Caligula (Gaius), emperor, 46, 65, 70, 77
- Callistus, bishop of Rome catacomb of Callistus and, 460, 576 marriage in early Christianity, 279
monotheism and Christology, 456–63
North Africa, relations with, 394 persecution of Christians and, 481
Rome, early Christianity of, 405
Callistus, Roman catacomb of, 144, 460, 516, 575, 576, 577
- Cameron, Averil, 588
- cannibalism, accusations against Christians of, 507, 509
- canon of truth. See rule of faith
- canonical writings, 212–13
Athanasius’ 39th Festal Letter of 367 as defining moment in, 191, 213
- biographical curse at end of, 193
- bipartite ‘Gospel and Apostle’ form of, 203, 211
- date of formation of, 191, 204, 213
- Eusebius’ discussion of, 213
- fourfold gospel, 190–1, 206, 212, 213, 267
- Gnosticism and, 267
- Irenaeus’ proposal regarding, 255, 266–7
- Jewish scriptures as part of, 212
- major corpora in place by end of second century, 191
- Marcion’s canon, 202, 205
- Marcion’s contribution to formation of orthodox canon, 203–5, 211–12, 267
- Muratorian canon list, 204
- North Africa, 387
- Pauline letters, 212, 213
- scripture and canon, distinguishing, 204
- use and public reading in liturgy as final determinant of, 213
- Capernaum, surviving early church structure at, 575, 582
- Cappadocia, demographics of early Christianity in, 308
- Carpocrates and Carpocratians, 248, 336
- Carthage. See North Africa
- catacombs, Melos, 309
- catacombs, North Africa, 308, 382
- catacombs, Rome
Aux deux lauriers, 517
Calepodius, 515
Callistus, 144, 460, 516, 575, 576, 577 Christian iconography of, 576–81 demographic evidence derived from, 304, 398 Domitilla, 505, 515, 575
epigraphy and Christian demographics, 303 growth of Christianity evidenced by, 505, 512, 513, 515, 517
Jewish diaspora, 63

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- catacombs, Rome (cont.) material culture of Christianity evidenced from, 574, 575–6
 Maximus, 517
 Novatian, 517
 Pamphilus, 517
 Peter and Paul, missions of, 402
 Priscilla, 575
 Sebastian, 575
 Thrason, 517
 Vigna Randinini Jewish catacomb, 63
 catechetical school (didaskaleion) of Alexandria, 340–4, 493–500 catholicism, early (institutionalisation of Christianity), 122–4, 133, 154–5 celibacy
 Christian practice of, 276
 Constantine's laws on, 544
 Marcionite prescription of, 197 in Syria and Mesopotamia, 357, 358
 Celsus, xv birth of Jesus to Mary by soldier Panthera, 496 borders between Graeco-Romans and 'others', attempts to patrol, 244 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity as evidenced by, 340
 Jewish apostates, Christians regarded as, 510
 Justin Martyr, possible target of Alēthēs Logos, 237, 238, 239
 on Marcion, 195
 monotheism and Christology, paradox of, 452, 456
 monotheism, concept of, 240–3 novelty as opposed to antiquity, charge against Christianity of, 223, 232, 237–40, 243 Origen's refutation in Contra Celsum, 223, 238, 465 politics and government, Christian attitudes towards, 532, 534
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Graeco-Roman world, 230 social class of early Christians, views on, 156
 Cephas. See Peter, apostle Cerinthus Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian culture of, 316, 324
 chiliasm (millenarianism) in Asia Minor and Achaea, 320
 Christology of, 33
 Johannine competition with, 33, 127
 John's gospel directed against heresies of, 268 Chaldeans, contributions to Greek philosophy of, 236
 changeability / unchangeability of Son, 555, 564
 chanting and singing, 168
 charismatic or ecstatic phenomena, 169 charismatic vs. institutional ecclesial authority, 122–4, 133, 154–5
 chastity and fidelity, marital, 278, 279–80 chi-rho symbol, 303, 542, 581, 587 children and childhood, 280–3 abandonment and exposure, 281–2 baptised represented as children, 162
 baptism of, 283
 God as father, social ramifications of, 282
 paternal authority and duty of obedience, 275, 277, 282
 pederasty, 281
 religious practices of, 283 slaves, 284
 slaves vs. children, 283 teachers of children, Christian limitations regarding, 287
 chiliasm. See apocalypticism chosen people. See divine election Christian attitudes towards government and politics, xvii, 589 apocalypticism and, 525, 527, 530–3, 535, 536
 apologetics, 530
 Augustus and Jesus, providence seen in contemporaneity of, 529, 533 church first envisioned as political structure, 526
 'Constantinian turn', effects of, 535–6 development of, 525–7 eastern vs. western views, little difference between, 537
 Jewish ideas, derivation from, 525 modern concept of 'state' and, 524–5 monarchy and monotheism, affinity between, 536
 in New Testament, 524, 525, 526, 527
 prayers for emperor and empire, 528, 535
 'world' vs. 'state', 524
 'Christians' and 'Christianity' discrete and enclosed systems, problems in regarding Christianity and Judaism as, 215, 221 forms of, pts II, III, IV. (See also Gentile Christianity; Jewish Christianity;
 Johannine Christianity)

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- historiographical issues of, 586–9
 ideal Christian life, what constituted, 291 identification of Jewish and pagan sages as Christian, 224, 243, 254, 255
 Judaism, popular association with, 505, 510 map of spread of, 1st–4th centuries CE, 294 marriage and family life, Christianisation
 of, 278
 monotheism of, Celsus' criticism of, 237–40 not official religion of empire under Constantine, 538, 551 novelty as opposed to antiquity, charged with, 223–4, 232, 237–40, 243
 'parting of the ways' model, 215, 217, 228 rebellion against Judaism, viewed as, 239 self-identity of (See entries at self-definition and differentiation)
 slaves and slavery, 285
 use of terms, 103, 150, 220, 222, 319, 338, 351 Christology. See also logos theology;
 monotheism and Christology abstraction from other issues, dangers of, 460
 Antioch/Syria and Mesopotamia, 353, 363–4 Arian controversy over (See Arius and Arianism)
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, apostolic traditions of, 324
 changeability/unchangeability of Son, 555, 564 creation (ktisma), Son as, 555, 564
 filioque controversy, 567 historical Jesus in relation to, 8–15 homoousios (See homoousios, use of) Irenaeus, 267, 272–3
 Jewish Christianity and, 89, 94, 99
 Johannine Christianity, 132, 136–7, 189
 Marcionite docetism, 197
 Mark's portrayal of Jesus' misunderstood identity, 185–6
 monogenēs formula, 562, 567
 Paul of Samosata, controversy over, 363–4
 recapitulation, Irenaeus on, 272
Chronicle of Edessa, 356–7 chronology of Roman emperors and bishops of Rome and Alexandria, see chart, xxii–xxiii Chrysostom. See Dio Chrysostom; John Chrysostom church and 'state', relationship between. See Christian attitudes towards government and politics; politics and religion church buildings. See architecture church organisation and institutions. See ecclesial structures; institutional structures of early Christianity church property. See ecclesial property church, theology of. See ecclesiology Cicero
 letters of, 81 philosophical approach of, 78
 on Roman religion, 79
 Timaeus, influence of, 435
 Cilicia, Pauline mission in, 109 circumcision baptism as circumcision of Christ, 162
 Gentile converts to Christianity and, 87, 95, 111 Hadrian's prohibition of, 67
 Johannine attitude towards, 95
 Judaism, chief defining mark of, 57, 104
 Pauline understanding of, 111, 112, 118
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
 Jewish matrix, 222
 Cirta (Numidia), 517, 520 cities and towns with Christian populations, 306–9 citizenship, Roman
 Gaul, Christians of, 370
 Paul's, 159
 social status of most early Christians, 310 civil society. See Christian attitudes towards government and politics; politics and religion
 Clabeaux, John J., 210
 Claudius, emperor expulsion of Jews from Rome by, 66, 71, 93, 117, 503
 Jews of Alexandria and, 65, 71
 Letter of Pontius Pilate to Claudius, 532 religious matters, conservative approach in, 70
 1 Clement addressed to Corinth, 315
 canonicity of, 212
 collection of Paul's letters suggested by, 184 continuity of Pauline mission to Corinthians evidenced by, 117 eucharist in, 424
 Jewish Christianity evidenced by, 32, 94
 politics and government, attitude towards, 526 prophetic activity, tensions raised by, 321
 Roman church in, 402

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- 1 Clement (cont.)
 Rome and western empire, continuation of Pauline mission in, 118
 second generation of Pauline writings, 106
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
 Jewish matrix, 219
 Clement of Alexandria (Titus Flavius Clemens), 256–8 allegorical nature of religious truths, 499
 almsgiving and care of the poor, 291 appropriation of pagan motifs by, 572 didaskaleion (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 340–4
 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity as evidenced by, 338, 339, 340 intellectual engagement with Jews and Jewish scholarship, 227, 438
 Jewish literary fragments preserved by, 62
 life and works, 342
 on monotheism and creation ex nihilo, 446 motifs for signet rings, list of, 574 pagan cultic imagery adapted in Christian poetry of, 13
 Philo, familiarity with works of, 438 social and educational levels of early Christians, 159, 512
 Clement of Rome. See also 1 Clement discipline and repentance of sinners following baptism, 426
 episcopacy, divine authority of, 475
 ministry of early church, development of,
 417, 418, 420
 Pauline collections known to, 208
 tradition of church, concept of, 268
 Cleomenes, 458 clergy. See diakonoi; ecclesial structures;
 episkopoi; presbyteroi Clusium (Etruria), epigraphy and Christian demographics of, 304
 codex, Christian preference for, 180, 184, 192, 227 Codex Vaticanus, 193 collegia. See voluntary associations Colosseum, 83
Colossians
 Deutero-Pauline nature of, 106, 183
 household code, 278, 284
 Marcion's Pauline letter collection
 containing, 208 possible Pauline authenticity of, 110
 slaves and slavery, 284
 Columella, 81
 Commodian, apologetics of, 392
 Commodus, emperor, Athenagoras' legatio pro Christianis addressed to, 509 communications and transportation in Roman empire, 73–4, 152
 community organization. See ecclesial structures; institutional structures of early Christianity concubine slaves, 286 confession (exomologēsis), 427
 confessors, 390, 393, 472–3
 Constans, emperor, 547
 Constantine, Arch of, 541, 542
 Constantine, emperor, xviii Arius and Arianism under, 545, 550
 baptism of, 549
 Bibles commissioned by, 177, 193 birth, parentage, and youth, 539–40 bishops, powers and privileges granted to, 545–6 celibacy and marriage, laws on, 544
 Christianity as supported by, 542–4 Christianity not official religion of empire under, 538, 551 church-building activities of, 546–8, 584 concept of heresy originating with, 97, 545, 550 conversion of, 72
 Council of Nicaea and, 540, 545, 552, 553, 557, 559
 divine inspiration claimed by, 541, 542–4
 'divinity' of, 550
 Donatist controversy and, 544, 548 early support for Christianity, claims of, 541 Edict of Milan, 542, 543
 epistolary tradition used by, 192
 Eusebius on, 538, 542, 548–9, 550, 551, 559
 funeral of, 550 immunity offered to Christian clergy by, 543, 544
 institutional strength of church, use of, 415 intervention in church affairs by, 545, 551
 Jesus, early imperial concepts of, 4, 5, 6 Lactantius on, 539, 541, 542 legacy of, 550–1
 on logos prophorikos issuing from logos
 endiathetos, 557, 563
 Milvian Bridge, battle of, 522, 542, 543 mother of, see Helena, 550–1 Nicene Creed, use of homoousios in, 548, 560, 563
 official toleration of Christians, under, 542, 549

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- oratio ad sanctorum coetum*, 6, 548, 549, 557, 558, 563
- pagan religion under, 541, 543
- persecution of Christians in empire ending with, 521
- personal religious beliefs of, 548–50, 557
- religious toleration and, 549
- rise to power and demise of Tetrarchy, 540–2
- significance of reign of, 550–1
- sources for, 538
- successors of, 550
- Sunday observance, legislation on, 544
- Zosimus on, 539, 544
- ‘Constantinian turn’
- Christian attitudes towards government and politics, effect on, 535–6
- response to rather than cause of Christian triumph, 537
- Constantinople
- church-building activities of Constantine at, 547
- founding of, 543, 551
- Second Oecumenical Council convened by Theodosius, 566
- Constantius Chlorus, emperor, 518, 539, 540
- Constantius II, emperor, 5, 547, 551, 566
- contexts of early Christianity, ch. 15–22
- contraception, 281
- Coptic Christianity, development of, 336
- Coptic language, early Egyptian Christian works translated into, 332, 333, 349
- Corinth
- demographics of early Christianity in, 309
- Jewish Christians of, 93
- Pauline mission to, 114–17
- Roman army veterans settling in, 73
- Roman church, contact with, 402
- Septimius Severus, persecution of Christians under, 511
- 1 Corinthians, 114–17
- Marcion’s Pauline letter collection containing, 208
- ministry of early church, development of, 416
- politics and government, attitude towards, 526
- seven authentic letters of Paul, 106
- 2 Corinthians, 114–17
- Marcion’s Pauline letter collection containing, 208
- redaction of multiple letters into, 116
- seven authentic letters of Paul, 106
- Cornelius, bishop of Rome, 394, 411–12, 475–7, 514
- Cornelius the Centurion (Acts 10), 108
- Corpus Hermeticum* and location of Johannine community, 127
- cosmology/cosmogony, ch. 24. See also creation ex nihilo; monotheism and creation
- Bardaisan and Syriac Christianity, 356–7
- Christological concepts arising out of 2nd century concern with, 453–6
- Gnostic, 249
- historical Jesus and, 8–23
- Manichaean, 361
- Marcion’s, 198, 440, 454
- Platonic, 436
- Plotinus’, 436
- in Timaeus, 435
- Cotiaeum (Phrygia), demographic dominance of Christians in, 309
- Council of Antioch, 553, 554, 566
- Council of Arles, 482, 523, 544, 545, 553–4, 559
- Council of Constantinople, Second Oecumenical, 566
- Council of Elvira, 307
- Council of Lambaesis, 308
- Council of Nicaea, ch. 31. See also Nicene Creed
- aftermath of, 564–7
- Arian controversy addressed at, 554–6, 557, 564–7
- Asia Minor and Achaëa, Christianity of, 319
- Constantine and, 540, 545, 552, 553, 557, 559
- debates at, 559
- doctrine as issue of, 552, 554
- ecumenical or worldwide nature of, 552, 558
- enactments of, 558–60
- Eusebius on, 552, 558, 559
- idolators/heretics/schismatics, validity of spiritual acts performed by, 482, 555
- institutions of early Christianity, establishment of, 425, 431
- issues addressed by, 553–8
- lapsi*, reconciliation of, 559, 560
- location of, 558
- Melitian schism settled at, 557, 559
- number of bishops attending, 558
- persecution of Christians, legacy of, 522
- preliminary hearing at Antioch, 557
- protagonists in, 553–8
- purpose and meaning of, 552–3

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Council of Nicaea (cont.)
 Quartodeciman controversy settled at, 553–4, 560 significance of, xviii sources on, 552 validity of spiritual acts performed by heretics/schismatics/idolators, 482
- Council of Serdica, 566
- councils and synods
 Antiochene synodal letter regarding Paul of Samosata as benchmark for conciliar actions, 362, 432, 467–8 authority of, 477
 Decian persecutions and, 431
 discursive, 432
 heretics/schismatics/idolators, validity of baptisms performed by, 481, 482 Iconium (Phrygia), council-like gathering at, 431 institutions of church, development of, 428–33
 Jerusalem Council, 103, 109, 111, 156, 297 local/provincial vs. ecumenical or worldwide, 432, 552, 558 new mode of church government, Council of Nicaea as sign of, 552
 North Africa, 387, 431
 Novatian schism, councils in Rome and Carthage in response to, 476 parliamentary, 432
 participants at, 431
- countryside. See rural areas
- courts, councils functioning as, 428–33
- covenant of God with Israel. See divine election
- creation and the flesh. See also asceticism; celibacy
 Gnostic devaluation of, 271
 Marcion's devaluation of, 197, 439–41 monotheism and (See monotheism and creation)
 North African contentions regarding, 393
 Platonic distinction between being and becoming, 266, 271 process theology of Irenaeus, 270–2, 273 time, creation of world in, 436, 442 creation ex nihilo (out of nothing). See also cosmology/cosmogony; monotheism and creation Basilides on, 441–2 concept and linguistics of, 436–7 cosmological context of, 454 heretical groups as stimulus for early church to work out ideas about, 439
 Irenaeus of Lyons on, 449–50
 Marcion and Tertullian on, 440, 447
 Tatian approaching, 445
 Theophilus of Antioch on, 447–8
 Valentinian ideas regarding, 443 creation (ktisma), Son as, 555, 564 creation out of material substrate
 Athenagoras, 445
 Hermogenes of Antioch, 445–7
 Justin Martyr, 444
 persistence in Christian thought, 446 Platonic concept of, 436
- creeds
 Apostles' Creed, 428, 566
 Nicene Creed (See Nicene Creed) use of, 425
- Crescens, 407
- Crete. See Greece and Aegean islands
- Crimean Bosphorus, manumission inscriptions of, 64
- Crispina, martyrdom of, 520
- cross and crucifixion. See also true cross and holy sepulchre historical inferences regarding, 24–6 Marcionite explanation of, 197 rarity of early visual representations of, 5, 581 Roman conviction and crucifixion of Jesus, historical inferences regarding, 24–6 sign of the cross, 170 social structure of Jesus and his followers, significance for, 146
 staurogram, 192
titulus, 484, 1–4, 8, 24
- Crossan, John Dominic, 21
- culture, Christianity as, 170–3 culture, material. See material culture culture of locality, Christian adaptation of, 300 cultus, history of Jesus overlaid by, 8–15
- curses and cursing birkat-hamminim, 100, 132, 227
 Lycian curse texts, 64
- cursus publicus* (Roman postal and courier system), 74
- Cybele, 12, 79, 317, 384
- Cynicism, 79, 407, 408
- Cyprian, bishop of Carthage
 confessors, 390, 393, 473
 councils and synods, inception of, 431, 432
 death of, 516
 Decian persecutions and, 389–90, 470–1, 514

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- demographics of early Christianity educed from letters of, 305, 306, 307
- discipline and repentance of sinners
 following baptism, 389–90, 428
- dreams, revelatory nature of, 394
- episcopal authority, ecclesiological argument in favour of, 411, 474–5
- Firmilian's correspondence with, 328
- heretics, validity of baptisms performed by, 395
- interpretation of scripture according to, 395
- ministry of early church, development of, 419–21
- on 'Mother Church', 394
- North African Christianity, evidence for, 381, 389–90
- Novatian schism and, 411, 475–7
- Petrine basis of episcopal authority asserted by, 411, 477–9
- relics, veneration of, 391
- right of persecuted to flee, defense of, 471
- schism in Carthaginian church, ecclesiological response to (De catholicae ecclesiae unitate), 477–9
- Valerian persecutions, 515, 516
- validity of spiritual acts performed by idolators/heretics/schismatics, 479–83
- Cyprus
 Christian governor of, 159
 Jewish revolt of 115/116 CE on, 67
- Cyrenaica
 Berenice, Jewish diaspora of, 60 Jewish ephebes associated with gymnasium of, 63
 Jewish revolt of 115/116 CE, 67 sicarii (assassins) active in, 59
- Cyril, bishop of Alexandria, 564
- Cyril, bishop of Jerusalem, 5
- daimones*, concepts regarding, 241, 243
- Damascus
 Gentiles attracted to Judaism in, 64
 Pauline mission in, 109
- Daniel* (biblical book)
 Hippolytus' commentary on, 531 politics and government, attitudes towards, 525, 527, 531
- Daniel (character), Christian iconography of,
 579
- Daniélou, Jean, 90
- De catholicae ecclesiae unitate*, 477–9
- deacons. See diakonoi
- Dead Sea Scrolls and Qumran community celibacy, practice of, 276
- diversity of Judaism in first century evinced by, 25
- eschatological renewal movement,
 Qumran viewed as, 147, 148
- Johannine community, location of, 127
- modern historical use of, 22
- Odes of Solomon* and Syriac Christianity reminiscent of, 355
- singing and chanting, 168
- death and resurrection. See also cross and crucifixion baptism associated with, 160, 162
 Christianity's basis in, 30–4 empty tomb viewed as historical root of, 29
- eucharist associated with, 164–5, 166
- importance to plausible historical account of Jesus, 29–30
- Reimarus' 'stolen body' thesis, 16
- visual representations of, 576–81
- Decapolis, Jewish diaspora of, 55
- Decius, emperor, persecution of Christians
 by, 72, 470–2, 514–16
- Asia Minor and Achaea, early Christianity
 of, 318
- councils and synods, development of, 431
- decrees not specifically aimed at Christians, 513
- ecclesiological response to effects of, 474–5
- geographical spread of Christianity and, 306, 307, 308
- immediate and long-term effects of, 470–2
- lapsi* created by (See lapsi)
- North Africa, early Christianity of, 389–90
- quip about bishops in Rome, 307
- Rome, early Christianity of, 411
- social and ecclesial life of early Christians affected by, 154
- Decline and fall of the Roman empire* (Edward Gibbon), 2, 306, 309
- deliberative rhetoric, Graeco-Roman tradition of, 82
- Demetrius, bishop of Alexandria, 259, 339, 345, 404, 491
- Demetrius the Chronographer, 62
- demographics of early Christianity, ch. 16. See also geographic spread of Christianity; social structures and social status
- Asia Minor and Achaea, 317–18
- controversy surrounding, 312

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- demographics of early Christianity (cont.)
 linguistic minorities, appeal of Christianity to, 311 map, the spread of Christianity (1st–4th cents. CE), Map 4 methods and sources for discerning, 302–5 rural populations, 311–12 size and proportion of Christian to non-Christian population, 309 statistical estimates of population, 306, 543 urban areas with Christian populations, 306–9
- Derrida, Jacques, 244
- Deutero-Pauline writings, 106, 181–3
- deviance. See heresy and schism
- Diadochoi*
 Roman empire and, 69
 ruler cult tradition of, 72
- diakonoi*, 153–6 development of ministry in early church, 417
 ‘early catholicism’ (institutionalisation of Christianity), 123
 Pauline mission to Philippi, 113
 Phoebe of Cenchreae, 118
 voluntary associations, terms borrowed from, 154
- Dialogus cum Tryphone Judaeo* (by Justin), 220, 226, 408, 409, 455
- diaspora, Jewish. See Jewish diaspora
- Diatessaron*, 207, 212, 354–5
- Didache* abortion and child abandonment forbidden by, 281
 almsgiving and care of the poor, 289
 Antioch, possible origins in, 353 baptismal ritual, 160, 422
 canonicity of, 212, 213
 charismatic vs. institutional modes of authority displayed in, 154 eucharistic ritual, 165, 166, 423, 424
 fasting, 288
 ‘freelance’ teachers, prominence of and concern over, 487
 Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 96, 225
 Johannine Christianity and, 135 ministries outlined by, 416, 417, 420 pederasty forbidden by, 281 poor, Christians’ identification with and provision for, 158
 prayer rituals prescribed by, 168, 288
 prophetic activity, tensions raised by, 321
 slaves and slavery, 285
- Didascalia*, 225
- didaskaleion* (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 340–4, 493–500
- dietary laws
 Jesus on, 87
 Jewish diaspora’s practice of, 58
John’s gospel not attacking, 95
Mark on, 94
 Peter’s rejection of sharing food with Gentiles (Gal 2) due to, 92
- Dillon, John, 242
- Dio Cassius, 505
- Dio Chrysostom banishment of, 78 rhetoric, as exemplar of, 82
 Roman domination accepted and criticised by, 70
- Diocletian, emperor, persecution of Christians by, 72, 517–22
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, 318
 Constantine and Constantius during, 540 Eusebius’ account of, 300
 origins of, 519
 Syria and Mesopotamia, 364 texts, importance placed on destruction of, 177 unity of empire as aim of, 518
- Diodorus of Sicily, 231
- Diognetus*. See Epistle to Diognetus
- Dionysius, bishop of Alexandria Arian controversy and language of, 556 cemetery regulations promulgated by, 517 chiliasm (millenarianism) in Asia Minor and Achaëa, 320 correspondence of, 345, 349
 councils and synods, 430
 Decian persecutions, in hiding during, 470
 Dionysius of Rome, christological correspondence with, 466–7
 Novatian schism, role in, 475, 476 Valerian persecutions, fate during, 515, 516 validity of schismatic baptisms, role in mending church relations over, 482
- Dionysius the Areopagite, 159
- Dionysius, bishop of Corinth, 328
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, Christian literary culture of, 315, 316
 epistolary tradition used by, 192
 poor, Christians’ identification with and provision for, 158
- Dionysius, bishop of Rome, 466–7, 517

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Dionysos/Bacchus
 Christian appropriation of cult motifs of, 570, 572, 580
interpretatio graeca applied to Yahweh as, 80
- Dioscurides, 81
- Diotrephes and leadership of Johannine Christianity, 135
- discipline in the early church, 426–8
- discursive councils, 432
- dispensatio (oikonomia)*, 461, 462, 489
- ditheism
 anti-monarchians, charged with, 459
 Gnostic theology, 249
 Irenaeus' rejection of, 266, 267
logos theology and, 456
 Marcion, 197
- diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity, xvi, 588 See also unity and universality, Christian sense of
- Asia Minor and Achaea, 318–19
- ecclesial authority in earliest church, 153
- Egyptian Christianity, 336, 346
- 'fractionated' Roman Christianity, 252, 397, 400–1, 403, 404–6, 460
- Gaul, 374–6
- Irenaeus' call for unity in face of, 255
- Jewish Christianity, continued vitality and diversity of, 97, 99
- Jewish diaspora, diversity of religious strains in, 59
- Judaism of first century, diversity of, 23, 25
- modern acceptance of pluralism, connection with, 23
- North Africa, 393–4
- self-definition and differentiation among Christian groups, 245, 246
- Syrian Christianity, 359–62
- toleration of diversity, 255
- divination and signs in Roman religion, 79, 80
- divine election
 Jewish world-view and, 103–5
 Pauline concept of, 111, 113, 119
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 221
- divine revelation, nature of, 393–4
- Divine Wisdom. See also Holy Spirit; Christology; logos theology Johannine echoes of, 131 logos identified with, 456
 Origen on, 465
 Paul of Samosata on, 468
- divorce, 279–80
- Docetism, Docetists
 Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian culture and, 323, 324 Christology and, 453 gospel of Mark used by, 207 historical Jesus, detachment from, 33
 Johannine Christianity's tendency towards, 132, 133, 135, 137
 Marcionite, 197
- doctrinal impulse of church
 Christian education and, 485
 Council of Nicaea and, 552, 554 historical Jesus complicated by, 8–15 monotheism/Christology debates stimulating, 468–9 unity in doctrine vs. conformity in worship, 554
- Dodd, C. H., 20
- dogma. See doctrinal impulse of church
- Domitian, emperor grand-nephews of Jesus brought before, 299 persecution of Christians under, 71, 299, 505–6 Stoic opposition to, 78 temple tax, diversion of, 67
- Domitilla, Roman catacomb of, 484, 505, 515, 575
- Domnus, bishop (Pannonia), 558
- domus aurea* (golden house) of Nero, 82
- Donatists
 appearance of Donatus, 522
 Constantine and, 544, 548
 as legacy of Diocletianic persecutions, 522–3 North African Christianity, regarded as true heirs of, 396 origins of schism of, 521 validity of schismatic baptisms, re-eruption of controversy over, 482, 483
- Dorival, Gilles, 350
- Dorotheus, 310
- double dissimilarity, criterion of, 21
- dreams, revelatory nature of, 393–4
- 'drug of immortality' and Eucharist, 424
- Druids in Gaul, 367
- Dura Europos
 Christian house church at, 161, 304, 414, 512, 546, 575, 576, 584 mithraeum at, 583 religions of, 353 synagogue at, 60, 353, 582 trilingual inscription at, 352
- dynamic monarchianism, 457

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- 'early Catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 122–4, 133, 154–5, 263
- Easter, dates of. See Quartodeciman controversy
- eastern vs. western views in aftermath of Nicene council, 566–7
filioque controversy, 567
on politics and government, 537
- Ebionites, 31, 99, 207, 225, 457
- ecclesial buildings. See architecture, and specific structures, e.g. Santa Sabina, Rome
- ecclesial property and wealth churches, economic and social resources needed to construct, 583 confiscation under Valerian, 515
Constantine, access of church to wealth under, 546
Constantine, church-building activities and endowments of, 547
- ecclesial structures, 145–56 See also councils and synods cities and colonies outside Jerusalem in first century, 150–3 Constantine's intervention in church affairs as imperial precedent, 545, 551
Council of Nicaea as sign of new mode of church government, 552
demographics of early Christianity and, 305, 307, 308 disagreement, ecclesial ways of dealing with, 155–6
- 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 122–4, 133, 154–5, 263
in Egypt/Alexandria, 338–40 emperor as God's vice-gerent, 551 immunity offered to Christian clergy by Constantine, 543, 544 institutions of church, development of, 416–21
Irenaeus on, 263, 269
Jerusalem church, 149–50
Jesus and his followers, 146–9
Johannine Christianity, 133
marriage of lower clergy, Council of Nicaea on, 545 Matthew only gospel to use term ekklesiā, 187
North Africa, 387
offices of the church, development of, 153–6, 269 (see also diakonoi; episkopoi; presbyteroi)
Pauline development of, 120, 150–3 political aspects of (See Christian attitudes towards government and politics; politics and religion) political structure, church first envisioned as, 526 poor, organised church assistance for, 289–91 presbyteral councils, early governance by, 133
Rome, 404–6
schools/teachers, relationship between emergent hierarchy and, 487
- ecclesiology, ch. 26
Decian persecutions, response to aftermath of, 474–5
political structure, church envisioned as, 526 schism, unity of church under bishops posited in response to, 477–9 ecstatic or charismatic phenomena, 169
- Edessa
Abgar Ukkama, foundation legends associated with, 364–5
Acts of the Edessan Martyrs, 364
Christian community of, 356–7
Chronicle of Edessa, 356–7
demographics of early Christianity in, 309
martyrdom and persecution in, 364 rural Christianity in hinterlands of, 311 Thomasine tradition of, 360
- Edict of Milan, 542, 543
- education, Christian, 485–8
Alexandria, didaskaleion (catechetical school) of, 340–4, 493–500
Bardaisan and Syriac Christianity, 356–7
basic structure of, 490
Christianity's resemblance to a school, 469, 486, 487 curriculum of, 488–90 different levels of, 488, 492 doctrinal development of church and, 485 ecclesial hierarchy and teachers/schools, relationship between, 487 earliest church, teaching emphasis of, 485, 486 episkopoi, teaching role of, 486, 487 ethics, 489, 490
'freelance' teachers, prominence of and concern over, 486, 487
Hippolytus of Rome, school of, 488 iconography of Christ as teacher/philosopher, 484, 575

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- interpretation of scriptures as goal of, 490, 493–500
- Jesus viewed as teacher, 148, 485, 575
- logic, 488, 490
- ministry of early church, role of teachers in, 416
- modern schooling, need to abandon analogies with, 491
- moral use of literature, Origen's borrowing of pagan justification of, 499
- natural philosophy or physics, 489, 490
- Origen as evidence for, 485, 488
- Origen in Alexandria, 490–2
- Origen in Caesarea, 485, 488–90
- philosophical schools at Rome and Alexandria, 406–11, 487, 488
- philosophy/theology, 489
- education in Roman empire, 78, 81–2. See also rhetoric
- basic structure borrowed for Christian paideia, 490
- interpretation of scripture based on system of, 191
- Irenaeus' educational background, 266
- social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
- Tatian's use of paideia to describe Christian thought, 408
- teachers of children, Christian limitations regarding, 287
- women, 278
- Egeria, on Thomasine relics of Edessa, 360
- Egypt, ch. 18
see also Alexandria
- chōra* or countryside, 335, 347–9
- Coptic Christianity, development of, 336
- Coptic language, early Egyptian Christian works translated into, 332, 333, 349
- Decian persecutions in, 514
- demographics of early Christianity in, 305, 308, 312
- Diocletianic persecutions in, 521
- distinctive culture of, 335, 336
- diversity of early Christianity in, 336, 346
- ecclesial structure in, 338–40
- evidence and sources regarding Christianity in, 331–4, 348–9
- geography of, 335
- Gnosticism in, 336, 338, 345–6
- Greek fascination with, 231
- Jewish revolt of 115/116 CE in, 67, 335
- Jews of, 335–6, 338
- legacy of persecutions in, 522
- literary culture of Christianity in, 331–4, 337–40
- Manichaeism in, 346–7
- map of, 330
- monasticism in, 350
- origins and derivation of Greek philosophy, 236
- origins of Christianity in, 336–7
- persecution of Christians, evidence of Egyptian Christianity drawn from records of, 348
- relations with Christians elsewhere, 344–5
- Roman annexation of, 65
- social and religious cultures of Christianity in, 337–40
- 'synagogue of magicians' in, 515
- Valerian persecutions in, 515
- Egyptians, Gospel of. See Gospel of the Egyptians*
- Elchasai, 460
- elders. See presbyteroi
- election. See divine election
- Elephantine, Jewish diaspora of, 55
- Eleutherus, bishop of Rome, 261, 328, 376, 406
- Eliot, George, 16
- Elvira, Council of, 307
- embarrassment, criterion of, 22
- emperors. See chart, xxii–iii, Roman emperors, and individuals, e.g. Domitian
- Encratism in Asia Minor and Achaea, 323
- Endymion, Christian appropriation of iconography of, 579, 580
- entertainments, public, Christian attendance at, 287
- Epainetus and Pauline mission to Rome, 117
- Epaphroditus and Pauline mission to Philippians, 113
- Ephesians*
- Deutero-Pauline nature of, 106, 110, 182, 184
- household code, 278, 282, 284
- Marcion's Pauline letter collection containing, 208
- recapitulation, concept of, 272
- slaves and slavery, 284
- Ephesus
- Johannine community, location of, 126
- Pauline mission in, 110
- social class of early Christians, 159

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Ephrem
 on Bardaisan and Syriac Christianity, 356 and Diatessaron, 354 Jewish Christianity evidenced in works of, 98
 on Marcion, 196
 on Marcionites in Syria, 357 on Thomasine relics of Edessa, 360
- Epicetus, philosophical approach of, 78
- Epicureanism, 77–9, 489, 569
- epideictic rhetoric, Graeco-Roman tradition of, 82
- Epigonus, 403, 458, 460
- epigraphy
 Abercius (Aberkios), epitaph of, 171, 172, 295–6, 303, 314, 351
 Asia Minor, Christianity in, 314
 Christian demographics revealed by, 302–4
 Egypt, evidence for Christianity in, 331
 Gaul, 366, 378–9
 Jewish diaspora, 62, 63, 64
 Judaising elements mixed with pagan formulae, 64
 Pectorius inscription, Gaul, 378–9
- Epiphanes son of Carpocrates, 336
- Epiphanius of Salamis on Egyptian Christianity, 348 on Gnostics, 249
 on Marcion, 195, 196, 205
 on Paul of Samosata, 468
- episkopoi*, 153–6 See also individual bishops, e.g. Callistus, bishop of Rome chronology of Alexandrian and Roman bishops. See chart, xxii–xxiii Clement of Alexandria's attitude towards, 257
 Constantine and, 545–6
 Council of Nicaea, number attending, 558 development of ministry in early church, 417–21
 differentiation and isolation of rival groups as responsibility of, 255
 'early Catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 123, 133
 in Egypt/Alexandria, 339
 Eusebius' disrupted list of Jerusalem succession, 299 hospitality as important virtue of, 171
 Irenaeus on, 269, 475
 in North Africa, 387
 Origen on real vs. visible bishops, 259
 Pauline mission to Philippi, 113
presbyteroi, early interchangeability with, 417, 419 priestly typology for, 420–1 in Rome, 404–6 (See also Rome, bishops of) schools and teachers, relationship between emergent hierarchy and, 487 supremacy in province confirmed at Nicaea, 559 teaching role of, 486, 487 translation of, Council of Nicaea on, 559 validity to perform spiritual acts due to idolatry, heresy, or schism, 394–5, 479–83 voluntary associations, terms borrowed from, 154
- episkopoi*, authority of apostolic succession and, 254, 255, 269, 419, 475 civil government, patterned on, 419, 474 Decian persecutions, ecclesiastical argument in support of authority of bishops in aftermath of, 411, 474–5 lapsi controversy and Novatian schism strengthening, 477 schism in Carthaginian church, ecclesiastical arguments in response to, 477–9
- Epistle of Aristeeas*, 61, 182
- Epistle of Barnabas*
 canonicity of, 212
 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity, 338
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 219–20, 222
- Epistle of Pontius Pilate to Claudius*, 532
- Epistle to Diognetus* abandonment of children not practiced by Christians according to, 281 local culture, theological interpretation of Christian adaptation of, 300
 politics and government, attitude towards, 526
 social relationship of Christians to world, 274
- Epistles, New Testament. See specific epistles, e.g. Hebrews
- epistolary tradition in Graeco-Roman world, 181, 192
- Epistula Apostolorum* orthodox positions taken in, 326 prophecy in, 321
- Erastus of Corinth, 159
- eschatology. See entries at apocalypticism
- Essenes, 50, 59

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- ethics. See morality
- Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8), conversion of, 108, 122
- ethnicity. See race and ethnicity
- eucharist, 423–5
agapē or love-feast vs., 166, 423 baptism followed immediately by, 163
Didache, 165, 166, 423, 424
 diverse Christian groups sharing, 255 ‘drug of immortality’ and, 424 eschatological significance of, 167 excommunication as means of distinguishing rival Christian groups, 256 full meal, as part of, 165 gods, Roman tradition of banqueting with, 163, 167 institutions of church, development of, 423–5
 Johannine Christianity, 141 memorial nature of, 164–5, 166 miracle of loaves and fishes, associated with, 144, 165 origins of term, 160, 166 pagan cultic practices adapted to Christianity, 14
 Passover Seder and, 163, 165
 Pauline development of, 120 prayers and rituals associated with, 424 priestly typology for episkopoi and, 421 suspicions of non-Christians about nature of, 507, 509 thanksgiving characteristic of, 160, 166 theology of martyrdom and, 373 unity, Christian sense of, 166
 vine and grape harvest motifs, Christian appropriation of, 573
- Euctemon, bishop of Smyrna, 470, 514
- eudaimonia*, in Graeco-Roman philosophy and pastoral care, 79
- Eugnostos the Blessed*, 338, 346
- Euhemeristic theory of religions, 15
- Eumeneia (Phrygia), 303, 309, 312
- Euodia and Pauline mission to Philippi, 114
- Euplus (Catanian martyr), 503
- Eupolemus, 232
- Eusebius of Caesarea
 Antioch, condemnation at hearing preliminary to Nicaea, 557, 560
 Arian controversy and, 556
 Asia Minor and Achaia, Christian literary culture of, 315 Athanasius and, 565
 on Bardaisan and Syriac Christianity, 356 canonical writings discussed by, 213 chōra of Egypt, Christian expansion into, 347–9 chronology of Alexandrian bishops, 339 Clement of Alexandria domesticated by, 257 on Constantine, 538, 542, 548–9, 550, 551, 559 on Constantine’s church-building activities, 547, 576 on Constantinople, 543
 on Council of Nicaea, 552, 558, 559
 on councils and synods, 429
didaskaleion (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 340–4
 Domitian, persecution of Christians under, 71 Ebionites as described by, 31 on Egyptian Gnosticism, 345 exchange of letters between Rome and Alexandria on Easter controversy, 344 Gaul, letters from Christians of, 366, 369 on grand-nephews of Jesus via Jude, 299 Helena’s pilgrimage and discovery of holy sepulchre by Constantine as told by, 4 historiographical nature of Luke and Acts influencing, 193 on Irenaeus, 261, 262
 Jerusalem church, disruption of, 298, 299
 Jewish literary fragments preserved by, 62
 Licinius, relationship with, 559 literary evidence for Christian demographics, 305 literary nature of Christian victory, 177 on monarchian controversy, 457–8
 Nicene Creed, content of, 562–4
 Nicene Creed, origins and composition of, 560–1 Nicene Creed, text of, 561 on Origin’s teaching at Alexandria, 490–2
 on Paul of Samosata, 467 persecutions recorded by, 510, 513–15, 516, 519, 520, 521 politics and government, Christian attitudes towards, 536 on Quartodeciman controversy and fasting rites, 289 Thomasine tradition known to, 360 true cross, silence as to discovery of, 2, 4–5 uniformity of early Christianity as presented by, 97

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Eusebius of Nicomedia, 327, 555, 557–9, 565
 Eustathius of Antioch, 559, 565
 Eutropius, on Constantine, 539
 Eutychius, Egyptian / Alexandrian ecclesial structure according to, 339 evil, origins of Athenagoras on, 445
 Gnostic concern with, 439
 Hermogenes of Antioch, 446
 Justin on, 444
 Tertullian on, 410
ex nihilo creation. See creation ex nihilo
ex ouk ontōn ('out of nothing') formula, 554, 555, 563 Exodus, Aeschylean tragedy by Ezekiel based on, 62 exomologēsis (confession), 427 exposure of children, 281–2
 Ezekiel (the Tragedian), 62
 Eznik of Kolb, on Marcion, 196
Ezra, Apocalypse of, 525
 5 and 6 Ezra, 315
 Fabian, bishop of Rome, 470, 514
 Fabiola, divorce and remarriage of, 280
 Fabius of Antioch, role in Novatian schism, 475, 476 faith and history, tension between, 16 family and household. See also children and childhood; marriage; slaves Christian mission, as locus for, 122, 124, 151, 159
 Christian practice and custom, 275–86
 Christianisation of, 278
 paternal/patriarchal authority in, 275, 277, 278, 282 religion of Roman empire and domestic cult, 80 social structure of Roman empire based on, 75 voluntary associations based on, 159
 fasting, 288
 father, social effects of God as, 282 See also family and household; patriarchy Felicitas, martyrdom of, 388, 511
 Felix of Abthungi, 522 fidelity and chastity, marital, 278, 279–80 Filastrius, on Marcion, 195
filioque controversy, 567
 fire of Rome blamed on Christians by Nero, 71, 503–4 Firmilian of Caesarea, 316, 328 fiscus iudaicus, 59, 66, 505, 506 fish and fishing, 45
 Christian representations of fishermen, 571
 Christian symbol, fish as, 8, 144, 378–9, 577 miracle of loaves and fishes associated with Eucharist, 144, 165
 Flavia Domitilla, 505
 Flavius Clemens, 505
 Flavius Josephus. See Josephus the flesh. See creation and the flesh
 Flora, student of Ptolemy the Valentinian, 256, 268 Florinus the Valentinian, 255, 256, 326, 377 form criticism, 19 forms of early Christianity, xiv. See also Gentile Christianity; Jewish Christianity; Johannine Christianity fourfold gospels, 190–1, 206, 212, 213, 267
 'fractionated' Roman Christianity, 252, 397, 400–1, 403, 404–6, 460
 Frankfurter, David, 349
 Franks and filioque controversy, 567
 Freund, W. H. C., 312
 Fronto, 509
 Fundanus, Caius Minucius, 508 funerary inscriptions. See epigraphy funerary practices. See burial practices Gaius (Caligula), emperor, 46, 65, 70
 Gaius, house church hosted by, 115
 Gaius Julius Caesar. See Julius Caesar Galatia
 demographics of early Christianity in, 308
 Jewish Christians of, 92
 Pauline mission in, 109–12
Galatians, 109–12
 Antioch as centre of early Christianity in, 351
 Marcion's Pauline letter collection containing, 208
 seven authentic letters of Paul, 106
 Galen, 407
 Galerius Maximus, emperor, 518, 519, 520, 521, 535, 540–2 Galilee, ch. 1. See also Palestine cultural identity of, 41–2 early history of, 38–9, 136 economy of, 45–8
 geography of, 37, 130
 Herodian period, 39–40, 135
 interest in study of, 40–1 Jewish diaspora, viewed as, 55 Jewish presence in, 41 land-owning patterns in, 44, 45

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- map, 1st century CE, 36 monetary system of, 46 social stratification in, 42–5
- Gallienus, emperor, 391, 516
- Gallus, emperor, 514
- Gamaliel (Rabbi), Paul's studies with, 59
- Gaul, ch. 20
 apostolic tradition, connection to, 370
 Arles, Christian community in, 378
 Christian communities of, 369–71, 374–6, 378 (See also Lyons; Vienne)
 demographics of early Christianity in, 307 diversity of Christian groups in, 370, 374–6 evidence and sources for early Christianity
 in, 366
florioque controversy and Franks of, 567
 Greeks/Easterners settling in, 367, 369, 370 Irenaeus of Lyons and early Christianity in, 366, 369, 374–6 (See also Irenaeus of Lyons)
 letters from Christians of, 366, 369–71 Marseilles (Massalia), possible Christian community at, 369
 Montanism and, 370, 376 named Christians from, 370 pagan religions in, 367, 368 Pectorius inscription, 378–9
 persecution of Christians in, 265, 307, 369–71, 372–4, 508, 509
 Roman empire in, 367–8
 Rome, importance of links to, 369, 370, 376–8, 379
 social and cultural influences in, 366–8
- Gaza (Maiuma), Christian population of, 308, 309
- Geffcken, Johannes, 312
- Gelasius of Cyzicus
 on Council of Nicaea, 533
 Helena's pilgrimage and discoveries as told by, 4
- Genesis* creation debates, as key text in, 454
 Logos theology and, 455
- Gentile Christianity, ch. 5
 circumcision and other Jewish practices,
 Pauline understanding of, 111, 112
 'early Catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 122–4
 Jerusalem Council, requirements purportedly imposed on Gentiles by, 111
 Jewish Christianity's demise in face of, 101 Johannine Christianity viewed as Gentile mission, 122
- justification by faith and freedom from Law, 111
 meat sacrificed to idols, eating of, 111, 115
 non-Pauline missions to the Gentiles, 121–2 Pauline mission of (See Pauline mission)
 1 Peter, Pauline aspects of, 92 reasons for success of Pauline version of, 119–21
 self vs. other definitions in Jewish and Greek worldviews informing, 103–5 sources for, 106–8
 territoriality of, 109, 111, 115
- geographic spread of Christianity, xvi, 295–301
 See also specific areas, e.g. Gaul demographics and (See demographics of early Christianity)
 local culture, Christian adaptation of, 300 methods and sources for discerning, 302–5 shift away from Palestine as centre of, 296–300
- geography of Jewish diaspora, 54–7
Gesta apud Zenophilum, 381
- Gibbon, Edward, 2, 306, 309
- glossolalia, 169
- Gnosticism, ch. 12 abandonment of term, proposals
 regarding, 248
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, Christian culture
 of, 323–7 authority claimed by, 250, 253, 268
 baptism, 251
 canonical writings and, 267
 Christology of, 454
 Clement of Alexandria's response to, 257 creation and the flesh, devaluation of, 271 definition of heresy as manifestation of single error of false gnōsis, 245 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity and, 336, 338, 345–6
 Egyptian Gnostic manuscripts, 333 groups not included in current consideration of, 248 haeresis as used by, 253
 Heracleon's reading of John's Gospel, 190 historical emergence of, 249 historiography of scholarly approaches to, 246–8
 Irenaeus' response to, 254–6
 Jesus' role in, 250
 Jewish Gnostics in Egypt, 338, 346
 Jewish scriptures, use of, 249, 250, 264
 Johannine Christianity and, 19, 125, 127, 139, 190, 455

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Gnosticism (cont.)
- Justin Martyr's invention of heresy in response to, 253–4
 - Marcion and, 197, 248, 252
 - monotheism and creation, as stimulus for early church to work out concepts of, 439
 - Pauline Christianity regarded as influenced by, 19
 - Platonism, use of, 249, 250
 - pre-Christian origins claimed for, 246, 247
 - responses to, 251–9
 - self-differentiation of, 250–1
 - Sethian Gnosticism, 248, 249, 250, 333
 - single-category understanding of, 245
 - specific school of thought, use of term for, 248
 - teaching emphasis of, 485
 - theology of, 249
 - typological understanding of, 247
 - Valentinians compared, 248, 252, 253 (See also Valentinus and Valentinians)
- God-fearers
- Gentile Christianity, 104, 112, 115, 119
 - Jewish Christianity, 89
 - Jewish diaspora, 63, 64
 - Paul's seeking out of, 112, 115
 - self-definition vis-à-vis the Jewish matrix and, 219
- golden house (domus aurea) of Nero, 82
- Good Physician, importance to Syrian Christianity of Jesus as, 357, 361, 365
- Good Shepherd, Christian representations of, 571, 577, 578
- Goodenough, Erwin, 58
- Goodman, Martin, 49, 59
- Gospel of Basilides*, 190
- Gospel of the Egyptians*, 190, 332, 336
- Gospel of the Hebrews*
- canonicity of, 213
 - Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity evidenced in, 338
 - Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 96
 - Origen's reference to, 190
- Gospel of Matthias*, 190
- Gospel according to the Nazoreans*, 96
- Gospel of Philip*, 359
- Gospel of Thomas*
- dietary laws, 87
 - early witness to Jesus-sayings, viewed as, 179
 - Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 87, 97
 - Johannine Christianity and, 128, 134
 - modern historical use of, 21
 - monasticism referred to in, 350
 - Origen's reference to, 190
 - resurrection, lack of specific affirmation of, 134
 - Temple, Jesus' saying against, 26
- Gospel of truth*, 346
- Gospel of the twelve*, 96, 190
- Gospels, 190 see also Synoptic gospels, and specific gospel books, e.g. Luke
- epiphanic quality of, 10, 185–7
 - fourfold Gospel, 190–1, 206, 212, 213, 267. (See also John; Luke; Mark; Matthew)
 - Galilee and Judaea in, 37
 - Gentile Christianity, sources for, 106
 - historical Jesus, importance of, 34
 - Jews, blame for death of Jesus shifted towards, 26
 - Local preferences for one gospel, 207, 208
 - Marcion's gospel, 202, 205–8
 - martyrology and vita genres influenced by, 193
 - multiple gospels, use of, 190, 206, 207–8
 - pagan cultic influences and adaptations, 15
 - Pauline presumption of Jesus narrative, 182, 185
 - prophetic tradition of, 29
 - source criticism, 18
 - specific audience, whether composed for, 187
 - Tatian's Diatessaron (combination of four gospels into single narrative), 207, 212
 - unity with Old Testament, Irenaeus on, 267, 270
- Goths, invasions of, 513, 514
- government. See Christian attitudes towards government and politics; politics and religion
- Graeco-Roman world. See Roman empire
- grand-nephews of Jesus via Jude, 299
- Grant, Frederick C., 20
- Grant, Robert M., 306
- grapevine motifs, Christian appropriation of, 570, 572
- Grapte (female teacher), 418
- Great Mother, cult of, 79 See also Cybele
- Great Persecution of 303–312. See Diocletian, persecution of Christians by
- Greece and Aegean Islands. See also specific cities, towns, and regions, e.g. Athens
- apostolic traditions of, 322–5
- chiliasm (millenarianism) in, 320, 322

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- demographics of early Christianity in, 308, 317–18
- diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity, 318–19
- Jewish Christianity in, 319–20
- Jewish communities of, 316, 317
- literary culture of, 315–16, 328
- orthodoxy and proto-orthodoxy in, 325–7
- pagan religion in, 315
- Pauline mission to, 114–17
- public distaste for Christians in, 318
- social and cultural characteristics, 316–17
- Trinitarian theology in, 324, 327
- unity and universality, Christian sense of, 328–9
- Greek gods, identified with Roman pantheon (interpretatio graeca), 79–80
- Greek magical papyri*, 80
- Gregory of Nazianzus, 553
- Gregory of Nyssa, 316
- Gregory Thaumaturgus of Neocaesarea
- Asia Minor and Achaia, Christian culture of, 316, 318, 327, 328
- demography of early Christianity, 305, 316, 318
- Origen, possible author of panegyric on, 485
- social status of early Christians, 310
- Gregory of Tours, on martyrdom of Irenaeus of Lyons, 372
- ‘group literacy’, 192
- guilds. See voluntary associations
- gymnasium, Christian attendance at, 287
- Habib, deacon of Tell-She, 311
- Hadrian, emperor
- Bar Kochba revolt under, 67, 77
- Pantheon as built by, 83
- rescript of, 508
- Hadrumetum, North Africa, catacombs of, 308, 382
- Hananiah (Rabbi), 525
- ‘hard’ vs. ‘soft’ monotheism, 240–3
- Harnack, Adolf von
- on Christian self-definition, 234, 246
- demographics of early Christianity, 302, 304, 306
- on Egyptian Christianity, expansion of, 348
- ‘liberal lives of Jesus’, views on, 17
- on Marcion, 203, 204, 207, 210
- on Marcion’s ideas of creation, 440
- on social and ecclesial life of earliest Christians, 145
- Hasmoneans, 39
- healing and bodily wholeness as important Christian theme in Syria and Mesopotamia, 357, 358, 361, 362, 365
- Hebrew Bible. See Jewish scriptures
- Hebrews
- canonicity of, 212
- evidence of Jewish Christianity in, 95
- Jewish war of 66–73 CE shaping culture of, 218
- second generation of Pauline writings, 106
- self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 217, 218
- social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
- Hebrews, Gospel according to. See Gospel according to the Hebrews*
- Hecataeus of Abdera, 231
- Hecataeus of Miletus, 231
- Hegesippus, 195, 308
- Helena (mother of Constantine), 1–8, 23, 34
- Helenus of Tarsus, 316, 328
- Helios
- Christ represented as sun god, 12, 571, 570–2, 580
- Constantine’s dedication to Sol Invictus, 541
- Hellenistai*, 150
- Hellenistic culture and development of Christianity, ch. 1, 2, 11, 27. See also Roman empire
- Hellenistic Judaism. See Jewish diaspora; Jews and Judaism
- Henchir Skihra (Byzacena), archaeological evidence of Christian demographics at, 304
- Heraclas and didaskaleion (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 341, 492
- Heracleon the Valentinian
- allegorical interpretations refuted by Origen, 258
- John’s gospel as viewed by, 190, 325
- Heraclides, Origen’s debate with, 429, 432
- Heraclitus, 238, 243
- Herammon, bishop, 515
- heresy and schism, 245–6 See also diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity, orthodoxy and proto-orthodoxy, and specific heretical groups and individuals, e.g. Manichaeism

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- heresy and schism (cont.)
- baptisms performed by
 - heretics/schismatics/idolators, validity of, 394–5, 479–83, 560
 - Constantine and, 97, 545, 550
 - demons, as creation of, 254
 - doctrinal impulse of church behind, 468–9
 - ecclesial authority in earliest church, 155–6
 - ecclesial structure of earliest Christianity, 152
 - ecclesiology of Cyprian in response to schism, 97
 - Egyptian Christianity, origins of, 336
 - Gaul, diverse Christian groups in, 370, 374–6
 - historical Jesus, detachment from, 33
 - Irenaeus' theories of, 245, 254–6 (See also entries at Irenaeus of Lyons)
 - Justin Martyr's invention of, 253–4
 - monotheism and creation, as stimulus for early church to work out ideas about, 439, 447
 - Novatian schism and authority regarding, 411–12
 - Origen's denunciation as heretic by Justinian, 344
 - persecution of Christians, legacy of, 503, 522–3
 - persecution of heretics and schismatics, 503, 523
 - Roman philosophical schools'
 - contributions to concept of, 408, 410
 - Simon Magus regarded as originator of, 245, 246, 254, 264
 - single gospel use regarded as heterodox, 207
- Hermas. See Shepherd of Hermas
- Hermes, Christ represented as, 574, 580
- Hermogenes of Antioch, 393, 445–8, 560
- Herod Agrippa (Agrippa I), 40, 76
- Herod Antipas
 - court and social circle, 42, 43
 - John the Baptist executed by, 28, 40
 - personal income levied from Galileans for, 46
 - rule of, 39, 40, 51, 76
 - Sepphoris and Tiberias as Herodian cities, 28, 47
- Herod the Great
 - building projects of, 40, 48, 49
 - rule of, 39, 48, 51, 76
- Herodians
 - Jewish patronage resulting from diplomacy of, 66
 - replacement of Hasmonians by, 39
 - Roman empire and, 76
 - rule of, 39–40, 135
 - wealthy aristocracy, 43–7
- Herodotus, 231
- Hess, Hamilton, 428–33
- Hexapla*, 494
- Hieracas, 555, 562
- Hierapolis. See also Papias
 - Jewish necropolis of, 63
- Hieracas of Leontopolis, 333
- Hieropolis. See Abercius
- hinterlands. See rural areas
- Hippolytus of Rome. See also Apostolic Tradition
 - apocalypticism of, 531
 - on baptism, 160, 394
 - on Basilides, 441
 - Callistus, opposition to, 405, 481
 - creeds, use of, 425
 - as evidence of 'fractionated' Roman Christianity, 400
 - Jewish Christianity evidenced in works of, 96
 - Johannine writings defended by, 324
 - life and works, 405
 - mixed marriages of persons of different social status, 279
 - monarchian controversies, role in, 456–63
 - politics and government, attitude towards, 531
 - school of, 488
 - Syntagma*, 195
 - on Valentinus, 253
- historia*, 495
- historical plausibility, criterion of, 22
- historiographical considerations, 586–9
 - demographics of early Christianity, 302, 306, 312
 - diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity, xvi
 - 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 122–4, 133, 154–5, 263
 - faith and history, tension between, 16
 - Gnosticism, 246–8
 - Jesus, difficulty of writing historical biography of, xiv, 8, 9, 20 (See also Jesus)
 - Luke and Acts, historiographical nature of, 188, 189, 193

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- simple model of early Christian history, move away from, xiii social history vs. intellectual history, xvi
- History of Religions school
Gnosticism, scholarly approaches to, 247 Hellenistic culture and development of Christianity, 19
- Holl, Karl, 312
- Holtzmann, Oskar, 17
- holy kiss, 170
- 'Holy Land', concept of, 296, 547. See also Jerusalem, pilgrimage to; true cross and holy sepulchre
- holy sepulchre. See true cross and holy sepulchre
- Holy Spirit. See also Divine Wisdom anointing with oil in baptism associated with gift of, 163 Asia Minor and Achaea, theological traditions of, 324
filioque controversy, 567
Gentile Christianity, as true agent of, in Acts, 108
Johannine Christianity and, 125, 139
Montanism and, 427
- Homer
Christian apologists' use of, 232 moral use of literature, Origen's borrowing of pagan justification of, 499 as origin of 'barbarian' cultures, 232
- homoousios*, use of
in aftermath of Nicene council, 564–7
Arian controversy and, 555
Constantine associated with, 548, 560, 563 Council of Antioch, denunciation at, 554
monotheism and Christology,
development of, 467, 468
neologism, viewed as, 563 in Nicene Creed, 562, 563
- Hopkins, Keith, 306, 312
- Horace, 81
- Hosius (Ossius), bishop of Cordova, 558, 561, 562
- hospitality as Christian virtue, 171
- house churches. See also family and household
Christian material culture and, 581
Dura Europos, 161, 304, 414, 512, 546, 575, 576, 584
North Africa, 381–2
Pauline mission and, 115, 117
Roman, 307, 404, 582
- human sacrifice in North Africa, 392
- Hyldahl, Niels, 235
- Hystaspes, Christian apologists' use of, 232
- Ialdabaoth, 250
- Iconium (Phrygia) council-like gathering at, 431
Pauline mission in, 109
- iconoclasm, Jewish/Christian, 570, 574, 576
- ideal Christian life, what constituted, 291
- identity. See entries at self-definition and differentiation
- idolatry
lapsi performing (See lapsi)
meat sacrificed to idols, eating of, 111, 115 resistance to visual arts due to fears of, 570, 574, 576
validity of spiritual acts performed by idolators/heretics/schismatics, 394–5, 479–83, 560
- Ignatius of Antioch Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian literary culture of, 315, 328
on celibacy, 276
'Christianismos', first use of, 103, 222, 319
collection of Paul's letters suggested by, 184
'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity) evidenced in writings of, 123, 124, 133, 154 on eucharist, 424
heresy, nascent concept of, 253
historical Jesus, importance of, 33
Jewish Christianity evidenced by, 97, 224, 319 Johannine Christianity, evidence for, 126, 127 ministry of early church, development of,
417
Pauline collections known to, 208
politics and government, attitude towards, 526 prophetic sensibility of, 321
in Rome, 402
self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
Jewish matrix, 222
on slaves and slavery, 285, 286 Syria and Mesopotamia, early Christianity
in, 353–4
theology of martyrdom presented by, 373 third generation of Pauline writings (early second century), 106
- illegality of Christianity before Constantine, 503, 508, 516
- illegality of polytheism under Theodosius, 550

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- 'immortality drug' and eucharist, 424 immunity offered to Christian clergy by Constantine, 543, 544
imperial cult. See ruler-cult tradition imperial institution. See Roman emperors incarnation historicity of Jesus embodied in concept of, 34 Irenaeus on, 272–3
incense, Christian adaptation of pagan use of, 14 incest, early Christian reputation for, 170, 509
India
 Gnosticism's origins traced to, 247
 origins and derivation of Greek philosophy
 in, 236
innovation. See novelty and innovation inscriptions. See epigraphy institutional structures of early Christianity, xvii, 415–16
 Constantine's use of, 415–16 councils and synods, 428–33 (See also councils and synods)
 discipline, 426–8 liturgy, worship, and ritual, 421–5 (See also liturgy, worship, and ritual) ministry, 416–21 (See also ecclesial structures) pagan imitation of, 415 institutionalisation of Christianity ('early Catholicism'), 122–4, 133, 154–5, 263 intellectual tradition within Christianity. See also education, Christian; literary culture of Christianity Origen's stimulation of, 500 intermarriage in Jewish diaspora, 58 mixed marriages of Christians and non-Christians, 278–9, 280, 283 between persons of different social status, 279 interpretatio graeca (Greek or other gods identified with Roman pantheon), 79–80 interpretation of scripture See also allegorical interpretation; literal interpretation
 Christian education, as goal of, 490, 493–500 explanatory comment, use of, 495 inner-biblical interpretation, tradition of, 191
 Irenaeus on, 266
 Jewish scholarship and exegesis, use of, 227, 228 literary culture's need for tools for, 191 liturgical context, 168 monarchian controversy reliant on, 459, 462 narrative probability, assessment of, 5, 495
 North African tendencies regarding, 395 Origen's practice of, 464, 493–500 paideia, based on system of, 191 Pauline writings, 183, 202
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
 Jewish matrix, 219–20, 221
 text criticism, early Christian need for and practice of, 493–6 translation, problem of, 494 typological rather than allegorical interpretation, North African tendency towards, 395
 word division and punctuation, lack of, 494 interpretative nature of Christian practice and belief, 588
Irenaeus of Lyons, xvi, 254–6, ch. 13
 apocalypticism and, 320, 530
 cosmic narrative, incorporation of story of Jesus into, 9
 creeds, use of, 425
 demographics of early Christianity and, 305, 308
 education of, 266
 Egypt, works known in, 344
 Gaul, early Christianity in, 366, 369, 374–6 influence of, 273
 Jewish Christianity and, 101, 225
 Johannine community, location of, 126
 Justin Martyr and, 263, 373
 life and works, 261, 371–2
 on Marcion, 195, 205
 ministry of early church, development of, 419
 on monotheism and creation, 449–50, 454
 on omnipotence of God, 449
 politics and government, attitude towards, 530 Polycarp, association with, 262, 370 possible martyrdom of, 371
 theology of martyrdom presented by, 372 Theophilus of Antioch contrasted and compared, 263, 373, 450
 Victor, bishop of Rome, and, 255, 262, 320, 328 wide-ranging correspondence of, 328 works of, 261, 371–2
Irenaeus of Lyons and Gnosticism, 254–6
Basilides, 441

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- creation, counterweight to Gnostic devaluation of, 271 earliest reference to Gnostics, 249
in Egypt, 345
Gaul, possible Gnostic groups in, 374–6 term used for specific school of thought, 248 tradition and authority, 268
use of term, 374
Valentinus and Valentinians, 249, 253, 256, 266, 449–50
- Irenaeus of Lyons and orthodox self-definition, 261–73 assumption that all Christians know truth of Christianity, 264, 269 on bishops and church hierarchy, 269, 475 canon as proposed by, 255, 266–7
Christology of, 267, 272–3 creation, process theology of, 270–2, 273 ditheism, rejection of, 267
'early Catholicism', as exemplar of, 263 fourfold gospels, concept of, 190, 206, 267 Gaul, Christian others of, 374–6 heresy and orthodoxy, concepts of, 245–6, 254–6, 326
illiterate Christians able to hold true faith according to, 268
on incarnation, 272–3 influence of, 273
innovation vs. tradition in thinking of, 262–4, 268–70
internal rather than external audience, 263 on interpretation of scripture, 266
Jewish scriptures, 264–5, 267
Johannine works claimed for orthodox Christianity by, 264, 268
Judaism, relationship of Christianity to, 264–5 literature of Christianity according to, 266–8
liturgical divergence not troubling to, 264 Pauline works claimed for orthodox Christianity by, 264, 268
Quartodeciman controversy, involvement with, 377
on recapitulation, 272 Roman empire, relationship of Christianity to, 265–6
single gospel use regarded as heterodox, 207 theology of, 270–3 tradition and apostolic authority, concept of, 268–70
- on Trinity, 270
unity and universality of church, belief in, 255, 262, 269, 270, 344
unity between gospels and Old Testament, 267, 270
- irony as used in Gospel of John, 129, 137
Isaiah, Ascension of, 315, 321
Isaiah (prophet), Mark opening with, 185
Isidore, son of Basilides, 336 Isis, cult of Christian adaptation of, 12
interpretatio graeca applied to, 80
Roman attraction to, 79, 80 itinerant prophets as ecclesial mode of earliest church, 148–9, 154
- Jacobus, confessor, 517
James ('brother of the Lord') martyrdom and death, 91, 297 meeting of Christ-believing preachers in Jerusalem, 103
ossuary of James, discovery and discreditation of, 297
Peter as taking lead from, 92
Peter, association with, 149
territorial disputes with Paul, 109
- James, Epistle of*, 91
canonicity of, 213
Jerusalem church as presented in, 297 poor, Christians' identification with and provision for, 157
pseudonymous nature of, 297
- James, Liturgy of*, 425
James, Protevangelium of, 355
Jamnia, Council of, 132
Jason of Cyrene, 62
Jeremiah (prophet), Jesus compared to, 28, 51
Jeremias, Joachim, 20
- Jerome
on divorce and remarriage, 280 Egyptian/Alexandrian ecclesial structure
according to, 339
Gospel according to the Nazoreans cited
by, 97
on Irenaeus of Lyons, possible martyrdom
of, 371
on Jewish Christianity, 89 on monasticism in Egypt, 350
- Jerusalem
Aelia Capitolina built on ruins of, 67, 77, 299 social and economic history, 48–51 temple in (See temple)

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Jerusalem, church in Bar Kochba revolt, effects of suppression of, 299 destruction of Jerusalem affecting, 99, 298 dispersal to other parts of Palestine, 299 early significance of, 296–8 ecclesial organisation of, 149–50
 epistolary tradition of Paul used by, 192
 Gentiles, missions to, 121
 Jewish Christianity and, 91–2
 Johannine Christianity's oppositional portrayal of, 134
- Jerusalem, pilgrimage to. See also true cross and holy sepulchre Helena and finding of true cross and holy sepulchre, 1–8
 'Holy Land', concept of, 296, 547
 Jewish diaspora, 59
 visual representation of the crucifixion and, 581
- Jerusalem council, 103, 109, 111, 156, 297
- Jerusalem sacked by Romans, 70 CE. See also Jewish war of 66–73 CE
 Christian community dispersed by, 298 closure of Second Temple period by, 53 Matthew, importance of destruction of temple to, 188
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 215, 218, 219
- Jervell, Jacob, 94
- Jesus
 Abgar of Edessa, purported correspondence with, 364–5 apocalypticism of (see apocalypticism of Jesus) Augustus and Jesus, providence seen in contemporaneity of, 529, 533 baptism in name of, 162 celibacy tradition affected by unmarried state of, 276 Christianity as religion rooted in historicity of, 31–4 cult, dogma, and Christology, history complicated by, 8–15 death and resurrection of (see cross and crucifixion; death and resurrection) on dietary laws, 87 early imperial concepts of, 1–8 ecclesial or community structure of followers, 146–9 fish as symbol of, 8, 378–9 followers' response to, historical reconstruction of, 26, 29
- Galilean and Judean context for, 37, 47–8, 50, 51
 Gnosticism and, 250
 as Good Physician, 357
 grand-nephews via Jude, 299 historical biography of, difficulty writing, xiv, 8, 9, 20 iconographic representations of, 12, 86, 484, 571, 570–2, 576–81 as Jew (see Jew, Jesus as) Jewish reaction to, 25–6
 'liberal lives', 19th century, 17, 19 magician, viewed as, 22, 148, 579 martyrdom, as model for later believers, 503 as Messiah, 24–6, 131 messianic mission of, 24–6 modern quest for historical understanding of, 15–23 Plato read by, according to Celsus, 238 plausible inferences about life and character of, 24–30 prophet, viewed as, 28, 51, 148–9 renewal movement, viewed as leading, 146–8 Roman conviction and crucifixion of, 24–6 scepticism as to historicity of, 15–23 Schweitzer's Quest, 17, 18, 19 teacher, viewed as, 148, 575 temple and Torah according to, 28 Third Quest, 20–3 tomb of (See true cross and holy sepulchre)
- Jesus son of Ananus, 51
- Jew, Jesus as development of Christian doctrine and, 19 diversity of Judaism in first century, recognition of, 23 Jewish Christianity and, 87
- Jewish Christianity
 apocalyptic, Jude and Revelation's use of, 96 Christology of, 89, 94, 99
 demise of, 90, 99–102
 Ebionites according to Eusebius, 31
 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity, origins of, 337 enemies as sources of information about, 89, 90, 96, 97 ethnic vs. religious components of Jewishness, 88 first-century evidence after Jewish war, 93–6
 Gentile converts, treatment of, 87–8, 91, 92, 95

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- James and Jerusalem church, 91–2
 Jesus and, 87
 Jewish war of 66–73 CE affecting, 93–6, 99
 Johannine traces of, 95
 Matthean, 94
 North Africa, 386
 Pauline encounters with, 92–3, 94, 109, 111, 117
 Peter as exemplar of, 91–2
 Quartodeciman controversy and, 320
 Rome, 93, 96, 98, 117, 400
 second–third century evidence of, 96–9
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
 Jewish matrix, 224–5
 territorial disputes with Paul, 109, 111, 115
 Torah and praxis-centred definition of, 88–90
- Jewish diaspora, 53
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, communities of, 316, 317
 Christian communities' parallels with, 68
 civic life of, 60–1, 63
 Claudius' expulsion of Jews from Rome, 66, 71, 93, 117, 503 conflicts with and persecution of, 65–8, 71 diversity of religious strains in, 59 education and teaching, emphasis on, 486
 Egypt, 335–6, 338
 exile followed by ingathering, viewed as, 54
 geography of, 54–7
 Gnostic Jews in Egypt, 338, 346
 Greek language, adoption of, 61–2 identity as Jews, 57, 61–2 interaction with non-Jews, 61–5 map of Jewish centres of population in Herodian period, 52
 North Africa, 386
 political powers, relationship to, 65–8 population estimates, 57 religious practices, 57 revolt of 115–117 CE, 67, 99, 335, 337
 Rome, 55, 63, 66, 400
 Syria and Mesopotamia, 352, 353, 354 temple tax paid by, 59, 66, 505, 506
 use of term, 54
- Jewish scriptures. See also 'Old Testament'; Septuagint
 canonicity of, 212
 early Christianity's use of, 199, 200–1
 Gentile converts' familiarity with, 219
 Gnostic use of, 249, 250, 264
 Irenaeus' view of, 264–5, 267
- Jewish scholarship and exegesis, Christian use of, 227, 228
 literalism of Marcion vs. Christian figurative, typological, and allegorical interpretation, 200–1 literary culture of Christianity, use in, 178
 Marcion's use of, 199–201, 264
 Philo on allegorical interpreters of Jewish law, 59
 selectivity as to requirements of Torah applicable to Christians, 222 self-definition and differentiation of Christianity vis-à-vis, 218–23, 227
- Jewish war of 66–73 CE, 65 See also Jerusalem sacked by Romans, 70 CE
 aftermath of, 66, 67
 Antioch, anti-Jewish feeling in, 352 closure of temple at Leontopolis following, 59 dispersal of Sadducean priesthood following, 59 distinct religious movement, rebels as embodying, 59
 Hebrews and, 218
 Jewish Christianity affected by, 93–6, 99 rise of synagogue and, 59
 Roman empire affected by, 77
- Jews and Judaism. See also anti-Semitism; Pharisees; Rabbinic Judaism; ritual bathing; Sadducees; self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix; synagogue; Temple
 almsgiving and care of the poor, 289 antiquity of Judaism, Graeco-Roman respect for, 223–4, 230–3, 240, 242 celibacy, attitudes towards, 276 child abandonment/exposure not practised by, 281
 Christianity viewed as rebellion against, 239 Christians, identification of Jewish patriarchs as, 224
 continuing vitality of, 222, 226 derivation of Greek culture from, Justin's argument regarding, 231 discrete and enclosed systems, tendency to regard Christianity and Judaism as, 215, 221 diversity of Judaism in first century, 23, 25 under Domitian, 505
 early Christian liturgy, Jewishness of, 32 encounters between Jews and Christians, 225–7

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Jews and Judaism (cont.)
- ethnic vs. religious components of Jewishness, 88
 - fasting, 288
 - full conversion to, 65, 66
 - Galilee, Jewish identity of, 41
 - Gentiles attracted to, 63–5
 - Gnosticism's origins traced to, 247
 - Gospels placing blame for death of Jesus on, 26
 - iconoclasm of, 570
 - interpretatio graeca* applied to YHWH as Dionysos, 80
 - Ioudaios* as term, 39, 88–90
 - Irenaeus' view of Christian relationship to, 264–5
 - Jesus, historical inferences as to Jewish reaction to, 25–6
 - Johannine Christianity's conflicts with, 125, 131
 - legitimate status of Judaism as lawful religion, 66
 - Marcion's views on, 196, 200, 222, 319
 - marriage ketubah, 277
 - martyrdom and persecution, sources of Christian attitude towards, 503
 - Matthew's attitudes toward, 94
 - monotheism and creation, 434–6
 - monotheism of, Celsus' criticism of, 237–40
 - 'parting of the ways' model, 215, 217, 228
 - Passover Seder and eucharist, 163, 165
 - philosophers, viewed as nation of, 415
 - Platonism derived from, Celsus' refutation of, 238, 239, 240, 242
 - Platonism derived from, Justin's argument regarding, 231, 233–5, 237
 - politics and government, Christian attitudes derived from Jewish ideas about, 525
 - popular association between Christianity and, 505, 510
 - proselytising by, 65, 66
 - purity and holiness issues, 161
 - Second Temple Judaism, pluralist vs. monolithic view of, 215
 - self vs. other world-view, 103–5
 - singing and chanting, 168
 - synagogue, development of, 59
 - Johannine Christianity, 125
 - apocalyptic of, 137–40
 - apostles and disciples, symbolic opposition of, 134
 - Asia Minor and Achaea, apostolic traditions of, 323–5
 - baptism, 141
 - Christology of, 132, 136–7, 189
 - docetic tendencies of, 132, 133, 135, 137
 - ecclesiology of, 133
 - ethics and religious practices of, 140–2
 - eucharist, 141
 - Gentile mission, viewed as, 122
 - Gnosticism and, 19, 125, 127, 139, 190, 455
 - historical outline of, 130
 - Irenaeus claiming for orthodox Church, 264, 268
 - Judaism, conflicts with, 125, 131
 - location of community, 126, 130
 - logos*, Christ as, 127, 131, 132, 136, 189, 455
 - love command, 140
 - Odes of Solomon* and Syriac Christianity, 355
 - Son of Man, Jesus as, 136–7
 - sources for, 126
 - John, apostle
 - death of, 134
 - Jerusalem meeting of Christ-believing preachers, 103
 - Peter, association with, 149
 - 1 John
 - canonicity of, 212, 213
 - doctrinal disputes apparent from, 132
 - primer for John's Gospel, viewed as, 190
 - 2 John, canonicity of, 212, 213
 - 3 John
 - canonicity of, 212, 213
 - leadership of Johannine Christianity, disputes regarding, 135, 153
 - John's epistles generally, 126
 - John, Acts of*. See Acts of John
 - John, Apocalypse of*. See Revelation
 - John, Apocryphon of* (Secret book according to John)
 - Gnosticism, historical emergence of, 249, 250, 346
 - Johannine corpus, relationship to, 128
 - John, Gospel of*, 126, 189–90
 - aporias in, 129
 - attribution of anonymous work to John, 126
 - dating of, 126
 - eschatological tension in, 27
 - Galilee and Judaea in, 37
 - Gnosticism regarded as influence on, 19
 - Irenaeus claiming for orthodox Church, 264, 268
 - irony, use of, 129, 137

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 95 location of community behind production of, 126 logos theology and Prologue of, 455
Mark, as revision of, 189
monarchian controversies, use in, 462, 463 Passover sacrifice, Jesus as, 165
redactional theories, 130, 142, 190
self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
 Jewish matrix, 216, 218
 ‘signs source’, 130 source-criticism of, 18, 19
Strauss’ Life of Jesus critically examined and, 17 symbolism, use of, 129
Synoptics, relationship to, 128
Valentinians, single gospel used by, 207
- John the Baptist
 baptism of, 161–2, 580
 Herod Antipas’ execution of, 28, 40
 Herodian lifestyle criticised by, 47 historical Jesus, quest for, 28 visual representations of, 580
- John Chrysostom, 4, 226, 546
- John of Gischala, 45
- John the Seer, 321
- Jonah, Christian representations of, 571, 579, 580
- Jonas, Hans, 247
- Jones, A. H. M., 306, 309
- Josephus
 antiquity of Jews, defense of, 242
 early history of Judaea and Galilee, 38
 Gentiles attracted to Judaism as described by, 64, 65 geography of Galilee and Judaea, 37 greater antiquity of ‘barbarian’ cultures, claims of, 232
 Hellenistic Judaism, as literary product of, 53
 Herodian period, Judaea and Galilee during, 39 ideology of Jewish diaspora according to, 54 on James and Jerusalem church, 91–2
 Jewish diaspora communities identified by, 56
 Jewish diaspora in Syria and Mesopotamia, 352
 John the Baptist’s execution, reasons given for, 40 Messianic pretenders described by, 25 priestly caste, membership in, 48, 50 social and economic history of Galilee, 40 social or ecclesial community of Jesus and his followers as viewed by, 146
- Juba I, 383
Juba II, 383, 384
Jubianus (Bishop), 480
Judah Hanasi (Rabbi), 58
‘Judaising’. See Jewish Christianity
- Jude*
 canonicity of, 212, 213
 grand-nephews of Jesus via, 299
 Jewish apocalyptic echoed in, 96
- Judaea, 37. See also Palestine early history of, 38–9, 136
 geography of, 37, 130
 Herodian Period, 39–40, 135
 Johannine Christianity’s origins in, 130
 map, 1st century CE, 36
 Roman empire, as part of, 76–7
 social and economic history, 48–51
- Judge, E. A., 350
- judicial bodies, councils functioning as, 428–33
- Julia Severa, 63
- Julian (‘the Apostate’), emperor, 415
- Julius Africanus, 339, 512
- Julius, bishop of Rome, 566
- Julius Caesar
 Galilean tribute to Rome, reduction of, 46 on Gaul, 367, 368
 imperium initiated by, 69
 patronage of Jewish communities, 66
 justification by faith and Pauline mission to Gentiles, 111, 113, 119
- Justin Martyr, xv abandonment of children condemned by, 282
 on antiquity of Christianity, 224 Atticus, possible borrowing from, 236
 baptism, 160
 on celibacy, 276
 Celsus possibly writing in direct response to, 237, 238, 239 divorce due to disparity of belief, 280 eucharist and mysteries of Mithras, 14 greater antiquity of ‘barbarian’ cultures, context of, 230–3 on Hadrian’s rescript, 508 heresy invented by, 253–4 historical Jesus, importance of, 33
 inventor of history, regarded as, 243–4
 Irenaeus contrasted and compared, 263, 373
 Jewish Christianity evidenced by, 98, 99, 101, 224

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Justin Martyr (cont.)
- Jews and Jewish scholarship, intellectual engagement with, 226, 227
 - Johannine and Pauline writings having little impact on, 264
 - logos* theology of, 454, 455, 456
 - on Marcion, 195
 - on monotheism and creation, 443–4
 - Nicene Creed's 'light from light' in, 562
 - Numenius of Apamea as source for, 237
 - on Plato's derivation from Moses, 231, 233–5
 - philosophy in antique or 'barbarian' cultures, historical origins according to, 235–7
 - politics and government, attitude towards, 528
 - in Rome, 403
 - Rome, philosophical schools of, 406–11
 - on rural Christians, 311
 - scripture, on reading, interpreting, and exhorting, 169
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Graeco-Roman world, 230
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 220, 222
 - superiority and priority of Christianity over Greek philosophy, 233–5, 237
 - Trypho, dialogue with, 220, 226, 408, 409, 456
- Juvenal, 81
- Käsemann, Ernst, 20
- Kerygmata Petrou* (Kerygma Petri)
- Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity as evidenced by, 337
 - Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 98
 - Pseudo-Clementine literature, absorption into, 90
- kiss, holy, 170
- Klausner, Joseph, 20
- ktisma* (creation), Son as, 555, 564
- L* source, 19
- Lactantius
- Asia Minor and Achaea, Christianity in, 316, 318, 321
 - on chiliasm (millenarianism) in Asia Minor and Achaea, 321
 - on Constantine, 539, 541, 542
 - on Diocletianic persecutions, 519
 - politics and government, Christian attitudes towards, 535–6
 - religious toleration promoted in text of, 549
 - social status of early Christians and, 310
- Lambaesis, Council of, 308
- Lampe, Peter, 400, 405, 406
- languages. See also Coptic, Syriac, etc.
- appeal of Christianity to linguistic minorities, 311
 - Constantine's use of Greek at Nicene Council, 540, 559
 - Jewish diaspora's adoption of Greek, 61–2
 - Roman empire, 74
- Laodiceans. See Ephesians
- lapsi*
- baptism, reconciliation of sinners following, 394–5, 411–12, 428, 472–4, 476, 559, 560
 - confessors' and martyrs' power to forgive sins of, 390, 393, 472–3
 - Council of Nicaea on, 559, 560
 - councils and synods, inception of, 431
 - councils in Rome and Carthage concerning reconciliation of, 476
 - Diocletianic persecutions, 520, 522–3
 - ecclesiological response to situation of, 474–5
 - idolators/heretics/schismatics, validity of spiritual acts performed by, 394–5, 479–83, 555
 - immediate and long-term effects of Decian persecution, 470–2
 - North Africa, Decian persecution and martyrdoms in, 389–90, 514
- lares et penates*, 80
- Lateran Basilica, Rome, 546, 585
- Latin, Christian texts and in translations, 386–7
- laurel wreath, soldier's refusal to wear, 388
- legatio pro Christianis*, 509
- Lenski, Gerhard, 41, 42, 44
- Leonides, father of Origen, martyrdom of, 343, 511
- Leontopolis, Jewish temple at, 59
- Letter of Aristeas*, 61, 182
- Letter of Barnabas*. See Epistle of Barnabas
- Letter of Pontius Pilate to Claudius*, 532
- Letter to Diognetus*. See Epistle to Diognetus
- letter-writing tradition of Graeco-Roman world, 181, 192
- Letters, New Testament. See specific epistles, e.g. Hebrews
- Leviticus* and dietary laws of Jewish diaspora, 58

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Lewis, Bernard, 243
Liber pontificalis, 398, 547
 'liberal lives of Jesus', 19th century, 17, 19, 41
 Liberalis, M. Vibius, 307
 Licinius, emperor, 522, 535, 540–2, 543, 559
Life of Antony, 193 linguistics. See languages Linus, 240 literacy in Roman empire, 74, 180, 192, 268, 494 literal interpretation
 Irenaeus on, 266
 Marcion on Jewish scriptures, 200–1
 North African tendency towards, 395
 Origen's criticism of, 259, 496–500
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis
 Jewish matrix, 219–20, 221
 literary culture, Christian, 177–8 See also Bible; canonical writings; Gospels; Pauline writings appropriation of pagan motifs, 572
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, 315–16, 328
 bibliomachy or 'battle of the literatures', 178
 codex, Christian preference for, 180, 184, 192, 227 creation of and requirements for, 191–4 demographics, evidence for, 305 earliest collections of texts, 178–80 Egypt and Alexandria, 331–4, 337–40 genres adopted by, 192–3
 Irenaeus' conception of, 266–8
 Jesus' writing in sand, 178
 Jewish scriptures, 178
 letter-writing tradition, 181, 192 liturgical reading, interpreting, and exhorting, 168, 213
 moral use of literature, Origen's
 borrowing of pagan justification of, 499 narratives about Jesus, pre-gospel, 179
 North Africa, 381
 Rome, 397–8
 sayings of Jesus, early collections of, 179
 social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
 Syrian writings, 352, 354–6, 357–9 testimonia collection, 178 written vs. oral tradition, problem with dichotomy, 180–1 literary culture, Graeco-Roman empire, 81 Liturgy of Addai and Mary, 11 Liturgy of St James, 425 liturgy, worship, and ritual, 159–70 See also baptism; creeds; eucharist; prayers architectural requirements of, 583, 584
 chanting and singing, 168
 ecstatic or charismatic phenomena, 169
 fasting, 288
 holy kiss, 170
 institutions of church, development of, 421–5
 Irenaeus not troubled by divergence in, 264
 Jewish influence on, 32
 Pauline development of, 120
 physical positions and gestures, 168, 170 reading, interpreting, and exhorting from sacred texts, 168, 213 unity of doctrine vs. conformity in worship, 554 lives of saints, gospel narratives influencing form of, 193
Lives of the Prophets, 228
 Livy, 504
 loaves and fishes, eucharist associated with miracle of, 144, 165 logic as part of Christian education, 488, 490 logos theology
 Arian controversy and, 556
 ditheism and, 456
 Johannine Christianity, 127, 131, 132, 136, 189, 455 logos prophorikos issuing from logos
 endiathetos, 556, 557, 563
 monarchian controversies and, 457, 459, 461, 463
 monotheism and Christology, contribution to debates over, 454–6
 Origen, 463–6
 Paul of Samosata on, 468
 Philo of Alexandria's speculations on, 127, 409, 455
 Rome, philosophical schools of, 409
 Valentinian concept of, 252
 Longus, 83
 Lord's Prayer, 168
 Lord's Supper. See eucharist love historical teaching of Jesus on, 31 Johannine ethics based on, 140 love-feast (agapē), 166, 423 Lucan, 81
 Lucian of Antioch, 555
 Lucian of Samosata, 352 on Peregrinus Proteus, 158
 Lucius Munatius Plancus, 368

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Lucretius, philosophical approach of, 78
Lugdunum. See Lyons
Luke, Gospel of, 188
 Anti-Marcionite prologue to, 323
 Asia Minor and Achaea, apostolic traditions of, 323
 dedication to patron Theophilus, 159, 189
 evidence of Jewish Christianity in, 95
 Gentile Christianity, sources for, 106, 121, 122
 historiographical nature of, 188
 Jewish diaspora communities identified in, 56
 L source, 19
 Marcion's possible use of, 202, 205–8
 origins of Gentile Christianity for, 107
 Paul, possible traditional and historical connection to, 207
 Q source, 18
 social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
 source criticism of, 18
LXX. See Septuagint
Lycian curse texts, 64
Lycurgus on origins and derivation of philosophy, 236
Lydia, demographics of early Christianity in, 308
Lyons (Lugdunum)
 Christian community of, 369–71
 establishment of, 368
 persecution of Christians in, 265, 307, 369–71, 372–4, 508, 509
 population of Christians in, 307
Lystra, Pauline mission in, 109

M source, 18
Macarius, bishop of Jerusalem, 4
2 Maccabees, 62, 436
3 and 4 Maccabees, 62
Maccabees and Maccabean revolt, 29, 39
Macedonia, Pauline mission to, 112–14
MacMullen, Ramsay, 306, 312
Macrianus, 515 magic Jesus viewed as magician, 22, 148, 579 popular association of Christianity with, 504, 507 Roman practice of, 80
 'synagogue of magicians' in Egypt and Valerian persecutions, 515
 wand, Jesus portrayed with, 579

Magnesia, existence of Jewish Christianity in, 224
Maiuma (Gaza), Christian population of, 308, 309
Manetho, 232
Manichaean psalm book, 362
Manichaeism
 Arian controversy and, 555
 Diocletian's persecution of, 519
 in Egypt, 346–7
 healing and bodily wholeness as important theme of, 361, 362 life and works of Mani, 360–2 Marcionite congregations absorbed into, 196
 in Syria and Mesopotamia, 360–2 typological approach to Gnosticism including, 248 Manilius, 81
Manson, T. W., 20
maps
 Christianity's spread, 1st–4th centuries CE, 294
 Egypt, 330
 Jewish centres of population in Herodian period, 52
 North Africa, 380
 Palestine, 1st century CE, 36
 Roman empire in time of Marcus Aurelius, xlvi
Mark Antony, 69, 368
Marcellus, bishop of Ancyra
 Arian controversy and, 556–8
 Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian culture of, 327
 Irenaeus as influence on, 273
 Julius of Rome, petition to, 566
 Nicene Creed and, 563, 564
 Sabellian, condemnation as, 565
Marcellus of Tingis, 391
Marcion, xv, 195–6
 Antitheses, 200
 Apostolikon (collection of Pauline letters), 208–11
 Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian culture of, 316, 323, 325 biographical information, 196 bipartite 'gospel and apostle' form of canon, contributions to, 203, 211 canon according to, 202, 205
 Christianity according to, 196–9
 Christology of, 454
 congregations under, 196, 252

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- cosmology (or lack of), 198, 440, 454 devaluation of material world and asceticism of, 197
ditheism opposing creator God to Jesus and Christian God, 197, 200, 439–41 docetic Christology of, 197 in Egypt and Alexandria, 338 emendation of texts by, 202, 203, 205, 210, 211 Gnosticism and, 197, 248, 252
gospel (Luke?) used by, 202, 205–8
Jewish scriptures as used by, 199–201, 264
Judaism and, 196, 200, 222, 319
Justin Martyr, named as heretic by, 254 orthodox canon, contribution to formation
 of, 203–5, 211–12, 267
Pastoral Epistles, exclusion of, 208
Pauline writings, dependence on, 201–2, 208–11
Peter as judged by, 202 philosophical and metaphysical elements of thought of, 198 philosophical schools of Rome and, 408–10 Polycarp regarded as author of certain polemics against, 319 primitive gospel form possibly used by, 206 radical discontinuity between Christian revelation and Judaism stressed by, 196, 201
in Rome, 403
Syria and Mesopotamia, followers in, 356, 359 Tertullian against, 393 traditionalist and conservative nature of, 212 as witness to early stage in history of canon, 205, 211–12
- Marcus Antoninus. See Marcus Aurelius
Marcus Aurelius, emperor Athenagoras' legatio pro Christianis addressed to, 509
 map of Roman empire in time of, xlvi patronage of Jewish communities, 66 persecution of Christians in Lyons and Vienne, 372, 509
 Stoicism of, 78
Marcus Aurelius Prosenes, 310
Marcus (bishop in Calabria), 558
Marcus (Valentinian in Gaul), 374
Marcus Minucius Felix. See Minucius Felix Mari and conversion of Abgar Ukkama, 365
Marianus, confessor, 517
- Mark, apostle, and origins of Egyptian
 Christianity, 336
Mark, Gospel of, 185–6 biographical nature of, 185
 Christology of, 185–6
 Docetists, single gospel used by, 207
 evidence of Jewish Christianity in, 94
 Gentile Christianity, sources for, 106
 'liberal lives of Jesus', dependence on chronology in, 19
 'Messianic secret' of, 25
 origins of Gentile Christianity for, 107
 Pauline character of, 94, 185 revisions of, other Synoptics viewed as, 186, 189
 social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
 source criticism of, 18
- marriage, 276–80
 celibacy vs., 276
 chastity and fidelity, expectations
 regarding, 278, 279–80
 Christianisation of, 278
 Constantine's laws on, 544
 divorce, 279–80
 Jewish diaspora, intermarriage in, 58 lower clergy, Council of Nicaea on, 560 Marcionite prohibition of, 197
 mixed marriages of Christians and non-Christians, 278–9, 280, 283 mixed marriages of persons of different social status, 279 property separated from, 277
 remarriage, Christian attitudes regarding, 276, 278, 280
 slaves, 284
- Marseilles (Massalia), possible Christian community at, 369
Martial (satirist), 81
Martyn, J. Louis, 95 martyrdom. See also persecution of Christians ascetic practices linked to phenomenon of, 291 definition of martyr, 472
 Jesus as example of, 503 Jewish martyrs, tradition of righteous suffering inherited from, 503
 North Africa, martyr cult of, 391–2 North African Christianity, militant martyr character, 312
 North African Christianity, persecutions and martyrdoms in, 387–91

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- martyrdom (cont.)
- sins, giving power to forgive, 472, 473
 - Syria and Mesopotamia, 363–4
 - unification of church via, 300
- Martyrdom of Perpetua and Felicitas (Martyrium Perpetuae et Felicitatis)*, 388, 393, 511
- Martyrium Polycarpi*, 193, 420
- Martyrium Saturnini*, 381
- martyrologies, Gospel narrative influencing form of, 193
- Martyrum Scillitanorum acta*, 177, 386, 388
- Mary, mother of Jesus, venerated in Odes of Solomon and Syriac Christianity, 355
- material culture. See also architecture
- Apollo/Helios/sun god, Christ as, 12, 571, 570–2, 580
 - appropriation of polytheistic culture and motifs by Christians, 570–4, 577–80
 - catacomb art (See entries at catacombs)
 - chi-rho symbol, 581, 587
 - Christian iconography, 576–81
 - cross/crucifixion, 5, 581
 - emergence of distinctly Christian evidence of, 574–6
 - funerary context of remains, 574
 - iconoclasm, issues of, 570, 574, 576
 - Jesus, representations of, 12, 86, 484, 571, 570–2, 576–81
 - personal artefacts, 574
 - Pompeii, 82
 - Roman empire, 82–3
 - sarcophagi, 575, 577, 578, 579, 580, 587
 - shrines, 570, 576
 - visual orientation of Graeco-Roman religion, 568
 - visual representation, Christian deity as beyond, 552–3
- material substrate, creation out of. See creation out of material substrate
- material world. See creation and the flesh
- Matthew, Gospel of*, 187–8
- anti-Semitism, debated, 94, 216
 - Antioch, possible origins in, 353
 - destruction of temple as central to, 188
 - ekklesia*, only Gospel to use, 187
 - eschatology of, 188
 - Gentile Christianity, sources for, 106
 - Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 94
 - Jews spoken of as foreign body in, 94
 - M source and, 18
 - ministry of early church, development of, 416
 - New Moses, Jesus portrayed as, 187
 - original language of, 106
 - origins of Gentile Christianity for, 108
 - Pharisees, denunciation of, 94
 - Q source and, 18
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 216, 217, 218
 - source criticism of, 18
 - teacher, Jesus as, 146
- Matthias, Gospel of*, 190
- Maturus (Christian in Gaul), 370
- Maxentius, 522, 535, 540–2, 543
- Maximian, emperor
- abdication of, 521
 - Constantius' rise to power and, 541
 - continuation of persecution after Diocletian's retirement, 540–2
 - tetrarchy and, 518, 540–2
- Maximilian of Theveste, 391
- Maximilla (Montanist), 321
- Maximinus (Maximin Daia), emperor,
- persecution of Christians by, 513
 - Asia Minor and Achaea, 318
 - Christian texts, importance placed on destruction of, 177, 521
 - energetic devotion to traditional cults, 521
 - Eusebius' account of, 300
 - Nicomedia, Christian population of, 517
 - politics and 'state', Christian attitudes regarding, 535
- Maximinus Thrax, emperor, 513, 531
- Maximus of Tyre, 241
- Maximus, Roman catacomb of, 517
- meals, liturgical. See eucharist
- meat sacrificed to idols, eating of, 111, 115
- Melito of Sardis
- Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian literary culture of, 315, 316
 - cosmic narrative, incorporation of story of Jesus into, 10
 - politics and government, attitude towards, 529
 - prophetism of, 321
 - Quartodeciman controversy and, 320
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 221
- Melitius of Lycopolis, 522, 557, 559, 565
- 'Memoirs of Pilate and the Saviour', 34, 177, 521
- memorial nature of eucharist, 164–5, 166
- Menander (Samaritan Gnostic), 345
- Mensurius, bishop of Carthage, 520, 522
- Mesopotamia. See Syria and Mesopotamia
- Messiah, Jesus as, 24–6, 131

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Messianism, Jewish revolt of 115/116 CE having overtones of, 67
- Methodius of Olympus, 320
- Middle Platonism
Hermogenes of Antioch and, 446
Marcion's Christianity derived from, 198 of Origen, 464
origins and derivation of philosophy, 236 rise of, 78, 435
Rome, philosophical schools of, 406–11
Tatian on monotheism and creation, 445
Zoroaster's popularity with, 237
- Milan, Edict of, 542, 543
- military life
Christian limitations regarding, 287, 534 execution of soldiers for refusal to serve after conversion, 391 laurel wreath, Christian soldier's refusal to wear, 388
'Thundering Legion', legend of, 453
- millenarianism. See entries at apocalypticism
- Miltiades (apologist), and Christian literary culture of Asia Minor and Achaea, 315, 316, 326
- Miltiades, bishop of Rome, 523
- Milvian bridge, battle of, 522, 542, 543
- ministry, 79, 153–6, 269 See also diakonoi; ecclesiastical structures; episkopoi; presbyteroi
- Minucius Felix
apologetics of, 392
Fronto's oration preserved by, 509
on Graeco-Roman intellectual culture, 392
North African Christianity, evidence for, 381, 386
social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 159
visual representation, Christian deity as beyond, 569
- miracle stories, modern historical approach to, 22
- Mithras, cult of Christian adaptation of, 14
mithraea or cult sites used by, 583
Roman attraction to, 80
- mixed marriages Christians and non-Christians, 278–9, 280, 283
in Jewish diaspora, 58
persons of different social status, 279
- modalist monarchianism, 323, 327, 457
- Modestus, on Marcion, 195
- monarchian controversies, 323, 327, 456–63, 465
- monarchy and monotheism, affinity between, 536
- monarchy and one substance (of God and Christ) as concomitants, 563
- monasticism
in Egypt, 350
as legacy of persecution of Christians, 523 in Syria and Acts of Thomas, 357
- Monica (mother of Augustine), marriage to non-Christian of, 279
- monogenēs* formula in Nicene Creed, 562, 567
- monotheism
affinity between monarchy and, 536
Graeco-Roman vs. Jewish and Christian concepts of, 240–3 Jewish Christianity's veneration of Jesus threatening Jewish concept of, 100
- monotheism and Christology, 452–3
- Arian controversy over (See Arius and Arianism)
- cosmological concerns of 2nd century affecting concepts of, 453–6
- developmental vs. dialectical model of, 452, 469
- Dionysius of Rome and Dionysius of Alexandria, correspondence between, 466–7
- doctrinal development of church stimulated by debate over, 468–9
- early preoccupation with other issues, 453
- homoousios*, use of, 467, 468
- logos* theology, contributions of, 454–6 (See also logos theology)
- monarchian controversies regarding, 456–63
- Origen on, 463–6
- monotheism and creation. See also cosmology/cosmogony; creation ex nihilo (out of nothing); evil, origins of
- Athenagoras of Athens on, 444–5
- Basilides on, 441–2
- christological issues and, 453–6
- in Graeco-Roman thought, 434–6
- heretical groups as stimulus for early church to work out ideas about, 439, 447
- Hermogenes of Antioch on, 445–7
- Irenaeus of Lyons on, 449–50, 454
- in Jewish thought, 434–6
- Justin Martyr on, 443–4
- Marcion and Tertullian, 439–41
- material substrate, creation out of, 436, 444, 445–7

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- monotheism and creation (cont.)
 Philo of Alexandria on, 437–9
 Tatian on, 445
 Theophilus of Antioch on, 447
 ‘three principles’ doctrine (God, ideas, and matter), 435
 time, creation of world in, 436, 442
 Valentinians on, 442–3
- Montanism (New Prophecy)
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, 316, 321–2, 325–7
 charismatic vs. institutional ecclesial authority, 154 Christian communities in Gaul and, 370, 376 councils and synods supposedly precipitated by, 429 discipline and repentance of sinners following baptism, 427, 472
 Jewish Christianity, as outgrowth of, 98
 Johannine theology and, 324, 325
 Montanus, 321
 North Africa, 393
 orthodoxy and heresy, development of concepts of, 325–7
 in Rome, 403
 rural origins of, 317
 Victor of Rome and, 255, 256
- Moore, Henry, 247
- morality
 Christian education, ethics as part of, 489, 490
 Marcionite devaluation of material world and asceticism, 197 Origen’s borrowing of pagan justification of moral use of literature, 499 purity and holiness associated with, 161
- Moses
 derivation of Platonism from, Celsus’ refutation of, 238, 239, 240, 242
 derivation of Platonism from, Justin’s argument regarding, 231, 233–5, 237 Jesus portrayed in Matthew as new version of, 187 novelty, charged with, 239
- mothers
 children, paternal authority over, 275, 277, 282 concept of ‘Mother Church’, 394 Great Mother, cult of, 79
 Mary, mother of Jesus, devotion to, 355
- multiple attestation, criterion of, 21
- Muratorian canon list, 204
- Musonius Rufus on education of women, 278
 philosophical approach of, 78
- mystery religions. See also pagan religions, and specific cults, e.g. Mithras, cult of cultic practices adapted to Christianity, 12–15
 Pauline mission and, 117
 Roman attraction to, 79, 80
- mythical worldviews. See cosmology / cosmogony
- Nabataea (Arabia)
 Pauline mission in, 109, 150
 rural Christianity in, 311
- Nag Hammadi documents
Corpus Hermeticum and location of Johannine community, 127
 Egypt, evidence for Christianity in, 332
 John’s gospel, role of, 190
- Narcissus of Neronias, 557, 558
- Nartzalus, 304
- natural philosophy or physics as part of Christian education, 489, 490
- Nazareans, Gospel according to*, 96
- Nazarenes, 99
- Neapolis, Paul’s mission to, 112
- negative theology of Basilides, 441
- Neoplatonism, rise of, 78
- Nero, emperor
 death of, 77
domus aurea (golden house) of, 82 fire of Rome blamed on Christians by, 71, 503–4
 persecution of Christians by, 71, 503–4
 Stoic opposition to, 78
- Nerva, emperor
fiscus judaicus, alleviation of, 67, 506 persecution of Christians alleviated by, 506 rebuilding of temple, hopes regarding, 219
- network theory, 344
- New Prophecy movement. See Montanism
- ‘New Testament’, 212–13 See also gospels, names of individual books Asia Minor and Achaëa, literary culture of, 315–16 creation ex nihilo in, 439 disciplinary practices in, 426 earliest extant manuscripts of, 331
 ‘freelance’ teachers, prominence of and concern over, 486
 Marcion’s contribution to formation of, 203–5, 211–12

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- papyrus page of Pauline epistles, 176
 politics and government, attitude towards, 524, 525, 526, 527
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 227 unity between 'Old Testament' and, 267, 270
 use of term, 193
- Nicaea, Council of. See Council of Nicaea
- Nicasius, bishop (Gaul), 558
- Nicene Creed
 in aftermath of council, 564–7 anathemas, 561, 563–4 content, commentary on, 562–4
 'God from God, light from light, true God from true God', 562 homoousios, 562, 563 liturgical use, lack of early evidence for, 564 monarchy and one substance as concomitants in, 563
monogenēs formula, 562, 567
 origins and composition of, 560–1 ratification and alteration at Second Oecumenical Council at Constantinople, 566 text and translation of, 561 unity, as expression of desire for, 553 use of creeds in early church and, 425
- Nicolaitans, John's gospel directed against heresies of, 268
- Nicomas, 328
- Nicomedia (Bithynia)
 Arianism in, 327
 Christian demographics in, 318, 517
- Noachide commandments, 111
- Nock, A. D., 232
- Noëtus of Smyrna
 Asia Minor and Achaea, early Christianity of, 322, 327 councils and synods, development of, 430
 creeds, use of, 425
 monarchian controversies, involvement in, 456–63
 Paul of Samosata compared, 468
 Rome, early Christianity of, 403
- nomina sacra*, 192, 337. See also chi-rho symbol
- non-canonical materials, modern historical use of, 21
- Norea (Gnostic figure), 250
- North Africa, ch. 21. See also Numidia apologetics in, 388, 392–3 baptism, reconciliation of sinners following, 394–5 catacombs, 308, 382 characteristics of early Christianity in, 386–91, 395–6 church buildings of, 381–2 collegiality and devotion to unity as hallmark of church in, 387, 392, 393, 394–5 contentious theological issues in, 393–4 councils of, 387
 Decian persecutions in, 387–91, 471, 514
 demographics of early Christianity in, 303, 308, 312
 Diocletian persecutions in, 520, 522
 Donatists regarded as true heirs of Christianity of, 396
 ecclesial structure in, 387 evidence and sources for, 381–2 Fronto, oration of, 509
 human sacrifice in, 385, 392 Judaism and Jewish Christianity, 386 legacy of persecution in, 396, 522 literary culture of Christianity, 381
 map of, 380
 martyr cult of, 391–2 militant martyr character of, 312
 Montanism in, 393
 Novatian schism, councils in response to, 476
 origins of Christianity in, 386
 pagan religions of, 384–5 persecution of Christians in, 312, 387–92, 509, 510, 514, 520
 Phoenicians in, 382–5
 Romanisation of, 383–4
 Rome, correspondence following Decian persecutions with, 470–2 Rome, respect for church of, 386, 394–5 sacrifice, centrality to pagan religions of, 385
 schism in Carthaginian church, Cyprian's ecclesiological response to, 477–9 Scillitan martyrs of, 386, 388, 510 society and cultures of, 382–4 Tertullian as evidence for Christianity in. (See also Cyprian; Tertullian)
 use of term, 381
 wider society, relationship to, 392–3 women, attitudes towards, 395–6
- Novatian and Novatianists. See also lapsi alternative Carthaginian episcopate supported by, 478 Asia Minor and Achaea, early Christianity of, 328
 continued existence of, 477

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Novatian and Novatianists (cont.)
 correspondence with Cyprian and Carthage after Decian persecutions, 471 Council of Nicaea on, 555
 Easter, date of, 560
 ecclesiological response of Cyprian to schism of, 477
 Jewish Christianity evidenced in works of, 96
 on monarchian controversy, 457
 North Africa, early Christianity of, 395
 Rome, early Christianity of, 406, 411–12
 schism with Cornelius, 475–7 validity of baptisms and other spiritual acts performed by, 479–83, 555
- Novatian, Roman catacomb of, 517
- novels, Christian and Graeco-Roman, 193
- novelty and innovation
 Christian self-identity and, 589
 Christianity charged with, 223–4, 232, 237–40, 243
 Constantine viewed as dangerous innovator by pagan writers, 544 Cyprian vs. Stephen as to validity of baptism performed by heretic/schismatic/idolator, 480, 481 homoousios viewed as, 563
 Irenaeus, innovation vs. tradition in thinking of, 262–4, 268–70 mechanisms for introducing, 237 monarchian and anti-monarchian charges of, 461
 Moses charged with, 239
 Pindar on custom as against, 238
- Numenius of Apamea, on origins and derivation of Greek philosophy, 235, 236–7, 239, 240
- Numidia
 Cirta, 517, 520 strength of Christian church in, 522
 Tipasa, 303, 304
- obduracy and obstinacy, persecution of Christians on grounds of, 507, 510, 513
- occupations of Christians, 286, 287
- Octavian. See Augustus Caesar
- Odes of Solomon*
 Johannine Christianity, evidence for, 126, 127
 Syriac Christianity evinced by, 355–6
 Trinitarian theology of, 355, 357
- offices of the church, 153–6, 269 See also diakonoi; ecclesiastical structures; episkopoi; presbyteroi
- oikonomia* (dispensatio), 461, 462, 489
- oil, baptismal anointing with, 163
- old Latin or western tradition of Pauline letter collections, 209, 210
- ‘Old Testament’. See also Jewish scriptures; Septuagint earliest Christian literary materials, 178 Peshitta Old Testament and Syriac Bible, 354
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 227 unity between ‘New Testament’ and, 267, 270
- omnipotence of God
 Irenaeus of Lyons on, 449
 Theophilus of Antioch on, 448
- Onesimus, bishop of Ephesus, 124
- Onesimus, slave in Philemon, 151, 284
- Optatus, bishop of Milevis, 548
- oracle of Apollo at Didyma and origins of Diocletianic persecutions, 519
- oracles as part of Roman religion, 80
- oral culture, Roman empire as, 74, 494
- oral vs. written tradition, 180–1
- orans* position, 168
- orant* figures, iconography of, 577, 579
- organisation of church. See ecclesial structures; institutional structures of early Christianity
- oriental religions, Roman attraction to, 79, 80
- Origen, 258–9
 Ambrosius as patron of, 493, 513 anti-millenarianism of, 533–4
 apologetics of, 313
 Arian controversy and thought of, 556
 Beryllus of Bostra, refutation of, 429, 458
 Caesarea, move to, 300, 487
 Caesarea, teaching in, 485, 488–90
 Celsus, reply to, 238, 465
 Christian educational practices, evidence for, 485, 488 councils and synods, debates resembling, 429, 432
 creeds, use of, 425
 critical techniques used to consider historicity of Gospels as used by, 5, 496
didaskaleion (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 304, 341, 343
 dogmatic understanding of Jesus, 11

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Egyptian/Alexandrian ecclesial structure, evolution of, 339
- father Leonides, martyrdom of, 343, 511
- geographic spread of Christianity as evidenced by, 302
- Gospels listed by, 190
- heretic, denounced by Justinian as, 344
- intellectual tradition within Christianity stimulated by, 500
- interpretation of scripture and, 464, 493–500
- Jews and Jewish scholarship, intellectual engagement with, 227
- life and works, 343
- logos* theology, monotheism and Christology, 463–6
- on monarchianism, 465
- novelty against antiquity, defence of charge of, 223
- on persecution of Christians, 513
- Philo's influence on, 343, 438, 463
- Platonism of, 343, 464
- politics and government, Christian attitudes towards, 533–4
- on rural Christianity, 312
- social and educational levels of early Christians, 159, 512
- synagogue, Christian attendance at, 226
- visual representation, Christian deity as beyond, 570
- Orkistos (Nacolea), demographic dominance of Christians in, 309
- Orpheus
- Celsus on origins and derivation of Greek philosophy, 240
- Christian iconographic use of, 575, 576
- orthodoxy and proto-orthodoxy, 245–6
- Asia Minor and Achaea, 325–7
- diversity of, 260
- doctrinal impulse of church leading to, 468–9
- Irenaeus and (See Irenaeus of Lyons and orthodox self-definition)
- Novatian schism and authority regarding, 411–12
- Roman philosophical schools' contributions to concept of, 408, 410
- strategies of self-differentiation used by, 259
- Osiris, cult of, 80
- Ossius (Hosius), bishop of Cordova, 558, 561, 562
- Our Father (Lord's Prayer), 168
- 'out of nothing' (ex ouk ontōn) formula, 554, 555, 563
- Ovid, 81
- Oxyrynchus (Egypt)
- demographics of early Christianity in, 305, 308, 309
- Eucharist and pagan cultic practices in, 14
- expansion of Christianity in Egypt, 348
- pagan philosophers identified as 'Christian', 224, 243, 254, 255
- pagan religions, 79–80 See also mystery religions, and specific cults, e.g. Mithras, cult of
- artistic appropriations from, 570–4, 577–9
- Asia Minor and Achaea, 317
- under Constantine, 541, 543
- decline of, reasons for, 312
- Gaul, 367, 368
- interpretatio graeca* (Greek or other gods identified with Roman pantheon), 79–80
- North Africa, 384–5
- popular waning of, 518
- public life, Christian involvement in, 287
- ritual meals with gods, 163, 167
- singing and chanting, 168
- state, religious worship and, 79–80
- syncretism of, 79–80
- Syria and Mesopotamia, 352–3
- visual orientation of, 568
- paideia*. See entries at education
- Palestine. See also Bar Kochba revolt, Galilee, Judaea, entries at Jerusalem, and Syria and Mesopotamia
- archaeological disputes over, 299
- Constantine's church-building activities in, 547
- Diocletianic persecution in, 521
- dispersal of Jerusalem Church throughout, 299
- 'Holy Land', concept of, 296, 547
- map, 1st century CE, 36
- paucity of evidence regarding Christianity in, 308
- rural Christianity, 311
- shift away from Palestine as centre of Christianity, 296–300
- Pamphilus, Roman catacomb of, 517
- Pamphilus, presbyter of Caesarea, martyrdom of, 300
- Pantaenus, 340, 490
- Pantheon, 83
- Panthera legend of Jesus' birth, 496

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- papacy. See Rome, bishops of
- Papias, and Christianity of Asia Minor and Achaëa, 315, 316, 320
- papyri
 Christian demographics revealed by, 305
 Constantinian documents, authenticity of, 548
 Egypt, evidence for Christianity in, 331, 348–9
 illustration of, 176
- paradox at heart of Christian belief, 588
- parliamentary councils, 432
- 'parting of the ways' model of Christianity and Judaism, 215, 217, 228
- Passover Seder and eucharist, 163, 165
- pastoral care, 79, 153–6, 269 See also diakonoï; ecclesiastical structures; episkopoi; presbyteroi
- Pastoral Epistles. See also 1 and 2 Timothy (under T); Titus
 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 123, 124, 133, 154
 Marcionite canon, exclusion from, 208
 Polycarp regarded as author of, 319 remarriage of church leaders, discouragement of, 276
 Trito-Pauline nature of, 106, 183
- patriarchy
 children, paternal authority over, 275, 277, 282 family and household, paternal authority in, 275, 277, 278
 God as father, social ramifications of, 282
- patronage
 Christian ecclesial structure and, 151, 155 poor, private patronage of, 289–91 Roman empire's system of, 75
- Paul
 Abercius self-modeled on, 295–6
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, apostolic traditions of, 322 authentic letters of, 106
 on celibacy, 276
 Christian literary traditions referred to by, 178 as founder of Christianity, 19
 Heraclitus read by, according to Celsus, 238
 Jerusalem meeting of Christ-believing preachers, 103, 109
 Jewish Christianity, encounters with, 92–3, 94, 109, 111, 117
 Jewish diaspora communities identified by, 56
 Luke's possible traditional and historical connection to, 207
 origins of Gentile Christianity for, 107
 politics and government, attitude towards, 525 possible Pharisaic education of, 59
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 216, 217, 218 on slavery, 120, 284 social and educational level, 158, 159
 tradition of Church, concept of, 268
 Valentinians' claimed connection to, 253, 256 visual representation, Christian deity as beyond, 568, 569 writing style of, 158
- Pauline mission, 108–21
 Achaëa (Corinth), 114–17 alternative position within Jesus movement, 218 Arabia, Syria, and Cilicia, 109, 150 circumcision and other Jewish practices as understood by, 111, 112, 118
 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity) of, 123 ecclesial structures of, 120, 150–3 Galatia and Asia Proconsularis, 109–12
 God-fearers, Paul's seeking out of, 112, 115 historical sensibility of, 117 indivisibility of apostolate and gospel message, 111, 113, 116, 123 justification by faith and divine election according to, 111, 113, 119 Macedonia (Thessaloniki and Philippi), 112–14 reasons for success of, 119–21
 Rome, 117–18, 402
 Spain and western empire, 118 territorial disputes with Jewish Christianity, 109, 111, 115 unity, appeals to, 115, 116, 118
- Pauline letters
 apocalypticism in, 27, 113 authentic letters, 106, 181–3
 canonicity of, 212, 213
 chronological ordering of, 209 collections of, 184, 208–11 decreasing length, ordering of letters by, 209
 eschatological tension in, 27
 Gentile Christianity, sources for, 106 gospel narrative assumed by, 182, 185

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- historical Jesus, apparent lack of interest in, 31
- interpretive issues, 183, 202
- Irenaeus claiming for orthodox church, 264, 268
- Jerusalem Church as viewed in, 297
- letter-writing tradition, exploitation of, 181, 192
- literary style of, 158
- Marcionite dependence on, 201–2, 208–11
- non-Pauline missions to the Gentiles evidenced in, 121
- old Latin or western tradition, 209, 210
- pagan cultic influences and adaptations, 15
- prophetic tradition of, 29
- pseudepigraphic (Deutero-Pauline writings, Pastoral Epistles), 106, 181–3
- Pseudo-Clementine literature, Paul's vilification in, 92
- resurrected Jesus, devotion to, 32
- rhetorical techniques employed in, 182, 192
- seven-churches collection, 184, 209
- social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
- Syrian tradition, 209, 210
- unfulfilled expectations, Christian conundrum of, 27
- Paulinist writings
- Acts* as advanced stage of Paulinism, 106
- Mark* regarded as, 94, 185
- Paul, Acts of*, 213, 276, 323
- Paul, Apocalypse of*, 193
- Paul, bishop of Cirta, 520
- Paul of Samosata
- Asia Minor and Achaëa, early Christianity of, 328
- Council of Nicaea on, 555
- councils and synods, development of, 362, 432, 467–8
- Dionysius of Alexandria and, 556
- monarchian controversy and, 456, 457
- monotheism and Christology, 467–8
- re-baptism of followers of, 482
- Syria and Mesopotamia, early Christianity of, 362–3
- tribunal for, 558
- Paul and Thekla (Thekla), Acts of*, 124, 315, 321
- Paulus, Heinrich, 16
- pax Augusta* or pax Romana, 70, 265, 529, 536
- 'peace of the church', 538, ch. 30
- Pectorius inscription, Gaul, 378–9
- pederasty, 281
- Pélagaud, Elysée, 238
- Pella (Perea), flight of Jerusalem Christians to, 298
- penates*, 80
- Pentecost, 108
- Peregrinus Proteus, Lucian's satire on, 158
- Pergamum
- Jewish diaspora of, 56
- ruler cult at, 317, 502, 505
- Perge, Pauline mission in, 109
- Peripatetics
- Aristotelianism, rediscovery of, 79
- corruption of philosophy following, 235
- Perpetua, martyrdom of, 388, 393, 511
- persecution of Christians. See also
- martyrdom, and under specific areas, e.g. North Africa
- 1st and 2nd centuries, 503–10
- 3rd century, 511–23
- anonymous accusations, 507, 508
- atheism, charges of, 452, 505, 521, 569
- cannibalism, charges of, 507, 509
- Claudius, expulsion of Jews from Rome by, 66, 71, 93, 117, 503
- confiscation of Christian property under Valerian, 515
- by Decius (See Decius, emperor, persecution of Christians by)
- by Diocletian (See Diocletian, emperor, persecution of Christians by)
- by Domitian, 71, 299, 505–6
- expansion of Christianity as explanation for, 312
- fire of Rome and, 71, 503–4
- Fronto, oration of, 509
- funerary inscriptions and, 303
- Gallienus, revocation of edict of 256 CE by, 391
- Hadrian, rescript of, 508
- heretics and schismatics, punitive measures turned against, 503, 523
- illegality of Christianity before
- Constantine, 503, 508, 516
- incest, accusations of, 170, 509
- Judaism, association of Christianity with, 505, 510
- legacy of, 522–3
- low social status of most early Christians contributing to, 310

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- persecution of Christians (cont.)
- magic, popular association of Christianity with, 504, 507
 - by Maximinus (See Maximinus (Maximin Daia), emperor, persecution of Christians by)
 - by Nero, 71, 503–4
 - Nerva's alleviation of, 506
 - obduracy, charges of, 507, 510, 513
 - orgies and sexual license, accusations of, 509
 - 'peace of the church' following, 538
 - Pliny the Younger on (See Pliny the Younger and Trajan, correspondence regarding Christians between)
 - political aspects of, 505, 513, 515, 518, 536
 - popular feeling against Christians, 318, 505, 508, 510, 511, 513, 514, 517, 536
 - quasi-toleration and growth, periods of, 503, 508, 512, 517–18
 - right of persecuted to flee, Cyprian on, 471
 - ruler cult tradition and, 505
 - Septimius Severus, conversion to Judaism and Christianity forbidden by, 66, 388, 511
 - by Severus, 348
 - social status of Christians, change in, 512, 515
 - Syria and Mesopotamia, 363–4
 - Trajan, treatment of Christians under, 12, 71, 506–8 (See also Pliny the Younger and Trajan, correspondence regarding Christians between)
 - unity of empire, as motive for, 505, 518
 - by Valerian, 72, 390–1, 503, 514–17
 - Vienne and Lyons, Christians of, 265, 307, 369–71, 372–4, 508, 509
- persecution of Jews by Romans, 65–8, 71
- Persia
- Gnosticism's origins traced to, 247
 - magi*, origins and derivation of Greek philosophy from, 236
 - Sasanian incursions of 256, 353
- Persius (satirist), 81
- Peshitta Old Testament and Syriac Bible, 354
- Peter, apostle (Cephas)
- Asia Minor and Achaëa, apostolic traditions of, 323
 - assignment of authority to, 133, 149, 411, 477–9
 - Basilica of St Peter's in Rome, 402, 542, 571, 570–2, 576
 - Cornelius the centurion and, 108
 - Jerusalem church, involvement with, 297
 - Jerusalem council, presence at, 103
 - Jewish Christian missionary to Gentiles, viewed as, 122
 - Jewish Christianity, as exemplar of, 91–2
 - Johannine Christianity's oppositional portrayal of, 134, 135
 - Marcion's judgment of, 202
 - Roman mission of, 402
 - territorial disputes with Pauline mission, 109, 115
- 1 Peter
- canonicity of, 212, 213
 - epistolary tradition of Paul used by, 192
 - Pauline aspects of, 92
 - Peter cast in Pauline light in, 92
 - pseudonymous nature of, 298
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 218
 - slaves and slavery, 284, 286
 - social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
 - social relationship of Christians to world, 275
- 2 Peter
- canonicity of, 212, 213
 - difficulty of interpreting Paul's letters remarked on, 183, 202
 - Pauline collections known to, 208
 - pseudonymous nature of, 298
 - Peter, Acts of*, 276, 315, 323
 - Peter, Apocalypse of*, 193, 212, 213
 - Peter, Gospel of*, 21
 - Peter, Preaching of. See Kerygmata Petrou*
 - Peter, bishop of Alexandria, 522, 557
 - Petra, possible site of Paul's mission in Arabia, 109
 - Petronius (satirist), 81
 - Petronius (legate), delay in erecting Caligula's statue in Jerusalem by, 77
 - Phaedrus (freedman of Augustus), 81
 - Pharisees. See also rabbinic Judaism
 - diversity of first century Judaism, 25
 - Jerusalem church's resemblance to, 150
 - Jewish Christianity, demise of, 100
 - Jewish diaspora, connections with, 59
 - Matthew's* denunciation of, 94
 - Paul's possible roots among, 59
 - turmoil of Judæan economy and society, reaction to, 50
 - Pherecydes, 240

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Philadelphia (Asia Minor), Jewish Christianity
in, 97, 224
- Philemon*
Marcion's Pauline letter collection
containing, 208
seven authentic letters of Paul, 106
- Philip, apostle, conversions of, 108, 122
- Philip, emperor, 513
- Philip of Gortyna, on Marcion, 195
- Philip, Gospel of*, 359
- Philip (son of Herod the Great and Tetrarch), rule of, 39, 40
- Philip of Side and didaskaleion (catechetical school) of Alexandria, 341
- Philippi
demographics of early Christianity in, 309
Jewish Christians of, 92
Jewish diaspora of, 56
Pauline mission to, 112–14
Roman army veterans settling in, 73
- Philippians*, 112–14
baptism, use of 2:6–11 in ritual of, 162 Marcion's Pauline letter collection
containing, 208
ministry of early church, development of,
417
seven authentic letters of Paul, 106
- Philo (epic poet), 62
- Philo of Alexandria allegorical interpreters of Jewish law described by, 59
Clement of Alexandria's familiarity with, 227 extent of Jewish diaspora according to, 56 Gentiles attracted to Judaism as described
by, 65
Greek philosophy and literature, immersion in, 62
Hellenistic Judaism, as literary product of, 53 ideology of Jewish diaspora according to, 54
Jerusalem, pilgrimage to, 59
Jewish diaspora of Alexandria and, 55, 335 logos speculations of, 127, 409, 455
on monotheism and creation, 437–9
Neoplatonism of, 78
Origen influenced by, 343, 438, 463
politics and government, attitude towards, 525 population estimate of Jews in Egypt, 57
Timaeus, influence of, 435
- Philo of Byblos, 232
- Philodemus of Gadara, 78
- philosophy. See also specific schools, e.g. Plato and Platonism
Alexandria, philosophical schools of, 487
Christian education, role in, 489 Christianity's resemblance to a philosophical school, 469, 486, 487 contemporary views on history and derivation from ancient cultures, 235–7 division into schools, 'corruption' due to, 234, 235–6 eclectic approach to, 490 iconography of Christ the teacher/philosopher, 484, 575
Irenaeus' background in, 266
Jews viewed as nation of, 415
Justin Martyr on derivation from Moses, 231, 233–5
Marcion's philosophical and metaphysical approach to Christianity, 198
monotheism and creation, 434–6
North Africans on, 392
pagan philosophers identified as 'Christian', 224, 243, 254, 255
Paul's disputes with philosophers, 114
in Roman empire, 77–9
Rome, philosophical schools of, 406–11, 487, 488
- Philostorgius, on Council of Nicaea, 553, 562
- Phoebe of Cenchreae, 118
- Phoenicia
North Africa, Phoenicians' settlement in, 382–5
rural Christianity in, 311
- Phōs hilaron*, 12
- Photinus, 558
- Phrygia. See also specific cities, e.g. Hierapolis
Christian cities of, 517
Christian epigraphy and funerary inscriptions, 303
demographics of early Christianity in, 308, 309, 312, 318
- physical format of Christian literature (codex), 180, 184, 192, 227
- physical ritual positions and gestures, 168, 170
- physics or natural philosophy as part of Christian education, 489, 490
- Pilate. See Pontius Pilate
- pilgrimage. See Jerusalem, pilgrimage to
- Pindar, on custom as against novelty, 238
- Pionius, martyrdom of, 514

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Plato and Platonism. See also Middle Platonism
- Athenagoras' acceptance of cosmology of, 445
- celibacy, Christian views on, 276
- corruption of philosophy following, 235–6
- cosmology of, 436
- denigration of matter by, 454
- Egypt, Greek fascination with, 231
- Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity, 338
- gender associations according to, 277
- Gnostic use of, 249, 250
- Hermogenes of Antioch as synthesiser of Christianity and, 446
- Irenaeus' familiarity with, 266, 271
- Jesus as reader of Plato, according to Celsus, 238
- Justin Martyr influenced by, 444
- material substrate, creation out of, 436
- moral use of literature, Origen's borrowing of pagan justification of, 499
- Moses, Celsus' refutation of derivation of Platonism from, 238, 239, 240, 242
- Moses, Justin Martyr on derivation of Platonism from, 231, 233–5, 237
- Neoplatonism, rise of, 78
- Origen, 343, 464
- philosophical rise and dominance of, 435
- rhetoric, use of, 81
- Roman rediscovery of, 78
- Theophilus of Antioch on, 447
- Trinitarian theology attributed by Justin Martyr to, 234
- Pliny the Elder, geography of Galilee and Judaea according to, 37
- Pliny the Younger and Trajan, correspondence regarding Christians, 506–8
- description of Christians, 12, 71, 506–8
- eucharist, 165
- influence of Trajan's directive in subsequent history, 508
- prayer, 288
- social class of early Christians, 156
- Plotinus
- cosmology of, 436
- creation ex nihilo vs. existing material substrate, 437
- Gnostics as rivals to, 249, 260
- Plutarch
- moral use of literature, Origen's borrowing of pagan justification of, 499
- Neoplatonism of, 78
- Roman domination accepted and criticised by, 70
- Timaeus*, influence of, 436
- Polemo, corruption of philosophy and, 235, 236
- politics and religion, xvii, 589 See also Christian attitudes towards government and politics; Roman emperors
- authority of episkopoi patterned on civil government, 419, 474
- borders between pagans and 'others', attempts to patrol, 244
- church envisioned as political structure, 526
- Constantine's intervention in church affairs as imperial precedent, 545
- Council of Nicaea as sign of new mode of church government, 552
- councils as governing/judicial bodies, 428–33 (See also councils and synods)
- Jesus and his followers as eschatological renewal movement, 146–8
- monotheism, politics of, 240–3
- Paul of Samosata, use of civil authority to oust, 468
- persecution of Christians, political aspects of, 505, 513, 515, 518, 536
- Roman religion, political role of, 79
- unity of empire, persecution of Christians and visions of, 505, 518
- Polycarp
- Asia Minor and Achaea, Christian literary culture of, 315, 328
- authorship of Pastoral Epistles attributed to, 319
- 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 123
- Irenaeus' association with, 262, 370
- martyrdom of, 509
- Martyrium Polycarpi*, 193, 420
- Pauline letter collection known to, 208
- Philippians, continuity of Pauline mission to, 114
- prophetism of, 321
- Quartodeciman controversy, 320, 377, 404
- 'teacher of Asia', known as, 486
- third generation of Pauline writings (early second century), 106
- Polycharmus, house of, used as synagogue, 60
- Polycrates of Ephesus and Quartodeciman controversy, 320, 404

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- polytheism
Graeco-Roman concepts of, 242
Theodosius, made illegal by, 550
- Pompeia Agrippinilla, Dionysiac association founded by, 151
- Pompeii, art and architecture of, 82
- Pompeius (bishop), 480
- Pompey, Judaea conquered by, 76
- Pontianus, bishop of Rome, 405, 406
- Ponticus (Christian of Gaul), 370
- Pontius Pilate
Acts of Pilate, 34
Letter of Pontius Pilate to Claudius, 532
'Memoirs of Pilate and the Saviour', 177, 521 office of, 76
- Pontus
demographics of early Christianity in, 308, 318
Marcion's origins in, 196
Pauline mission in, 110
Pliny on Christians of Bithynia and (See Pliny the Younger and Trajan, correspondence regarding Christians of)
- poor
Africa, militant martyr Christianity of, 312
Christians' identification with and provision for, 157–8, 289–91
- Popes. See Rome, bishops of
- population estimates for early Christianity, 306, 543 See also demographics of early Christianity
- porneia*, 279, 280
- Porphyry of Tyre, 232, 249, 519, 545, 575
- Posidonius of Apamea, 235
- postal system
apostolic letters, 152
cursus publicus, 74
- Pothinus, leader of Christians of Lyons, 369
- Praxeas, 256, 327, 456–63
- prayers, 168, 288 See also creeds for emperor and empire, 528, 535 eucharistic, 242
Lord's Prayer, 168
orans position, 168
orant figures, iconography of, 577, 579
- presbyteroi*, 153–6
attestation of early governance by, 133 development of ministry in early church, 417
'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity), 123
episkopoi, early interchangeability with, 417, 419
Irenaeus on, 269
- priests. See episkopoi; presbyteroi
- Prisca, and Pauline mission to Rome, 117
- Priscilla (Montanist), 321
- Priscilla, Roman catacomb of, 575
- Priscilla (Roman Christian), 401
- Pritz, R. A., 99
- private houses
Christian worship centres, use as (See house churches) synagogues, use as, 60
- Propercius, 81
- property, ecclesial. See ecclesial property and wealth
- property separated from marriage, 277
- prophets and prophecy Asia Minor and Achaea, prophecy in, 321 ecstatic prophecy as part of early Christian liturgical practice, 170 itinerant prophets as ecclesial mode of earliest church, 148–9, 154
Jesus viewed as prophet, 28, 51, 148–9
Lives of the prophets, 228
ministry of early church, development of, 416, 417
New Prophecy movement (See Montanism) social tensions of, 321
- Prosenes, 310, 512
- Protestant use of 'early catholicism' theory, 123
- proto-orthodoxy. See orthodoxy and proto-orthodoxy
- Protevangelium of James*, 355
- Protogenes, bishop of Sardica, 558
- Proverbs*
Arian controversy and interpretation of, 556
Johannine Christianity and, 131
logos theology and, 455, 456
- Psalms*
liturgical/ritual chanting or singing of, 168
logos theology and, 455, 556
- Psenoris, 311
- Pseudo-Clementine literature
Egyptian Christianity, origins of, 336
Gentile Christianity endorsed by, 90
James as model of Torah piety in, 91
self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 225
Syrian Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 98

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Pseudo-Cyprian, 381, 386
 Pseudo-Hecataeus, 62
 Pseudo-Longinus, 81, 435
 Pseudo-Platonic writings, 'Trinitarian' theology expressed in, 234 Pseudo-Tertullian, on Marcion, 195 psychopompos, Good Shepherd representations based on, 577 Ptolemaeus (Ptolemy) commentaries of, 374
 Rome, philosophical schools of, 410
 as Valentinian, 256, 257, 268 Ptolemaic rule, Galilean land-ownership patterns under, 44
 Ptolemy II Philadelphus, and creation of Septuagint, 61, 66
 public baths baptismal ceremony resembling activities at, 423
 Christian attendance at, 287 public spectacles and celebrations, Christian attendance at, 287
 punctuation in ancient texts, lack of, 494 Punic influence in North Africa, 382–5 purity and holiness, baptism associated with, 161–2 Pythagoreanism origins and derivation of philosophy, 236, 240 Platonic 'Trinitarian' passage, fascination with, 234
 Roman revival of, 79
 Q source, 18, 180, 187
 Quadratus
 apologetics of, 528
 Asia Minor and Achaëa, Christian literary culture of, 315
 prophecy, view of, 321
 Quartodeciman controversy, 288, 320
 Council of Nicaea and, 553–4, 560
 councils and synods, evidence for, 430 exchange of letters between Alexandria and Rome on, 344
 Irenaeus' involvement with, 377 Jewish Christianity, disputes as evidence of continuity of, 96, 98
 Montanism (New Prophecy), 322
 Polycarp's tolerance of different observances, 320, 377
 reckoning used by Quartodecimans, 320
 Roman church and, 403–4
 Quintilian, 82, 493, 495
 Quirinius, birth of Jesus supposedly recorded in tax declarations of, 34
 Qumran. See Dead Sea scrolls and Qumran community Rabbinic Judaism. See also Pharisees; synagogue
 diaspora Jews' reliance on rulings of, 58 Galilee, emergence in, 40
 inner-biblical interpretation, tradition of, 191
 Jewish Christianity, opposition to, 90, 100 pluralist vs. monolithic view of, 215, 218, 226, 228 race and ethnicity ancient concepts of, 104 daimones viewed as ethnic deities under supreme God, 241
 Gnostic use of language of, 251
 Rasinia Secunda, 304
 recapitulation, Irenaeus on, 272
 redactional theories
 2 Corinthians, redaction of multiple letters into, 116
 John's gospel, 130, 142, 190
 refutatio omnium haeresium (Hippolytus?), 456–63 regional varieties of Christianity, xvi regula fidei. See rule of faith Reimarus, 15
 relics, veneration of, 391, 581
 religious toleration under Constantine, 549
 remarriage, Christian attitudes regarding,
 276, 278, 280, 395–6
 Renan, Ernst, 17
 renewal movement, Jesus and his followers viewed as, 146–8
 repentance and forgiveness, baptism associated with, 161
 Repostus, bishop of Abitina, 520 resurrection. See death and resurrection revelation, nature of, 393–4 Revelation
 bibliographic curse at end of, 193
 canonicity of, 212, 213
 Jewish apocalyptic echoed in, 96
 Johannine corpus, not part of, 127 literary genre of apocalyptic, importance
 of, 193
 politics and government, attitude towards, 527, 530

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- social and educational levels of early Christian leaders evidenced from writing styles, 158
- rhetoric
interpretation of scripture based on system
of, 191
- Irenaeus' background in, 266
- North Africans on, 392
- as part of Graeco-Roman education, 81–2
- Paul's letters using, 182, 192
- tailoring of individual gospels to audience as grounded in, 187
- Rhodon, 408
- ritual. See liturgy, worship, and ritual
- ritual bathing, Jewish baptism associated with, 160, 161
diaspora practice of, 58
- roads, Roman, 74, 152
- Roberts, Colin, 337, 348
- Roman citizenship
Gaul, Christians of, 370
Paul's, 159
social status of most early Christians, 310
- Roman conviction and crucifixion of Jesus, historical inferences regarding, 24–6
- Roman emperors. See also specific emperors, e.g. Septimius Severus chronology of. See chart, xxii–xxiii Constantine's intervention in church affairs as imperial precedent, 545, 551 cult of (See ruler cult tradition)
God's vice-gerent, emperors from Constantine viewed as, 551
- iconography, use of, 581
- Roman empire
Acts placing Jesus movement in context of, 189 antiquity, respect for, 223–4, 230–3, 239, 240, 242 army and military organization, 73
art and architecture of, 82–3 Christian self-definition vis-à-vis (See self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Graeco-Roman world) Christianity as subculture within, 170–3 development of Christianity and culture of, 19 eastern Mediterranean world, conquest of, 69 education in, 78, 81–2 Gaul, settlement of, 367–8
history of emergence and development, 69–73
- imperial rulership, establishment of, 69–70
- Judaea and Galilee under, 39, 48, 49
- languages of, 74
- letter-writing tradition of, 181, 192
- literature of, 81
- map of empire in time of Marcus Aurelius, xlv–xlvi
- marriage practices and customs, 277, 279–80
- North Africa, conquest of, 383–4
- philosophy in, 77–9
- political structures and officials, 73
- religion and syncretism, 79–80
- ruler cult tradition of (See ruler cult tradition)
social structure of, 74–6
- Syria and Mesopotamia, Graeco-Roman culture of, 352–3
- transportation and communication in, 73–4, 152, 171
- Romans*, 117–18
- Marcion's Pauline letter collection
containing, 208
seven authentic letters of Paul, 106
- Rome, ch. 22
archaeological evidence of Christian demographics, 304
art and architecture of, 82
baptisms of Christians in other churches, practice of accepting, 481, 482 capital of empire, implications for Christianity of, 399–401
- Carthage, correspondence following Decian persecutions with, 470–2
- catacombs of (See catacombs, Rome)
- Constantine's church-building activities in, 546, 547, 575
- councils and synods, inception of, 431
- Decian persecutions, immediate effects of, 471
- decline of, 401
- earliest surviving churches in, 304, 307
- ecclesial structure of, 404–6
- epigraphy and Christian demographics, 303
- evidence and sources for early Christianity
in, 397–9
- expulsion of Jews from, 66, 71, 93, 117, 401, 503
- fire of Rome blamed on Christians by Nero, 71, 398, 503–4
- 'fractionated' Christian communities of, 252, 397, 400–1, 403, 404–6, 460

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Rome (cont.)
- Gaul, importance of links to Rome for, 369, 370, 376–8, 379
 - house churches of, 307, 404, 582
 - immigrants, as city of, 399, 401–4
 - Jewish Christians of, 93, 96, 98, 117, 400
 - Jewish diaspora of, 55, 63, 66, 400
 - lapsi*, reconciliation of, 473
 - Marcion's activity in, 196
 - monarchian controversies in, 456–63
 - North African respect for church of, 386, 394–5
 - Novatian schism and church of, 411–12
 - Pauline mission to, 117–18, 402
 - Peter in, 402
 - philosophical schools of, 406–11, 487, 488
 - poor supported by church of, 291
 - population estimates for Christians of, 306
 - Quartodeciman controversy and, 403–4
 - relations with Christian communities outside of, 402
 - St Peter's Basilica (Vatican), 402, 542, 571, 570–2, 576
 - Valerian persecutions in, 516
- Rome, bishops of. See chart, xxii–iii, 404–6 See also individual bishops, e.g. Callistus, bishop of Rome; specific bishops, e.g. Victor
- Alexandria, exchange of letters with on Easter controversy, 344
 - authority, insistence on, 404–6, 411–12, 460
 - Cyprian's ecclesiological assertion of Petrine authority not related to Roman primacy, 478
 - early lack of, 418
 - representation at councils, via two legates, 558
 - succession list, according to Irenaeus, 269, 270
- Rouwhorst, Gerard, 98
- Rufinus
- on Council of Nicaea, 553, 559
 - Helena's pilgrimage and discoveries as told by, 3
 - Origen's De principia preserved in, 497
- rule of faith (or rule of truth), 255, 258, 260, 262–70, 327, 425, 461, 464, 497, 567
- ruler cult tradition, 72–3, 502
- Asia Minor and Achaea, 317
 - Christianity's adaptation of elements of, 14
 - persecution of Christians and, 505
- rural areas
- Egyptian chōra, spread of Christianity to, 335, 347–9
 - population of Christians in, 311–12
 - practice of Christianity in, 311–12
- Sabbath observance
- Constantine's laws on observance of Sunday, 544
 - Jewish Christianity, 61, 224
 - Jewish diaspora, 57
 - John's Gospel on, 95
- Sabellius and Sabellianism
- Arian controversy and, 554, 555
 - Asia Minor and Achaea, early Christianity of, 327
 - Dionysius of Rome and Dionysius of Alexandria, christological correspondence between, 466, 467
 - Marcellus, bishop of Ancyra, 565
 - monarchian controversies and, 456, 458, 459
 - Paul of Samosata compared to, 468
- sacrifice in North Africa
- human sacrifice, 392
 - pagan religions, centrality to, 385
- sacrificial metaphors associated with eucharist, 424
- sacrificial typology for episkopoi, 420–1
- Sadducees (priestly caste)
- dispersal following destruction of temple, 59
 - diversity of first century Judaism, 25
 - turmoil of Judaeon economy and society due to, 48, 50
- St Peter's Basilica, Rome, 402, 542, 571, 570–2, 576
- saints' lives, gospel narrative influencing form of, 193
- Samaritans
- Johannine Christianity influenced by, 131
 - Philip's conversion of, 108
 - self vs. other Jewish world-view complicated by, 104
- Samosatenes. See Paul of Samosata
- San Clemente, Rome, house church of, 307, 582
- Santi Giovanni e Paulo, Rome, house church of, 307, 582
- Sanctus (Christian of Gaul), 370
- Sanders, E. P., 22, 59
- Santa Croce in Gerusalemme, Rome, xlvi, 1–2
- Santa Sabina, Rome, 584, 585

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Sarapis, mysteries of, 14
 sarcophagi, 575, 577, 578, 579, 580, 587
 Sardis, synagogue at, 67
 Sasanian Persian incursions of 256 CE, 353
 Saturninus of Antioch, 345
 Saturninus, persecutor of Christians in North Africa, 510 schism. See heresy and schism Schmid, Ulrich, 210
 Schmuttermayer, Georg, 437
 Schweitzer, Albert, 17, 18, 19, 27, 41
 Scillitan martyrs of North Africa, 386, 388, 510
 See also Speratus of Scilli scripture. See Bible Sebastian, Roman catacomb of, 575 second marriage, Christian attitudes regarding, 276, 278, 280
 Second Temple Judaism, pluralistic vs. monolithic view of, 215
 Secundus of Tigisis, 522, 555, 564 self-definition and differentiation, xv–xvi ancient roots vs. radical newness of Christianity, 589 barbarians, Graeco-Roman world-view of themselves as distinct from, 105
 Gentile Christianity, 103–5
 ideal Christian life, what constitutes, 291 interpretative nature of Christian practice and belief, 588
 Jewish diaspora, 57, 61–2
 Jewish world-view, 103–5 prayer, fasting and charity, 291 sense of self always implying differentiation, 214 social relationship of Christians to world, 274–5, 291 self-definition and differentiation amongst Christian groups, 245–6 See also diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity; heresy and schism; orthodoxy and proto-orthodoxy Clement of Alexandria, 257 episcopal responsibility for, 255 Gnostics, 250–1
 Irenaeus, ch. 13
 Marcion, 252
 Origen, 258–9
 strategies developed for, 259
 Valentinians, 256
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Graeco-Roman world, 230 See also Celsus; Justin Martyr borders of Christian, Jewish and Graeco-Roman worlds, attempts to police, 243–4 greater antiquity of ‘barbarian’ cultures, views regarding, 230–3 Irenaeus and, 265–6
 monotheism, concepts of, 240–3
 Moses as precursor of Plato, 231, 233–5 novelty against antiquity, pagan charges against Christianity as, 232, 237–40, 243 origins of philosophy in antique or ‘barbarian’ cultures, contemporary views on, 235–7 superiority and priority of Christianity over Greek philosophy, 233–5, 237
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 214–15, 589
adversus Judaeos tradition, 221–3 anti-Semitism and, 222, 224 apologetics addressed to Graeco-Roman world, 223–4 clarity of distinction between Christian and Jew by third century, 259 complexity of relationship, 227–9 conceptual level, 214, 217, 225 conscious rejection of Jewish understanding of scriptures, 219–20 continuity of development, difficulties in tracing, 218 discrete and enclosed systems, tendency to regard Christianity and Judaism as, 215, 221
 divine election, 221 earliest Christian examples of, 216–18
 encounters between Jews and Christians, 225–7 intellectual engagement between Jews and Christians, 226–7, 228 interpretation of scripture, 219–20, 221
 Irenaeus and, 264–5
 Jerusalem temple, destruction of, 215, 218, 219
 Jewish Christianity and ‘Judaising’, 224–5 Jewish scriptures, significance and meaning of, 218–23, 227 linguistic or discourse level, 214, 218, 223, 224 ‘parting of the ways’ model, 215, 217, 228 selectivity as to requirements of Torah applicable to Christians, 222 socio-cultural level, 214, 217, 218, 224–7 Seneca
 Lucan as nephew of, 81

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Seneca (cont.)
 philosophical approach of, 78
 Stoic opposition to Nero, 78
- Sepphoris and Tiberias, Jesus' avoidance of, 28, 47
- Septimius Severus, emperor, conversion to Judaism and Christianity forbidden by, 66, 388, 511
- Septuagint (LXX) creation of, 66
 divergence from Hebrew text, 199
 Jewish diaspora, as literary product of, 53, 55 literary culture of early Christianity, as foundation for, 106, 179
 self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 227
- Serdica, Council of, 566
- Serenius Granianus, 508
- Sergius Paulus, 159
- Sethian Gnosticism, 248, 249, 250, 333
- seven as symbol of totality or universality, 209
- seven-churches collection of Pauline letters, 184, 209
- Severus, emperor, Egyptian Christianity as evidenced by persecution of, 348
- sexual behaviour
 abstinence (See celibacy) discipline and repentance of sinners following baptism, 428 heresy, immorality as topos for, 374 incest, allegation of early Christian, 170, 509 marital chastity and fidelity, expectations regarding, 278, 279–80 orgies and sexual licence, accusations against Christians of, 509
 pederasty, 281
porneia, 279, 280
 slaves, sexual use of, 284, 286
- Shepherd of Hermas*
 almsgiving and care of the poor mandated in, 290
 canonicity of, 212, 213
 creation ex nihilo found by Irenaeus of Lyons in, 450 discipline and repentance of sinners following baptism, 426, 428, 472
 on fasting, 289
 Jewish Christianity evidenced by, 96
 on marriage, 280
 ministry of early church, development of, 418 persecutions, predictions of, 508 rural roots of, 311
 social relationship of Christians to world, 275
threptos (abandoned child raised as slave), Hermas' self-identification as, 281 on unity, 404
- Sherwin-White, A. N., 507
- shrines and Christian material culture, 570, 576
- Sibylline prophecies, 232, 525, 548
- sicarii* (assassins), 59
- sign of the cross, 170
- 'signs source' in John's gospel, 130
- Silvanus, bishop of Gaza, martyrdom of, 300
- Silvanus, disciple of Paul, 114
- Silvester, bishop of Rome, 558
- Simon, Marcel, 89
- Simon Magus
 in Acts of Peter, 323 origins of all heresy laid at feet of, 245, 246, 254, 264
- singing and chanting, 168
- sinners. See lapsi
- Sinope (Pontus), Marcion's origins in, 196
- Sixtus II, bishop of Rome, 516
- slaves and slavery
 children vs. slaves, 283
 Christian attitudes regarding, 283–6
 Christianisation of, 285
 conversion of slaves to Christianity, 286 household members, slaves regarded as, 283 manumission of, 284, 285 marriage and children, 284
 Pauline Christianity and, 120, 284
 in Roman empire, 75
 sexual use of, 284, 286
 social class of early Christians, 156, 157
 Stoic notion of 'real' slavery, 284, 285, 286
threptoi (abandoned children raised as slaves), 281, 282
- social structures and social status. See also children and childhood; family and household; marriage; slaves and slavery citizenship status of early Christians, 310
 early Christianity, 156–9, 310–11
 Egyptian/Alexandrian Christianity, 337–40
 Galilee, 42–5
 Gaul, 366–8, 370
 higher-status individuals attracted to Christianity, 157, 159

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Jesus and his followers, among, 146–9, 157
- Judaea, 48–51
- mixed marriages of persons of different social status, 279
- mixing of status indicators characteristic of early Christians, 157
- occupations, Christian limitations regarding, 287
- Pauline mission's appeal across, 120
- persecution of Christians and change in social status, 512, 515
- philosophical approach to Christianity, social need for, 407
- poor, Christians' identification with and provision for, 157–8
- prophetic activity, tensions raised by, 321
- public life, Christian involvement in, 287
- relationship of Christians to world, 274–5, 291
- in Roman empire, 74–6
- writing styles of early Christian leaders revealing social background, 158
- Socrates (church historian), 3
- on Council of Nicaea, 552, 553, 559, 560
- Socrates (philosopher)
- Christian iconography based on representations of, 577
- Christian, regarded as, 243
- Socrates (Christian in Corinth), 328
- 'soft' vs. 'hard' monotheism, 240–3
- Sol Invictus
- Christ represented as sun god, 12, 571, 570–2, 580
- Constantine's dedication to, 541
- soldiers as Christians. See military life
- Solomon. See Odes of Solomon; Wisdom of Solomon
- Solon
- Egypt, Greek fascination with, 231
- on origins and derivation of philosophy, 236
- Son of Man, Jesus as, in Johannine Christianity, 136–7
- Sophia*. See Divine Wisdom
- sophists' use of rhetoric, 82
- source-criticism, development of, 18
- Sozomen
- on Council of Nicaea, 553, 559
- Helena's pilgrimage and discoveries as told by, 3
- Spain
- demographics of early Christianity in, 307
- filioque* controversy, 567
- Paul's planned mission to, 118
- Spartian, biographer of Septimius Severus, 511
- Speratus of Scilli
- apologetic role of, 388
- interrogation of, 177
- ruler cult, Christianity's opposition to, 15
- as spokesman for Scillitan martyrs, 510
- Speusippus, corruption of philosophy with, 236
- Stark, Rodney, 306, 312, 319
- 'state' and church, relationship between. See Christian attitudes towards government and politics; politics and religion
- staurogram, 192
- Stephen, bishop of Rome, 395, 411, 479–83
- Stephen protomartyr, 150, 297
- Stobi inscription, 60
- Stoicism
- corruption of philosophy with, 235
- Justin Martyr on derivation from and misunderstanding of Moses, 239
- logos* theology and, 454, 455
- moral use of literature, Origen's borrowing of pagan justification of, 499
- philosophical dominance of, 435
- on 'real' slavery, 284, 285, 286
- in Roman empire, 77–9, 114
- nature of things as ultimately divine, influence of concept of, 454
- Rome, philosophical schools of, 406–11
- sin as regarded by, 476
- visual representation, deity as beyond, 569
- Strabo
- Alexandrian Jewish diaspora as described by, 60
- geography of Galilee and Judaea according to, 37
- Roman professional literature, as exemplar of, 81
- Strauss, David Friedrich, 16–17
- Strecker, Georg, 98
- stubbornness and obduracy, persecution of Christians on grounds of, 507, 510, 513
- subculture, Christianity as, 170–3
- Suetonius
- on fire of Rome, 504
- on Jews' banishment from Rome, 93
- suffering of God, theological problems with, 459, 462
- sun god
- Christ represented as, 12, 571, 570–2, 580
- Constantine's dedication to Sol Invictus, 541

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Sunday observance, Constantine's laws on, 544
- symbolism. See also allegorical interpretation of eucharist, 166
- seven as symbol of totality or universality, 209
- use in John's gospel, 129
- Symbolum Nicaenum*. See Nicene Creed
- symposion* and eucharist, 163
- synagogue
- Acmonia (Phrygia), synagogue built by Julia Severa at, 63
 - Christian attendance at, 226
 - Christian church structures paralleling development of, 582
 - development of, 59
 - Dura Europos, 60, 353, 582
 - education and teaching, stress on, 486
 - Johannine Christians' expulsion from, 132
 - ministry of early church derived from officers of, 417
 - officers of, 61
 - Pauline mission and, 112, 119
 - reading, interpreting, and exhorting from sacred texts, 169
 - self-definition and differentiation vis-à-vis Jewish matrix, 217
 - terminology for, 60
- 'synagogue of magicians' in Egypt and Valerianic persecutions, 515
- syncretism
- Christian appropriation of pagan motifs not an example of, 572, 573
 - Christian rejection of, 568
 - pagan religions, 79–80
- synods. See councils and synods
- Synoptic Gospels. See also Luke; Mark; Matthew
- John*, relationship to, 128
 - origins of term, 187
 - Passover Seder, eucharist as, 165
 - revisions of Mark, Matthew and Luke viewed as, 186
 - tailoring of each gospel to specific audience, 187
- Syntyche and Pauline mission to Philippi, 114
- Syria and Mesopotamia, 351 See also Palestine
- Abgar Ukkama, foundation legends associated with, 364–5
 - Antioch, 351, 353–4 (See also Antioch)
 - asceticism in, 357
 - Bardaisan, 356–7
 - celibacy in, 357, 358
 - culture and religions of, 352–3
 - diversity of traditions in, 359–62
 - Edessa, 356–7 (See also Edessa)
 - Gentiles attracted to Judaism in, 64
 - healing and bodily wholeness as important Christian theme in, 357, 358, 361, 362, 365
 - Jewish Christianity in, 97, 98
 - Jewish diaspora in, 352, 353, 354
 - Judaea as part of Roman province of Syria, 76
 - Manichaeism in, 360–2
 - martyrdom and persecution in, 363–4
 - Paul of Samosata, controversy over, 362–3
 - Pauline letter collections, Syrian tradition of, 209, 210
 - Pauline mission in, 109
 - rural Christianity in, 311
 - Syriac Bible and Diatessaron, 354–5
 - Syriac writings, 352, 354–6, 357–9
 - theology associated with, 353, 354–6, 363–4
- Tacitus
- antiquity of Judaism, respect for, 240
 - on Domitian's building program in Britain, 505
 - on Neronian persecution, 504
 - on oratory and rhetoric, 82
- Tanit cult in North Africa, 384–5
- Tatian
- antiquity of Judaism (and hence Christianity) posited by, 223
 - Bardaisan compared, 357
 - Diatessaron*, 207, 212, 354–5
 - on greater antiquity of 'barbarian' cultures, 232
 - Jewish Christianity evidenced in, 98
 - on monotheism and creation, 445
 - politics and government, Christian attitudes towards, 528
 - in Rome, 403
 - Rome, philosophical schools of, 408
- tax collectors in Galilean society, 44
- teachers. See entries at education
- Teaching of Addai*, 364
- Temple (Jerusalem). See also Sadducees
- Antiochus III's protection of, 66
 - Caligula's golden statue crisis, 77
 - destruction of (See Jerusalem sacked by Romans, 70 CE; Jewish revolt of 66–73 CE)
 - Jesus' view of, 28
 - Jupiter Capitolinus cult established at site of, 67

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine
Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Second Temple Judaism, pluralistic vs. monolithic view of, 215
- temple tax (fiscus judaicus, post 70 CE) paid by Jewish diaspora, 59, 66, 505, 506
- ter Haar Romeny, R. B., 98
- Tertullian
- abandonment of children condemned by, 281
 - Adversus Iudaeos* reusing portions of Adversus Marcionem, 223
 - almsgiving and care of the poor, 290, 291
 - apocalypticism of, 531–3
 - apologetics of, 392, 531–3
 - baptism, reconciliation of sinners following, 394–5, 427, 472
 - on creation, 393
 - creeds, use of, 425
 - episcopacy, divine authority of, 475
 - episkopoi*, apostolic succession of, 419
 - evil, problem of, 410
 - on fasting, 289
 - flight of persecuted Christians, condemnation of, 471
 - forgiveness of sins by martyrs and confessors, rejection of, 473
 - geographic spread of Christianity and, 302
 - on greater antiquity of ‘barbarian’ cultures, 232
 - on Graeco-Roman intellectual culture, 392
 - on Hermogenes of Antioch, 393, 445, 447
 - intellectual engagement with Jews, 227
 - interpretation of scripture according to, 395
 - Jewish Christianity, existence of, 224, 386
 - laurel wreath, soldier’s refusal to wear, 388
 - legitimate status, of Judaism as lawful religion, 66
 - on Marcion, 195, 200, 205, 223
 - martyr cult and, 391
 - on martyrdoms and persecutions, 504, 505, 506, 508, 511, 512, 516
 - on monarchian controversy, 456–63, 563
 - on monotheism and creation, 440, 447
 - Montanism of, 393
 - ‘Mother Church’ first used by, 394
 - North African Christianity, evidence for, 381
 - politics and government, attitude towards, 531–3
 - public spectacles and celebrations, Christian attendance at, 287
 - remarriage, discouragement of, 278
 - on revelatory power of dreams, 393
 - social and educational levels of early Christians, 159, 512
 - social class of early Christians, 156
 - Trajan’s treatment of Christians critiqued by, 72
 - Trinitarian theology of, 395
 - visual representation, Christian deity as beyond, 569
 - women, attitudes towards, 395–6
- Testaments of the twelve patriarchs*, 228
- Tetrarchy
- demise of, 540–2
 - persecutions under (See Diocletian, persecution of Christians by)
- texts. See entries at literary culture
- Thales, 236
- thanksgiving and eucharist, 160, 166
- Thekla (Thecla)*, Acts of Paul and, 124, 315, 321
- Theodore, pupil of Origen, 485, 488–90
- Theodoret, bishop of Cyrus
- on Council of Nicaea, 553
 - Helena’s pilgrimage and discoveries as told by, 3
 - on Marcion, 196
 - on Nicene Creed, 560
- Theodosius, emperor
- Ambrose of Milan’s funeral oration for, 4
 - polytheism made illegal by, 550
 - Second Oecumenical Council of Constantinople convened by, 566
- Theodotus of Laodicea, 557
- Theodotus the Shoemaker, 256, 327, 403, 457, 459
- Theognis, bishop of Nicaea, 558, 564
- theology. See also specific topics, e.g. Christology, logos theology
- Christian education in, 489
 - doctrinal development of church, 468–9
 - of early Christianity, xvii
 - Egyptian/Alexandrine Christianities, 337–40
 - Graeco-Roman philosophy and, 79
 - local culture, theological interpretation of Christian adaptation of, 300
 - of martyrdom, 372
 - philosophical school, Christian theology’s resemblance to, 469
 - Rome, philosophical schools of, 406–11
 - Syria and Mesopotamia, 353, 354–6, 363–4
- Theonas (bishop, Libya), 555, 564
- Theonas, bishop of Alexandria, anti-Manichaean writings of, 347
- Theophilus of Antioch

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Theophilus of Antioch (cont.)
 antiquity of Judaism (and hence Christianity) posited by, 223 on creation ex nihilo, 447–8
 on Hermogenes of Antioch, 445, 447–8
 Irenaeus contrasted and compared, 263, 373, 450
 Johannine and Pauline writings having little impact on, 264
 life and works, 354
 logos theology of, 454, 456
 on Marcion, 195
 politics and government, Christian attitudes towards, 528
- Theophilus (addressee of Luke-Acts), 159, 189
- Therapeutai*, 59, 276, 338
- 1 Thessalonians, 112–14
 apocalyptic gospel message, extension of, 113
 Marcion's Pauline letter collection containing, 208
 seven authentic letters of Paul, 106, 183
- 2 Thessalonians
 Deutero-Pauline nature of, 106, 183
 Marcion's Pauline letter collection containing, 208
 politics and government, attitude towards, 527
- Thessalonica
 demographics of early Christianity in, 309
 Pauline mission to, 112–14
 social class of early Christians, 159
- Theudas (disciple of Paul), Valentinus claimed as student of, 253, 256, 323
- Third Quest for historical Jesus, 20–3
- Thomas, apostle
 eastern missions associated with, 122
 Johannine Christianity's oppositional portrayal of, 134
 Syrian associations of, 359
- Thomas, Acts of*, 276, 357–9, 362
- Thomas, Gospel of*. See Gospel of Thomas
- Thomas the Contender, Book of*, 359
- Thrasea Paetus and Stoic opposition to Nero, 78
- Thrason, Roman catacomb of, 517
- 'three principles' doctrine (God, ideas, and matter), 435
- threptoi* (abandoned children raised as slaves), 281, 282
- 'Thundering Legion', 453
- Tiberias and Sepphoris, Jesus' avoidance of, 28, 47
- Tiberius, emperor
 expulsion of Jews from Rome by, 66
 reign of, 70
- Tibullus, 81
- Timaeus*
 influence of, 435
 Justin Martyr influenced by, 444
 Philo of Alexandria influenced by, 438
- time, creation of world in, 436, 442
- Timothy
 Pauline mission in Attica and Achaia, 114
 Pauline mission in Macedonia, 113, 114
- 1 Timothy
 almsgiving and care of the poor, 289
 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity) evidenced in, 154
 heresy, nascent concept of, 253
 slaves and slavery, 284
 Trito-Pauline nature of, 106, 183
- 2 Timothy
 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity) evidenced in, 154
 Trito-Pauline nature of, 106, 183
- Tipasa (Numidia), 303, 304
- titulus*, on cross of Jesus, xlviii, 1–4, 8, 24
- Titulus Equitii, 304
- Titus*
 'early catholicism' (institutionalisation of Christianity) evidenced in, 154 episcopal hierarchy, seeds of, 475
 Trito-Pauline nature of, 106, 183
- Titus, emperor, role in Jewish war of, 77
- Titus (early Christian missionary)
 Jerusalem meeting of Christ-believing preachers, 103
 Pauline mission to Corinthians, 116
- Titus Flavius Clemens. See Clement of Alexandria
- Tobit*, Jesus viewed as angel in disguise in, 33
- tomb of Christ. See true cross and holy sepulchre
- tongues, speaking in (glossolalia), 169
- Torah
 James' devotion to, 91–2
 Jewish Christianity, Torah and praxis-centred definition of, 88–90 towns and cities with Christian populations, 306–9 tradition of church. See rule of faith
- Trajan, emperor. See also Pliny the Younger and Trajan, correspondence regarding Christians of

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- building projects of, 83
- Jewish rebellions under, 67, 335
- temple dedicated to, at Pergamum, 502
- treatment of Christians under, 12, 71, 506–8
- translation issues and interpretation of
 - scripture, 494
- translation of bishops, Council of Nicaea on, 559
- transportation and communication in Roman empire, 73–4
 - Christian exploitation of ease of, 152, 171, 192
 - Irenaeus' praise of, 265
- Trevett, Christine, 427
- Trinitarian theology
 - Asia Minor and Achaea, 324, 327
 - Dionysius of Rome and Dionysius of Alexandria, Christological correspondence between, 466
 - filioque* controversy, 567
 - Irenaeus on, 270
 - Justin Martyr's detection of Platonic view of, 234
 - subordinationist understanding of, 270, 395
 - Syriac Christianity, 355, 357
 - Tertullian's, 395
- Trito-Pauline writings, 106, 181–3
- true cross and holy sepulchre
 - Constantine's church-building activities, 547
 - legend/history of finding of, 1–8
 - scepticism regarding, 2
 - temple of Venus built on site of, 299
 - titulus*, xlvi, 1–4, 8, 24
 - visual representations of crucifixion, first appearances of, 581
- Truth, Gospel of*, 346
- Trypho, Justin Martyr's dialogue with, 220, 226, 408, 409, 455
- the twelve, Gospel of*, 96, 190
- Twelve patriarchs, Testaments of the*, 228
- typological rather than allegorical interpretation, North African tendency towards, 395
- Tyrian coinage used in Galilee, 46

- (un)changeability of Son, 555, 564
- unity and universality, Christian sense of, 587–8 See also diversity vs. uniformity as characteristic of early Christianity
 - Asia Minor and Achaea, 328–9
 - cultural phenomenon of, 171
 - doctrinal development of church
 - stimulated by, 469
 - doctrinal unity vs. conformity in worship, 554
 - ecclesial structures of earliest Christians, 152
 - eucharist and, 166
 - 'fractionated' Roman Christianity, 252, 397, 400–1, 403, 404–6, 460
 - Irenaeus' belief in, 255, 262, 269, 270, 344
 - Nicene Creed as expression of, 553
 - North Africa, 387, 392, 393, 394–5
 - Pauline mission, 115, 116, 118
 - schism in Carthaginian church, Cyprian's ecclesiological response to, 477–9
 - validity of spiritual acts performed by idolators/heretics/schismatics, 479–83
- unity of empire, persecution of Christians and visions of, 505, 518
- urban areas with Christian populations, 306–9

- Valentinus and Valentinians, 252
 - Arian controversy and, 555, 556
 - authority claimed by, 253, 254, 255, 256, 323
 - Bardaisan as Valentinian, 356
 - Clement of Alexandria and, 257
 - Egyptian Christianity, origins of, 336, 348
 - Egyptian Gnostic manuscripts, 334
 - Egyptian Gnosticism and, 345–6
 - in Gaul, 374
 - Gnosticism per se compared, 248, 252, 253
 - gospel of John only one used by, 207
 - Irenaeus on, 249, 253, 256, 266, 449–50
 - John's gospel used by, 268
 - Justin Martyr, named as heretic by, 254
 - on monotheism and creation, 442–3
 - Origen and, 258, 259
 - in Rome, 403
 - Rome, philosophical schools of, 410
 - self-differentiation of, 256
 - in Syria and Mesopotamia, 356, 359
 - Victor of Rome and, 255, 256
- Valerian, emperor, persecution of Christians by, 72, 390–1, 503, 514–17
- Valerius Victor Paternus, 307
- van Haelst, Joseph, 348
- Vergil
 - Fourth Eclogue*, 548
 - Roman domination as prophesied by Anchises in, 70, 77
 - Roman literature, as exemplar of, 81
- Vermes, Geza, 29

Cambridge University Press

0521812399 - The Cambridge History of Christianity, Volume 1: Origins to Constantine

Edited by Margaret M. Mitchell and Frances M. Young

Index

More information

Index

- Vespasian, emperor closure of temple at Leontopolis by, 59
 Jewish War, role in, 77
 Messianic pretenders uprooted by, 25 unity of empire, vision of, 505
- Vettius Epagathus (Christian of Gaul), 370, 376
- Via Salaria sarcophagus, 577, 578
- Victor, bishop of Rome
 Alexandria/Egypt, Christian communities of, 344
- Asia Minor and Achaëa, Christian communities of, 320
- authority, insistence on, 404, 405, 406
- collegiality and Christian unity, North African sense of, 392
- councils and synods, evidence for, 430
- Gaul, Christian communities of, 376
- Gnostic controversies and, 256, 259
- Irenaeus of Lyons and, 255, 262, 320, 328, 376
- monarchian controversies, involvement in, 456–63
- Quartodeciman controversy, role in, 404
- Victor the Fuller, 517
- Vienne
 Christian community of, 369–71
 establishment of, 368
 persecution of Christians in, 265, 307, 369–71, 372–4, 508, 509
 population of Christians in, 307
- Vigna Randinini Jewish catacomb, Rome, 63
- vine and grape harvest motifs, Christian appropriation of, 570, 572
- virtues, four cardinal, 489
- visual representation, Christian deity as beyond, 552–3 See also material culture
- visual representation, supposed Christian resistance to, 570, 574, 576
- Vitruvius, 81
- vocal nature of ancient literacy, 180, 192
- voluntary associations architecture of early church buildings resembling communal spaces of, 583 ecclesial structure of earliest Christians compared, 151, 153
 Jewish diaspora's participation in, 60–1, 63
 Pliny's mandate to stamp out unlicensed collegia, 506 ritual meals hosted by, 163, 164 ritual practices of, 159
 Roman empire, 76
- Waszink, Jan Hendrik, 446
- wealth, ecclesial. See ecclesial property and wealth
- Weber, Max, 154
- Western or old Latin tradition of Pauline letter collections, 209, 210
- western vs. eastern views in aftermath of Nicene council, 566–7
filioque controversy, 567
 on politics and government, 537
- Wifstrand, Albert, 243
- Wisdom, Divine. See Divine Wisdom
- Wisdom of Solomon*
 Greek philosophy and literature, immersion in, 62
logos theology and, 455
- women. See also family and household; marriage education of, 278
 heresy, duping of women as topos of, 374 marriage customs and social position of, 276–80
 North African attitudes towards, 395–6
 Pauline Christianity and, 112, 114, 120
 prophecy and, 321 role in early church, 124
 social class of early Christians, 156, 157, 159
 synagogue offices held by, 61
- word division in ancient manuscripts, lack of, 494
- world, Christian attitudes towards, 524 See also Christian attitudes towards government and politics
- worship. See liturgy, worship, and ritual
- Wrede, Wilhelm, 19, 25
- written works. See entries at literary culture
- Xenocrates corruption of philosophy with, 236
 on daimones, 241
- Xenophon, on creation ex nihilo (out of nothing), 437
- YHWH as Bacchus/Dionysos, 80
- Zeno, corruption of philosophy with, 235, 236
- Zenon, on Galilean land-ownership patterns, 44
- Zephyrinus, bishop of Rome, 456–63
- Zoroaster and Zoroastrianism, 236, 237, 240
- Zosimus, on Constantine, 539, 544