

Index

- access pricing (entry cost to market participation) 57, 198, 220
- access to basic needs constitutive elements of economic security as divine gift 77 modern Catholic social documents 104–106
 New Testament 87–88
 patristic literature 92–94
 restoration, biblical principle of 126–27
- agricultural protectionism 178, 209–12
- ameliorative action 204–209
 LDC farmers 207–209
 OECD farmers 204–207
 restitution 209
 restoration 204, 209
- arguments against 183–85
- arguments in favor of 179–83
- collective duties to all community members 191–95
- common good as due order 186–96
- common good as due proportion 196–203
- commutative and legal justice 186–89, 206
- competing claims, ordering (lexical rules) 185–86, 202–203
- distributive justice 189–96
- environmental responsibility 195–96
- geographic or specialty labeling restrictions as alternative to 205
- historical background 179, 180
- LDC farmers see less developed country (LDC) farmers and agricultural protectionism
- marginalized persons, communal duty regarding 190–91
- moral evaluation of 185–203
- OECD see Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and agricultural protectionism
- regressive distribution of public benefits and burdens 196–202
- restoration, biblical principle of 204, 209
- rights-based framework, use of 185–86
- statistics regarding current practices 181
- Alt, Albrecht 135
- Ambrose of Milan (St.) 95, 98
- ameliorative action
 agricultural protectionism case study see agricultural protectionism communal responsibility for 36–41, 218, 219 rights-based model used to design and execute 175, 204–209
- Anderson, Kym 184, 185, 188, 197, 199, 207, 211
- Apostolic Constitutions 98
- Aquinas (St. Thomas) 65–66, 93, 101, 106
- Argentina, effects of agricultural protectionism on 185
- Aristotle
 Aquinas, influence on 101 mixed action account of economic compulsion 4–5, 17, 214
- Augustine of Hippo (St.) 95, 99
- Baer, Dean 207
- bargaining position approach to economic compulsion (McGregor) 8–12
- Basil the Great (St.) 92, 96, 97
- Becker, Gary 46, 220
- Berlin, Isaiah 130
- Bible see entries at Hebrew scriptures; New Testament; individual books
- Birch, Bruce 128
- bounded rationality of economic agents 25 corporate or communal agency 25, 36
 nonmoral account of economic compulsion (Zimmerman) 35–36 remote cause of economic compulsion 31–33 social valuation based on 52
- Bowles, Samuel 52
- Brueggemann, Walter 127
- Buchanan, James 50

242

Cahill, Lisa Sowle 150, 169, 176
 capitalism, moral foundations of 224–26 charity, social obligation of see community and sociality Chrysostom (St. John) 95, 96, 97, 98
 Clark, J. B. 53
 Clarke, Thomas 93
 Clement of Alexandria 93, 95, 97, 98
 Clement of Rome 98
 Coase, Ronald 217
 coercion, economic, compulsion vs. 12–16, 142; see also economic compulsion Coleman, John 144, 151, 176
 common good as due order 152–58, 186–96
 common good as due proportion 170, 196–203
 community and sociality 218, 219 ameliorative action, responsibility for 36–41, 218, 219
 capitalism, moral foundations of 224–26 corporate or communal economic agency 36–41
 economic security as divine gift, constitutive elements of 77
 Hebrew scriptures 83–84
 modern Catholic social documents 106–107
 New Testament 88–89
 patristic literature 95–97 relationships central to rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 153–58
 restoration, biblical principle of personal and collective responsibility for 129
 social safeguards institutionalized parallel to marketplace 122–23 community members agricultural protectionism and collective duties to 191–95
 social and instrumental rights for 163–65 commutative justice 152, 186–89, 206 compensatory disproportionalities 55–57 competing rights-claims, lexical rules for ordering see lexical rules for ordering competing rights-claims compulsion see economic compulsion consumption tax 206
 consumption-distress loans 113
 Corn Laws (Great Britain) 179 corporate effort see community and sociality Covenant Code (Exodus) and principle of restoration 112, 137
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 167
 slave manumission 116, 118
 Cranston, Maurice 161
 creation narratives (Genesis) 77, 93, 109

Index

credit markets, access to 57–63
 Cyprian 97, 100
 Dahlman, Carl 217
 Day, Dorothy 71
 debt and biblical principle of restoration 113–16; see also restoration, Biblical principle of Deuteronomic Code and principle of restoration 112, 137
 rehabilitation rather than just relief 127
 rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion 167
 sabbatical principle, as appropriation of 133
 slave manumission 116, 118
Didache 98
Didascalía apostolorum 98 dignity and human rights 144, 176, 217 disproportionate effects of pecuniary externalities see regressive effects of pecuniary externalities
 distributive justice 152, 189–96, 204 divine gift, economic security as see economic security as divine gift due order, common good as 152–58, 186–96 due proportion, common good as 170, 196–203 Dutch markets' role in early modern commercial revolution 37 ecological responsibility 157, 195–96 economic agents atomization of 23–25, 31–33
 corporate or communal agency 36–41 see also bounded rationality of economic agents economic argument for amelioration of economic distress 220 economic coercion, compulsion vs. 12–16, 142 economic compulsion 3, 41–42 bargaining position approach (McGregor) 8–12
 capitalism, moral foundations of 224–26 coercion vs. compulsion 12–16, 142 communal responsibility for ameliorating 36–41
 consequential vs. trivial 16–17, 150, 175, 221 defining 17–19, 214 expectations regarding what is and is not acceptable 221–24
 mainstream economic thought's denial of 3 marketplace elements contributing to 19–31 (see also marketplace elements contributing to economic compulsion) mixed action account (Aristotle) 4–5, 17, 214 moral baseline account (Wertheimer) 5–7 nonmoral account (Zimmerman) 5–7, 35–36

- normalcy criterion approach, criticism of 8–12 proximate causes 33–35 reasons for concern regarding 217–21 remote causes 31–33
 theories of 4–12
 unintended effects see externalities; pecuniary externalities
- economic security as divine gift 77, 109–10, 219;
see also access to basic needs; community and sociality; personal responsibilities constitutive elements of 77 Hebrew scriptures 77; see also Hebrew scriptures, economic security as divine gift in modern Catholic social documents 103–109
 New Testament 87–92
 access to basic needs 87–88
 community and sociality 88–89
 personal responsibilities 89
 patristic literature 92–100
 access to basic needs 92–94
 community and sociality 95–97
 personal responsibilities 97–99 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion adapting vision of 144–46, 167–69, 175 scholastic just price theory 100–103
- Engel's Law 206
- entry cost to market participation (access pricing) 57, 198, 220
- environmental responsibility 157, 195–96
- Epiphanius 98
Epistle to Diognetus 99
- Erhlich, Paul 30
- eschatological aspects of biblical principle of restoration 133, 135
- European Union (EU), agricultural protectionism in 181, 184, 185, 196–99, 200, 201
- Exodus, Covenant Code and principle of restoration 112, 137 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 167
 slave manumission 116, 118
- expectations regarding what is and is not acceptable 221–24
- externalities
 participation in market generating nonpecuniary network externalities 37, 38 regressive effects see regressive effects of pecuniary externalities technological vs. pecuniary externalities 27–31, 213 see also pecuniary externalities
- FDIs (foreign direct investments) 63–65
 Feinberg, Joel 168–69
 Fièvez, Dominique 200
 foreign direct investments (FDIs) 63–65
 France, effects of agricultural protectionism in 200
 Fraser, Nancy 222
- freedom of association, constraints on 19–22, 31–33 freedom of market participants 38 Friedman, Milton 19
 full transaction costs 48, 58, 68–70, 73, 74, 220
- Gaudium et Spes* (Vatican Council II) 107, 129
- gender-based social valuation 54–55 Genesis and creation narratives 77, 93, 109 gentrification 72
 Gewirth, Alan 144, 151
 Gintis, Herbert 52
 global trade, effects of 66, 72, 212, 215–17 Goldin, Ian, and Knudsen, Odin 188, 208 goods of the earth responsibility of caring for 157, 195–96 universal destination of 104
- Gordon, Barry 88, 91, 92, 96, 99
- Gregory of Nyssa (St.) 92
- Hebrew scriptures
 belonging, significance of Hebrew sense of 141 economic security as divine gift in 77
 community and sociality 83–84
 conditional nature of God's promise on human response 81–83 Genesis narratives 77, 93
 historicity 78–81
 land, centrality of 78
 personal responsibilities 84–86
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 144–46, 167–69, 175 Sabbath legislation 81
 restoration see restoration, biblical principle of Sabbath legislation
 economic security as divine gift 81
 restoration, biblical principle of 133–35, 138
- Hehir, Bryan 107
- Hekscher-Ohlin model 215
- Hirschman, Albert 32
- Holiness Code (Leviticus) and principle of restoration 112, 137
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 168
 sabbatical principle, as appropriation of 133
 slave manumission 118

244

- Hollenbach, David 148–50, 151, 158, 160, 171, 176, 202–203 household production model 46, 63, 220 human development index 190 human dignity as justification for human rights 144, 176, 217 human rights see rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion
- IMF (International Monetary Fund) 194 income constraint 47
 incomplete markets 66–68 individual rights and responsibilities. see entries at personal instrumental rationality 25 interest and biblical principle of restoration ancient Near Eastern interest rates 114 ban on charging interest on fellow Hebrews in law codes 114, 116 International Monetary Fund (IMF) 194 international trade, effects of 66, 72, 212, 215–17
- Japan, agricultural protectionism in 181, 196–99, 200
 John Chrysostom (St.) 95, 96, 97, 98
 John XXIII
Mater et Magistra 106–107
Pacem in Terris 143, 148–50, 151, 153, 171, 176
 John Paul II see Laborem Exercens Jubilee Law and principle of restoration debt legislation 115
 land return 118–20
 messianic typology of 135 progressive vs. regressive structure 124
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 167
 slave manumission 116, 117 just price, scholastic doctrine of custom, law, and usage determining just price 141 economic security as divine gift 100–103
 restoration, biblical principle of 136
 justice
 distributive justice 152, 189–96, 204
 legal and commutative justice 152, 186–89, 206 threefold division of 152
- Keynes, Maynard 123
 Kuttner, Robert 71, 136, 225
- labor markets
 compensatory disproportionalities in 55–57 unrestricted 68–70

Index

- Laborem Exercens* (John Paul II)
 access to basic needs 105
 community and sociality 107
 personal effort and striving 108
 restoration, biblical principle of 123 Lancaster, Kelvin 46, 220 land centrality in Hebrew scriptures 78 return of land under Jubilee Law 118–20
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 145
 Langan, John 94, 100
 Langholm, Odd 19, 102
 Lankes, Hans Peter 197, 208
 LDC see less developed country (LDC) farmers and agricultural protectionism legal and commutative justice 152, 186–89, 206
 Leo XIII, Rerum Novarum
 access to basic needs 104–105
 community and sociality 106
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 151 less developed country (LDC) farmers and agricultural protectionism 209–12 ameliorative action 207–209
 arguments against protectionism 183–85 competing claims with OECD farmers 185–86
 distributive justice 189–96
 legal and commutative justice 185–86
 regressive distribution of public benefits and burdens 199–202 Leviticus, Holiness Code and principle of restoration 112, 137 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 168
 sabbatical principle, as appropriation of 133
 slave manumission 118
 lexical rules for ordering competing rights-claims 151, 170–74 agricultural protectionism case study 185–86, 202–203
 Barrera's degrees of unmet needs 171–73, 203
 Hollenbach's strategic moral priorities 171, 202–203
 personal rights 173
 social rights 173–74
 liberalization of capital markets 65–66
 Lind, Michael 207, 208
 Lipton, Michael 71
 Lohfink, Norbert
 economic security as divine gift 80, 86, 88, 92, 97–99

- restoration, biblical principle of 122, 133
 rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 145
- MacPherson, C. B. 22
- Malthus, Thomas 94, 219
- marginalized and poor, preferential option for agricultural protectionism and communal duty regarding marginalized persons 190–91 biblical principle of restoration 123–26, 124 rights-based model for see rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion see also preferential option for poor and marginalized
- Maritain, Jacques 150
- marketplace elements contributing to economic compulsion 19–31 atomization of individual economic agents 23–25, 31–33 freedom of association, constraints on 19–22, 31–33 liberalization of markets 65–66 missing or incomplete markets 66–68
 price discrimination 43 technological externalities 27–31 volatility, dealing with 70–71
see also bounded rationality of economic agents; pecuniary externalities
- Martin, Rex 161
- Mater et Magistra* (John XXIII) 106–107
- McGregor, Joan 8–12, 13, 14, 18, 32, 40, 69
- McMillan, John 14, 32, 41
- Miller, Patrick 81, 133, 138
- missing markets 66–68
- mixed action account of economic compulsion (Aristotle) 4–5, 17, 214
- moral baseline account of economic compulsion (Wertheimer) 5–7
- moral foundations of capitalism 224–26
- Mott, Stephen 133
- network externalities 37, 38
- New Testament
 economic security as divine gift in 87–92
 access to basic needs 87–88
 community and sociality 88–89
 personal effort and striving 89
 restoration, biblical principle of 132, 133
 nonmoral account of economic compulsion (Zimmerman) 5–7, 35–36
- North, Robert 81
- obligations and rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion common good as due order 152–58
 personal rights and 160 roots of Catholic rights discourse in 150 social and instrumental rights embedded in 162
- Ogletree, Thomas 78, 83–84
- Old Testament see Hebrew scriptures
- Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and agricultural protectionism 209–12
 ameliorative action 204–207
 arguments against protectionism 185 competing claims with LDC farmers 185–86 constituent nations 181
 distributive justice 189–96
 LCD farmers, effect on 199–202
 legal and commutative justice 185–86
 regressive distribution of public benefits and burdens 196–99
 statistics regarding current practices 181
 use of term 185
- Pacem in Terris* (John XXIII) 143, 148–50, 151, 153, 171, 176
- Paley, William 94, 219
- pareto optimality 69, 74, 217
- patristic literature
 economic security as divine gift in 92–100
 access to basic needs 92–94
 community and sociality 95–97
 personal effort and striving 97–99
 restoration, biblical principle of 136 patron–client dependencies lacking in Hebrew scriptures 125, 131
- Pauline emphasis on personal effort and striving 89
- pecuniary externalities 27–31 consequential vs. trivial effects 16–17, 150, 175, 221 proximate causes of economic compulsion 33–35 reasons for caring about effect of 217–21
 regressive effects see regressive effects of pecuniary externalities technological externalities vs. 27–31, 213 person-specific transaction costs 46, 48 personal aptitudes and regressive effects of pecuniary externalities 49–51
 personal responsibilities
 economic security as divine gift
 constitutive elements of 77
 Hebrew scriptures 84–86
 modern Catholic social documents 108

246

- personal responsibilities (cont.)
 New Testament 89
 patristic literature 97–99
 restoration, biblical principle of 129 social rights entailing 206 personal rights as part of model for assessing economic compulsion 148, 158–61, 167–68, 173
 Pius XI, Quadragesimo Anno 108, 151 poor and ultrapoor, regressive effects of pecuniary externalities on 71–72 Populorum Progressio 107 preferential option for poor and marginalized agricultural protectionism and communal duty regarding marginalized persons 190–91
 biblical principle of restoration 123–26, 124
 rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion
 Barrera's degrees of unmet needs 171–73 hierarchical ordering of social rights 174 relationships central to 154
 social and instrumental rights 165–66
 price discrimination 43
 procedural rationality 26
prosbul 124

Quadragesimo Anno (Pius XI) 108, 151

 race-based social valuation 54–55 rational choice 57
 rationality of economic agents, bounded nature of see bounded rationality of economic agents
 Raz, Joseph 16, 22, 33, 34
 regressive effects of pecuniary externalities 43, 73–74
 access pricing 57
 agricultural protectionism as case study 196–202
 compensatory disproportionalities 55–57
 consumption tax 206
 credit markets 57–63
 foreign direct investments (FDIs) 63–65
 gentrification 72
 international trade/globalization 66, 72, 212, 215–17
 liberalization of capital markets 65–66
 missing or incomplete markets 66–68 personal aptitudes or capabilities 49–51 poor and ultrapoor, examples taken from 71–72
 price discrimination as theoretical framework for 43
 restoration principle counteracting 123–26

Index

- social valuation see social valuation, regressive effects of unrestricted labor markets 68–70
 volatility, dealing with 70–71
Rerum Novarum (Leo XIII)
 access to basic needs 104–105
 community and sociality 106
 rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion 151
 restitution and agricultural protectionism reforms 209
 restoration, biblical principle of III, 136–38 agricultural protectionism case study 204, 209 centrality of economic law to Covenant 121–22
 collateral, restrictions on 115 Covenant Code (Exodus) 112, 137
 rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion 167
 slave manumission 116, 118
 debt legislation 113–16
 demanding nature of 123–26, 130–31, 133 Deuteronomic Code see Deuteronomic Code and principle of restoration eschatological aspects 133, 135 formal characteristics 121–31 Holiness Code (Leviticus) 112, 137
 rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion 168
 sabbatical principle, as appropriation of 133
 slave manumission 118
 hope as central theme of 121 interest on fellow Hebrews, ban on charging 114, 116
 interest rates in ancient Near East 114 Jubilee Law see Jubilee Law and principle of restoration
 land return 118–20
 law codes 111–12
 New Testament 132, 133
 patron–client dependencies, lack of 125, 131 positive nature of obligation 130–31 progressive vs. regressive structure of law 123–26, 124
 prophetic writings 131
 rehabilitation rather than just relief 126–27 relationships central to rights-based model for assessing economic compulsion 156 responsibility for, personal and collective 129 Sabbath legislation 133–35, 138 sacrificial nature of 133
 slave manumission 116–18
 social safeguards institutionalized parallel to marketplace 122–23

- systemic and institutionalized nature of 128–29
- theological precedents and warrants for 131–36
- rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion 141–43, 222–23
- agricultural protectionism as case study of 185–86; see also agricultural protectionism
- ameliorative action, use of model to design and execute 175, 204–209
- bodily rights 158, 167
- common good as due order 152–58
- common good as due proportion 170
- community members, social and instrumental rights for 163–65
- competing claims see lexical rules for ordering competing rights-claims
- conceptual structure 158–69
- consequential and trivial claims, distinguishing 150, 175, 221
- developmental economic rights 160, 168
- diagram of 149
- disadvantages and drawbacks 150–52
- economic security as divine gift, adaptation of biblical vision of 144–46, 167–69, 175
- human dignity as justification for human rights 144, 176, 217
- instrumental rights 149, 161–67, 168–69, 206
- justice, threefold division of 152
- lexical rules see lexical rules for ordering
 competing rights-claims
- livelihood rights 158, 167
- obligations see obligations and rights-based model for assessing economic
 compulsion
- Pacem in Terris*, rights model based on 143, 148–50, 151, 153, 171, 176
- participatory economic rights 160, 167
- personal rights 148, 158–61, 167–68, 173
- poor and marginalized, preferential option for see preferential option for poor and marginalized
- purpose of model 174–76
- relationships central to 153–58
- agricultural protectionism as case study 186–96
- personal rights 159, 160
- social and instrumental rights 161–67
- tabular display of 155
- Shue's formulation 143, 146–48, 151
- social rights 148, 149
- competing claims, ordering 173–74
- conceptual structure, place in 161–67, 168–69
- personal as well as governmental obligations, entailing 206
- tabular display of 155
- Sabbath legislation in Hebrew scriptures
 economic security as divine gift 81
- restoration, biblical principle of 133–35, 138
- Schenker, Adrian 81, 134
- scholastic just price theory custom, law, and usage determining just price 141
- economic security as divine gift 100–103
- restoration, biblical principle of 136
- Schultz, Theodore 50, 70
- security, economic see economic security as divine gift
- Sen, Amartya 46, 51, 52
- Shandu, Monica 200
- Shipman, Alan 26
- Shue, Henry 143, 146–48, 151
- Simon, Herbert 25
- Simon, Julian 30
- slave manumission in Hebrew scriptures 116–18
- Smith, Adam 41
- social responsibility see community and sociality
- social rights 148, 149
- competing claims, ordering 173–74
- conceptual structure of rights-based model, place in 161–67, 168–69
- personal as well as governmental obligations, entailing 206
- social status theory of the just price 101
- social valuation, regressive effects of 52–57
- access pricing 57
- compensatory disproportionalities 55–57
- gender-based 54–55
- objective 52–54
- race-based 54–55
- subjective 54–57
- solidarity, principle of 206
- Soss, Neal 124
- South Africa, effects of agricultural protectionism in 200
- Speak, David 222
- stewardship of the earth, responsibility for 157, 195–96
- Stolper-Samuelson theorem 215
- subsidiarity, principle of 85, 108
- Summers, Larry 55
- Sumner, John 94, 219
- technological vs. pecuniary externalities 27–31, 213
- Tertullian 98
- Thomas Aquinas (St.) 65–66, 93, 101, 106
- Thurow, Roger 185, 200

248 transaction costs 45, 48, 58, 68–70, 73, 74, 220 Trimiew, Darryl 144, 151, 222, 224 Tyers, Rod 184, 185, 188, 197, 199, 207, 211

unintended effects see externalities; pecuniary externalities
 United States, agricultural protectionism in 181, 196–99, 200, 201, 202, 204 universal destination of the goods of the earth, principle of 104 utilitarianism 217

Vanberg, Viktor 50
 Vatican Council II, Gaudium et spes 107, 129 volatility of market, dealing with 70–71

Index

Waldow, H. Eberhard von 78, 135
 Walsh, William 94, 100
 Weisbrot, Mark 207
 Wertheimer, Alan 5–7, 14, 18, 34, 40, 141, 218, 219, 222
 Winestock, Geoff 185, 200
 World Bank 184, 194
 World Trade Organization (WTO) 70, 194, 210
 Wright, Christopher 78, 119, 127, 168

Yale Task Force on Population Ethics 148–50, 151, 158

Zimmerman, David 7–8, 12, 22, 35–36