

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87567-7 - Styling Romanisation: Pottery and Society in Central Italy

Roman Ernst Roth

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	page xi
Preface and acknowledgements	xiii
List of abbreviations	xvi
Introduction	I
The value of ancient pottery	4
Pottery and the cultural history of Roman Italy	6
I. Romanisation	9
Roman Italy	10
The Romanisation of the western provinces	17
‘Cultural bricolage ’	21
The Romanisation of Volterra	27
The performance of social power	35
Romanisation and social representation: an outlook	38
2. Black-gloss wares and the Romanisation of Italy	40
Nino Lamboglia	41
Jean-Paul Morel	44
Problems associated with Morel’s approach	48
Conclusion	63
3. Style and society in central Italy during the Hellenistic period	65
Artefactual variability	66
Pottery production and consumption in Roman Italy	77
Methodology	95
Summary and conclusion: the social significance of stylistic change	100

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87567-7 - Styling Romanisation: Pottery and Society in Central Italy

Roman Ernst Roth

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

4. Volterra	103
Source criticism: problems and potential of the Vallebuona assemblage	104
The material	109
Variability in rim diameter size	121
Categories of production	132
Concluding discussion	139
5. Capena	152
The material	154
Variability in rim diameter size	161
Fabric C I: an example of material hybridity	168
Conclusion: Capenate black-gloss wares	171
6. Ceramics and the Romanisation of central Italy	176
Stadt and social interaction	176
Volterra	179
Capena	196
Conclusions: social representation and reality in central Italy during the second century BC	205
7. Conclusion	208
Bibliography	211
Index	234