

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-81919-0 - A Contested Nation: History, Memory and Nationalism in Switzerland, 1761–1891

Oliver Zimmer

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of illustrations	page x
List of tables	xi
Preface	xiii
Introduction: History, memory, and the politics of national identity	1
1 Confederate identity before nationalism – events, politics, symbols	17
Part I: Towards the cult of the nation
2 Dreaming of the wider fatherland – the nation of the patriots	41
3 Contentious unity – the rise and fall of an indivisible nation	80
4 ‘The nation has had her say at last’	119
Part II: The birth of the modern mass nation
5 ‘We have become a people’	163
6 Competing visions of the nation’s past	209
Afterword	237
Bibliography	246
Index	264