

INDEX

- Académie Française, 16–18, 233, 248
Adolphe (1816, novel)
 character traits conflicting with modern mores, 174, 201–202
 Constant's legacy and, 365–367
 Ellénore character, 8–11, 173
 feminist interpretation, 367 Freudian interpretation, 14 historical progress, 242, 244–246
 liberty and, 202
 man can't bring himself to leave tired relationship, 14
 mother's early death, 14 movie adaptation of, 18
 religion and, 202, 301–302
 religious sentiment, 217–218
 self-defeating dialectic of desire, 180, 200, 215–216
 transparent intimacy in, 199
 Verhoeff on, 14
 Agier defection, 161
 agrarian reform, 80
 Algerian conquest. See war
 Alsatian representation, 167
 American transcendentalism, 358–361 anachronistic thinking collective unconsciousness and, 29
 despotism and, 29–30, 70
 freedoms not suited to modern times, 64, 72
 slavery and, 70
 Spartan model, 86
 in the Terror, 110
 in Wallenstein, 241 Ancient and Modern Liberty (1819 lecture), 64, 66, 69
 ancient liberty, 51 collective decision making and, 53 dangers of, 69
 direct collective participation in government, 111
 equality as incompatible with, 53, 56 exclusively public, 111
 as “freedom from,” not “freedom to,” 52 freedom to choose kinds of freedoms, 51 individual rights and, 69
 individual will and, 66
 individualism and, 75
 modern liberty combined with, 69
 national sovereignty and, 53 nostalgia for, 68 ostracism and, 54–55 personal identity and, 12
 population size and, 58
 positive liberty, 51
 public trials, 53
 slave trade with, 53
 Sparta, 12
 trade-offs in, 58
 war and, 52
 ancient–modern dispute of seventeenth century, 252
Appel aux nations chretiennes en faveur des Grecs, 16
 arbitrary treatment by authority enforcement of contracts, 89 sense of personal security, 59
 the Terror and, 103
 art. See religion, religious sentiment, transcendence

404 Index

- Athénée Royal lectures on religion (1818), 15, 291
 Athénée Royal speech (1825), 89
- banishment, 59
 ancient liberty and, 54–55
 commerce and, 55
 governments' proper functions and, 82
 modern liberty and, 54, 59–60 Napoleonic France and, 60 public welfare harmed by, 60
 regicides, 158
 societal supremacy over the individual, 54
- Berlin, Sir Isaiah, 18, 72
 Bernadotte, Jean-Baptiste, 12–14
 Bernese nobility, 4
 Bolshevik Revolution, 95
 Bonald, Louis, 41, 43
 Bonaparte Tribunal, 7
 Bonaparte, Napoleon
 Constant and, 7–9
 usurper status of, 84
 Breyer, U.S. Sup. Ct. Justice, 375 Brunswick, Duke of, 6, 10, 182, 184 budgets, refusals to grant, 155, 157 bureaucratic control, 43
 Burke, Edmund, 36, 41, 96–97
- Cahier rouge, Le. See Ma Vie*
 Carbonari conspiracy, 159–161
 Catholic Church, 148
Cécile (unfinished work), 10–12, 14, 18, 242–243
 censorship. See freedom of the press Chandieu-Villars, Henriette-Pauline de née (1742–67), 5 character analysis, 197 combinations of traits, 239
 literature and, 239
 modern mores and, 174
 modern society and, 201–205
 Charles X, 17, 155–156
 Charrière, Isabelle de, 5–7, 173, 182–186, 195
 friendship and, 199
 Charter (1814), 17, 89
 Chateaubriand, 17, 151, 161, 163, 218
- checks and balances, 87
 corrupt officials and, 48
 the Terror and, 105
 China, 84, 233
 church–state separation, 282
 civil society
 civic-mindedness in, 89
 civil freedom and, 83
 commerce and, 83, 322
 individualism and, 89
 political sphere and zero-sum illusion, 33
 political sphere as causing, 35 political sphere as mutually supportive with, 32 Club de Salm political society, 7 collective authority, 12, 112
 ancient liberty and, 53
 collective will as illusory, 28–29
 individual rights and, 30–33
 literature as opposing, 233 political order as prior to, 41 primacy of whole over parts, 30–31 collective unconscious, 29 collective will. See will colonialism. See imperial expansionism, slavery, war Commentaire sur l'ouvrage de Filangieri (1822–24), 49, 77, 133, 141 commerce, 12
 accommodationist theology and, 336, 338
 banishment diminished by, 55
 civil freedom and, 83
 civil society and, 322 freedom and, 209
 liberty and, 72, 211, 322
 modern age of, 70
 optimism about effects of, 89
 political liberty as arising from, 209 sense of individual independence and, 70
 slavery and, 131
 social disintegration and, 71
 utilitarianism and, 71
 war and, 65, 78, 120
 communitarian critique of liberalism, 373–374
 comparative method, 29

- Condorcet
 on perfectibility, 249
 on science, 236, 238
 conformist pressure on thinking, 45, 58
Considérations sur la France (Maistre), 97–99 Constant de Rebecque, Benjamin-Henri.
 See Constant, Benjamin
 Constant de Rebecque, Louis-Arnold-Juste de (1726–1812), 4 Constant, Benjamin abolitionist views of, 130–132
 Adolphe, 365–367
 ambivalence toward French public, 123
 American popularity of, 207
 character of, 174–177, 178, 356–358
 chronology of, xxiii–xxvii class antagonism and, 354 depression, 175, 184, 198–201
 duels, 5, 153, 166, 181, 198
 early life, 4, 208
 emotional health, 198
 English influences, 5–6, 43, 81, 87–88, 135, 249
 ennui, 175, 184
 family background generally, 4, 177–179 father, 6, 12, 177, 178, 184, 208 friendships, 199 funeral, 17, 352
 gambling, 149, 174, 180, 198
 German influences, 9
 gradualist approach of, 144
 historical approach of, 333 Hundred Days' period, 356
 immigrant status, 6
 indecisiveness, 11, 198
 individualism and, 353, 361, 367
 journalism of, 150
 liberalism and, 18, 69, 367
 liberalism term, 361
 liberty views, twentieth-century interpretation, 69 marriage, difficulty in committing to, 11 Marxism and, 371–372
 mother, 177
 Napoleon and, 13
 patience for reform, 144 personal reputation in twentieth century, 352 physical health, 16, 17
 police harassment of, 153 political career of, 7, 12–18, 163–166, 168. See also Liberal Opposition political philosophy of, 73, 157, 158–161 politics as calling, 198 Protestant influences on, 353, 357 publishing difficulties, 3 relationships with women, 177 religious anthropology approach, 364 religious perfectibility thesis, 364 revival of interest in, 207 scientific study of religion, 364 skepticism of, 184
 social-decomposition fears and, 355 speeches of, 151
 transcendentalism and, 358–361
 wealth distribution issues ignored by, 354 works of, statement about life's work, 90 works of, superficial readings of, 357 works of, ten-page precis, 368 writing style, 231
 constitutional systems, 9, 63, 88, 221
 Charter (1814), 17, 89
 constitutional monarchy, 17, 87
 five branches of, 87 contracts
 political institutions as, 89
 Rousseau, 301, 303
 social, 26
 Coppet group, 232, 254–256, 257, 261
 Coppet, Lake Geneva, 9, 11
Corinne (de Staël novel), 239
Courrier français, 150
 Couvray, Louvet de, 6
 Cramm, Minna von. See Cramm, Wilhelmine Luise Johanne von Cramm, Wilhelmine Luise Johanne von, 6, 173, 182 cultural forms, as impediments to progress, 234 cultural relativism, 269
 accommodationist theology and, 332

406 Index

- Davillier salon, 156
Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire (Gibbon), 294–297 democratic government corrupting influences and, 38
 state power as growing large in, 33–37 tyranny of new kind possible, 25
 denunciations
 as duty of citizens, 49 informant system in general, 3
 modern liberty and, 61
 ostracism as public version of, 68 secret denunciations, 49, 50 sense of political participation through, 67–68 witness malice and, 50 desires and wants to feel significant, 66–68 gradual social evolution of, 56 not easily subject to choice, 56 despotism, anachronistic thinking and, 29, 70. See also usurpation form of government Directory government (1795–97), 93, 95–96 censorship during, 9
 Constant's defense of, 97
 Constant's support of coup, 7
Discorsi (Machiavelli), 53
 discouragement, 254
 diversity of thought. See individualism
doctrinaires, 155–156, 159–161, 164, 353
Du Contrat social (1762, Rousseau), 12
 Duc de Berry assassination, 15
 duels. See Constant, Benjamin Dunoyer, Charles, 89, 136, 235
 Durkheim, Emile, 223

 economics. See also budgets, property rights, taxation, 78–83 division of labor, 80, 225 political thinking and, 209
 price ceilings, 92
 egalitarian theory of the distribution of power, 112 Egyptian expedition, 123 elected assemblies, 87 elections
 corrupt officials and, 48
 individual's influence seeming insignificant, 66
 public officials as agents of citizens, 61
 voting process. See voting
Emile (Rousseau), 300 Enlightenment (eighteenth century) commerce and war views, 120 legislative absolutism and, 77
 literature and, 230
 perfectibility and, 248–249
 slavery and, 133
Enquiry Concerning Political Justice (Godwin, W.), 76 enthusiasm
 Adolphe, 215–216
 fanaticism and, 220
 individuality and, 214 liberal politics and, 220–224
 love and, 215
 moral systems and, 215 passion for freedom and, 215
 religious sentiment and, 215
 self-deception and, 215
 self-defeating dialectic of desire, 215–216
 self-development and, 220
 self-forgetfulness requirement of, 204, 214
 equality
 ancient liberty incompatible with, 53
 historical movement toward, 116, 139, 235, 264
 as ideal, 233
 slavery and, 138
 tendency toward, 56
esprit de conquête et de l'usurpation, De (1814), 12, 115, 121, 135 executive power, 87
 monarchical power and, 42
 exile. See banishment

 Fabri, Amelie, 193
 Filangieri, Gaetano, 49, 76–78, 82–83, 133, 141
force du gouvernement actuel, De la (1796), 6, 97 Force of the Present Government, On the (1796), 234
Four Essays on Liberty (Berlin, I), 69

- Four Ordinances (1830), 17
Fragments, 42–43
 free will, 257. See also will freedom from fear, 59
 freedom of assembly, 221, 252
 freedom of conscience, 85
 freedom of speech, 13, 88, 167–169, 221, 252
 abolitionism and, 132
 ban on collective petitions, 168 censorship and, 251 importance of, 84
 slavery and, 134–135
 freedom to choose one's own society, 60
 freedom to choose the kind of freedom one desires, 51
 Fried, Charles, 375
- gambling
 by Constant, 149, 174, 180, 198
 government lotteries, 80 governmental taxation as, 82 general will. See collective will Godwin, William, 76, 249
 Goethe, 9, 195
- governments
 banishment by, 82
 collective will and, 41
 democratic power and, 33–37 emigration restrictions, 82 excessive governments, 76 false propositions about, 76
 good doesn't always outweigh harm by, 76 grain export restrictions, 82
 as guarantors of safety, 50 independence from society, 36, 37–38
 as invisibly shaping society, 36 as more than just representative of individual interests, 37 necessity of, 37–46, 76
 noninterference principle, 79
 not indubitably more enlightened than governed, 76 not less disastrous mistakes made by, 76 political identity and, 37 political power as prior to, 41 population growth and, 83
 powers other than legislative or executive, 38 proper functions of, 76, 78, 80, 97 public power growth, 33–37
 republicanism. See republicanism as set up outside of society, 36 usurpation. See usurpation form of government Greek independence, 16, 129, 137
 Greek religion, 331, 338
 Guizot, Francois, 353, 354, 356
- happiness. See utilitarianism
 Hardenberg, Georgine Charlotte
 Auguste née von, 6, 10–12, 13, 173, 182, 193–197 apparent suicide attempt by, 196
 Hayek, Friedrich von, 367–368, 375
 hedonism, 210
 Helvetius' doctrine, 210, 296
 Herder, J., 328–330
- hereditary power
 abusive governments and, 26 American absence of, 27–28 hereditary assembly, 87 neutral power and, 43
 sovereign power and, 26
- historical development
 accommodationist theology and, 332
 causation of, 263–269 equality trend, 116, 235, 264
 historical necessity, 52, 95 individuals as playing only minor roles, 267 moral arguments and, 121 natural rights and, 211
 religious ideas, 230 representative government and, 310
 slavery and, 117, 123
 stages of human progress, 262 historically grounded approach, 207 history, end of, 45, 269
- human desires
 incoherent ephemeral nature of, 65–66
 as products of social organization, 63 willing of the kind of freedom to desire, 63, 64

408 Index

- human nature
 - faith placed in, 32
 - religious sentiment and, 230, 277
 - sacrifice and, 257
 - theory of, 211
- human progress
 - automatic regulation of, 260
 - cyclical versus linear, 260, 264
 - divine plan for, 243, 255
 - equality and, 139
 - historical stages of, 262
 - idea-generation process and, 236
 - ideas as powerful, permanent, cumulative, 233
 - invisible-hand principle, 260
 - moral perfectibility. See moral perfectibility
 - religious sentiment and, 261
 - revolutions and, 261
 - sacrifice and, 237
 - scientific experimentation and, 237
 - theme of, 144
- Hundred Days' period, 15, 118, 149
- Ideologues group, 249, 251, 255
- ideas
 - combinations of, 238
 - durability of, 257
 - human progress and. See human progress
 - literature and. See literature
 - origins of, 211
 - theory of, 239
 - useful errors, 269
- Ideas on the Philosophy of History* (1791, Herder), 249, 255
- identity, 12, 35
- imperial expansionism, 118–125. See also war
- indecisiveness, 204, 244
- independence of individuals
 - commerce and, 70
 - dependence-of-independence paradox, 61
 - individual sovereignty, 66
 - individuals need for, 57
 - legal systems and, 61
 - romantic relationships and, 192–193
- individual rights. See rights of individuals
- individualism, 57, 90, 112, 207
 - anarchy and, 90
 - ancients and, 75
 - character trait uniqueness, 246
 - civic-mindedness and, 89
 - communitarian critique of, 373–374
 - Constant's eclipse and, 361
 - decline during twentieth century, 367
 - enthusiasm and, 214
 - humanist conception of, 214
 - liberty and, 73
 - literature and, 229, 239
 - protection of the one from the many, 74
 - religion and, 311
 - rights as independent from social/political authority, 74
 - romantic self-view of, 213–214
 - sacred value of, 223
 - sovereign power and, 74
 - theme of, 30
 - tolerance and, 74
 - will of individuals, 66
- Individualism and the Intellectuals* (Durkheim, E.), 223
- Industrie et la Morale considérées dans leur rapport avec la liberté*, 89
- informant system. See denunciations
- inheritance laws, 80
- Institut Benjamin Constant, 375
- intellectual
 - equality, 69
 - neutrality, 44, 45
- intimate relations, 217
 - abandonment issues, 216
 - Constant's analysis of, 195–201
 - emotional health and, 203
 - enthusiasm and, 215
 - love as passion to be channeled or mastered, 242
 - love as sacred, 242
 - love unrequited, 181
 - religious sentiment and, 217–219
 - self-defeating dialectic of desire, 200, 215–216
 - sentimental merging, 199
 - subordination, 199
 - transparency in, 199

Index

409

- Johannot, Marie-Charlotte, 5, 179
Journaux intimes, 18, 198, 199 judicial systems, 87 independence of, 88
 justice defined in terms of equality, 235 pretext of preventing future crimes, 47
 procedural rules against arbitrary will, 235
 public trials, 53
 two-track systems, 47
- Kantian philosophy, 249, 255, 261, 334, 335, 337
- Laboulaye, Edouard, 361–363
 Laing, Malcolm, 5
 laissez-faire liberalism, 78, 367
 Lamoignon, Auguste marquis de, 8
- legal systems
 due process, 59
 individual independence reliance on, 61 modern times as an epoch of conventions, 65
 rule of law, 59, 132, 135
- legislative absolutism, 77
- Liberal Opposition political party beliefs of, 147
 Bonapartists and, 156
 Catholic Church and, 148 charter and, 147
 conflicts within, 149
 Constant's place within, 149 demonstrations organized by, 148 departmental-level organizing by, 148
 as heirs to the Revolution, 146 local organization of, 163 main blocks of deputies, 148 nobility and, 148
 origins of, 162–164
 party formation processes, 161
 Party of Movement bloc, 155
 ultraroyalists and, 148, 153
- liberalism
 civil-political antagonism illusion, 33
 communitarian critique of, 373–374
 decline of pure liberalism, 353
 enthusiasm and, 220–224
 hedonism and, 210
 liberal Protestantism and, 316
 Protestantism and, 311
 religion and, 297–312, 313
 self-perfection and, 222
 term of, 361
 transcendence and, 222
- libertarians, 368
- liberty
 Adolphe and, 202
 ancient liberty. See ancient liberty
 commerce and, 72, 209, 211, 322
 counterfeiting of, 84, 86
 credo “liberty in everything,” 208
 as guiding principle, 73
 individualism and, 73, 208
 literature improved by, 227–229 measures to guarantee, 87–89
 modern liberty. See modern liberty personal, 3 positive forms of, 51, 52
 principle of, 3
 religious sentiment and, 72 restriction by fear of other citizens, 48
 sacrifice and, 223
 self-development and, 212
 war as inimical to, 78
- Liberty of the Ancients Compared with That of the Moderns*, The, 55, 318–324
- limits on power balance of powers, 87
 checks and balances, 87
 principle of, 103
 Terror, 103, 105
- Lindsay, Anna, 173, 191–193
- literature
 artistic creations as, 226
 belles lettres tradition, 230
 character trait combinations in, 239 character traits conflicting with circumstances, 244–246
 collective will and, 233
 Condorcet's vision of science and, 236 conventions of style in, 226 critics as despotism from above, 226
 as cultural monuments, 232

410 Index

literature (cont.)

- definitions of, 226, 230
- as exercise of thought, 230
- grammar-rhetoric traditions of, 230
- human individuality expressed through, 229
- ideas as combined and formulated in, 230, 239
- individual aspirations in, 244
- individual personality in, 239
- Latin authors, 227–229
- liberty improves quality of, 227–229
- limits on literary license, 227
- literary forms and essences, 234, 250
- moral result criteria, 239, 246
- neologisms, 236
- perfectibility of society and, 230
- propaganda as, 230
- reader expectations as limiting, 226, 242
- self-development and, 244
- tragedy theory, 244, 264–266
- transgressive metaphors, 236
- writers as guides to the age, 267
- writers as working through personal problems, 233
- writers seeking public vindication, 244
- “Literature in Its Relations to Liberty” (1805 essay), 225, 227
- Louis XVIII, 13
- Louis-Phillipe, 17
- love. See intimate relations
- The Lucid Illusion (1980 essay, Gauchet), 371
- Ma vie* (Le Cahier rouge), 4–5, 12, 14, 18, 180, 181
- Mably, legislative absolutism of, 77
- Mackintosh, Sir James, 5
- Magnin, Marianne, 5, 178
- Maistre, Joseph de, 26–27, 96–99
- Malthus, Thomas, 83
- Marenholtz, Baron Wilhelm von, 6
- Marxism, 371–372
- Mauvillon, Jakob, 6
- May, Nathaniel, 5
- Mélanges de littérature et de politique* (1829), 16, 73, 139, 225–226, 227, 248, 256

- Memoires sur les Cent-Jours*, 15
- Mercure de France* (journal), 15, 150
- Mill, John Stuart, 74
- Minerve française* (weekly journal), 15, 150
- minority rights. See individualism
- modern liberty, 51
 - ancient liberty combined with, 69
 - banishment and, 54, 59–60
 - commerce and, 111
 - denunciation and, 61
 - dimensions of, 61–63
 - freedom to choose one’s own society, 60
 - freedom to come and go, 60
 - as independence from government, 111
 - individual will and, 66
 - moral traits and, 111
 - officials must justify actions, citizens do not, 60
 - population size and, 111
 - predominantly private, 111
 - principal danger of, 69
 - slavery and, 56
 - surrender of political liberty and, 69
 - trade-offs in, 59
- monarchical powers, 27, 42–44
- Moniteur, Le* (newspaper), 9
- Montesquieu, 48, 87, 88
- moral arguments, historicizing of, 116, 121
- moral perfectibility, 324
 - Constant’s mature (1829) version of, 256–270
 - Constant’s treatments of subject for different audiences, 267, 270
 - Enlightenment and, 248–249
 - evidence for, 260
 - as the faculty of perfecting one’s self, 249
 - historicizing the idea of, 325–331
 - human progress. See human progress
 - human regression in, 254
 - ideas as contagious, 260
 - inception of, 249–256
 - inner-versus-outer perfection, 329
 - institutions and, 69
 - literature’s role in, 230, 246
 - moral education, 63, 66, 69

Index

411

- as opinion, 257
- origins of issue, 251–253
- Perfectibility Controversy, 250–253
- political participation and, 63, 66
- progressive revelation and, 308
- religious sentiment and, 72, 324, 325–327
- sacrifice and, 257
- slavery and, 260
- as system, 257–260
- as used up by human progress, 253
- moral principle, 245
- moral systems
 - enthusiasm and, 215
 - historicizing of moral arguments, 116
 - personal sacrifice, 72
 - principles and, 238
 - religion and, 283, 321, 335
 - utilitarianism, 72
- municipal and local authorities, 88
- mystery, use of by authority, 58
- Napoleon, Bonaparte
 - as anachronism, 12, 121
 - Greek ostracism and, 60
 - Hundred Days' period, 15
 - Jacobin dictatorship and, 24
 - Leipzig defeat, 118
- nationalism. See war
- Natural History of Religion* (Hume), 294–297, 300
- Necker family, 7
- Necker, Jacques, 6
 - abolitionism and, 127
 - death of, 9
- negative liberty, 52, 69, 313, 373
 - as absence of restraint, 72
 - false dilemma involving, 72
 - positive liberty and, 72
 - totalitarianism and, 369–370
- neutral power, 87
 - abstractness of, 43
 - general discussion of, 37–46
 - heredity and, 43
 - monarchical power and, 42
 - monarchy power as source of, 42
 - preservative power and, 43
- nobility, liberalism and, 148
- nostalgia
 - militarism, 119
 - politics, 288, 293
- Nouvelles politiques* (journal), 6
- O'Dwyer, Anna Lindsay née, 8
- ostracism. See ancient liberty, banishment
- Paine, Tom, 35
- Party of Movement bloc, 155
- patriotic oaths, 164
- perfectibilité de l'espèce humaine, De la* (chapter, 1829), 233, 248, 328, 329
- perfectibilité, De la* (Salaville, 1801), 253
- perfectibility. See moral perfectibility
- Perfectibility Controversy, 250–253
- personal autonomy
 - constant surveillance over representatives and, 62
 - political participation and, 62, 63
 - valuable in itself, 62
- Pietistic sect in Lausanne, Constant's attendance at, 11
- police informants. See denunciations
- political accountability. See elections
- political forms over political essences, 66
- political liberty
 - commerce as origin of, 209
 - community size and, 26
 - economics and, 209
 - individual liberty and, 72
 - intellectual equality and, 69
 - as a means to an end, 206
 - self-development and, 68, 69, 206
- political participation
 - as a means to an end, 62
 - moral education and, 63, 66
 - parliamentary debates and, 88
 - personal autonomy and, 62, 63
 - self-development and, 64
- political power, existing prior to political order, 41
- political self-education. See voting
- political sphere
 - civic sphere as being caused by, 35
 - civic sphere as mutually supportive with, 32
 - continued growth of public power, 33

412 Index

- popular sovereignty as channeled by monarchy into administrative form, 34
 as embodiment of will, 24
 as expanding from below, 34
 perversion of, 25 popular will and, 58
 principle of, 24
 state tendency to peacefully substitute itself for, 35
 population size, 26, 27, 58, 111
 Pourrat, Jeanne-Jacqueline-Henriette, 181
Present Moment and the Destiny of the Human Species, On the (1799), 235 preservative power, 39
 helps community regain possession of itself, 40
 judges other powers, 39
 neutral power and, 41, 43
 primogeniture, 80 Principes de politique, Les (Constant, 1806), 9, 87, 89, 110, 113, 141, 237 principles
 as combinations of ideas, 238 declarations of as being ineffective, 89 of liberty, 29
 moral dimension of, 238
 of social authority, 29 privacy rights, 3 government secrecy and, 61
 personal autonomy and, 62
 private affections, public interests and, 31 progress. See human progress
 property rights, 79–80, 101 Protestantism, liberalism and, 316 public education, 85
 public officials, as agents of citizens, 61–62
 racism. See slavery
 Recamier, Juliette, 13, 197
Reflections on the Revolution in France
 (Burke, E.), 96–97
Réflexions sur la tragédie (Constant),
 266 Réflexions sur les constitutions and sur les garanties, 87
Religion, De la (1824), 9, 16–18, 71, 213, 217, 222, 233, 335–336, 358–360 background for, 290 reception of, 275–276
 religious sentiment, 301
 religions, 66, 198
 accommodationist theology, 320, 324, 331–333, 334–335, 336
 Adolphe, 202
 anthropology of, 275, 277, 279–282
 Athenée Royal (1818) lectures on, 15
 Axial Age of religious thinking, 345 civil religions, 301, 303
 combinatorial principles in, 278 commerce liberalism and, 318–321
 competition among, 304–308 Constant's early thought on, 11–13 early hostility to, 208
 enthusiasm and, 296
 fetishism, 292
 forms and essences in, 66, 331
 freedom and, 85
 freedom to choose how to worship, 293 future of, 282–285
 government neutrality and, 286, 293
 Greek philosophy and, 341–342,
 343–346, 347
 Greek religion, 331, 338
 historical development, 230
 immanent conceptions of God, 342 indirect shaping of by governments, 309
 individualism and, 311
 inner sanctuary concept, 85
 as instrument of oppression, 85
 invisible-hand principle, 305–308
 laissez-faire stance toward, 287, 304–308
 liberalism and, 286–288, 311, 313
 morality and, 283, 321, 335 novelty in Constant's thinking on, 276 otherworldliness in, 301
 philosophical theism, 334, 335, 338–342, 347–348
 pluralism and, 85 political apparatus and, 281 polytheism to theism movement, 294–297, 338–342

Index

413

- priestly intermediation, 280–281, 291, 297, 299
 priestly power, origins of, 292
 progressive revelation and, 308
 Protestantism and, 311, 315
 Providence, 320, 324, 335, 337–338, 343, 346–348 rational theism, 331 religious sentiments. See religious sentiment science and, 282
 social glue function of, 71, 284
 successors of Constant's approach to, 278–279 toleration, 85, 291, 294–297
 transcendence and, 198, 342
 universalist framework for, 278
 utilitarianism and, 85
 religious sentiment, 277, 331
 aspiration to spirituality and, 285 contains no principle, so no element of slavery, 301 definability of, 218, 284 emerges through struggles above and below, 230
 enthusiasm and, 215
 experienced in isolation, 284
 forms versus essence, 219
 historicizing the idea of, 325–331
 human nature and, 230, 277
 human perfectability, 72
 human progress and, 261
 independence from priestly expertise, 299
 liberalism and, 286–303, 312
 liberty, 72
 love contrasted with, 217–219
 moral perfectibility and, 325–327 passion for the indeterminate, 219
 perfectibility and, 324
 personal sacrifice, 72
 Providence and, 336
 purity of, 85, 218, 340
 religious forms and, 261, 277, 297, 333 religious plurality and, 285
 sacrifice and, 72, 301
 self-transcendence and, 280
 tendency toward unity in, 340, 342 tolerance issue solved by, 300 undefinability of, 298, 325
 utilitarianism and, 280
Renommée, La (daily paper), 15, 150 republicanism association with the Terror, 95
 modern revival of interest in, 69 prospects of surviving the Terror, 26
 Restoration politics, 15, 42
 “result” term, 238–239
Révolution et de ses résultats, De causes de la (Lezay-Marnesia), 99, 102–107 revolutions, so that institutions can catch up, 261
 Riaco, Ralph, 368
 Richelieu government, 151–153
 rights historical approach, 211 independence from social/political authority, 74
 language of, 75
 political rights as an intrinsic part of freedom, 63 “true principles of freedom” list of, 74
 utilitarianism and, 75, 235
 rights of individuals absolute power and, 103
 collective authority and, 30–33 Road to Serfdom (1944, Hayek), 367
 universality of, 103
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 12, 112–113
 ancient liberty and, 112
 emotional health through isolation, 203 legislative absolutism of, 77
 noble savage, 203
 obligation to surrender consciously, 32
 perfectibility, 249
 sovereign power and, 110 unlimited sovereign power and, 74
 royal power, 87
 monarchical power and, 42
 rule of law, 59, 132, 135
 sacrifice generally, 257
 human progress and, 237
 of the individual to the collectivity, 30

414 Index

- sacrifice (cont.)
 liberty and, 223
 of old ideas, 237, 243
 religious sentiment and, 72, 301
 self-interest and, 289
 self-transcendence, 280
- Saint-Domingue slave rebellion (Haiti), 125, 127, 133
- Saint-Just, 57
- Saint-Simonians, 45, 90, 353
- Schiller, 9, 195
- Scottish Historical School, 249
- secrecy in government
 denunciations. See denunciations privacy rights and, 61 secret police, 3
- self-defeating dialectic of desire, 215–216
- self-development
 through combining forms of freedom, 288
 enthusiasm and, 220
 happiness and, 207
 liberalism and, 222
 liberty and, 212
 literature and, 244
 political liberty and, 68, 69, 206
 political participation and, 64
 self-interest. See utilitarianism
- Senegal possession, 131
- Sierra Leone, 131
- Sieyes, 38
- Sismondi, 110
 abolitionism and, 127
- skepticism, 65
- Sketch for a Historical Picture of the Progress of the Human Mind*
 (Condorcet), 238
- slavery, 115
 1802 restoration of, 126
 as anachronism, 70, 117, 140, 142
 ancient world and, 53, 138–145
 atrocities and public opinion, 133 British model for ending, 135 colonialism and, 125–138 commerce as civilizing force and, 131 compassion and, 141
 Constant's approach to, 116–117
 Enlightenment and, 133
 equality sentiment and, 138 governmental ban as outdistancing public opinion, 144
 governmental hypocrisy over, 132
 historical movement and, 123 Huguenot abolitionists and, 126
 imperial expansion and, 123
 modern liberty and, 56
 moral revulsion against, 56
 morally stunting, 133
 perfectibility and, 260
 philosophy of history and, 138 press freedoms and, 132, 134–135
 racism and, 127, 130, 133, 136, 137, 140–142
 as recurrent theme in Constant's works, 117
 rule of law and, 132
 sequestering of in New World, 141 toleration for New World slavery and, 141
- Smith, Adam, 81–82
- Social Contract* (Rousseau), 301, 303
- social disintegration fears, 71
- society's existence, attributed to the action of will, 33
- Socrates, 328, 329, 340–341
- sovereign power dangers of unlimited, 103, 221
 destruction of, 74 governing-governed ambiguity and, 29 hereditary power and, 26
 individualism and, 74
 of individuals. See rights of individuals laws and, 26
 limits on, 74, 79
 originating outside human sphere, 26–28
 popular sovereignty. See popular sovereignty relocation to populace, 74
 Rousseau on, 110
 universality of individual rights and,
 103
- Soviet Empire collapse, 18, 207
- Sparta, 12, 86
- Spirit of Conquest* (1814), 12, 115, 121, 135
- Spirit of the Laws*, The, 48

Index

415

- spontaneous order, 78
 Staël, Albertine de, 173
 Staël, Anne-Louise-Germaine de, 6–13, 173–175, 184–190, 193, 194–196, 197
 abolitionism and, 127–129
 ancient–modern liberty differences and, 110–111
 apparent suicide attempt, 196
 Bonaparte and, 7–9, 156
 Constant's thinking influenced by, 38
 death of, 129
 exile of, 9, 254
 human progress, 254
 liberalism and religion, 286
 progress in literature, 250–254
 salon of, 6
 self-defeating dialectic of desire, 200 writing style of, 231
 state power. See governments
 Suard, Jean-Baptiste, 5–7
- Tacitus, 3
 Talma, Julie, 6, 8, 191, 195, 229–230, 239, 246
 friendship and, 199
 taxation, 80–82, 92
 gambling metaphor, 82
 refusals to pay, 155, 157, 168
Tendance générale des esprits dans le dix-neuvième siècle, 89
Terreur, De la (Constant, 1797), 103, 105, 110
 Terror (1793)
 adversity as having caused, 100 anachronistic thinking of, 56, 110–111, 113–114
 arbitrary power in, 103
 checks and balances, 105
 Constant–Lezay debates about, 95
 Constant's early analysis of, 107–110, 113 Constant's mature interpretation of, 110–114
 counterproductive results of terror, 105 counterrevolutionary justifications
 for, 96–99
- denunciations during. See
 denunciations events of 1789 contrasted with, 102–107
 form versus substance arguments, 105 historical necessity arguments, 95, 102 historical outline of, 92–93 limits-on-power principle, 103, 105 means versus ends, 105 moral punishment of France arguments, 97
 persuasion as having failed, 56
 progression of stages in, 100 revolutionary justification of, 99–102
 self-transcendence and, 66
 theory-of-circumstances justification
 for, 100
 war threats from outside, 97
- theism philosophical, 313, 314, 317
 term of, 313–314
Theory of Justice, A (Rawls, 1971), 373–374
- Thermidorian period, 38, 93–94
 attempt to “end the Revolution,” 94
 Constant's role during, 94
- Three Glorious Days (July 1830), 17
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 35, 88
- tolerance, individualism and, 74, 158–161
- totalitarianism
 broad applicability of Constant's analysis, 31
 human sacrifice and, 67 negative liberty and, 369–370
 origins of, 45, 67–68
 sense of political participation through, 67–68
- transcendence, 280
 liberalism and, 222
 the Terror and, 66
- transcendentalism, 358–361
- Trevor, Harriet, 180
- “Two Concepts of Liberty” (Berlin, I, 1958), 69, 369
- ultraroyalists, 148, 151–155, 161
- universalization. See equality

416 Index

- usurpation form of government, 26, 84
 - despotism and, 84
 - excessive government and, 76
 - governing–governed ambiguity exploited, 28
 - imperial expansion and, 122
 - inner sanctuary against, 85
 - moderate politics and, 123
 - submission to, nothing gained by, 3
- utilitarianism
 - commerce and, 71
 - initial condemnation of, 213
 - moral systems, 72, 210
 - religion and, 85, 280
 - rights and, 75, 235
 - sacrifice and, 257, 289
 - social disintegration and, 71
- Villers, Charles de, 9
- voting
 - cens, for voter eligibility, 156
 - franchise and property rights, 79
 - franchise as incentive toward political education, 63–64
 - secret ballots, 167
 - voter apathy, 61
 - voter's power an abstract assumption, 68
 - voting lists, 164, 167–168
- Wallenstein* (Schiller), 226–227, 240–242, 246
 - Constant's French translation of, 11
- war
 - Algerian conquest, 115, 119, 124
 - anachronism of, 70
 - army's proper role, 88
 - commerce and, 65, 78, 120
 - imperialism and. See imperial expansionism
 - inimical to liberty, 78
 - militarism and, 119
 - nationalism and, 65
 - nostalgia politics and, 119
 - spiritual mutiliation and prostration, 78
 - superstition and, 65
- wealth equalization, laissez-faire
 - government and, 78
- The Wealth of Nations* (Smith, Adam), 81–82
- White Terror, 104, 152–153
- Wilde, John, 5
- will of the people, 26
 - collective will. See collective authority
 - conscious surrender to duties of citizenship, 32
 - French public as victims of Bonaparte, or complicit, 123
 - individual will, 66
 - popular sovereignty. See popular sovereignty
 - state as the visible incarnation of, 33, 35
 - willing of the kind of freedom to desire, 56, 63, 64
- Xenophanes, 331