Index of Prophetic Ḥadīth

‘Ali, Fāṭima, and their sons, 185

Avert the ḥudūd punishments in cases of uncertainty, 62, 66, 72, 78, 88

Do not spend two consecutive nights without your last will and testament being written and placed underneath your pillow, 141

Every lineage, [blood] relationship, and relationship by marriage will be severed on the Day of Resurrection—except for my lineage, my [blood] relationship, and my relationship by marriage, 185

Fāṭima is part of me; what disquiets me disquiets her, 183

Fear God—and treat your children equitably, 206, 208

Al-Ḥasan and al-Ḥusayn are the masters of the youth residing in the Garden, 183

I have left among you that which, if you hold fast to it, you shall not go astray. One of the two is greater than the other—the Book of God is a rope extended from the sky to the earth; and my descendants (‘irrātī), the people of my house. The two shall not be divided until they arrive at the pond (al-hawd). Therefore, consider the manner in which you determine my succession in them, 185

It is better for you to leave your heirs rich than to leave them destitute, begging from others. Any expense that you incur, seeking thereby the face of God, will be rewarded—even the morsel of food that you put into your wife’s mouth, 206

Knowledge of the family of Muḥammad frees one from the Fire; love of the family of Muḥammad [merits] permission [to cross the bridge known as] al-Širāṭ; and a relationship of clientage with the family of the Prophet [merits] security from punishment, 183

Muslims are partners in three things: water, fire, and pasture, 95

O people, I have left among you that which, if you hold fast to it, you will not go astray: The Book of God and my descendants, the people of my house, 167, 185

O Prophet of God, what thing is there that is not lawful to withhold? He said, “Water”, 95

The person who will receive the most painful punishment on the Day of Resurrection will be the scholar whose knowledge did not benefit him, 67, 79, 91

The sacred law is magnanimous with regard to the hadd punishments in cases of fornication, for it averts them in cases of uncertainty, 74

... [T]hose living upstream retain [the water] until it reaches the ankles; then they send [it down], 95, 133

Whoever dies loving the family of Muḥammad dies forgiven; verily, whoever dies loving the family of Muḥammad dies a Believer whose faith is complete, 185

Whoever is first to that in which no Muslim has preceded him, he has prior claim to it, 95
