

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86111-3 - The Cambridge Companion to Toni Morrison

Edited by Justine Tally

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

Notes on contributors	page	ix
Chronology		xiii

Introduction: “All necks are on the line” JUSTINE TALLY	I
--	---

PART I TONI MORRISON’S FICTION

1 The Bluest Eye and Sula : black female experience from childhood to womanhood ÁGNES SURÁNYI	II
2 Song of Solomon and Tar Baby : the subversive role of language and the carnivalesque JOYCE HOPE SCOTT	26
3 Beloved or the shifting shapes of memory CLAUDINE RAYNAUD	43
4 Jazz and Paradise : pivotal moments in black history SHIRLEY ANN STAVE	59
5 The Morrison trilogy JUSTINE TALLY	75
6 Love and the survival of the black community MAR GALLEGÓ	92
7 The artistic impulse of Toni Morrison’s shorter works ABENA P. A. BUSIA	101

vii

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86111-3 - The Cambridge Companion to Toni Morrison

Edited by Justine Tally

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

PART II TONI MORRISON'S CRITICISM AND EDITING

8 Toni Morrison's literary criticism HANNA WALLINGER	115
9 Toni Morrison's social criticism SÄMI LUDWIG	125
10 Toni Morrison, editor and teacher CHERYL A. WALL	139

PART III ESSAYS

11 Language and narrative technique in Toni Morrison's novels JUDYLYN S. RYAN	151
12 Toni Morrison, intellectual DWIGHT A. McBRIDE	162
13 Morrison and the critical community DEIRDRE J. RAYNOR AND JOHNNELLA E. BUTLER	175

PART IV FURTHER READING

Works by Toni Morrison	187
Selected critical reading	189
Index	192