

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

Jedrzejj George Frynas

Index

More information

Index

- Abu Dhabi National Oil, 8, 86
- Akassa community development project, 113, 114–115, 132
- Aker, 57
- Algeria, resource curse, 136
- American Petroleum Institute, 68
- Angola
- transparency, 141
 - use of CSR for competitive advantage, 116–117
- Angolan oil, 48
- API gravity, 40
- appraisal wells, 44
- ARCO, EC-X formula, 89
- Argentina, CSR definition, 3–4
- asphalt, 41
- associated gas, 41
- Austrian economics, 14, 18–21, 35–36
- authoritarian rule, 159–160
- Azerbaijan
- oil companies' relationship with government, 159
 - revenue savings funds, 143
- Blowfield, Michael, 85, 128
- Bover, W. James, 158
- BP
- as a leader in corporate citizenship, 7–8
 - as pioneer of CSR in oil/gas sector, 21
 - asset manager rotation, 127
 - attempts to address governance in Azerbaijan, 139
 - biodiversity training, 127
 - climate change strategies, 28
 - crises forcing CSR, 23–24
 - EITI support, 142
 - emissions trading system, 80–81, 91–92
 - environmental performance, 76–78
 - environmental reporting, 74
 - gas flaring, 75
 - greenhouse gas emissions reduction, 80–82
 - indirect carbon emissions, 96–97
 - Kyoto treaty, 27
 - lack of CSR in Algeria, 52–53
 - oil spills, 75–76
 - social development spending, 105
 - sustainable development, 98
 - Tangguh LNG project, 112–113, 132
 - transparency, 141
- BP Alternative Energy, 98

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

Jedrzej George Frynas

Index

More information

202 • Index

- BP Solar, 98, 101
- BP–Statoil, Baku–Ceyhan pipeline, 101
- Brent Spar, 22, 60–61
- Brown, Ralph, 34
- Browne of Madingley, Lord, 6–7, 81
- BUND, 60
- business benefits from CSR, 78–83
- business case for CSR, 166
 - Nuffield Foundation study, 121–122
- business interest groups, 157

- Catholic Relief Services, 60
- CDRA (Consortium for Development and Relief in Angola), 104
- Chad
 - Revenue Management Program, 143, 144, 152–153
 - World Bank and, 55
- Chávez, Hugo, 105–108
- Chevron, 74, 75–76
- climate change strategies, 28
 - EITI support, 142
 - Kyoto treaty, 27
 - Nigeria community development projects, 123
 - paying undisclosed sums to Chad government, 152
 - replacing US government funding in Angola, 104
 - social development spending, 105, 111
 - stakeholder pressure, 24–25
 - use of CSR for competitive advantage, 116–117
- China, falsification of labour monitoring records, 59
- chrome tubes, vs steel, 79
- Cicero, 3
- Citizens International, 112
- Civil Liability Convention (1992), 94
- civil society, and transparency, 148, 149
- climate change policy, BP, 24
- CNOOC, 74, 85
- coercive isomorphism, 16–17
- Colombia, BP and human rights abuses, 23

- Community development initiatives
 - limitations of, 115–116
- competitive advantage, CSR for, 116–117
- Consortium for Development and Relief in Angola (CDRA), 104
- consumption of oil and gas, 96
- context
 - importance of, 38–39, 167–169, 181, See also Nuffield Foundation study, implementation problems, country-specific/context-specific
- contractors, as stakeholders, 57–59
- Convention on Civil Liability for Oil Pollution Damage, 93
- Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). 181. See CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility)
- corruption, 123, 161
- crude oil, 40–41
- CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility)
 - and oil companies, 6–9
 - definitions, 2–6
 - perspectives on, 12–14
 - potential and limitations, 165–167
 - recommendations for future, 173–176
 - vs regulatory compliance, 53
- CSR strategies
 - Austrian economics perspective, 18–21, 35–36
 - emerging-economy companies, 30–34
 - institutional pressures and, 27–28, 32–34, 35
 - market forecasts and, 29
 - multi-level theoretical perspective requirement, 35–37
 - stakeholder pressure and, 21–25, 30–32, 35
 - stakeholders vs. institutions, 15–17

- Deby, Idriss, 152
- Department for International Development (DfID), 102, 103–104
- dependency mentality, 125–126
- development wells, 44
- DfID (Department for International Development), 102, 103–104
- DiMaggio, Paul, 16

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

Jedrezej George Frynas

Index

More information

Index • 203

- downstream activities, 46
- drilling, 44
- dry finds, 41
- dry gas, 41–42
- dry holes, 44
- Dutch disease, 134, 136
- eco-efficiency, and sustainable development, 97–98
- EC-X formula, ARCO, 89
- EITI (Extractive Industry's Transparency Initiative), 61, 141–143
 - benefits to member countries, 149–151
 - limitations, 154–156, 181, See also transparency
- EITI++ (Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative Plus), 163
- emissions trading, BP internal system, 80–81, 91–92
- environmental impacts
 - exploration, 46
 - hydrocarbon products, 42
 - overview, 64–65
- environmental performance, 75–78
- environmental reporting, 68–74, 99–101
 - limitations of, 83–87
- Equator Principles, 56
- exploration, 42–46
- exploration drilling, 44
- Exxon
 - clashes with stakeholders, 24
 - climate change position, 28
 - climate change strategies, 28–29
 - EITI support, 142
 - environmental performance, 76
 - environmental reporting, 74
 - improvements in CSR, 8
 - Kyoto treaty, 27
 - mosquito nets in Equatorial Guinea, 121
 - Nigerian agricultural local community development project, 112
 - oil spills, 75–76
 - social development spending, 105
 - transparency, 25
- Exxon Valdez* (tanker), 24
- FDI (Foreign Direct Investment), replacing Official Development Assistance, 104–105
- financial institutions, as stakeholders, 53–56
- flowstations, 45
- Freedom House, 149
- Friends of the Earth, 60
- Future Generations Fund, 152
- futures market, 47
- gas flaring, 75, 94–96
- gasoline, 41
- Gazprom, social development spending, 105–108
- Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 69, 71, 167–168
- Global Witness, 60, 141
- Gouldson, Andy, 84
- governance
 - BP's transparency initiative, 138
 - challenge of, 134–138
 - definitions, 136
 - overview, 162–164
 - resource curse and, 136
 - undermining through corporate activity, 157–162
- government deficits, and transparency, 147
- government oil sales, 47–48
- governments
 - as stakeholders, 50–53
 - importance of, 169–171
 - regulation by, 87–96
 - shifting development responsibility to private sector, 104
- greenhouse gas emissions, 71–74, 75, 181, See also gas flaring
- greenhouse gas emissions reduction, BP, 80–82
- Greenpeace, 60, 181, See also Brent Spar
- GRI (Global Reporting Initiative), 69, 71, 167–168

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

JedrzeJ George Frynas

Index

More information

204 • Index

- Halliburton, 57
 Hayward, Tony, 98–99
 health initiatives, 109
 health services, transparency, 146
 hydrocarbons, 40–42
- I. G. Farben, 3
 ICMM (International Council on Mining and Metals), 171, 172
 IITA (International Institute of Tropical Agriculture), 112 income-generating projects, support for, 109–110
 Indian Oil
 embracing CSR, 7, 8
 government ownership, 30
 government pressure, 31–32
 international expansion, 33
 indirect carbon emissions, 96
 innovation advantages of CSR, 79 institutional isomorphism, 16–17, 27 institutional pressures, CSR strategies and, 27–28, 32–34, 35 institutional theory, 13, 16–17
 International Convention on Marine Pollution, 93
 International Convention on the Establishment of an International Fund for Compensation for Oil Pollution Damage, 93 International Council on Mining and Metals (ICMM), 171, 172 international development and CSR, 102–103, 113–115
 definitions, 103
 focus areas, 108–110
 reporting on, 110–111
 social development spending by oil companies, 105–108 transfer of responsibility from government, 103–105 use of NGOs, 111–113, 181, See also Nuffield Foundation study International Institute of Tropical Agriculture (IITA), 112 International Petroleum Industry Environmental Conservation Association, 68 international treaties, 175
 ISO (International Organization for Standardization), 158
- Justi, Luis, 32
- Kautilya, 3
 Kazakhstan Revenue Watch, 60
 kerosene, 41
 Kolo Creek flowstation, 119
 Kuwait Petroleum
 code of conduct, 32
 control over major portion of world's oil, 8
 embracing CSR, 7
 government ownership, 30
 international expansion, 32–33
 leadership pressure, 32
 passive reactions vs entrepreneurial initiatives, 34
 social responsibility, 30–31
 unleaded petrol campaign, 34
 Kyoto treaty, differing reactions to, 27
- lobbying, 24
 local involvement, 124–126
 local sourcing, 109, 136
 local-level outcomes, 84–85
- Malaysia, CSR definition, 3, 4
 managerial skills, and CSR, 79–80
 mangrove swamps, 65
 Marcel, Valerie, 87
 market forecasts and, CSR strategies, 29
 marketing, 46–49
 Marvin, Michael, 28
 media freedom, and transparency, 147–148, 149
 Meyer, John, 16
 mimetic isomorphism, 16–17

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

Jedrezej George Frynas

Index

More information

Index • 205

- MOL Group
 CSR to manage external perceptions, 119
 environmental reporting, 74
- Moody-Stuart, Sir Mark, 23
- MOSOP (Movement for the Survival of the Ogoni People), 22–23, 60
- National Coast Anti-Pollution League, 60
- National Iranian Oil Company, 8
- natural gas, 41
- New Nigeria Foundation (NNF), 112
- NGOs (non-governmental organizations)
 as stakeholders, 59–62
 use for international development, 111–113
- Nigeria
 Chevron's community development projects, 123 effectiveness of Shell development projects, 121–122 Exxon agricultural local community development project, 112
 gas flaring, 95–96
 government pressure on oil companies to provide public goods, 52
 resource curse, 136
 Shell's PRAs (participatory rural appraisals), 129
- NNF (New Nigeria Foundation), 112
- non-associated gas, 41
- non-governmental organisations (NGOs)
 as stakeholders, 59–62
 use for international development, 111–113
- normative isomorphism, 16–17
- North, Douglass, 16
- Nuffield Foundation study
 business case for CSR, 121–122
 implementation problems, 122 country-specific/context-specific, 123–124 failure to involve the beneficiaries, 124–126 lack of human resources, 126–128 lack of integration into a larger plan, 129–130 social attitudes of oil company staff, 128–129
- motives/drivers for community development projects, 116 competitive advantage, 116–117 employee happiness, 120–121 external perceptions, 118–120 maintaining 'licence to operate', 117–118
 overview, 115, 131–133
- Obiang Nguema Mbasogo, Teodoro, 55, 153
- ODA (Official Development Assistance), being replaced by FDI, 104–105
- offshore oil production, 45–46
- Offshore Pollution Liability Agreement (OPOL), 67
- Ogoni, Shell's presence, 22–23
- Oil and Gas Industry Guidance on Voluntary Sustainability Reporting, 68–69, 71, 97
- oil products, 40–42
- oil spills, 75–76
 and government pressure, 92–93
 and government regulation, 93–94
- Okoroba, village hospital, 119
- OPOL (Offshore Pollution Liability Agreement), 67
- paraffin, 41
- PDVSA, 86
 government ownership, 30
 international credibility, 32
 international expansion, 33
 lack of stakeholder pressure, 32 learning sustainability from Shell, 33
 social development spending, 105–108
 social responsibility, 31
- Pemex
 EITI support, 142
 gas flaring, 75
 social development spending, 106

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

Jedrzej George Frynas

Index

More information

206 • Index

- Petrobras
 drilling in the Yasuni National Park, 101
 embracing CSR, 7, 8
 environmental reporting, 74
 government ownership, 30
 international expansion, 33–34
 oil spills, 76
 passive reactions rather than entrepreneurial initiatives, 34
 revenue transparency, 139
 social development spending, 105
 social responsibility, 31
- PetroChina, investing in repressive regimes, 8
- petroleum, 40
- Petronas
 environmental reporting, 74, 85
 paying undisclosed sums to Chad government, 152
- philanthropy, 4–6
- Porter, Michael, 90
- PR priorities, and development efforts, 119–120
- Prestige* oil spill, 94
- pricing of oil, 47
- ProNatura, 114
- public expectations, 1
- Raymond, Lee, 28
- recommendations for companies, 171–173
 for future CSR, 173–176
- resource curse, 134–161, 164
- Revenue Management Program (Chad),
 143, 144, 152–153
- revenue savings funds, Azerbaijan, 143
- revenue transparency
 as only governance issue addressed, 139 effectiveness of, 154–155
- Rice, David, 23
- ROSCs (Reports on the Observance of Standards and Codes), 156
- Ross, Michael, 159–160
- Royal Dutch Shell, 181. See Shell
- RSPB (Royal Society for the Protection of Birds), 60
- Ruggie, John, 170
- Russia, attitude to foreign oil companies, 167
- Saro-Wiwa, Ken, 22–23
- Sasol
 environmental reporting, 71, 74
 revenue transparency, 139
 social development spending,
 109–110
- Saudi Aramco control over major portion of world's oil, 8
 environmental reporting, 87
 social development spending,
 105–108
- Schlumberger, 57
- seismic surveys, 42–44
- shareholder concerns, 174–176
- Shell
 as a leader in corporate citizenship, 7–8
 climate change strategies, 28–29
 corruption in Nigerian subsidiary SPDC, 123, 161
 crises forcing CSR, 21–23
 CSR advertising claims, 119 effectiveness of Nigerian development projects, 121–122
 EITI support, 142
 indirect carbon emissions, 96–97
 Kyoto treaty, 27
 Okoroba village hospital
 replacement, 119
 PRAs (participatory rural appraisals) in Nigeria, 129
 social development spending, 105, 110, 111
 stakeholders, 49–50
 Sustainable Community Development
 (SCD) unit, 113
 sustainable development, 98–99
 three town halls in one village, 118, 125 use of CSR to maintain ‘licence to operate’, 118
 Shell International Renewables (SIR), 98

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86844-0 - Beyond Corporate Social Responsibility: Oil Multinationals and Social Challenges

Jedrzej George Frynas

Index

More information

Index • 207

- Shell Petroleum Development Company (SPDC), 118
- SIR (Shell International Renewables), 98
- site-level data, 84
- Social Bonus Fund, 116–117
- social responsibility
 - emerging–economy companies, 31
 - upstream oil activities and, 48–49
- Society's Changing Expectations
 - project, 23
- SOFAZ (State Oil Fund of the Azerbaijan Republic), 143, 154
- solar power
 - Exxon prior research in, 29, 181, See also BP Solar
- Sonatrach Petroleum Corporation
 - control over major portion of world's oil, 8
 - social development spending, 108
- sour gas, 41–42
- South Africa, CSR definition, 4
- SPDC (Shell Petroleum Development Company), 118
- spot market, 47
- stakeholder pressure, CSR strategies
 - and, 21–25, 30–32, 35
- stakeholder theory, 13, 15–16
- stakeholders, 15, 62–63
 - Shell, 49–50, 181, See also shareholder concerns
- steel tubes, vs chrome, 79
- Sullivan, Rory, 84
- sustainable development
 - and CSR, 99–101
 - and eco-efficiency, 97–98
 - inclusion in Shell Group's Statement of General Business Principles, 23
- sweet gas, 41–42
- Tangguh LNG project, BP, 112–113, 132
- tankers, oil spills, 76
- term contracts, 48
- Tillerson, Rex, 28
- Torrey Canyon* oil spill, 93
- Total
 - EITI support, 142
 - environmental reporting, 74
 - social development spending, 105
- TOVALOP (Tanker Owners' Voluntary Agreement concerning Liability for Oil Pollution), 67
- transparency
 - benefits, 145–147
 - BP's Angola initiative, 138–141
 - conditions of success, 147–151
 - in health services, 146
 - limitations, 149–153
- Transparency International, 161
- UN Global Compact, 167
- universal standards, limits of, 38–39
- upstream activities, 46
- USAID (U.S. Agency for International Development), 103–104
- Utting, Peter, 160
- van der Linde, Claas, 90
- van der Veer, Jeroen, 98
- Venezuela, attitude to foreign oil companies, 167
- voluntary initiatives, 67–68
- Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights, 61
- water injection, 44–45
- well blow-outs, 64
- wet gas, 41–42
- World Bank, 55–56
- Zoellick, Robert, 163