

Cambridge University Press

0521820065 - Theatrical Convention and Audience Response in Early Modern Drama

Jeremy Lopez

Table of Contents

More informationContents

Acknowledgments	page viii
Introduction	I
PART I
1. “As it was acted to great applause”: Elizabethan and Jacobean audiences and the physicality of response	13
2. Meat, magic, and metamorphosis: on puns and wordplay	35
3. Managing the aside	56
4. Exposition, redundancy, action	78
5. Disorder and convention	97
PART II
Introduction to Part II	131
6. Drama of disappointment: character and narrative in Elizabethan and Jacobean tragedy	134
7. Laughter and narrative in Elizabethan and Jacobean comedy	170
8. Epilogue: Jonson and Shakespeare	201
Plays and editions cited	217
Works cited	229
Index	234