

Contents

General Editor's Preface	page xi
I For Drug Legalization
Douglas Husak
1 The Meaning of Drug Decriminalization	3
Decriminalization	4
Drugs	14
Recreational Use	17
2 How Should We Evaluate Alternative Drug Policies?	25
3 Reasons to Criminalize Drug Use	41
Drugs and Health	41
Drugs and Children	53
Drugs and Crime	64
Drugs and Immorality	71
4 Reasons to Decriminalize	83
The Value of Drug Use	84
Drug Prohibition as Counterproductive	91
5 Drug Legalization: Production and Sale	96
II Against Drug Legalization
Peter de Marneffe
6 An Argument for Drug Prohibition	109
The General Argument	109
Heroin	111
The Costs of Prohibition	118
The Individualistic Structure of the Argument	122

x CONTENTS

7	Drug Prohibition and Liberalism	132
	Is Prohibition Objectionably Moralistic?	132
	Is Prohibition Objectionably Paternalistic?	139
	The Relevance of Addiction	147
	Does Prohibition Violate the Rights of the Responsible Recreational User?	155
	Drawing the Line	164
8	Alcohol and Other Drugs	171
	Alcohol Prohibition	171
	Marijuana, Cocaine, LSD	177
	The Value of Individuality	185
9	Epistemic Concerns	190
	Further Readings	199
	Index	201