

Contents

	Preface	page xi
1	Turning the other cheek	1
	Conundrum	1
	What is a carnivore?	5
	Carnivore groups in the modern world	9
	Vulnerability	17
2	Carnivore society: hermits and communes	21
	Social systems, groups and territories
	Collaborators in the hunt	24
	Society	28
	Resources and territories	34
3	The quarry of the hunter	41
	Carnivore diet and hunting behaviour
	Diet	41
	Hunting behaviour	46
	Surplus killing and caching	50
4	Man the hunted	55
	Maneaters
	Tiger	56
	Leopard	59
	Lion	60
	Cougar	63
	Spotted hyaena	64

viii	Contents
	Bears	66
	Wolf	69
	Domestic and captive animals	74
	Predation on people: a synthesis	74
5	Competitors and carriers	79
	Predation on game and livestock
	In pursuit of game	80
	Killing livestock	84
	Transmitting disease to people and livestock	93
	Other damage from carnivores	99
6	History of a conflict	103
	Carnivores and the first hominids
	Predation on early mankind	103
	Early carnivores	107
	Hunting and scavenging in early hominid evolution	112
	Carnivore extinctions and Homo	114
7	What is the use?	117
	Carnivores as food, for medicine, perfumes, sport, tourism and the fur trade
	Carnivores as food	117
	Medicinal uses and scent	121
	Targets for sport	125
	Carnivores and ecotourism	129
	Fur trade	129
8	Wolves with human souls: pets	137
	Dogs and cats as working animals and companions
	Pets in past and present	137
	Trained to work	139
	Dogs and cats as companions	142
	Why carnivores, why dogs and cats?	144
	Pets and conservation	146
9	Carnivores and neighbours: effects on prey	149
	Effects on other species, and introduced exotics
	‘Balance’ between predators and prey	149

	Contents	ix
	Predation in communities	151
	Limited numbers of carnivores	156
	Artificial immigration: introducing predators	159
10	Crying wolf: anti-predator behaviour	165
	Anti-carnivore behaviour of animals and man
	Anti-predator behaviour of birds	166
	Anti-predator behaviour of hoofed mammals	171
	Responses to predator competitors	173
	Anti-predator behaviour of mankind	174
11	Carnivores in culture	181
	Carnivores in fable, religion, art and heraldry
	Carnivores in classical literature	181
	Witchcraft	186
	Religion	188
	Heraldry	192
	Carnivores in pictures	195
12	The future	201
	Effects of humans on carnivores: urbanization and survival
	Urban dwellers	201
	Carnivores under threat	204
	Epilogue	221
	Changing views of carnivores, individuality and conservation
	References	227
	Index	241