

Contents

Foreword	page ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction: The Invisible Infrastructure of Innovation	1
PART I. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY DYNAMICS IN SOCIETY
1 Intellectual Property and the Innovation Cycle	11
Innovation and creative destruction	11
A brief history of innovation	12
The reasons for innovation	13
The innovation cycle	15
The three stages of the innovation cycle	17
The dark side of innovation	20
2 The Rise of the Intellectual Property System	22
Defining intellectual property	22
The rise of intellectual property	24
The origins of intellectual property	26
The Venetian innovation	29
Evolution of the modern intellectual property system	31
3 Keeping the System in Balance: Exclusion and Access	36
Intellectual property pro and con	36
Rationale for intellectual property	37
Criticism of intellectual property	40
The limits of the public domain	45
Mapping the accessible domain	48
Achieving balance	51
Tensions in the global IP system	53
From the past to the future	56
PART II. BASICS OF MANAGING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY IN ORGANIZATIONS
4 The Innovation Tree: Intellectual Property Rights and How They Grow	63

	The forest for the trees	63
	The innovation tree as metaphor for intellectual property	64
	The old and the new	64
	Differences from country to country	65
	A guide to types of intellectual property rights	66
	Interactions between different types of intellectual property	78
	An innovation forest	81
5	The ABCDs of Intellectual Property: Flow and Infringement of Rights	84
	What can flow?	85
	Infringement – the master model	92
	IP as a motor for the innovation cycle	94
6	The Role of Communities in Innovation	97
	Innovation made in communities	97
	Private communities	98
	Mixed communities	106
	Multinational research consortia	109
	Global initiatives	111
	Open innovation communities	112
7	The Innovation Chief	115
	Types of innovation chiefs	115
	The importance of leadership	116
	The innovation team	119
	Drucker's views on managing innovation	122
	Other views on corporate innovation management	124
	Intellectual asset management in corporations	126
	Managing innovation outside of businesses	127
PART III. STEPS TO STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY
A: Planning
8	Becoming Strategic	131
	Levels of IP management	131
	What is strategic management of intellectual property?	136
	Form a strategy	139
	Implement the plan	145
9	Strategy Tools: Policies and Practices for Managing Intellectual Property	147
	The six Ps: policies and practices	147
	Cost management issues	159
	Strategic reassessment	161
10	A Menu of Strategy Options	163
	General goals for IP management	163

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87780-0 - Driving Innovation: Intellectual Property Strategies for a Dynamic World

Michael A. Gollin

Table of Contents

More information

Contents	vii
Generalized IP strategies	164
Patent strategies	172
Trade secret strategies	178
Trademark strategies	179
Copyright strategies	181
B: Assessment
11 Evaluating Internal Resources and the External Environment	184
Internal evaluation	185
External evaluation: assessing the environment	198
12 Placing a Financial Value on Intellectual Property Assets	207
The importance of IP valuation	207
Threshold questions	210
Cost (sunk or replacement)	211
Income (net present value or discount cash value)	214
Market value (comparables)	217
Hybrid methods	218
C: Implementation
13 Accessing Innovations of Others	226
Implementation as part of planning	226
Simplify, simplify	227
When access is readily available	229
When access is not readily available	231
14 Acquiring and Policing Intellectual Property Rights	239
Protecting innovations from inside the organization	239
Innovation triage	240
Enforcement	253
15 Doing Innovation Deals	263
Basic principles of IP transactions	264
Acquiring IP ownership	265
Owning intellectual property rights	266
Types of transfer	268
Pivotal terms for IP transactions	278
Doing deals	284
PART IV. STRATEGIES ON A GLOBAL STAGE
16 Organization-Specific Strategies	289
Different growth stages	289
Different industries and sectors	291
Different technologies	301
17 A Comparison of National Intellectual Property Systems	308
Similarities and differences among nations	308
A brief tour of IP systems around the world	315

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87780-0 - Driving Innovation: Intellectual Property Strategies for a Dynamic World

Michael A. Gollin

Table of Contents

More information

viii

Contents

18	Global Challenges for Managing Intellectual Property	322
	Securitization of IP rights	322
	Branded and generic drug companies: competing at boundaries of time and geography	325
	Homeland security technology	331
	Cultivating our garden: promoting environmental technology with intellectual property	333
	Regulating biotechnology with intellectual property law	336
	Future IP scenarios	338
19	Intellectual Property, Innovation, and Freedom	342
	APPENDIX A. Excerpts from TRIPS Agreement	346
	APPENDIX B. Intellectual Property Non-Policy	361
	APPENDIX C. Intellectual Property Assessment Questionnaire	365
	APPENDIX D. Research Tools for Obtaining Intellectual Property Information	376
	Bibliography	379
	Index	390