

Contents

List of illustrations	xix
List of maps	xxiii
Preface to the second edition	xxv
List of abbreviations	xxvii
Introduction	1
Chapter 1: The Reign of Alexander (texts 1–25)	18
1 The Parian Marble (264/3): Alexander's reign and the age of the Successors to 301	19
2 The origins of Alexander's war on the Persians	23
3 The beginning of Alexander's reign and the sack of Thebes (336/5)	24
4 The start of the expedition to Asia (spring 334)	26
5 Alexander in Asia Minor, administration and politics (334)	28
6 Letter of Alexander to Chios (332?)	30
7 Alexander's manifesto to Darius after Issus (332)	31
8 The foundation of Alexandria (332/1)	33
9 Alexander's visit to the oracle of Ammon (332/1)	35
10 The destruction of Persepolis and its palace (May 330)	36
11 The triumph of the Macedonians: a contemporary Athenian view (summer 330)	38
12 Alexander's attempt to introduce obeisance ('proskynesis') at his court	40
13 The mutiny at the Hyphasis (326)	43
14 'Maladministration' in Alexander's empire	44
15 Cleomenes of Naucratis	45
16 Harpalus	46
17 The marriages at Susa and Alexander's generosity (324)	47
18 The mutiny at Opis and the feast of reconciliation (324)	50

Contents

19	Alexander's decree on the return of Greek exiles (324)	53
20	Arrian on Alexander's ultimate aims	54
21	Alexander's 'last plans'	55
22	Alexander the bringer of Greek civilisation to Asia?	57
23	Alexander and the pirate captain	59
24	A Jewish view of the Macedonian conquest	59
25	The end of Persia and the rise of Macedon: a contemporary view	60
	Chapter 2: The Age of the Successors (texts 26–59)	62
26	The arrangements at Babylon after the death of Alexander (June 323)	63
27	The revolt of the Greeks in Bactria (323)	65
28	The Lamian War of 323/2: Athens under Macedonian domination	67
29	Ptolemy I and Cyrene (322/1)	69
30	The settlement at Triparadisus (summer 321)	71
31	The death of Antipater and its consequences (autumn 319)	72
32	Athens honours Euphron of Sicyon (318/17)	74
33	Agathocles, ruler of Sicily (316–289)	76
34	The armies of Eumenes and Antigonus at the battle of Paraetacene (autumn 317)	78
35	Antigonus denounces Cassander and proclaims the 'freedom of the Greeks' (315)	80
36	Seleucus returns to Babylon (312)	82
37	The peace of 311 and the end of the Argead dynasty	83
38	Letter of Antigonus to Scepsis in the Troad (311)	84
39	Scepsis decrees religious honours to Antigonus on receipt of his letter (311)	86
40	Treaty between Eupolemus and Theangela on its capitulation (c.310?)	88
41	The expedition of Ophellas to Carthage (309)	89
42	Demetrius and the liberation of Athens (307)	91
43	The 'ithyphallic hymn' in honour of Demetrius (291)	93
44	The Successors assume the royal title (306–304)	94
45	The ideology of Hellenistic monarchy	96

Contents

46 The doctrines of Euhemerus of Messene on the gods and royalty	96
47 Demetrius and the siege of Rhodes (305/4)	98
48 Two letters of Antigonus to Teos concerning the projected synoecism with Lebedus (c.303)	99
49 Demetrius and the refounding of Sicyon (302)	105
50 The Hellenic league of 302	105
51 Decree of Miletus in honour of Apama (299/8)	108
52 Demetrius and the Macedonians	109
53 Letter of Lysimachus to Samos concerning a boundary dispute with Priene (283/2)	110
54 Decree of Athens in honour of the poet Philippides (283/2)	112
55 Decree of Athens in honour of Callias of Sphettus (270/69)	114
56 The career of Lysimachus	117
57 Seleucus and the foundation of the Seleucid empire	119
58 The foundations of Seleucus I	123
59 Pyrrhus, king of Epirus	125

Chapter 3: Macedon and the Greek mainland to the Roman conquest (texts 60–100) 128

60 Thanksgiving of Cos for the repulse of the Celtic invaders and the saving of Delphi (April–July 278)	129
61 Decree of Chremonides on the alliance between Athens and Sparta (between 268 and 265)	130
62 Decree of the Attic deme of Rhamnus in honour of the general Epichares for services during the Chremonidean War	133
63 Decree of the League ( koinon ) of Greeks at Plataea in honour of Glaucon son of Eteocles, of Athens (between 261 and 246)	135
64 Decree of Chios in honour of the Aetolians (247/6?)	136
65 Decree of Philippi recognising the asylia of Cos (242)	138
66 Letter of Ziaelas king of the Bithynians recognising the asylia of Cos (242)	140
67 The rise of the Achaean League	141
68 Decree of the Achaean League on the admission of (Arcadian) Orchomenus to the Achaean League (c.234)	145
69 Agis IV of Sparta (c.263–241)	146
70 Cleomenes III of Sparta (c.260–219)	148

Contents

71	Aratus of Sicyon turns to Antigonus Doson to save the Achaean League from Cleomenes (227–224)	151
72	The Hellenic League votes for war against the Aetolians (220)	152
73	The Peace of Naupactus (217)	154
74	Athens honours Eurycleides for services performed (c.215)	156
75	Two letters of Philip V to Larisa in Thessaly followed by two decrees of the city (217 and 215)	157
76	Treaty between Hannibal and Philip V (215)	159
77	Alliance between Rome and the Aetolian League (212 or 211)	161
78	Conflicting views of Macedon's relations with the Greek world (210)	163
79	Nabis, tyrant/king of Sparta (207–192)	165
80	The Peace of Phoenice between Rome and Philip V (summer 205)	166
81	Philip V and the siege of Abydus (200)	167
82	The Athenians cancel honours previously voted to Philip V (201/199)	169
83	The strengths and weaknesses of the Macedonian phalanx (197)	170
84	The Roman settlement of Greece after the defeat of Philip V (196)	172
85	Aetolian negotiations with the Roman commander (191)	174
86	The Senate's peace terms for Aetolia (189)	176
87	The Achaeans abolish Sparta's 'Lycurgan' constitution (188)	177
88	Decree of the Amphictyonic Council in honour of a Thessalian (184–3)	178
89	Philip's measures to rebuild Macedon (from 185)	179
90	Regulations on military discipline in the Macedonian army (reign of Philip V)	180
91	Embassy from Lycia to Rome (178)	182
92	The mood in the Greek world on the eve of the Third Macedonian War (171)	183
93	Letter (?) of the Romans to the Delphic Amphictyony, recounting grievances against Perseus (171–170?)	185
94	Perseus' forces in 171	186
95	Decree of the Senate concerning Thisbae in Boeotia (170)	187
96	The Roman settlement and partition of Macedon (167)	189
97	King Prusias of Bithynia and the Senate (167/6)	192

	Contents
98 The Roman treatment of Rhodes after Pydna (165)	193
99 The depopulation of the Greek world in the second century	194
100 The sack of Corinth by the Romans (146)	195
Chapter 4: The Greek cities: social and economic conditions (texts 101–157)
	197
1 TEXTS ARRANGED GEOGRAPHICALLY
101 A third-century description of central Greece	198
102 Chaos of public affairs in Boeotia (192)	201
103 The wealthy gentry of Elis in the third century	202
104 Pirates and the slave trade	203
105 Decree of Amorgos in honour of two men for help during an incursion of pirates (third century)	204
106 Athens honours Eumaridas of Cydonia in Crete for rescuing victims of Aetolian pirates (217/16)	204
107 Treaty between Miletus and Cretan cities against the purchase of citizens and slaves (after 260)	205
108 Itanos (Crete): oath of loyalty to the state (third century)	206
109 Oath of Dreros in Crete (c.220?)	207
110 Strabo on Hellenistic Rhodes	209
111 The earthquake at Rhodes and the donations from foreign rulers and cities (227/6)	210
112 The war of Rhodes against Byzantium to protect the freedom of the seas (220)	212
113 Treaty between Rhodes and Hierapytna in Crete (c.200?)	213
114 Byzantium and the Black Sea trade	216
115 Olbia honours Protogenes for many services to the city (late third–early second century)	217
116 Istria honours Agathocles for many services in defence of the city (c.200–150)	222
2 ECONOMIC LIFE
117 Exemption from taxes for new citizens at Teos (c.300)	223
118 Decree of Halicarnassus for the repayment of a public debt contracted for the building of a stoa (third century)	224

Contents

119	Oropus opens a subscription for the construction (or repair) of a fortification (third century?)	226
120	Decree of Istria in honour of Hephaestion of Callatis for remission of a debt (c.200–150)	226
121	Decree of Crannon (Thessaly) to eliminate debts by raising a subscription (c.168–142?)	227
122	Extracts from the temple accounts of the Delian hieropoioi (279)	228
123	Decree of Gortyn on the use of bronze coins (mid-second half of third century)	233
124	List of convictions for the counterfeiting of coins, from Dyme in Achaea (third–second century)	233
125	Amphictyonic decree concerning the Athenian tetradrachm (c.140–130?)	234
126	Harbour regulations at Thasos (third century)	235
127	Law regulating the sale of wood and charcoal at Delos (c.250–200)	236
128	Decree of Paros in honour of a man for services especially as agoranomos (second century)	237
129	Athenian decree concerning weights and measures (late second century)	238
130	Ephesus honours Agathocles of Rhodes for selling corn cheap (c.300)	241
131	Entella (in Sicily) honours cities and individuals for the provision of grain (early third century?)	242
132	Decree of Samos in honour of Boulagoras for many services (240s)	243
133	Decree of Delos in honour of Aristobulus of Thessalonica, sitones of Demetrius II of Macedon (239–229)	245
134	Decree of Histiaea found at Delos, in honour of a Rhodian in connection with the corn supply (c.230–209)	246
135	A Samian corn law (c.200)	247

3 SOCIAL AND CULTURAL LIFE

136	The Athenian ephebeia in the Hellenistic age (266/5)	251
137	A gymnasiarchy law from Beroea (first third of second century)	252

	Contents
138 Foundation of a school at Miletus (200/199)	257
139 Foundation of a school at Teos (second century)	260
140 Victory at the Nemean Games of a Sidonian prince (c.200)	262
141 Victories of a tragic actor (Tegea, between 276 and 219)	263
142 Lamia (in Aetolia) honours a poetess from Smyrna (218/17)	264
143 Decree of the Dionysiac artists in honour of a benefactor (between 197 and 166)	265
144 Decree of Cnossus in honour of a doctor from Cos (221–219)	267
145 Decree of Samos in honour of a public doctor (201–197)	268
146 The miraculous cures at Epidaurus (late fourth century)	269
147 The Delphic manumission records	271
148 A calendar of sacrifices (Myconos, c.200)	272
149 Law of Priene on the priesthood of Dionysus (second century)	274
150 Decree of an Attic cult association (307/6)	276
151 The introduction of the cult of Serapis to Delos (c.200)	277
4 RELATIONS BETWEEN CITIES
152 Treaty between Hierapytna and Praisos in Crete (early third century)	278
153 Homopoliteia of Cos and Calymnus (between 205 and 201/0?)	279
154 Sympoliteia of Stiris and Medeon in Phocis (second century)	280
155 Decree of Samos in honour of judges from Myndus (c.280)	282
156 Megarian arbitration in a border dispute between Epidaurus and Corinth (242/1–235/4)	283
157 Decree of Oropus in honour of an Achaean for help in the feud with Athens (c.154–149)	284
 Chapter 5: The Seleucids and Asia (texts 158–223)	 286
158 A Babylonian king list	287
159 From Seleucus I to Antiochus I: the coming of the Galatians to Asia Minor (278/7)	288
160 The ‘Seleucids’: North Syria	293
161 Law on inheritance from Dura-Europus	296
162 Decree of Ilium in honour of Antiochus I after his accession	297
163 Babylonian records of the reign of Antiochus I for the years 274–273	299

Contents

164	Letters concerning gifts of land by Antiochus I to Aristodicides of Assos ( c. 275?)	301
165	Ilium honours Metrodorus, doctor of Antiochus I ( c. 275–268/7)	303
166	Antiochus I as king of Babylon (268)	304
167	Seleucia on the Tigris	305
168	Decree of two native villages in Asia Minor (January 267)	306
169	Decree of the League of Ionians for Antiochus I ( c. 267–261)	307
170	Letter of Antiochus I or II to Erythrae	308
171	Treaty between Lysimachea and Antiochus I or II	310
172	Letter of a Seleucid king about grants to Zeus of Baetocaeece (date uncertain)	311
173	A sale of land by Antiochus II to his divorced queen Laodice (254/3)	312
174	Smyrna under Seleucus II ( c. 241)	314
175	Letter of Seleucus II to Miletus (246)	320
176	Aradus in Phoenicia in the Seleucid empire	321
177	The origins of the Parthian kingdom	322
178	King Aśoka of India and the Greek world (mid third century)	323
179	Seleucus II, Olympichus, and Mylasa ( c. 240 and after)	326
180	The usurpation of Achaeus in Asia Minor (220–213)	328
181	The accession of Antiochus III and the revolt of Molon (223–220)	329
182	Debate at court on the decision for war against Ptolemy IV (219)	332
183	The conflicting Seleucid and Ptolemaic claims to Coele Syria (winter 219/18)	333
184	The army of Antiochus III at the battle of Raphia (217)	334
185	A description of Media and Ecbatana (211–210)	335
186	Delphic maxims from Ai-Khanoum in Bactria	336
187	The eastern expedition ('Anabasis') of Antiochus III (212–205)	337
188	The Greek kingdom in Bactria	338
189	Letters of Antiochus III and other kings to Magnesia on the Maeander recognising the festival of Artemis Leucophryene ( c. 208/7)	339
190	Decree of Antioch in Persis on its links with Magnesia on the Maeander (late third century)	342

	Contents
191 Antiochus III and Teos (c.204/3)	344
192 The 'secret pact' between Antiochus III and Philip V (203/2)	346
193 The conquest of Coele Syria by Antiochus III: a dossier of inscriptions from Scythopolis in Palestine (between 202/1? and 195)	347
194 Loan (?) of money by the temple of Artemis at Sardis on the security of an estate (late fourth century or c.200?)	350
195 Antiochus III in Asia Minor and at the Hellespont (197/6)	352
196 The conference at Lysimachea between Antiochus III and the Roman envoys (196)	353
197 Decree of Lampsacus in honour of an ambassador to Massalia and Rome (196/5)	355
198 Letter of Laodice to Iasus in Caria (c.196/5)	357
199 Letter of M. Valerius Messala to Teos (193)	358
200 Letter of a Seleucid governor to Laodicea in Media, with copy of an edict of Antiochus III (193)	359
201 Decree of Apollonia under Salbake in honour of a Seleucid official (reign of Antiochus III)	361
202 Letter of L. Cornelius Scipio and his brother to Heraclea under Mount Latmus (190)	362
203 The army of Antiochus III at the battle of Magnesia (early 189)	363
204 Letter of Antiochus III concerning the appointment of a chief priest at Daphne (October 189)	364
205 The Peace of Apamea between Antiochus III and the Romans (188)	365
206 Decree of Seleucia in Pieria and part of a letter of Seleucus IV (186)	368
207 List of annual priesthoods at Seleucia in Pieria under Seleucus IV	369
208 The accession of Antiochus IV Epiphanes (175)	370
209 Portrait of Antiochus IV Epiphanes	371
210 Decree of Laodicea by the sea (174)	373
211 The Roman ultimatum to Antiochus IV in Egypt (summer 168)	374
212 The retreat of Antiochus IV seen through Egyptian eyes	375
213 The pageant of Antiochus IV at Daphne (166)	376
214 A Greek view of the Jews in early Hellenistic times	378

Contents

215	Antiochus III and the Jews	380
216	II Maccabees: Seleucus IV and the Jews	382
217	I Maccabees: Antiochus IV and the Jews	385
218	Demetrius I and the policy of the Senate towards the Seleucids (164)	387
219	Dynastic struggles in the Seleucid kingdom under Demetrius II (145)	388
220	The revolt of Diodotus Tryphon and the spread of piracy	389
221	Antiochus VII Sidetes and the independence of the Jews (139)	391
222	Letter of Antiochus VIII concerning the freedom of Seleucia in Pieria (summer 109)	392
223	The end of the Seleucids	392

Chapter 6: The Attalids of Pergamum (texts 224–253) 395

224	An outline of Attalid history	395
225	Gifts of Philetaerus to Cyzicus (280/79 to 276/5)	397
226	Decree of Cyme and letter of Philetaerus (c.280–278?)	398
227	Delphi honours Philetaerus and his family (between 283 and 262)	400
228	Monument in honour of Philetaerus at Delos	400
229	Letter of Eumenes I to Pergamum and decree of Pergamum in honour of the generals	401
230	Agreement between Eumenes I and his mercenaries, with reciprocal oaths (263–241)	402
231	Dedications by Attalus I to Athena at Pergamum for victories in battle (c.238–227?)	405
232	The visit of Attalus I to Athens (200)	406
233	Portrait of Attalus I on his death (197)	407
234	Eumenes II and the Rhodians at Rome (189)	408
235	Decree of Apollonia on the Rhyndacus (?) in honour of an Attalid governor (after 188?)	411
236	Letter of Eumenes II to the inhabitants of Tyriaion (after 188)	412
237	Decree of the Delphic Amphictyony in honour of Eumenes II (182)	414
238	Letter of Eumenes II to an official concerning remission of taxes (181)	415
239	Letter of Eumenes II to the Ionian League (winter 167/6)	416

	Contents
240 A model family: Apollonis of Cyzicus, wife of Attalus I	418
241 Letter of Attalus (future II) to Amlada in Pisidia (c.160)	420
242 A foundation by Attalus II at Delphi (160/59)	421
243 An estimate of Eumenes II on his death (159)	423
244 Letter of Attalus II to Attis, priest of Cybele (156)	424
245 Decree of Aegina in honour of a governor under Attalus II	425
246 Letter of Attalus II to Ephesus concerning the tutor of Attalus III (c.150–140)	427
247 Letters of Attalus II and III concerning the priesthoods of a friend (142–135)	428
248 Decree of Pergamum after the death of Attalus III (133)	430
249 The revolt of Aristonicus	432
250 Decree of Pergamum after the revolt of Aristonicus	433
251 Decree of the Senate concerning Pergamum (132)	434
252 Decree of Sestus in honour of Menas (after the end of the Attalids)	435
253 The municipal administration of Pergamum under the Attalids	439
Chapter 7: The Ptolemies and Egypt (texts 254–326)	444
1 THE PTOLEMIES IN EGYPT AND THE WIDER WORLD
254 Ptolemy II Philadelphus	446
255 A poem in praise of Ptolemy II Philadelphus (late 270s)	448
256 Decree of the League of Islanders on the acceptance of the Ptolemaieia (c.280)	450
257 Decree of Naxos in honour of the Ptolemaic ‘nesiarch’ and the island of Cos (c.280)	452
258 The great procession at Alexandria (279/8?)	453
259 Letter of Ptolemy II to Miletus (c.262/1)	455
260 Two ordinances of Ptolemy II on the registration of livestock and of natives in Syria and Phoenicia (April 260)	456
261 The Ptolemies and the Jews	458
262 Ptolemy II and the Red Sea	460
263 The animal hunts of Ptolemy II	460

Contents

264	The gold mines in southern Egypt	461
265	Decree of Itanos in Crete in honour of Ptolemy III (c.246)	462
266	The opening stages of the Laodicean (or ‘Third Syrian’) War (246/5)	463
267	Letter of Tlepolemus to Kildara in Caria (246)	465
268	An epigraphic account of Ptolemy III’s ‘Third Syrian War’	466
269	Decree of Samothrace in honour of a Ptolemaic governor (reign of Ptolemy III)	467
270	Decree of Telmessus in Lycia in honour of a Ptolemaic official (February 240)	468
271	The Canopus Decree: the Egyptian priests honour Ptolemy III and Berenice (4 March 238)	470
272	Letter of Thraseas, strategos of Cilicia, to Arsinoe and decree of Nagidus (238–221)	475
273	Mercenaries in Ptolemaic service in Syria (second half of the third century?)	477
274	Ptolemy IV Philopator and the policy of his predecessors (221)	478
275	Preparations for the ‘Fourth Syrian War’ by the ministers of Ptolemy IV (219/18)	480
276	Decree of the Egyptian priests in honour of Ptolemy IV (15 November 217)	481
277	The internal consequences of the battle of Raphia	485
278	Taxes in Egypt’s foreign possessions (late third century, 219/18 or 202/1?)	486
279	Letter of Ptolemy IV (?) to an official at Soloi in Cilicia	487
280	A tax collector in Syria	487
281	Dedication of the elephant hunters (reign of Ptolemy IV)	489
282	The accession of Ptolemy V (204)	489
283	The Rosetta stone: decree of the Egyptian priests in honour of King Ptolemy V (27 March 196)	491
284	Suppression of a rebellion in Egypt (197–185)	496
285	A Ptolemaic governor in Cyprus (180–165)	497
286	The revolt of Dionysius Petosarapis (early 160s) and disturbances in Upper Egypt	497
287	Letter of Ptolemy VI to an officer at Thera concerning the payment of troops (13 August 163)	499
288	Rivalry between Ptolemy VI and Ptolemy VIII and partition of the kingdom (163/2)	499

	Contents
289 The will of Ptolemy VIII (March 155)	500
290 The ‘amnesty decree’ of Ptolemy VIII, Cleopatra II and Cleopatra III (118)	501
291 Internal strife and the decline of the Ptolemies	508
2 ASPECTS OF EGYPT UNDER THE PTOLEMIES
292 A description of Alexandria	510
293 Decree of Ptolemais in honour of its magistrates (reign of Ptolemy II or Ptolemy III)	515
294 List of victors in a competition (267)	516
295 Law of Alexandria on the cult of Arsinoe Philadelphus (c.267)	518
296 The apomoira for Arsinoe Philadelphus (263 and 259)	518
297 The oil monopoly of Ptolemy II Philadelphus (259)	524
298 Valuation of goods imported to Egypt by Apollonius (May–June 259)	531
299 Letter to Apollonius concerning the gold coinage of Ptolemy II (c.24 October 258)	535
300 The (alleged) introduction of Serapis to Egypt by Ptolemy I	536
301 Petition to Apollonius concerning the building of a sanctuary to Serapis (c.12 February 257)	538
302 Petition from Egyptian peasants to Apollonius (October–November 257)	539
303 The estate of Apollonius the dioiketes at Philadelphia (26 December 257)	540
304 A tender to Apollonius the dioiketes for repairing embankments at Memphis (257)	541
305 Record of lamp oil assigned to the retinue of Apollonius (January 256)	542
306 A lease of land from the estate of Apollonius (August 256)	543
307 Letter of complaint to Zenon from a non-Greek (c.256–255)	545
308 Letter to Zenon from two hierodouloi of Boubastis	546
309 Register of an official postal station (c.255)	546
310 Receipt from a boat captain for transporting barley to Alexandria (251)	548
311 Letter of Ptolemy II Philadelphus on the billeting of troops (mid third century)	549
312 Ordinances of Ptolemy II concerning internal security in Egypt (late 240s)	550
	xvii

Contents

313	Compulsory labour on canals and dykes (242/1?)	551
314	Official correspondence concerning cleruchs (December 239–January 238)	553
315	Preliminary reports for the sowing schedule (September 232)	554
316	Oath of office of an Egyptian assistant to a banker (c.230)	555
317	Preparations for the visit of a dioiketes (January 225)	556
318	A petition to Ptolemy IV concerning a gymnasium (27 February 221)	557
319	The duties of an oikonomos (late third century)	558
320	The ‘recluses’ of the Great Serapeum at Memphis (161/60)	562
321	Maladministration by officials (25 October 156)	564
322	The persecution of intellectuals by Ptolemy VIII (145)	564
323	The population of Alexandria (second half of the second century)	565
324	Petition to the strategos from the royal peasants at Oxyrhyncha (c.138)	566
325	Menches, village scribe of Kerkeosiris	567
326	The Potter’s Oracle	569
	Bibliography	572
	Table of rulers	584
	Chronological table	586
	Concordance between editions	591
	Index of sources	600
	General index	604