

Index

- ACEA, 192
 ADAC Germany, 206
 AFTA – ASEAN Free Trade Agreement, 97 aftermarket, see also sales and service; spare parts black clauses to protect independents, 187 body repair, 179–80 consequences of Block Exemption, 193–7 consumer convenience, 203–5 differences between European countries, 176–8 franchised dealer share of, in US, 180 impact of electronics, 205 increasing competitive intensity in US, 183 independent share of, in Europe, 173 insurers and body repair, 209 new forms sector in Europe, 176
 new forms sector in US, 181
 OES sector in Europe, 174–5
 other world regions, 183 penetration of fast-fits and auto centres in Europe, 178 potential new actors, 206–7 quality depressing volume, 205 scenarios for, 207–9 structure of, in Europe, 174 structure of, in US, 180 technical specialists, 176, 178 traditional independent sector, 175–6 trends in US versus Europe, 183–4
 UK dealer charge-out rates, 203
 warranty invalidation, 180
 American market development, 12–13, 20, 31
 Argentina, 101, 124
 Asia, 10, 12, 16, 37–8, 124
 attitudes in the industry, see relationships Australia, 15, 16, 102–3, 209 automobiles, objections to, 31
Automotive News, 36, 112, 158, 191
 AutoNation, 166
 Ballard, 82
 Bearingpoint, 226
 Begg, David, 52
 Belgium, role of in the industry, 100
 Benz, Karl, 104
 Berlusconi, Silvio, 192
 BEUC, 186
 Block Exemption, see European Block Exemption Regulation
Bloomberg News, 212
 BMW
 impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 262 leadership of performance upline segment, 121 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17, 220, see also financial performance prospects, 248 relationship with Rover, 187 sourcing model, 149 body repair, see aftermarket
 Bosch, 145, 146, 178, 263
 Brady, Chris, 220
 brands
 changing attitudes towards, 29, 30 dangers of over-reliance on, 23–4, 26 excessive fixation on, 25 hype factor – risks of, 25, 28, 29–30, 62 immaterial aspects of, 29 importance to manufacturers, 26 misuse of, 238
 true, global, in upline cars, 26 weakness of, in volume cars, 26–7 Brazil, 101, 124
 build-to-order, 200
 CAFE (corporate average fuel economy) standards, 13, 14, 15, 61, 73, 126
 California Air Resources Board, 33, 75
 California, State of, 76, 77
 California, University of, 78
 Canada, 101

270 Index

- car ownership, 5
- carbon dioxide emissions, 67
- Cardoen, Karel, 201, 240, 241
- Center for Automotive Research (CAR), Altarum, 22, 55, 161, 212, 228, 230
- Central and Eastern Europe, 9–10
- China
 - Chery's QQ minicar, 130–1
 - control of automotive industry, 10–11, 128
 - control of telecoms and pharmaceutical sectors, 127–8
 - counterfeiting, 130–1
 - government plans for the industry, 129–30
 - impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 262
 - key to growth assumptions, 127–32
 - relationships with local firms, 130
 - sales potential in, 9, 10, 101, 128
 - WTO entry and market access, 128
- Cho, Fujio, 114, 223
- Citibank/CitiGroup, 212, 226
- Clarke, Kim, 154–6
- Colt, Samuel, 105
- competitive positions of carmakers
 - Asia, 124
 - Detroit Big Three, 121, 122, 144, see also GM, Ford; DaimlerChrysler
 - Europe, 122–4
 - importance of scale, 127
 - Japanese in North America, 122
 - light trucks, 124
 - market shares in Europe, 123
 - new entrants, 127
 - North America, 121–2
 - South America, 124
 - sports utility vehicles (SUVs), 124
- component suppliers, see also Bosch; Delphi; Denso; Faurecia; GKN; Johnson Controls; Lear; TRW; Valeo; Visteon
 - choice of role, 162
 - consolidation of, 161
 - cross-subsidies within, 171
 - divestment of Delphi and Visteon, 150
 - financial impact on them of costdown policies in US, 228
 - financial impact in France, 228
 - globalisation of the supply industry, 152–4
 - impact of poor relationships with vehicle makers, 161
 - impact of product proliferation, 158
 - importance, 145
 - Japanese and European supplier relationships, 148–9
 - keiretsu* structures, 147–8
 - Lucas and GKN, 149–50
 - sourcing radius, 151–2
 - value added, 146
- congestion, see traffic congestion
- consumers
 - different expectations by region, 27
 - meaning of cars to them, 25–6
 - well-informed, 25
- Consumers' Association, UK, 187–9
- consumption of resources, 3
- cost of motoring in Europe, 164
- countries
 - abuse of local content definitions, 98–9
 - autarchic countries, 101–2
 - core countries, 99–100
 - economics and politics of the industry, 95–9
 - groupings of, 99–100
 - import restrictions, 97
 - local content versus scale, 97
 - motorcycles in developing markets, 96
 - networked-in countries, 102–3
 - open and closed markets, 93–5
 - peripheral countries, 100–1
 - trade balance problems, 96–7
 - where cars are sold, 91–3
- currencies, impact of, 28
- Czech Republic, 100–1
- Daewoo, 97
- Daimler, Gottlieb, 104
- DaimlerChrysler
 - brands, 117
 - breakdown of Chrysler's profitability, pre-merger, 239–40
 - creation of, 116, 127, 221–2
 - hybrid engines, 82
 - impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 261
 - leadership of comfort upline segment, 120
 - Maybach, 24, 104, 120
 - profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17, see also financial performance
 - prospects for, 248–50, 251–2
 - S-class, 14
- Daniels, Jeff, 90
- Darwin, Charles, 27
- dealers, see franchised dealers
- Delors, Jacques, 185
- Delphi, 75, 145, 146, 150, 151, 254, 263
- Denmark, 189
- Denso, 146, 254, 263
- Department of Energy (US), 68

- Deutsche Bank, 211, 212, 224, 225, 227, 238, 241–4
- diesel engine, 73–6, see also internal combustion engine; fuel
- dominance of developed markets, 6
- Dong Feng Motors, 130
- Downs, Anthony, 46–8
- Du Pont, Pierre, 109
- Duryea brothers, 104
- economics of the industry, see industry economics
- economies of scale, 22
- Eckrodt, Rolf, 26, 117
- electric vehicles, 51, 64, 77
- electronic systems
- functional breakdown, 139
 - impact on aftermarket, 205
 - increasing value, 139
 - influence of, 139–40
 - navigation systems, 208
- emerging markets, 8–10
- emissions, 31–5, 61, 67, 75, 86, see also noxious emissions; fuel
- Environmental Protection Agency, 31
- environmentalism, 29
- Europe, 6, 7, 13, 36–7
- European Block Exemption Regulation
- argument for exemption, 186
 - contents and meaning of, 165–6, 193–7
 - European Commission's review of, 190–2
 - first regulation 1985, 186
 - impact of, 95
 - industry's arguments against, 192–3
 - Treaty of Rome, 185, 186
- European Centre for Environment and Health, 32
- European Commission, 46, 62, 185, 186, 192–3, 197, 199, 209
- European Day, 57
- European Union, 13
- expansion strategies
- DaimlerChrysler merger, 221–2
 - Ford's downstream play, 223
 - Kwik-Fit acquisition, 223
 - mega-mergers in the 1990s, 221
 - Renault-Nissan alliance, 222–3
 - values and volumes in recent deals, 221
- Fabius, Laurent, 192
- fast-fits and auto centres in Europe, 178, see also aftermarket
- Faurecia, 146
- Ferlinghetti, Lawrence, 57
- Fiat
- impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 262
 - over-dependence on home market, 123
 - prospects for, 102, 252
- FIGIEFA, 195, 197
- financial performance
- banking and finance industry's understanding, 211
 - decline in market capitalisation, 212–13
 - dependence on financing subsidiaries in Europe, 233–5
 - dependence on financing subsidiaries in US, 231–3
 - Deutsche Bank report, 211, 212, 225, 238
 - European national champions as value destroyers, 220
 - Goldman Sachs analysis, 212, 219–20, 250
 - incentives, 226
 - leasing sector, 235–7
 - Japanese manufacturers as value creators, 220
 - market capitalisation versus sales, 217–18
 - operational gearing, 224–6
 - over-capacity, 224
 - Porsche and PSA, the only value-creating Europeans, 220
 - profitability rankings, 214–16
 - prospects for different manufacturers, 248–53
 - pursuit of volume and market share, 237
 - sales revenue rankings, 214
 - structurally broken industry, 211
 - threat to US Big Three, 239–40
 - Toyota, Nissan and Honda undervalued, 220
 - value destroyers in the majority, 219–20
 - view from Detroit, 213
 - view from Wall Street, 216–17
- First Auto Works, 127, 130, 132
- Folz, Jean-Martin, 76
- Ford, Henry, 27, 104–8, 144, 257
- Ford Motor Company
- brands, 26–7, 117
 - Escort, 14
 - F-series pick-up, 26
 - Ford Credit, 231, 233
 - Ford Europe, 123
 - Ford's downstream play, 223
 - Hybrid engines, 78, 82
 - impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 261
 - Kwik-Fit acquisition, 223
 - model proliferation, 21–2
 - Model T, 25, 105
 - performance in the late 1990s, 223

272 Index

- Ford Motor Company (cont.)
 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17,
see also financial performance
 prospects for, 127, 251
- Fordist production, 106–7, 108
- Fourth Automotive Revolution for capital markets, 260 causes of revolutions, 265 changing management behaviour, 266 for downstream sector, 259–60 first three great automotive revolutions, 257 for governments, 260 need for a Fourth Revolution, 257–8 potential gains, 258–9 signs of a reactionary oligarchy, 265–6 for suppliers, 259, 263–4 for support services, 260, 264 for vehicle manufacturers, 259, 260–3
- franchised dealers cracks in the system, 185, 186
 European versus US dealer populations, 166 exclusivity to one make, 168 family of unruly children, 240 fragmentation of, 166–8 increasingly exposed to competition, 173 movement in Japan, 202 profitability of UK dealers, 231 protection of channels, 164–5 rationalisation of networks in Europe, 199 reliance on financial cross-subsidies, 168–71 role of sales finance profits, 233 scenarios in Europe, 199 service retention by in US, 181 source of forced relationships and strains, 185
 US dealers less constrained, 166
 US dealers' reactions to idea of change, 202
 US state dealer laws, 165–6
- France, 56, 99
- fuel, see also diesel engine; fuel cells; internal combustion engine CNG/LPG, natural gas, 82–3, 86 consumption by region and vehicle class, 71–3 distributing hydrogen, 82–3, 86 generating hydrogen, 86 hydrogen as a fuel, 82–3 synthetic clean fuels, 76
- fuel cells application to urban buses, 85 development routes for vehicles, 83–5 discovered in 1839, 80 energy conversion efficiency, 82
 fuelling problem, 82 market penetration, 87–8 new suppliers, 82 principles of operation, 80 system conversion efficiency, 85 types of fuel cell, 80–1
- fuel economy
 battery electric vehicles, 77
 CAFE (corporate average fuel economy) standards, 13, 14, 15, 61, 73, 126
 Hypercar concept, 89–90
 Programme for a New Generation of Vehicles (PNGV), 78 reducing vehicle mass, 76, 88–9
- Germany, 99
- Ghosn, Carlos, 222, 226
- GKN, 113, 114, 149–50
- Global Road Safety Partnership, 38
- globalisation, 13, 18–19, 126
- GM (General Motors)
 brands, 117
 counterfeits in China, 130–1
 creation of, 108
 GMAC, 231, 233
 impact on of a Fourth Revolution position in North America, 122
 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–16,
see also financial performance
 prospects for, 250–1
- Goldman Sachs, 212, 219–20, 250
- governments clashes with the industry, 60–2 impact of a Fourth Revolution, 260 regulatory role, 60
- Graceless Degradation
 duration of, 255 impact on component suppliers, 254–5 impact on downstream sector, 255 industry in deep trouble, 246–7 pressure for government support, 255 scenario, 254–6 threat to investment in new technologies, 255 unpleasant consequences, 248–53, 255–6
- Gross, Tom, 68
- Holweg, Matthias, 22
- Honda Accord, 14, 17
 Civic, 17
 impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 262

- insight, 78
 prospects for, 253
 Hoover Administration, 58
 Hungary, role of in industry, 101 hybrid electric vehicles (HEVs)
 definition of, 78
 HEV Smorgasbord, 78–9 range of, 78–9
 Toyota Prius, 79–80, 88
 Hypercar concept, 89–90
 Hyundai, 124, 214–17, 253, 262, see also Korean manufacturers; financial performance
- India growth potential, 10, 11–12, 101 market and industry development, 132
 Maruti, 134, 135
 Tata, 127, 134–6, 262 industry economics benefits for mankind, 56–7, 245 costs of automotive mobility, 57–9 in the developed world, 55, 59 in the developing world, 59–60 employment created, 56 global value, 54–6, 246–7
 Japanese manufacturers as value creators, 220 poor understanding of, 23, 159, 247–8 value destruction, 2, 219–20 industry growth rate developing world, 7–8 future, 1, 7–8, 12
 historical, 4
 industry structure
 equity links among manufacturers, 117 historical consolidation, 115–17 making the hard choices, 247–8 ranking of vehicle manufacturers, 12 summary of structural flaws, 238–9 Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, 41, 43 internal combustion engine, see also diesel engine; fuel development of, 73
 diesel engines in Europe, 73–5 diesel engines in the US, 75–6 future mix in Europe, 88
 Iran, 101, 127, 132–3
 Italy, 102
- Japan, 7, 14, 99
 Japanese manufacturers approach to product development, 24 image-based failure in Europe, 28–9
 Toyota, Nissan and Honda undervalued, 220 value-based success in US, 28
 as value creators, 220
 J. D. Power, LMC, 75, 199, 202, 206, 241
 Johnson Controls, 146
- Kaiser, Henry J., 109
 Khrushchev, Nikita, 3
 Korea, 27, 91, 101–2, 124
 Korean manufacturers, see also Hyundai
 prospects for, 253, 262
 Kwik-Fit, 204, 223
- Lambert, John, 104
 lean production described, 104, 109–11
 leanness versus scale, 111, 241
 making lean production work, 111–12 misinterpretation of benefits, 156
 Toyota Production System, 109
 Lear, 146
 light trucks different markets by region, 18 growth of in North America, 14–15 profits from, 15 versus passenger cars, 16–17
 Lomborg, Bjørn, 33, 69, 70
 Lorenz, Andrew, 220
 Lovins Amory, 89
- The Machine that Changed the World* (Womack et al.), 106, 111, 156
 Malaysia, 101, see also Proton management approaches divisionalisation at GM, 109
 Ford and mass-production, 104–8
 Fordism, 108
 IBM and lean production, 109
 interchangeability of labour, 106 interchangeable standard parts, 105 kaizen, 111
 lean production, 104, 109–11
 leanness versus scale, 111, 241
 making lean production work, 111–12 male domination of the industry, 113 moving assembly line, 105 persistence of corporate cultures, 115 power relationships in the workplace, 106–7 quality of relationships, 112–14 reconciling diversity and scale at GM, 109 refusal to specialise, 240 repetitiveness of operations, 105

274 Index

- management approaches (cont.)
 Sloan, Alfred P. and General Motors, 104, 108–9
 Smith, Adam, 105
 Taylorism, 108, 143
 Toyota Production System, 109
- manufacturing chain, 142–4
- Maruti, 134, 135, see also India
- Marx, Karl, 266
- mass-production, history of, 104–8, see also Ford, Henry
- McKinsey, 211
- Mercedes-Benz, see DaimlerChrysler
- Mexico, 101
- MG Rover, 22, 123, 135, 187, 262
- MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology), 111, 156
- Mitsubishi
 link with DaimlerChrysler, 248–50
 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17, see also financial performance
 prospects for, 248–50, 252
- model development, see product development
- Monti, Mario, 190, 191, 192
- Mussolini, Benito, 3
- Nader, Ralph, 13, 43, 60
- Nasser, Jac, 223
- National Safety Council, USA, 36, 39
- navigation systems, see electronic systems
- New York Times*, 23
- NHTSA (National Highway Traffic Safety Administration), 43
- Nikkei Japan, 202
- Nissan, see also Renault-Nissan as first transplant into Europe, 148 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17, see also financial performance supplier development teams, 149
 UK value added, 149
- noxious emissions from diesel engines, 34 effects of, 31–2 reduction in Europe, 33–4 reduction in US, 33
 removing lead from fuel, 34–5
 State of California, 76, 77 success in dealing with, 32–3, 35, 36
- Ohne, Taiichi, 109
- oil availability, 67–71 consumption, 67
 dependency on OPEC sources, 70 non-conventional sources, 70 shocks, 4
- OPEC, 4, 13, 69
- Otto, Nicholas, 104
- over-capacity, 224, see also industry economics; financial performance
- passenger cars differences between markets, 17–18
- Peugeot, see PSA
- Pischetsrieder, Berndt, 130
- Poland, role of in industry, 100
- population demographics, 6–7
- Porsche, 27, 214, 220, 248, 263
- Power, J. D. see J. D. Power
- prices differences for new cars in Europe, 187 in disarray across Europe, 189 manufacturers' control over, 170, 171 new car and spare parts prices in Denmark, 189
 new car prices in UK, 187–9
- product development change in approach to, 141–2 times cut in half, 156
- product lifecycle, 27–8
- product proliferation Arthur Andersen report, 243 cost penalty of, 157 cost to components industry, 158 diversity of engine families, 159 financial impact, 22–3, 24–5 impact on upline brands, 23–4 Japanese approach, 24 market ratchet effect, 23 more and more in the market, 21–3, 24, 154–6 no variable cost penalty, 156, 238 potential gains from reducing it, 241–4 and risk aversion, 23
 rush towards, 21–2
 too many platforms, 159
- product segmentation cars by category, 120–1 changing pattern, 20–1, 23
 Europe, 19–20
 historical, 12–13
 United States, 20
 upline and specialist cars, 120–1 volume cars, 121
- profitability rankings, 214–16, see also financial performance

- proliferation of products, see product proliferation
- Proton, 97, 262
- PSA (Peugeot-Citroën)
- impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 261–2
 - profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17, see also financial performance
 - prospects for, 253
 - views on emissions, 76
- quality
- active, 26
 - passive, 26
- relationships
- behaviour likely to cause Fourth Revolution, 265–6
 - between manufacturers and suppliers, 2, 158
 - control obsession inhibits restructuring, 244
 - future role of manufacturers, 136, 163
 - hurt to supplier industry, 161
 - interlocking set of, 159
 - one-sided bullying, 159
 - partners and stakeholders, 227
 - stubborn attitudes, 60–1, 62, 116, 192–3, 247
 - suppliers' complaints about manufacturers, 158
 - with workforce, 228–31
- Renault-Nissan
- alliance, 222–3
 - brands, 117
 - impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 261
 - profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17, see also financial performance
 - prospects for, 253
 - Renault as innovative product designer, 240, 241
 - three-region balance, 126
- retailing and distribution, 2
- Ricardo, 78
- road accidents
- being male, 41–3
 - blood on the cars, 35, 36
 - developing world worst hit, 37–8, 44, 45–6
 - drink and drugs, link to, 39
 - drivers mainly responsible, 39–40
 - economic impact, 38–9
 - global toll, 3, 31, 36–7
 - speeding, 40
 - SUVs, 43
 - winning the battle, 40–6
- Roche, James, 60
- Romania, 101
- Rover, see MG Rover
- Royal Automobile Club (RAC) Foundation for Motoring report, 53, 54
- Russia, 9, 101, 127, 132, 262
- safety features in cars, 60
- Safety Research, Journal of*, 39
- sales and service, see also aftermarket; spare parts
- alternative economics of new car retailing, 201
 - banks and finance houses, 209
 - fleets, role of, 209
 - forced link between, 172, 184
 - gigantic financial numbers, 164
 - inefficiency of distribution system, 197
 - need for major structural reform in sales, 200
 - possible future new car channel shares, 202
 - significance of downstream sector, 164
 - used cars a majority of sales, 172
- Scientific American*, 58
- Schröder, Gerhard, 192
- Sears, Stephen, 58
- Shanghai Auto Industry Corporation (SAIC), 127, 128, 130, 131, 132
- Shell's energy scenarios, 71
- shocks to the system, 13–14
- Sloan, Alfred, 20, 104, 108–9, 111, 257
- Smith, Adam, 105, 147
- South Africa, 103
- South Korea, see Korea
- Spain, role of, 100
- spare parts, see also aftermarket
- distortion of supply to body shops, 180
 - distribution patterns in Europe, 178
 - distribution patterns in US, 181–3
 - manufacturers' profits on, 171–2
- standardisation, 19
- Stanley Steamers, 64
- Stöver, Klaus, 186
- Stronach, Frank, 146
- Suzuki Motors, 214–17, see also financial performance
- Sweden, 102
- systems structure of a car, 137–9
- Taken for a Ride* (W. Vlasic and A. Stertz)
- Tata, Ratan, 134, 135
- Tata Motors, 127, 134–6, 262
- Taylor, Frederick, 108, 143
- Texas Transportation Institute, 46, 52, 53
- Thailand, 102

276 Index

- Toyoda, Eiji, 109
 Toyota
 Camry, 14
 DNA, 113–14
 impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 260
 Lexus brand, 28
 market capitalisation, 218–19 organic growth strategy, 13–14
 Prius, 79–80, 88
 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17,
 see also financial performance
 prospects for, 253
 Toyota Production System, see lean production trade agreements, 93–4, 97, see also AFTA, WTO traffic congestion economic cost, 46
 heavy dependence on cars and trucks, 48–9 inevitability of road charging, 52–3 limits of telecommuting, 49 limits to modal shifts, 49–52 nature and causes, 46–8 new roads not the answer, 52 options for tackling it, 48 role of governments, 53
 Royal Automobile Club report on The Future of Motoring, 53
 Texas Transport Institute, 46, 52, 53
 UK Integrated Transport Commission, 52 transport increasing dominance of road, 64
 insatiable demand, 64 travel patterns, 15–16
 TRW, 150
 Turkey, 101
 United Auto Workers Union, 94, 107–8, 231, 239
 United Kingdom, 100, 102, 177, 187–9, 203
 United Nations, 7
 United States, 6, 99
 Valeo, 78, 145, 149, 178, 254 vehicles characteristics, 16 cheaper at constant definition, 154 failure of markets in safety, 60 growing technological complexity, 154 inventors of the automobile, 104
 Visteon, 112, 145, 146, 150, 254, 263
 VW
 Beetle, 14, 23, 25, 185
 brands, 117
 counterfeits in China, 130–1
 fined €123 million, 62, 187
 Golf, 23, 26–7, 225
 impact on of a Fourth Revolution, 262
 Polo, 17
 position in China, 127–8, 129
 profitability and market capitalisation, 214–17,
 see also financial performance
 prospects for, 252
 Wagoner, Rick, 256
 warranty invalidation in aftermarket, 180
 Whitnall, Gordon, 58 world car, 14
 World Health Organisation (WHO), 31, 32, 35, 36, 37, 43
 World Trade Organisation (WTO), 93–4, 97, 128, 130