

Index

Page numbers in bold print indicate tables and figures.

- acidification, Sweden, crayfish management 192–4
- adaptation ability and centralization 65–8
Norse economy (Greenland) 66
- adaptive capacity 3–4
buffering 45–6
definitions 36
and resilience 15–16, 355
- adaptive management 187–8
local ecological knowledge
Hudson Bay 196–201
India 201–5
Sweden 190–6
- adaptive renewal cycle 16–21, 175–81
backloop stages 20, 358
disturbance–buffering structures 175–81
Iberaquera Lagoon, Brazil 272–80, 277, 289, 294–6
model of four system stages 17
multiple scales 236
panarchy 18, 278
protecting social and natural capital 225–8
release and reorganization stages 210 responses 13
social–ecological practices 180
- adaptive systems
case studies (Tanzania) 155–9
characteristics
scale 6
self-organization 6
ecology and resource management 5–9 environmental management 104
implications 8–9
management 9, 33–48
redundancy and risk reduction 103–9
social–ecological integrative approaches 9–13
- administrative organizations
adding redundancy 100–1
error magnification 100
- African hunter-gatherers 61–3
- African pastoralists 62
grazing methods 174–5
risk management 173–5
diversification and mobility 174–5
see also Tanzania
- agriculture
Glacial Lake Agassiz region 217, 224, 227
Heron Lake Watershed Project, Minnesota 216–17, 227, 232
- agroecosystem, see Tanzania
- agroforestry, Samoa 165–70
- Alaska, caribou co-management 241–64
compared with Canada 254–5
- Amerindians, fire management 177
- angling case studies, Minnesota Forest Creek 214–15, 223, 225–7, 232
Rainy Lake 214–15, 229
- anthropogeography 55–6
- anthropology, ecological anthropology 57–9
- Asian Development Project (ADB) 319
- Australia, Spinnifex systems 108–9
- Bangladesh, case study of char-dwellers 170–3
- belief systems
indigenous caribou users 245–7
and societal aspirations 253–6
- biodiversity 23, 148–9
- biological legacies 363, 364
- bird conservation, Northern spotted owl 332, 338, 340
- Borneo Indigenous Peoples Networking Program (BIPNP) 319
see also Dayak; Indonesia

- Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness case study 216, 222
- Brazil, Iberaquera case study 271–98
 adaptive renewal cycle 272–80, 277, 289, 294–6
 changes in property rights over time 292
 ecosystem resilience 291
 fishing management 280–8
 1960–1969 280–2
 1970–1981 282–3
 1981–1994 284–6
 1994–2000 286–8
 map 276
 social–ecological resilience, key factors 293, 295
 social–ecological systems 288–97
 traditional management practices pre-1960 290
- buffering, see adaptive systems
- Canada
 caribou co-management 241–64
 cod fisheries, Newfoundland 63–4, 360
 Hudson Bay bioregion 196–201
 Kagiosa-Manomin (KM) project 69, 71, 73–4
see also North America
 capital, human-made, natural, cultural 11–12
 caribou co-management in North America 241–64 areas of negotiation 250 beliefs, indigenous users 245–7
 Beverley and Alaskan systems 243–7 cognitive commitments 256–9
 conceptual diversity 261
 human thought and ecological processes 247–9
 learning to recognize diverse knowledge systems 259–60 objectives and method 243
 potential for institutional transformation 250–2 resource management, belief systems, and societal aspirations 253–6
 summary and conclusions 261–4
 char-dwellers, Bangladesh, case study 170–3 co-management regimes 241–64, 271–2
 commodity and stock, valuations 331, 332–3
 common-property resources 12, 271–2
 complex adaptive systems, see adaptive systems consensus about change 1–2 coral reefs, crown-of-thorns starfish crisis 40–1 crayfish fisheries, Sweden 190–6
 creative destruction 20
 Cree fisheries, adaptive buffering 45–6 crisis
 definitions 358
 generic responses to 359, 370
 crisis management 37–9
 crisis-response model, Minnesota 211–37
 Samoan institutions 169–70
 cross-scale dynamics 378–80
 cross-scale issues 269–349
 Brazil 271–98
 Indonesia 299–323
 US 328–49
 crown-of-thorns starfish 40–1
 cultural capital 11–12
 cultural ecology 56–7
 as equilibrium-based system 60–1
 cultural identity, and sense of place 73
 cyclones, Samoa 166–70
 detailed effects and recovery 168
- Dayak indigenous people
adat rules 303, 317–18
 community-based mapping unit (PPSDAK) 316–21
 cultural revitalization 314
 ecological resilience 312–13
 forest management rights (SHK) 318
 local institutions 304–6
 PK (Pancur Kasih)
 Blue Sky Forum 319
 education NGO 313–14
 various involvements 319
 Reformasi social crisis 319–20
 resource management 306–10
 land-use mosaic 307
 swidden system 308
 social renewal and reorganization 312–13, 321–2 stresses on indigenous status 310–12 decision-making, and redundancy 99–103
 disturbance
 and diversity 14, 23, 163–81, 376–8
 mesoscale drivers 377
 fire management 37, 67–8, 177
 large, infrequent (LID) 65
 and resilience 14, 23, 163–81
 disturbance case studies
 African pastoralists 173–5
 Bangladesh 170–3
 Samoa 165–70
 diversification, and mobility, African pastoralists 174–5 diversity
 biodiversity 23, 148–9
 conceptual diversity, caribou co-management 261

- diversity (cont.)
 and disturbance 14, 23, 163–81, 376–8
 nurturing for reorganization and renewal 362–71
- drivers external 381–2
 mesoscale 377
- duplication
 genetic systems 91–4
 and redundancy 101
- ecological anthropology 57–9
 ecological economics 11–12
 traditional ecological knowledge (TEK) 12–13
- ecological memory, see social–ecological memory
- ecological processes, and human thought 247–9
- ecological systems
 characteristics 3, 54
 connections and unconnectedness 96
 redundancy 95–9
see also social–ecological systems
- ecological systems management
 redundancy 95–9
 resilience 34–8
 crises 37–9
 surprises 36–7
- ecosystem management, see adaptive management
- eider duck, Hudson Bay, local ecological knowledge 197–201
- El Niño/Southern Oscillation (ENSO) 36, 136
- engineering systems, redundancy 94–5
- entrepreneurs 368
- environmental determinism,
 anthropogeography 55–6
- environmental ethics 10
- environmental history 11
- errors
 magnification, linear organizations 100
 trial-and-error learning 178–9
 types I and II 107
- experts 213
- facilitators 368
- fire management 37, 67–8
 small-scale disturbance 177
- fisheries
 adaptive buffering 45–6
 Fogo Island, Newfoundland 63–4, 360
 lagoon, Brazil 271–98
 Maine lobsters 86, 105–6
 MSY inadequacy 7
 quota management and fish stocks 164 reference directions vs targets 8
 Sweden, crayfish management 190–6
- Flood Action Plan*, World Bank 171
- Florida Bay, seagrass 37, 40–1, 43
- Florida (Everglades), water and run-off management 42–3
- followers and reinforcers 368
- food storage, emergency, Samoa 169
- Forest Creek, Minnesota
 case study 214–15, 223, 225–7, 232
 nested interactions 234
- forest ecosystem/forestry
 adaptive renewal cycle 17–20
 definitions 334–5
- India, People's Science Movements (PSM) 201–5
- Samoa, cyclones 165–70
- spruce budworm, resilience given by bird population 14
- Sweden, history and property rights 116–28
- US cross-scale issues 328–49
 Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness case study 216
- US sustainability and yield certification 343–4 containment strategy (1970s) 335–7
 contradictions 328–32
 Endangered Species Act and the ecosystem approach 337–9 federal legislation 329, 332, 333, 335
 goals, comparing 342
 National Forest Management Act 336–41
 Northern spotted owl 332, 338, 340
 Northwest Forest Plan 338–9 polarization 339–40
 resilience 344–8
 salvage rider (1995) 339, 340
 social pressures (1950–70) 333–5
- genetic systems
 apparently redundant genes 91–4
 duplication 91–4
 natural selection 97
- Glacial Lake Agassiz region, Minnesota 217, 224, 227
- government and education services,
 redundancy 83–4, 101–2, 104–6
- grazing methods
 African pastoralists 174–5
 buffer zones 175–6
- habitat protection
 sacred groves, India 176–7
 Tanzania 149
- Heron Lake Watershed Project, Minnesota 216–17, 227, 232
- historical ecology 11
- historical possibilism 56
- Hudson Bay bioregion, local ecological knowledge 196–201

- human adaptation, see ecological anthropology
- human thought, and ecological processes 247–9
- human-in-ecosystem perspective
 care components 70
 livelihood activities 74–5
 projects 69–74
 relational networks 72
 spatially bounded management units 72
- hunter-gatherers 61–3
- Iberaquera, Brazil 272–80
- ice patterns, local ecological knowledge 196–201
- India
 Biological Diversity Bill (2000) 205
 local ecological knowledge 201–5
 local-level resource mapping 203–4
 Peoples' Biodiversity Registers (PBR) 69–71, 73–4, 204–5
 People's Science Movements (PSM) 201–5
 sacred groves 176–7, 201
- Indonesia, cross-scale issues 299–323
adat rules 303, 317–18
 Alliance of Indigenous Peoples (AMAN) 319
 community-based mapping unit (PPSDAK) 316–21
 Constitution and Governance Principles 303 credit unions 314
 cultural revitalization 314
 ecological resilience 312–13
 education 313–14
 legal assistance 315
 local institutions 304–6
 national institutions 302–4
 new institutional options 315–16
 resource management 306–10
 stresses on indigenous people status 310–12
see also Dayak indigenous people
- information systems 100
- innovators 368
- institutional memory 366, 370
- institutions
 building 73–4
 crisis management, Samoa 169–70
 definitions 12
 design 16
- intellectual property 202–3
- interpreters 367
- James Bay and Northern Quebec Agreement (1975)* 200
- Kagiosa-Manomin (KM) project, Canada 69, 71, 73–4
- Kalimantan, see Indonesia; cross-scale issues
- Kenya, pastoralists 62
- knowledge, see local ecological knowledge; co-management knowledge–practice–belief complex 201
- lagoon fisheries, Brazil 271–98
- learning-based institutions 44–5
- linear organizations
 adding redundancy 100–1
 error magnification 100
- local ecological knowledge 12–13, 189–208, 211–12
 building process knowledge into institutions 373 Canada (Hudson Bay) 196–201, 259–60
 caribou co-management 259–60
 carriers and retainers 367, 369
 co-managing 205–8
 combining different types 371–5
 complementarity of different knowledge systems 374–5 experiential and experimental 371–2
 India 201–5
 learning 252
 of structure, and of function 372–3
 Sweden, crayfish management 192–4
 us–other comparison 251
 summary and conclusions 205–8
see also adaptive management; disturbance case studies
- Maine lobster fisheries 86, 105–6
- management, and ecosystem functions 127
- management units
 definitions 334
 spatially bounded 72
- memory
 components 364
 ecological memory 20, 363–6
 social memory 20–1, 366–9
- Menominee approach to US forestry 331, 332, 348
- Minnesota County Biological Survey 226
- Minnesota, crisis–response model 211–37
 adaptive principles, the backloop 235–7 adaptive renewal at multiple scales 236
 background and organizational history 219–22
- Glacial Lake Agassiz region 217, 224, 227
- objectives and methods 213–19
- practitioners' rules of thumb 222–35
 detecting and fostering novelty 229–33 matrix 218
 protecting social and natural capital 225–8
- Minnesota Department of Conservation 220

- Minnesota Department of Natural Resources 213, 220–4
- multi-level systems
 crisis–response model 211–13
 dosage–response curves 89
 encounter rates and redundancy 89–90
- natural selection, genetic systems 97
- networkers 368
- nonlinearity, uncertainty 5
- Norse economy (Greenland), adaptation ability 66
- North America, caribou co-management 241–64
- Northern spotted owl 332, 338, 340
- panarchy, adaptive renewal cycle 18, 278
- Peoples' Biodiversity Registers (PBR)
 program, India 69–71, 73–4, 204–5
- People's Science Movements (PSM), India 201–5
- policy shifts, crises 37
- political ecology 10
- polyculture
 char-dwellers 172–3
 Samoa 165–70
- Polynesia, case study 165–70
- polyploidy 93–4
- projects
 human-in-ecosystem perspective 69–74
 livelihood activities 74–5
- property
 common-property resources 12, 271–2
 intellectual property 202–3
- property rights, forestry in Sweden 116–28
- public service economics, analyses of redundancy 83–4, 101–2
- qualitative/quantitative analysis, limitations 7
- Rainy Lake, Minnesota, case study 214–15, 229
- redundancy 83–109
 across multiple levels 90–1 advantage 106
 back-up systems 90
 challenged policy assumptions 85–6 complex adaptive systems 103–9
 and decision-making 99–103
 definitions 87–99
 ecological systems 95–9
 ecosystem management 84–5
 engineering systems 94–5
 genetic systems 91–4
 government and education services 83–4
 optimal level 86
 selected systems 88
 within a multi-level system 89–90
- Regional Resource and Development pathology xviii
- reliability theory, type I and II errors 107
- resilience 13–16, 34–6, 53–77, 352–83
 adaptation ability and centralization 65–8
 adaptive capacity 355
 Brazil, Iberaquera case study 293, 295
 building 115
 cod fisheries, Newfoundland 63–4, 360
 definitions 354
 diversity and disturbance 14, 23, 163–81, 376–8
 ecological anthropology 57–9
 environmental determinism 55–7
 evoking disturbance 356–8
 expecting the unexpected 361–2 generalist and specialist strategies 61–3
 human-in-ecosystem perspective 69–75
 intensification strategy 65
 learning from crises 358–61
 management for 45–7
 nature–society linkages 59–61
 operationalizing 68–75
 second and third characteristics 15–16
 surprises and crises 36–9
 US forest ecosystem sustainability 344–8
- Resilience Project xvi, xix
- resource management
 conventional models 7
 and social organization 12
see also crisis management
- Resource Management Practitioner's Context 219
- resource uncertainty 39
- risk management
 case studies 165–75
 and redundancy, complex systems 103–9
- run-off management, Florida (Everglades) 42–3
- Russia, forest over-cutting 116
- sacred groves, India 176–7, 201
- Samoa case study 165–70
- scales complex systems 6
 ecosystems and governance 380–1
 seagrass, Florida Bay 37, 40–1, 43
 self-organization 23
- Sense of Place (SoP) project, Sonora Desert 69, 72–3
- social fencing 176
- social–ecological learning 187–8
- social–ecological memory 20–1, 363–9 enhancing 369–71
 functional groups 367–8

- social-ecological resilience, see resilience
- social-ecological systems 2–3
- Brazil, Iberaquera Lagoon case study 288–97
 - building resilience 352–83
 - as complex systems 9–13
 - conceptual framework 22
 - integrative approaches 9–13
 - realist social theory 333
 - renewal and reorganization in Indonesia 312–13, 321–2
 - resilience 13–16, 21
 - response to uncertainty 39, 41–3
 - see also* Sweden; Tanzania
- societal valuation, utility expressions 331
- Sonora Desert, Sense of Place (SoP) project 69, 72–3
- spatial redundancy 96
- spatially bounded management units 72
- Spinnifex* systems, Australia 108–9
- spruce budworm, forest renewal, resilience given by bird population 14
- stability–time hypothesis 61
- stewards 368, 369–70
- surprises in ecological systems 36–7, 63–5, 230–1
- types I, II, and III 63
- sustainability
- adaptive capacity 3–4
 - definitions 2
 - science of 3
 - second and third characteristics of resilience 15–16
 - and yield, contradictions in US forestry 328–32
- Sweden
- crayfish management 190–6
 - institutional dynamics 194–5
 - local ecological knowledge 192–4
- forestry history and property rights 116–28
- community-managed forests (Orsa) 117–19, 122–4
 - devastation, management, and renewal 119–21
 - state-managed forests (Hamra) 119–23
 - summary and discussion 125–8
- Tanzania (Iraqw’ar Da/aw) 132–59
- agroecosystem 135–8
 - management practices 155–7
 - services supporting 148–9
 - factors promoting adaptive capacity 155–9
 - future perspectives 158–9
 - historical development 135
 - institutions for management 149–55, 157–8
 - access to natural resources 150–3
 - cooperation and risk sharing 153–5
 - spatial/social structures 150 - land-use changes 137–8
 - local management practices 138–49
 - biological control and pollination 146–7
 - connected to production 144–7
 - habitat protection 149
 - indirectly connected to production 147–9
 - nutrient supply 145–6
 - protection of biodiversity 148–9
 - soil formation 147–8
 - map and setting 134 - TEK (traditional ecological knowledge) 12–13, 259
 - see also* local ecological knowledge
 - temporary management groups 43–4
 - transportation economics, analyses of redundancy 101–2
 - trial-and-error learning 178–9
 - Turkana pastoralists 62–3
- uncertainty 48
- nonlinearity 5
 - response by social systems 39, 41–3
 - surprises in ecological systems 36–7, 63–5
 - technical and expert community 39–41
 - vested interest groups fostering 42–3
- US forestry, see forest ecosystem/forestry
- US history, Indian vs colonial economies 11
- US regions, see Alaska; Florida; Maine; Minnesota; North America; Sonora Desert
- utility expressions, societal valuation 331
- vested interests, fostering uncertainty 42–3
- viewpoints, commodity vs preservation 331
- village agroecosystem, see Tanzania (Iraqw’ar Da/aw)
- visionaries 368
- Wabigoon Ojibway nation, Kagiosa-Manomin (KM) project, Canada 69, 71, 73–4
- water quality monitoring
- policy 38
 - water and run-off management 42–3