

Contents

Preface page vii

Chronology ix

| | | |
|----|---|----|
| 1 | Contexts | 1 |
| 1 | Biographical sketch | 1 |
| 2 | Historical contexts | 5 |
| 3 | The Stranger and the war | 11 |
| 2 | The Stranger | 14 |
| 4 | Meursault's languages | 14 |
| 5 | A mother unmourned? | 29 |
| 6 | Class and race | 37 |
| 7 | An Arab is somehow murdered | 45 |
| 8 | An Arab forgotten and a mother appeased | 52 |
| 9 | Meursault judges the judges | 57 |
| 10 | God is dead and Existentialism is born | 66 |
| 3 | Early Camus and Sartre | 72 |
| 11 | The cycle of the absurd | 72 |
| 12 | Different views of freedom | 79 |
| 4 | Camus and the Algerian war | 87 |

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-83210-6 — Camus: The Stranger
Patrick McCarthy
Table of Contents
More Information

vi Contents

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 5 | Why and how we read The Stranger : a guide to further reading | 96 |
| 13 | Contemporaries, precursors and followers | 96 |
| 14 | Suggestions for further reading | 103 |
| 15 | Translations | 106 |
| 16 | Lo Straniero | 108 |