

INDEX

- abuse, skeletal evidence of, 168
- Abydos
- chronological overview of, 129–31, 133–6
  - first view by Napoleon's scholars, 126, 127
  - general description of, 126, 129–31
  - history of excavations at, 126–9, 136–54
  - Middle Kingdom royal activity at, 4, 132–3
  - votive zone at, 7, 133, 176
- Abydos Middle Cemetery
- Cemetery E of Peet and Naville, 134
  - Mariette's work in, 128, 134, 138–9
  - Northeast Ridge, 134
  - size of in Old Kingdom, 134, 135, 136
  - votive dedication in, 42, 51, 132
- Abydos North Cemetery
- Cemetery D of Mace and MacIver, 139–42
  - Cemetery D of Peet, 133, 144, 147
  - Cemetery E of Garstang, 142–4
  - Cemetery S of Peet, 145–7, 147, 148–9
  - chronological development of, 158–62, 154–8
  - deposition of pottery as grave good in, 155–6
  - implications of patterning in for Middle Kingdom society, 165–72
  - size of by end of Middle Kingdom, 136
  - Mariette's work in, 128, 138–9
  - Petrie's Tombs of the Courtiers work, 128, 149–53
- Abydos North Cemetery Project (1988)
- bioarchaeological analysis, 168–9, 172 (see also Appendix I)
  - surface survey, 156, 157, 159
  - description of Middle Kingdom burials
    - excavated by, 162–4
    - excavations, 158, 160–1, 162–3
    - middle-class burial types identified by, 167–8, 172
    - Middle Kingdom ceramic typology of, 162
  - accountability, and Twelfth Dynasty elites, 27, 178–9
  - administrative reform, Twelfth Dynasty, 6–7
  - Admonitions of Ipuur*, 26
  - afterlife, ancient Egyptian belief in, 61, 173–4, 175
  - Akhetaten, see Amarna site
  - Alexanian, N., 71
  - Amarna, 33, 37, 80
  - Amélineau, E, 128, 139
  - Amenemhat I, 3
  - Amenemhat III, 78
  - Amenwosret, 136
  - Anastasi, G., 126–7, 138
  - ancestors
    - royal commemoration of, 50–51, 132
    - private votive dedications to, 51, 85, 132
  - Andersen, W., 69
  - Antiquities Service, Egyptian, foundation of, 128
  - “appeals to the living” 85
  - “archaeological diplomacy,” 126
  - archival texts, see nonliterary texts
  - Armant, 69
  - Asiatic migration into Egypt, 4, 92
  - assemblage diversity, 109
  - Asyut, 84
  - Athanasi, G. d', 126–7, 138
  - Atzler, M., 70
  - autobiographies, see biographies
  - Badari, 8, 60
  - Baines, J., 21, 180
  - Bard, K., 69–70
  - Beni Hasan, 80
  - Binford, 55, 56
  - biographies, as literary form, 22–3

- bourgeoisie, 27
 Bourriau, J., 84, 89
 British School of Archaeology in Egypt, 139
 Brunton, G., 60, 79
 Buhen, 34
 built environment, 9, 16
 bureaucracy, growth of in the Middle Kingdom, 4, 6, 22

 Celtic social structure, 17 cemeteries in ancient Egypt
   as collective denial of death, 61, 177
   lower order use of, 8
   partitioning of space in, 96, 103 restriction of access to, 79, 112, 115, 117–8, 122, 124, 130–1, 133 ‘cenotaphs’, see votive chapels ceramic typology, for twelfth and thirteenth dynasties, 106–108 children
   burial of, 66, 97, 101, 169, 170, 171, 174
   personhood of, 66 “civilization without cities,” 32
 class, definition of, 16
 Coffin Texts, 76, 85
 communication, of ideology, 17 consumption patterns, as reflection of differential access to resources, 16 control of cemetery space, 79–81, 112 conservatism in use of sacred space, 90 coregency, 2
 craft specialization, 15
 Crumley, C., 17
 cultic remains in Egypt, range of, 33
 Currelly, C., 144

 Dahshur, 4, 77
 death
   as economic industry in ancient Egypt, 59 ancient Egyptian beliefs about, 61–3 ideal preparation for, 54, 59, 62, 74–5
 decorum, 9
 Dedi, 62
 Dedu 164, 167–9, 171, 172, 177
 Deir el-Medina, 73
 Delta
   cemeteries of, 63, 79
   fortresses in, 4
 democratization of access to temple zones, 173
   of access to inscriptions, 173
   of Osirian afterlife, 4, 8–9
 Dendera, 72, 112
Description de l'Égypte, 20, 90, 126, 127
 differential access, to labor, 14, 109
   to material resources, 13–14, 88–89, 109–111
   to space, 112
   to symbolic resources, 13
 differentiation, definition of, 16
 diversity factor, 108
Dromos-type grave, 102, 119, 120

 Earle, T., 15, 16
 Edfu, 33, 180
 effort expenditure, 56, 67, 108–9
 Egypt Exploration Fund, 139
 Elephantine, 79, 85, 174
 elites, definition of, 15, 16, 17
   inner elites in Egypt 25, 123
   subelites in Egypt, 7, 26, 180
 empire, 37, 179
 Engelbach, R., 79, 88
 entrepreneurship, 13, 28, 109
 Erman, A., 21
 ethnographic analogy, 13, 55
 Ezbet Rushdi, 4

 factionalism
   among elites, 4
   expressed in Middle Kingdom literature, 26
 family, importance of in Middle Kingdom, 23, 176 family graves, practice of in the Middle Kingdom, 65, 104, 165, 166, 176
 Fayum, 4, 77, 88, 89, 90, 125
 First Intermediate Period, 2, 23, 60, 66, 72, 84, 92, 130, 134, 135, 136, 154, 173, 174, 176, 179
 food consumption, 17
 Franke, D., 6, 26, 29
 funeral rituals, 64, 85

 Gabet, J., 136
 Garstang, J., 142–4
 Gebelein, 23
 Giza, 50
 Goldstein, L., 55, 56
 Goodenough, W., 55
 grave goods
   as parameter of social differentiation, 56

- categories of in Middle Kingdom Egypt, 85
assemblages, 77, 84
grave robbing, 68, 90, 93, 102–3, 122, 146, 176
grave types in ancient Egypt, 81–83
Gurob, 93
- Hall, H. R., 7
Hapi-Djefai, 84
Haraga
excavation of, 90
general description of, 90–3
implications of patterning at for Middle Kingdom society, 174–9
Middle Kingdom at, 93–7
Cemetery A, 94–95, 98, 112–15, 116, 117
Cemetery B, 96, 99, 115–17, 118–20
Cemeteries E and F, 96, 98, 118
Cemetery S, 96, 118
Wadis I and II, 96, 118
- Harris, J., 110
Hausgemeinschaften, 70
Hawara, 4
Hawass, Z., 50, 71
health, as marker of socioeconomic status, 56, 71, 168–9
Heqaib, 85
Heqanakht, 29–30, 84
Helck, W., 6, 29
Heliopolis, 4, 28
Herodotus, 19, 49, 126
hierarchy, depiction of in grave decoration, 1, 20
house size, as indicator of socioeconomic status, 16, 37
hypertext, 22
- Instruction for Merikare*, 27
Intef, ostrakon stela of, 41–2
Intef and Ita, statue of, 42, 43–44
Itenhab, 27, 94, 95
Itj-tawy, 3, 76, 88
Iuu, 50
- Janssen, J., 110
Johnson, A., 15, 16
- ka* priest, 84
Kahun, see el-Lahun
Kamrin, J., 72
Kanawati, N., 71
Karnak, 4, 20, 38
- Kemp, B., 9, 28–9, 35–6, 37, 53, 78, 109, 138
kingship concept of in Middle Kingdom Egypt, 27, 178–9
materialization of ideology of, 179
- labor, 14
El-Lahun (Hetep Senwosret), 9, 28, 33, 34, 77, 88, 93, 174, 178
- Land, 14
ownership of in ancient Egypt, 29–30
grants to soldiers, 15, 27
- landscape, concept of, 58
legitimation, 14, 39, 51, 77, 178
Lepsius, K., 128
letters to the dead, 62
Linton, R., 55
El-Lisht, 4, 98
literacy, 15, 25–6, 30, 36
as factor in mobility, 15, 30, 177
- literary texts
definition of, 25
florescence in Middle Kingdom, 1
range of in Middle Kingdom, 25
as medium of dissent, 26
- Loprieno, A., 27
Loyalist Instruction, 27
- maat*, 19, 25, 38–9, 61
Mace, A., 139–142
“man of this town,” as socioeconomic category, 30, 177
Mariette, A., 128, 138–9
mastaba, symbolic associations of, 8, 81
Matmar, 72
Medamud, 4
Medinet el Fayum, 32
Medinet Madi, 20
Medum, 98
Meir, 80
Memphis, 78, 81
Mendes, 180
Meskell, L., 73
middle class, 42, 88, 123, 128, 153, 167–8, 172, 177, 179–80
definition of, 15, 179–80
mortuary evidence for, 128, 153, 167–8, 174–9 rise of in ancient Egypt, 1, 4, 7–8, 22, 128, 173
militarism, 4, 173
Mirgissa, 34

- mobility, social and economic, 6, 15, 152
 Montuhotep, biographical inscription of, 24, 151–2, 176, 177
 Montuhotep II, 2, 76–7, 133
 Morris, I., 13, 17, 53, 177
 mortuary analysis
   assumptions of, 54, 55–56
   criticism of, 57–8
   parameters of, 55, 56
   processual models of, 54
   regional approaches to, 58–59
 mortuary data in Egypt, character of, 32
   parameters of analysis, 86 104–111
   problems of, 63–68
   social scientific analysis of, 69–73 mortuary endowments, 65, 84 mortuary landscapes in Egypt location of, 63
   as reflecting the social order, 2, 44, 124, 174 preservation of, 63
   relationship to living landscapes, 44
 mortuary space, partitioning of, 80, 96, 102, 122
 mummification, 76, 84
   mummies as symbol of ancient Egypt, 49

 Naga al-Deir, 60, 72, 106, 112, 119, 176
 Naqada, 70
nedjes, as social category, 26
 Neferhotep, 133
 Neferhotep stela, 79–80, 136, 141
 non-literary texts,
   definition of, 27–28
   range of from Middle Kingdom, 25
   survivability of, 27
 Nubian fortresses, 4
   purpose of,
   towns at, 9, 34
 Nubians in ancient Egypt, 4, 23

 O'Connor, D., 39–41, 72, 175
 O'Shea, J., 55, 58
 Old Kingdom, 1, 22, 23, 42, 132, 154, 173
 oral tradition, 26, 178
 Osiris, 4, 8, 39, 75, 78, 129, 175
   “Tomb of,” 39, 51, 67, 130

pat, 26
 Papyrus Brooklyn 35.1446, 29

 Parkinson, R., 25, 26, 178
 Peet, T., 79, 144–9
 Petrie, W. M. F., 33, 128
 pilgrimage, 51, 132
 plundering, see grave robbing Pollock, S., 65
 prescriptive model of Middle Kingdom society, 6, 9, 22, 25, 26, 28–29, 34, 36, 88, 177–8 prison registers, 28–29
 property, 29
 pyramid
   as mortuary symbol, 4, 76
   towns associated with, 77
 Pyramid Texts, 76

 Qasr el-Sagha, 38
 Qau, 8, 60, 73
 Qau el-Kebir, 6
 Qedes, 23
 Quirke, S., 27–8, 30, 180

 ranking blocks, 27–8
 Re, 75
 recycling of burial facilities, 162
 redistributive economy, 27–8
rekhyt, 26
 Reisner, G. A., 60, 72, 106, 119
 Renefsenef, owner of ships, 94
 restriction of access,
   to the divine, 38
   to materials, 109–110
   to space, 2, 67, 112–3
 reunification of Egyptian state, in the Middle Kingdom, 2 Riqqa
   general description of, 77, 98–104
   Cemetery A, 102, 105, 119–123
   Cemetery B, 103–4, 121–3
   Cemetery C2, 103
   implications of patterning at for Middle Kingdom society, 174–9 rock-cut graves, as category of burial facility, 81, 82, 131
 Roth, A., 71
 royal burial complexes, 4, 67, 76–78
   towns at, 4
 royal ideology in the Middle Kingdom,
   materialization of, 179

- Sehetepibre, 23
 Seidlmayer, S., 70–71, 72–3
 “self-made man,” as theme in Middle Kingdom biographies, 23, 34
 settlement patterns
     as evidence for social organization, 16
     in Egypt, 32, 33
 Senwosret I, 20, 132, 133
 Senwosret III, 78, 81, 130, 131–2, 133
 shaft graves, as category of burial facility, 81, 82
 Sicard, C., 126
 Silverman, D., 80
 Simpson, W. K., 128
 Slater, R., 72
 Smith, S., 73
 Sobekneferu Seneberau, 152–3, 177
 social approaches to mortuary behavior, 54
 social change, 1, 8, 13, 15
 social inequality, 14, 69
 social identity, 22, 54
 social mobility, 26, 65
 social order,
     cemeteries as representation of, 2, 4, 33
     inversion of in burial practice, 57, 63 social stratification, 14
 soldiers in the Middle Kingdom, 4, 23, 27
 state level societies, social change in, 15–16 status, definition of, 16
 Strudwick, N., 73
 sub-elite, 21, 26
 sumptuary rules, governing mortuary display, 67, 71, 177
 suppression, of the provincial nobility, 4 surface grave
     as category of burial facility, 83 vulnerability to natural processes, 64
 surplus, 15

 Tainter, J., 56
Tale of the Eloquent Peasant, 27
Tale of Sinuhe, 75, 85

 Tarkhan, 71
Teaching of Duaf’s Son Khety, 26
 Tel el-Daba, 79
 temples, 20, 38, 130
 “Terrace of the Great God,” 39, 133
 Teti, 29
 Thebes, 27, 76, 78
 Tietze, C., 37
 titles, used as indicators of status, 23, 63
 Tod, 4
 “tomb problem” in Egypt, 49, 52, 69, 86
 tourism in ancient Egypt, 50
 trade, 109–110
 Trigger, B., 71
 Tura, 71

 Ucko, P., 59

 Valley of the Kings, 50
 votive commemorations,
     in cemeteries, 42, 51, 132
     in temples, 175
     in temple votive zones, 33, 38, 133
 votive chapels, description of, 39, 40–41

 wages, 28
 Wah-Sut, 34, 36, 130, 132
 wealth
     as construct, 14, 109–110
     definition of indices, 110, 111
     as factor in mobility, 15
 Wegner, J., 78, 130
 women
     lack of access to bureaucratic roles, 23 represented in cemetery populations, 97, 170
 “written death,” 155, 173, 176

 Yoffee, N., 15–6

 zoning
     in cemeteries, 174
     in settlements, 37