

Contents

List of plates	page vii
List of maps	x
List of tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1
Major steps in a historical critical analysis	3
Contemporary trends in historiography	16
Questions, objectives and methods	27
1 Foundation	35
2 Organization	54
Communications	54
Regulations	60
Entrenchment	70
Bureaucracies	89
3 Presentation	105
Emblems	107
The confraternities	116
Etiquette	124
4 Appointments	134
Higher posts	134
The inquisitors	151
Functionaries and familiars	160
5 The edicts	174
Publication	175
The edicts of grace	181
The edicts of faith	187
The anathema	200
The Special edicts	204

vi	Contents
6	The visits	211
	Inspecting the tribunals	212
	Censoring books	221
	Controlling people	237
7	The auto-da-fé	246
	The different stages of the rite	248
	Publication	248
	The presentation	253
	The processions	261
	The celebration	273
	The abjuration	277
	The execution	281
	Memory	286
	Production and reception	291
	Fixing the ceremony	291
	The reconstruction of memory	299
	Structuring and destructuring	301
	The construction of the rite	301
	Expansion and decline	304
	The case of the Roman Inquisition	310
8	Status	316
	Configuration	316
	Action	330
	The position of the Holy Office	354
9	Representations	364
	The New Christian factor	368
	The Protestant factor	374
	New sensibilities	386
	Iconography	401
10	Abolition	416
	Downfall	417
	The context	427
	Change	434
	Conclusion	440
	Sources and bibliography	449
	Index	480