

Contents

List of figures	page vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Part I Introduction
1 Introduction	3
2 Agency after Ariès: sentiments, natures and spaces	9
Part II Social theories of children and childhood
3 Modern social theories: agency and structure	37
4 Partial and situated agency	51
5 Subjectivity, experience and post-social assemblages	62
Part III Spaces of experience, experimentation and power
6 Family and household	89
7 School and education	113
8 Crime and criminality	139
9 Health and medicine	162
10 Play and consumer culture	193
11 Political economies of labour	215
12 Rights and political participation	234

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-84366-9 - The Agency of Children: From Family to Global Human Rights

David Oswell

Table of Contents

More information

vi

*ContentsPart IV Conclusions

13	Conclusions	263
	Bibliography	281
	Index	301

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-84366-9 - The Agency of Children: From Family to Global Human Rights

David Oswell

Table of Contents

More information

---

Figures

- |  |                |
|--|----------------|
| 3.1 Modelling childhood as outlined by James, Jenks and Prout, 1998. | page 49 |
| 7.1 Example of a child-centred primary school classroom.             | 124            |