Note: this index is primarily intended to guide the reader to relevant discussions in Claudius Caesar. Individuals are not here identified (though some relations between them are indicated), nor are places located. For Senatorial prosopography in particular, especially useful are the full indices of Syme (1958) and (1986) and also Tortoriello (2004). The entries for some major historical figures are arranged chronologically, as well as thematically.
