

Index

- adopting daughters out (tongyangxi), 10–12
- adultery
  - clan-designated penalties, 37
  - flogging penalty, 36, 69
  - warnings against, 36
- All Men are Brothers (Shuihu zhuan)* novel, 142, 168
- arousal imagery in short stories, novels, operas, 3
- arranged marriage
  - Canton Delta women and, 140
  - Communist opposition to, 184
  - conflicts/tensions caused by, 39–40, 47, 162
  - faithful maiden commitment to, 123
  - female suicide and, 128
  - Marriage Law (1950) and, 76
  - of Miss Zhao, 121–122
  - in nineteenth-century China, 4, 10–12
  - pain/emotional costs of, 47
  - rejection of, in twentieth century drama, 163
  - vs. romantic love, in literature, 154
  - as shelter from traffic in women, 28
  - twentieth-century literary reactions to, 163–164
  - twentieth-century transitions from, 59–60
- art and the nude body (20th century), 94–96
- athletes and body development, 99
- baojia* system (registry of households), 35–36, 37, 188
- “bare sticks.” See single men
- bisexuality, 140, 200
- body. See human body
- body adornments. See fashions and body adornments
- Book of Changes (I Ching, Yijing)*, 29
- Boxer Rebellion (1900), 20
- Buddhism, 16
  - “blood bowl” ritual, 123–124
  - bodily discourses influenced by, 84, 89, 90
  - pollution/purification rituals, 36
  - self-mutilation practices, 124
  - Yongzheng Emperor influenced by, 55
- Canton Delta women (same-sex relationships), 140. See also “delayed transfer marriage”
- castrated men (eunuchs), 109–112
- celibacy, 44, 87, 92, 123
- Censored by Confucius (Zi bu yu)* ghost story collection, 159
- chastity (female), 1
  - Confucian values, 19
  - eighteenth century legal cases, 72
  - equal standards for all women, 68
  - protection of, Qing period, 71
  - rewards, 69
  - virtue of, 69
  - widow fidelity, 14, 16, 53, 67, 75
- Chinese Communist Party (CCP)
  - commitment to male equality, 60, 61, 192
  - one-child policy problems, 63
  - support for family system, 188
  - unconscious urban/class biases, 132

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

226

Index

- Christianity/Christian missionaries child abuse concerns, 179
 moral support for marriage/compliant wives, 182
 small-family ideas, 179
 stance against eunuchs, 110
Classic of Poetry (Shijing), 31, 40, 51, 178
Classic of the Plain Girl (Su nü jing) text, 39 clitoris, imagery in The Western Wing, 2 cloistered ladies nineteenth-century ideal, 3 prominence during Qing dynasty, 57 vulnerability during disorder, 7, 54
   vs. women entering market for sex, 46
 colonialism
   global effects of, on China, 189–190
   Western views of/questions about China, 169–170, 178
 concubines
   aspirations in becoming, 56–57
   Daoist/Buddhist thoughts about, 91 demands for, 5
   female attraction to, 141
   Ming/Qing law and practice, 70, 73
   PRC laws, 74
   relation of child born to, 143
   sequestering of brides from, 58
   status of, 6, 54, 73
   suicide of daughter sold as, 128
   treatment of, 74–75
   twentieth-century ending of, 60–61
   in wealthier families, 4, 53, 70, 90
 Confucianism
   betrothal agreement ritual sealing, 44
   Buddhism vs., on physical body, 89–90
   on human sagehood, 16
   imperial transformations and, 15
   Qing dynasty installation of, 186–187
   rejection of, 66
   remarriage stigma, 75
   womanly virtues, 49
 contemporary China. See People's Republic of China (PRC)
A Country Codger Puts His Words Out to Sun (Yésou puyan) novel, 177
 courtesans (mingji)
   ban on, during Manchu period, 55–57
   favoring during Ming period, 55, 58–59
   Qing dynasty, 70
   as respite, from male homosocial life, 45
   sequestering of brides from, 58
   status vs. brides/wives, 6
 creative imagination and sexuality. See sexuality in the creative imagination
 cross-dressing, 16, 112–117, 119
 Cultural Revolution, 100, 195
   early militant phase (1966–1969), 49
   Mao suit requirement, 120
   post-era sexuality in literature revival, 165–166
   sexual practice private, 102
   sexual tension in fiction/drama, 51, 61
dagongmei (“working sisters”), female migrant workers, 21 Daoism, 15, 16
   belief about men's health, 59
   criticism of espoused sex-for-health regimens, 90
   gender discipline and, 34–35
   guides for female sexual health, 89
   Han dynasty belief system, 28–29 inner alchemy techniques, 39
   male “returning the semen” practice, 87
   sexuality and, 31
   yangsheng beliefs, 34, 36, 39, 87–88
 death. See infanticide of females; suicide by females “delayed transfer marriage,” 140, 181
 disabled men, 100
 divorce
   divorce laws (1930s), 75
   influence of marriage laws, 48, 67, 73
   low rates (1920s/1930s), 75
   Marriage Law (1950) and, 77
   Marriage Law (1980) and, 77–78
   New Family Law (1931) and, 163
   Qing/PRC laws, 75
   twentieth-century transitions, 73
   women's empowerment and, 130
A Doll's House (Ibsen), 163, 188
 drama/theater arts. See theater arts Dream of the Red Chamber novel, 147, 162 dynastic cycle
   analysis using sexuality, 53–54
   female virtue at heart of, 52
   local level manifestations, 52–53 rise and fall, 5
   three phases of, 52
 education. See also sex education/sex manuals

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

Index

227

- caution against, for women, 76–77
- Daoist/Buddhist influences, 16
- emergence of “tomboy-girl” culture in schools, 153
- imperial state emphasis on, 66, 68
- male advocacy for women, 194
- male elder control over, 37
- “new woman” and, 59
- 1980s setback for girls, 133
- nineteenth century rules, 7–10
- pariah men banned from, 5
- popularity of coeducation, 149
- post-1949 girl’s programs, 94
- Qing reforms for women, 191
- rural education study (1971–1977), 133
- tongxue* bonds of males, 13
- twentieth-century gains, 21
- erotica (erotic literature)
  - female homosexuality in, 71
  - Gulik’s research on, xviii
  - nineteenth century, 95
  - seventeenth century themes, 91
  - verbal ranges in, 160
- eunuchs (castrated males), 109–112, 113, 168, 172
- Family (Jia)* novel (Ba Jin), 163
- family values
  - dynastic cycle and, 53
  - Marriage Law (1930) and, 67
  - New Family Law (1931), 163
  - Qing dynasty support for, 19, 68–69
- rejection by New Culture Movement, 66
- universalizing by Manchus, 19
- fashion and body adornment. See also footbinding
  - cross-dressing/girls who want to be boys, 112–117
- eunuchs and other disfigured bodies, 109–112
- gender sameness (Mao/post-Mao years), 119–120
- Han vs. Manchu women’s fashion, 107–108
- “ideal man” description, 108
- male hairstyles, 17, 99, 106, 176
- May Thirtieth Movement, 118
- mutilation of female body, 113
- same-sex clothing, 120
- twentieth-century transformations, 117–119
- female impersonators in the theater (hua dan), 108, 116, 144–145. See also A Precious Mirror for Judging Flowers (Pinhua baojian) novel
- footbinding
  - ban, by Manchus, 18, 20, 57, 176
  - ban, during Taiping Rebellion, 106
  - imitation of having feet bound, 106–107
  - late imperial meaning attributed to, 179
  - as a marker of the Other, 178–180
  - modern intolerance of, 117
  - opinion of elite males on, 83
  - PRC elimination of, 21, 48
  - scientific/medical views of, 178–179
  - in Song/Yuan empires, 15–16
- Forgotten History of the Buddhists (Chanzhen yishi)* novel, 158
- fu* (wife, or married woman), 47
- fumu guan* (father-mother officials), 36
- gay bars, xix
- gay cultures. See lesbian culture; same-sex relationships/transgendered performances
- gender equality (nan nü ping deng), 119–120, 183–184
- gender inversion themes (in literature), 158–159
- government and sexuality. See also law and sex
  - baojia* system of control, 35–36, 37
  - enforcement of separation of sexes, 35–39
  - handbook for magistrates, 36–37
  - large-scale propaganda programs, 36
  - late imperial transformations, 15–19
  - nineteenth century, 14–15
  - non-coercive control of sexual transgression, 35
  - practical/positive purposes, 34–35
  - twentieth-century transformations, 19–23
- Great Leap Forward (1958–1961), 48, 61
- guanggun*. See single men (guanggun/“bare sticks”)
- guanxi* (connections) male bonds, 13. See also tongnian; tongxiang; tongxue; tongye
- Guan Zi* text, 39

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

228

Index

guige (women's quarters), 10, 12*guixiu* (cloistered ladies). See cloistered ladies

Han Period, 15

belief in separation of the sexes, 28–29

texts of male health, gender difference norms, 86–87

heteronormativity, xix, 60, 84, 90, 100, 182

homophobia, xix, 84

homosexuality. See same-sex

relationships/transgendered performances

homosociality

all-male organizations/networks, 13–14

courtesan's quarters as male respite from, 45

defined, 12

literary outlets for, 143–144

“tent-friends” (male muyou networks), 142–143

theater/monastic outlets for, 144–147

households, liang/jian classification (19th century), 5housewives (jiating funü), 21*hua dan* (female impersonators in theater), 108, 116, 144–145*huan jing* (“returning the semen”) practice, 87

Hui'an marriage customs, 184

human body. See also infanticide of female; suicides by females able and disabled (20th century), 100–102

adornment rules (imposed by Manchus), 17

in art (20th century), 94–96

Buddhist teachings, 89–90

castrated men (eunuchs), 109–112

contemporary notions about, 84

Daoist belief about men's health, 59

female body, mutilation of, 113

guides for female sexual health, 89

as “infinitive” (Qing dynasty medicine), 138

in late imperial medicine, 85–91

male health/gender difference norms, yin and yang, 86–87male yangsheng techniques, 87–88

Neo-Confucian beliefs, 89

sex and the medical body (20th century), 91–94

sexual satisfaction/hygiene advice, 193

shifting gender/sexuality performances, xx

in sport (20th century), 96–100

traditional Chinese medicine legacy, 93–94

Hu Tianbao (deity) worship, 139. See also male same-sex relationships infanticide of females, 50, 58, 131–134

jian (pariahs/“polluted” people), 5*jiating funü* (“housewives”), 21late imperial Chinese history. See Ming dynasty; Qing dynasty

law and sex

early twentieth-century shift, 73–76

gang rape punishment, 70

guilt of raped woman, 70

late imperial thought, 67–73

male rape, criminalization of, 70, 73

Marriage Law (1930), 67

Marriage Law revision (1950), 67, 76–78

Marriage Law revision (1980), 67, 77–78

“natural rights” of women, 75–76

PRC concubinage laws, 74

spousal violence court cases, 72–73

lesbian culture (twentieth-century), 71, 138, 153

liang (“good” people), 5*lijia* system (registry of households), 188literature. See also erotica (erotic literature); medical texts; sex manuals;

sexuality in the creative imagination;

theater arts; individual works

throughout the index

arousal imagery, 3

in celebration of men, 142

elite male relationship descriptions, 144

female suicide stories, 124, 127

- gender inversion themes, 158–159
 girls who want to be boys stories, 113
 hill songs, 156–157, 165
 late Ming/mid-Qing shifts, 161–162
 literary inquisitions (Qing dynasty), 161
 Ming dynasty, sexualized plots, 16 negative female images of state-topplers and shrews, 157–158
 paradigmatic male heroes, 159–160
 poem praising a woman's suicide, 121
 Qing dynasty, 118, 155–156, 161
 Qing literary inquisitions, 161
 reactions to arranged marriages (20th century), 163–164
 romantic love themes, 154–156
 seventeenth century themes, 158
 shape-shifter themes, 159
 sympathetic treatment of homosexuality, 147
 women dressing/working as men stories, 113–114, 115
 women writers (1920s/1930s), 163–164
 women writers (1970s/1980s), 167
liu po (six grannies), 12, 38
- “male” (nan) and “female” (nü). See also
 men, women
 gender sameness (Mao/post-Mao years), 119–120
 “manly Englishman” vs. “effeminate Bengali babu,” 182–183 masculinity concept, 118–119, 190
 medical text distinctions, 87
 stable distinctions in fashion, 109
 unstable meanings, xx, xxi
- male rape, 70, 73
- male same-sex relationships (nan feng or nan se), 70, 71, 138 “cut sleeve,” 139–140
 Emperor Ai (Han Dynasty) story, 139–140
 Hu Tianbao (deity) worship, 139
 late eighteenth century opinions about, 139
 phallic penetration symbolism, 140
xiangong tangzi (houses of male prostitution), 145
- Manchus, xviii
 Banner system marriage requirements, 176
- ban on female entertainment, 55–57
 ban on female footbinding, 18, 20, 57, 176
 bodily adornment rules, 17
 civilizing mission of, 175–176
 cultural identity, 176
 description of invasion, 17
 embrace of Han female virtues, 176
 on eroticism/sensuality in fiction and theater, 154–155
 gendered policy configurations, 176–177
 guilt of raped woman, 70
 male virtues, 176
 universalizing of family values, 19
- Mao Zedong/Maoist period (1949–1976), xx, 49
 dedication to gender equality, 119–120, 183–184, 188
 female suicide, 121–122, 128–129, 130
 talks at Yan'an Forum on Literature and Art, 165
- marriage
 ambivalence toward arranged, 92–93
 “delayed transfer marriage,” 140, 181
 emphasis on 57
 exchange practice (Qing dynasty), 177
 Hui'an marriage customs, 184, 185
 later imperial marriage market, 57
 Manchu Banner system marriage requirements, 176
 “marriage crunch” (shortage of brides), 5, 53, 58, 61, 65
 Marriage Laws influence, 67
 in 19th century China, 4–5
 PRC expectations for women, 67
 sexuality and, 4–5
 spousal violence court cases, 72–73
 staging of bridal procession, 57–58
 universal marriage expansion steps, 68
- Marriage Law (1930), 67
 Marriage Law revision (1950), 67, 76–78, 131
 Marriage Law revision (1980), 67, 77–78
- martial arts
 contemporary female participation, 100
 Qing dynasty, subversive flavor, 96–97
 Tang dynasty, female heroines, 115

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

230

Index

- Mawangdui manuscripts, on the art of “nurturing life,” 85–86, 89
- May Fourth movement (1915–1919), xx, 47, 163, 164–165
- May Thirtieth Movement, 118
- medical texts. See also traditional Chinese medicine
erotic drawings connected to men’s health, 160
healthy sex teachings, 87–88
male (nan)-female (nü) differences, 87
prescriptions for ensuring birth of a boy, 63
sexual satisfaction/hygiene advice, 193
women’s medicine genre, 88–89
- medicine. See traditional Chinese medicine
- men. See also homosociality; male same-sex relationships (nan feng or nan se); single men
all-male organizations/networks,
13–14
cross-dressing, 112–117
disabled men, 100
eunuchs (castrated males), 109–112
female impersonators (hua dan), 108, 116, 144–145
hairstyles, Han Chinese, 106, 176
hairstyles, Tang dynasty, 17
“ideal man” description, 108
literary male heroes, 159–160
Manchu-imposed bodily adornment rules, 17
masculinity, 118–119, 190
military service (19th century), 7 novels in celebration of, 142
occupation choices, 5–6, 45–46
pirate gangs, 13–14
responsibility to marry, 54
secret societies, 13
self-castration practice, 110
sexual intercourse, practice of, 87–88
sojourning of, 45–46
status hierarchies (19th century), 6
tongnian/guanxi bonds, 13
tongxiang networks, 13
tongxue bonds, 13
tongye networks, 13
traditional Chinese medicine and,
93–94
- Mencius
advice for aspiring kings, 29–30
- on arranged marriage vs. youthful passion, 39–40
on “gratifying the appetite for sex,” 31–33
influence in Qing period writings, 67 “innate” vs. “acquired” traits, 86
on romantic love/sexual attraction, 31
- Miao culture
ethnic identity nurturance/protection, 170
ethnic costumes/tourist visits, 184
Han Chinese views of sex customs, 173
- Ming dynasty (1368–1644)
elite courtesans (mingji), 55, 58–59
fall of, xviii
literature/sexualized plots, 16
palace eunuchs, 109–112
sexualized novel/fiction plots, 16
theater arts, 16
theater interests, 16
mingji (elite courtesans), 55
Miss Sophia’s Diary (Ding Ling), 164–165 modern China. See People’s Republic of China (PRC); Republican China
monasteries and same-sex relationships, 147
mutilation of the female body, 113
muyou networks (“tent-friends”), 142–143
- nan nü ping deng* (gender equality), 183–184
nanzihan (“real man”), 100
- New Culture movement (1915–1919), xx, 66
- nineteenth-century China. See also sexuality and social life (nineteenth century)
arranged marriages, 4, 10–12
concubines in wealthier families, 4
homosocial networks, 12
male heir preferences, 5
marriage expectations, 4
parenting and loyalty to government, 188
social order, 3
“nurturing life” (yangsheng), 85–86
nüzi (girl, meaning unmarried woman), 47
- one-child family policy, 4, 63–65, 94, 131
- Opium War (1842), 19, 28, 59
- the Other. See sexuality and the Other

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

Index

231

- passion and pleasure, 31–35 “faithful maiden” complex, 44
     literary examples, 41–42
     suicide by females, 42
     tension in arranged marriages, 39–47
     twentieth-century shifts, 47–49
- penis
     imagery in The Western Wing, 2
     phallic penetration symbolism, 140
     preservation of, after castration, 110
The Peony Pavilion (Mudan ting) opera, 2, 16, 42, 122, 156, 162
- People’s Republic of China (PRC)
     arts influenced by anti-rightist campaigns, 154
     commitment to family-based citizenship, 186–187
     concerns with women’s place in the family, 49
     constrained fertility patterns, 92
     contemporary art influences, 83, 95–96
     elimination of footbinding, 21, 48
     expectations of women, 67
     female athletes, 99
     founding of (1949), xix
     gendered dimensions of policy making, 49
     gendered strategies in minority areas, 170
     labor laws for menstruating females, 94
     Marriage Law revisions, 48, 67 notions about the human body, 84
     prostitution/traffic in women, 64–65 “same-sex love” (tongxinglian), 152 same-sex relationships in, 152, 168
     sex terminology transformations, 22
     sexuality, politics, and the law, 76–79
- phallic penetration symbolism, 140
- pleasure. See passion and pleasure
- “polluted” people (jian), 5
- A Precious Mirror for Judging Flowers*
     (Pinhua baojian) novel, 145
- prostitutes/prostitution
     clan rule penalties for visiting, 37
     Dalian prostitutes, 64–65
     “foreign diseases” (syphilis) from, 59
     husbands/fathers lured by, 35
     post-Mao era return, 61
     post-1949 rehabilitation programs for, 48
- pre-eighteenth century, 5
- sequestering of brides from, 58
- Shanghai (nineteenth century), 59
- Shanghai (twentieth century), 48
- status vs. brides/wives, 6
- trafficking in women and, 58, 64
- xianggong tangzi* (houses of male prostitution), 145
- qi* (energy or vital breath), 86
- Qing dynasty (1644–1911), xx
     baojia system (registry of households), 35–36, 37, 188
     basis of discipline and control, xxi
     beginning of women’s movement outside the home, 187–188
     blame of eunuchs for Ming collapse, 109 censoriousness of, 15
     civilized conduct standards, 180–181
     conjugal visits for incarcerated criminals, 68
     divorce laws, 75
     vs. eroticism/sensuality in fiction and theater, 154–155
     family values/systems support by, 19, 68–69
     footbinding, ban on, 18, 20
     footbinding, cultural meaning of, 179
     girls who want to be boys stories, 113
     groundwork for transition to nation-building, 189
     human body as “infinite” in medicine, 138 influence of Mencius’s writings, 67
     installation of Mencian Confucianism, 186–187
     lijia system (registry of households), 188
     literary/dramatic expressions of romantic love, 155–156
     literary inquisitions, 161
     male rape substatute, 70
     male same-sex relationships, 147 marriage exchange practice, 177
     Opium War, 19
     “platform suicide” by women, 124–125
     poem praising a woman’s suicide, 121
     prominence of cloistered ladies, 57
     Republican law influence on, 75–76
     rigorous proof for rape requirements, 69

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

232

Index

Qing dynasty (1644–1911) (cont.)
 statecraft strategy development, 14
 Western colonial cross-cultural encounters, 170–175

Qing dynasty, dress and adornment, 105–117

qipao (one-piece long gown), 118

queue (male hair braid), 17, 99, 106

rape, 1, 54
baojia system and, 35
 consequences for victim, 37
 gang rape punishment, 70
 guilt of woman (Manchu law), 70
 legal punishment for, 35, 69
 male rape (Qing dynasty), 70
 Republican period, 60 rigorous proof requirements, 69

renting of wives/selling of daughters, 50, 58, 121

Republican China (1911–1949)
 concubine laws, 74
 divorce laws, 73, 75
 establishment, xx
 gradual reduction of bound feet, 21
 legislation in support of women, 48, 67
 “natural rights” of women, 75–76
 promotion of small family ideal, 181 secret society problems, 14
 traffic in women, 59–62
 vulnerability of women, 60

“returning the semen” (huan jing) practice, 87

Romance of the Three Kingdoms (San guo yan yi) historical novel, 142, 159

romantic love themes, in literature and theater, 154–156

rulers (emperors)
 promotion/support of families, 54
 reliance on virtuous women, 52
 seduction by women/boys, 51–52
 social order maintained by, 50–51

same-sex clothing, 120

same-sex organizations, 14

same-sex relationships/transgendered performances, 137–153. See also male same-sex relationships (nan feng or nan se)

anxieties and critiques (19th century), 147–148

cross-dressing, 16, 112–117, 119

“delayed transfer marriage,” 140, 181

gay bars, xix

gay cultures (twentieth-century), 150–153

“global gayness,” 138

homosociality and, 142–144

lesbian culture (twentieth-century), 71, 138, 153

social Darwinism and, 148

sympathetic treatment in the late Ming, 147

twentieth-century shifts, 148–150
 between women, 71
 of women, 140–142

san gu (three aunties), 12, 38

scholar elite males (19th century), 6

self-castration, 110

separation of the sexes (nan nü you bi), 21, 27–49
baojia system, 35–36
 beginning of women’s movement outside the home, 187–188
 clan rules, 38
 division of labor by gender, 29–30, 45
 duty of wifeness, 27, 45
 enforcement of, 35–36, 39
 household level enforcement, 37
 Ning Lao T’-ai-t’-ai/“coming out” (of the house), 27
 passion and pleasure, 31–35
 for prevention of “licentious customs,” 72
Small Happiness film, 27, 30 travels of men, 45–46
 twentieth-century shifts, 47–49

sex education
 on conditions for intercourse, 92
 fiction/opera as source, 193
 importance of, for global citizenry, 199
 Mawangdui manuscripts, 85–86, 89
 post-Mao era, 101–102
 from Yingying’s story (fiction), 42

sex manuals
 advice manuals (1951–1976), 101, 192
 erotic prints/drawings in, 160
 “how to” guides, 91, 160–161

- male-female yin and yang energies, 87, 142
- sex tourism in contemporary China, 184
- sexual appetite (se)
  - early fascination with, 199
  - as essence of human creativity, 22
  - naturalness of, 86
  - observation of rules of propriety (Mencius), 31–33
- sexual harassment, 21
- sexual intercourse
  - Buddhism on, 89
  - extramarital, imperial era proscriptions, 72
  - fertility data, 92
  - male-female yin and yang energies, 87
  - male techniques, 87–88
  - Marriage Law on inability to perform, 77–78
  - “returning the semen” practice, 87
  - wedding night vs. ongoing, 92
- sexuality and social life (nineteenth century)
  - sexuality and government, 14–15
  - sexuality and marriage, 4–5
  - sexuality and mobility, 12–14
  - sexuality and social identity, 5–7
  - sexuality and social space, 7–12
- sexuality and the Other, 169–185
  - bound feet as a marker of, 178–180
  - gender confusion issue, 182–183
  - judging sexuality in cross-cultural encounters, 170–175
  - Manchu civilizing mission, 175–176
  - Manchu gendered policy configurations, 176–177
  - Maoist dedication to gender equality, 119–120, 183–184
  - twentieth-century universalizing goals, 181–185
  - Western colonial views of/questions about China, 169–170, 178
- sexuality in the creative imagination, 154–168
  - female desire themes, 167
  - gender-inversion fiction, 158–159
  - literary/dramatic expressions of romantic love, 155–156
  - negative female images, 157–158
  - post-Cultural Revolution revival, 165–166
  - seventeenth-century fiction/drama, 158
  - shape-shifter fiction, 159
  - twentieth-century shifts, 162–168
  - women writers (1920s/1930s), 163–164
  - women writers (1970s/1980s), 167
- Shanghai Baby* (Wei Hui), 169, 170
- shape-shifter themes (in literature), 159
- single men (guanggun/“bare sticks”)
  - baojia* system and, 35–36
  - fear of, 5, 35, 46, 58, 147
  - gang memberships, 13, 53
  - and traffic in women, 50–65
  - vulnerability of women to, 54, 58
- six grannies (liu po), 12, 38. See also three aunts (san gu)
- Small Happiness* film (Hinton and Gordon), 27, 30
- social Darwinism
  - as basis of competitive athletics, 97, 100
  - and critiques of the joint family, 181
  - and new conceptions of same-sex relationships, 148
- social identity and sexuality, 18
- social space and sexuality
  - arranged marriages/adopting out for girls, 10–12
  - male-female education, 7–10
  - multi-generational housing rules, 7
- Song empire (960–1279)
  - development of women’s medicine, 87
  - footbinding practice/widow fidelity, 15–16
- sports and the human body, 96–100
  - body development by athletes, 99
  - dress for competition, 99
  - female martial arts participation, 100
  - Qing dynasty, martial arts, 96–97
- spousal violence court cases, 72–73
- “Story of the Three Wang Girls” (female suicide), 125
- suicide by females
  - during attacks, 7, 42, 53, 72
  - controversial aspects of, 127
  - as emblems of loyalism, 53
  - female cluster types, 129–130
  - literature/stories, 124, 125
  - patterns (explanation of), 123–124

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86514-2 - Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History

Susan L. Mann

Index

More information

234

Index

- suicide by females (cont.)
 “platform suicide,” 124–125
 story of Miss Zhao, 121–122, 128–129 twentieth-century views, 128–130
 when flirted with, 72
The Sun Shines over the San’gang River
 (Ding Ling), 165
 Sun Yatsen, 14
 syphilis (yangmei chuang or meidu), 59
- Taiping Rebellion
 ban of footbinding, 106
 male queue as symbol of honor, 106
 woodblock print, 7
 “Tale of Yingying” (Yuan Zhen), 1–3
Tales of Boy and Girl Heroes (Ernü yingxiong zhuan) novel, 115
- Tang dynasty
 female martial arts heroines, 115
 male hairstyle, 17
 seduction of rulers, 51, 52
 “tent-friends” (muyou networks), 142–143
- theater arts. See also literature; sexuality in the creative imagination
 hill songs, 156–157, 165
 influence of Western critique, 149–150
 late Ming dynasty, 16
 negative female images of state-topplers
 and shrews, 157–158
 paradigmatic male heroes, 159–160
The Peony Pavilion opera, 2, 16, 42, 122, 156, 162
 romantic love themes, 154–156
 seventeenth-century themes, 158
The Western Wing (Xi xiang ji) (drama), 2–3, 122, 146, 162
- three aunts (san gu), 12, 38. See also six grannies
- “tomboy-girl” (TB/G) culture, 153
- tongnian* (“same year” for examinations)
 male bonds, 13
- tongxiang* (same native place) male networks, 6
- tongxue* bonds of males (fellow students), 13
- tongyangxi* (“little daughter-in-law”), 10–12
- tongye* (same occupation) male networks
 (artisans and merchants), 6
- traditional Chinese medicine complex bodily images, 83
 global acceptance/growth of, 84
 male beauty/sexual vitality and,
 109
 sex/gender representation, 138
 teaching on menstrual blood, 93–94
- trafficking in women, 50–65. See also
 courtesans (mingji);
 prostitutes/prostitution
 arranged marriage shelter from, 28
 one-child policy and, 63–65
 renting of wives/selling daughters, 50, 58, 121
 twentieth-century market shifts, 58–59 twentieth-century revolutions and, 59–62
- transgendered practice, 83
- twentieth-century transformations, 19–23.
See also Great Leap Forward; Mao Zedong/Maoist period; May Fourth movement; People’s Republic of China (PRC); Republican China
 able and disabled human bodies, 100–102
 ban on footbinding, 20
 Christian missionaries, 181–182
 Cultural Revolution, early militant phase, 49
 fashion and body adornments, 117–119
 gay cultures, 150–153
 Great Leap Forward (1958–1961), 48
 household registration (hukou) system, 188
 human body in art, 94–96
 human body in sport, 96–100
 Maoist dedication to gender equality,
 119–120, 183–184
 Maoist period (1949–1976), xx, 49
 new civil code promulgation (1929–1930), 73
 occupational shifts for women, 48
 reframing of divorce laws, 73
 of same-sex relationships, 148–150
 sex and the medical body, 91–94
 sex terminology evolution, 22
 sex tourism, 184
 in sexuality in the creative imagination, 162–168
 shifts in separation of the sexes, 47–49

Index

235

- suicide by females, 128–130
- universalizing goals, 181–185
- women's education/gainful employment gains, 21
- women writers (1920s/1930s), 163–164
- vulva, imagery in The Western Wing, 2
- Western colonial interactions with China
  - dismay at oppression of women, 178
  - judging sexuality in cross-cultural encounters, 170–175
  - views of/questions about China, 169–170
- The Western Wing* (Xi xiang ji) (13th century drama), 2–3, 122, 146
- widow fidelity (by women), 53, 75. See also chastity
  - Buddhist ideas about, 90
  - imperial government honoring of, 67
  - physical mutilation/self-mutilation, 111
  - Qing dynasty, 16
  - Song/Yuan empires, 16
  - vow of chastity until death, 14
- “A Winter's Fairy Tale” (Yu Luojin), short story, 167
- wives
  - duties of, 27, 45
  - duty to have a son, 4
  - housewives (jiating funü), 21
  - renting, selling, pawning of, 50, 58, 121
  - status of courtesans vs., 6
- women. See also chastity standards for women; cloistered ladies; concubines; courtesans (mingji); footbinding of women; trafficking women
  - adopting daughters out, 10–12
  - “blood bowl” Buddhist ritual, 123–124
  - “faithful maidens,” 44, 122–123, 125
  - girls who want to be boys, 112–117
  - homosexuality, 71
  - imitation of having feet bound, 106–107
  - infanticide, 50, 58, 131–134
  - lesbian culture (twentieth-century), 71, 138, 153
  - physical mutilation/self-mutilation, 111
  - “platform suicide” (Qing dynasty), 124–125
  - purity ideal/“Tale of Yingying,” 1–3
  - same-sex relationships, 140–142
  - status hierarchies (nineteenth century), 6–7
  - suicide during attacks (nineteenth century), 7
  - twentieth-century transformations, 21, 48, 187–188
  - women's quarters (guige), 10
  - writers (1920s/1930s), 163–164
  - writers (1970s/1980s), 167
- Women's Classic* (Nü'er jing) text, 49
- Women's Federation (fulian), 66, 78, 132
- women's quarters (guige), 10, 12
- Women's Rights Law (Funü quanli baozhang fa), 78
- women warriors, 114
- xianggong tangzi* (houses of male prostitution), 145
- yangsheng* (nurturing and prolonging life) beliefs, 34, 36, 39, 87–88
- yin* and yang, xxi
  - description, 28–29
  - and male health/gender difference norms, 86–87
  - political philosophy application, 29–30
- yin* imagery
  - female associations, 87
  - in The Western Wing, 2
- Yongzheng Emperor (1723–1735), 68
- Yuan empire (1279–1368)
  - footbinding practice/widow fidelity, 15–16
- Zhou period, 15