

Index

- AACSB (American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business) 21
 fostering diversity 40
 history of 36–9
 mission linked approach 41
- AACSB International
 business doctorate figures 209
 competitive advantage of accreditation 63
 current number of business programmes 79
 ethical and legal provision in curricula 80, 81–2
 influence on business school curricula 100–2
 influence on research in business schools 117
 list of accredited business schools 38
 relevance of business school research 129
 report on faculty salaries 51
 view on business school research 123
- ABS (Association of Business Schools) 33
- Academy of Management 67, 123–4, 210–11
- accreditation
 competitive advantage 63
 ethical and legal provision in curricula 80, 81–2
 history of 35–9
- accreditation institutions
 influence on business school curricula 100–2
 influence on research in business schools 117
 accredited business schools 38–9
 battle for market share 37–9, 40–1 enforcement of standards 41–2 impact on standards 39–41
 rise of 36–9
see also AACSB (International); AMBA; EFMD
- accredited business schools 38–9
- Africa, business education and management 18, 19, 218
- agora (knowledge space), future model for business schools 211–24
- AIIESEC 33
- alumni networks 56–7
- AMBA (Association of MBAs) 33
 accredited business schools 39
 competitive advantage of accreditation 63
 evaluation procedure 41–2
 history of 36, 37–9
 influence on business school curricula 100–1
- American business model (ABM), criticisms of 215 search for alternatives 215–19
- American business school model 8–10 alternatives to 10
see also diffusion of the American model
- American capitalism, fixation on short-term profit 9
- American controversies over business schools 20–3
- Amos Tuck School of Business Administration 104
- Ankers, Paul 127–8
- Arnold, Matthew 191–2
- Ashridge 38, 39
- Asia, growth of business education 18–19
- Aspen Institute
 ‘alternative’ rankings 80
 Beyond Grey Pinstripes initiative 80
 ISIB student survey 106–7
- Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs 41
- Aston business school 38, 39
- Attlee, Clement 27
- Australia, MBA programmes and institutions 24
- Australian GSM, increase in tuition fees 56

- Babson College 104, 131
- bachelor's degrees in business, early development 16–17
- Bain, George 116
- Bain and Company, list of popular business tools 128
- Barrett, Douglas 106
- Bates, Hilary 128
- Begg David 116
- Bennis, Warren 205
- Beyond Grey Pinstripes initiative 80
- BGA see Business Graduates Association
- BI school, Oslo 62
- BIM (British Institute of Management) 25
- Bok, Derek 208, 224
- Borges, Antonio 37
- Borna, Shaheen 106
- Brabston, Mary 106
- Bradford University School of Management 39
- branding/rebranding of business schools 63–4
- Brennan, Ross 127–8
- Bristol University 199
- budget pressures on business schools 51–5
  - competition from new providers 53
  - decline in demand for MBA programmes 52–3
  - escalating faculty salaries 51
  - financial uncertainty 51–2
  - geopolitical factors 53
  - government cutbacks 51
  - government interference 52
  - loss of market share 53
  - reduced value of endowments 51
  - reduced value of savings 51
- budget strategies for business schools
  - cost cutting/restraining 57
  - diversification of business programmes 60–1
  - diversification of target student market 58–9
  - fund-raising 56–7
  - increase in donations 56
  - increases in tuition fees 55–6
  - negotiation on annual tariff 57–8
  - push for financial autonomy 57–8
  - restructuring of MBA programmes 59–60
  - role of the dean 55
  - targeting overseas students 59
  - targeting women students 58–9
  - unique selling point 61–4
  - use of alumni networks 56–7
- Bush, George W. 1, 183
- business ethics 81 see also curriculum developments; ethics
- Business Graduates Association 33, 36
- business gurus, business origins 124–6
- business ideas, sources of 124–6
- business programmes, number running 79
- business school education
  - developing concern with ethics 79–82
  - diversification of programmes 60–1
  - fictional illustration of dilemmas 169–93
  - effects of curriculum changes 77–8
  - impetus for curriculum changes 77–8
  - keeping curricula up to date 79
  - rates of curriculum revision 78–9
  - social and environmental awareness 80
  - tendency towards sameness 78
- business school models see diffusion of the American model
- business school pedagogy
  - attitude towards the workforce 98–100
  - case study component 83–9
  - case study teaching method 89–100
  - changes in philosophical approach 82
  - changes in teaching methods 82
  - changes in use of case studies 83–9
  - 'corporate capture' notion 102–4
  - curriculum inertia 100–9
  - devaluation of teaching 108
  - ethical issues in case studies 97
  - influence of accreditation agencies 100–2
  - influence of student demands 105–7
  - lack of diversity in examples used 97
  - managerial perspective 98
  - narrow frame of reference 97–8
  - neglect of contextual issues 99
  - partial and outmoded view of issues 97–100
  - pressure from business interests 102–4
- business school performance, establishment view 2–3
- business school rankings see published rankings
- business schools
  - intensity of competition 1–2
  - reflection of corporate scandals 80
  - sphere of influence 1
  - see also* rise of the business school

232 INDEX

- BusinessWeek*
- business experience of business school professors 131
  - business school curriculum changes 77–8
  - business school profiles 78–9
  - business school rankings 54, 67–8
  - list of best business books 128
  - top fifty MBA programmes 81
  - business world changes, impacts on
    - business schools 9–10
- Cambridge Judge 39
- Cambridge University, attitude towards business education 28
- Canada, MBA programmes and institutions 24
- Carnegie Foundation 21
- case studies
  - and corporate scandals 103–4
  - attitude towards the workforce 88–9
  - conservatism 88–9
  - dated business assumptions 88–9
  - distributors 83
  - easyJet 84–5
  - Enron 103–4
  - Federal Express 87–8
  - Harvard case study method 83
  - influence of the corporate sector 103–4
  - lack of context 85–7
  - lack of hard supporting evidence 87–8
  - lack of inquisitive intent 88
  - lack of scepticism 88–9
  - limited range of sources 84–5
  - Lufthansa 85–7
  - managerial perspective 87–8
  - neglect of wider factors 85–7
  - omission of issues that do not fit 87–8
  - partial and outmoded view of issues 97–100
  - perspective on labour issues 87–8
  - predominance of management voices 84–5
  - quality of research 84
  - reliance on CEO observations 84–5, 88
  - role in MBA curricula 83
  - subjectivity 84–5
  - value of distribution business 83
  - weaknesses in 84–9
- case study teaching method 9
  - attitude towards the workforce 98–100
  - classroom teaching methods 89–100
  - classroom teaching research report 90–100
  - evasion of awkward issues 98, 99
  - in British business schools 25
  - managerial perspective 98
  - narrow frame of reference 97–8
  - neglect of contextual issues 99
  - partial and outmoded view of issues 97–100
  - teaching note 89, 90
  - treatment of ethical issues 97
- Cass Business School, London 39, 61–2, 116
- Cavalle, Carlos 37
- Chalmers University 223
- Chartered Management Institute, UK 206–7
- China, growth of business education 18, 19, 31–2, 201–2, 204, 218
- Cohen, Peter 105
- competition among business schools 50–5
  - and escalating faculty salaries 51
  - and the profusion of business schools 50
  - expanding recruitment sources 53
  - geopolitical factors 53
  - influence of published rankings 54
  - pressures on business school budgets 51–5
  - web-based or distance learning courses 53
- competition with business schools
  - management consultancies 53
  - new ‘for-profit’ providers 53
  - web-based or distance learning courses 53
- competition strategies
  - accreditation 63
  - attempts to influence rankings 67–70
  - branding/rebranding 63–4
  - building campuses abroad 59
  - creation of a distinct identity 61–4
  - data compilation and reporting issues 67–70
  - distance learning 59–60
  - diversification of business programmes 60–1
  - executive MBA programmes 60
  - focus on the bottom line 55–8
  - gamesmanship 64–70
  - generous appraisal procedures 64–7
  - image and positioning 61–4
  - increased marketing effort 63–4
  - lavish facilities 62–3
  - more choice for students 59–61
  - new buildings and campuses 62–3

- online delivery of programmes 59–60
- partnerships within the same field 63
- playing the system/bending the rules 64–70
- press handouts and websites 62–3
- restructuring of MBA programmes 59–60
- role of the dean 55
- target market diversification 58–9
- targeting overseas students 59
- targeting women students 58–9
- tighter focus of activities 61–2
- unique selling point 61–4
- consultants
  - competition with business schools 53
  - contribution to business ideas 130
- contextual issues, neglect in case study teaching 99
- contextualisation of knowledge 199–201
- Corley, Kevin 68
- Cornell University Johnson Graduate School 69
- corporate citizenship 81 see also curriculum developments
- corporate scandals 4, 5–6, 80, 103–4
- corporate social responsibility courses 81 see also curriculum developments
- Crainer, Stuart 60
- Cranfield 38, 39, 56
- critical management studies (CMS) 218
- criticisms of business schools 2–6
  - American controversies 20–3
  - business school establishment view 2–3
  - corporate scandals reflect badly 4, 5–6
  - devaluation of the MBA degree 5–6
  - dissatisfaction within faculty 6
  - ethical concerns 3, 4
  - lack of evidence for value creation 4
  - no correlation between MBA and career success 4
  - not delivering as claimed 4
  - preoccupation with money 3
  - problems with donors 3
  - propagation of morally unsound ideas 4
  - relevance of teaching to business life 4
  - research has little academic impact 4
  - research has little impact on business 4
  - students' concerns 6
- curriculum developments
  - business ethics courses 81
  - corporate citizenship courses 81
  - corporate social responsibility courses 81
  - developing concern with ethics 79–82
  - effects of 77–8
  - impetus for 77–8
  - keeping up to date 79
  - rates of curriculum revision 78–9
  - social and environmental awareness 80
  - stakeholder management courses 81
  - see also* business school pedagogy
- curriculum inertia
  - devaluation of teaching 108
  - in case study teaching 89–100
  - influence of accreditation agencies 100–2
  - influence of student demands 105–7
  - pressure from business interests 102–4
  - reasons for 100–8
- Daniel, Carter A. 16
- Darden 78
- Dartmouth 131
- Davenport, Thomas 124–6
- De Tocqueville 192
- dean, role of 55
- DeAngelo, Harry 67
- DeAngelo, Linda 67
- DeMott, Benjamin 172
- Department of Trade and Industry, UK 221
- diffusion of the American model 23–6
- diffusion of the American model (accelerators) 31–5
  - changes in the 1980s and 1990s 31–5
  - commercial pressures on universities 32–3
  - consultancy recruitment 34
  - financial services recruitment 34
  - globalisation 34
  - higher education system reforms 32
  - improved business school recruitment 32–3
  - improved corporate attitudes 34
  - legislation reforms 31–2
  - marketing of business schools 32–3
  - MBA attractiveness to students 35
  - profitability of business courses 32–3
  - promotion by pressure groups 33
- diffusion of the American model (retardants) 27–31
  - anti-American feeling 27, 30–1
  - cultural incompatibility 28
  - difficulty of creating new qualifications 27–8
  - doubts about American standards 31

234 INDEX

- diffusion of the American model (cont.)
 legal obstacles 27
 obstacles in higher educational systems 27–8
 political obstacles 27
 prejudice against business education 28–9
 scepticism of students 30–1
 status anxieties 31
- distance learning courses 53
- donors, problems with 3
- Doriot, George 9
- Drucker, Peter 22, 125
- easyJet, case study 84–5
- ECCH (European Case Clearing House) 83
 annual prizes for best-selling cases 83, 84–8
- The Economist*
 business school rankings 54
 business school research 133
- Edinburgh Business School, Herriot-Watt
 University 60
- EFMD (European Foundation for Management Development) 33
 history of 37–9
- EFMD (EQUIS arm) 37, 218
 accredited business schools 38–9
 competitive advantage of accreditation
 63 ‘European values’ 40
 influence on business school curricula 100–1
 influence on research in business schools 117 relevance of business school research 129
- Eliot, Charles W. 195
- Enron 4, 6, 80, 103–4, 214
- environmental awareness, in business school programmes 80
- environmental science 200
- EQUIS (European Quality Improvement System) see EFMD (EQUIS arm)
- Erasmus, increase in tuition fees 56
- ESADE 38, 56, 64, 131
- ESCP 38
- ESSEC 38
- Essen 56
- ethics, concerns about business schools 3, 4
- ethics teaching
 case studies’ treatment of ethical issues 97
- developing concern in business schools 79–82
 impact of corporate scandals 80
- European Academy of Business in Society 80
- European Case Clearing House see ECCH
- European Foundation for Management Development see EFMD
- European Union, promotion of business schools 18
- Evans, Fred 81
- Evans, Reg 188
- executive MBA programmes 60
 ranking (Financial Times) 60
- experiments and innovations
 alternatives to classical research model 145–65
 collaborative research models 146–65
- Financial Services Research Forum
 (FSRF), Nottingham University 147–65
- Rady School of Management, San Diego
 141–5
- reassessment of the MBA 140–5
- research forums 146–65
- faculty of business schools
 dissatisfaction within 6
 recruitment and pay levels 51
- Federal Express, case study 87–8
- Federation of British Industries, report on business education (1963) 29–30
- fees see tuition fees
- Fenix programme 223
- Financial Services Research Forum (FSRF), Nottingham University 147–65
- Financial Times*
 business school curriculum changes 78
 business school rankings 54, 67–8
 ‘dumbing up’ of management theory
 121–2
- Executive MBA ranking 60
 interview with retiring dean of Yale 129
- isolation of management teachers 123–4
- report on faculty restructuring 116
- student surveys report 106
- Fong, Christina 4, 128–9
- Foppen, Wil 37
- ‘for-profit’ providers of business education 53
- Forbes*, business school rankings 54
- Ford Foundation 17, 20, 23, 25, 28

- Forster, E. M. 173
 forums for research collaboration 146–65
 France, business education 23, 24, 29, 33
 fund-raising 56–7
 Fuqua School, student surveys 106 future of business schools academic model 208–11
   alternative models debate 204–11
   alumnus income 202–3
   American business model alternatives 215–19
   American business school model alternatives 10
   Americanisation question 8–10
   as agora (knowledge space) 211–24
   business doctorates 209
   changes in knowledge production 199–201
   changing role of the university 197–9 commercial pressures 7–8
   contextualisation of knowledge 199–201
   continuation of the current system 201–4 contribution of the arts and humanities 218–19 cost structure constraints 203 effects of negative perceptions 203–4 impacts of business world changes 9–10
   long-term viability concerns 195–6
   MBA demand saturation point 201–2 possible demise 203–4
   possible future scenarios 201–24
   power issues 207–8
   problem of definition of purpose 207
   professional model (closer link with management) 204–8 range of pressures 7–10
   relationship with universities 7–8 ‘responsive’ PhD programmes 222
- Garten, Jeffrey E. 78, 129
 Gekko, Gordon see Wall Street (Oliver Stone) geopolitical factors, effects on business school budgets 53
 Georgetown Business School 131
 Germany
   attitudes towards business education 29
   changes to higher education system 32
   response to the American model 23, 24
 Ghoshal, Sumantra 4, 85–7
- Gibbons, Michael 200–1
 Giddens, Anthony 10
 Gioia, Dennis 68
 Goleman, Daniel 125
 Gordon, Robert Aaron 20
 government involvement, control of levels of fees in India 52
The Great Gatsby (Fitzgerald) 189
- Haas School, increase in tuition fees 55
 Haji-Ioannou, Stelios 85
 Hambrick, David 123
 Hamel, Gary 125, 126
Harvard Business Review 121–2, 126, 172, 205
 Harvard Business School 1, 3, 183, 224 case study method 9, 83, 90
   distribution of case studies 83
   establishment of 195
   Enron case studies 103–4
   mission 195
   overseas partnerships 18
 Harvard University 208
 Haskins, Mark 78
 HEC Paris 38, 131
 Heller, Joseph 172
 Helsinki School of Economics and Business Administration 38, 56
 Henley Management College 38, 39, 60
 Herberger, Roy 37
 Hopwood, Anthony 121
 Howell, James Edwin 20
 Humboldt, William von 196–7
 Hutton, Will 10
- identity of business schools 61–4
 IEDC-Bled School of Management, Slovakia 63
 IESE (Spain) 37, 131
 image and positioning 61–4
 imaginary MBA class, fictional illustration of dilemmas 169–93
 IMD 38, 87–8, 131
 Imperial College London, business school 3, 57, 116
 Indian business schools 201–2, 204, 218 government control of fees 52
   status and ‘babuism’ 31
 innovations see experiments and innovations
 INSEAD 9, 37, 38, 57

236 INDEX

- Institute for Enterprise and Innovation, Nottingham 222
- International Herald Tribune*, business school rankings 54
- International Journal of Operations and Production Management* 128
- Italy, US business education initiatives 23–5
- Jacobs, Irwin 143
- Japan
 attitudes towards business education 28–9
 business school teaching in English 33
 changes to postgraduate education system 32 lifetime employment system 28–9
 response to the American model 23, 24
- Japanese MBA graduates, problems in the old system 34
- Journal of Operations Management* 128
- Kay, John 215
- Kellaway, Lucy 121–2
- Kerr, Clark 197
- Kirp, David 7
- Knights, David 147–50, 158
- knowledge, contextualisation 199–201
- knowledge production, changes in 199–201
- Kriel, Lomi 69–70
- Kristeva, Julia 220
- Krooss, Herman 22
- Kumar, Nirmalya 84–5
- Lancaster University Management School
 39, 57
- Langfed, Claus 122
- league tables see published rankings
- Leavitt, Harold 106
- Lewis, Michael 128
- Linux 184–5
- Lodge, David 173
- Loftuss, Maria 143–4
- Logue, Denis 51–2
- London Business School 4, 26, 38, 39, 77, 116, 125, 131
 appraisal procedures 65
 proportion of overseas students 59
- Lufthansa, case study 85–7
- Lytard, Jean-François 198
- management consultancies, education programmes 53
- Management Today* 134
- Marcal, Leah 81
- March, Jim 216
- Marconi 80
- Mark, J. Paul 90
- marketing of business schools 63–4
 branding/rebranding 63–4
 diversification of target student market 58–9
 press handouts and websites 62–3
- marketplace ethic in business schools 7–8
- Marx, Karl 190
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology
 216–17
- Master of Business Administration degree
see MBA degree
- master's degrees in business, early development 16–17
- Matten, Dirk 81
- Mays Business School, ranking 69–70
- MBA (Master of Business Administration) degree
 concerns about declining value 78
 devaluation of 5–6
 faked degrees 42
 influence of 1
 lack of correlation with career success 4 negative views of MBAs 106
- MBA programmes
 arduous reputation 105
 competitive restructuring 59–60
 decline in demand for 52–3 demand saturation point 201–2
 distance learning 59–60
 diversification of target student market 58–9
 early development of master's degrees in business 16–17
 experiments and innovations 140–5
 factors affecting demand 52–3
 fictional illustration of dilemmas 169–93
 imaginary MBA class 169–93 institutions delivering MBAs (selected countries) 24
 online delivery 59–60
 reorientation towards business needs 140–5
 shorter timescale 60
 standards issues 64–7
 tailored for executives 60

- MBA students concerns 6
 ethical concerns 106–7
 evolving view of business 106–7
 influence on curricula 105–7
 social responsibility 106–7
- McGill University 4, 56
- McKibbin, Lawrence 21, 36, 39, 79, 115–16
- Miller, Patrick 32–3
- Mintzberg, Henry 4, 5
- Money, Arthur 32–3
- money preoccupation, criticism of business schools 3
- Moon, Jeremy 81
- neoliberal free market model, criticisms of 215
- Nepal, growth of business education 19
- New York Times*, business school curricula 79
- Notre Dame 131
- Nottingham University Business School (NUBS), FSRF 147–65
- Nussbaum, Martha 219
- O’Toole, James 205
- Open University 39, 60, 141, 222
- Opus Dei 18
- overseas campuses 59
- overseas students, targeting by business schools 59
- partnerships, within the business school field 63
- Paul Merage School of Business, increase in tuition fees 55
- Pearce, Jone 67, 211
- Penrose, Edith 126
- Pfeffer, Jeffrey 4, 5, 128–9, 174
- Porter, Lyman 21, 36, 39, 79, 115–16
- Porter, Michael 184, 193
- Prahalad, C. K. 126
- press handouts 62–3
- Price College of Business, University of Oklahoma 51–2
- Prusak, Laurence 124–6
- published rankings
 attempts to influence 67–70
 business schools’ research contribution 117
 influence of 54
- Queen Mary College, University of London 140–1
- Rady, Ernest 144
- Rady School of Management, San Diego 141–5
- RAE see Research Assessment Exercise
- rankings see published rankings
- Readings, Bill 198
- Research Assessment Exercise (RAE) 117, 118, 119, 120, 126–7, 133–5
- research forums 146–65
- research in business schools business experience of professors 130–1
 business school cultural prejudices 130–5 capital asset pricing model 127 comparison with consultants 130
 domination of US journals 122–3 drivers behind shift towards 116–17
 effects of the ‘academic’ research model 130–5 engagement with outside organisations 126–7 evaluation of quality 119–23
 evaluation of relevance to end users 123–9 faculty restructuring exercises 116 financial benefits 116, 117
 impacts of audit and ranking 121–2, 133–5 impacts of RAE (Research Assessment Exercise) 117, 118, 119, 120, 133–5 increase in number of journals 118 increasing rate of production 118
 influence of accreditation agencies 117
 lack of academic impact 4
 lack of impact on business 4
 lack of influence 127–9
 link to grant allocation 117
 origins of business ideas 124–6
 preoccupation with publication 115–19
 priority over teaching 115
 reasons for limited relevance 129–35 rise of research 115–19
 specialist rankings and league tables 116–17
 UK government involvement 117
 US domination of judgements of validity 122–3
- research models, alternatives to the classical model 145–65
- researching business schools, challenges 11–12

238 INDEX

- Riesman, David 30
 Rigby, Darrell 128
 rise of the business school
   American controversies 20–3
   eastern Europe 19
   global spread 18–19
   growth in the US 15–17
   origins 15
   spread of American influence 19
   spread to Europe 17–18
   United Kingdom 25–6
   see also diffusion of the American model
 Rochester Business School 131
 Rogers, Brian 84–5
 Ross, Stephen M. 56
 Rotterdam School of Management 37, 38
 Russia, MBA programmes and institutions 24
- Said Business School, Oxford 121, 222
 SDA Bocconi 38, 56
 Senge, Peter 125, 216–17
 Shank, John 104
 Singapore, growth of business education 19
 Skapinker, Michael 6, 123–4
 Slack, Nigel 128
 Smith, Frederick W. 87–8
 social awareness, in business school programmes 80
 Society for Organizational Learning (SoL) 216–17
 Southern California Business School 131
 Spain, MBA programmes and institutions 24
 St Gallen, Switzerland 62
 stakeholder management 81 see also curriculum developments Stallman, Richard 185 standards of MBA programmes, issues 64–7
 Stanford 3, 4, 31, 131, 216
 Stearns, James 106
 Stockholm School of Economics 223
 Stone, Oliver (Wall Street) 169, 170, 175–9, 219
   discussion 179–93
 Strathclyde Business School 38, 39
 students see MBA students
 Sugar, Sir Alan 34
 Sullivan, Robert 141–5
 Swanson, Diane 81
 Sweden, Unversum Communications student survey 106
- Tanaka, Gary 3, 57
 teaching see business school pedagogy
 Thunderbird Business School 38–9
 Tokyo University 28
 Toronto Business School 131
 Torvalds, Linus 185
 Trilling, Lionel 173, 191
 Trump, Donald 60
 TrumpU 60
 tuition fees
   government control in India 52
   increases in 55–6
 Tweedale, Geoffrey 215
 Tyson, Laura D'Andrea 77
- UCLA 131
 UCSD (University of California, San Diego) 7, 141–5, 222
- UK
   attitudes towards business education 29
   controversies over business schools 25–6
   response to the American model 24, 25–6
 UK government, knowledge initiatives 221–2
 UK Treasury, published business school rankings 54
 UNC Chapel-Hill 131
 unique selling point 61–4
 universities
   emergence of modern form 196–7
   impacts of commercial pressures 7–8 increasing pressures on 197–9
   loss of raison d'être 197–9 requirement to justify contribution 197–9
   tension between research and professional training 197
 University of Bath School of Management 82
 University of Houston Victoria, School of Business Administration 63
 University of Kansas 81
 University of Leeds Business School 39, 127
 University of Luton 66
 University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology (UMIST) 147–50
 University of Michigan Business School 56
 University of Newcastle Graduate School, Australia 66–7
 University of Texas at Austin 131, 222

- University of Texas School of Management, ranking of schools' research contribution 117
- US, MBA programmes and institutions
 (January 2006) 24
- US News and World Report*, business
 school rankings 54, 69–70
- value creation in business schools 4
- Vanderbilt Business School 131
- Virginia Business School 131
- Waite, Nigel 150–3, 157, 163
- Wal-Mart 79, 102–3
- Wall Street* (Oliver Stone) 169, 170, 175–9, 219
 discussion 179–93
- Wall Street Journal*, business school rankings 54
- Walton Family Foundation 102–3
- Warrington Business School 38–9
- Warwick University Business School 38, 39, 58
- Washburn, Jennifer 208
- Washington University, St Louis 122
- web-based courses 53
- Weber, Max 169–70, 179, 190
- websites as marketing tools 62–3
- Wharton School 15
- Whyte, William 30
- Williams, Robert 106
- women, targeting by business schools 58–9
- Yale 78, 129, 131
- Yeates, W. B. 192
- Zimmerman, Jerold 67
- Zuboff, Shoshana 172