

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
Preface: Struggle, Challenge, and History	xi
1 Introduction: Reality and Contradiction	1
FREDERICK DOUGLASS: THE INDIVIDUALIST AS RACE MAN
2 Frederick Douglass: Superstar and Public Intellectual	21
3 Where Honor Is Due: Frederick Douglass as Representative Black Man	46
4 Writing Freely? Frederick Douglass and the Constraints of Racialized Writing	61
ALEXANDER CRUMMELL: THE ANGLOPHILE AS AFROCENTRIST
5 Alexander Crummell and Stoic African Elitism	83
6 Alexander Crummell and Southern Reconstruction	103
7 Crummell, Hero Worship, Du Bois, and Presentism	121
BOOKER TALIAFERO WASHINGTON: THE IDEALIST AS MATERIALIST
8 Booker T. Washington and the Meanings of Progress	141
9 Protestant Ethic versus Conspicuous Consumption	166
W. E. B. DU BOIS: THE DEMOCRAT AS AUTHORITARIAN
10 W. E. B. Du Bois on Religion and Art: Dynamic Contradictions and Multiple Consciousness	185
	vii

Cambridge University Press
0521828260 - Creative Conflict in African American Thought: Frederick Douglass,
Alexander Crummell, Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois, and Marcus Garvey
Wilson Jeremiah Moses
Table of Contents
More information

viii	Contents
11	Angel of Light and Darkness: Du Bois and the Meaning of Democracy 197
12	Du Bois and Progressivism: The Anticapitalist as Elitist 210
MARCUS MOZIAH GARVEY: THE REALIST AS ROMANTIC
13	The Birth of Tragedy: Garvey’s Heroic Struggles 231
14	Becoming History: Garvey and the Genius of His Age 256
CONCLUSION: RESCUING HEROES FROM THEIR ADMIRERS
15	Rescuing Heroes from Their Admirers: Heroic Proportions Imply Brobdingnagian Blemishes 287
Index	295