

Index

- Aborigines
 as affected by colonization 7
 colonial relations with 189 importance for Australian viewpoints on history 301
see also dreamtime
- Act in Restraint of Appeals (1533) 65, 70, 72
 and the concept of empire 136, 137, 138, 164, 167, 298
 and sovereignty 140
- Act of Succession (1701) 140
- Act of Toleration (1689) 140
- The Administration of the Colonies* (Pownall) 154
- 'age of the monstrous regiment' 51
- Age of the Three Kingdoms 74–6, 80–1, 164 monarchy 137–8
see also Three Kingdoms 137–8
- Age of Union 81
- agriculture, as the key to civilization 210–12
- American colonies and British history 40, 56, 136, 296
 and the concept of empire in connection with Britishness 182
 and the crisis of empire 148–62 effects of the 1688 Revolution 131–2 growth creates the problem of 'empire' 111 interrelationships 160 relationship with the concept of the English empire 188
 role in the Age of the Three Kingdoms 74 seen as English, effects on perceptions of the colonization of Ulster 167 settler nationalism 171–3
see also colonies
- American history
 relationship with British history 77
 and compared with Irish history 296
- American people, identity 309
- American Revolution 89, 153
 effects on the concept of British history 29 historical logic 155
- as secession from British history 293
- ancien régime* see Enlightenment
- Anglicanism 298 n. 3
- Anglo-Indian empire 162
- Anglo-Irish historiography, and the distinction between kingdoms and marches 79–80
- Anne (queen of Great Britain) coronation oath and the 1707 Union 177 relationship with the English and Scottish churches 110
- anthropology
 Enlightenment views 199–213
pakeha discourse 215–18, 223
- anti-popery, and political radicalism 112
- Antipodes
 views of the concept of empire 187–9 views of history 301
- Antrim, Marquis of 91–3
- Aotearoa see New Zealand
- Arawata Bill (William O'Leary) 224
- Argyll, Archibald Campbell, 7th Earl of, role in the War of the Three Kingdoms 88
- aristocracy political role, late eighteenth century 162 Whig views 132
- Aristotle, on primeval individualism 205
- the Ascendancy 109
- Atlantic archipelago 29, 77–9, 94, 293 sense of empire reinforced by the Irish Troubles 263
see also British Isles
- atua* 217
- Auckland (New Zealand) 12
- Australia
 colonial status 189
 colonization 7
 lack of treaties with Aboriginal peoples 233 and the Second World War 17–18, 193–4 viewpoints on history 301
see also colonies; Commonwealth; Dominions
- Australians, creation of identity 309

- Austro-Hungarian empire, culture, in relation to ethnic groups 280
- authority, and liberty, within political structures 306
- autochthony, Gibbon's repudiation 200–1
- Bacon, Francis concept of British history on the 1603 Union 27 on union between Scottish and English legal systems 70
- Baillie, Robert 34
- Banks, Joseph, views of cannibalism 209
- barbarism 286
- baronage, role within Scottish political discourse 61, 64, 65
- Bartlett, Robert, on the concept of Europe 90
- Basho, Matsuo 54
- Beaglehole, John C. 15, 20, 24, 43, 209
- Beckett, J. C. 28, 80
- Belich, James 16 n. 34, 18 n. 35, 194
- belief systems and the Enlightenment 128
historians' interest in original validity 201
- bellum civile*, and bellum sociale 89, 90–2, 93
- Bentham, Jeremy 70
- biblical history, contribution to the history of human origins in the Enlightenment 205, 202–3, 208
- Bindoff, S. T., on the absorption of Northumbria into England 32
- Blackwood, Adam (opponent of Buchanan), on emperorship 72
- Bland, Richard, on the legal standing of colonies 151–2
- Boece, Hector, political discourse about Scotland 58
- Bossuet, Jacques Bénigne, and patriarchy 208
- bourgeoisie* 211
- Brasch, Charles 10, 14
- Britain
English possibly disregard the concept 26 membership of the European Union and its effects on New Zealand ix, 20–1, 269–71, 275, 288, 290–1 nature as an island 55
term denied meaning by A. J. P. Taylor 24–6
- British culture, dependence of the Dominions upon 191–2
- British empire, and the search for identity 308–9
- British historiography, in relation to Europe 288
- British history
as affected by the concept of Europe 22, 47–51 as affected by nationalism 302–4, 306–7 author's support for the concept 26–43 and the colonization of America 296 concept ix–xi, 198
as affected by British membership of the European Union 259–61 and the concept of the age of the Three Kingdoms 74–6
and the concept of empire 262–4
and the creation of national states 268 distinction from English history 273–4 effects on New Zealand historiography 13–16 evolution through English expansion into neighbouring countries 47, 50 implication in the European struggle against universal monarchy (1793–1815) 113
Ireland's role within 164, 165–6, 169–70
Jacobean union and the English problem 52–4 political thought 56–7, 134–6
post-Second World War 17–18
in relation to the new British history 292–3
in relation to the War of the Three Kingdoms 84
Scotland's role as a result of the union of the crowns 62–5 Scottish history contained by 59 seen as within the Atlantic archipelago 77–8 sense of as affected by the concept of Europe 26 sovereignties within 306–7 as understood within the Dominions 188–96
- British Isles 77
distrust of the concept 94
see also Atlantic archipelago
- The British Isles: a history of four nations* (Kearney) 77
- British settlements, political resurgence of indigenous peoples 228–33
- Britishness 185–6 concept in the Second Age of Union (1801–1921) 183–4
- Buchanan, George (James VI's tutor), political discourse about Scotland 58, 61, 62, 65, 75
- Buckingham, George Villiers, 1st Duke of 65
- Buffon, George-Louis Leclerc, Comte de 201, 208
- Burke, Edmund 121
on the legal status of the colonies 150 on the questioning of George III's dynastic legitimacy 172 sees the 1688 Revolution as civil war 117, 118
- Burnet, Gilbert, reported conversation with William III (5 November 1688) 114

- Butler, Samuel 224 impressions of New Zealand 10
- Camden, William 26
- Canada
Anglo-Canadian discourse 162 as a collection of sovereignties 198
colonial status 188–9
and the problems of sovereignty 302 role in the Second World War 193
treaties with indigenous peoples 233 see also Commonwealth; Dominions
- Canadian colonies relationship to British history 40–1
see also colonies
- Canmore, Malcolm (Malcolm III, king of Scotland?) 63
- cannibalism, Enlightenment views 209
- Canterbury poets 224
- Cape Town and the protein bridge 16
see also South Africa
- capitalism, association with possessive individualism 204
- Caribbean colonies and British history 56
see also colonies
- Carte, Thomas
on the mnemonic quality of Welsh bardic poetry 211 on vagrancy 212
- Catherine of France (widow of Henry V), marriage to Owen Tudor 50 n. 10
- Catholicism, state relations within Ireland as affected by Enlightenment 175
- Catholics
nationalism, and the Irish secession from the British empire 183 role in Ireland in relation to James VI and I 166
- Caxton poets and historiography of New Zealand 10–12
- Caxton Press (Christchurch, New Zealand) 10
The Celtic Peoples and Renaissance Europe (Mathews) 27
- Channel Islands
legal status in relation to the crown 154
as part of British history 4
- Charles I 117 concept of kingship 65
religious role of the Three Kingdoms 98 role within the English Civil War 85 and the War of the Three Kingdoms 28–9, 83, 86
- Charles II 117
- exploitation of ecclesiastical fragmentation 115–16
- Chester, legal status in relation to the crown 154
- Christchurch (New Zealand) 12
- church ascendancy, effects on relations with ‘Dissenters’ in Ireland 174
- Church of England 1688 Revolution’s impact 127, 128 insecurity 145 n. 27
James VI and I’s relationship with 52, 53 monarchical control over in England as a symbol of empire 50 monarchy’s headship restored in the 1688 Revolution 168 and the problem of Protestant Succession under the 1688 Revolution 141 ruling structure’s instabilities fuel fear of civil war in the 1688 Revolution 115
- churches
king’s relationship with under the 1603 Union 71 relationship with the Enlightenment concept within the Three Kingdoms 110 role in England and Scotland, as affected by the 1707 Union 168–71 status in the American colonies 111, 149
- churchmen, doubts of the legitimacy of the monarchy after the 1688 Revolution 121
- civil society, and the state 71
- civil wars avoidance by means of standing armies and public credit 123–6 avoidance in Scotland and Ireland during the 1688 Revolution 129–31 concept 86–8
expectations of in the 1688 Revolution 115–21 potential continues after 1688 Revolution 121–3 role within the Wars of the Three Kingdoms 138–9 substitution by party politics 111
- civilization made possible by agriculture 211–12 and the self 213
Tolstaya’s understanding 284–6, 287–8
- clan system, role within Scottish political discourse 61
- Clarendon, Edward Hyde, 1st Earl 86
- Clark, J. C. D. ancien régime thesis 145 n. 27
on the American Revolution as a war of religion 81
- clergy, episcopal clergy dispossessed in Scotland 108

- Cobbett, William, on the Dissolution of the Monasteries 299
- Coke, Sir Edward 70, 71
- Colley, Linda 75
- colonial assemblies 151, 154
- colonialism 6–7, 9, 190
in relation to empire 181–2
in South Africa 189
- colonies
and British history 56 foundation by neo-Britains 187–91
legal status 149–62
see also American colonies; Australia; Canadian colonies; Caribbean colonies; Dominions; New Zealand; South Africa
- colonization, historical perceptions of colonizers 7–9
- commerce, made possible by agriculture 211
- common law 151
practice in Scotland 69
- Commonwealth
effects of British membership of the European Union 260 English possible disregard for 26
relationship with British history 41–2
see also Australia; Canada; New Zealand
- Commonwealth history 190–1 relationship with the concept of nationality held by neo-Britains 191–6
- confederation, application to British history 134
- Conference of Anglo-American Historians (1994) 301
- Conference of First Nations 233
- Constantine the Great (Roman emperor) 72
cult, in the court of James VI and I 51
- Cook Captain James, views of cannibalism 209
- Cookson, J. E. 13
- Cornwall, role within the English Civil War 85
- Cornwallis, Charles Cornwallis, 1st Marquis 177
- corporations 216
- court records 226
- Covenanters, role in the War of the Three Kingdoms 99
- Cowan, Edward 59
- Craig, Sir Thomas (Scottish jurist) on the place of the law under the 1603 Union 68, 70 political discourse about Scotland 58, 74
on the Scottish and English legal systems 53 on Scottish law's historical distinctiveness 58
- Cromwell, Oliver
and the concept of empire 136
reduction of marches to obedience 80, 92, 93 treatment of Scottish medieval records 34

Index

- Cromwellian union (1651–60), effects of Scotland and Ireland 167
- crown authority, after the 1688 Revolution 139
the crown in parliament, and sovereignty 302 English Crown assumes monarchical role over Ireland 50 loyalty to in Ireland rather than to parliament as part of settler nationalism 172 relationship to the churches in the American colonies as a problem of 'empire' 111 relationships with parliament, within Commonwealth history 190
- sovereignty in the Treaty of Waitangi 234, 236–7, 239–41, 243–4 under the Hanoverian régime with regard to the colonies 150–2, 154–60 status as the British crown after the 1603 Union 96 unity with parliament not to be broken by ideas of confederation 172
- Crowns, Union (1603)
English and Scottish views 136 and the union of Great Britain 66–74
- Cumberland, William, Duke of, reduction of marches to obedience 80
- Curnow, Allen 224 n. 38 and the historiography of New Zealand 10, 11–12, 16 writing as 'Whim Wham' 195–6
- Curtin, John (Australian prime minister) 17, 18, 193
- custom, and identity 222
- Cyclopes 205, 208–9
- Dante Alighieri 202
- Davies, Sir John (James I's Attorney General for Ireland)
apologia for conquest 80 on Hibernicization of Anglo-Norman settlers 27, 33
- Davies, Norman, on the separation of Britain from Europe 298
- de Gaulle, Charles (French president), veto on Britain's application to join the European Union 20
- de Guignes, Joseph, on human origins 202
- De laudibus legum Angliae* (Fortescue) 70
- Declaration of Independence 111, 158–60, 161, 173, 309
- Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire* (Gibbon) 199
- decolonization, neo-Britains' experiences 194–5
- Defoe, Daniel
on the 1707 Union as fundamental law 145
on standing armies and public credit 124, 126

- democratic deficit, and the renunciation of sovereignty within Europe 265, 267
- Devine, T. M. 297
- Diderot, Denis 218
- 'Diplomatic Revolution' 147
- Discoverie of the True Causes* . . . (Davies) 27–8
- Dissent 115
- 'dissolutions of government' 138, 139, 146, 159
- 'Dominion' (Fairburn) 192 n. 10
- Dominions relationship to the concept of British history 188–94
see also Australia; Canada; colonies; New Zealand
- Douglas, Archibald, Earl of (Shakespeare, 1 Henry IV) 32
- dreamtime
as basis for claims at law 247–52 separation from history 218–19, 222–4 see also Aborigines
- Durham, legal status in relation to the crown 154
- Dutch history, relevance to the 1688 Revolution 107
- Earthsea 224
- Edward I (king of England), attempts to conquer both Wales and Scotland 47
- Ellesmere, and Viscount Brackley, Sir Thomas Egerton, Baron 70
- Emancipation, difficulties with in Anglo-Irish relations 177
- emigration, in relation to the concept of empire 187–9
- emperors, James VI and I's concept 72
- empire
ambivalences 35 application to British history 134, 136, 137
concept
as affected by Irish secession from the British empire 183–5 as affected by religious establishment 173 as affected by Union with Ireland 176–8 antipodean views 187–98
as applied to the 1707 Union 145–6 and the European Community 280–2 and multiple monarchy 148–62
within British history 262–4
within the new British history 291–2, 298 within the Second Age of Union 186–7 concept as affected by settler nationalism 172 concept as understood in relation to imperialism and colonialism 181–2 Europe's relation to nation-states 287 and the growth of the American colonies 111 loss by England as a threat to nationhood 260–3 as multiple monarchy, within Commonwealth history 190 politics
in the American colonies 111–12 in Ireland during the eighteenth century 112 and the search for identity 308–9 and state 164–5, 167, 169–70 status assumed under the Tudors 50
- England concept of civil war within the First War of the Three Kingdoms 138–40
and the concept of empire 136–8 conquest of its neighbours 47 during 'the long eighteenth century' 168–9 effects of the Norman Conquest 47 government, effects of the 1688 Revolution 142 historiography, in relation to Ireland 36–7 influence on Scottish political discourse 60
James VI and I's relationship with the church 52, 53 legal system, impossibility of any amalgamation with the Scottish legal system under James VI and I 53 nature of the monarchy in relation to both James VI and I and Charles I 64–6 problem of English identity within British history 52–4 role in the Age of the Three Kingdoms 74–5, 80 role in British history with the evolution of the Kingdom of Great Britain 168 role in the War of the Three Kingdoms 86, 86–8, 91, 93 role within British history 30–1, 33–4, 37–40 role within the new British history 94, 96, 297–300 status as a sovereign kingdom 164–5
the union of England and Scotland (1603) 71 views of the 1707 Union 143
as incorporation rather than confederation 145–6
as one of annexation 136
- the English
failure to distinguish between Englishness and Britishness 185 nationhood threatened by the loss of empire 260–3
- English Civil War (1642–6) 54 effects on constitutional history 167 Irish involvement 28 nature 84–6
role in the War of the Three Kingdoms 82, 99–100
see also War of the Three Kingdoms

- English historiography, political discourse 134, 135
- English history, as the dominant conception
within British history 77
- the English problem 47
- Enlightenment 110, 126–7, 132
- anthropological views 199, 214–18
- and belief systems 128
- relations with religion within Irish nationalism 174–6
- role in British history 169
- Escorial, role in monarchical government 73
- Essai sur les Mœurs* (Voltaire) 201, 202–3, 282
- Essay Concerning Human Understanding* (Locke) 127–8
- Established Church see Anglican Church
- established clergy, Whig views 132
- ethnic groups, cultures, in relation to national communities 279–80
- Europe
- and the Atlantic archipelago 78–9
- Britain's role in the struggle against universal monarchy (1793–1815) 113
- concept 90, 264–7
- effects of the collapse of the Soviet Union 276–8
- effects upon the sense of British history 26
- as seen within the European Union 276
- and the concept of empire, in relation to nation-states 287
- historiography, in relation to that of its constituent parts 288
- influence
- on the 1688 Revolution 139–43
- on the concept of nationalism 295
- on the idea of British history x, 22, 134–6
- upon the history of Britain as this affects the concept of empire 186–7, 196–7
- involvement in the 1688 Revolution 168
- lack of identity 309
- relationship with Britain and its effects on British history 47, 47–51
- relationship with Great Britain after the 1707
Union 109–11
- relationship with the Three Kingdoms 107–8
- and the Second War of the Three Kingdoms (1688–91) 93
- European Community, and the concept of empire 280–2
- European historiography and national sovereignties 273–8
- 'European' history 260–1
- European settlements, political resurgence of indigenous peoples 228–33, 253

Index

- European Union
- British membership, and its effects on New Zealand ix, 20–1, 269–72, 275, 288, 290–1
- formation and effects on national sovereignty 275
- membership, effects on United Kingdom
historiography 259–61, 282
- Euroscpticism, and the concept of Europe 264–5
- executive classes, disregard of nationalism 303
- expropriation 214–15
- Fairburn, A. R. D. 192 n. 10
- federative power 232
- Fergus the Conqueror 63, 68
- Ferguson, Adam 210
- Filmer, Sir Robert, anthropology and patriarchy 208
- First British Empire 181, 182
- see also* British empire
- First War of the Three Kingdoms see War of the Three Kingdoms
- Fletcher, Andrew 101
- political theory on the 1707 Union 144, 145
- on standing armies and public credit 124, 126
- Fluellen, Captain (Shakespeare, Henry V) 50 n. 10
- Folger Institute Center for the History of British Political Thought 51, 56, 94, 100, 134 n. 1
- Fortescue, Sir John 53
- on custom and identity 222
- on monarchy 67, 70
- Four Courts explosion (1922) 34
- France
- intervention in post-Restoration politics 140
- national identity achieved in opposition to the English 309
- and the sinking of the Rainbow Warrior 270
- Frederick V (Elector Palatine and King of Bohemia – the Winter King; James VI and I's son-in-law) 66, 72
- Fukuyama, Francis, on history and market forces 286
- Gaeldom, culture 59–60
- Gallicanism, in James VI and I's kingship of Ireland 52
- Gay, Peter 200
- Geoffrey of Monmouth 26
- George III 121
- dynastic legitimacy questioned 172
- indictment by the American colonists 159, 160
- legal status in relation to the colonies 156
- and monarchical political theory 157
- monarchical role 67
- opposition to Union with Ireland 177

- party politics no longer a form of civil war 111–12
- power 149
- views about 147, 148
- Gibbon, Edward 156, 286
- on bardic poetry 213
- dismisses autochthony 199–200
- and Goguet 209–12
- on the re-organization of the English militia 147
- on savagery 208, 212
- on standing armies 124
- use of ‘extensive’ monarchy 143 n. 21
- Ginkel, Godert de, 1st Earl of Athlone, reduction of marches to obedience 80
- Glendower, Owen (Shakespeare, 1 Henry IV) involvement in conspiracy against Henry IV 32
- Glenelg, Charles Grant, Lord (British Colonial Secretary) 234, 235, 236
- on the recognition of rangatiratanga 221–2
- understanding of Aboriginal inhabitants as savages 223
- globalization
- effects on British history 47
- implied by the concept of Europe 196
- as threat to nationalism 303–4
- Glover, Denis 10, 224 nn. 40, 41
- godwits 14
- The Godwits Fly* (Hyde) 14
- Gog 210
- Goguet, Antoine-Yves, anthropology 209, 210–11, 212
- Goodall, Jane 209
- Gordon riots 112, 125
- Gould, Eliga H. 147
- on re-organization of empire 80
- Gowrie conspiracy 66
- Great Britain
- 1603 Union 65–74
- fundamental concepts not achieved 146–8
- Kingdom, exercise of empire 168
- not co-terminous with United Kingdom,
A. J. P. Taylor’s views 24
- relationship with Europe after the 1707 Union 109–11
- see also United Kingdom
- great moa (articulated skeleton) 224
- Greco-Roman culture, understanding of citizenship 206
- Griffin, Patrick 307
- Griffiths, Arthur 40, 41
- Grotius, Hugo 152, 155, 159
- Gunpowder plot 66
- Haida Gwaii (sculpture; Bill Reid) 197–8
- Halfway Round the Harbour* (Sinclair) 14
- Hamilton, Alexander 161
- Hanoverian régime, legitimacy 147–8, 172
- Hanoverians, sovereignty of the crown with regard to colonies 150–2, 153–62
- hapu* 226 n. 1, 234, 238, 240
- Harrington, James, on the English Civil War 86
- Hawaiki 222
- Hedley, Thomas (seventeenth-century MP), on the common law and Parliament’s integrity 53
- Henry IV, conspiracies against as viewed by Shakespeare 32
- Henry V* (Shakespeare) 50 n. 10
- Henry VIII, role in British history 50, 51
- Henry, Robert 26
- Herodotus 73
- Highland charge 92–3
- Highland Clearances 183
- Highlands and Islands, role within British history 31, 32
- Hill, Jacqueline 134 n. 1
- Histoire des Huns, Turcs et Mogols*
(de Guignes) 202
- Historia Majoris Britanniae* (Major) 97
- historians, problems in the writing of history 35–6
- historical imagination 272
- historiography
- and law 226–8, 242, 251
- relations with politics 304–6
- and sovereignty 279–80
- within Scotland 129
- history 283–6
- as affected by the imagination 10–12
- Antipodean viewpoints 301
- concepts 87, 198
- and their bearing on British history 30
- development 269
- and dreamtime 218–19, 224–4, 248–9, 251
- and identity 307–10
- as perceived by colonizers 6–8
- in relation to property 254–5
- in relation to sovereignty 254–5, 259–64, 266, 268, 300, 302, 306
- role in the dialogue between pakeha and tangata whenua 219–20, 230
- Tolstaya’s understanding 284–6, 287–8
- History of Scotland* (Robertson) 129
- Hobbes, Thomas 62, 98–9, 117, 119, 126
- and state of nature 213
- on war 122
- and wars of religion 90

Hobson, Captain (crown representative at the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi) 233 human origins Enlightenment understanding 202–13

Gibbon's interests in 200–2 tangata whenua as metaphor for 202, 203, 204, 207–8, 210, 212

Hume, David 37, 120, 124 on the English Civil War 86
historiography 132
and the history of England 128–9
political theory on the 1707 Union 144
on the re-organization of the English militia 148
use of 'enormous' monarchy 143 n. 21

Hume of Godscroft, David, political discourse about Scotland 58

Hyde, Robin 14

identity
apart from the concept of Britishness 186 and custom 222
and history 307–10

imagination, effects upon the sense of history 10–12 imperialism 6 and Britishness 186

in relation to empire 181–2

Inchiquin, Murrough O'Brien, Earl of 91, 92

India
and the concept of empire 181, 182
Scottish influence over the British empire in India 186 indigenous discourse (te reo Maori) 232

indigenous peoples
colonial relations with 188, 189
political resurgence in former British and European settlements 228–33, 253 individualism possessive individualism as definition of humanness 203–6 within pakeha discourse 215 individuals, identity as contingent 246

Indo-Germanic agnatic communities, concept 217 industrialism, and Britishness 185–6

information explosion 196
as threat to nationalism 303–4

inherent rights 233

Ireland
civil war avoided during the 1688 Revolution 129–31 conquest during the 1688 Revolution 109
effects of the 1688 Revolution 141
effects on British history 29
English crown assumes monarchical role over 50

historiography, and the impact of English history 36–8 involvement in the War of the Three Kingdoms 28–9

James VI and I's kingship 51

legal status in relation to the crown 154

nature as an island 55

parliament, evolution within the Free State 184

as part of the British empire 181 political claims for relations with the English government, late eighteenth century 162–3 and the politics of empire during the eighteenth century 112 relationship with Anglo-Norman England 47

relationship with Great Britain after the 1707 Union 109–11

role in the Age of the Three Kingdoms 74, 75, 80
in British history 31–2, 37–40
in the new British history 94, 95, 97–103
in the War of the Three Kingdoms 54, 86, 88, 88–90, 90–3 Scottish origins within 63

secession from the British empire 182–5 secession from the concept of British history x–xi seen as engendering civil war in England 167

settler nationalism 171–2

tenancy law reform, early seventeenth century 27–8

Union with, effects upon the concept of empire 176–8

views of the 1707 Union 143

wars of religion and nationalism 174–6

William III's policies 122

within British history 164, 164–7, 169–70
see also Northern Ireland

Irish Confederates, role in the Wars of the Three Kingdoms 99, 101

Irish diaspora, effects on British history 41

Irish Famine, and the diaspora 183

Irish history compared with American history 296
in relation to British history 77–8, 293

Irish nationalism
in relation to the new British history 296, 299
role in British history 302–3

Irish Republic and the concept of empire within the Atlantic archipelago 309 sovereignty, and the sense of empire 263–4

Irish Troubles, as reinforcement of empire within the Atlantic archipelago 263–4

Islam, and the indeterminacy of Europe 266

- islands, nature 55
- Isle of Man, legal status in relation to the crown 154
- Israel, and the covenant as evidence of human origins 205
- iwi* 201, 226 n. 1, 231 n. 5, 235, 240
- Jacobitism 121
- James VI and I
- and the concept of empire 137
 - and monarchical political theory 64–6, 157
 - monarchical role in relation to Ireland 167
 - political theory 51–3, 60, 61
 - about Scotland 58, 62, 63
 - of monarchy 81, 83
 - religious role of the Three Kingdoms 98, 101
- James VII and II
- actions in the 1688 Revolution avoid civil war 117–19, 121
 - attempts to reorganize control of the American colonies 131
 - effects of his flight 141–2
 - exploitation of ecclesiastical fragmentation 115–16
 - expulsion during the 1688 Revolution 168
 - use of a standing army avoids civil war 112
- Jihad v McWorld* (Barber) 267
- Johnston of Warriston, personal papers as evidence of political thought in seventeenth-century Scotland 34
- Jones, Colonel Michael 91
- jurisprudence 216
- bicultural jurisprudence applied to the Treaty of Waitangi 242–7, 252
 - pakeha* and tangata whenua views 220, 221
 - practice 227
 - and the understanding of human origins 203–6
 - use of whenua 247–51
- jus* 204
- jus gentium* 228, 229–30, 252
- application to indigenous peoples when party to treaties 231–3
- kawanata* 238
- kawanatanga* 222, 226 n. 1, 238
- Kearney, Hugh 77
- kilstlaai* (shaman) 197
- kingdoms, and marches 79–81
- 'king's two bodies' see James VI and I, political discourse
- kiwis 14
- Knox, John, political discourse about Scotland 58
- land
- links with tangata whenua, and claims of right 200
 - title to land, as conceptualized under the Treaty of Waitangi 236–7
- land tenure, as property, in relation to monarchical rule 79
- Landsman, Ned 134 n. 1
- language
- appropriation 213
- law and historiography 226–8, 242, 251
- indigenous people's understanding and practice 228–9
 - making 237
 - politics, applied to links between peoples and their land 200
 - and poetry, Goguet's views 210–11
 - status under the 1707 Union 68–71
- law codes 226–7
- Le Gros, Antoinette (author's mother) 4
- Le Guin, Ursula K. 224 n. 37
- legal systems, failure to unite the Scottish and English legal systems under James VI and I 53
- Levack, Brian, The Formation of the British State 71
- Leviathan* (Hobbes) 117
- Lewis, C. S., use of term 'Scotch' 25
- and wars of religion 90
- liberty, and authority, within political structures 306
- Limerick, Treaty 109
- Lindsay, Sir David 64
- literacy levels, links with high levels of government control 34–5
- Locke, John 125, 126
- on the acquisition of property in land by cultivation 235
 - on 'dissolution of government' 139
 - expectation of civil war 117, 118, 119, 120, 121
 - on federative power 232
 - on knowledge 127–8
 - repudiates Molyneux's settler nationalism 130
 - theory of revolution 146
- Louis XIV (king of France) 100, 168
- MacArthur, Douglas 18
- Macaulay, Catharine 120
- Macaulay, Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1st Baron 118, 119, 124, 147
- MacColla, Alasdair 92, 93, 99–100
- MacDiarmid, Hugh 38
- Macfarlane, Alan, on possessive individualism 204
- McHugh, Paul 228 n.3

- MacInnes, Allan 101
 on the Covenanters' role in the War of the Three Kingdoms 99
- Mackay, Jessie 192 n.11
- Macpherson, C. B., on possessive individualism 204
- macron vowels 25
- Madison, James 161
- Magna Carta* 244
- Magog 210
- Mair, John
Historia Majoris Britanniae 97
 political discourse about Scotland 58, 59, 60, 67, 75
The Making of Modern Ireland (Beckett) 28
- mana* 21, 226 n.1
- manawhenua* 240–1, 252
- Manwaring, Roger 68
- Maori
 as affected by colonization 7, 9
 colonial relations with 189 history, and pakeha history, in relationship to New Zealand historiography 296 origins of the word 234 and pakeha
 debates over sovereignty 270 dialogue between in the light of the new British history 290 property ownership 252–3 rights, under the Treaty of Waitangi 247–9 sovereignty 188
 exercise in relation to the Treaty of Waitangi 243–5
- marae* 226 n.1, 252
- marches, and kingdoms 79–81
- market forces, and history 286
- Marlborough, John Churchill, 1st Duke of, use of public credit to pay his armies 123
- Marxism, criticisms of property ownership 253
- masculine imagery, use in accounts of human origins 205
- Mason, Roger A., on political discourse and the 'matter of Scotland' 58, 59
- Mathews, David 27
- Maui 247
- Medbury School, author attends 4 n. 2
- Meek, Ronald 210, 212
- Melville, Andrew, political discourse about Scotland 58, 62, 65
- Middle Earth 224
- militia
 English militia, re-organization as a home-defence army under the Hanoverians 147–8 monarchical control, as means of avoiding civil war 117
- missionary Maori 237

- moana* 5
- Molyneux, William 101, 103, 130
- monarchy
 emergence of national monarchies 58 extension as a result of the 1688 Revolution 143 legitimacy after 1688 Revolution 121 political nature within England and its influence upon both James VI and I and Charles I 64–6 political nature within Scotland 63–4, 65–6 relations with the churches, and the 1688 Revolution 116, 117 religious role of the Three Kingdoms 98–9 role in Ireland 101, 103 role in relation to the churches in both England and Scotland at the time of the 1707 Union 168–9 role separated from that of Parliament in the American Revolution 101 within the Age of the Three Kingdoms 137 see also crowns; Crowns, Union (1603); multiple monarchy; sovereignty
- Monasteries, Dissolution 299
- money, use as a mark of civilization 211
- Montrose, James Graham, Marquis of 100 involvement in the English Civil War 28
 role in the War of the Three Kingdoms 88–9, 91
- Morgan, Hiram, on Ireland's role in the War of the Three Kingdoms and marches 79, 90, 92
- Morrill, John
 on the English Civil War 83
 on 'wars of religion' 90
- Mountjoy and Earl of Devonshire, Charles Blount, 8th Lord, reduction of marches to obedience 80
- multiple monarchy and the causes of the War of the Three Kingdoms 80, 81, 82, 83–4, 86, 89, 91–2 and empire 148–62
 under the Stuarts 137 within the Atlantic archipelago and Europe 79
 within British history 135
 within Commonwealth history 190
- myths, in settler history 8–9
- Napier, John, political discourse about Scotland 58
The Narrow Road to the Deep North (Basho) 54
- nation-states
 and British history 268
 Europe's relationship with, in the light of the concept of empire 287 obsolescence 261

- national communities, relationship with ethnic sub-cultures 279–80
- national histories 95
within Commonwealth history 191
- nationalism
democratic nationalism, in Ireland 177–8 denied within the concept of Europe 266 effects on British history 302–4, 306–7 promotion as a means to attack the concept of British history 261 settler nationalism 130
threats to 303–4
within the new British history 293–300
- nationality, bearing upon British history 30–1
- nationhood, indigenous people's claims to 232
- nature, state of, in legal terms 152
- neo-Britains and decolonization 194–5 foundation of the colonies 187–91
nationality, in the context of the Commonwealth 191–6 and the problem of sovereignty 302
- neolithic revolution 208
- new British history
and the concept of empire 291–2
politics 289–91
problems with the concept 94–6, 102–3
in relation to British history 292–3 relationship with nationalism 293–300
- New English, settler nationalism 171–2
- New Light Presbyterianism 173
- New Zealand
as affected by Britain's decision to join the European Union ix, 20–1, 259–60, 269–72, 275, 288, 290–1
colonial status 189
colonization 4–7
historical imagination 272
historiography
as affected by the Caxton poets 10–12 as affected by the growth of Maori-centred narratives 9 development 13–16
Maori sovereignty 188
as the relationship between pakeha history and Maori history 296 Second World War to date 16–19 as a part of British history x, 3–23 referred to as Aotearoa 226 n. 1 role in the Second World War 193–4
sovereignty 198, 302
basis upon the Treaty of Waitangi 233, 234
viewpoints on history 301
see also colonies; Commonwealth; Dominions
- New Zealand Company 235
- New Zealand Historical Association 290
- New Zealand Journal of History* 13
- New Zealanders, creation of identity 309–10
- Ngai Tahu 216, 220, 221, 222
- Nicholls, Mark 97
- Nimrod, depiction as a Titan 202, 207
- Nine Years War (Ireland) 166
- Noachic paradigm of human origins 202, 220–1
- nomadism 210
- Norman Conquest
effects on British history 31–2, 39
effects on England 48 influence upon political developments within Scotland 63
- 'North Britons' 37
- Northern Ireland 296 influence on the concept of empire within British history 264
see also Ireland
- Northumbria, role within British history 31, 32
- Oakeshott, Michael 281
- Odysseus 255
- Ohlmeyer, Jane 89 n. 17, 103
on French and Spanish intervention in the War of the Three Kingdoms 91 on the Marquis of Antrim 92–3 use of the term 'War of the Three Kingdoms' 100
- Old English
loyalty to the Stuarts, as dominant theme in the Irish role in British history 96, 98–9, 100–1 settler nationalism 102–3, 171–2
- O'Leary, William (Arawata Bill) 224
- Oliver, W. H. 15–16
- O'Mahoney, Conor 96, 99
- orang-utans, Enlightenment understanding 209
- O'Regan, Sir Tipene 224–5, 254
on ivi contests for primacy 248–9
- De l'Origine des Loix, des Arts et des Sciences* (Goguet) 211
- Ormonde, James Butler, 12th Earl and 1st Duke of 28, 91, 92
- Ossian 211
- 'the Other' 305, 309, 310
- Owen, J. B. 13

Paine, Thomas 112, 121
pakeha (Europeans) 226 n. 1, 237 characterized as tangata waka, and their rights in relation to those of the Maori 250 colonization of New Zealand 5–6, 11 dialogue with tangata whenua 213–17 discourse on anthropology 215–18, 223 identity 307, 308
 and Maori
 debates over sovereignty 270 dialogue, in the light of the new British history 290
 histories in relationship to New Zealand
 historiography 296
 political philosophy 204 property ownership as criticized by Marxists 253 Panama, and the protein bridge 16 parliament
 disaffection from as part of settler nationalism 172 political role in the early seventeenth century 64 role separated from that of the monarchy in the American Revolution 101
 unity with the crown not to be broken by ideas of confederation 172 parliaments
 1707 Union 143–4
 relationship with the crown, within Commonwealth history 190
 party politics, as a form of civil war 111–12 patriarchy, within human evolution 208–9 patriotism, emergence in the eighteenth century 147–8
 peerage, political role in England 64
The People with No Name (Griffin) 307 Percy, Henry (Hotspur) (Shakespeare, 1 Henry IV) 32 personality, Maori sense, as basis of claims to rights 247–50
 Peters, Marie 13
 Phillips, N. C. 13
 Pitt the Elder (William Pitt, 1st Earl of Chatham) 148
 Plato 206
 ploughs, and possessive individualism 204, 207, 208, 210, 211, 212
 Pocock, J. G. A.
 understanding of British history x, 3–4, 9–10, 13, 19
 visit to Europe (1989) 272–3 voyage to New Zealand 269–72 Pocock, John Thomas (author's great-great uncle) 3

Pocock, Lewis Greville (author's father) 3 Pocock, Lewis Greville (author's great-grandfather) 3 Pocock, Mary Agard (author's aunt) 3 poetry bardic poetry 213
 and law, Goguet's views 210–11
 Pole, J. R., on the American Revolution 29, 40
polis, origins 205 polite society 206
 political radicalism, and anti-popery 112 Political Representation in England . . . (Pole) 29 politics, relations with historiography 304–6 Polynesians, colonization of New Zealand 5
 Polyphemus 205
 Pont, Robert, political discourse about Scotland 58 Popper, Karl 206
 post-colonialism 6, 308 post-modernism 268, 287, 307 ideology 283–4, 285–6 Pownall, Thomas, on the legal status of the colonies 154–5, 156, 159
 predestination, William III's reported remark to Gilbert Burnet (5 November 1688) 114, 116 Prendergast, Chief Justice on the importance of sovereignty in relation to entering into treaty relationships 222 on the legal force of the Treaty of Waitangi 245 Price, Richard 120, 121 property acquisition of property in land by cultivation 235 concept in relation to history 254–5 as understood by pakeha 216
 property ownership 246
pakeha and Maori attitudes towards 252–4
 as understood in the Treaty of Waitangi 240–1, 244, 252–3
 property rights, pakeha and tangata whenua views 221–2
 protein bridges 190, 193, 194
 New Zealand's involvement with 16, 17, 18
 Protestant Reformation, in Scotland 166 Protestants, loyalism within Ireland 176 public credit 142
 as means to avoid civil war 123–6
 Pufendorf, Samuel, Freiherr von 152, 155, 159
 Pym, John 68
 Quebec Act (1774) 157, 173
 Quinn, David, on the colonization of Atlantic America 296
 'the rage of party' 121

- Rainbow Warrior*, sinking 270 rangatiratanga 226 n. 1, 238–9, 240
 Rapin de Thoyras, Paul 119
 Rational Dissent 170, 173 rebellion, universal right 172
 recolonization 194
 Reformation, in England and Scotland 66
 Reid, Bill (sculptor) 197, 198 religion, relations with Enlightenment within Irish nationalism 174–6
 religious establishment, effects upon the concept of empire 173
 resentment, culture 13
 Revolution (1688)
 civil war avoided in both Scotland and Ireland 129–31 contexts within the Three Kingdoms and Europe 107–8
 effects on the American colonies 131–2 effects of continental power politics 140–3 and the expectation of civil war 115–21
 historiography 140
 impact on the Anglican Church 127, 128 and the legitimacy of the régime 121–2 and the restoration of the monarchy as head of the Anglican Church 167
 Robertson, John 145, 153
 Robertson, William 73, 129
 Roman Empire, relations with the Atlantic archipelago 30 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques on heroic nature 218 on human potential 207
 political theory 144–5
 Royal Supremacy 52, 99
 Russell, Conrad 81–2, 83, 86
 Russell, Lord John (British Prime Minister) 234, 235, 236
 Russia, civilization and history 284–5
 Rutherford, Samuel, political discourse about Scotland 58

 Sacheverell riots 125 sacred history, as contribution to the understanding of human origins 202–3
 St Heliers (Jersey), author visits (1950) 4
 Sarpi, Pietro, Fra Paolo 98
Satyre of the Thrie Estaitis (Lindsay) 64
 savages
 Glenelg's understanding of 223 term not applied to the Maori 234, 245–6 term used in describing humans in a presocial state 207–8, 212, 215
 'Scotch', use of the term 25

 Scotland
 anti-popery as a substitute for political radicalism 112 attitudes to the 1707 Union 168 church-state relations, in the light of the 1707
 Union 170–1
 civil war avoided during the 1688 Revolution 129–31
 civil war within the First War of the Three Kingdoms 138–9, 140, 167
 Henry VIII's policies towards 51 historical writing within 129 historiography, and the invention of British history 37
 impact upon the concept of the union of Great Britain 67–74
 importance for the British empire in India 186 involvement in the War of the Three Kingdoms 28–9
 James VI and I's relationship with the church 52, 53
 legal system, not united with that of England under James VI and I 53 nationalism, and the 'breakup of Britain' 262–3
 political discourse 58–66 presbyterian effects in the light of the 1688 Revolution 142
 relationship with Anglo-Norman England 48
 role in the 1707 Union 101, 137, 144
 in the Age of the Three Kingdoms 74–5, 80
 in British history 30–2, 38–40
 in the new British history 94
 in the War of the Three Kingdoms 33–4, 54, 86, 88–9, 91, 93, 100
 status as a sovereign kingdom 164, 166, 167
 Scots, acceptance of Britishness 185 Scots-Irish 171, 175
 Scott, Jonathan 155
 Scottish Enlightenment 110
 Scottish historiography, political discourse 134, 135
The Scottish Nation (Devine) 297
 Scottish nationalism 291
 in relation to the new British history 295–6, 299
 role in British History 302
 Seattle, Chief 217
 Second Age of Union (1801–1921) as affected by Irish distinctness from the concept of Britishness 183–4
 and the concept of empire 186–7
 deconstruction 181, 182–3 engendering of democratic nationalism in Ireland 177–8

342

- Second British Empire 181, 182
- Second War of the Three Kingdoms see War of the Three Kingdoms
- Second World War, effects on New Zealand's historiography 16, 17–18
- the Self
 - and civilization 213
 - concept, in the understanding of human origins 207
 - identity in relation to the Other 305, 309, 310
- settler cultures, viewpoints on history 301
- settler nationalism 171–3, 290
- Shakespeare, William
 - Henry V* 50 n.10
 - views of conspiracies against Henry IV 32
- Sharp, Andrew 255
- shepherding, role in human evolution 210
- Sidney, Algernon 63
- Sinclair, Keith, and New Zealand historiography 13–14, 19
- Smith, Adam 210
- Smith, David L. 97
- Social Science and the Noble Savage* (Meek) 210
- socialization, as the mark of humanity 215–16
- soldiery, political awareness, in the English Civil War 85
- 'Song of the Drift' (Mackay) 192 n. 11
- South Africa
 - colonial status 189
 - colonization 7
 - and the problem of empire over non-European peoples 191
 - see also* Cape Town; colonies
- South African war (1899–1902), neo-Britains' involvement 192–3
- 'sovereign state', obsolescence 261
- sovereignty 246, 253
 - concept
 - after the 1688 Revolution 119–22
 - in relation to history 254–5
 - debates between Maori and pakeha 270
 - as empire 309
 - and historiography 279–80, 300, 302, 306
 - indigenous people's claims to 230, 232, 233, 235–7
 - maintenance as established under the Act in Restraint of Appeals (1533) 141
 - national sovereignties in relation to Europe 260–1, 273–8, 281–2
 - in relation to history 259–64, 266, 268
 - renunciation within Europe leads to democratic deficit 265, 267
 - roles within British history 306–7
 - and treaty relationships 222
 - Tully's understanding 197–8

Index

- as used in the Treaty of Waitangi 238–41, 243–5
- Soviet Union, collapse, and effects on the concept of 'Europe' 276–8
- spontaneous generation, Gibbon's repudiation 200
- Springborg, Patricia 205–6
- Stamp Act (1765) 149
- standing armies 142
 - as means to avoid civil war 122–6
- the state
 - and civil society 71
 - and empire 164–5, 167, 168–70
 - German concept 254
 - responses to nationalism within Ireland 176
 - 'state of nature' 159
- states, sovereignty in relation to history 259–64, 266, 268
- Statute of Wales (1536) 165
- Stevenson, David, on Alasdair MacColla 92
- Strange Multiplicity* (Tully) 197
- Stuart, Charles Edward ('Bonnie' Prince Charlie) 147
- Stuart, James Francis Edward (son of James VII and II) 141
- Stuarts, as a multiple monarchy 137
- Suez, and the protein bridge 16, 17
- Supplément à la Voyage de Bougainville* (Diderot) 218
- Switzerland, confederation, as model for Europe 144
- Tacitus, description of the German forest peoples, as used by Gibbon 199–200, 208, 211, 212
- Tahitians, Diderot's views of 217
- 'Take Your Time, History' (Curnow) 195
- tangata whenua* 5, 7, 11, 199, 226 n.1, 240
 - anthropology 217–19
 - as basis for claims at law 220–22, 247
 - dialogue with pakeha 213–17
 - links with land, and claims of right 200
 - used of history and dreamtime 222–24
 - used of human origins 202, 203, 204, 207–8, 210, 212
- taniwha* 217
- taonga* 21
- taxation, and the American colonies 151
- Taylor, A. J. P., denies meaning to the term 'Britain' 24–6, 27
- te reo Maori* (indigenous discourse) 232
- Te Wai Pounamu 224
- Thirty Years War, and the War of the Three Kingdoms 107

- Three Kingdoms
Ireland's role 97–100 relationship with Europe 107–8 see also Age of the Three Kingdoms; War of the Three Kingdoms
- Tolkien, J. R. R. 224 n. 37
- Tolstaya, Tatyana, understanding of history and civilization 284–5, 286
- Tompson, Richard S. 77
- treaties, basis on jus gentium when concluded with indigenous peoples 230–3
- Treatises of Government* (Locke) 117, 119, 120, 121
- treaty relationships, and sovereignty 222
- Trenchard, John, on standing armies and public credit 124
- Trew lawe of free monarchies* (James VI and I) 66
- tribes, as recognized by treaties 231
- Tudor, Owen, marriage to Catherine of France (widow of Henry V) 50 n. 10
- Tudors concepts of empire 50, 145
sovereignty 119
- Tully, James, on sovereignty 197–8
turangawaewae 226 n. 1, 247, 250
- Turenne, Henri de la Tour d'Auvergne, Vicomte de 123
- Two Bodies, monarchical concept 64–5, 67–9, 70, 71, 72–4
- Tyrene, Hugh O'Neill, 2nd Earl, rebellion 79
- Ulster, colonization, effects on Ireland's role in British history 166–7
- Ulster Protestants, Unionism 184–5
- Ulster Scots, settler nationalism 171
- 'The Unhistoric Story' (Curnow) 196
- Union (1707) 39–40, 262
effects 108–9
on relationship between Great Britain and Europe 109–11
as incorporation rather than confederation 145–6 Scottish attitudes towards 168 views of 143–5
- Union (1800–1) 164
- Unionism, as affected by Irish secession from the British empire 184–5
- United Irishmen 112 national republicanism becomes republican nationalism 174
- United Kingdom
English possibly disregard 26 history, as affected by European Union membership 259–61
- loss of national sovereignty and membership of the European Union 275–6, 282 not co-terminous with Great Britain, A. J. P. Taylor's views 24 see also Great Britain
- United States
history 78
immigration from the British Isles 187
role in the Second World War 193
treaties with indigenous peoples 233
- Ussher, James (Archbishop of Armagh) 99
- Utrecht, Treaty (1713) 110, 147
- vagrancy 209–11
- Vattel, Emmerich de 152, 155, 159
- Versailles, role in monarchical government 73
- Voltaire 282
on human origins 201, 202–3
- Volunteer movement 130
- Wace (Norman chronicler) 4
- Wade, Field Marshal George, reduction of marches to obedience 80
- Waitangi, Treaty 220, 221
as basis of New Zealand's sovereignty 233–7 bicultural interpretation 242–7, 252 effects on New Zealand's history 260 exercise of sovereignty under 243–5 Maori claims 247–49 sovereignty defined 238–42 variant texts 237
- Waitangi Tribunal 243–6, 249, 253
- waka* 5, 201, 226 n. 1
- Wales incorporation into England (1536) 50, 165
legal status in relation to the crown 154
role in the Age of the Three Kingdoms 74
in British history 31, 303
in the English Civil War 84, 85
- Wallenstein, Albrecht Wenzel Eusebius von 123
- War of the English Succession 142, 168
- War of the Rough Wooing 51
- War of the Three Kingdoms 28–9, 80–1, 100, 164, 167
and civil war 138–40 and the English problem 54–5
nature 88–90
and role of monarchy 81–4, 86
Scotland's role 32–4
Second War of the Three Kingdoms 93, 100 see also English Civil War (1642–6); Three Kingdoms

344 warfare, involvement of the Dominions in twentieth-century wars, and the effect on relationships with British history 192–4 ‘wars of religion’ 90–1 Wars of the Three Kingdoms see War of the Three Kingdoms

 Washington, George 172
 Wellington 12
 Welsh acceptance of Britishness 185 claim on the title of ‘Britons’ 67 use of terms ‘British’ and ‘Britain’ after 1536 incorporation 97
 Western civilization, as distinct from ‘Europe’ 271 whakapapa 3, 5 whenua 5, 240
 use in jurisprudence 247–51
 Whig history, interpretations of the 1688
 Revolution 114–33, 131
 ‘Whim Wham’ (Allen Curnow) 195–6
 Whitehall, role in monarchical government 73
Wi Parata v. Bishop of Wellington 245
 Wilkes, John 121
 William III
 conquest of Ireland 109

Index

European policy and the Second War of the Three Kingdoms 100
 policies in connection with the 1688 Revolution 107, 108, 114–15, 116, 129, 140–2
 popular title of argued by Locke 120
 use of a standing army avoids civil war 122–3
 William the Conqueror 67
 Williamson, Arthur
 James VI and I’s concept of emperorship 72 political discourse about Scotland 58
 Wolfe Tone, Theobald 172, 176 women, role in society 213, 305 World Wars, neo-Britains’ involvement 193–4 Wormald, Jenny
 on the clan system in Scotland 61 on differences between levels of private and public violence 80 effects of union on English political theory 70
 Yeats, W. B. 38
 York, James VI and I’s proposal to establish seat of government at 72, 73
 Yugoslavia, and the indeterminacy of Europe 266