

Index

- 9–11 see September 11, 2001 attacks
- Abu Gheith, Suleiman 95
- aggregate approach 87
- ability to promote peace 107
- and corporate responsibility 105
- and illicit market temptations 99–100
- and moral responsibility 92–3
- evolving legal view 89–90
- in transformations of the corporation 90–2
- see also* contractarian approach
- agricultural economies, potential for war-making 38
- al-Qaeda 95, 237
- Albright, Madeleine 230
- Allison, Graham 95
- Americans
- focus of anger and resentment 237–8
- market-dominant minority 237–8
- Anglo-American system, contractarian approach 83
- anthropological rootedness of war and peace
- agricultural/industrial dilemma 58–63
- community size and cultural development 58–63
- conflict and reconciliation in primates 50–5
- conflictual risks in large societies 61–3
- democracy 62–3
- development of religion and ideology 61
- domination of commoners by elites 61
- exploitation of commoners by elites 62
- hunter-gatherer societies 55–8
- intelligence and killing 48–50
- position of religion 63
- post-industrial issues 64
- shift from hunter-gatherer to agriculture 58–63
- terrorism 64
- totalitarian government 62–3
- anthropological studies
- primate politics and peacemaking 48
- relevance to business organization 48
- antisocial groups 218
- Appleby, Scott 208–9
- Applebys 187–8
- Aquinas, Thomas 168–9, 170
- Ardley, Robert 48
- Aristotle 168, 170, 216
- Arms Export Control Act (1976) 96
- arms sales and exports
- Code of the Commission of Nobel Peace Laureates 97–8
- complexities of US export legislation 98–9
- corporate compliance systems 101–5
- dual-use technology 98
- effects of globalization 95
- efficacy of national control enforcement 97–8
- facilitation by the USA 96
- illicit market temptations 99–101
- international control agreements 97
- main countries involved 96
- regulation in the USA 96
- scale of global trade 96
- to countries with human rights violations 97–8
- Arthur Andersen 101
- Aum Shinrikyo 237
- Autry, James 201
- Avi-Yonah, Reuven 86–94, 105

- Award for Corporate Excellence (State Department) 230–1, 233
 Axelrod, Robert 176–7
- Baker, Howard 118
 Baker, Raymond 94
 balances of power and values 45–6
Bank of the United States vs. Dandridge (1827) 90
Bank of the United States vs. Deveaux (1809) 89, 90
 Bapst, Dean 106–7
 Baumhart, Raymond 177
 Bazerman, Max 222–4
 bias adjustments 222–4
 external accountabilities 224
 self-deception 222–4 theories about other people 223–4 theories about ourselves 224 theories about the world 223
 bin Laden, Osama 95
 Bobbitt, Phillip 13, 43, 63, 85, 237 development of the market-state 44–5
 interconnection of government strategy and law 66–8
- Bolino, Mark 190
 Boyd, Robert 236
 BP 187–8
 BP Amoco 233
 bribery 171–4
 consequentialist argument against 172
 deontological argument against 172
 effects of rules and laws against 172–4
- British South Africa Company 37
 Buchholtz, Rogene 85
Burlington Industries vs. Ellerth (1998) 91
- business
 as agent of the state 37
 as a moral community 221–2
 as a peace interest 69–70
 links with war-making 37–8
 use of violence to obtain money and power 36–7
 Business as Mediating Institution 82–3, 219–22
- businesses as moral communities 221–2
 consideration of stakeholder interests 219–20
 engagement of voice 220–1
 inculcation of moral values 221–2
 justice through social contracting 220
 organizational structure 219
- business ethics
 aesthetic/spiritual approach 5–6
 integrated approach 5–6
 integration of approaches 131
 legal approach 5–6
 managerial approach 5–6
- business ethics (descriptive approach) 177
 aims 183–4
 and social capital 190–1
 corporate social responsibility 185–8
 effective compliance programs 184–5
 good ethics and good business 185–8
 impacts on society 188–91
 organization structure and employee motivation 190
 relationship to financial performance 185–8
- business ethics (normative approach)
 creating Real Trust 181–3
 good ethics and good business 182
 Integrative Social Contracts Theory 181 managerial incentive systems 182–3
 natural law 178
 Philosopher's Formula 178–81
 social contract approach to stakeholders 180–1 stakeholder rights 178–80
 treatment of stakeholders 181–2
 utilitarian approach to stakeholders 181
- business schools, influence on moral responsibility 77–8
- Cameron, Rondo 40
 Champlain, Samuel 37, 38–9
 chemical industry, social and financial performance 188
 Chevron/Texaco 230
 Chicago Cubs (Shlensky vs. Wrigley) 8–9, 138

- Chindex 231
 Chua, Amy 237–8
 citizenship, wider obligations 218–19
 see also corporate citizenship
 Clarkson, Max 83
 Coase, Ronald 79–80
 Coca-Cola 231
 Cochran, Robert 210–11
 Coleman, James 176–7, 221
 Collier, Paul 106
 colonialism 37
 and mercantilism 39–41
 trade and conquest 38–9
 commerce
 historical actions against peace 35–6 requirement for peace and stability 17
 role in fostering peace 17
 see also Peace Through Commerce Commission of Nobel Peace Laureates 97–8 commodity exports, risk of civil war 106
 commoners
 domination by elites 61
 exploitation by elites 62
 communism 63
 communitarian approach 79
 alternative to 82–3
 and ethical business 82–3
 and the well-being of the nation-state 83
 beyond the
 contractarian–communitarian dichotomy 84–6
 challenges to 82–3
 corporation as a social organization 81
 de-humanizing of the individual 84
 duty to stakeholders 83
 geopolitical distinctions 83
 Germany and Japan 83, 85
 “legal entity” view 79
 nature of the firm 83
 origins and influences 83
 oversocialized view of human nature 84 variety of views 81–2
 see also concession approach community size and violence 58–63
 community within the corporation 21–3
 concession approach 79, 85, 87–8
 ability to promote peace 107
 and corporate responsibility 105
 and illicit market temptations 100
 and moral responsibility 92–3
 evolving legal view 89–90
 in transformations of the corporation 90–2
 see also communitarian approach conflict effects on businesses 106
 firm as an instrument of peace 106
 risks in large societies 61–3 conflict zones
 business strategies to respond to violence 106 models for corporate engagement 17–18 conflicts of interest, managing 119–20
 contractarian approach 79
 alternative to 82–3
 and ethical business 82–3
 Anglo-American system 83
 assumption of perfect market conditions 80–1, 82
 beyond the
 contractarian–communitarian dichotomy 84–6
 challenges to 81, 82–3
 Coase approach 79–80
 de-humanizing of the individual 84
 geopolitical distinctions 83
 handling conflicts of interest 79–80
 hierarchical organization 79–80
 market forces 79–80
 need for transparency and informed choice 80 “nexus of contracts” view 79, 80, 81
 non-existence of the corporation as an entity 81
 primacy of shareholders 79–80
 shareholders as stakeholders 79–80
 undersocialized view of human nature 84
 voluntary agreements 79–80
 see also aggregate approach;
 value-maximization model

- Cook, Captain James 172–3
- corporate citizenship
 community within the corporation 21–3
 engaging with communities 20–1
 impressions among developing countries 20–1
 mediating institutions 21–3
 utilitarianism 190–1
- corporate compliance systems
 and corporate culture 101–5
 arms-related technology exports 101–5
 arms sales and exports 101–5
 Liebman 101, 103–4
 Nunn–Wolfowitz task force 102–4
- corporate culture
 ability to promote peace 107–8
 and corporate compliance systems 101–5
 and corporate responsibility 105
 and ethical business behavior 93–4 calls for development of ethical cultures 14–15 challenges from globalization 94–5 importance in entity approach 93–4
 influence of the value-maximization model 15
 level of moral maturity 15
 protection against illicit behavior 100–1
- corporate decision-making dangers of financial focus 13–15
 reflexive models 14–16
 threats which are not considered 13–15
- corporate diplomacy, Motorola 41
- corporate form controversy, and legal transformations 90–2
- corporate form transformations 86–92
 closely held to widely held institutions 87, 90–2
 evolving legal view 89–90
 move to for-profit status 86–7, 90–2
 national to multinational enterprises 87, 90–2
 under Roman law 86, 90–2
- corporate governance
 education about rules of behavior 174–5
- law not equated with administration of justice 174–5
 law used to benefit wealthy interests 174–5
 law viewed as a constraint on behavior 174–5
- corporate responsibility
 and corporate culture 105
 beyond the
 contractarian–communitarian dichotomy 84–6
 commitment to ethical behavior 126
 integration of approaches 126–8, 131
 integration of approaches to business ethics 5–6
 legal standards of conduct 125–6
 rebuilding moral stature 125
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) 8–11
 and financial performance measures 10–11
 and market pressures 10–11
 and sale of weapons technology 13–15
 and short-term management strategies 10–11
 as secondary to the profit motive 16–17
 calls for ethical corporate cultures 14–15
 daily interactions within the corporation 21–3 effects of organizational size 21–3
 impacts on society 188–91
 influence of the value-maximization model 15
 relationship to financial performance 185–8
 requirements for the present-day situation 16–17
- corporate strategy
 focus on financial performance 10–11
 market pressures 10–11
 short-term focus 10–11
 ways to Peace Through Commerce 218–19
- corporation concept, and ability to promote peace 85, 86
- corporations

- application of natural law 171
- awards for promoting peace 230–1, 233
- creation of Real Trust 171
- focus for anger and resentment 237–9
- growing interest in promoting peace 230–2
- history of scandals and misbehavior 239
- positive and negative activities 232–4
- role in shaping the international system 209
- threat of terrorism 237–8
- variety of roles which can be played 210–13
- corruption, association with violence 20, 107 see also bribery
- crime, increase because of globalization 94–5
- CSR see corporate social responsibility
- cultural change, possibility of 35
- cultural development and violence 58–63
- cultures of negotiation, reluctance to go to war 57
- Cummins Engine 104
- Cyprus, economic cooperation for peace 77
- Dartmouth College vs. Woodward* (1819) 87–8, 89, 90
- Deming, W. Edwards 201
- democracy 62–3
- democratic countries
 - not going to war with each other 106–7
 - reluctance to go to war 57
- developing countries, impressions of foreign corporations 20–1
- Dhooge, Lucien 96
- Diamond, Jared 59–61
- Dirksen, Everett 117–18
- Dodd, E. Merrick 83
- Dodge vs. Ford* 8–9, 138, 232–3
- Donaldson, Tom 180–1, 220
- Dunbar, Robin 22–3
- Dunfee, Tom 171–2, 180–1, 220
- ecologizing values (Frederick) 47, 49
- economic cooperation for peace 77
- economic development
 - contribution towards peacebuilding 19–20
 - management training and technology transfer 19–20
- economizing values (Frederick) 47, 49
- Eibl-Eibesfeldt, I. 48
- Eisenhower, Dwight 37–8
- El Salvador 77
- Ellul, Jacques 174–6
- England, colonialism and mercantilism 39–41
- Enron 11, 101, 136–7, 185
 - case review 145–7
- entity approach 79, 86, 87, 88–9
 - ability to promote peace 107–8
 - and corporate responsibility 105
 - and illicit market temptations 100
 - and moral responsibility 93–4
 - evolving legal view 89–90
 - importance of corporate culture 93–4
 - in transformations of the corporation 90–2
- ethical behavior
 - commitment to 126
 - integration of trust-building regimes 126–8
 - lessons from quality management 123–4
 - preventing dilemmas 123–4
 - see also* Honest Brokers
- ethical business and war-making capability 68–71
- ethical business behavior
 - importance of corporate culture 93–4
 - role in peacebuilding 18–19
 - unexpected payoff 5–6
 - see also* business ethics
- ethical corporate cultures
 - development of 126–8
 - role of Hard Trust 154–5
- Etzioni, Amitai 83, 85, 221
- EU Privacy Directive 125–6
- Exxon 187–8
- F. C. Schaffer 231
- Fabbro, David 24, 56–8, 236–7
- fascism 63
- Fastow, Andrew 146, 185

- Federal Sentencing Guidelines (1991) 91
 ad hoc advisory group 147–50
 Amendments (2004) 14–15
 amendments to compliance program requirements 150–2 assessment of the Amendments 152–4
 call for increased focus on ethics 147–50
 Enron case review 145–7
 impact of the Guidelines 144–7
 ineffective compliance programs 144–7
 organizational criminal liability 140–4 “reverse whistle blowing” 144–5
 Ferguson, Niall 64–5, 68
 financial performance focus dangers in corporate decision-making 13–15 effects on corporate strategy 10–11
 Finnis, John 166–7, 168–9, 170
 Fiorelli, Paul 144, 147
 Firestone 233
 Fisher, Helen 48
 Ford, Henry 8–9, 138, 232–3
 Ford, William Clay, Jr. 233
 Ford Motor Company 232–3
 Foreign Assistance Act (1961) 96
 Frederick, William 44, 178, 209–10
 ecologizing values 47, 49
 economizing values 47, 49
 power-aggrandizing values 47, 49
 techno-symbolic values 47–8, 49
 value clusters 46–8, 49
 free market model 7–8
 market-dominant minorities 237–8
 Freeman, Ed 83, 210
 Friedman, Milton 8, 138–9
 Frigorifico Canelones 231
 Fuller, Lon 169
- gender equality and non-violence 56
 Germany
 communitarian approach 83, 85
 moves toward the contractarian model 10
 Getz, Kathy 106
 Ghoshal, Sumantra 77–8, 81
 Global Crossing 136–7
 global economy, effects of expansion of values 12–13
 global violence
 business contributions to peace 4–5 feelings of powerlessness 4
 globalization
 and illicit commercial behavior 94–5
 and state control of borders 13
 and state control of violence 13
 and terrorism 95
 challenges to business culture 94–5
 increase in crime 94–5
 international weapons trade 95
 violence and perceived injustice 95
 Good Trust 25–6, 124–5
 beyond individual self-interest 199–200
 bias adjustments 222–4
 commitment to ethical behavior 126
 commitment to non-violence 225–6
 direction of passion 199–200, 225–6 energizing passion 199
 example (Russ Davison) 192–3
 mediating institutions 200, 217–22
 more mediation 200
 Music see Good Trust (spiritual sense, Music)
 Peace Through Commerce 225–7
 religion and work 200–1
 three dimensions (M³) 200
 to foster a common good 199–200
 Good Trust (spiritual sense, music) 200–1
 lessons from Lord of the Rings 208 power of stories 209–10
 quest for a sense transcendence 201–3
 religion’s naturalistic inevitability 203–9 tales of the good 209–10
 variety of roles which corporations can play 210–13
 Granovetter, Mark 84, 85, 176–7
 Green Giant 179–80
 Griffin, Jennifer 188
 group size
 and consequences of actions 217–18
 moral identity/sense of belonging 218–19

- Haas, Jonathan 235–6
 hard power (military capability) 12
 Hard Trust 25–6, 124–5
 and accountability 158
 and business law 134, 136
 and public confidence in business 133–4, 154–7
 and public regulation of business 134–6
 characteristics 133–4
 creation of order with laws 133
 enforcement/prevention through technology 157–8
 influence of advocacy groups 134
 influence of public opinion 134
 laws as a check on power 132–3
 legal standards of conduct 125–6
 managers' basic duties 136–9
 non-legal enforcement mechanisms 157–8
 protection of voice 133
 reflexive statutes 154–5
 requirement for Peace Through Commerce 155–7 role in ethical culture building 154–5
 rules need to make sense to those affected 173–4
 unpopularity of laws 132
 see also Federal Sentencing Guidelines (1991); laws
 Hartman, Edwin 82
 Hauerwas, Stanley 225–6
 Hayek, F. A. 17, 42
 Hedges, Chris 199–200
 hierarchies
 and oppression 46
 domination of commoners by elites 61
 exploitation of commoners by elites 62
 Hizballah 237
 Honest Brokers
 Baker, Howard 118
 building social capital 121–2
 businesses as 117–19
 commitment to a common good 122–3 control systems to avoid illegality 121
 corporate citizenship 121–2
 creating order and peace 121
 Dirksen, Everett 117–18
 economic development and employment 122 ethical behavior can reduce violence 122–3 ethical behavior is good for business 117
 going beyond self-interest 122–3
 link between ethics and peace 121–3 qualities of 117–19
 restoring trust in business 117
 Simon, Paul 119
 Hooters Restaurants 187–8
 Hosmer, LaRue 165, 182–3
 human evolution, optimal size of groups 22–3
 human nature
 complexity of 84–6
 oversocialized communitarian view 84
 undersocialized contractarian view 84 violence between groups 35–6
 hunter-gatherer societies
 level of violence 55–8
 shift to agriculture 58–63
 Huntington, Samuel 42–3, 237
 ideology, and conflict 61
 illicit commercial behavior, effects of globalization 94–5
 illicit market temptations 99–101
 instability, through weakening of the nation-state 6–7
 integrity, concept of 131–2
 Inteko 106
 International Alert 18
 international weapons trade see arms sales and exports Israel 77
 Japan
 communitarian approach 83, 85
 moves toward the contractarian model 10
 John Paul II, Pope 43
 Johnson & Johnson 9, 104, 187–8
 Credo 138
 Juran, Joseph 201

- justice
 in return for military capability 68–71
 through social contracting 220
- Kant, Immanuel 17, 42
kapu (taboo), need for rules to make sense 172–3
 Keeley, Lawrence 55, 58, 62
 Kelly, Raymond 24, 36, 57, 62, 223, 236–7
 Kissinger, Henry 43, 209
- Ladek, Stephen 106
 Laufer, William 144–5
 laws
 as a check on power 132–3
 creation of order 133
 protection of voice 133
 stages of development 174–6
 unpopularity 132
 used to benefit wealthy interests 174–5
 legal entity view of the corporation 79
 Liebman, John 101–2, 103–4
 Locke, John 170
Lord of the Rings (J. R. R. Tolkien), lessons from 208
 Lorenz, Konrad 48
- MacIntyre, Alasdair 172–3
 Mahmood, Cynthia 236
 Mahon, John 188
 managers' basic duties
 agency issue in corporations 137
 balance of discretion and duty 139
 Business Judgment Rule 138
 carry out lawful directives of shareholders 137–9 conflicts of interest 137
 duty of care 139
 duty of loyalty 137
 fiduciary obligation to shareholders 136–7
 in relation to profitability 137, 138
 legal duties relating to shareholders 8–9
 mission statements 138
 non-financial objectives of shareholders 137–9
- Margolis, Joshua 188, 189–90
 market-dominant minorities, focus of resentment 237–8
 market forces 79–80
 market pressures
 on corporate strategy 10–11
 sale of weapons technology 13–15
 market-state, replacement of the nation-state 44–5 market-state challenge
 business as a peace interest 69–70
 changing institutional values 70–1
 communism 67–8
 competing systems of government 67–8
 cost of technology to fight wars 64–5
 democracy 67–8
 ethical business and war-making capability 68–71
 fascism 67–8
 governmental evolution and war-making 66–8
 justice and peace 70–1
 justice in return for military capability 68–71
 popular support and war-making capability 66–7
 raising money to fight wars 64–5 representative taxation to finance wars 65 terrorism and perceived injustice 69
 Marshall, Chief Justice 87–8, 89–90
 mathematical modeling, influence on thinking 77–8, 81
 McDonald's, violence sparked by insensitivity 37
 McWilliams, Abigail 186–7
 Mead, Walter 41–4, 45–6
 mediating institutions 169, 200, 217–22
 anti-social groups 218
 Business as Mediating Institution 219–22
 characteristics 21–3, 24
 corporate ways to Peace Through Commerce 218–19
 group size and consequences of actions 217–18
 moral identity/sense of belonging 218–19

- wider obligations of citizenship 218–19
- mercantilism and colonialism 39–41
- Merck 104
- Mernissi, Fatema 238
- Messick, David 222–4
- Milgram, Stanley 46
- military capability, in return for justice 68–71
- military-industrial complex, dangers of 37–8
- mission statements 138
- Mohammed 240
- Montesquieu 17, 42
- moral maturity in corporate culture 15
 - managing conflicts of interests 119–20
- moral responsibility
 - and the aggregate approach 92–3
 - and the concession approach 92–3
 - and the entity approach 93–4
 - influence of business schools 77–8
- moral values, inculcation in mediating institutions 221–2
- more mediation 200
- Morgan, J. Pierpoint 174–5
- Morris, Thomas 82
- Motorola 41
- Motorola Malaysia 20, 231

- Nagler, Michael 58
- Naim, Moises 94–5
- Napoleon 13, 66–7
- Napoleonic Code 13, 66–7
- Nash, Laura 201
- nation-state
 - loss of power over corporations 6–7
 - replacement with the market-state 44–5
- Native Americans
 - trade and wars 38–9
 - trade with settlers 37
- natural law
 - and organizational justice 175–6
 - application to the corporation 171
 - architectural design approach 167–70
 - common good 168–9
 - concept 165–6
 - harmonious life 170
 - historicist approach 167
 - impartiality 168
 - implementation 170
 - mediating institutions 169
 - property rights 169–70
 - proportionist approach 167
 - reciprocity 170
 - “right reason” approach 167
 - rules need to make sense to those affected 171–6
 - subsidiarity 169
 - sustainable peace as a telos 168
 - traditionalist approach 166–7
- Naylor, R. T. 236
- Nelson, Jane 17–18
- New York Times* 9, 138
- nexus of contracts view of the corporation 79, 80, 81
- Nichols, Philip 171–2
- Nigeria 77
- non-economic values in business 6
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs), influence on corporations 15–16
- non-violence, commitment to 225–6
- Northern Ireland 77
- nuclear weapons 95
- Nunn, Sam 102–4
- Nunn-Wolfowitz task force, corporate compliance systems 102–4
- Nye, Joseph 43

- Oetzel, Jennifer 106
- organizational justice 175–6
- organizational size, mediating institutions 21–3
- organizational structure
 - and employee motivation 190
 - in mediating institutions 219
- Orlitzky, Marc 188

- Paine, Lynn 175–6
- Palestine 77
- Paramount Communications* vs. Time Warner (1989) 8–9, 91
- Pauchant, Thierry 203–4
- Paul VI, Pope 69
- peace entrepreneurship concept 18
- Peace Through Commerce 17
 - and Good Trust 225–7

- Peace Through Commerce (cont.)
 and Hard Trust 155–7
 and Real Trust 191–2
 and theories of the firm 107–8
 and Total Integrity Management 226–7, 234–7, 239–40
 conceptual frameworks 4–5
 critical need in the present day 239–40
 framework 24–6
 growing interest from corporations 230–2
 managing conflicts of interest 119–20
 moral maturity in corporations 119–20
 next steps 234–7
 opportunities for business 5–6
 positive and negative corporate activities 232–4
 vision for contribution from business 239–40
- peacebuilding
 avoidance of corruption 20
 contributions which business can make 18–23
 engaging with communities 20–1
 impressions of large foreign corporations 20–1 role of ethical business behavior 18–19
 technology transfer 20
 through economic development 19–20
- peaceful societies, characteristics 24
- Penn, William 37
- Peters, Tom 201
- Pfizer 187–8
- Philosopher's Formula 178–81
- Pipes, Richard 169–70
- Plato 170, 213
- Polanyi, Karl 69–70
- popular support and war-making capability 66–7
- poverty-stricken countries, tendency toward violence 19
- Powell, Colin 6–7, 230
- power
 balances of 45–6
 hierarchies and oppression 46
 sharp power 41–2
 soft power 43–4
 sticky power 42–3
- power-aggrandizing values (Frederick) 47, 49
- Presser, Stephen 170
- primate behavior 50–5
 contested hierarchies 50–2 exchange considerations 50–1, 52–3 politics and peacemaking 48
 reconciliation 51–2 “softening” attributes 50–1, 53–4
 techno-symbolic dimension 54–5
- Prince of Wales Business Leadership Forum 4–5
- professional responsibility, variety of roles which can be played 210–13
- profitability focus 7–11
 risks in the present day 11–17
see also value-maximization model
- public opinion, and Real Trust 158
- Putnam, Robert 176–7
- Rawls, John 180–1
- Rayonier 231
- real entity approach see entity approach
- Real Trust 25–6, 124–5
 and organizational justice 175–6
 and perception of fairness 175–6
 and social capital 176–7, 190–1
 creating business conditions for 181–3 creation in corporations 171
 education about rules of behavior 174–5
 enforcement/prevention through technology 157–8
 execution of effective programs 184–5 force of public opinion 158
 good ethics is good business 165
 integrity-based vs. rule-based systems 175–6
 natural law 165–77
 nature of 165
 non-legal enforcement mechanisms 157–8
 organization structure and employee motivation 190

- Peace Through Commerce 191–2
 perceived unfairness in the law 165–6
 rebuilding moral stature 125
 rules need to make sense to those affected 173–4
 why the law needs more 165–6
 win-win environments for multiple stakeholders 182–3 reflexive models of corporate behavior 14–16
 reflexive statutes, and Hard Trust 154–5 religion and conflict 61
 and terrorism 237, 238
 relationship to economizing forces 63
 relationship to power-aggrandizing forces 63 restraint on military action 69
 religion and spirituality
 at work 203
 attitudes toward non-believers 208–9
 commitment to non-violence 225–6
 evolutionary perspective 204–8 fundamental aspect of human nature 203
 good and bad sides 208–9
 naturalistic inevitability 203–9
 personal wholeness and social cohesion 204–8 quest for a sense of transcendence 201–3 reasons for the search for meaning 203–4
 self-monitoring and self-esteem 207
Reylon vs. MacAndrews and Forbes Holdings, Inc. (1986) 91
 Rhodes, Cecil 37
 Rice, Condoleezza 230
 Richerson, Peter 236
 Ridley, Matt 170
 Rosenthal, Sandra 85
 Rue, Loyal 204–8
 Rummel, R. J. 62–3
 Rynes, Sara 188
 Sahlins, Marshall 173
 Sapolsky, Robert 35
 Sarbanes-Oxley Act (2002) 14–15, 91, 125–6, 154–5
 protection against corruption 107
 Schipani, Cindy 239
 Schmidt, Frank 188
 Schrage, Elliot 107
 Seabright, Paul 35–6, 48–50, 70–1
 securities markets, need for peace and stability 69–70
 SELCO Vietnam 231
 Semon, Richard 206
 Sen, Amartya 42–3, 223–4
 Sentencing Reform Act (1984) 140
 September 11, 2001 attacks 3–4, 12, 95, 98, 237–8
 Shaffer, Thomas 210–11
 shareholder profitability, corporate focus on 7–11
 shareholders
 managers' legal duties relating to 8–9 reasons for protecting
see also managers' basic duties
 sharp power (Mead) 41–2
 Shell Oil 158, 233–4
Shlensky vs. Wrigley 8–9, 138
 Siegel, Donald 186–7
 Simon, Paul 119
 Smith, Adam 40
 social capital
 and corporate citizenship 190–1
 and Real Trust 176–7, 190–1
 social substitutability 24, 36, 57, 223
 society, impacts of corporate social responsibility 188–91
 soft power (projection of capitalist values) 12, 43–4 Solomon, Robert 82
 spirituality see Good Trust (spiritual sense); religion and spirituality Sri Lanka 77
 stability
 requirement of business 6–7 role of the state 6–7
 stakeholder model of corporate responsibility, variety of forms 15–16
 stakeholder theory, Philosopher's Formula 178–81 stakeholders
 consideration in mediating institutions 219–20

- stakeholders (cont.)
 - impacts of corporate citizenship 190–1
 - responsibility to 8–11
- Stalin, Joseph 43
- sticky power (Mead) 42–3
- stories, power of 209–10
- taxation with representation to finance wars 65
- techno-symbolic values (Frederick) 47–8, 49
- technology transfer, role in peacebuilding 20
- terrorism
 - acquisition of WMDs 95
 - and perceived injustice 69
 - and religious groups 237, 238
 - characteristics in the twenty-first century 13
 - economic targets 12
 - in the twenty-first century 64, 237–8
 - market for weapons technology 13–15
 - response to intrusion of external values 12–13
 - responsibilities of businesses 12–13
- Tetlock, P. E. 189
- theories of the firm see aggregate approach; concession approach; entity approach
- Thucydides 41–2
- Timberland 9, 104, 138
- Tocqueville, Alexis de 63
- Total Integrity Management 5–6
 - and Peace Through Commerce 226–7, 234–7, 239–40
 - ethical formula 124–5
 - framework 24–6
 - holistic view of business ethics 131–2
 - integration of disciplinary approaches 25–6
 - see also* Good Trust; Hard Trust; Real Trust
- totalitarian government 62–3
- Trevino, Linda 175–6, 184–5
- trust, integration of forms 25
 - see also* Good Trust; Hard Trust; Real Trust
- Turnley, William 190
- United Nations 4–5
- United Nations Global Compact 18
- US Steel 230–1
- utilitarianism, and corporate citizenship 190–1
- value clusters (Frederick) 46–8, 49
 - ecologizing values 47, 49
 - economizing values 47, 49
 - power-aggrandizing values 47, 49
 - techno-symbolic values 47–8, 49
- value-maximization model 7–8
 - dilemma of good done via selfishness 10
 - financial performance measures 10–11
 - increasing influence 10
 - influence on corporate culture 15
 - moral issue 10
 - reasons for protecting shareholders 9–10
 - sale of weapons technology 13–15
 - short-term management strategies 10–11
 - see also* contractarian approach
- values
 - and power 45–6
 - and soft power 44
 - expansion in the global economy 12–13
 - non-economic 6
- Vanderbilt, Cornelius 36–7
- violence
 - and perceived injustice 95
 - association with corruption 20
 - between groups of humans 35–6
 - effects of globalization 95
 - social substitutability notion 24
 - tendency in poverty-stricken countries 19
 - use in business 36–7
- voice
 - engagement of 220–1
 - protection of 133
- voluntary agreements 79–80
- Waal, Frans de 48, 50–5
- Walsh, James 188, 189–90
- Walton, Mary 201

Index

255

- war
 - debt financing, British model 65
 - driving forces 36
 - expense of technology 64–5
 - representative taxation to finance
 - war 65
 - state's need to raise money
 - 64–5
 - to secure economic advantage
 - 39–41
 - see also* anthropological rootedness
of war and peace
- war-making capability
 - and popular support 66–7
 - dangers of the military-industrial complex 37–8
 - effects of ethical business 68–71
- weapons of mass destruction
(WMDs) 69
 - acquisition by terrorists 95
 - proliferation, effects of corporate cultures 107–8
 - sale of components 13–15
 - technology sales and export controls 101–5
- weapons technology, market
opportunities 13–15
- weapons trade see arms sales and exports
- Weaver, Gary 175–6, 184–5
- Werhane, Patricia 178–9
- Wolfowitz, Paul 102–4
- World Bank 4–5, 106
- Worldcom 11, 136–7