

Cambridge University Press

0521856256 - Barbarism and Religion, Volume Four: Barbarians, Savages and Empires

J. G. A. Pocock

Index

More informationIndex

- Abu'l Ghazi al Bahadur, use by Gibbon and de Guignes 121
- Acosta, José de 99, 213 sees language as essential to the development of urban civilisation 179
 stadial ranking of pre-Columbian American societies 164–7 views of human nature 162–4
- Adrianople, battle 19
- Adshead, S. A. M. 101n. 5, 130n. 49
- Aeschylus 21
- Aesir (in Norse mythology) 127
- Africa
 British trading relations 71 history, in Raynal's Histoire 301–4 Portuguese circumnavigation (1497–8), in Raynal's Histoire 239–40, 241–2, 244–5 West Africa, Portuguese exploration 185
 within Afro-Eurasia 231n. 7
- agriculturalists, Gomic origins 99
- agriculture
 and commerce 77
 concept, Robertson's views 196n. 20 development lacking in the Americas 173 and pastoralism, in the settlement of Britain 73–4, 76 seen as evidence of civilisation among the Mexicans 214–17
see also farming
- Ahriman 32, 132, 249
- Alamanni, invasion of the Roman empire 19
- Alans 148
- Alberoni, Cardinal 289
- Albuquerque, Affonso d' (Portuguese Viceroy of the Indies) 244, 247
- alcoholism, Gibbon sees as characteristic of tribal culture 81–2
- Alexander III (Pope) 239
- Alexander the Great, empire's failure to survive, de Guignes's views 137
- Algonquins (North American tribe) 315
- allegory 249
- Amazon, exploration 292
- American colonies, relations with Europe, seen by Robertson 181, 182–3
- American Indians, psychology 81
- American War of Independence consideration within Raynal's Histoire 234–5, 323, 324, 327 effects on historiography 224–5 leads to Robertson's not completing the History of America 182–3, 204, 205
- Americans
 degeneracy, Antequil's views 30 settlers' Noachic origins suggested 99
- Americas
 British colonisation 71
 colonisation by pastoralists, Ferguson's views 150 discovery 334
 environment 205
 European historiography's difficulties with 171–80
 geo-physical youth argued by de Pauw 176 land bridge with Asia suggested by Acosta 163–4 peoples, nature debated as a result of European exploration 161–7 pre-Columbian societies
 Acosta's stadial ranking 164–7
 Robertson classifies as savage 181–91, 193–204
 savagery within 246
 views of within Raynal's Histoire 309, 325 wildlife, as affected by climate, Robertson's views 195
see also North America; Spanish empire
- Anabaptism 319
- Anahuac 213
- ancestors, veneration in China, Jesuits view as idolatrous 103, 108

- Ancien Regime, 'first crisis', influences publication of Robertson's History of America 181–2
- Anderson, Adam 231, 248
- Angevins, legal justification of conquest of England 209
- Anglo-French competition for maritime empire, in Raynal's Histoire 295–300, 310–12
- animal husbandry
 as evidence of civilisation 4
 among the Mexicans 217
 Robertson's views 199–200
see also farming
- animal traction, lacking in the Americas 172
- animism 16, 199
- Anne (queen of Great Britain) 296, 299
- Anquetil-Duperron, Abraham-Hyacinthe 27–31, 32, 34–6, 89, 94, III, 124, 130, 131, 163
 criticises despotism 338
 on human types 193
- anthropology 338–9
- anti-pope riots (Edinburgh 1779), endanger Robertson 204
- 'les Antilles' see West Indies
- antiquarianism, within historiography 219–20
- Apollonius of Tyana 131
- appropriation 166–7
 and the state of nature 168–9, 170
- Arabs
 culture, seen as part of Spanish history 208
 history, de Guignes's views 112–13
 as savages 96
- Ardashir (Artaxerxes) 24, 31
- Arianism 16
- Aristotle
 on the barbarism of the Cyclopes 47 criticises Plato's Republic for lack of property ownership 287–8
 on slavery and orientalism 21–2, 23
 views the Persians as barbarians 12
- aroba*, concept 270
- Artaxerxes (Ardashir) 24, 31
- arts, Goguet's views on the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 52, 56
- Asia
 Central Asia, within Enlightenment
 historiography 101, 106–7
 and the European seaborne empires 6 land bridge with America suggested by Acosta 163–4
 and oceanography, theme within Raynal's
Histoire 240
- Asian civilisations 161
- Asian ocean basins European commercial expansion into, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246–68
see also China; India
- Asiatic Society 124, 338
- Askenaz (son of Gomer) 20
- Assyria, civilisation, Goguet's views 59–61
- Atahualpa 200, 201
- Athabaskan people 172
- Attila, de Guignes views as barbarian 146, 148
- Australia, peripheral nature, in relation to Raynal's Histoire 271
- Avars 14, 133
- Axial Age 32
- Aztecs
 empire, Acosta's stadial ranking 164–5
 ignorance of metallurgy 194
 imperial status challenged 176, 220 monarchy, classified as savage within Robertson's historiography 208
 Robertson's account of 201–2
 savagery 284–5, 286
see also Mexico
- Babel, tower, and the dispersion of mankind 45–6
- Babylonia, civilisation, Goguet's views 59, 61
- Baker, Polly 319
- Balboa 191
- Baltic states, commercial expansion into the Asian ocean basins, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246
- barbarians 157, 331, 335
 as affected by warfare, Gibbon's views 261 distinguished from the sauvage 275–7 Gibbon's treatment of the concept 11–14, 18–25
 lack of narrative history about affects Gibbon's historiography 17–18 and savages, concepts applied to the American peoples 161–7
 successes against Rome seen as a problem for Gibbon's viewing barbarians as lacking
 civilisation 91–3
 term interchangeable with that of savages 158–61
- barbarism
 civilisation's descent into 294–5
 de Guignes's understanding 111–32, 146–52 effects in Europe 291
 and the emergence of civilisation 37–41
 influences on Gibbon's understanding 42–64
 Gibbon's treatment of the concept 1–3, 5, 7–8, 11–14, 38–41
 and religion 14–16
 within European history 275–6
see also civilisation; savagery

- 'barbarous', concept, within Raynal's Histoire 265 Barbeyrac, Jean 43, 66n. 10
 bardic poetry
   among the Germans 88–90
   among the Goths 95
 baroque scholarship, denigration 285 beavers, as model citizens 315–16
 Behring Straits 246
 Belgae 68, 69, 71–2, 73
 biblical chronologies
   and the evolution of civilisation 2
   Carte's views 65–6
   Goguet's views 43–7, 63
   see also Japhetic genealogies biblicism, and Enlightenment views of
   civilisation 77–8
 Bibliothèque du Roi 101
Bibliothèque Orientale (d'Herbelot) use by de Guignes 121
   use by Gibbon 111
 Black Death, extension through trade routes 151–2
 Bodin, Jean, on feudalism 22
 Bogata (New Granada), culture 198, 199, 201
 bonzes 103, 123, 125, 126, 264
Book of Changes (I Ching) 114–15
Book of History 109
Book of Odes (Shih Ching) 114, 115–16
 Bossuet, Jacques 61
 Boturini, Lorenzo (antiquarian), proposed history of the New World rejected by Spanish government (1749) 210 Bougainville, Louis Antoine de, criticised for imposing European cultural ideas on the Tahitians 269
 Brading, David 206, 223
 Brady, Dr Robert 66, 74, 76
 Brahma 129
 Brahmanism 128, 248, 249–53
 Brazil 292, 295
 Brigantes 68
 Britain, civilisation of, Carte's views 67–8 British American colonies, War of Independence affects completion of Robertson's History of America 182–3, 204, 205 British empire
   concept 336
   parallels with Roman imperial history 5–6 second British empire 337
 Brucker, Johann Jakob 253
 Brutus 67
 buccaneers 282–4
 Buddhism 338
   account of in Raynal's Histoire 260–1, 263–5 Buddha (Fo) 32n. 50
   de Guignes's views 141
   role in the religious history of China 123–5, 127–8
   within Confucianism 103, 108
   within India 131
   see also Fo
 buffalo, failure to domesticate, as evidence of lack of civilisation in the Americas,
   Robertson's views 200
 Buffon, George-Louis Leclerc, Comte de 44
   Clavijero's criticisms 223
   cosmopolitanism 207
   Gibbon admires 203n. 58
   historiography 193, 195, 197
   views of pre-Columbian society as savage 205–6
 Bulgars, invasions of the Roman empire 133
 Buriton, Gibbon's management 80 Burke, Edmund 36, 267, 324
   on American nomadism 172 on civilisation in Europe 84 concerns with Indian law 338
   on Jacobinism 82
 Butler, James (duke of Ormonde) 69
 Byng, Admiral John 299
 Byzantium, Gibbon's treatment of 22

 Caballero a Santa Maria Antonio (Sainte-Marie) 103n. 11
 Cabral, Pedro Alvarez 185
 Cadmus Milesius 70, 71
 Caledonia 73
 Caledonians, clan system 75
 calendrical systems among the Aztecs 202
   archaeology 221–2
 California, Jesuits' utopian society 287, 289
 Caligula (Roman emperor) 71
 Calvin, John, on allegiance to kings 76
 Camari (son of Japhet) 122
 Cambrian language, poetic suitability 70
 Campomanes, Conde de 210, 219, 224, 297–08
 Canada, colonisation 318–19 Cañizares-Esguerra, Jorge 206, 223
 cannibalism
   as evidence of lack of civilisation 47
   and savagery 159, 163, 164
 Cape of Good Hope, Dutch settlement 269, 279
 Carolina, constitution prepared by Locke 321
 Caroline (queen of England, wife of George II) 66 Carte, Thomas 79, 143
   and imagination 170
   influence on Gibbon 44, 65–78
   views on bardic poetry 88

- Carthage
 empire, failure to survive, de Guignes's views 137
 Phoenicians settle 71
- Cassiodorus, Flavius Magnus Aurelius 93–4
- cathedrals, buildings as seen in the Enlightenment 285
- Catherine the Great 85, 184
- Cecrops 62
- celibacy
 criticisms 258, 259, 260
 not commanded within Zoroastrianism 33
- Celts
 bardic poetry 88
 civilising role in the western islands 67–8
 farming cultures 68–9
- Ceylon (Sri Lanka), depiction in Raynal's Histoire 253, 263
- Chaldea, civilisation, Goguet's views 59
- Charlemagne 145, 146
- Charles V (Holy Roman Emperor) 182
 Robertson's history of Charles V's reign 176, 178–9
- Chars (son of Japhet) 122
- Chartier, Roger 325
- chastity 86–7
- Cheng Ho (Chinese navigator) 244
- Chichimecs 212–13
- Ch'in Shih Huang-ti (Chinese emperor) 135
- China
 civilisation 174
 de Pauw's views 175–6 enduring nature of, de Guignes's views 135–7, 138, 141–3
 Goguet's views 59
 as understood by Europeans 180
 depiction in Raynal's Histoire 255–9, 261, 262, 264–5, 268
 history, de Guignes's views 112–21, 122–3 influence upon nomadic hordes and their invasion of the Roman empire 133–8, 143–53, 335 as influenced by nomadic peoples, de Guignes's views 134–5, 143–4 invention of the compass 230, 244, 291 maritime commerce, not mentioned in Raynal's Histoire 240 and the origins of pre-Columbian society 221 religion, de Guignes's views 123–32
 treatment in the Decline and Fall 3, 110–11
 use of rice growing, as a mark of civilisation, de Guignes's views 173 within Enlightenment historiography 101–6, 107–9
 see also Asian ocean basins
- Ch'ing dynasty 118n. 13
- Chou dynasty 118, 134–5
- Christianity
 concepts of 'savages' and 'barbarians' 160
 criticisms of, within Raynal's Histoire 238–9, 242 and the development of philosophy 16
 Gibbon's concerns with 230, 340 identified with the religion of Fo, de Guignes's views 123–32 impact upon the Roman empire 332–3 respected by Germanic tribes 96 role in the colonisation of the New World criticised 275–6 speculations on God's revelation 15–16
 as viewed by Voltaire 230 within Iran, de Guignes's views 131–2
 within Japan, in Raynal's Histoire 262
- Chukchi (Siberian people) 193
- Ch'un Ch'iu* 114
- churchmen, involvement in creole patriot ideology 209–10
- Cimbri (German people) 68
- circumcelliones* 263
- cities, establishment, Goguet's views on the evolution of civilisation 58–9, 62
- civil histories
 co-existence with Noachic genealogies 99 relations with philosophical history 177–9
- civil philosophy, concepts of savagery and barbarism 158
- civil society
 and colonisation 300–1
 concept 220
- civilisation
 as affected by empire and commerce, views within Raynal's Histoire 253–5, 266–7 among the Germanic tribes, accepted by Gibbon 96 barbarian origins 37–41 concept within Raynal's Histoire 233 descent into barbarism 294–5 distinguished from savagery, Gibbon's views 285 emergence from barbarism, influences Gibbon's understanding 42–64 emergence in the western islands 65–78 evolution
 by softening of the passions 87–8 dependence on written rather than oral systems stressed by Gibbon 79 in North America seen as a puzzle, views within Raynal's Histoire 323, 324, 327 as viewed in the eighteenth century 2 founded on the education of barbarians 84

- Goguet's views 78
 origins of urban civilisation in Mesopotamia and Egypt 65
see also barbarism
 civilised man, moral equivalence with savages 175 clan system, and the civilisation of Britain, Carte's views 73–7, 78 classical world, concepts of barbarians and savages 158–9 Clavijero, Francisco (Francesco Saverio Clavigero) 184 criticisms of Robertson and his fellow writers 204, 209, 211–19
 historiography 219–22
 narrative history within 222 clerical scholarship, denigration 285
clibanarii 24
 climate influence
 on civilisation 313, 314–15, 319
 in the New World 291
 on North American civilisation 314–15, 319 over civilisation denied in the case of the creoles in the West Indies 308 on religions of the Asian ocean basin 248–9 on the savage condition within the Americas, Robertson's views 193–4, 195–7, 198, 199, 200
 cochineal insects 217 codices, in American archaeology 221–2 colonialism
 within the British empire 336 within Robertson's History of America 190–1
 colonisation
 and commerce, Eurocentric views 306–9 and the establishment of civil society 300–1 colonists, relations with empire 335–6, 337 Columbus, Christopher 185, 186, 232 commerce adversely affected by slavery in Africa 302, 304
 and agriculture 77
 and colonisation, Eurocentric views 306–9 effects in European seaborne empires 7 effects upon 'happiness', Enlightened concerns 232 English commercial enterprise 292–3
 as evidence of civilisation among the Mexicans 217–18 impact upon European enlightenment, views within Raynal's Histoire 325–8 lack of in the New World 291 promotion and diversification, within the Enlightenment 207–8 role in civilisation, views within Raynal's Histoire 253–5, 266–7
 theme within Raynal's Histoire 237–45
 trade links between China and Europe, de Guignes's views 118 within history, seen as the road to servitude 273–81
 compagnie des Indes 30 comparative ethnology, origins 162
 compass, discovery 230, 244, 291
 Confucianism 6, 15, 102–4, 107–9, 125, 231, 269 effects on the Huns, de Guignes's views 144–5 influence on Chinese civilisation 140–1, 255–7, 258, 259, 265
 influence 152
 upon the nomadic invasions of the Roman empire 133 in Japan 263
 opposition to Buddhism 265
 Ricci's views 125, 128
 treatment of history, de Guignes's views 113–16
 Voltaire's views 261n. 42
 Confucius 32n. 50, 320, 332
 conquistadors
 as barbarians and Christians 276 character similar to that of the filibusters 284 Clavijero's criticisms 218–19
 colonisation of Peru 277–8 Robertson's views of 188
 theme within Raynal's Histoire 239
 consanguinity, civilising effect 282
Considerations . . . sur les Deux Mondes (Antequil) 30–1 Constantine the Great 332, 340
 Constantinople, fall (1453) 230, 334
 Cook, Captain James 47, 159
 corsairs 281
 Corsica, French dealings with 254
 Cortes, Hernan 186, 191, 201, 209, 282;
see Marques del Valle de Oaxaca Courtney, C. P. 234n. 11 creation, and God's being 129–30 creation ex nihilo, as factor in relations between Buddhism and Christianity in China 125 Creek Indians 68
 creoles 282–4, 337
 in Brazil 292 European creoles 314
 patriot ideology
 affirmation of civilisation in response to Robertson 208–19, 223–4
 historiography 219–22
 social standing 291
 in the West Indies 294, 308–10
 attitudes towards in Raynal's Histoire 323
see also Jesuits
 Crusades, theme within Raynal's Histoire 239

- Cuauhtemoc 222
 cultivation, concept, Robertson's views 196n. 20 culture, effects on the savage condition, within the Americas, Robertson's views 194–200 cultures impact between European and non-European cultures, in Raynal's Histoire 232 moral equivalence 174
   in the New World, views of in Raynal's Histoire 315 Cumberland, William Augustus, Duke of ('Butcher Cumberland') 72
 Curetes 69
 Cyclopes
   illustrative of barbarism 47, 49
   as savages 159, 160
Cyfrinach y Berdd (Secret of the Poets) 69, 70, 74, 77
- da Gama, Vasco 185, 232, 240, 242, 247
 d'Alembert, Jean 101
 Danaus 62
 Danes, as savages 96
 Darius (Persian king) 13
 Darwin, Charles 46
De l'Origine des Loix (Goguet), use by Gibbon 42 de Beausobre, Isaac 66n. 10, 124, 253
 de Guignes, Joseph 3, 335, 338 concept of barbarism 11–132, 146–52
   Gibbon's use 16, 44, 110–11
   concerning nomadic invasions of the Roman empire 133–8, 142–53 on rice growing in China as evidence of civilisation 173 views of Buddhism 263 views on China criticised by de Pauw 175–6 views of the enduring nature of Chinese civilisation 135–7, 138, 141–3 views of the interaction of nomadic peoples within China 134–5, 143–5 work not cited in Raynal's Histoire 257 see also Histoire Générale des Huns, Turcs, et Mogols (de Guignes)
De Moribus Germanorum (Tacitus), Gibbon's treatment 79, 96 de Pauw, Cornelius 80, 225, 315
   cosmopolitanism 207
   criticisms of 209, 211
   by Clavijero 212, 218, 223
   by Peruty 269n. 2
   Gibbon respects 203n. 58
   historiography 193, 195, 197, 220
   in relation to the Americas 175–6, 178
   views of pre-Columbian society as savage 205–6
- de Pechmeja, Jean 304n. 31
 de Sainte-Marie, Antoine 103n. 11
De Veteris Persarum Religionis Historia (Hyde) 26 Declaration of Independence 324
Decline and Fall (Gibbon) contrast with Raynal's Histoire 7–8, 229–31, 233, 313, 328 and eighteenth-century historiography 6 historiography, similarities with those of Robertson's History of America 192 imperial and ecclesiastical authority within the Roman empire 340 publishing history 1, 5 see also Gibbon, Edward Deluge effects on North America 315 historical importance, de Guignes's views 119
 Democritus 102
Description de l'empire de la Chine et de la Tartarie Chinoise (du Halde), Gibbon's use as source material 110 despotism 333
   as barbarism 13 contrasts between Chinese and Roman societies, de Guignes's views 138–40 in the Old World 291
   and orientalism 36
   Anquetil's views 30
   religious intolerance 31, 33–6
   and slavery 23–4
   and superstition, Robertson's views 199
   see also oriental despotism; orientalism d'Herbelot, Barthélemy 111, 121
 Diderot, Denis 7, 164, 225–6, 233, 267, 304, 324
   concerns with empire and decivilisation 337
   contributions to Raynal's Histoire 229–30, 233–4, 236, 325, 327 views of Chinese society 257–9 criticism of Rousseau 271 Eurocentrism 245
   historiography 192
   Supplément au Voyage de Bougainville 269, 277
 Dio, views on the clan system 75
Discourse on the Origins of Inequality (Rousseau) 271n. 10 'discovery', concept criticised 272n. 11
 Donatism 263
 druids 89
   role in civilisation, Carte's views 69–70
 du Chatelet, Emilie 256, 273 du Halde, Jean-Baptiste 110, 115, 127 du Pan, Mallet, criticisms of Diderot's contributions to Raynal's Histoire 234 dualism, in Indian religions 249

- duration (shih) 130
- Dutch
- commercial expansion into the Asian ocean basins, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246, 253, 256, 262, 266
  - conquests in the New World 292–3, 295
  - hypocritical nature, in seeking to civilise the Khoi people 270
- Dutch Guyana, slavery within 304–5
- East India Company 337
- East Indies, in Raynal's Histoire 232
- Edda* 94, 127
- Edict of Nantes, revocation 235
- Edward the Confessor, used in legalisation of the Norman Conquest of England 209
- effeminacy, linked with savagery 79
- Egypt
- civilisation
    - Goguet's views 59, 61–2
    - Noachic origins cast doubt on revelation through Egypt 105–6
  - civilising influence over the Greeks 78, 100
  - neglected by Enlightenment philosophy 7
  - origins of urban civilisation 65
  - theme within Raynal's Histoire 240–2
- Egyptians, seen as ancestors of the Chinese 121, 143
- Elagabalus 18, 86
- empire
- concept 220
  - as affected by nomadism 335–6
  - Gibbon's concern with 331, 333–6, 338
  - post-Enlightenment concepts 339
  - role in civilisation, views within Raynal's Histoire 253–5
- empires, role of the palace within 22, 23
- England, Norman conquest of, legalisation 209
- English
- commercial enterprise 292–3
  - commercial expansion into the Asian ocean basins, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246, 266
  - conquest of Jamaica 295
  - origins in Tartar civilisation 106
- English American colonies, historiography, as affected by the War of Independence 224–5
- English North America, independence, considered in Raynal's Histoire 310
- 'Enlightened narrative' 206
- Enlightenment 140, 166
- concept of history 174
  - historical self-image, in Raynal's Histoire 231
  - Spanish Enlightenment 206–8
  - status questioned by biblicism and patriarchalism 77–8
- Enlightenment historiography 219–22, 225–6
- as affected by Robertson's classification of pre-colonial Americas as 'savage' 181
  - China within 101–6, 107–9
  - Christianity as primary theme 230
  - and the impact between European and non-European cultures, as seen in Raynal's Histoire 232
  - philosophical revision 158–61
  - see also* historiography
- Enlightenment philosophy, neglect of Mesopotamia and Egypt 7
- enthusiasm 35, 199
- Epicurus 102
- Era of the Warring States 135
- erudition, within historiography 219–20
- Eshwara (Routren) 129
- Eskimaux (Inuit) 172, 193, 315
- Esquemeling (Oexmelin), History of the Buccaneers (Histoire des Aventuriers) 284
- Essai sur l'Etude de la Littérature* (Gibbon) 28, 237
- Essai sur les Moeurs* (Voltaire) 62, 230, 231
- ambiguous attitude towards the Jesuits 287
  - see also* Voltaire
- Essay on the History of Civil Society* (Ferguson) 163–4, 194
- Euhemerus 108
- Eurasia, treatment in the Decline and Fall 3
- Eurocentrism
- effects on ethnological concepts of 'savagery' and 'barbarism' 165, 167
  - effects on narratives of non-European civilisations 247, 265
  - views of colonisation and commerce 306–9
  - within history, as illustrated by the colonisation of the New World 272–93
  - within Raynal's Histoire 245, 325, 327–8
- Europe
- civilisation in western and eastern Europe differentiated 84, 93
  - colonial expansion, as reflected in Robertson's History of America 185
  - concept of civilisation, effects upon colonial expansion 189–91
  - concept within Raynal's Histoire 238
  - Gibbon's concept of Latin and Orthodox 341–2
  - historical imagination, domination by the thought of the Roman empire 331–3
  - history in the light of stadial theory 2
  - oceanic commerce, theme within Raynal's Histoire 230–3, 234–45, 246–68

- Europe (continued) relations with the American colonies, as affected by Robertson's classification of the pre-colonial Americas as 'savage' 181 settlement, Scottish school's theories 100 social progress 187
 states, evolution out of the Roman empire 75 European colonisation policies, historiographical
 criticisms 225–6
 European expatriates, fear about, in Raynal's
Histoire 326–7
 European historiography
 Central Asia within 101, 106–7 contrast with that of the Americas 171–80
 development
 in the light of criticisms about Robertson 205–6
 as reflected in Robertson's research methods 184 difficulties of applying its concept to the Americas 171–80
see also historiography European seaborne empires as affected by the concept of 'savages' 3–4, 6–7 and Asian civilisation 6 European world exploration encounters with 'barbarians' and 'savages' within the New World 160–3 encounters with savages 157–8, 335 Europeanisation, as a form of social development inescapable 270 Europeans contrasts with non-European peoples lead to distinction between pastoralists and savages 100–1
 self-hatred
 as dystopia engendered by colonialisng activities 270–1
 as shown by references to the colonisation of the New World, within Raynal's
Histoire 271–93
 exchange systems, philosophic mistrust of within European culture 40–1 farming
 arable farming absent from the Americas, as evidence of lack of civilisation,
 Robertson's views 200
 Celtic cultures in Britain 68–9 domestication of animals as evidence of
 civilisation 4
 Germanic practice indicates their savagery 80, 82 Gibbon's interest in pastoral and agricultural society 41
 Goguet's views on the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 51–3, 54–6, 57–9, 64 invention of heavy ploughs as indication of
 civilisation 13–14
see also agriculture; animal husbandry;
 pastoralism
 Fathaclan 20
 Feng Ying-ching (Chinese sympathetic to Jesuits) 125
 Ferguson, Adam 80, 89, 99, 107, 163–4, 194
 historiography 186–7
 stadial theory 2, 5
 views of pastoralists and the colonisation of America 150
 on women's social standing in Louisiana 198
 feudalism 22
 and the clan system, Carte's views 75–7, 78 within Germany 83–4 Ficino, Marsilio 104, 105 fiction, and civilisation 40 Figurists 104
 filibusters 283–4
 Filmer, Sir Robert 66, 74, 167
Fir Bolg see Celts fishing, as indication of levels of civilisation, Robertson's views 196
 Five Classics 104, 113
 Fletcher, Andrew 60 Fo 338
 religion, identified with Christianity, de Guignes's views 123–32
see also Buddhism Fo (Buddha) 32n. 50
 Fo Tai-tsu 130
 Fo Tu-ching 130, 131
 the forest 19, 37–8 symbolic of German savagery 79–80
fortuna 163
 Four Books 113–16, 144, 145
 four-stages theory see stadial theories
 Fox, George 319
 France
 capitalist commerce, development 295
 as the centre of Europe 238 and a counter to Great Britain 310–11
 commercial expansion into the Asian ocean basins, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246, 266
 dealings with Corsica 254 involvement in the West Indies 306–8, 309–10
 as the source of enlightenment for barbarism 293
 as universal monarchy 334
 Franco-Spanish alliance, directed against Great Britain, as reflected in Raynal's Histoire 233

- Franklin, Benjamin 315, 324
- Franks
 invasion of the Roman empire 19
 kingship among 75
 as savages 96
- Frederick II of Prussia 175, 269n. 2
- freebooters 284
- freedom, within the classical world 158
- French language, use in Jesuit accounts of China 101
- French navy 310–12, 314
- French Protestantism, and Robertson's 204
- Freret, Nicolas 101, 103
- Fu Hsi (Chinese emperor) 114; characterised as Noachic figure
- Fu-hsi, characterised as Noachic figure 104, 105
- Fuegians 46
- Gades, Phoenicians settle 71
- Galileo 239
- gambling, Gibbon sees as characteristic of tribal culture 81–2, 83
- Gaubil, Antoine 110, 115
- Gaul, settlement 68
- Gauls, kingship among 75
- Genealogical History of the Tartars* (Abu'l Ghazi al Bahadur) use by Gibbon and de Guignes 121
- genealogies, Japhetic 19–20, 21
- A General History of England* (Carte) 65–78
- A General History of the Turks, Mogols and Tatars* 106n. 19
- Genghiz Khan 101, 107, 134
- Genghizids, impact upon the Turks 134
- gentiles
 barbarians seen as 14–15
 religions, corruption of natural religion 104–5
- Geoffrey of Monmouth 67n. 13
- geophysical age, North America 315
- George II (king of England) 72
- George III (king of Great Britain) 299
- Georgia (American colony), settlement 68
- Germania* 37
- Germanic culture, origins 100
- Germanic tribes, as savages 96
- Germans 11, 12, 14, 37, 38
 bardic poetry 88
 Gibbon's views of 79–96, 201
 invasion of the Roman empire 2
 Noachic genealogy 39
 Robertson's views of 189
- Germany
 Celts in 68
 urbanisation in the eighteenth century 80
- Getae (Yueh-chi), religion 126–7
- Giannone, Pietro 5, 15, 191, 254
- Gibbon II, Edward (Edward Gibbon's father) 66
- Gibbon, Edward 304 ability to write of non-European civilisations 247 accounts of barbarians 18–25 approval of Robertson's historiography 203
 authorial comments 237 on celibacy 260
 concerns with Christianity within the Roman empire 340 concerns with the concept of 'empire' 331, 333–4 concerns with the concepts of Latin and Orthodox Europe 341–2 criticisms of Raynal 229 distinguishes civilisation from savagery by the use of money and letters 285 government service during the War of the American Revolution 313
 historiography 253
 as affected by lack of narrative history in accounts of barbarians 17–18 influenced by de Guignes in his views of the effect of China on nomadic invasions of the Roman empire 133–8, 143–50 influenced by Thomas Carte 65–78
 interest in British India 6 knowledge of de Pauw's work 175 publication of the Decline and Fall 1, 5 racial prejudice 231n. 7 research methods, value recognised by Robertson 184 scepticism of Cheng Ho's voyages 244n. 49
 sources 42–3
 stresses importance of written rather than oral systems for the emergence of civilisation 79 suggests that Robertson write a history of French Protestantism 204 treatment of the Persians 19, 23–36 treatment of religion and of the disintegration of imperial pagan Rome in the Decline and Fall 1–3 use of social evolutionary theories 99–100 views of barbarism and the emergence of civilisation 37 views on barbarism problematic 38–41 views on culture as evidence of civilisation similar to those of Robertson 194 views of the effects of warfare on barbarians 261

- Gibbon, Edward (continued) views on the evolution of civilisation from barbarism influenced by Goguet 41–56 views of the shepherding stage within society 171
see also Decline and Fall (Gibbon)
- Gnosticism 16, 130
- goats, droppings, as means of calculation 128, 149
- God and creation 129–30 revelation, Christian speculation about 15–16
- Goggi, Gianluigi 234n. 11
- Goguet, Antoine-Yves 65, 67, 77, 78, 164 emphasises importance of sedentary agriculture for the evolution of civilisation 80 influence on Gibbon 42, 43, 44–64, 99, 100
 stadial theory 2
 views agriculture as typical of sedentary civilisation 214
 views of the shepherding stage within society 171
- gold-fever, as the driving force behind the colonisation of the New World 276–9
- golden age, concept in connection with that of pre-social man 159–60
- Gomer (son of Japhet) 66, 99, 122
- Gomerians see Celts
- Goths 11, 12, 14, 37–8, 106
 Gibbon's treatment 93–6
 history, Gibbon's sources for 110–11
 invasion of the Roman empire 2, 19
 place of origin 127
- government, development affected by the use of money 169
- Grand Lama, depiction in Raynal's Histoire 263
- Great Britain, Franco-Spanish alliance against, promoted in Raynal's Histoire 233
- Greek historians, de Guignes's views 118
- Greek philosophy, suggested Brahminical origins 252–3
- Greeks
 civilisation
 Carte's views 71, 78
 Goguet's views 59, 62, 63
 cultural origins, as viewed by Raynal's Histoire 238 Cyclopean origins, Goguet's views 100 oral tradition as the basis of laws, Carte's views 70 racial origins 48–9
 use of the term 'barbarian' 159
 use of the term 'savage' 159
- Guadalupe 309
- Guarani (Paraguay) 287
- gunpowder, invention 230
- Gustasp (king of Bakh) 34
- gymnosophistae* 248
- Ham (son of Noah), de Guignes's views 121
- Han dynasty, and the Hunnish invasion of the Roman empire 133, 135
- Han peoples 101–2
- Handel, Georg Fredrick 72
- 'happiness', as affected by 'commerce', Enlightened concerns 232
- Harrington, James, on feudalism 22
- Hastings, Warren 204, 267, 338
- Havana, capture 299
- Hazarouam* (Zarouam/Zurvan)(time) 130, 132
- Heaven (Tien) cult, within Confucianism 102–3
- Henry, Robert 42
- Herder, Johann Gottfried, concept of history 174
- Hermes Trismegistus, characterised as Noachic figure 104, 105
- Hermetic theology 106
- Herodotus 331
 on slavery and orientalism in Persia 19n. 3, 21, 22, 23, 24 understanding of barbarism 157 views of the Germans and the Goths 12
 views the Persians as barbarians 12
- heroism, seen as ending with ancient history 272–3
- Hinduism 6, 231
 depiction in Raynal's Histoire 247, 253
- Histoire de la dynastie des Mongous* (Gaubil), Gibbon's use as source material 110
- Histoire des deux Indes* (Raynal) 4–5, 6–7 account of European commercial expansion into the Asian ocean basins 246–68 account of European oceanic commerce 231–3, 234–45 account of the West Indies 294–5, 297, 304–7 Anglo-French competition for maritime empire 295–300, 310–12 comparison with the Decline and Fall 7–8, 229–31, 233 criticisms of European colonisation policies 225–6
 Eurocentrism 325
 European self-hatred shown in the account of the colonisation of the New World 271–93 influence on the Decline and Fall 313, 328
 as philosophical history of Europe 181
 as response to the Seven Years War 210 Robertson's approval of 203 role in the prehistory of Revolution 337

- view of North America 313–24
 see also Raynal, Abbé Guillaume-Thomas-François
- Histoire Générale* (Voltaire) 230
- Histoire Générale des Huns, Turcs, et Mogols* (de Guignes)
 Gibbon's use 110, 111, 133
 interaction of nomadic peoples within China 143–5 see also de Guignes, Joseph
- Historical and Chronical Deduction of the Origins of Commerce* (Anderson) 231
- Historical Disquisition concerning the Knowledge which the Ancients had of India* (Robertson) 204
- historiography 91–3
 classical narrative within 213 Enlightenment philosophical revision 158–61 relations between philosophical and civil history 177–9 and rhetoric 271
 Robertson's History of America within 185
 Robertson's views 186–90, 192–204
 within the English American colonies 224–5 within the Enlightenment 219–22
 see also Enlightenment historiography; European historiography
- history
 ancient history 272–3 beginnings of modern history 332, 333 classical history, Robertson's views 187–8
 concept 174, 331
 Eurocentricity, as illustrated by the colonisation of the New World 272–93
 'modern history' 230
 'history', and 'nature', Enlightened concerns 232
- history
 philosophical history, Robertson's views 188–9
 role, Anquetil's views 28–9 sense, among pre-Columbian peoples 221
 see also narrative history; philosophical history
- History of America* (Robertson) 4–5, 179 classifies the pre-colonial Americas as 'savage' 181–91, 208
 historiography 192–204, 208
 not completed because of the American War of Independence 205 praises Campomanes 224 proposed translation into Spanish 207, 210 revised in response to Clavijero 211 see also Robertson, William
- History of the Buccaneers* (Histoire des Aventuriers) (Esquemeling)(Oxmelin) 284
- History of Charles V* (Robertson) 181, 182, 184, 185, 192, 203
- History of Great Britain* (Henry), use by Gibbon 42
- Hobbes, Thomas, political economy 42
- Homer 88, 89
- Honduras, buccaneers 282–3
- honour, concept 83–4
- 'horde' 172
- horses, domestication, as evidence of civilisation, within Asia, Robertson's views 200
- horticulture, as evidence of civilisation 173–4
- Hottentots (Khoi peoples) 269, 270–1
- Hsia dynasty 134
- Hsiung-nu peoples 3, 101
- Huayna Capac 203n. 56
- Hudson Bay Company 318
- Huet, Pierre Daniel 248
- Huguenots 235
- human knowledge, unsatisfactory condition, in Raynal's Histoire 302–4
- human nature 162–3
 naval exploration as a threat to 278–81
- human polygenesis 21
- human sacrifice, Clavijero's views 214
- human society, evolutionary stages 100
- human types, within the Americas, Robertson's views 193–4
- Hume, David 92n. 49
 on the discovery of America 334
 on enthusiasm 199
 on patriot invective 266 on religious intolerance 31
 stadial theory 2, 5
 suspicious of Ossian 70
 views on bardic poetry 88
 views on Confucianism 140
- Huns 3, 14, 100, 106
 history, Gibbon's sources for 110–11
 interactions with China, de Guignes's views 113–14, 116, 117, 119, 144–5 invasion of the Roman empire, as influenced by China 133 territorial extent 147
- hunter-gatherers 167, 168
- hunting, as indication of levels of civilisation, Robertson's views 196
- Hurons 49, 315
- Hyde, Thomas 26, 131
- I Ching* 108, 114–15, 128
- Ichthyophagi* 196n. 21
- idolatry 15
 Jesuit views of Buddhism within China 125
 origins 129
- imagination, and civilisation 170

imperialism

British popular imperialism in Raynal's
Histoire 297–8

within India 31

within Robertson's History of America 190–1

imperium

concept 336

and libertas, within the Roman empire 332

and sacerdotium, within the Roman empire 333–4

Incas

empire

Acosta's stadial ranking 164–5

civilisation questioned by Enlightenment
historiography 176, 220

ignorance of metallurgy 194

monarchy, classified as savage within Robertson's historiography 208

Robertson's account of 201–2

savagery 285–6

social welfare concerns, and the Jesuits 287

Spanish treatment, as recounted by Robertson 201

see also Peru

India

Brahminism within 128

British treatment of 204, 336, 337

Christianity within 124, 126, 131

civilisation, as understood by Europeans 180

depiction in Raynal's Histoire 239, 247–53, 267

European imperialism 31

European treatment, theme within Raynal's
Histoire 239

religious concepts of time 130

see also Asian ocean basins

Indian Ocean

commercial enterprise within 293 views of in Raynal's Histoire 325

indigenous

concept 3

application to the 'savage' 176

industry, lack of development in India 250 innocent savages, myth 160

Inuit (Eskimaux) 172, 193, 315

Iran

Christianity within, de Guignes's views 131–2 role within the Persian empire 23

Ireland

Enlightenment historiography 209

relations with the 'British empire' 336

Irish

Japhetic genealogy 20

Noachic genealogy 39

iron industry, as evidence of civilisation 39

iron smelting, Indians' ignorance of, as evidence of lack of civilisation in the Americas,
Robertson's views 200

Iroquois 49

Islam 6

as affected by the Tartars 134

Avars' contacts with 133

civilisation, as understood by Europeans 180

European encounters with 161, 246, 247n. 2

influence 146, 149, 152

theme within Raynal's Histoire 240, 242–5

within the Roman empire, Gibbon's concern with 333

islands, civilisation, views of in the Histoire des deux Indes 254–5

Israel

civilisation 70, 78

distinguished from barbarian gentiles 14

People of Israel 305

Jacobinism, Burke's views 82

Jacobitism 66

Jamaica

English conquest 295

slavery within 305–6

Japan

depiction in Raynal's Histoire 255, 259–62, 268

Voltaire's views 261n. 42

Japhet (son of Noah), as ancestor of the Turks,
de Guignes's views 121

Japhetic civilisation

within Central Asia 106–7

within the western islands 106

Japhetic genealogies 19–20, 21, 79

and the peopling of the Americas, use by Acosta 162–4

the settlement of the western isles, Carte's
views 66–78

used in the description of Gothic origins 95

see also biblical chronologies

Javanic genealogy, and the origins of the Greeks 48–9

Jefferson, Thomas 315, 324

Jerome, St 127

Jesuits 292

encounters with American tribes 49

Eurocentrism, in China 245

Gibbon's dependence on for Chinese history 110 historiography of creole Catholic culture 193 opposition to Buddhism 265

regard Confucian literati as a ruling elite in Chinese society 140

understanding of China 101–6, 107–9, 114

Cambridge University Press

0521856256 - Barbarism and Religion, Volume Four: Barbarians, Savages and Empires

J. G. A. Pocock

Index

More information

Index

363

- utopian societies in California and Paraguay 286–9
see also creoles
- Jews, Goguet's views 63
- Jones, Sir William (British orientalist) 31, 124, 338
- Jordanes 93–4
- Judas Maccabeus 72
- Julian the Apostate (Roman emperor) 2, 11, 19
- Julius Civilis 90
- Jupiter 62, 66, 67
- Kalaharians 46
- kalpa* 130
- Kant, Immanuel 177
- Khitan peoples 101
- Khoi peoples (Hottentots) 269, 270–2
- Kidd, Colin 65, 66n. 10
- King Coil (Cole) 66n. 11
- kingship
development from clan systems, Carte's views 75–6
patriarchal kingship, Carte's views 74
- Kubilai Khan 107
- labour, as indication of levels of civilisation, Robertson's views 196–7
- labourage* 55
- Lacedaemonians
oral tradition as the basis of laws, Carte's views 70
warlike nature 71
- lamas 128
depiction in Raynal's Histoire 263, 264
- land ownership, Germanic practices 82–4
- language, and the development of urban
civilisation 170
- Lapps 193, 315
reindeer husbandry 199
shepherding stage 172
- Las Casas, Bartolomé de as portrayed by Robertson 185, 186, 188
views of human nature 162–3
- Lavaisse, Jean-Baptiste 269n. 2
- law, Goguet's views on the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 52, 53–5, 57
- Lecomte, Louis 104, 110
- legal practices, lack of among Germans 80, 82–3
- legislation, role within religion 33
Legislation Orientale (Antequil) 30, 36
- legislators, as marks of civilisation, role in the conquest of the New World 286
- Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm 108, 252
- Lenman, Bruce 224
- letters, as evidence of civilisation 173, 285
- Levites 33
- libertas*, and imperium, within the Roman empire 332
- liberty, and barbarism 13
- literature, as evidence of civilisation among the Mexicans 218, 221
- Liu-yen 114, 116
monarchical policy 145, 146
- Locke, John 195
development of the concept of the state of nature 168–9
distinction between pasturage and tillage 80 political economy 43, 55, 56
- Longobardi, Niccoló 103n. 11
- Lotus-eaters 160
- Louis XIV (king of France) 61
- Louisiana (French colony) 198, 314, 318
- Lucretius 102
- Lüsebrink, Hans-Jürgen 234n. 11
- luxury, and commerce, theme within Raynal's
Histoire 241
- Lycurgus 32n. 50
- Mably, Abbé 83n. 19
- Macao 255
- Machiavelli, Niccoló 12, 178 legislation seen as negating history 256
on religion 29
- Macpherson, James 73
and imagination 170
views on bardic poetry 88
see also Ossian
- Maetae, and clan system 75
- Magellan, Ferdinand 191
- Magog 122
as father of pastoralists and nomads 99, 100
- maize, cultivation, as evidence of civilisation in Mexico and Peru 173
- Malacca, depiction in Raynal's Histoire 253–4
- Malaya, depiction in Raynal's Histoire 254, 255
- Malebranche, Nicolas 252
- Mama Ocello 203, 286
- Mameluke empire, slavery within 21
- Manchu dynasty 118n. 13, 134
- Manchu peoples 101–2
- Manco Capac 203, 286
- Manicheanism 130, 131
de Guignes's views 124, 132
- Maninach (son of Japhet) 122
- manners
culture, within China 108 despotism, as seen within Chinese society, in Raynal's Histoire 258
history, and its effects on classical historiography 92

- Maori
 cannibalism 47
 community of language with the Tahitians 289
- Marcomanni (Germanic tribe) 91
- Marcus Antonius, response to barbarian confederations' threat to the empire 90–1
- Maria Theresa 184
- Marianas 289
- Marina, Doña (Cortes's concubine) 282
- maritime empire, Anglo-French competition, in Raynal's Histoire 295–300, 310–12
- Maroons 304–6
- Martinique 309
- Mason–Dixon line 321
- Maximin (Roman emperor) 18
- Median empire, failure to survive, de Guignes's views 137
- Meek, R. L. 100n. 3
- Mémoires Littéraires* (Gibbon) 107
- Mémoires sur la Chine* (Lacomte) 110
- Mercury 66, 67
- Mesopotamia
 neglected by Enlightenment philosophy 7
 origins of urban civilisation 65
- metallurgy
 among the Germans, Gibbon's views problematic 90
 among the Goths, as a problem for Gibbon's view of savagery 94
 Goguet's views on the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 56 ignorance as evidence of lack of civilisation in the Americas, Robertson's views 194 nomads' ability to use doubted 150
- metaphysics
philosophes' obsessive invective against 253
 role, Anquetil's views 28–9
- metempsychosis 264
- Methuen treaty 292
- Mexico
 civilisation, Goguet's views 59
 conquest, Clavijero's narrative history 222–3
 cultures 275, 282
 history, sources cited by Clavijero 212–13 imperial status queried 173, 174, 178, 180
 societies 162
 Spanish conquest, and the savagery of Mexican cultures 284–5
see also Aztecs
- Millar, John 93n. 50, 99
- Ming-ti (Han emperor) 125–6
- miscegenation, within colonial societies 282
- monarchy
 among the Germanic tribes 85
 as evidence of civilisation, Robertson's views 199
 Goguet's views 60–1, 63
 universal monarchy 334
- monasticism
philosophes' obsessive invective against 253, 257
 social apathy seen as caused by lack of property ownership 287–8
- money
 devaluation, within the Spanish empire 290 effects on the development of government 169
 as evidence of civilisation 39–40, 173
 Gibbon's views 285
 lack of use among the Incas and Aztecs 202
- Mongols 14, 101, 107
 influenced by Islam 146
- monks, Gibbon's treatment 84–5
- monotheism, as natural religion 15
- Montesquieu 37n. 1 criticised for views of Christianity, within Raynal's Historie 238 on feudalism 22
 on slavery and despotism 23–4 views Chinese dynasties as symptomatic of oriental despotism 107, 108
- Montezuma 200, 201, 211, 213, 217
- morality, Germanic practices 82–4
- Morris, Lewis (Welsh antiquary) 70
- Moses, de Guignes's historiography 119
- Muhammad 85n. 28, 94
- Nahuatl language 218
- Nanyang (Malaya) 240, 255
- narrative history
 Enlightenment disregard for 256–7
 Robertson's use 200–4
see also history
- Natchez culture 198, 199, 201
- nationalism, concept 210
- natural histories, co-existence with Noachic genealogies 99
- Natural History of Religion* (Hume) 31
- natural law, concepts 166–7
- natural man
 as artificial concept 269
 within the Americas rather than Asia 246
- natural religion, as monotheism 15
- nature
 concept applied to the Americas 171
 and 'history', Enlightened concerns 232 state of and appropriation 168–9, 170
 Robertson's views of 190
- naval exploration, as threat to civilisation 278–81
- navalism, rhetoric 310–12

- Navarrette, Domingo Fernandes 103n. 11
 navigation
   and commerce 255
   deleterious effects on civilisation 295
   failure to establish commerce in the New World 291 navigational exploration, impact upon European enlightenment, views within Raynal's Histoire 325–8
- Necker, Suzanne, accuses Gibbon of not understanding women 87
- Neo-Platonism
   absence from pre-Columbian history 214
   and the prisca theologia 104–5, 109
- Neptune 62
- Nestorianism
   Avars' contacts with 133
   de Guignes's views 124, 131
- New England 319
   Robertson's history 192, 204
- New World
   English policy towards, after the Seven Years War 299–301
   European colonisation, prompts European self-hatred, within Raynal's Histoire 271–93 European exploration, and the encounter with 'barbarians' and 'savages' 157–8, 160–3 in Raynal's Histoire 232
- New Zealand 327
- Nezahualcoyotl of Texcoco 203n. 56, 213
- Nezahualpilli of Texcoco 213
- Nimrod, foundation of Babylon, Goguet's views 59
- Ninias (Assyrian monarch) 59–61
- Noachic genealogies
   Chinese history in relation to 104–5, 107
   Clavijero uses 213–14
   co-existence with natural and civil history 99
   de Guignes's use 111, 120–2
   and the evolution of civilisation 2, 77
- Noah, personifications, for Gentile knowledge of God 104
- nomadism
   effects upon the concept of empire 335–6 Germans practice 80
   historiography 178
   and the settlement of the western islands 68–9
   in Strathclyde 73
   treatment in the Decline and Fall 3
- nomads
   Chinese influence upon, and the invasions of the Roman empire 133–8, 143–53 influence upon China, de Guignes's views 135, 143–4
- Magogic origins 99
- non-being 128–9
- non-Christian religions, European encounters with in the Asian ocean basins 246, 247–53, 260–5
- non-European civilisations, Eurocentrism in narratives about 247
- le nord* ('the north') 12, 94
   associated with Scandinavia 127
- Norman Conquest, legal justification 209
- North America
   English colonists within 335
   as viewed in Raynal's Histoire 313–24, 327
   see also Americas
- oceanic commerce, European control, theme within Raynal's Histoire 230–3, 234–45
- oceanic migration, decivilising nature 289
- oceanography, and Asia, theme within Raynal's Histoire 240
- Odin
   characterised as Noachic figure 104
   cult 85
   interpretations 94
   Votan 213
   as Woden/Wotan, identified with Fo 126–7
- Old World 271
- Olympic gods, and the evolution of civilisation 66, 67, 77
- onanism 290
- oral systems, importance for evolution of civilisation denied by Gibbon 79
- oral traditions
   as evidence of civilisation among pre-Columbian peoples 221 Goguet's views on the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 57
   role in civilisation, Carte's views 69–70, 77
   seen as inferior to writing for the evolution of civilisation 39 within nomadic societies 178
- orang-utans 49
- oriental despotism 267
   concept rejected by Robertson 202 concept within the India of the second British empire 338 impact on views about the Asian people 107–8
   theme within Raynal's Histoire 244
   see also despotism
- orientalism 12, 180
   and barbarianism 18, 21–2, 24–5
   and despotism 36
   Anquetil's views 30
   see also despotism
- Ormuzd 32, 132, 249

366

Ossian 57
   Hume's suspicions of 70
   see also Macpherson, James Ottoman empire
   Gibbon's lack of concern with 334
   slavery within 21
   treatment in the Decline and Fall 4
 Ottoman Turks 107, 111
   invasions of the Roman empire 133
   see also Turks over-population, effects in Chinese society, views
   within Raynal's Histoire 258–9
 Oxford, Anquetil visits 30
 Oxford University, Gibbon's disappointment
   with 26

 Pacific islands, peripheral nature, in relation to Raynal's Histoire 271
 Pagden, Anthony 206
 Paine, Thomas 324
 the palace, role within empire 22, 23
 papal legacy, religious policies within China results in ban on mission 103–4
 Paraguay, Jesuits' utopian society 287–8
 Parthians, role within the Persian empire 24 passions, history, Gibbon's concern with 80–4, 86–9
 pastoralism
   colonisation of America, Ferguson's views 150 as evidence of civilisation in the western islands 65
   role in European history 2
   see also pastoralists
   classified as savages 99–100 distinguished from savages 100–1
   Magogic origins 99
 Patagonians 46
 patriarchalism, questions in relation to Enlightenment views of the evolution of
   civilisation 77–8
 patriot invective 26
 Paxton Boys 321
 Pelloutier, Simon 20, 66
 Penn, William 319–20
 Pennsylvania, enlightenment within 319–21, 327
 Pentateuch, historical authority, de Guignes's views influence his writing of Chinese history 116–21
 Persian empire, failure to survive, de Guignes's views 137
 Persians 11–12
   Achaemenid empire, seen as 'barbarian' by the Greeks 159
   Gibbon's account of 16, 19, 23–36, 201

Index

Peru
   civilisation 162
   Goguet's views 59
   colonisation 277–8
   conquest, and the savagery of its cultures 285–6
   imperial status queried 173, 174, 178, 180
   see also Incas
 Peruty, Antoine-Joseph 269n. 2
 Peter Lombard 252
 Pezron (Celticist scholar) 66 Pherecydes (supposed Phoenician teacher of Pythagoras) 32n. 50 Pherozabadius of Camus 26
 Philip (Roman emperor) 18 Philippines 289
 philology, within historiography 219–20
 philosophical history problem of the history of settler societies 203–4
   relations with civil history, in historiography 177–9
   see also history
 philosophy and the development of religion 15–16
   history, origins 124–5
   as the liberator of Europe from barbarism and religion, theme within Raynal's Histoire 239
   origins 105
   role within religion, Gibbon's views 32
   use in Raynal's Histoire 249
 Phoenicians, civilising activities 71, 100
 Phoroneus 62
 Picts
   clan system 75–6
   uncivilised nature 73
 Pitt, William (1st Earl of Chatham) 299
 Pizarro, Francisco 191, 201, 209 plantation economies, in the West Indies 295 planters, relations with empire 335–6, 337
 Plato 62
   Gibbon's treatment of 26
   Republic criticised by Aristotle 287–8
 Platonism, suggested Brahminical origins 252, 253
 ploughs absence in the Americas 172–3 invention of as indication of civilisation 13–14
 Pocock, Sir George 299
 Pockocke, Edward 26
 Polyphemus 159
 population levels, decrease within the New World 290

- Portugal 310
 circumnavigation of Africa (1497–8), theme within Raynal's Histoire 239–40, 241–2, 244–5 colonial expansion, as manifestation of European barbarism 278–80, 285, 292 commercial expansion into the Asian ocean basins, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246, 253, 255, 262, 265
 exploration of West Africa 185
 'post-medieval' 230
 Potosi, mines 277, 288
 pre-Columbian societies, Acosta's stadial ranking 164–7 priestcraft 15, 105, 128 priesthood 332
 as evidence of civilisation, Robertson's views 199
 legal role, Goguet's views 57
 role within the Persian empire 25–36
prisca theologia 104–5, 109
 property
 among the Germans 85
 as evidence of civilisation, Robertson's views 198–9
 Goguet's views 58
 lacking in Paraguay, as cause of social apathy 287–8 prophecy, role within the Persian empire 25–36 providence, doctrine, and civilisation, Robertson's views 200 public finance, history, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 266 Pufendorf, Samuel, natural jurisprudence 42–3 Pythagoras 131
 characterised as Noachic figure 104
 Ricci's views of 125
 Pythagoreanism, suggested Brahminical origins 252–3
- Quadi (German tribe) 91
 Quakers 321, 327
 Quebec Act (1774) 318
quipu 202
- race
 and skin pigmentation 169n. 28
 in Raynal's Histoire 302, 304 racial polygeneticism, Robertson rejects 195
 racialism 21
 'rational voluptuaries' 86
 Raynal, Abbé Guillaume-Thomas-François 191, 223, 267, 324, 331
 Clavijero's criticisms of 211
 concerns with empire and decivilisation 337
 contribution to the Histoire des deux Indes 325
 cosmopolitanism 207
 criticisms of European colonisation policies 225–6
 Eurocentrism 245
 Gibbon's criticisms 229
 Gibbon's disapproval and Robertson's approval of 203
 historiography 192, 193, 220
 in relation to the Americas 175, 176, 178, 180
 philosophical history of Europe 181
 research methods 184–5
 views of pre-Columbian society as savage 205–6
see also Histoire des deux Indes (Raynal)
- Recherches philosophiques sur les Américains* (de Pauw) 80, 175–6, 212
Recherches philosophiques sur les Egyptiens et les Chinois (de Pauw) 175
Recherches philosophiques sur les Grecs (de Pauw) 175 reincarnation, doctrine 128 reindeer, husbandry, as evidence of civilisation, Robertson's views 199 religion
 and barbarism 14–16
 as evidence of civilisation, Robertson's views 199
 Gibbon's concerns with 340
 history, and its effects on classical historiography 92 invention 269–70
 role, Anquetil's views 28–9
 treatment in the Decline and Fall 1, 2–3, 5
 within Britain's American colonies 204 religions
 pre-Columbian religions seen as of Noachic origins 209
 within Japan, in Raynal's Histoire 260–1 religious enthusiasm, and the colonisation of North America 319–20 religious intolerance 31, 33–6
 religious liberty, in North America 321 religious practices, among the Incas and Aztecs 203
Remains of Japhet 65, 69
Révolutions de Paris, criticisms of Diderot's contributions to Raynal's Histoire 234 rhetoric dependence on writing 165 function 308
 and historiography 271
 Rhys, Dr John David (grammarian) 70 Ricci, Matteo 15, 102–3, 104, 108 views of Buddhism within China 125 views of Confucianism 125, 128

- rice growing, Chinese development 173
- Rites controversy 103, 108
- river valleys, settlement, Goguet's views on the evolution of civilisation 58–9, 62
- roads, Inca use 202
- Robertson, William 81, 226, 248, 334, 338
on civilisation 84
Clavijero's criticisms of Robertson and his fellow writers 209, 211–19, 223–4
cosmopolitanism 207
criticised for his views of Spanish America 205–6, 208–11
historiography 192–204, 220, 222
in relation to the Americas 175, 176, 178–80
interest in British India 6
research methods 183–5
stadial theory 2, 5
treatment of the pre-colonial Americas as 'savage' 181–91
see also History of America (Robertson); Charles V
- Roman army, defeat by Germans seen as the result of barbarian infiltration 90–1
- Roman empire collapse, and the evolution of European states 75 concept dominates west European historical imagination 331–3 disintegration of imperial pagan Rome as treated in the Decline and Fall 1–3 failure to survive, de Guignes's views 137
imperium 336
nomadic invasions influenced by Chinese affairs 133–8, 143–53 parallels with British imperial history 5–6
- Roman republic, stadial theories about 41
- Romans
bardic poetry 89–90
civilisation, Goguet's views 59
and commerce, theme within Raynal's Histoire 237–8, 241 settlement of Britain as civilising influence 71–3
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 7, 233
idealisation of the savage 193 mention of the educated Hottentot 271
- Routren (Eshwara) 129
- Rudbeck, Olaus 20, 66
- Rukhneddin Mohammed of Samarkand (Imam) 130
- Russ (son of Japhet) 122
- Russia, commercial expansion into eastern Asia, as narrated in Raynal's Histoire 246, 266
- Russian cartography 240
- Russian empire, role in the Decline and Fall 334–5
- sacerdotium*, and imperium, within the Roman empire 333–4
- Sadder 26
- Said, Edward 12n. 6
- Sainte-Marie (Antonio Caballero a Santa Maria) 103n. 11
- Sainte-Palaye, Lacurne de 195
- Saklab (son of Japhet) 122
- Samanaeans 129
- Samoyeds 193
- San Domingo 309–10
- Sanhuai (Buddhist philosopher) 125
- Sanskrit 249, 338
- Saturn 62, 66
- savage* 269, 275, 284
as applied to North American peoples 315
'savage'
concept, applied to the Americas by Robertson 181–91
concept within Raynal's Histoire 242
Gibbon's use of the term 7–8
term applied to the Americas by Europeans 171, 172 within the Americas, Robertson's views of the concept and factors affecting it 193–200
- savagery
and the corruption of civilisation 255 distinguished from civilisation, Gibbon's views 285
Gibbon sees as characteristic of the Germans 79–96 Gibbon's views contrasted 95–6 not applicable to the nations of the Asian ocean basins 246–7 as 'state of nature' 95
as typical of island peoples 254 within the Americas 246
see also barbarism
- savages 331
and barbarians, concepts applied to the American peoples 161–7 classification applied to pastoralists 99–100
concept 157–8
effects on European seaborne empires 3–4, 6–7
in history 272 importance, within Raynal's Histoire 316–18
de Guignes's use of the term 149 application to elements of Chinese society 142, 143 denied a part in history 337 distinguished from pastoralists 38, 100–1 encounters with European states 335
Gibbon's use of the term 2, 19, 21
lack of historiography 178

- moral equivalence with civilised man 175
 noble savages, myth 160
 term interchangeable with that of barbarians 158–61
- Saxon Heptarchy 75, 76
- Scandinavia
 possible place of origin of the Goths 94, 127 role in the nomadic invasions of Europe, de Guignes's views 148
- Scandinavians, bardic poetry 88
- Scotland
 philosophers' treatment of stadial theory 2
 relations with the 'British empire' 336
- Scots
 clan system 75
 ethnic origins 73
- Scottish historiography, philosophy, understanding of barbarism 157
- Scottish political economy 42–3
- Scripture, as revelation of human origins, Robertson accepts 195
- Scythians 37, 68
 identified with Germans and Goths 12
 Robertson's views of 189
 role within the Persian empire 23, 24
 as savages 96
- second nature 162–3, 197
- Secret of the Poets* (Cyfrinach y Berdd) 69, 70, 74, 77
- Seljuks, invasions of the eastern empire 133, 134
- Selkirk, Alexander 316
- serfdom
 effects on Russia 266
 European 304
- settler societies, history, problem of writing 203–4
- settlers
 concept, in history 272
 relations with empire 335–6, 337
- Seven Years War 299
- sexuality
 as indication of levels of civilisation, Robertson's views 197–8 and the natures of the European colonies 282–4
- shamanism 128
- Shang dynasty 134
- Shem (son of Noah)
 de Guignes's views 121
 personifications, for Gentile knowledge of God 104, 105
- shepherding absence from Inca and Aztec cultures 202
 and barbarism 157
 concept within stadial theory 170–1
 and the emergence of civilisation 41
 importance for Gibbon 64
 lacking in the history of the Americas 172 role within European history 2, 3, 172
see also pastoralism; stadial theories
- shepherds, differentiated from savages 38
- Shih Ching* (Book of Odes) 114, 115–16
- shih* (duration) 130
- Shinto, in Raynal's Histoire 260
- shrines, Germanic 89
- Shu Ching* 114
- Siam, religious life 131
- Siberian–Alaskan land-bridge, and the peopling of the Americas 194
- Sioux 315
- Sitones (Germanic tribe), female monarchy 85
- skin pigmentation and race, in the Raynal's Histoire 302, 304 and racial divisions 169n. 28 in relation to the state of savagery, Robertson's views 193, 195
- slave trade, role in Gibbon and Raynal 229
- slaves and slavery African slavery 302, 304–6
 place within Enlightened historiography 225 Africans' resistance to slavery in the West Indies 304–6 concept, in history 272
 and despotism 23–4
 effects on European seaborne empires 6
 indictment, within Raynal's Histoire 326, 327 influence on civilisation 313
 and orientalism 21–5
 in the West Indies 294, 295
 within the classical world 158
 within the southern North American states 321
- Smith, Adam 43, 62, 99
 on the civilisation of the British Isles 78 on farming as evidence of civilisation 51–2
 historiography 186–7
 on pastoralism as evolution from savagery 100, 171
 stadial theory 2, 5, 41, 171
 views on barbarism 22
- Snorri Sturluson 16, 126–7
- societies, development in the European mode inescapable 270
- society, progress, philosophy as reflected in Robertson's historiography 186–7
- softness, concept 87–8
- Solon 32n. 50
- sovereignty, contrasts between Chinese and Roman societies, de Guignes's views 138–40

370

Index

Spain

- government obstructs Robertson's researches 183–4
- government rejects Boturini's proposed history of the New World (1749) 210
- government's legalistic basis unknown to the authors of Raynal's Histoire 284
- history that of barbarism and religion 295
- manifests European barbarism 275–92
- monarchy, role in the conquest of America 208
- responses to Robertson's History of America 179, 205–6
- as universal monarchy 334
- Spanish clerical scholarship, Robertson's views 193
- Spanish empire
  - American conquests, Robertson's views 181, 185–8, 191
  - colonists within 335–6
  - concepts of savagery, applied to the Americas 171
  - conquest of the Americas, Robertson's use of narrative history 200–4
  - conquest of Mexico and encounters with savage cultures 284–5
  - debates on the nature of the peoples encountered within the Americas 161–7
  - imposition of slavery upon the Americas 304
  - see also* Americas
- Spanish Enlightenment 206–8
- Spanish Succession, War of 206
- Spartans, liberty 13
- Speech on Conciliation* (Burke) 324
- Spinoza, Baruch 102, 128
- Spring and Autumn Annals* (Confucius) 109, 116
- Sri Lanka ('Ceylan'), depiction in Raynal's Histoire 253, 263
- Ssu-ma Ch'ien 109, 116
- Ssu-ma Kuang 109
  - Gibbon's use as source material 110
- stadial theories 2, 3, 14, 164
  - Acosta's ranking of pre-Columbian American societies 164–7
  - application to the Greeks 48–9
  - applied to Inca and Aztec cultures, Robertson's views 202–3
  - de Pauw's views support their inapplicability to the Americas 176
  - development 167–71
  - differences of application between Europe and America 199
  - difficulties of application to the Americas 171–4

- and the emergence of civilisation 41
- Robertson's application to the Americas 179–80, 186, 190, 202–3
- see also* shepherding
- standing armies 60
- state archives, recognition of value in European historiography 184
- 'state of nature', as savagery 95
- states, establishment, Goguet's views on 58–61
- the steppe 37–8, 144
  - domination by Russia and China 335
- Storia antica del Messico* (Clavijero) 211
- Strathclyde, nomadism within 73
- Strugnell, Anthony 234n. 11
- subintroductae* 260
- sugar production, West Indies 309
- suicide, Japanese views 261, 262
- Suiones (Germanic tribe) 84–5
- sun, creation, religious belief among the Inca 203n. 56
- Sung dynasty, and the nomadic invasions of the Roman empire 133–4
- superstition, and despotism, Robertson's views 199
- Supplément au Voyage de Bougainville* (Diderot) 269, 277
- Sweden, iron industry 39
- Ta-tsin, land of 126
- Tacitus 177
  - on barbarism 17, 20, 37, 38
  - De Moribus Germanorum*, Gibbon's treatment 79, 96
  - on the Germans 84–5
- Tahitians
  - community of language with the Maori 289
  - natural society seen as fictional 269–70
- Talapoins 131, 264
- Tamerlane (Timur) 4, 107
- T'ang dynasty 135
  - and the Avars' invasion of the Roman empire 133
- Tanju, territorial extent 147
- Tao Te Ching* 307
- Taoism 103, 108
- tapu* 270
- Tarikh (son of Japhet) 122
- 'Tartarie', depiction in Raynal's Histoire 263–4
- Tartars
  - as ancestors of the English 106
  - Chinese origins and nomadic invasions of the Roman empire, de Guignes's views 150–2
  - de Guignes's understanding of 144

- history, de Guignes's views 120–1
 impact on Islam 134
 Noachic genealogy 39
 Tasmanians 46
 Tasso, Torquato 88, 89, 239
 Taycosama (presumed founder of Tokugawa shogunate) 262
 Tenochtitlan 213, 215–16
 Teutonic peoples 13
 Texcoco 213
 theism, in relation to Confucianism and Jesuit missions within China 102–3, 104
 theocracy 288
 Theodore of Mopsuestia 130
thèse royale 61, 63
 Thomas Aquinas 252
 Thomas, St, mission to India 124
 Thracians, identified with Germans and Goths 12 Tibet
   Buddhism 128
   depiction in Raynal's Histoire 263–4
   theocracy 288
Tien (Heaven), cult, within Confucianism 102–3
 Timur (Tamerlane) 4, 107
 Timurids, invasions of the Roman empire 133 Titans 62
   civilising role in the western islands 66–7
   as savages 159
 tithes 33, 34, 36
 Tlascalca 213
 Tlaxcaltecs, savagery 284
 Toba, territorial extent 147
 Tokugawa shogunate 262, 263 toleration, function 320–1
 Toltecs 213, 214
 Tomiris (Scythian queen) 13
 Toryism 66
 trade, effects, within the West Indies 301 trade routes, and the extension of the Black Death 151–2 travellers, attitudes towards in the writing of history 178
Tirregno (Giannone) 15
 Tupinamba, cannibalism, and savagery 163
 Turk (son of Japhet) 122
 Turks encounter Zoroastrianism in Iran 131–2
   influenced by Islam 146
   theme within Raynal's Histoire 242, 244
   see also Ottoman Turks Ukraine, 'state of nature' 95
 Upsala 94
 Uranus 66
 Ussher, James (Archbishop of Armagh) 44
 utopia concept in Diderot's account of seaborne empires 337 concept within the Jesuit missions in California and Paraguay 286–9
 'Utrecht Enlightenment' 206
 Utrecht, Treaty (1713) 206, 296, 297
 Uzbek, character in Montesquieu's Lettres Persanes 23–4
 Valens, emperor 19
 Valentinianism 130
 Valhalla 82
 Valle de Oaxaca, Marques del 201; see Cortes van Riebeeck (Dutch colonist) 270
 Vandals, as savages 96
 Versailles, role 23
 Vico, Giambattista 210
 Vieira, Antonio 292
View of the Progress of Society in Europe (Robertson) 84, 178, 179 Spain's minimal role 208
 Virginia, Robertson's history 192, 204
 Vishnu 129
 Voltaire 36, 61, 62, 152, 184
   ambiguous attitude towards the Jesuits 287 assault on biblical chronologies in evolution of civilisation 44 on buccaneers 284
   concept of 'the north' 94 criticises Jesuits for Eurocentrism in China 245 criticises oriental despotism 338 on Japan 261n. 42
   rejection of history 273
   stadial theory 5
   on Tasso's superiority to Homer 89n. 41 views of China 257 views of Christianity 230 views of Confucianism and Christian missions within China 103 views of narrative history 256 see also Essai sur les Moeurs (Voltaire) Voltaire Foundation 234n. 11
 Votan see Odin
 Waddilove, Mr (chaplain of the British embassy in Madrid) 183
waka 289
 Walpole, Sir Robert 297
 Walton, Brian 26
 Wang Mang (Chinese usurper) 118
 War of Spanish Succession, as viewed in the Histoire des deux Indes 295–6

- warfare
 changing nature from land settlement to maritime commerce 274–5 effects on barbarians, Gibbon's views 261 practice
   among the Germans and the French 89n. 40
   Gibbon's views 82
   role in Chinese and European history, de Guignes's views 118
 Wen-wang (source for the I Ching) 115
 West Indies 234
   account of in Raynal's Histoire 294–5, 297, 304–9
 western islands
   civilisation 65–78
   Japhetic origins of civilisation 106
 the wheel, absence in the Americas 172–3 Whigs, economics, and civilisation 40
 Whittaker, John 73
 William of Normandy 69
 William of Orange 69
 Williams, Charles 40
 Woden 338
   as Wotan/Odin, identified with Fo 126–7 women religious role, in Raynal's Histoire 260 social status
     as evidence of civilisation 174; Robertson's views 197–8
     in German society 85–8
     in Mexican society 217, 282 subjection through religion 248
     within the classical world 158
 writing ability to write seen as lacking in Inca and Aztec society 208
   as evidence of civilisation among the Mexicans 218, 220
   Goguet's views on the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 57
   rhetoric's dependence on 165 seen as essential for the emergence of civilisation from barbarism 38, 39–40 written script, use among the Incas and Aztecs 202 written systems, importance for evolution of civilisation, stressed by Gibbon 79 written traditions, role in civilisation, Carte's views 69–70 Yuan dynasty, and the nomadic invasions of the Roman empire 134
 Yucatan see Mexico
 Yueh-chi (Getae), religion 126–7
 Zarouan (Zurvan/Hazarouam)(time) 130, 132
Zend-Avesta 27, 30n. 40, 131
 Zenobia of Palmyra 85
 Zoroaster 85, 124
   characterised as Noachic figure 104
 Zoroastrianism 16
   Turks encounter in Iran 131–2
   within the Persian empire 25–35
 Zwin (son of Japhet) 122