

Index

- Agency theory 17, 157, 159, 162, 263
- AIDA 66
- Airbus 4–9
- Alcatel 216
- amazon.com 188
- American Express 213, 253–4
- Arthur Andersen Management 323
- A. S. 323
- Attribution theory 105, 106
- AT&T 65

- Bang & Olufsen 156
- Behavioral Anchored Rating Scales (BARS) 319–20
- Bell Atlantic 319
- Bell Canada 61
- Business-to-business relationships, see Buyer-supplier relationships
- Buyers 29–53
  - attitudes 38–40
    - toward brands 39
    - toward risks 38–9
    - toward salespersons 39–40
    - toward suppliers 39
  - constraints 40
  - decisions 40–5
    - conflicts 40–5
    - process 43–4
    - psychological tension 41
    - styles 44–5
  - evoked set of suppliers 40
  - expectations 40–5
  - modified re-buys 73–4
  - needs 34
  - new purchases 73
  - roles
    - active 72–4
    - passive 71–2
  - perceptions of 34–8
    - offers 36–7
    - risks 35–6
    - self-interests 35
    - salespersons 37
    - suppliers 36–7
  - post-decisional reactions 45–6
    - post-purchase feelings 45–6
    - satisfaction/dissatisfaction feelings 46
  - purchase strategies 46–7
  - purchasing behavior 32–46
    - influences 75–6
    - rational behavior 42–3
  - relationships with suppliers, see Buyer-supplier relationships
  - resources 40
- Buyer-supplier relationship
  - actors of 31–2
  - dimensions of 37–8
  - management of 30–47
  - nature of 31–2
- CAB 66, 78
- Canon 300, 301
- Chambourcy-Nestlé 176
- Chrysler 319
- Clans 270
- Coaching 292, 294–5
- Coca-Cola 274
- Cofralab 291
- Cognitive scripts 117
- Compaq 183
- Compensation
  - as control of selling activities 258–61
  - operational methods of 267
  - optimal (simultaneous conditions) 262–3
  - optimal (structure) 263–5
  - plans 256–69
    - evolution of 277–8
  - practices 267–8
  - theory 261–8
  - turnover effects of 265–6

- Competence, see Sales managers' competence, Salespeople's competencies
- Contests 269
- Control 193–221, see also Sales force control, Salespeople's and Sales managers' control levers
- centralized processes of 222–51
  - clans 270
  - decentralized processes of 253–79
  - directional 254–6
  - objectives of a QRP 227
  - of effort allocation 234–5, 260
  - of effort levels 234, 259–60
  - of effort quality 280–307
  - of sales force organization 210–19
  - of sales force size 193–210
  - of sales territories 219–21
  - of salespeople's activities 269–77
  - of salespeople's competencies 282–307
  - of salespeople's dashboards 326–7
  - of salespeople's motivation 272–4, 295
  - of salespeople's performance 235
  - philosophies 222–3
  - quality control 290
- Cortal 184
- Creeping commitment 43
- Critical situations 273–4
- Curriculum vitae analysis 302
- Customer follow-ups 67–8
- Customer loyalty 58–9
- Customer relationship management (CRM), see Relationship management
- Daiwa Securities SMBC Europe Ltd 61
- Dashboards
- control 326–7
  - design 327–36
  - elements of 18–19, 168, 327–32
  - quality of 17
  - usage of 308–36
- Decision space 14, 16
- Declarative knowledge 116–17, 145–8
- Dell 184
- Direct Bank 64
- Directional objective programs 253–79
- Disconfirmation paradigm 104
- Discrepancy theory 104
- Dolphin Telecom 291
- Drive theory 90
- Dual factor theory 90
- Economic utility theory 90
- Effort quality improvement programs, see Training and Retraining programs
- Electronics, Inc. 54–5
- Environment 170–89, see also Sales force turnover, Sales missions characteristics 123 competitive 173 economic 172 evolution of 173–86 factors 173–5 indicators 18 industrial sector's 172 market 323–6 uncertainty 231–2
- Equity
- company (Corporate) equity 110
  - compensation 261, 266–7
  - constraints 239–43
  - distributive equity 108
    - quota-reward plans 240–1
  - external equity 109
  - functional equity 239–42
  - internal equity 110
  - job equity 110
  - occupational equity 109
  - perceptions of 242–3
    - semblance of equity 243
    - semblance of inequity 242–3
    - true inequity 242
    - true equity 243
  - procedural equity 108
    - quota-reward plans 240, 248–9
  - social justice 241–2
  - theory 91, 108, 109
- ERG theory 90
- Ethics in sales 180–2
- management's 181
  - salespersons' 181–2
- Event training 291–2
- Evolution of personal selling 186–9
- Expectancy theory 89, 91, 96, 97, 234
- Face-to-face interviews 303
- Feedbacks 128, see also Sales force control
- from customers 128, 313–14, 317–19
  - through order analysis 311
  - from environments 128
  - from external sources 314
  - from multiple sources 319
  - from sales force network 323–6
  - from salespersons 313, 316–17

- from supervisors 311–13, 317
- from syndicated sources 323
- on market environment 323–6
- on resource usage 314–16
- on sales performance 310–4
- on salespeople's activities 314–20
- on salespeople's morale 320–3
- on salespeople's behavior 319–20
- on salespeople's satisfaction 320–3
- to management 128, 310–26
- Financial incentives, see Compensation
- Fixed salary compensation 332
- Food Finder 183
- Gap (expectations versus performance) 104–8
- General Electric 184, 313
- Goal-setting theory 91
- Goodwill indicators 52–3
- Helena Rubinstein 292
- Hewlett Packard 37, 170–1, 181, 213
- Hierarchy of need theory 90
- Honeywell 61
- IBM 37, 156, 178, 179, 286
- Incentive plans 234–5
  - costs of 274–6
  - differentiated 234–5
  - evolution of 277–9
  - information for 274–6
- INDSALES 321
- Industrial Mechanics Corporation 1–2, 19–24
- Information costs 331–2
- Information flows
  - for specific control levers 332–6
  - organization of 308–36
  - readily available 334
- Integrated Marketing Communication (IMC) 154
- Intel 156
- International Agricultural Machine Corporation (IAM) 86–7
- Inventory of social needs 90
- Key accounts 29–30
  - management of (KAM) 175
  - control of 214–16
  - importance of 177–8
- Knowledge management 323
- KSA (Knowledge, Skills and Abilities) 284
- Kuka Automatism 291
- Kuoni 223
- L'Oreal 289, 292
- Le Printemps* 183
- Leadership 136–68
  - behavioral self-management 150–1
  - exchange leadership 150
  - levers 294–5
  - qualities 3, 24, 149–51
  - transformational 150
- Learned needs theory 90
- Management
  - by objectives (MBO) 270
  - knowledge 7, 14
  - perspectives 338–40
  - skills 144
  - styles 16–7
- Market intelligence 180
- Means-end chain theory 91
- Mentoring 289–90
- Mercedes-Benz 40, 274
- Merck Laboratories 291
- Michelin 154, 181
- Microsoft 184, 312
- Mobile Telesystems International 291
- Motivation programs 234, 253–4, 259–60, 272–4, 295
- Nabisco 293
- Negotiations 68–70
  - active phase of 69
  - power in 70
  - preparation of 68–9
  - strategies 76
  - tactics 82
- Neuro-linguistic Programming (NLP) 65
- New Information Technologies (NIT)
  - roles 178–80
- Nielsen 323
- Nokia 61
- Non-financial incentives, see Compensation
- Nortel 177
- Novartis 178
- Objective programs 222–51, 253–79
- Order analysis 311
- Pelikan Hardcopy 184
- Performance indicators 18, 48–52, 308–10
- Pernod-Ricard 185, 274, 292
- Peugeot 177
- Poly Labo 291
- Porter-Lawler motivation model 91
- Private Business, Inc. 180

- Procedural knowledge 117, 148
 Procter & Gamble 177
 Prolabo 291
 Promotions of salespeople 271–2
 Prospect identification 63–4
 Psychoanalytical theory 90
 Psychometric tests 303–4
 Pull strategy 154
 Purchase
   driving forces 77–8 facilitator reinforcement for 78
   inhibitor suppression 80–1 new facilitators for 79–80
 Push strategy 155
- Quota plans, see Quota-reward plans (QRP)
 Quota-reward plans (QRP) 226–49
   centralized (highly) 230–1 centralized (moderately) 231–2 control objectives of 227 control of salespeople's activities 249–51, 333–6
   costs of 243–5
   design of 227–9
   distributive equity of 240–1 equitable 248–9
   functional equity of 239–42
   implementation of 229
   information requirements for 243–5 optimal 284–5
   practice of 249
   procedural equity of 240 procedure design of 228–9 research on 245–9
   structure of 232–43
   theory of 249
 Quota-sanction plans (QSP) 249–51
- Raleigh 280
 Rank Xerox 175, 283, 300, 302, 313
 Recruitment programs 296–304, see also selection decisions on 304
   recruit profiles for 297–300 source identification of 300–1 vicious cycle of 297
 Relationship management 54–84, see also Buyer-supplier relationships
   definition of 55–8
   importance of 175–6
   missions for 58–62, see also Salespeople's missions processes of 54–84
   resources of 62
   strategic role of 176–7 strategies for 73–4
   tactics for 76–82
     tactic selection 81
 Relationship selling 59–60
 Renault 64
 Research perspectives 340–1
 Retraining programs 290–3
   coaching 292
   contents of 291–3
   event training 291–2
   methods of 291–3
   objectives of 290–1
   quality control of 293
 Role perceptions 93–6 accuracy 93–4
   ambiguity 94–5
   conflict 95
   consequences of 95–6
 Routine re-buys 71–2
- Sales calls close of 66–7
   demonstrations during 66 initial contacts 65–6 objections during 67
   preparation of 64–5
   presentation during 66
   processes of 65–7
 Sales contests, see Contests
 Sales force internal 210–3
   outsourced 210–3
 Sales force behavior 128–35
 Sales force command center 15–9, 163–8,
   191
 Sales force compensation, see Compensation Sales force control 4 approaches to 157–63
   limitations of 160–3 behavior-based 158–9
   centralized 16–17, 160
   classification of 160
   competencies of salespeople for 168 control levers 15–17
   decentralized 17, 160
   feedback processes for 23–4 formal 158
   implementation phase of 21–2 informal 158
   of decision spaces 165–6, 217–18 of motivation programs 166–7, 273 of objective plans 166

- organization 165
- outcome-based 158–9
- planning phase of 19–21
- process 19–24
- qualitative 158
- quantitative 158
- size of 165
- systems 156–7
- Sales force culture 129
- Sales force human resource management 156, 163–4
- Sales force indicators 19
- Sales force management
  - dynamic process for 4–9, 32
- Sales force organization 129
  - control of 210–9
- Sales force size 194–210
  - maintenance of 202–10
  - methods for determining 196–201
    - market sensitivities 196–7
    - mixed approach 200–1
    - salespersons' workloads 197–200
  - selection 195–201
- Sales force turnover 129–35, 261
  - analysis 205–6
  - benefits of 202–5
  - compensation effects on 265–6
  - compensation equity effect on 261, 266–7
  - control of 206–10, 261
  - costs of 202–5
  - dysfunctional turnover 206
  - environmental factors effects on 131–3
  - financial incentives effects on 261
  - functional turnover 206, 209–10
  - influential factors on 131–5
  - organizational factors on 133–5
  - promotion turnover 207–8
  - salesperson's factors on 133
  - voluntary dysfunctional turnover 208
- Sales managers 136–68
- Sales managers' abilities 149–53
  - analysis of 151–2
  - decision making 151–3
  - implementation of 153
  - predictions of 152
- Sales managers' competence 7–8, 14, 137–53
- Sales managers' control levers 165–8, 282–4
- Sales managers' dashboard 168
- Sales managers' functions 153–63
- Sales managers' information needs 327–8
  - for all processes 328
  - for centralized-decentralized processes 328
- Sales managers' knowledge 139–48
  - bases 139–48
  - market 145
  - nature 140–3
  - quality 139–40
  - size 139–40
  - specific 143–8
- Sales managers' practices
  - evolution 186
- Sales meetings 295
- Sales missions 11–12, 153–6
  - environment of 11–12, 16, 171–3
  - objectives of 11, 16, 154–6
  - resources for 12
- Sales organization 122
- Sales territory 12–14
  - characteristics of 48–53
  - control of 219–21
  - coverage rate of 51–2
  - definition of 47–8
  - environment of 50
  - management process of 47–53, 82–4
  - penetration of 48–9
  - potential of 49–50
  - sensitivities of 18–19, 21, 23, 50–1, 334–5
  - workload of 51
- Sales training, see Training programs
- Sales variability 236–7
- Salespeople's activities 97–111
  - control of 222–3, 256–69
    - direct control of 222–25
    - indirect control of 225–27
    - through channelling effects 260
    - through financial incentives 256–69
    - through hybrid programs 276–7
    - through non-financial incentives 269–76
  - through quota-sanction plans 249–51
  - feedbacks on 314–20
  - planning process for 97–100
- Salespeople's attributions 105–8
- Salespeople's behavior 86–135
  - constraints of 235–43
  - dynamics of 92–111
  - feedbacks on 319–20
  - knowledge of 144–5
  - motivation 89–92
  - objectives of 87–9
    - financial objectives 89
    - personal objectives 86–9
    - professional objectives 88
  - observable 331–2
  - personal preferences in 86–7

- Salespeople's careers 271–2
  - cycle 271
- Salespeople's categorization 148
- Salespeople's characteristics 118–21
  - aptitudes 120
  - demographic 119–20
  - evolution of 184–6
  - psychological traits 120–1
    - locus of control 106–8, 121
    - self-efficacy 99, 121
    - self-esteem 120
  - socioeconomic 119–20
- Salespeople's competencies 118, 290–6
- Salespeople's control levers 125–7
- Salespeople's dashboards 127–8
- Salespeople's effectiveness 101–2
- Salespeople's feelings of equity 108–11
- Salespeople's income security 236–9
- Salespeople's information load 124
- Salespeople's involvement
  - objective setting 270
- Salespeople's job description 218–9
- Salespeople's knowledge bases 111–16
  - characteristics of 112–13
  - contents of 113–16
- Salespeople's missions 124–5
- Salespeople's morale 320–3
- Salespeople's motivation, see motivation, Salespeople's behavior
- Salespeople's perceptions 93–7
  - abilities 97
  - of performance-rewards relations 96–7
  - of rewards 97
  - of their job 218–19
  - of their objectives 93
  - of their roles, see Role perceptions
- Salespeople's performance 100–3, 134–5
  - control of 235
  - feedbacks on 310–4
  - multidimensions of 102–3
- Salespeople's promotions 271–2
  - importance of 272
- Salespeople's recruitment 296–304, see Recruitment programs
- Salespeople's resources 314–16
- Salespeople's reward preferences 335–6
- Salespeople's risks 236–7
- Salespeople's satisfaction/dissatisfaction (SS/D) 103–11, 134
  - consequences of 111
  - constraints of 235–6
  - feedbacks on 320–3
- Salespeople's selection 296–304, see Selection programs
- Salespeople's skills 116–18
  - development of 117–18
- Salespeople's supervision 216–17
- Salespeople's task
  - characteristics 121–2
  - information processing for 125
- Salespeople's training 285, see also Training programs
  - for new responsibilities
- Schneider Electric 216
- S. C. Johnson 327
- Selection of salespeople
  - evaluation methods for 302–4
  - procedures of 301–4
  - programs of 296–304
- Self-learning 292–3
- Self-training 292–3
- Selling efforts 18
  - allocation of 83–4
  - control of 193–221
  - deployment of 213–14
  - quality of 82–3, 99
  - quantity of 82–3, 97–100
- Selling functions
  - categorization of 145–8
  - decreased importance of 182–4
  - increased professionalism of 175–82
- Selling situations 70–4
- Selling strategies
  - categorization of 148
- Sensorial representation systems (SRS) 65
- Siemens 177
- SNCF (French National Railways) 176
- SPIN 66
- Straight commission compensation 332–3
- Supervision
  - centralized 295–6
  - decentralized 295–6
  - policies of 293–6
- Support of salespeople
  - devices for 305
  - organizational 272–4
  - programs for 304–7
  - through CRM 273
  - through NIT (New Information Technologies) 305–7
- Syntex Laboratories 193
- Team selling 177–8
- Texas Instrument 37
- 3M Corporation 177, 312
- 360-degree evaluation 319
- Training programs 280–2, see also Retraining programs

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-84834-3 - Leading the Sales Force: A Dynamic Management Process

Rene Y. Darmon

Index

More information

381

Index

-
- classroom training 287–8
  - contents of 285–6
  - duration of 286–7
  - initial 282–90
  - methods of 284–5, 287–90
  - objectives of 284–5
  - on-the-job training 288–9
  - quality control of 290
  - self-training 292–3
  - Transaction cost analysis (TCA) 157, 159, 211, 276
  - Transactional selling 58–9, 62–8
  - Ultrak 61
  - Viessman 305
  - Villeroy & Boch 306
  - Volkswagen 289
  - Volkswagen Finance 326
  - Volvo 40
  - Würth 185
  - Xerox Learning Systems 65