

INDEX

- Acamapichtli (ruler 1372–1391), 177
 acculturation, of conquered peoples in Aztec Empire, 174. See also assimilation Acolhua, 38
 Acolman, 117
 Acosta, José de, 10
 Acosta-Saignes, Miguel, 134
 adhesives, and craft production, 94, 303n11
 afterlife, Aztec beliefs about death and, 208–10, 308n23 age: and duties of priests, 235; life cycle and dynamics of, 199–210. See also children; elderly agency theory, and interpretation of Aztec world, 30, 298n11 agriculture: deities and fertility of, 231; as fundamental economic activity in Basin of Mexico, 52–3; and introduction of domestic animals by Spanish, 288; and Late Postclassic population surge in Basin of Mexico, 42–3, 60, 75; technology of in Late Postclassic Mesoamerica, 74–83. See also chinampas; gardens; irrigation; land; maize
 Aguilar, Francisco de, 10, 59
 Ahuizotl (ruler 1486–1502), 77, 79, 130, 142–3, 148, 153, 156, 177, 184, 186, 301n36, 305n8, 306n23, 308n26
altepetl. See city-state
 Alva Ixtlilxochitl, Fernando de, 6, 13, 55, 60, 166, 171
 Alvarado Tezozomoc, Fernando, 10, 12
 amber, 122, 297n5
 Amecamecan (city-state), 138, 305n4
 Anderson, Arthur J. O., 109, 282, 302n5 animals: classification of by Aztecs, 84; introduction of domestic by Spanish, 288; and nonagricultural sources of food, 86. See also dogs
Antiquities of Mexico (Lord Kingsborough 1831–48), 9 aqueducts, and irrigation, 77, 78–9 archaeology: and sources of information on Aztec world, 15, 20–3; and evidence for marketplaces, 298n12, 304n27; and evidence for ritual behavior, 215–16; and human remains, 22–3; and material objects, 16–20; and political structure of Tlaxcallan, 278–9; and reconstruction of indigenous, pre-Spanish populations, 60–1 architecture, and archaeology as source of information on Aztec world, 15. See also aqueducts; housing and households; monuments; palaces; platforms art: and material objects as archaeological source of information on Aztec world, 16; multiple interpretations of, 216; and murals, 298n13; in service of religion and state, 252–8. See also sculpture artisans: calpolli and households of, 107, 109; intermediate position of in social structure, 185, 186, 188–9; and Motecuzhoma Xocoyotzin, 109, 183, 189, 310n27; resettlement of near palaces, 108. See also craft production; featherworking; spinning and weaving assimilation: and conquered peoples in Aztec Empire, 174; and Spanish colonial policies, 285, 289
 astrological handbook (tonalpohualli), 182–3, 199, 214. See also calendars astronomy, and solar calendar, 218
 Atamalqualiztli (ceremony), 238
 Atonco (city-state), 130
 Atotztl (possible ruler), 144
 Ávila López, Raúl, 80

- Axayacatl (ruler 1468–1481), 142, 145, 146, 148, 157, 158, 159, 166, 300n13, 305n8
- axes, of copper or bronze, 124, 127, 302n42
- Ayala, Don Gabriel de, 55
- Ayerza, Jr., Ricardo, 71
- Azcapotzalco (city-state), 41, 107, 117, 139, 305n5
- Aztec(s): agricultural techniques and technology of, 74–83; archaeological record as source of information on, 15–23; and arts in service of religion and state, 252–8; calendars and ceremonial life of, 216–19; city-state in life of, 135–8; commercial exchange and trade by, 113–29; and cosmology, 219–29; and craft production, 90–113; and cultural responses to Spanish pressure, 277–93; and demography at time of Spanish contact, 57–62; and diet, 70–2; and environment of Basin of Mexico, 49–56; ethnography as source of information on, 23; family and daily life of, 191–214; historical documents in Nahuatl as sources of information on, 11–15; historical documents in Spanish as sources of information on, 9–11, 12–15; and houses of commoners and elites, 63–70; hybrid nature of culture, 37–42; and medicine, 246–51; pictorial codices as sources of information on, 5–9; precedents for in Mesoamerica, 33–6, 299n1; regional merchants and trade by, 129–32; religion and gods of, 229–73; religious rituals and ceremonies of, 236–46; response of to challenges of Mesoamerican setting, 42–4; social life of, 177–91; spinning and weaving as domestic activities of, 72–4; theoretical approaches to interpretations of world of, 25–30, 259, 268–77; use of term, xvii, 26; warfare and warrior regalia as form of wealth, 260–8. See also Aztec Empire
- Aztec Empire: and conquest states, 138; economic relations with groups beyond political borders of, 56; geographic extent of, 28; impact of on conquered peoples, 30; perspective of conquered peoples on, 173–5; political dynamics of, 155–8; trade and expansion of, 133–4; tribute and financing of, 162–73; use of term, xvii, 26; and wars, 158–61. See also Aztec(s); Triple Alliance
- backstrap looms, 22, 23, 24–5, 298n20, 301n28, 302n5. See also spinning and weaving
- ballcourts, 299n7
- Bandelier, Adolf, 26
- Barber, Russell J., 20
- bargaining and barter, in marketplaces, 123–8, 304n35
- bark beaters, 23
- Barlow, Robert, 28
- Basin of Mexico: and confederations of city-states, 138; environment of, 50, 52, 53; epidemic diseases and loss of population in, 59, 247, 281–2, 311n16, 311n20–1; market integration in, 118, 120; number of city-states in, 136; and population estimates for 1519, 58; urban specialized marketplaces in, 117–18
- Basin of Mexico survey project, 27
- beads, stone and shell, 124, 127
- beans, and Aztec diet, 70
- Benavente, Toribio de. See Motolinía
- Berdan, Frances F., 20, 21, 29, 33, 44, 45, 111, 179, 181, 184, 198, 203, 211, 218, 233, 243, 271, 276, 281, 288, 297n1, 308n18, 309n9, 310n6
- biases, in documentary record, 13
- birds. See featherworking; water
- Blanton, Richard, 27, 120, 303n15
- Bodleian Library (Oxford), 9
- books, and arts in service of religion and state, 252–5. See also pictorial codices; writing
- Boone, Elizabeth Hill, 174, 252, 310n24
- Broda, Johanna, 309n11
- Brumfiel, Elizabeth M., 99, 103, 206, 299n1, 303n13, 303n22
- Burkhart, Louise, 207, 290
- burials, and funeral rituals, 210, 308n27. See also human remains
- Bye, Robert, 251
- cacao beans: cheating and fraud in marketplace, 211–12; as means of exchange, 124, 125–7, 128; as tribute, 164–5, 169
- calendar(s): and Aztec ceremonial life, 216–19, 226–8, 239, 308n1; and continuation of rituals under Spanish rule, 291; and gods, 230
- Calendar Stone, survival of, 16–17
- Calixtlahuaca, 68
- calmil* (house garden), 81
- Calnek, Edward E., 80–1, 179, 300n14
- calpolli* (neighborhoods): and households of artisans, 107, 109; kinship as organizing principle for, 182; and structure of city-state, 136
- Camaxtli (god), 184, 233–4, 309n6. See also Mixcoatl
- canals, and irrigation, 76, 77

Index

337

- cannibalism, and human sacrifice, 239–43, 309n17
 canoes, and transport, 114
 Carmack, Robert M., 270
 Carrasco, David, 229, 309n11–12
 Carrasco, Pedro, 137, 140, 182, 195
 Casas, Bartolomé de las, 298n14
 caste, and Aztec social structure, 177, 189
 causality, and interpretation of Aztec world, 29–30
 caves, and Aztec worldview, 84, 309n8 Cempoallan (province), 173, 175, 278, 280
 censers, and incense, 236, 244
 Centeotl (god), 233
 central Mexico: environment of plateaus, 53, 55, 57; provincial and extra-empire marketplaces in, 120–2; and Triple Alliance, 140 ceremonies: and calendars, 216–19; and children, 308n17; and gods, 236–46; roles of commoners in, 184; and syncretism of Aztec and Spanish religions, 290. See also New Fire ceremony; rituals Chalchiutlicue (goddess), 85, 136, 221, 224, 232
 Chalco (province), 60, 138, 140, 170, 302n39, 305n4
 Chalco, Lake, 50, 80, 87
 Chance, John K., 30, 307n40
 Chantico (goddess), 263, 310n4
 Chapman, Anne, 134, 276
 Chapultepec aqueduct (Tenochtitlan), 78–9
 Charles I (King of Spain), 8
 Charlton, Thomas H., 111
 Chase, Arlen F., 306n20
 Chávez Balderas, Ximena, 210, 308n28
 Chevalier, Jacques S., 309n21
 Chichimec: and Aztec as hybrid culture, 37–42; and Aztec religious life, 223–4; and subjective nature of ethnicity in Aztec culture, 45
 Chicomexochitl (god), 291, 292–3
 Chiconautla (city-state), 68, 69, 72 children: birth and naming of, 199–200; and ceremonies, 308n17; diet of, 71; and education, 200–5, 211, 307–8n13–16; evidence for health from skeletal and dental remains in archaeological record, 250 chiles, and Aztec diet, 70
 Chimalpahin (author), 6, 11, 13, 55, 144
 Chimalpopoca (ruler 1415–1426), 145
chinampas, 41, 43, 52, 79–81
 Cholula (city-state), 106, 131, 234, 271, 276, 299n8
 Cihuacoatl (goddess), 208
 Cihuateopan (city-state), 63, 68, 69, 72, 82, 110, 111, 301n30 city-state (altepetl): arts in service of religion and, 252–8; confederations of, 138; and control of land, 147; and craft production, 106–7; and ethnicity in Mesoamerica, 44; and political strategies of empire, 170–1; role of in Aztec life, 135–8; and Spanish imperial administration, 280, 282; and Triple Alliance, 139–41. See also political organization class: and distinction between nobles and commoners, 177; and structure of Aztec society, 185, 189. See also commoners; elites Classical Nahuatl, xix
 Clavijero, Francisco J., 125
 Clendinnen, Inga, 201
 climate, and agriculture in Basin of Mexico, 75. See also natural disasters clothing: and cloaks as means of exchange, 124, 127; and cloth production during Spanish colonial period, 286–7; and costumes of gods, 237; and craft specialization, 106; and distinction between nobles and commoners, 72–4, 178, 301n27; and trade in cotton, 304n25; as tribute, 270, 306n30–1. See also spinning and weaving
 Coatepec (mountain), 222–3
 Coates, Wayne, 71
 Coatlan (city-state), 174, 184, 271
 Coatlicue (goddess), 222
 Coayxtlahuacan (city-state), 122
 cochineal dye, 285
Codex Azcatitlan, 254
Codex Chimalpopoca, 11, 55
Codex en Cruz, 55, 255
Codex Magliabechiano, 310
Codex Mendoza: and Aztec writing, 254; on conquests of Axayacatl, 157; on diet of children, 71; on education of children, 203, 303n10, 307n15; and provinces, 171; on rewards for warriors, 262; on ritual calendar, 308n1; structure of, 297n3; survival of, 8–9; on tribute, 165, 166, 306n30; on weaving, 25
Codex Telleriano-Remensis, 55, 241, 255, 310n9
Códice Aubin, 55
Códice de Huichapan, 55
Códice de Xicotepetl, 13
 codices. See pictorial codices; writing Colhuacan (city-state), 38, 41 colonial period: and administrative records as sources of information on Aztec world, 12; Aztec cultural responses to pressures of Spanish rule, 277–93; and estimates of

- colonial period: and administrative records as sources of information on Aztec world population, 59; and pictorial codices, 6–7. See also New Spain; Spain
- commoners: clothing of, 72–4, 178, 301n27; depictions of in codices, 307n1; and housing, 63–7; and punishments for crime, 212–13; and social life, 180–4; and Spanish colonial administration, 284–6
- complexity, and interpretations of Aztec world, 25–6, 30, 259
- concentration, of craft production, 104–8
- confederations, of city-states, 138.
See also Chalco
- congregación*, Spanish policy of, 281
- conjurers, and magic, 245–6
- consonants, and Nahuatl pronunciation guide, xx
- context, and organization of craft production, 108–13
- cooking methods, and preparation of food, 71
- copper bells, 124, 127, 299n6
- core, and world systems theory, 269–71
- Cortés, Hernán: on Chapultepec aqueduct, 79; on craft production, 94; and description of Lake Texcoco, 77; and estimates of population, 59; letters of as source of information on Aztec world, 9–10; on marketplaces and trade, 115–16, 126, 304n34; on material objects, 16, 20; and military campaign against Aztec Empire, 279–80, 310n1
- cosmology, dynamics and structure of Aztec, 219–29
- Costin, Cathy Lynne, 90
- cotton: and armor, 306n25–6; and clothing of elites, 72, 74; and craft production, 99, 104, 106, 111–12; markets and trade in, 303–4n24–5. See also clothing; spinning and weaving
- courtyards: and housing of commoners, 63; and housing of elites, 67
- Coyoacan (city-state), 95, 107, 118, 130, 173, 181
- Coyolxauhqui (goddess), 38, 39, 222, 223
- craft production: concentration of, 104–8; diversity of, 90–7; organization and context of, 108–13; strategies and decisions in, 98–9. See also featherworking; luxury goods; pottery; spinning and weaving
- crime: and enslavement, 190; punishments for, 211–14
Crónica mexicayotl (Alvarado Tezozomoc), 12
- Cuauhnahuac (province), 172
- Cuauhtemoc (ruler 1520–1525), 145
- Cuauhtencoztli (poet), 256
- Cuauhtitlan (city-state), 76–7, 107, 118, 137, 310n6
- Cuetlaxtlan (province), 174–5, 271, 311n21
- Cuitlahuac (ruler 1520), 145
- Culhuacan (city-state), 79
- cultural ecological model, 29
- culture: and Aztec responses to Spanish pressure in colonial period, 277–93; and definition of Mesoamerica as culture area, 31–2; ethnicity and diversity of in Mesoamerica, 44–6; hybrid nature of Aztec, 37–42
- dancing, and religious ceremonies, 255, 256
- death: and Aztec beliefs about life and afterlife, 208–10, 308n23; 308n28; and death penalty as punishment for crime, 212–13; and duality principle, 220, 222; human sacrifice and cycle between life and, 242. See also sacrifice
- demography: epidemic diseases and loss of population in Basin of Mexico, 59, 247, 281–2, 311n16, 311n20–1; and estimates of Aztec population at time of Spanish contact, 57–62, 300n7; impact of human sacrifice on, 243; and Late Postclassic population surge in Basin of Mexico, 42–3, 60, 75, 300n12. See also migrations
- Díaz del Castillo, Bernal, 9–10, 59, 108, 300n8, 302n41–2, 304n34, 305n10
- Diel, Lori Boornazian, 140, 154, 174
- diet: of commoners and elites, 70–1; and fasting, 309n14; and health, 250; and theories about ritual cannibalism, 242–3. See also agriculture; feasting; food
- digging sticks (uitzoctli), 82–3
- diplomacy, and exercise of power by rulers, 154–5
- diversity: of craft production, 90–7; as theme in interpretation of Aztec world, 26–8, 30
- divination, and magic, 219, 245–6
- dogs, 117, 308n25
- Doolittle, William E., 76, 79
- drainage ditches, and irrigation, 77, 79
- dualism: and impact of Spanish on Aztec religion, 289–90; principle of in Aztec cosmology, 220, 222
- Durán, Fray Diego: on clothing of priests, 237; on construction of aqueducts, 77; on cosmology, 225; on craft production, 94–5; on funerals, 308n26; and historical documents as sources of information on Aztec world, 10; on human sacrifice, 241;

- on marketplaces, 117, 121, 123; on military and warfare, 161, 184, 262, 263, 264–5, 266, 267, 278, 305n13, 306n25; on naming of children, 200; on natural disasters in Basin of Mexico, 55; on nature in Aztec worldview, 85; on nobles, 177; on oral expression, 256; and pictorial codices, 5–6; on provinces, 171; on rulers, 149, 150, 153, 264; on Spanish conquest of Tenochtitlan, 277; on tribute, 156, 165
- Dürer, Albrecht, 16
- dynamics: of age in life cycle, 199–210; building of empire and political, 155–75; marriage rules and household, 194–8; as theme in interpretation of Aztec world, 29–30, 259
- eclipses, 218
- economics: and poverty in Aztec world, 190; tribute and finance of Aztec Empire, 162–73; and warrior regalia as form of wealth, 260–8. See also markets; trade and trade networks
- Edelmira, Linares, 251
- education: of children, 200–5, 303n10, 307–8n13–16; of priests, 234
- ego-centered, Aztec kinship relations as, 191–2
- Ehecatl (god), 221, 234. See also Quetzalcoatl
- elderly, defined roles of in Aztec society, 207–8
- elites: and clothing, 72–4, 178, 301n27; and control of books, 253; depictions of in codices, 307n1; display and use of precious materials by, 91, 272; and houses in Basin of Mexico, 67–70; and inheritance of titles, 194; marriage and polygyny, 195; and political strategies of Aztec Empire, 171; and punishments for crime, 212–13; roles of in Spanish colonial period, 282–4; and social life, 177–80
- encomienda*, altepetl as basis for, 281, 282
- environment: and features of Aztec world, 49–56; and natural world in Aztec worldview, 84–5, 230, 247; and tribute assessments, 163–4
- epidemic diseases, impact of on population of Basin of Mexico, 59, 247, 281–2, 311n16, 311n20–1
- ethnicity: and altepetls under Spanish rule, 280–1; and biases in documentary record, 13; and craft specialization, 106; cultural and linguistic diversity in Mesoamerica, 44–6; and provinces, 173
- ethnography, as source of information on Aztec world, 23
- ethnohistory and ethnohistoric research: and diversity of craft production, 91, 94; and domestic rituals, 244; and estimates for population of Basin of Mexico, 58; and health, 250; and political structure of Tlaxcallan, 278–9; and regional variation as theme in Aztec studies, 27–8; and sources of information on Aztec world, 14–15; sources of on Mesoamerica, 297n1. See also history
- Evans, Susan, 69, 82, 300n11
- exotic goods, and world systems theory in Aztec context, 273–5. See also luxury goods
- Fabiola Guzmán, Ana, 302n48
- fallowing, and agricultural techniques, 82, 302n40
- family: and inheritance, 193–4; and kinship rules, 191–3; marriage rules and household dynamics, 194–8. See also children
- Fargher, Lane F., 138, 278, 279
- feasting: and exercise of power by rulers, 152, 153, 171; and potlatches of Northwest coast Native Americans, 309n18; and social position of merchants, 187, 188
- featherworking, 21, 100–2, 188–9, 307n14
- Feinman, Gary M., 90
- fertility: religion and deities of, 231, 232–3; and warfare in Aztec worldview, 225
- fertilizers, and agricultural techniques, 82
- fish, as source of food, 86
- Florentine Codex*, 7, 13, 254, 297n6. See also Sahagún, Bernardino de
- flowery wars, 158, 278
- food: and military supplies, 160–1; nonagricultural sources of, 83–8. See also agriculture; diet; feasting
- France (French), and Codex Mendoza, 9
- Frank, Andre G., 268
- “frontier strategy,” of Aztec Empire, 171
- funeral rituals, 209–10, 308n26
- Galaty, Michael L., 271
- gambling, 190
- gardens, and households, 81–2
- Garraty, Christopher P., 62, 114, 121, 128
- Gasco, Janine, 169, 276
- Gelb, I. J., 26
- gender: and differences in kin terminologies, 193; and education of children, 202–3, 303n10, 307n14; and naming of children, 199; and roles in adulthood, 205–8. See also women
- genealogy, of royal family of Tenochtitlan, 145

- geography, and ecological zones in Aztec world, 51–2
- Gibson, Charles, 26, 58, 107, 137, 282
- gift giving, by rulers, 153–4, 171, 264–5, 310n6
- glottal stop, in Nahuatl, xx
- greenstone, 122
- guayaba (Psidium guajava), 251
- guilds: and craft production, 109; and professional merchants, 187
- Guzmán, Don Juan de, 108–9
- Hakluyt, Richard, 9
- Handbook of Middle American Indians* (1973–1975), 297n1
- Harner, Michael, 241, 242, 243
- Harris, Marvin, 242
- Harvey, H. R., 28
- Haskett, Robert, 283
- Hassig, Ross, 114
- hearths: and housing of commoners, 65; and religious importance of fire, 231
- Heath-Smith, Cynthia, 169, 300n12
- Hernández, Francisco, 10, 85, 86, 248, 302n46
- heterogeneity, acquisition of food or necessities and theme of, 62
- Hicks, Frederic, 62, 189, 304n26
- Hirth, Kenneth G., 104, 108, 301n38, 303n14, 304n27
- historical documents: and depictions of elites and commoners, 307n11; in Nahuatl as sources of information on Aztec world, 11–15; and natural disasters in Basin of Mexico, 54; in Spanish as sources of information on Aztec world, 9–11, 12–15
- history: of Aztec migrations prior to founding of Tenochtitlan, 38–9; ethnicity in Mesoamerica and shared, 44–5; and events leading to Aztec imperial dominance, 40–1; of militarism in Mesoamerica, 156; and religious life of Aztecs, 223–5. See also ethnohistory and ethnohistoric research; historical documents
- Hodge, Mary G., 137, 303n15, 304–5n1, 305n6
- hoes (uicli), 82–3
- Hohokam (Arizona), 299n7
- housing and households: of commoners, 63–7; and craft production, 98–9, 102; and distinctions between nobles and commoners, 178, 183; and domestic rituals or offerings, 243–4, 311n32; of elites, 67–70; and gardens, 81–2; Nahuatl terms for, 300n16; size of in early colonial period, 300n11. See also palaces
- Huaxacac (city-state), 173
- Huaxtepec (province), 172
- Huexotla (city-state), 61, 95, 98, 103, 121, 131
- Huexotzinco (city-state), 96, 154–5, 175, 271
- Huitzilihuitl (ruler 1391–1415), 145
- Huitzilopochtli (god), 38, 40, 222, 223, 224, 233, 234, 237
- human remains, and archaeological record as source of information on Aztec world, 22–3, 250. See also burials; death; sacrifice
- Icpatepeque (city-state), 122
- ideographs, and Aztec writing, 253
- inheritance: and kinship rules, 193–4; of warrior regalia, 266
- insects, as source of food, 86–7
- intensity, of craft production, 99–104
- interactions, and interpretation of Aztec world, 28–9, 30
- intermittent crafting, concept of, 104
- irrigation, and Aztec agriculture, 76–9, 301n34–7. See also aqueducts; chinampas
- Itzcoatl (ruler 1426–1440), 140–1, 145, 177, 253, 305n8, 307n10
- Itzacan (city-state), 117
- Ixtapalapan (city-state), 77
- Ixtapaluca Viejo (city-state), 63
- Ixtepechi (city-state), 271
- Johnson, Matthew, 15
- jugglers, and magic, 245–6
- Karttunen, Frances, 311n28
- Kellogg, Susan, 11, 193, 206
- Kepecs, Susan, 268
- kinship: family formation and rules of, 191–3; as organizing principle for calpollis, 182; and postmarital residence, 196, 197
- Kirchhoff, Paul, 31, 32
- Klein, Cecelia F., 232, 237
- Klor de Alva, J. Jorge, 312n33
- Kohl, Philip, 268
- labor: male–female division of, 206; as marketable commodity, 113; rulers and control of, 147–8, 150, 300n13; and tribute in form of service, 168
- Laboratory for Ancient Materials Analysis (California State University, San Bernardino), 94
- lakes: and chinampas in Basin of Mexico, 8, 80, 301–2n3; and environment of Basin of Mexico, 50, 52. See also Chalco; Texcoco; Zumpango
- land: and cacao production, 169; control of by rulers, 147–8, 150; and distinctions

- between nobles and commoners, 183;
 exclusion of from commercial exchange, 113, 304n26; and inheritance, 193; warfare and allocation of, 305n13
- landscapes, and environmental zones of Aztec world, 49
- language: ethnicity and diversity of in Mesoamerica, 44–6; and ethnographic
 sources of information on Aztec world,
 23. See also Nahuatl
- Late Postclassic: and population surge in Basin of Mexico, 42–3; use of term, xviii
- LeClair, Edward E., 125
- Legend of the Suns, 215
- Lekson, Stephen H., 299n6
- León-Portilla, Miguel, 12, 256
- Lewis, Oscar, 301n25
- life: and beliefs about death and afterlife, 208–10; and duality principle, 220, 222;
 human sacrifice and cycle between death
 and, 242
- life cycle, and dynamics of age, 199–210
- living standards, and distinction between nobles and commoners, 183
- local variation, as theme in Aztec studies, 27
- Lockhart, James, xix, 147, 180, 186, 193, 282, 283, 285, 290, 302n3
- López Austin, Alfredo, 208, 209, 210, 229, 237, 299n9, 303n16, 308n22, 309n12
- López Luján, Leonardo, 18, 205, 210, 299n9, 306n21
- luxury goods: control of as symbols by elites and rulers, 150–1, 306–7n36; and craft production, 92–4, 110; trade and imperial expansion, 133; and world systems theory, 271–2. See also amber; artisans;
 featherworking; greenstone; obsidian;
 pottery; turquoise
- macroregional approach, to Mesoamerica as culture area, 32
- Macuilxochitl (god), 212, 233
- Madsen, William, 290
- magic, and divination, 245–6
- maguery, 112; and Aztec diet, 70, 72; and clothing of Aztec commoners, 72, 74; and craft production, 104, 110–11, 301n32; as medicinal plant, 251
- maize: as basis of Aztec diet, 70–1; and gods, 233; preparation of, 301n25
- Malinalxochitl (goddess), 38
- manos*, 22, 298n20
- Manzanilla, Linda, 34
- markets and marketplaces: and archaeological record, 298n12, 304n27;
 cheating and fraud in, 211–12; and craft
 production in Basin of Mexico, 91, 94–5, 108, 303n19; and slavery, 191, 304n30;
 and solar calendar, 216; and trade in Aztec world, 114–28, 272–7, 304n33.
See also merchants; Tlatelolco; trade and trade networks
- marriage: and Aztec establishment of political legitimacy in Basin of Mexico, 41; and elite practice of polygyny, 179,
 184, 186; and exercise of power by rulers, 154; and family life, 194–8; and political strategies of Aztec Empire, 171; and weddings, 205
- material objects: and archaeology as source of information on Aztec world, 16–17, 20; introduction of by Spanish, 286–8;
 and manufactured objects as tribute, 164.
See also luxury goods; tools
- Matos Moctezuma, Eduardo, 18, 300n7, 306n21
- Matrícula de Tributos*, 5, 156, 165, 166, 171, 254, 297n2–3, 297n5, 306n30
- Maya: merchants and trade with Aztec
 Empire, 131, 275; relations of with Aztec Empire, 56
- Mayahuel (goddess), 233
- McAnany, Patricia, 243
- medicine, as empirical and applied science in Aztec world, 246–51. See also epidemic diseases; midwives; plants
- Megged, Amos, 285
- Mendieta, Jerónimo de, 10
- Mendoza, Antonio, 9
- merchants (pochteca): and Aztec imperial expansion, 133–4, 159; and integration of economy, 276; intermediate position of in social structure, 185, 186–7, 188; and prestige goods, 272; and regional trade, 129–32, 304n38; and warrior regalia, 263;
See also trade and trade networks
- Mesoamerica: and calendars, 216; and conquest states before Aztec Empire, 155; cores and peripheries of, 269; as a culture area, 31–3; ethnicity and cultural or linguistic diversity in, 44–6; history of militarism in, 156; and human sacrifice, 240, 309n17; merging of Chichimecs and Toltecs with Mexica, 37–42; and precedents for Aztecs, 33–6; responses of Aztecs to challenges of Late Postclassic period in, 42–4; sources of ethnohistory on, 297n1; use of term, xvii–xviii; world systems theory and integration of,
 275; and worship of Quetzalcoatl, 234.
See also Basin of Mexico; central Mexico;
 Pacific coastal regions

- metates*, 23, 298n14
 Mexica, use of term, xvii
 Mexicaltzinco (city-state), 63
 Mexico City. See Tenochtitlan
 microenvironments, in Basin of Mexico, 52–3
 Mictecacihuatl (goddess), 208, 220
 Mictlan (underworld), 209
 Mictlantecuhtli (god), 208, 220, 234
 midwives, 199, 225, 251
 migrations: of conquered peoples from Aztec Empire, 175; and growth of population in Late Postclassic Basin of Mexico, 60; and historical sources on early history of Mexica, 38–9
 Mihuatlan (client state), 130
 Millon, René, 124
 Minc, Leah D., 118, 120
 Mintz, Sidney W., 70
 Misantla (city-state), 111
 Mixcoatl (god), 224, 233–4, 309n7.
   See also Camaxtli
 Mixtecs, and craft production, 106
 mnemonic devices, and written images, 255
 Molina, Alonso de, 141
 money, and marketplaces, 123–8.
   See also bargaining and barter; cacao beans
 monuments, and sculpture, 257–8
 Monzón, Arturo, 303n16
 Moquihuix (ruler of Tlatelolco 1467–1473), 158–9, 254–5
 Morelos (modern state): and craft production, 96, 98; and difference between noble and commoner houses, 183; and domestic rituals, 244; environment of, 55; excavations of commoner houses in, 63–4; status of as province, 171–2
 Morgan, Lewis Henry, 25–6
 Motolinía, 6, 10, 123, 125
 Motecuhzoma Ilhuicamina (ruler 1440–1468), 60, 141, 145, 166, 177, 178
 Motecuhzoma Xocoyotzin (ruler 1502–1520): and artisans, 109, 183, 189, 310n27; and control of labor, 149–50; and differences of Aztecs from predecessors, 43–4; and distinction between nobles and commoners, 177; and exercise of power, 154–5, 306n23; genealogy of, 145; personality of, 142, 143; and religious offerings, 238; and ritual calendar, 308n1; and soothsayers, 219; tribute and coronation of, 165; variants in spelling of, xx; and warfare, 305n8, 310n6 mountains, and Aztec worldview, 84
 multicrafting, concept of, 104
 multicropping, and agricultural techniques, 82
 Muñoz Camargo, Diego, 11
 Museo Nacional de Antropología (Mexico City), 18, 19 museum collections, ritual objects in, 216 musical instruments, 239. See also dancing; songs
nahualli (animal spirit companions), 25
 Nahuatl: contemporary speakers of, 23; emulation, appropriation, and assimilation in Aztec Empire, 174; guide to pronunciation of, xix–xx; and historical documents as sources of information on Aztec world, 11–12; and kin terms, 192; and resilience of Aztec/Nahua cultural traditions, 292; and terms for housing, 300n16; and use of term “Nahua” after Spanish conquest, 281 names and naming: of children, 199–200; combination of Nahua and Spanish in colonial period, 283; of women, 307n12
 Nanahuatzin (god), 221
 Nappa Tecuhtli (god), 184 natural disasters: and drought in central Mexico in mid-1400s, 190; and environment of Basin of Mexico, 52–3, 54–5 natural resources, in Aztec world, 53, 56.
   See also raw materials nature and natural world, in Aztec worldview, 84–5, 230, 247
 Navarrete, Federico, 255
 Neale, Walter C., 124
 New Fire ceremony, 231, 238, 308n1
 New Spain, estimates for population of, 57.
   See also colonial period
 Nezahualcoyotl (ruler of Texcoco 1418–1472), 140–1, 166, 180
 Nezahualpilli (ruler of Texcoco 1472–1515), 68, 179–80, 194, 195, 196, 218, 300n19
 Nichols, Deborah L., 27, 300n7
 Nicholson, H. B., xvii, 9, 216
 nobles. See elites
 obsidian, 103, 104, 277, 303n18
 ocean, and Aztec worldview, 84
 Offner, Jerome A., 186
 Olivier, Guilhem, 237
 Olko, Justyna, 263, 310n2, 310n5
 Olmos, Andrés de, 10, 298n8
 Ometeotl (god), 220, 230
 Opochtli (god), 184
 oral traditions: and arts in service of religion and state, 255–7; as sources of information

- on Aztec world, 12. See also history;
  - poetry; songs
- organization, and context of craft
  - production, 108–13
- Otis Charlton, Cynthia, 302n7
- Otomí (ethnic group), 13, 106, 200
- Otompan (city-state), 72, 95, 96, 98, 104, 109, 110, 111, 117, 120, 311n20
- Oviedo de Valdés, Gonzalo Fernández de, 298n14
- oztomeca*. See merchants; spies
- Pacific coastal regions, and Aztec Empire, 156
- palaces: and housing of elites in Basin of Mexico, 67–70; and land endowments, 148; resettlement of artisans near, 108; and ruler of Texcoco, 300n19; and social status of rulers, 151
- Papantla (town), 166, 172
- parallelism, and concept of gender in Aztec world, 206–7
- Parsons, Jeffrey R., 52, 80, 83, 86, 103, 111
- Parsons, Mary H., 111
- patronage, and organization of craft
  - production, 108–9
- Peacock, D. P. S., 98
- Peregrine, Peter, 299n6
- peripheries, and world systems theory, 269–71
- perishability, of material objects in archaeological record, 21
- personalities, of rulers, 142–3
- philosophy, and oral expression, 255–7
- phoneticism, and Aztec writing, 253
- pictorial codices: and Aztec writing, 253, 309–10n24; and backstrap loom, 24; as sources of information on Aztec world, 5–9, 13
- plants: classification of by Aztecs, 84; medicinal uses of, 251, 302n45, 309n22; and nonagricultural sources of food, 86. See also cotton; maguey; maize
- platforms, and elite houses or palaces, 68
- plays, with Christian themes, 290–1
- pochteca*. See merchants
- poetry: and oral traditions, 256; as sources of information on Aztec world, 12
- Polaco, Oscar J., 302n48
- political economy, and approaches to interpretation of Aztec world, 29–30
- political organization: and challenges in Basin of Mexico in Late Postclassic period, 43–4; and dynamics of empire building, 155–75; and human sacrifice, 241–2; legitimacy of Mexica and ceremonial use or display of legendary and foreign elements, 36; role of merchants in imperial expansion, 133; roles of rulers and emperors, 141–55; and sculptural themes, 257–8; structure of in Tlaxcallan, 278–9; and Triple Alliance, 139–41; use and display of precious materials by state, 91. See also city-state; rulers and rulerships
- Pomar, Juan Bautista, 11
- pottery: and craft specialization, 106; and exotic goods, 273–5; and market integration in Basin of Mexico, 118, 120; production of polychrome in Texcoco, 103
- poverty, in Aztec world, 190
- power: establishment and maintenance of by rulers, 146–7; exercise of by rulers, 152–5; and social status, 183–4
- Prem, Hanns J., 255
- prestige goods, and luxuries in Aztec world, 272
- prevention, and medicine, 250
- priests and priestesses: clothing and costumes of, 237; and gods, 234–6; social status of, 179; use and display of precious materials, 91
- Primeros Memoriales*, 7
- “private” and “public” spheres, and gender, 205–6
- processions, religious, 290
- production, craft specialization and process of, 110–13
- provinces, of Aztec Empire, 171–3
- Puebla, Valley of, 55
- Purchas, Samuel, 9
- Quatlatlauchan (city-state), 173
- Quetzalcoatl (god), 85, 177, 208, 219, 220, 222, 223, 224, 225, 234, 263, 308n3
- Quetzaltepec (city-state), 159
- rain. See climate; Tlaloc
- raw materials, and tribute assessments, 164; See also natural resources
- rebellion, by conquered peoples in Aztec Empire, 159, 174, 271
- reciprocity, and domestic rituals, 244
- regional variation, as theme in Aztec studies, 27
- Relaciones geográficas* (1578–1585), 10, 59
- religion: and arts, 252–8; and crime, 212; and education of children, 203; and gods, 220, 221, 229–36, 309n12; and history of Aztecs, 223–5; impact of Spanish colonialism on, 288–92, 311–12n29–36; rulers and control of sacred world,

- religion: and arts (cont.)
 151–2; scheduling and use of tribute, 165.
See also priests and priestesses; rituals;
 sacrifice; shamans; temples
- resistance, of conquered peoples in Aztec Empire, 174–5. See also rebellion
- Ricard, Robert, 311–12n33
- rituals: continuation of in local contexts under Spanish rule, 291–2, 311n32; and gods, 236–46; and funerals, 209–10, 308n26; and household, 243–4; and solar calendar, 218–19, 226–8, 230.
See also ceremonies; religion; sacrifice
- rivers: and Aztec worldview, 84; irrigation and diversion of, 76–7; trade and canoe transport, 114
- roads, and transport or travel, 114
- rulers and rulerships (tlatoxoyotl): control
 of and display of symbols of wealth, 150–1; and control of land and labor,
 147–50; and control over sacred world, 151–2; establishment of legitimacy and power of, 146–7; and exercise of power, 152–5, 306n23; food and meals of, 305n10;
 funerals of, 210; and gifts of warrior
 regalia, 264, 310n6, 310n8; and merchants, 304n38; as political actors, 141–4; and social hierarchy, 179; women as, 144, 308n20
- rural communities, and demography of Basin of Mexico, 61–2
- sacred bundles, 237–8
- sacrifice: of children to rain god Tlaloc, 204–
 5; evidence for human in Mesoamerica, 240, 309n17; and human remains in archaeological record, 22–3; public ceremonies and offerings, 238–9; rituals involving human, 239–43
- Sahagún, Bernardino de: on agriculture, 82,
 83; on behavior of noblewomen, 180, 202, 212; on birth of children, 199; on Chichimeca, 37; on city-state, 136; on craft production, 92, 108, 111; on distinction between nobles and commoners, 183; on domesticated birds, 302n44; on education of children, 200, 203, 211; on elderly, 207, 208; elites as informants of, 307n5;
 on feasting, 188; on food supplies for military, 160; and historical documents as sources of information on Aztec world, 10; on houses of commoners, 65; on human sacrifice, 244; on maize,
 301n26; on marketplaces and trade, 122,
 125; on nature in Aztec worldview, 84,
 247; on noble houses, 69; and pictorial codices as sources of information on Aztec world, 6, 7, 13; on poverty, 190; on rulers, 153, 299n10, 305n10; on sculpture, 257; on sorcerers, 245; on tools, 302n42; on warfare and warrior regalia,
 265–6, 310–11n11; on waterfowl, 85.
See also Florentine Codex
- Salgado González, Silvia, 270
- salt, production of, 85–6
- Sánchez Bain, Andrés, 309n21
- Sanders, William T., 27, 29, 55, 58, 60–1, 62, 76, 79, 80, 81, 103, 299n22, 300n7, 300n14,
 301n37
- Sandstrom, Alan R., 45, 292
- San Pablito, Puebla (modern village), 103, 105
- scale, of craft production, 98–9
- Schneider, Harold K., 125
- Schortman, Edward, 32
- Schroeder, Susan, 307n11
- sculpture: and monuments, 257–8; and Templo Mayor, 298n13
- seasonality, and Aztec diet, 70
- Selden, John, 9
- selectivity, of archaeological information, 21
- Seler, Eduard, 245, 246, 263
- shamans: and divination or magic, 245; and nature in Aztec worldview, 85
- shell, and beads, 124, 127
- Sierra Madre Occidental, 56
- Skoglund, Thanet, 174
- Sky of the Sun (Tonatiuh Ilhuicatl), 209
- slaves and slavery: and marketplaces, 117–18,
 122, 304n30; and punishments for crime,
 213; and social class structure, 185, 189–91,
 307n8; value of, 127
- Smith, Michael, 20–1, 29, 33, 62, 118, 137, 138, 169, 173–4, 229, 237, 271, 300n7, 300n12,
 301n33, 305n2, 306n18, 309n12
- social life: and commoners, 180–4; family and daily life, 191–214; intermediate positions and achievement in, 184, 186–91;
 and nobles, 177–80
- solar calendar, 216, 218, 219
- Solís, Felipe, 18
- songs: and arts in service of religion and state, 255–6; as sources of information on Aztec world, 12
- sorcerers, and magic, 245, 308n29
- Southwest (U.S.), and trade with Aztec Empire, 56, 299n7
- Spain: estimates of population in Basin
 of Mexico by conquistadores, 58–9;
 and historical documents as sources
 of information on Aztec world, 9–11;
 response of Aztec culture to pressures

Index

345

- of, 277–93, 311–12n29–36; and warfare, 311n16. See also colonial period
- specialization: of craft production, 90–113;
 trade and Aztec imperial expansion, 133–4
- spelling rules, variability of in colonial documents written in Nahuatl, xx
- Spence, Michael W., 103–4
- spies, professional merchants as, 131, 133–4
- spindle whorls, 72, 73, 111, 301n30–2, 302n9, 303n23
- spinning and weaving: in contemporary Mexico, 301n28–9; and craft production in commoner and elite households, 72, 73, 99, 308n19; and education of children, 203, 302n10; in Spanish colonial period, 287. See also backstrap loom; clothing
- squashes, and Aztec diet, 70
- Stark, Barbara L., 30, 128, 307n40
- state. See city-state; political organization
- storage: and agriculture in Basin of Mexico, 71–2; and houses of commoners, 65, 67
- sumptuary laws, 177, 178, 211
- Sun Stone, 18–19, 216
- symbols and symbolism: and distinctions between nobles and commoners, 178; of monumental sculpture, 257–8; rulers and control over, 150–1, 153; of warrior regalia, 262–5, 268, 310–11n1–12
- syncretism, and impact of Spanish on Aztec religion, 289–90
- Tamime (culture), 37, 39
- Tapia, Andrés de, 10
- Tarascan Empire, 56, 171
- Tarschys, Daniel, 163
- Taube, Karl A., 221–2
- Tavárez, David, 291
- tax, and use of term “tribute,” 163
- technology: and Aztec food-growing systems, 83; and ethnographic sources of information on Aztec world, 23. See also tools
- Tecuantepec (city-state), 159
- Tecuciztecatl (god), 221
- Tecuichpo (daughter of Motecuhzoma Xocoyotzin), 282
- temples, burning of as symbol of conquest, 158. See also Templo Mayor
- Templo Mayor (Tenochtitlan), 3, 21, 22–3, 39, 165, 210, 215, 238, 298n13, 299n8–9
- Tenochtitlan: and artisans attached to royal palace, 108; and Calendar Stone, 19; and Chapultepec aqueduct, 78–9; and commoner houses, 63; and commoner lands, 183; cosmology and spatial arrangements of, 225, 229; differences of from preceding cities in Basin of Mexico, 43; and elite houses or palaces, 68; estimates for urban population of, 57, 61; founding of, 38, 41; and merchants, 130; Motecuhzoma Xocoyotzin and replacement of sacrificial stone, 149–50; Spanish destruction of, 277, 280; Teotihuacan and architectural and artistic styles of, 35–6; and Triple Alliance, 139–41, 306n32, 307n37. See also Templo Mayor
- Teochichimeca (culture), 37
- Teotihuacan (city), 33–6, 95, 103, 263, 299n8
- Teotitlan del Camino (city-state), 304n25
- teotl* (deity), 230
- Tepaneca (people), 38, 305n5
- Tepeacac (province), 132, 148, 305n14, 306n28
- Tepeapulco (city-state), 95, 117, 120, 121, 122
- tepescohuíte* (Mimosa tenuiflora), 251
- Tepexic (city-state), 173
- terracing, and agriculture, 75–6, 301n33
- Tetela (province), 171
- Teteo Inan (goddess), 184, 263
- Tetzcotzinco (pleasure garden), 77
- Texcoco (city-state), 61, 95, 103, 106, 107, 117, 139–41, 164, 183, 300n19, 305n15
- Texcoco, Lake, 50, 52, 77, 80, 87, 114, 299n3, 301–2n38
- Tezcatlipoca (god), 220, 222, 223, 224, 225, 230–1, 309n7
- Tezozomoc (nobleman), 145
- Thevet, André, 9
- Thomas, Hugh, 282, 286, 311n15
- Thompson, J. Eric, 125
- tierra caliente*, 51, 56
- tierra fría*, 50, 51–2, 54, 55, 56
- tierra templada*, 51, 56
- time, cyclical and repetitive nature of Aztec, 216–19. See also calendars
- Tizoc (ruler 1481–1486), 142, 145, 166
- Tlacaelel (political leader), 278
- Tlacopan (city-state), 139–41, 282, 305n5
- Tlahuizcalpantecuhtli (god), 234
- Tlaloc (rain god), 152, 204, 219, 224, 231–2
- Tlalocan (afterlife), 209
- Tlaltecuhltli (god), 220, 231
- Tlapa–Tlachinollan (city-state), 174
- Tlatelolco (city): Aztec conquest of, 158–9; craft production and marketplace of, 91, 94, 107, 109, 298n12; and human remains, 22, 23; political strategy and Aztec rule of, 170; trade and marketplace of, 115–17, 120, 122, 123, 128, 132, 267, 276; and Triple Alliance, 140
- tlatoani* (ruler, speaker), 144, 281, 282

- Tlaxcallan (city-state), 158, 175, 271, 278–9, 306n24
 Tlaxiaco (city-state), 122
 Tochpan (province), 121, 122, 164, 166–8, 172
 Tochtepec (city-state), 164
 Toci (goddess), 225, 234, 289
 Tollan (semimythical), 33–4
 Tollocan (city-state), 159
 Toltecs: and Aztec as hybrid culture, 37–42; and subjective nature of ethnicity in Aztec culture, 45. See also Tula
 Toluca, Valley of, 55, 159
 Tonantzin (goddess), 289
 Tonatiuh (god), 224, 289
 tools: and Aztec agriculture, 82–3, 302n42–3; ethnography and use of traditional, 23; for featherworking, 101; introduction of Spanish, 286, 311n26
 Topiltzin Quetzalcoatl (culture hero), 234
 Torquemada, Juan de, 6, 10, 55, 115, 218, 235, 241, 302n8, 307n15
 Tototepec (city-state), 159
 Tovar, Juan de, 10
 Townsend, Richard F., 225, 230
 trade and trade networks: beyond political borders of Aztec Empire, 56, 299n6; and Chichimecs, 39; and commercial exchange in Late Postclassic, 113–29; and expansion of Aztec Empire, 133–4; in indigenous goods under Spanish rule, 284–5; and regional merchants, 129–32; and world systems theory in Aztec context, 272–7. See also markets and marketplaces; merchants transportation: and commercial exchange in Aztec world, 113–14; and introduction of animals by Spanish, 287–8; of tribute payments, 164 tree-ring data, and natural disasters in Basin of Mexico, 55 tribute: and design of clothing in peripheral areas, 270; and diversity of craft production, 96–7; and inheritance, 194; and labor duties, 148, 150; and marketplaces in central Mexico, 121–2; and political dynamics of empire, 156, 162–75, 306n28–34; and sources of precious materials, 91; and Spanish imperial administration, 280, 285
 Triple Alliance: and city-states, 138–41; formation of in 1428–1430, 43; and use of term Aztec Empire, xvii. See also Aztec Empire tuberculosis, 250
 Tula (city), 33, 34, 36, 234, 299n4. See also Toltecs
 Tulancingo (city-state), 121
 turquoise, 93, 122, 152, 298n18
 Tzicoac (city-state), 121
tzitzimime (goddesses), 232
 Umberger, Emily, 36, 42, 257, 299n2
 universe, and Aztec cosmology, 220, 225
 Urban, Patricia, 32
 urban communities, and demography of Basin of Mexico, 61–2. See also city-states urban development: and cosmology, 225, 228; and establishment of Aztecs in Basin of Mexico, 41. See also Tenochtitlan values, and Aztec concept of exemplary life, 202, 210, 211
 Vargas, Victoria D., 299n6
 variation, as theme in interpretation of Aztec world, 26–8
 Virgin of Guadalupe, 289
 Von Humboldt, Alexander, xvii
 vowels, and Nahuatl pronunciation guide, xix–xx Wallerstein, Immanuel, 271
 warfare: and commoners, 181, 184; conquest and control of lands, 147–8; damage to and repair of weapons, 303n17; and cotton armor, 306n25–6; and eagle nobles (quauhpipiltin), 186; and ethnicity in Mesoamerica, 45; and fertility concepts in Aztec worldview, 225; and gods, 233–4; health and injuries in, 247, 250, 251; and history of militarism in Mesoamerica, 156; and human sacrifice, 241; military service and control of labor, 148; and political dynamics of empire, 158–61; preceding cultures in Basin of Mexico and early Aztecs as mercenaries, 41; and Spanish, 311n16; and training, 160, 203; and warrior regalia, 260–8, 310–11n1–12. See also flowery wars; rebellion
 Warren, J. Benedict, 10
 water: Aztec preoccupation with control of, 15; and “waterfolk” specialists, 86; and waterfowl as source of food, 85. See also aqueducts; chinampas; irrigation; lakes; rivers
 weaving. See spinning and weaving
 Weiner, Annette B., 262, 264, 265, 266
 Wells, E. Christian, 30
 white zapote fruit (Casimiroa edulis), 251
 Whitmore, Thomas M., 58
 Wolf, Eric, 55
 women: flexibility in activities and routines of, 206; names of, 307n12; as priestesses,

Index

347

- 235, 237; as rulers, 144, 308n20; standards of behavior for noble, 180, 202, 212.
See also gender workshops, and craft production, 103–4 world systems model: and interpretation of Aztec world, 29, 259, 268–77; and Mesoamerica as culture area, 32–3 worldview, role of nature in Aztec, 84–5, 230, 247 writing: and books in Aztec society, 252–5; and earliest alphabetic records for Nahuatl language, xix; and glyphs in codices, 297n5–6; introduction of alphabetic by Spanish, 289. See also pictorial codices
- Xaltocan (city-state), 50, 87, 106
 Xicalanco (trading center), 131, 277
 Xilonen (god), 233
 Xipe Totec (god), 233, 234
- Xiuhtecutli (god), 152, 230, 231
 Xochicalco (city), 108, 299n2
 Xochimilco (city-state), 50, 80, 103, 106, 107, 159, 305n13, 311n20
 Xochipilli (god), 233, 312n36
 Xochiquetzal (goddess), 184, 233, 263, 310n4
 Xoconochco (province), 56, 122, 131, 133, 159, 164
- Yacatecutli (god), 184, 234
 Yoaltepec (province), 173
 Yoffee, Norman, 30, 151
 Young, Allen M., 125
- Zorita, Alonso de, 6, 10, 153, 194, 297n4, 307n15
 Zultepec (city-state), 23
 Zumpango, Lake, 50