

Cambridge University Press

0521823463 - The Predicament of Chukotka's Indigenous Movement: Post-Soviet Activism
in the Russian Far North

Patty A. Gray

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

Illustrations and Tables	page viii
Preface Chukotka in the Twenty-First Century	xi
A Place on the Edge	xi
Framing Chukotka's "Dark Decade"	xii
Dramatis Personae	xv
A Note About Terminology	xvi
Acknowledgments	xix
Notes on Transliteration	xxiii
VIGNETTE: 1948	1
Chapter 1 Epitomizing Events	3
Gwich'in Niintsyaa and the Raising of Consciousness	5
Three Events	7
Event One: The Gutted Iaranga	9
Event Two: Murgin Nutenut : The Dispossession of "Our Homeland"	13

Cambridge University Press

0521823463 - The Predicament of Chukotka's Indigenous Movement: Post-Soviet Activism
in the Russian Far North

Patty A. Gray

Table of Contents

More information

vi

CONTENTS

Event Three: Local Democracy and Political Intrigue	19
Conclusion	25
VIGNETTE: 1956	28
Chapter 2 Starting a Movement in Chukotka	29
A “Global Indigenous Culture”?	29
The State of the Movement in Chukotka	36
Civil Soviet Society	39
Disauthenticating Discourses	44
Conclusion	48
VIGNETTE: 1967	50
Chapter 3 The Limits of Resistance	53
The Less-Numerous Peoples and Soviet Approaches to Ethnicity and Nationality	55
Theorizing Social Movements	61
Public and Hidden Transcripts	69
Some Avenues of Protest	73
Conclusion	80
VIGNETTE: 1971	81
Chapter 4 Toward a History of Soviet Chukotka	83
What Is To Be Done?	86
Revolutionary and Early Soviet History of Chukotka	88
Collectivization: Indigenous Peoples as Moveable Parts	93
The Communist Party and the Politicization of Indigenous Chukotkans	96
Soviet Education of Indigenous Chukotkans: “The Preparation of Cadres”	103
Residential Schools	110
Conclusion	115
VIGNETTE: 1980	116
Chapter 5 Indigenous Culture in a Russian Space	117
Space and Movement in Chukotka	117
The Socialist City	121

Cambridge University Press

0521823463 - The Predicament of Chukotka's Indigenous Movement: Post-Soviet Activism
in the Russian Far North

Patty A. Gray

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS	vii
The “National Village”	131
The Relentless Significance of Culture	136
Conclusion	152
VIGNETTE: 1989	154
Chapter 6 Transformation of Local Politics in Chukotka	155
The Creation of Magadan Province and the Escalation of Development	155
Perestroika and the Declaration of the Chukotka Republic	161
Dvoevlastie in Chukotka	164
The “New-Russian” Style of the New Gubernator	171
Chukotka as a Closed Border Zone	176
Conclusion	180
VIGNETTE: 1996	183
Chapter 7 Socioeconomic Conditions in Post-Soviet Chukotka	185
Material Conditions of Life in the 1990s	189
Privatization and Outmigration	193
Demographic Crisis and Alcohol	201
Conclusion	209
VIGNETTE: 2002	210
Epilogue: Rewritten Transcripts?	213
Appendix	221
Notes	225
References	247
Index	267