

Cambridge University Press

0521866863 - Leading with Values: Positivity, Virtue, and High Performance

Edited by Edward D. Hess and Kim S. Cameron

Index

More informationIndex

- abundance value system 140–2
- Boik, Sarah (physician billing unit) attunement to others' life circumstances 120–2
 boundary between life and work 120–2
 creating meaning in work 122–5 creating opportunities for growth 116–17
 daily practices of engagement 113–15
 encouraging ideas and improvements 123–5
 group celebrations 118–19
 group involvement in hiring 115–16 humanity and respectful interaction 118–19
 importance of ongoing teaching 122–5
 leadership practices overview 127–30
 leading by example 113–15
 operational challenges in the billing unit 110–11
 participation by the group 115–17 performance information 114–15 performance requirements 113–15 playfulness and fun at work 125–7 recognition of values and common sense in others 112–13 shared knowledge 114
 socialization, training and retention 116–17
 values-based leadership 108–30
- Columbia space shuttle accident 57–8, 65
- crisis see organizational crisis
- decision making, tests of values 165–7
- Enron 151–4, 158, 164
- faith see religious faith; spirituality and leadership
- FedEx Freight 29–54
 challenging and changing beliefs 33–42
 communicating leadership beliefs 33–5
 early business principles 29–30 gaining commitment to business principles 43–5
 Garrison, Sheridan 29–31, 41
 history 29–31
 leadership challenge ropes courses 35–42, 53
 people-centric culture 29–30, 44–5, 46–54
 'People First' strategy 42, 44–5, 46–54
 recognizing problems 32–3
- forgiveness
 amplifying effects within organizations 186–7
 attribute of leadership 172–90
 begrudging mode 177, 178–80 beneficial outcomes 173–6
 benefits for forgiving leaders 184–5, 189–90
 benefits to organizations 185–7, 189–90
 buffering effects in difficult circumstances 185–6
 case example, John and Sam (LTL trucking) 173–6
 choosing to forgive 189
 features and connotations 172–3

Cambridge University Press

0521866863 - Leading with Values: Positivity, Virtue, and High Performance

Edited by Edward D. Hess and Kim S. Cameron

Index

More information

Index

235

- finding strength from belief structure 189
- how to practice transcendent forgiveness 187–9
- managers' propensity for 182–5
- modes of 176–82
- modes used by different employee groups 182–4
- organizational 189–90
- positive benefits of transcendent mode 181–2
- pragmatic mode 177, 178, 179, 180
- recognizing the effects of an offense 188
- reframing perceptions of the offense and offender 188
- relevance to leadership 173–6
- separation from questions of justice 188
- transcendent mode 177, 178, 179, 180–2, 187–9
- high-risk/high-reliability organizations
 - ability to see developing problems 60–1, 65
 - Columbia space shuttle accident 57–8, 65
 - dangers of complacency 57–8
 - dangers of hubris 56
 - examples of failures and successes 55
 - Gleason, Paul 58–61
 - high reliability values 57–8
 - nature of 56–7
 - role of core competence 56
 - role of values in demanding situations 55–65
 - sensemaking rather than decision-making 58–60
 - strong responses to weak signals 56, 65
 - value of mindfulness 60–1, 63–5
 - value placed on devaluing 63–5
 - value placed on mistake avoidance 60–1, 63–5
 - value placed on resilience 65
 - value placed on wisdom 61–3
 - values identification process 64–5
 - wildland firefighters 58–65
- HomeBanc Mortgage Corporation 87–107
 - associate appreciation and recognition 96–8
 - associate awards and benefits 97–8, 99–101
 - business performance 89
 - CEO Patrick Flood 87–90, 106–7
 - community and charity support 102
 - customer service guarantee 101
 - diversity awareness training 98–9
 - family atmosphere 89, 96–7, 102–3, 105–6
 - hiring process 94, 95–6, 106–7
 - HomeBanc academy 93–4
 - HomeBanc symbols and credo 92–3
 - leadership philosophy 89–90
 - mission and values 90–3
 - new associate orientation 94–6
 - no-layoffs policy 99
 - Office of People and Culture 106–7
 - outcome measurements 95–6, 106–7
 - people-first value system 87–107
 - reinforcement of values and culture 90, 91–6, 103–7
 - role of faith in the culture 87–8, 89, 101, 106–7
 - values card 91–2
 - vision 91–2
- hubris, dangers of 56
- Lay, Kenneth (Enron) 151–4, 164
- leadership
 - instruction in the Marine Corps 220–4
 - role of forgiveness 172–90
 - social and relational aspects 156–7, 159–63
 - see also* principled leadership; values-based leadership
- Marine Corps
 - accountability 72
 - belief in a Supreme Being 74–5
 - Core (Corps) values 216–18, 223–4, 232
 - creating organizational cohesion 216–18, 223, 232
 - culture and traditions 70–4
 - decentralization of command and control 215–18

Cambridge University Press

0521866863 - Leading with Values: Positivity, Virtue, and High Performance

Edited by Edward D. Hess and Kim S. Cameron

Index

More information

236

Index

- Marine Corps (cont.)
- discrimination and proportionality 79–86
 - ethics and understanding in combat operations 79–86
 - expeditionary nature 71
 - influence of Eastern thought 76–7
 - inspiration of Mike Strank 213, 233
 - leadership and spirituality in the battlefield 78–86
 - leadership instruction 220–4
 - leadership principles 75–8, 221–2, 223–4
 - leadership traits 221–2, 223–4
 - Maneuver Warfare principles 73, 214
 - Marine Corps Values Program 220–4
 - meaning of spirituality 74–8
 - meaning of the Marine Corps motto 85
 - Mentoring Program 220, 225, 229
 - Performance Evaluation System 220, 230–2
 - Professional Reading Program 220, 224–5, 226–9
 - recruitment screening of values 219
 - self-knowledge 75–6
 - special relationship with the American people 68–9
 - spirituality and leadership 68–86
 - strategic corporal 216–18
 - survival through distinguished service 71–2
 - teaching values 213–34
 - ‘Three Block War’ view of future conflicts 214–16, 232
 - training requirements of maneuver warfare 214–18, 232
 - transformation process 218–31, 232–3
 - understanding of the use of violence 73
 - unique role and spirituality 68–9
 - unique training 71
- mindfulness, value in high-risk organizations 60–1, 63–5
- negative values recognition
FedEx Freight 32–3
- how “bad” decisions and actions can occur 159–63
- in high-risk organizations 63–5
- Synovus 19, 20
- organizational cohesion, Marine Corps 216–18, 223, 232
- organizational crisis
- building a collaborative community 202, 204–5
 - damage caused by 195
 - empathy and leadership 198
 - going beyond formal roles 198, 202–4
 - healing the social fabric 195–7
 - leadership support for coping and healing 194, 195–7
 - leading others to safety 202, 206–7
 - method of interviews with those involved 200–1
 - rise of rampage killings 194–5
 - role of values-based leadership 194–210
 - stories of value-driven leaders 201–8
 - taking on leadership responsibility 198, 206–7
 - the victim’s leadership 202, 207–8
 - threat-rigidity response 209
 - university business school shooting (2003) 194, 199–208
 - values-based leadership behavior 197–9, 208–10
- people-centric culture
- FedEx Freight 29–30, 44–5, 46–54
 - HomeBanc 87–107
 - Synovus 16, 17–19, 20–2
- physician billing unit
- operational challenges 110–11
 - values-based leadership see Boik, Sarah
- positive deviance from normal performance 140–2
- principled leadership
- asocial conceptions of 157, 158–9
 - awareness 154–5, 164, 165
 - being and living the principles 155
 - breathing life into organizations 154–5, 156–7, 165, 167–9

- definition 155–8
- dilemma of competing principles 157–8, 168–9
- effective storytelling 156–7, 168–9
- Enron leadership problems 151–4, 158, 164
- example of Roy Vagelos (Merck) 157–8, 168–9
- framework and process for 154–5, 164–9
- how “bad” decisions and actions can occur 159–63
- in challenging situations 151–69
- inability to lead with values 151–4
- over-reliance on mental schemas and scripts 161–3
- power of social contexts and cultural schema 159–63
- problems with Ford Pinto recall process 161–3, 164
- responsibility when things go wrong 158–9
- self-reflection 154–5, 164, 165–7
- social and relational aspects 156–7, 159–63
- Stanford Prison Experiment 159–60, 164
- tests for principled decision-making 165–7
- using values as a compass 167–8
see also leadership; values-based leadership
- rampage killings, rise of 194–5
- religious faith
 - role in culture (HomeBanc) 87–8, 89, 101, 106–7
 - role in culture (Synovus) 11–12, 16–17, 24
see also spirituality and leadership
- Rocky Flats nuclear weapons plant
 - abundance value system 140–2
 - bureaucratic control system 145
 - clean-up and decommissioning challenges 133–4
 - culture change through change in individuals 146–7
 - data sources 139–40
 - extraordinary success of clean-up operation 135–9
 - financial incentives at
 - lifestyle-altering levels 143–4
 - history of conflict 133–4
 - Kaiser-Hill contract to clean up the site 135
 - leadership from multiple sources 139, 143
 - leadership values for extraordinary success 142–9
 - loss of mission and meaningful work 134
 - multiple enablers for successful change 142
 - organizational symbols of
 - abundance aspirations 144–5
 - perfect execution of commitments to stakeholders 146
 - period of active operation 132
 - positive deviance from normal performance 140–2
 - priority of learning from successes 147–8
 - profound purpose for organization’s activities 144
 - scale of radioactive waste and pollution problem 133–4
 - strategy built on aspirations for the organization 148
 - summary of outcomes 136–9
 - virtuousness pays dividends 148–9
- servant leadership (Synovus) 15, 17, 25
- social and relational aspects of leadership 156–7, 159–63
- spirituality and leadership
 - Marine Corps 68–86
 - Synovus 11–12, 16–17, 24
see also religious faith
- storytelling
 - role in effective leadership 156–7, 168–9
 - to reinforce culture and values 23–4
- Synovus Financial Services Corporation 9–26
- Blanchard, James (father) 11
- Blanchard, James H. (son) 11–12, 16–17
- Bradley, William Clark 10–11, 12
- business performance and values 13–15, 18–19, 25

Cambridge University Press

0521866863 - Leading with Values: Positivity, Virtue, and High Performance

Edited by Edward D. Hess and Kim S. Cameron

Index

More information

238

Index

- Synovus Financial Services (cont.)
 business rankings performance 14–15 card transactions and electronic payments 13 customer service 15, 17–18, 19, 22 diversification into TSYS (Total System) 13 founding families and history 9–12 growth by acquisitions 12–13 hiring policy 20–1
 history of values 9–12
 Jordan, George Gunby 9–10, 12
 Leadership Institute and Foundations of Leadership 24–5 living the culture and values 16–19, 20–2 outward expansion of the culture 15 people-centred culture 16, 17–19, 20–2 recognizing cultural deviations 19, 20
 religious faith 11–12, 16–17, 24
 reinforcing culture and values 15–16, 19–20, 22–6 rewards for good values 18 servant leadership 15, 17, 25
 shareholder returns and values 13–14, 16, 25 storytelling to reinforce culture and values 23–4
- The Golden Rule – do what is right 15–16
 Turner, D. Abbott 11–12
 values 15–16
 values-based culture 15–22
 values-based leadership 9
- Tutu, Desmond 3
- Vagelos, Roy (Merck) 157–8, 168–9
 values
 as a compass for principled leadership 167–8 role in high-risk/high reliability organizations 55–65 teaching in the Marine Corps 213–33 values-based culture, Synovus 15–22
 values-based leadership 9
 creating practices (Sarah Boik) 108–30
 leadership values for extraordinary success 142–9 role in organizational crisis 194–210 see also leadership; principled leadership
- wildland firefighters, leadership in high-risk organizations, 58–65
- Zander, Benjamin 130