

Index

- Achen, Chris, 241
- Adjusted Goodness of Fit Index, 92
- advanced economies
 - differences in, 67
 - unemployment rates' influence on, 68–9
- affirmative action, 46
- agriculture employment
 - in Europe, 69
 - in US, 69
- asset model, 85. See also electoral politics
 - gender in, role of, 87–90
 - general skill workers in, 86
 - results of, 86
 - specific skill workers in, 86
 - unemployment as part of, 87
- asset specificity
 - institutionalized parties and, 136
 - relational, 10
 - in welfare state, 10
- asset theory
 - of preferences, 77
 - of social protection, 15–16
 - of welfare state, 11
- associations (economic)
 - employer, 36
- Australia
 - coalition governments in, 156
 - labor market deregulation in, 246
- Austria (postwar)
 - coordinated industrialization in, 43
 - unemployment rates in, 64
- automatic consumption, 197, 200
 - GDP deflator as part of, 197
 - gov deflator as part of, 197
 - government, 204, 207
- automatic spending variables, 203
 - dependent population as part of, 203
 - working age population as part of, 203
- automatic transfers
 - deindustrialization and, 198
- Baldwin, Peter, 8
- banking institutions
 - in postwar Europe, control of, 40
- bargaining systems (wages), 19, 37, 123
 - distributive conflicts and, 36
 - in Germany, 252
 - government support for, 39, 43
 - labor unions and, 43
 - politician's role in, 43
 - in postwar Europe, 36
 - in Sweden, 252
 - in US, 252
 - for wages (Europe), 18, 20, 37, 63, 68
- “Baumol effect,” 197, 223
- Beck, Nathaniel, 243

Index

- Belgium
 - coordinated industrialization in, 43
 - school-based training systems in, 56
- benefits
 - earnings-related, 138
 - means-tested, 138, 140
 - redistribution, structure of, 137
 - transferability of, 186
 - unemployment, 57
- Big Mac Index, 226, 227
- Blair, Tony, 253
- Bretton Woods System, 45, 220
 - in postwar Europe, 62
- Canada
 - d5/d1 ratios for, 245
 - dispersed wage structure in, 245
 - education levels in, 41
 - inflation factors in, 64
 - real exchange rates in, 224
- capital
 - human, 77
 - physical, 77
- capitalism
 - VoC, 10
- Casa Integrazione, 52
- Catholic church
 - social/education services by, 247
- center left governments, 141
 - classifications within, 142–3
 - female labor force participation and, 162
 - means-tested transfers in, 142
 - PR political systems and, 161
 - redistribution and, 154
- center of gravity index. See CoG
- center right governments, 141
 - election wins for, 142
 - majoritarian political systems and, 137, 141, 155
 - means-tested transfers in, 142
 - in The Netherlands
- centralized parties
 - closed party list system in, 174
 - flexible list systems in, 175
 - within institutionalized parties, 174–6
 - open list systems in, 174
 - run-off majority systems in, 176
- Christian democratic center party. See CDA
- Christian democratic center party (Italy). See DC
- Christian democratic parties, 17, 247
 - female labor force participation and, 248, 276
 - retirement and, 248
- closed party list systems, 174
- coalition games, 171
 - coalition breakups within, 172
 - labor market reforms
 - Rubinstein bargaining solution, and, 169–70
 - subgame perfect equilibrium in, 173
- coalition governments
 - in Australia, 156
 - in Denmark
 - in Ireland, 156
- CoG (center of gravity) index
 - absolute measure of, 162
 - government, 196
 - partisanship and, 155
- collective bargaining institutions
 - reorganization of, 68
- collective goods problems, 130–1, 132
- collective-action problems, 35
- common shocks, 207
 - spending and, 205
- comparative institutional advantage (concept), 15
- confirmatory factor analysis. See CFA
- constitutional veto points, 150, 154
- consumer services, 231. See also service markets
 - employment in, 235
- “coordinated market economies,” 25
- corporatism, 176
 - in institutionalized parties, 146
 - in postwar Europe, 63

Index

- correlation matrix, 179
- “country dummies,” 194, 195, 225, 235
- CRT (cathode ray tube), 3
- Cusack, Thomas, 16, 60, 149
- daycare
 - gender inequality and, 88, 89
- decommodification
 - welfare state and, influence on, 6
- deindustrialization, 16, 195–6, 274–5
 - capital market openness and, 196
 - cross-national variance in, 185, 192
 - domestic factors for, 209, 213
 - effects of, 17, 72, 198, 201, 207
 - empirical evidence for, 191–208
 - in Finland, 210
 - government CoG and, 196
 - government consumption and, 207
 - government transfers and, 198
 - institutional effects of, 201–7
 - labor markets and, 185, 275
 - labor protection levels and, 275
 - national institutions’ role in, 186–91, 206
 - negative trade balances’ influence on, 213
 - North-South trade influences on, 209
 - objections, potential, 201
 - partisanship and, 207–8
 - productivity measures for, 212
 - rates of, variance in, 185
 - retirement as effect of, 201, 275
 - social protection and, influence on, 188
 - sources of, 208–14
 - in Sweden, 185
 - trade openness and, 184, 196
 - in US, 185, 210
 - vocational training activity and, 207
 - wage compression as result of, 275
 - welfare state and, 184, 191
- Denmark, 267–8
 - employment/unemployment rates in, 260
 - taxation reforms in, 267
 - volume of work gains in, 267
- d5/d1 ratio(s), 245–6
 - for Canada, 245
 - regression analysis of, 244
 - wage data and, 245
- dispersed wages, 232, 235, 240, 261
 - in Canada, 245
 - in Denmark,
 - employment growth and, 230
 - in OECD nations, 225
- distributive conflict(s)
 - centralized bargaining and, 36
 - in postwar Europe, 35–6
- d9/d1 earnings ratio, 52
- Earned Income Tax Credit. See EITC
- earning equality
 - skills investment and, 20
- economic redistribution. See redistribution
- The Economist*, 226
- educational system(s)
 - in Canada (levels of), 41
 - gender-based access to, 87–9
 - in postwar Europe, 41
 - skill systems and, 111
 - in US, 41
- EITC (Earned Income Tax Credit), 255, 256
- election(s)
 - coalition creation after, 155
 - time inconsistency problems and, role in, 125
- electoral politics, 12–14, 25. See also political parties
 - economic redistribution and, 12
 - government spending and, 17
 - New Deal policies and, 12
 - partisanship in, 24–5, 149
 - power resources model and, 12
 - time inconsistency problems for, 14

Index

- electoral system(s), 24, 124, 163–4. See also electoral politics center left/center right government demographics for, 157 exogenous shocks and, 188
 key indicators of, 156 political leader incentives within, 175, 189
 in postwar Europe, 32
 proportionality in, 157 voter expectations under, 155
 Elkin, Stephen, 12
 Ellwood, David, 256
 employer(s)
 “coordinating capacity” for, 38 employee investment in, 36 full-time employee regulation by, 259 part-time employee regulation by, 259 in welfare state, role of, 7–8 Employment and Trade Union Act employment gap
 US v. postwar Europe, 70 employment protection deindustrialization’s influence on, 275
 in France, 258
 mean index for, 258 employment protection legislation. See EPL employment rates, 228–46 for agriculture, 69
 in Denmark, 260
 dynamic model for, 243
 female labor force participation and, 243
 in Germany, 63
 in Ireland, 63
 part-time, 266
 productivity influence on, 228 replacement rates’ influence on, 261 tax structure influence on, 243 taxation and, 241, 245 work volume’s effect on, 265–7
 Engel’s Law, 214, 233
 EPL (employment protection legislation), 46 benefits administration as part of, 49–51 calculations for, 48 collective dismissal rules in, 49 composite index for, 46 individual dismissal rules in, 49 industrial relations systems and, 48
 in Japan, 48
 national rankings for, 49, 51
 in OECD nations, 47
 unemployment replacement rates in, 49 error correction model (deindustrialization), 193
 lagged dependent variables in, 193, 194
 Esping-Andersen study, 137, 138 earnings-related benefits in, 138 means-tested benefits in, 138, 140
 Meltzer-Richard model and, 138
 Estevez-Abe, Margarita, 31 exchange rates
 PPP and, 219
 real, 219
 “exit options”
 in welfare state, 7
 exogenous shocks, 188, 194, 200 electoral systems and, 188 transfers of, 204
 Finland
 deindustrialization rates in, 210 selective deregulation in, 258 flexible list system, 175 food stamps (US), 45
 fractionalization under PR political systems, 161
 France company based training in, 56 coordinated industrialization issues in, 44

Index

- electoral system in, 157
- employment protections in, 258
- Popular Front party in, 33
- school-based vocational training systems in, 57
- full-time employment employer regulation of, 259
- Ganzeboom, Harry, 116
- Garrett, Geoffrey, 17
- GATT (General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs), 40, 45
- gender inequality
 - in asset model, 87–9, 90
 - daycare and, 88–9
 - educational choices and, structure of, 26
 - family leave policies and, 88–91
 - indirect influence of, 105
 - in labor markets, 18, 27
 - in public sector, 88–9
 - skills investment and, 25–8
 - in social policy preferences theory, 78, 106
 - social transfer programs and, 88–90, 91
 - “statistical discrimination” and, 25
- General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs. See GATT
- general skill workers. See also vocational training activity
 - public goods and, 131
 - social protection and, 111
- general skills system, 57
 - in asset model, 86, 117
- Germany (postwar)
 - apprenticeship systems in, 56
 - Basic Law in, 272
 - CDU/CSU in, 159
 - centralized bargaining systems in, 252
 - coordinated industrialization in, 43
 - FDP in, 158
 - machine tool industries in, 60
 - service employment in, 252
 - SPD in, 159, 272
 - trade services in, liberalization of, 272–3
 - unemployment rates in, 64
 - welfare state in, 8
- Germany Basic Law, 272
- globalization
 - comparative institutional advantage, and, 15
 - transitory effects of, 200
 - welfare state and, 7, 184
- government. See center left
 - governments; center right
 - governments; coalition
 - governments
- government employment
 - guarantees, in US, 45
 - private sector employment v., 235, 238
- government spending
 - “Baumol effect” in, 197
 - consumption as factor for, 197
 - electoral politics and, 17
 - growth in, 183
 - institutionalized parties and, 147
 - for social protection, 104
 - trade expansion as result of, 183
 - for vocational training activity, 147
- government transfers, 198
- Hall, Peter, 246
- high protection countries, 63
 - reform policies, 276
 - replacement rate changes in, 63
 - vocational training and, 59
- human capital, 77. See also vocational training activity
 - as investment, 77
- income(s)
 - dispersed redistribution of, 138
 - elasticity of services, 238
 - market, 78

Index

- income(s) (cont.)
 in Meltzer-Richard model, 78
 men v. women and, 88, 105 protection measures for, 52, 58
 redistribution of, 13, 163
 in social policy preferences theory, 101, 106
 social protection and, 77 social spending and, 112 spending (redistributive) and, 85, 103 taxation of, 35 income protection, 52, 58, 132 after-tax/transfer coefficients and, 52 d9/d1 earnings ratios, 52
 in OECD countries, 53
 through public insurance system, 72 retributive reasons for, 128 tax and transfer schemes and, 52
 in time inconsistency problems, 128 unemployment protection and, 58 income redistribution, 13. See also redistribution tax and transfer scheme's influence on, 21, 22 income taxation. See also taxation
 in postwar Europe, 35 individual dismissal rules, 49 industrialization coordinated, 43–4 in France, coordinated, 44 in Germany, coordinated, 43 in Italy, coordinated, 44 regression analysis for, 212 in UK, coordinated, 44 in US, decline of, 66 inequality reduction regression results for, 153 institutionalized parties, 129–36 asset specificity and, 136
 centralization in, 146 centralized parties within, 174–6 collective goods production in, 130–1, 132 commitment capacity for, 177
 corporatism in, 146
 degree of institutionalization in, 131
 in empirics theory, 144
 government spending and, 147 group preferences' influence on, 132–3, 146 high/low voters as part of, 129 individual incentives within, 130 leaders within, 131, 134 measurement factors for, 146
 measurement of, 174–6
 membership fees as part of, 131 party organization within, 130–2 policy selection within, 134–6 private economic agents within, 130 sincere voting within, 129 skill specificity in, 129 social insurance commitment by, 132 voting within, 134
 institutionalized parties model contingency requirement for, 167 equation derivation for, 166–7 group utility function for, 164 median voter utility function for, 165 search costs for, 164 third party entry in, 167–8 insurance. See also redistribution employer-sponsored, 186 income loss and, 13
 income protection and, 72
 old age, 128 social, 21–5
 unemployment, 12
 insurance model(s), 84–5, 87, 91
 Moene-Wallerstein model and, 84 relative risk aversion in, 84, 85
 International Social Survey Program.
 See ISSP
 International Standard Classification of Occupations. See ISCO-88 international trade, 66
 Ireland (postwar) coalition governments in, 156 employment rates in, 63 proportionality index for, 157

Index

- ISCO-88 (International Standard Classification of Occupations), 26, 93
 - degrees of specialization in, 93
 - skills levels criteria in, 93, 94
- ISSP (International Social Survey Program), 27, 78, 95
 - Meltzer-Richard model and, 91, 116
 - vocational training activity within, 27
- Italy
 - Casa Integrazione in, 52
 - company emphasis training in, 56
 - coordinated industrialization issues in, 44
 - employment protection in, 51–2
 - inflation factors in, 64
 - real exchange rates in, 224
 - unemployment insurance in, 59
 - wage compression in, 224
- Japan (postwar), 48–9
 - company emphasis training in, 56, 58
 - corporate welfare model of, 65
 - economic growth in, 66
 - EPL index in, 48
 - equity markets in, 66
 - industries domination by, 73
 - proportionality index for, 157
 - welfare state in, 146
 - worker protections in, 48, 148
- Katzenstein, Peter, 25
- King, Gary, 98
- labor markets
 - centralization (in postwar Europe), 37
 - deindustrialization's influence on, 185, 275
 - dislocations in, 185
 - exit facilitation in, 247
 - female participation in, 247
 - gender inequality in, 18, 27
 - individual states in, 80
 - international division of, 60
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 80, 102
 - under New Labour Party, 254
 - regulation of, 246
 - risks in, 186–91
 - in “selective and shielded regulation,” 257
 - social protection for, 187
 - in trade liberalization strategy, 274
 - welfare state and, role in, 6
- labor union(s)
 - centralized bargaining and, 43
 - external, 49
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 97, 102
 - in postwar Europe, 37, 38, 62
 - rate index for, 41
 - redistribution and, 150, 154
 - in UK, 45
- law of one price, 219
- liberal capitalism. See “liberal market economies”
- liberal case reform policies, 276
- “liberal market economies,” 25, 32
- liberal political parties, 17
- LIS (Luxembourg Income Study), 22, 88
 - adjusted versions of, 149
 - data demographics for, 148–9
 - gini coefficient in, 149
 - redistribution in, 148
- “listwise deletion” approach, 99
- low protection countries, 63
- Luxembourg Income Study. See LIS
- majoritarian political systems, 25, 135, 155, 190–1
 - center-right governments and, 137, 155
 - elections under, 140–3
 - income class representation under, 138–9
 - representation problems in, 123

Index

- majoritarian political systems (cont.)
 - reputation as factor within, 141
 - in time inconsistency problems, 126
 - two-party, 137
 - vote-maximizing platforms under, 140
 - voter platforms under, 140
 - “vote-seat elasticity” in, 135
- Manow, Phillip, 8
- manufacturing
 - employment (postwar Europe), 69
 - postwar predictions of, 32
 - service markets vs., 187, 209
 - technological progress in, 214
- Mares, Isabela, 8
- market failures, 9
- Marshall Plan, 45
- Martin, Cathie Jo, 255
- median voters
 - redistribution and, 190
 - time inconsistency problem and, role in, 126
 - utility function for, 165
- Medicaid (US), 45, 255
- Meltzer-Richard model, 77, 78, 128, 138, 139
 - age as variable in, 97
 - Arrow-Pratt risk aversion in, 81, 113
 - asset model within, 85
 - assumptions for, 78–81
 - dependent variables in, 91–3, 116
 - employment protection in, 79
 - employment variables in, 97–8, 102
 - Esping-Anderson study and, 138
 - findings for, 98–111
 - flat-rate payments within, 79
 - government transfer income in, 78
 - insurance model within, 84–5
 - ISSP and, 88–91, 116
 - labor markets in, 80, 102
 - market income as part of, 78
 - mathematical proofs for, 112–14
 - negative income effects for, 99, 103
 - political ideology variable in, 98, 117–18
 - positive tax rates within, 83
 - redistribution logic in, 99, 150
 - social preferences optimization in, 81–7
 - specific skills as part of, 78, 99
 - tax disincentive effects in, 82–4
 - unemployment protection within, 79, 99
 - union membership as variable in, 97, 102
 - wage protection in, 79
- Moene-Wallerstein model, 84, 103
- Mussolini, Benito, 33
- National Industrial Recovery Act, 33
- national skill structure
 - vocational training rates and, 24
- natural attrition. see retirement
- The Netherlands
 - coordinated industrialization in, 43
 - employment ratio in, 265, 268
 - relative wages in, 262
 - “selective and shielded deregulation” in, 265
 - service employment in, 252
 - social security system in, 44
 - taxation restraint in, 252
 - work volume increases in, 265
- New Deal policies, 8, 45
 - electoral politics and, 12
 - social security as part of, 45
- New Labour Party, 253
 - labor market competition under, 254
 - wage policies of, 254
 - WFTC program, 254
- New Zealand
 - labor market deregulation in, 246
 - social spending support in, 249

Index

- OECD international literacy test, 56
- OPEC, 213
- open list system(s), 174, 175–6
 - single member plurality systems vs., 175
- partisanship (political). See also political parties
 - analytic study of, 248
 - CoG index and, 155
 - deindustrialization and, 207–8
 - in electoral politics, 24–5, 149
 - government effects of, 200
 - post-election government composition and, 160
 - redistribution and, 149, 154, 155
 - regression results for, 160
- part-time employment
 - employer regulation of, 259
- per capita income, 235, 237
 - redistribution and, 151, 153
- physical capital, 77
- Pierson, Paul, 88, 89, 257
- political leaders, 131
 - cooperation conditions for, 165–6
 - incentives for, 175, 189
 - party defection by, 135
 - party institutionalization's influence on, 133
 - policy flexibility for, 133, 136
- political parties. See also institutionalized parties
 - center-left, 141
 - center-right, 141
 - Christian democratic, 17
 - classification of, 14, 146
 - electoral incentives for, 123
 - liberal, 17
 - social democratic, 17
- political systems
 - majoritarian, 25
 - PR, 25
- Popular Front (political party), 33
- Porter, Michael, 66
- post-secondary education
 - international demographics for, 54
- postwar Europe (economy)
 - agricultural employment in, 69
 - banking control measures in, 40
 - Bretton Woods System in, 62
 - centralized bargaining (economic) in, 36, 63
 - collective-action problems in, 35
 - corporatism in, 63
 - distributive conflicts in, 35–6
 - economic crises in, 62
 - education demographics in, 54
 - educational attainment in, 41
 - electoral systems in, 32
 - employee/employer investments during, 36
 - employer associations and, 36
 - GATT and, role in, 40
 - growth in, 34–46
 - history of, 32–4
 - income taxation issues in, 35
 - industrial development in, 41
 - industries domination by, 73
 - interlocking directorships during, 36
 - labor centralization in, 238
 - labor strikes in, 62
 - labor unions in, 37, 38, 62
 - manufacturing employment in, 69
 - mass mobilization's influence on, 39
 - non-tariff barriers in, 40
 - political party priorities in, 39
 - public spending increases in, 62
 - public utilities control in, 40
 - reconstruction in, 34
 - service markets in, 40, 74
 - state creation in, 32
 - structural precondition index in, 41
 - time inconsistency problems in, 34–5
 - wage modification in, 34
- power resources model, 28
 - electoral politics and, 12
 - for welfare state, 7

Index

- PPP (purchasing power parities), 218 absolute levels of, 221 cross-national differences in, 220 deviations from, 223 exchange rates and, 219
 international price comparisons and, 219–220 means reversion findings for, 219, 221 thesis for, 219
- PR (proportional-representation) political systems, 25, 39, 123, 143–4. See also electoral systems center-left parties and, 161, 189
 “coordinated market economies” under, 25 income class representation under, 138–9 party fractionalization under, 161 redistribution under, 137, 190
 Rubinstein bargaining solution as part of, 143
- pre-tax/transfer income, 22, 153, 187
- pre-tax/transfer inequality variable, 150
- price elasticity employment effects on, 228 in service markets, 72
- pricing
 law of one price and, 219
 in service markets, 218–28
- private sector employment, 229 consumption taxes’ influence on, 235 employee protection measures in, 48 female labor force participation in, 235, 238 government controls of, 72 government employment vs., 235, 238 growth determinants for, 236 public employment’s influence on, 240 wage structure and, 229–31 wholesale/retail trade and, 231
 women’s share of, 27
- product market strategies, 58–67 scientific citations and, 60
 in welfare state, 73
- production system
 electoral politics and
- proportionality index, 157
 for Ireland, 157 for Japan, 157
- public employment private sector employment’s influence from, 240 wage dispersion and, 240 wage structures and, 240
- public goods, 130
 in empiric theory, 144
- public utilities
 in postwar Europe, 40
- purchasing power parities. See PPP
- real exchange rates, 219, 221, 222
 in Canada, 224
 in Italy, 224
 in Sweden, 222
 in UK, 224
 in US, 224
 wage compression influence on, 246
 wage structure and, 226
- redistribution, 136–44, 148–51. See also welfare state benefits structure for, 137
 center-left parties and, 154 constitutional veto points and, 150, 154 cross-sectional time-series data for, 152 data findings for, 152–4 dispersed income, 138
 electoral politics and, 12
 female labor force participation as part of, 151 income shocks as function of, 190 of incomes, 13, 163 independent causes of, 139

Index

- intertemporal dimension within, 136
- labor unionization and, 150, 154
- median voters and, 190
- in Meltzer-Richard model, 99, 150
- model of, 137
- non-regressivity constraints as part of, 138
- partisanship and, 149, 154, 155
- per capita income as factor in, 151, 153
- political, 123, 137–40
- in poverty rate, 154
- under PR political systems, 136, 190
- pre-tax/transfer inequality variable in, 150
- statistical model for, 151–2
- taxation as part of, 137
- unemployment as variable in, 150–1
- variables influencing, 152
- vocational training as factor in, 150, 154
- voter turnout as factor in, 150, 154
- “Wagner’s Law” and, 151, 153
- in welfare state, 77
- reform policies
 - high protection countries, 276
 - liberal case, 276
 - for taxation, 263
 - workfare, 256
- regression analysis
 - for industrialization, 212
 - for inequality reduction, 153
 - for political partisanship, 160
- representation (political), 155–6
- contracting problems for, 123
- in majoritarian political systems, 123
- measure of disproportionality in, 157
- proportionality index and, 157
- threshold of, 157
- retirement
 - Christian democratic parties and, 248
 - deindustrialization and, influenced by, 201, 275
- risk aversion
 - in insurance model, 84, 85
 - social insurance and, 21
- Rodrik, Dani, 7
- Rowthorn-Ramaswamy study, 213
- Rubinstein bargaining solution, 143
 - LM coalition as part of, 169–70
 - MH coalition as part of, 171–4
- run-off majority system, 176
- Saltsjöbaden agreement, 33
- Scandinavia
 - female labor rates in, 27
 - public sector service expansion in, 246
- Scharpf, Fritz, 233
- “selective and shielded deregulation,” 17, 257–68, 276
 - in Finland, 258
 - labor market flexibility in, 257
 - in The Netherlands, 265
 - opposition to, 258
 - social protection and, 275
 - tax-benefit subsidies in, 257
 - worker protection as part of, 257
- service economy trilemma, 246–50
 - central bank independence as part of, 250
 - fiscal costs increase within, 250
 - labor market regulation in, 246
 - labor unions and, 250
 - macroeconomic conditions in, 250
 - private service employment as part of, 247
 - product markets in, differentiated, 250
 - public service sector expansion
 - effects on, 253
 - retirement effects on, 253
 - social benefits reduction effects on, 253
 - wage equality as part of, 247

Index

- service employment, 251
 - in Germany, 252
 - in The Netherlands, 252
 - in service economy trilemma, 247
 - in US, 70
- service market(s). See also
 - deindustrialization, consumer services
 - demand for, 233
 - demographics (in postwar Europe), 70, 74
 - demographics (in US), 70
 - differentials in, 71
 - employment demographics in, 61, 215
 - government provision of, 234
 - liberalization of, 271–4
 - low productivity, 61
 - low wages in, 228
 - manufacturing vs., 187, 209
 - in OECD countries, 61
 - personal/social, 231
 - in postwar Europe, 40
 - PPP in, 218
 - price elasticity and, 72
 - prices in, 218–28
 - private employment in, 70, 238
 - product market specialization in, 271
 - productivity in, 72
 - public sector, 246
 - regime argument for, 218
 - standardized, 61
 - wage compression effects on, 71, 246
 - wage structures' influence on, 218
- sincere voting, 129
- single member plurality system(s), 175
- skill system(s), 54–8
 - educational systems and, 111
 - firm-specific, 57
 - gender inequality in, 25–8
 - general, 57, 86
 - independent, 96
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 78
 - in OECD countries, 55
 - profiles for, 58
 - in social policy preference theory, 101
 - social protection and, 9–10, 14, 59
 - specificity in, 11, 27
 - standardized testing's role in, 20
 - tenure rates in, 56
 - transferability of, 186
 - vocational training as part of, 19
- Smith, Adam, 271
- social democratic parties, 17, 40, 224
 - in Denmark
 - fiscal restraint by, 247
- social insurance, 21–5
 - institutionalized parties and, 132
 - risk-aversion and, 21
- social policy preferences theory, 73, 163
 - family as institution in, 87–9, 90
 - four models of, 83
 - gender role in, 78, 106
 - income levels as part of, 101, 106
 - optimization in, 81–7
 - skills systems as part of, 101
 - time inconsistency problem as part of, 122, 124
- social protection, 46–54, 58, 122
 - asset theory of, 15, 16
 - deindustrialization's influence on, 188
 - education level as factor in, 109
 - general skill workers and, 111
 - government spending support for, 104
 - income as factor for, 77, 111
 - insurance facets of, 77
 - for labor markets, 187
 - “selective and shielded deregulation” and, 275
 - skills systems as part of, 9–10, 14, 59
 - spending support for, 104
 - voting influence on, 122
 - in welfare state, 73
- social security, 263

Index

- social spending
 - educational levels and, 109, 110
 - factors for, 108
 - GDP percentages of, 15
 - income equality and, 112
 - in New Zealand, 249
 - for OECD countries, 16, 100
 - redistribution as part of, 87
 - in Sweden, 15
 - in UK, 249
 - in US, 16, 249
- Soskice, David, 31, 133
- SPD (social democratic party)
 - in Germany, 159, 272
- specific skills system(s), 11, 27. See also
 - vocational training activity
 - in asset model, 86
 - in institutionalized parties, 129
 - job mobility and, 94
 - measurement of, 94–5
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 78, 99
 - vocational training activity and, 145
 - women and, 88–9, 106
- standardized testing, 21
 - skills investment and, 20
- “statistical discrimination,” 25
- Stephens, John, 17
- Streeck, Wolfgang, 7, 15
- Sweden
 - currency overvaluation in, 226
 - deindustrialization rates in, 185
 - machinery industries in, 60
 - real exchange rates in, 222
 - real GDP in, 223
 - Saltsjöbaden agreement in, 33
 - school-based vocational training systems in, 57
 - social spending percentages in, 15
 - unemployment rates in, 64
 - vocational training systems in, 56
- Swenson, Peter, 7, 38
- Switzerland, 54, 155
 - coordinated industrialization in, 43
 - machinery industries in, 60
- tax and transfer schemes, 79. See also
 - redistribution
 - income protection index for, 52
 - income redistribution as result of, 21, 22, 187
 - inequality as result of, 23
 - vocational training activity and, 23
- tax wedge argument, 263
- taxation, 233
 - consumption, 235
 - efficiency costs of, 139
 - employment rates and, influence on, 241, 243, 245
 - of incomes (postwar Europe), 35
 - labor costs as result of, 233–4
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 83
 - in The Netherlands, restraint within, 252
 - parameter estimates for, 241
 - in redistribution, 137
 - in time inconsistency problems, 126, 128
- tenure rates, 59
 - disadvantages in, 57
 - organizational capacity and, 57
 - in skills systems, 56
 - voluntary job switching’s influence on, 57
- time inconsistency problem(s), 124–7, 163
 - elections as factor in, 125
 - in electoral politics, 14
 - income protection in, 128
 - institutional remedies for, 189–90
 - in institutionalized parties, 130
 - majoritarian political systems in, 126
 - median voters’ role in, 126
 - non-cooperation effects in, 127
 - old age insurance as part of, 128
 - overlapping generations models in, 126, 127
 - in postwar Europe, 34–5
 - private groups’ influence on, 163
 - propositions for, 126–7
 - qualifications for, 128–9

Index

- time inconsistency problem(s) (cont.)
 - retribution-motivated spending in, 129
 - in social policy preferences theory, 122, 124
 - tax rates in, 126, 128
 - unemployment as factor in, 125
- trade balance(s)
 - negative, 213
 - positive, 213
 - with Third World nations, 213, 235
- trade openness, 184, 196, 210
- trade service liberalization strategy, 274
 - in Germany, 272–3
 - industries influenced by, 274
 - labor division as part of, 274
 - low productivity and, 274
 - opposition to, 273
 - in UK, 272
- transfer payments, 196
- UK (United Kingdom)
 - Blair, Tony, in, 253
 - coordinated industrialization issues in, 44
 - economic declines, 66
 - inflation factors in, 64
 - labor market deregulation in, 246, 252
 - labor union rates in, 45
 - real exchange rates in, 224
 - social policies in, 255
 - trade services in, liberalization of, 272
 - unemployment factors in, 66
 - workfare, 253–7, 275
- unemployment benefits, 57
- unemployment protection
 - income protection and, 58
 - indexes for, 58, 63
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 79
 - in OECD countries, 50
- unemployment rates
 - in asset model, 87
 - employment effects from, 237
 - redistribution and, 150–1
 - replacement, 64
 - in selected countries, 65, 69, 117, 261
 - standardized, 234
 - in traditional sectors, 211
- US
 - decentralized bargaining systems in, 252
 - deindustrialization rates in, 185, 210
 - economic declines, 66
 - education demographics in, 41, 54
 - government employment guarantees in, 45
 - income demographics for, 11
 - industrial decline in, 66
 - industrial domination by, 73
 - inflation factors in, 64
 - labor market deregulation in, 246, 252
 - New Deal policies in, 45
 - political economy in, 45
 - private service employment in, 70
 - public university system
 - expenditures in, 46
 - real exchange rates in, 224
 - social spending percentages in, 16
 - social spending support in, 249
 - unemployment factors in, 66
 - welfare programs in, 45–6
 - welfare reform in, 255
- “varieties of capitalism.” See VoC
- VoC (“varieties of capitalism”), 10, 13
- vocational training activity
 - age cohorts in, 55
 - company emphasis as part of, 56
 - deindustrialization and, 207
 - government spending for, 147
 - high protection countries and, 59
 - institutionalized parties and, 147
 - international differences in, 55
 - national skill structure and, 24

Index

- redistribution and, 150, 154
 - as skills investment of, 19
 - specific skills and, 145
 - in Sweden, 56
 - tax and transfer schemes and, 23
 - wage inequality and, 19, 112
- volume of work
 - in Denmark, 267
 - employment rates and, influence on, 265–7
 - in The Netherlands, 265
 - in OECD nations, 264
- voter turnout
 - redistribution influence by, 150, 154
- wage inequality
 - vocational training and, 19, 112
- wage structure(s)
 - public employment and, 240
 - real exchange rates and, 226, 240
- wages
 - bargaining index for, 41, 43
 - centralized bargaining system for, 18, 20, 37, 63, 68, 123, 249
 - compression effects, 71, 224, 228, 246, 275
 - d5/d1 ratios and, 245
 - dispersion of, 235, 240, 261
 - industry-level coordination of, 18
 - intra-occupational compression of, 19
 - low-skilled labor's influence on, 228
 - modification of, in postwar Europe, 34
 - private sector employment and, 229–31
 - protection measures for, 36, 72, 79
 - relative (Netherlands), 262
 - restraints for, 37, 249
 - service markets and, influence on, 218
 - “social,” 39
 - vocational training and, 19
- wages bargaining system, 18, 20, 63, 68, 123, 249
- “Wagner’s Law,” 151, 153
- welfare models, 257
- welfare production regimes, 18, 36
 - product market strategies, and, 58
 - service employment, and, 217
 - social protection and, 46
 - training systems, and, 54
- welfare program(s) (US), 45–6
 - food stamps, 45
 - public housing, 45
- welfare reform
 - EITC and, 255, 256
 - of Medicaid, 255
 - pre-tax inequality and, 256
 - in US, 255
- welfare state. See also redistribution
 - alternative approaches to, 6–12
 - asset specificity within, 10
 - asset theory of, 11
 - capital’s role in, 7
 - decommodification’s influence on, 6
 - deindustrialization and, 184, 191
 - development of, 73
 - economic preconditions for, 9
 - employer’s role within, 7–8
 - “exit options” as part of, 7
 - expansion of, 39, 183, 214
 - German, 8
 - globalization and, 7, 184
 - in Japan, 146
 - labor as part of, 6
 - power resources model of, 7
 - product market strategies as part of, 73
 - production theories for, 8–9
 - redistribution as part of, 77
 - relation-specific assets as part of, 10
 - social protection in, 73
 - universalism and, 8
- women. See also gender inequality
 - under Christian democratic parties, 248, 276
 - educational access for, 87–9
 - employment trends for, 26

Index

- women (cont.)
 - income demographics (v. men), 88, 105
 - labor force participation by, 105, 151, 162, 233, 235, 238, 243, 248
 - in Meltzer-Richard model, 97, 104–7
 - occupational gender segregation of, 27
 - in private sector employment, 27
 - redistribution and, labor role in, 151
 - Scandinavian labor rates for, 27
 - specific skills investment by, 88–9, 106
- Wren, Anne, 17, 248