

Index

- Aarau, Peace of (1712), 36, 37, 38, 44, 46, 61, 255
 Aarau, Centre for Democracy in, 283
 Aare, River, 98
 Aargau, 11, 29, 42, 43, 101, 132
 (Table 7); dialect of, 151, 223, 252
 Aargauer Zeitung 156, 162
 Ab Yberg, medieval ruling family in Schwyz, 20
 Absolutism, 35, 36, 221; in EU 287
 Abyberg, Johann Theodor (1795–1869) Landammann of Schwyz (1847), 45
 Act of Mediation (1803) 10, 251, 252
 Action française, 53
 Adoboli, Kweku, (1980–) convicted UBS trader, 79, 205, 208
 L'Adula, pro-Italian Ticino journal. 267
 Aegeri (ZG), 40
 Agriculture, 35, 101, 174, 181, 184
 (Table 10), 221, 222, 273 (Table 15); EU and 289; percentage of Swiss employed in, 177, 312
 Alemannic, 3, 141–2, 151, 153; see also Swiss German
 Allemann, Fritz René, (1910–1996) Swiss writer, 3
Allmenden (common pasturage) 18
 Alps, 3, 4, 8, 13, 27, 39, 136, 142, 155, 181, 243, 245, 265; new 'basis tunnel' through 15, 278; and alpine society, 16–19; defence of Switzerland in World War Two 70–1, 269–79; as 'invisible export' 177, 312; as cult of 222; as barrier between Ticino and Switzerland, 247, 252, 254; Mussolini claims as Italian frontier, 267
 Alsatian as Germanic dialect, 141
 Altdorf (UR) 38
 Altermatt, Urs, Swiss Historian (1942–) 4; on Catholic 'ghetto' 50; and 'blockage' in Swiss politics, 112
 Altwegg, Jörg (1951–) Swiss journalist in the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung on the Swiss historical controversy about origins of the Confederation, 15
 Alzey, battle of (1388), 25
 Ammann, (head of a valley community), 20, 44
 Ammann, Hektor, (1894–1967), Swiss Historian, 171–2
 Ambühl, Professor Michael (1951–) (former State Secretary for Finance) designs treaty with USA in UBS case, not subject to referendum. 88, 116, 207
 Anarchism, 179–180
 Anderson, Perry (1938–) historian, 19–20, 35–6, 140
 Angehrn, Beda, prince-abbot of St Gallen (1796–90), 172
 Appenzell 11, 32; war (1403–09), 24, 29; divided into Protestant and Catholic half-cantons, 33, 88, 104, 218, 310; population of, 89; Appenzell-Innerrhoden 112; language experiment in 159; as Catholic, 217, 223; two Appenzells vote yes in initiative against immigration 2014, Table 7, 132, 247; embroidery industry in, 173, 182; 'free' peasants in, 180
Arbeitsfrieden (1937) ends strikes, 61
 Aristocracy: and absolutism, 35; in Geneva 40; Segesser on radicals as 49, 232; Luzern patricians as liberal, 97
 Arlesheim (SO) Prince-Bishop of Basel's residence 102
 Army (Swiss): Dr Johnson on, 7; medieval army unable to control Raetia, 23; defeats French at Novara (1513) 30; defeat at Marignano (1515) 30; Swedish army and Protestantism, 33; standing army and coercion by state, 35, 310; suppresses strike 1893, 52; as 'Prussianised' in 1914, 54; mobilized during First World War, 55; suppresses General Strike 1918, 58;

- opposes membership in the League of Nations, 62, mobilization in 1939, 65; Shirer on (1939), 68; officers revolt against Pilet-Golaz and appeasement, 69; Guisan address officer corps on Rütli meadow, 25 June 1940, 69–70; Guisan adopts Alpine defence, 70–1; Hitler's Operation Tannenbaum against, 72; Jura separatists attack, 73, 106; Gruner on the militia as Swiss model, 117, 126; 1989 referendum to abolish, 124; Army command knows of Holocaust in 1943, 270; decline of army as national symbol, and Swiss identity, 320–22; significance of decline for élites and serving soldiers, 325
- Attinghusen, medieval patricians (Uri) 20
- Au (SG) conflict in school over Muslim girls' covered heads, 313
- Augsburg, as rich city, 172
- Austria, labour piece in modern state, 2; Metternich as Chancellor on Switzerland as turbulent, 6; geography of, 8; intervention threat in Sonderbundkrieg, 44; 1848 revolution and, 44; anti-semitism and, 52; Swiss officers in First World War and 55; Germany annexes 1938, 63; Austrian Jews at Swiss border 1938, 64; (see Paul Grüninger) in EU, 99–100, dialect in 141; culture in nineteenth century, 144; bankrupt after First World War, 182; Swissair wants to partner with Austrian airline (1992), 201; refuses to restore mediatised principalities (1814) 223; closes Ticino border as reprisal (1848) 257; threatens Ticino (1849) 257; at battle of Solferino (1859) 260; Italy neutral as ally (1914) 267; anti-EU party in, 301
- Axelrod, Paul (1850–1928), Russian exile in Switzerland (1916) 56
- L'Avenir Suisse, Liberal foundation in Zürich, 7
- Baar (ZG) 40
- Baden (Germany) dialect in 142
- Bairoch, Paul, (1930–1999) Swiss economic historian, Swiss and UK GDP per head 1880–1950, 171; retarded railroad development in Switzerland, 176
- Balthasar, aristocratic Luzern family, 221
- Balthasar, Hans Urs von (1905–1988) Swiss Catholic theologian, 235
- Bandle, Rico, culture editor of Die Weltwoche, reviews film on Grüninger and Jewish refugees, 64–5
- Bank Frey & Co, private bank (Zürich) shuts after prosecution, 17 October, 2013; Ermes Gallaroti (NZZ) explains why, 208
- Bank Secrecy Law (1934), surrendered by Swiss government, 7, 79–80, 324; its importance in Swiss banking 202–03; not designed for Jewish clients, 206; Article 47 Melderecht but not Meldepflicht (may but not must report), 207; Sebastian Geux on, 207; need to negotiate with Italy on, 280, 282; abolition of 14 October, 2014, 203, 282
- Banks, as recipients of illegal Italian deposits, 246; US accuses Swiss banks of tax evasion, 246; collapse of in Ticino (1914) 266; Orazio Martinelli on, 276; loss of prestige of 322–3
- Banking, profits from Nazi business, 73; and secrecy of, 202; expansion of 1970s and 1980s, 202; fusion of Union Bank of Switzerland and Swiss Banking Corporation (1997), 69, 337; involvement in 'sub-prime mortgage market, 204–5; scandals at, 205; entire industry discredited, 206; UBS violates Bank Secrecy Law (2009) 206; expansion in Ticino 1950–1973, 272. US – Swiss Agreement 30 August 2013 sets three categories for Swiss banks willing to confess tax evasion help to clients, 210
- Barber, Benjamin (1939–) American political scientist on Graubünden, 22
- Bärndütsch*, Bernese dialect, 142, 143; used in Bernese Grand Council, 120, 147, 148; see also Swiss German; 50 years in Basel still speaks, 153
- Barth, Karl, Swiss theologian (1886–1968), 228, 235
- Basel bishopric of, lord of Jura district before 1789, 102; loses Jura to Bern 1815, 103; former subjects vote 'yes' for new canton (1959) 105; Canton Jura adopts coat of arms of, 108; reorganized in 1828, 223; lay participation in episcopal election 224–5, 232; Bishop Lachat deposed by Diocesan Conference (1873) 231; Bishop Vogel resigns (1995) after affair, 232; abuse cases in 240
- Basel, city and canton, Shirer on in 1939, 34, 38, 324; city and country split, 42, 101; votes No to immigration initiative,

360 Index

- 2014, 48; communist represents 1925–1939, 59 war and 71; Ciba-Geigy in, 83–4; Dr von Planta on, 84; half-canton 88, 218; radicals in 96; ‘fusion’ with Basel-Land 2014 fails, 101; votes no to immigrant initiative (2014) and Table 7 131–2; wealthy as city 172, 178; chemical industry in 186, 187–9; high culture of 187; Erasmus and printing, 219; Enlightenment in, 222; Burckhardt rejects 188; watch fair Baselworld in 197, 215; decline of religion in 217; Socialist Ständerat warns that Chinese millionaires buy up property, 316
- Basel-Land, canton, formed 1831, 42, 101; new constitution 1863, 47; as half-canton, 88; ‘fusion’ with Basel-Stadt 2014 fails, 101; Laufental votes 12 November, 1989 to join, 108; Kirchengemeinde does not pay pastors 238
- Baseldütsch*, Swiss German of Basel, 132, 142; French influence on, 145; archaic German in, 145
- Basler Zeitung* reports school ban on Muslim head-cover, 240, 313
- Bauder, Robert, director of Bern’s cantonal police, 108
- Bauern-Gewerbe-Bürger Partei* (BGB), a Protestant peasant party and the predecessor of the SVP, 74, 129
- Baumgartner, Eugen, president Catholic Synod, Zürich, opposes Bishop Haas, 234
- Bavaria, kingdom of, 1815 surrenders territories to Austria, 223
- Bebel, Johann (c1500–1560) Basel printer, 187
- Bedretto, valley (TI) 153
- Béguelin, Roland, (1921–1993) leader of the Rassemblement jurassien, 107–8
- Belgium, in 1940, 68, 285; 1950 agriculture as percentage of employment, 312
- Béliers*, les youth movement of the Rassemblement jurassien, 105–108
- Bellinzona (TI) 244, 250; declares independence 1798; political violence in 256, 262; railroad connections in 1880s, 264
- Bergier, Jean-François, (1931–2009) Swiss historian on William Tell 14; on 1291 and death of Rudolf of Habsburg, 20; chairs commission on Switzerland in World War 2, 76, 270
- Bern City, Canton and Swiss capital, 2, 1, 54, 56, 62, 65, 71, 74, 91, 97, 117, 123, 128, 131, 155, 202, 211, 225, 246, 257, 260, 261, 267–8; dialect in Oberland 3, 6; Solothurn enclaves in, 8; von Bonstetten as Bern patrician inspects Ticino, 11–12; joins Swiss Confederation (1353) 25; purchases Hasli valley (1334) 25; Niklaus Diesbach leaves 70,000 gulden at death in 1436, 26; Twingherrenstreit struggle (1470) between feudal lords and city mayor, 28; expels Teutonic Order, 1484–5 and controls church, 218; seizes part of Aargau, 29; Marignano fought without Bern and signs treaty with France, 30; unable to change the balance of power in the Confederation, 31; joins Protestant cause 1528, 31; absolutism and, 36; peasant rising against 1749, 38; Act of 1738 guaranteed by gives Geneva constitution, 40; Bernese aristocracy rule a peasant republic, 40, 309; One of three Vororte (capital cities) after 1815 42; 1831 gives up privileges, 42; Vorort when Sonderbündlerkrieg begins 1847, 43; democratic constitution adopted in 1887, 47; Karl Scheurer (1914) wants German victory, despair about division of country, 55; troops occupy during General Strike, 1918, 58; poster advertises Schützenfest in canton, figure 6, 60; Konrad Ilg, strike leader, on city council and in Grosser Rat, 62; Motta takes tram as Bundesrat, 67; SVP originally Bern peasant party, 94, 129; Canton given 1815 former lands of Prince-Bishop of Basel, 103; Jura crisis as religious and linguistic battle with, 103–5, 167; the plebiscites in Jura, 104–110; constitution of and resolution of Jura crisis, 110; longevity in Canton’s executive, 118; Bern dialect in Grosser Rat, 120; City ordinance in 2012 that 35% on council must be women, 126–7; Votes against initiative on mass immigration 2014, Table 7, 132; Bern office of Swiss National Bank, 211; last Canton with Protestant majority in 2000, 217; Enlightenment in, 221–2; Segesser on as liberal and capitalist, 230; two Federal Councillors from, 246; two battalions from arrest Ticino government 1890, 262–3; Il Mattino attacks ‘Bern’ as elite, 276; and citizens distrust ‘Bern’, 296, 302
- Bern Protestant Church, as Landeskirche, 235–6; cantonal parliament as synod to

- 1874, 236, church constitution like Swiss federal, 236–7 head never bishop, 237; Kirchensteuer (church tax) in Canton Bern, 237; state pays pastor not church, pastor responsible to congregation, state bureaucracy and synod, 238; separation of church and state rejected, 239; Roman Catholic Church similar structure, 239
- Bernanke, Ben Shalom (1953–) Chairman of the Governors of the Federal Reserve 2006–2014, 214
- Bernoulli, Johann or Jean (1667–1748) Swiss mathematician from a family of mathematicians, 187
- Berset, Alain (1972–) Social Democrat Federal Councillor represents the Federal Council, not party, 87; no influence on the vote, 87–88; (see Preimplantation Diagnosis)
- Bianconi, Piero (1899–1984) Italian Swiss writer, 151; author of Albero Genealogico (Chroniche di emigrati) 264
- Bichsel, Peter (1935–) Swiss Writer, 150
- Biel-Bienne, 103, 106; as bi-lingual city, 166
- Bignasca, Giuliano ('Nano') (1945–2013) right-wing populist, founder of La Lega dei Ticinesi, 274–6, 279
- Bilateral Treaties, Swiss adopt EU legislation in areas covered by, 129; full list of 296–97
- Binderschedler & Busch, Basel chemical company, forerunner of CIBA-Geigy 186
- Birkenfeld, Bradley (1965–) American banker and 'whistle blower': reveals UBS assists US citizens in tax evasion, 206
- Bismarck-Schönhausen, Otto von (1815–1898) German statesman, calls Swiss civil war 'a hare shoot', 44; attack on the Catholic church (Kulturkampf) 49; with Swiss as allies, 50, 231–2
- Bivio (GR) as multi-lingual village, 3–4
- Black Death plague (1348) 24
- Blankart, Franz (1936–) State Secretary and Swiss diplomat, EFTA negotiations (1989) 115
- Blocher, Christoph, (1940–) Swiss businessman and politician; attacks EU and European Court of Justice, 'foreign judges' 22, 309; not re-elected to Bundesrat (2007) 75, 118, 124; transforms Zürich branch of SVP 78, 129–30; success 9 February 2014 of initiative against 'mass immigration' 80; party in government but also in opposition, 117, 317; photo of 131; as most successful Swiss politician of the era, 133; biography 134–5; Film of and impact of, 133–5; convicted of anti-semitic speeches, 135; Thomas Zaugg's intellectual biography of, 135–8; the problem of his successor, 138–9; and 'closed' Switzerland, 166; Blocher's party only 5% of vote in Ticino, 274; hostility to Eveline Widmer-Schlumpf as 'traitor', 276; European Union scapegoat of, 292; as part of European-wide populist trend, 302–03; Blocher's claim to represent 'the real Switzerland' 306
- Boccaccio, Giovanni (1315–75) 152
- Bodmer, Johann Jakob (1698–1783) Swiss philologist, 54
- Bodmer, Walter (1896–1989) Swiss economic historian and industrialist, 39
- Bollinger, Ernst, author of La presse Suisse 162–3
- Bonfoi (BE) border town in Jura question, 107
- Bonjour, Edgar Conrad, (1898–1991) Swiss historian, on establishment of neutrality 34; on General Guisan's character, 65; on Pilet-Golaz as snob, 68
- Bonstetten, Karl Viktor von, (1745–1832) inspects Ticino (1796), 11–12, 13
- Bontempi, Teresina (1883–1958) Ticinese irredentist and editor l'Adula, 267–8
- Bormio (Italy) 8
- Borromeo, Carlo (1538–84), Cardinal, inspects Switzerland, 220
- Botta, Mario (1943–) world famous Lugano architect, figure 30, Interior of the Church of Santa Maria degli angeli, Monte Tamaro, 277, 246; professor in Academy of Architecture, Mendriso (TI) 276
- Bouvier, J.-B. (1883–1928) right-wing Swiss intellectual, 54
- Bovay, Claude, sociologist of religion, 217, 241
- Braun, Rudolf, (1930–2012) social and economic historian, 174; on agricultural specialization in seventeenth century, 181
- Bregaglia (GR), commune and valley, 4; as Swiss not Italian, 8
- Breitinger, Johan Jakob (1575–1645) attacks neutrality, 33
- Bretton Woods (1944) Switzerland not represented at, 74; new world economic order, 189, 203; as factor in economic growth, 270; replaced by 'non-system' 203–4

362 Index

- Bringolf, Walther (1895–1981), ‘Popular Front’ in Schaffhausen, 59
- Brunner, Christiane, (1947–) in 1993 unsuccessful Socialist candidate for Bundesrat, 124
- Brunner, Emil, (1889–1961) Swiss Protestant theologian, 229
- Brussels, Belgian city and headquarters of EU, 14, 106, 115, 116, 282, 286, 287, 288, 293, 296, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305
- Büchi, Christophe, (1952–) Swiss journalist, French Switzerland attracts investors as ‘semi-offshore’ 160
- Bulova Watch Co. Biel Bienne, 321
- Burckhardt, Jacob (1818–1897) Swiss historian, 14, 44, 148, 188
- Burgundian Wars, 24, 30
- Burke, Edmund (1729–1797) Irish statesman and writer, J.H. Plumb on, 45
- Burkhalter, Didier, (1960–) as President (2014) told by EU that freedom of movement ‘non-negotiable’ 86
- Calonder, Felix (1863–1952) Swiss Federal Councillor (1913–1920), ‘moral duty’ to join League of Nations, 62; Motta succeeds 63
- Calvin, John (1509–1564) Protestant reformer 33, 220, 229
- Calvinism, 33, 220
- Camartin, Iso (1944–) Romansch scholar, 150
- Campione d’Italia (Italian enclave), 8; on Lake Lugano, enclosed by Ticino, 101
- Canning, Stratford, 1st Viscount, (1786–1880) British diplomat, 42
- Cantons: 1, 114, 118; irregular boundaries of, 8; Helvetic Republic abolishes, 9; Napoleon coordinates, 10–11; as rulers of subordinate territories, 11–12, 13; Landsgemeinde as legislatures in, 24, 44, 47, 81, 82; see Act of Mediation for 1803; cantons now equal 11; Cantons join Confederation 1332–1353; Solothurn joins the eight, 25; meet in Tagsatzung (a diet), 1420, 29; conflict among settled (1481) by Brother Klaus; divided by interests 1515, 30; by religion 31–3; as loose federation 35; retain archaic forms into nineteenth century 36; religious wars between end in 1712, 36–7; Trücklibund, Catholic cantons secret treaty with France, 1715, 37; weak authority of encourages proto-industry, 39; post-1815 enlargement of number of, 40; and equality of voting, 42; democratization of after 1830 and in 1860s, 42, 47–8; Sonderbundkrieg divides Catholic and Protestant, 43–4; constitution of 1848 gives equal representation in upper house, 46; retain traditions after 1848, 47; votes of in 2014 initiative, 48; passes usury laws in 1890s, 52; Constitution of 1874 and sovereignty of, 53; peasantry over-represented by, 57–8; proportional representation after General Strike, 58; cantons narrowly support Swiss membership of League of Nations, 62; analysis of role and specific examples, 88–92; Catholic politics in Canton Luzern, 97; voter participation in 2014 initiative, 99; Zug as specimen of small cantons, 100–01; collective body of cantons created 1993, 101, 131; failure of fusion of two Basels, 101; parts moveable in, 101–2; cantons approve constitution of 1999, 110; flexible constitutions in, 110; citizens and cantons both represent people, 111; all 26 support ‘rip-off’ initiative of 2013, 111; depopulation of mountain areas over-represents cantons in Upper House and popular votes, 111–12; parties in, 119–20; and allocation of Federal Councillor, 124; direct election of cantonal executive board, 125–6; cantons give women vote before federal government, 126; control of education and language of instruction, 159; French dominant language in six; bilingual cantons, 166; Freiburg and Valais two most conservative, 167; embroidery in the northeast, 182; cantonal indebtedness in 1970s, 185; represented on board of Swiss National Bank, 212; decline of Protestantism in, 217; Ständerat a religious mosaic, 218, 220; and ‘state churches’ 221; represented in bishoprics of Basel and St Gallen 223–27, 231; state churches and cantonal authorities, 236–241; Ticino as canton, see Ticino; cantons, not Confederation, ‘states’, 308; Constitution of 1848 grants rights to, especially over education, 310; extend democratic participation, 310; tourism and rural cantons, 312; decline of religious identities of, 4, 318; SVP sweeps central Swiss Catholic cantons, 318, 323
- Capitalism: micro-version in rural areas, 39; children exploited in, 179; produces plutocracy after 1848, 47; Leo XIII and rerum novarum (1891) attack on, 52;

- associated with Jews, 52, Liberals 53; see progress associated with, Lenin sees World War (1916) as final crisis of 56; Thatcher and Reagan dismantle restrictions on, 204; as global reality, 213, 274
- Capo d'Istria, Joannes (1776–1831) Greek patriot and Russian statesman, 42
- Carter, James Earl Jr (1924–) 39th
President of the United States on national and special interests, 288
- Castlereagh, Robert Stewart, Viscount (1769–1822) British foreign secretary at Vienna (1815) 42
- Catholic (Roman Catholic Church) and Swiss Catholics: 38, 160; Swiss cities control or expel monastic orders, 218, 221; refuse to attend Council of Trent, 220; Counter-reformation fails to change patrician control of church, 220–1; Bishoprics of Basel and St Gallen have lay participation in election of Bishop, and citizenry control church property, 223–5; Pius IX rejects liberalism and First Vatican Council, 227–8, 229–31; Swiss Catholicism between papal rigidity and lay discontent, 229–32; Catholics lived in cultural ghetto in nineteenth and twentieth century to 1960s, 6, 50; decline of identity as, 4, 130, 162–3, 217, 218, 318, 323; percentage of population by religion, Table 12, 217; Catholic politics in Canton Luzern, 97; Catholic political party (CVP), 4; mountain regions religious, 13, 167; St Gallen as partly Catholic: 26; Reformation divides Confederation, 31; religious wars 33; Vilmgergen Wars (1656 and 1712) 36; Appenzell split between Protestant and Catholic, Solothurn and Freiburg stay as, 33; Catholic cantons negotiate secret alliance with France, Trücklibund, 36–7; fighting between Protestants and Catholics, 1840s, 43; compromise after 1848, 46; federalism and semi-direct democracy pacify, 49, 53; Segesser as spokesman for see Segesser; Kulturkampf and: 49; Bismarck as ally in, 50, 231, 241, 261; Reconciliation: 600th celebration (1891), election of Josef Zemp to Bundesrat, rerum novarum contributes to, 52; Catholicism as reactionary, 53; Motta as, 81; Etter defines Geistige Landesverteidigung (Spiritual National Defence) 135; Resignation of Bishop Vogel for violating celibacy, 232; Bishop Haas and the crisis of episcopal authority in Chur diocese, 232–35; Archbishop Lebfevre founds order of St Pius X to preserve traditional ritual, ex-communicated, 235; the laity in Switzerland very involved in liturgy and practice, 239–40; sexual abuse and the priesthood, 240–1; Bovay tables of Swiss religious self-identification and ethnic complexity in Catholic church, 217, 241–2; percentage of living in small communities declines between 1970 and 2000, 242
- Cattaneo, Carlo (1801–1869) economist and revolutionary: calls Ticino a 'fringe of the patria', 13, 257; exile in Lugano secured by Luvini, 257–8; his federalism and liberalism, 258; scheme for draining the Plane of Mogadino (1851) and its failure 259–61
- Cattani, Alfred (1922–2009) journalist with the Neue Zürcher Zeitung, 99
- Cavour, Camillo Benso, Count (1810–61), Prime Minister of Piedmont, 256, 272
- Cellular character of Switzerland 11, 14, 112, 168, 175, 177–8, 194; industrialization reinforced by home industry (watches, embroidery etc.), 215; disintegration of, 222; religion reinforced, 222; now as religion weakens, 312; army too small to act as unifier, 320
- Ceschi, Raffaello, 1936–2013; historian of Ticino, p. 152, 308
- Charles the Bold (1433–77) Duke of Burgundy, 29
- Chateaubriand, François René, Viscomte de (1768–1848) on Swiss profiting from misery of others, 5–6
- Chaux-de-Fonds, la (NE) 161, 163, 197
- Chemical and Pharmaceutical industry, spends 7% on research and development, twice that of any competitor, 189; mergers produce two giant firms, Roche and Novartis 189; Interpharma the organization of firms doing research yearbook, 189–90; Table 11, Swiss firms (Novartis and Roche) number one and five in size, together 10% of world market, 189; world-wide Swiss industry the largest export surplus, 190; Nestlé twice the size of Roche but half the profits, 190; switch to life science and sell off chemicals, 191; spend one-third of revenue on 'marketing' and law suits against, 192
- Chiasso (TI), 27, 262, 263, 269, 273, 325

364 Index

- Chiesa, Francesco (1871–1973) Italian Swiss writer, 155
- Christian Democratic Peoples Party (Christlichdemokratische Volkspartei CVP) as Catholic: 23% in 1959; joins Magic Formula (two seats in Bundesrat) 84, 218; sharp decline of support for, 78, 130; loses votes to SVP in Luzern 94–5; traditional support for in Luzern in rural areas, 96–7; support in Jura ‘sur le roche’, 106; as Jura separatists, 104–10; 2015 crucial national election for CVP, 128
- Chur (French: Coire; Italian: Coira; Romansh: Cuir) (GR) 1819 new bishopric of established, 223; John Paul II appoints Monsignor Wolfgang Haas, co-adjutor with right of succession, 233; Walter Gut declares appointment ‘illegal’, 234; cantonal school inspectors declare St Luzi seminar inadequate, 234
- church and state, (see also Concordats) struggle eases after 1891, 53; ‘sovereign people’ have powers over, 235; committees form to vote separation of church and state, none succeed, 239; line between ‘blurred’, 241; Pius IX declares separation ‘an error’ in 1864 Syllabus of Errors, 261; absence of tradition of separation causes difficulty in dealing with Islamic activities, 313
- Ciba-Geigy AG Basel, 321; Geigy founded (1864), Ciba, (1884), 188; 1970 merger yields Ciba-Geigy, 189; until 1990s ‘culture of firm ‘pure Basel’ (directors take tram)’, 83–4; merges with Sandoz, 1996; becomes Novartis’, 84; Dr Andreas von Planta, firm international, no longer ‘Basel’, 84
- Cisalpine Republic, 9, 12, 251, 261
- Citizenship Swiss: a political category, not national, 53; difficulty of obtaining, 91–2; Bürgerort (where family once belonged) still basis of, 92; cost of obtaining varies arbitrarily, 91–92, 100; in Constitution of 1999, 100; Gemeinde, commune or comune confers, 249
- Cölestin II, Gugger von Staudach, (1701–1767), prince-abbot of St Gallen, (1740–1767)
- Commune (Gemeinde, commune, comune) cellular unit of Swiss life: basic unit of politics, 90; as semi-sovereign, 90; Article 2 and 64 of Constitution of Zug and Gemeindegesetz defines powers of, 90–1; confers citizenship for fee (variable) and by vote of the commune, 91; distinction between Einwohnergemeinde (community of residence and Bürgerort (community of right) with rights and duties, 92; Bürgerort is heimatberechtigt, where the person has rights of home, 92–3; Kirchgemeinde and other corporations important, 92–3; party politics in, example Malters (LU), 93; Grenchen as urban Gemeinde with low turnout, 98; Gemeindeversammlung (town meeting equivalent) abolished in Malters but operates in Grenchen, 98; City of Zürich as huge urban commune, 98–9; Zürich’s politics reflect the traditions of the Gemeinde, 99; Longevity in office, 99–100, 118; Emil Landolt as traditional Stapi (city president) 99–100; cantons contain Gemeinden as sovereign small governments, 102; communes lose population and merge with larger units, 112; Bundesrat (Federal Council) structure a national Gemeinde, 118; dialect reinforces local identity of, 147; old Graubünden allowed sovereignty to, including foreign affairs, 156; Kirchgemeinde owns St Ursen Cathedral (Solothurn) but Bürgergemeinde pays for municipal hermit (Einsiedler), 239–40; Switzerland maintains its traditional identities, 310; commune in Schwyz, Feusisberg, uneasy that two Russian billionaires pay enough tax that citizens pay nothing, 315
- Communist Party of Switzerland (Parti du Travail) split with Socialists after 1919, 59; Basel and Zürich have a few elected at all levels in 1920s and 1930s, 59; Table 17 of EU parties contains several, 301
- Concordats, unique to Switzerland, give Cathedral chapters rights in episcopal elections: 1828 bishopric of Basel, 223; 1845 bishopric of St Gallen 225; with Chur, 233–4; Swiss Catholicism a special character, 229
- Constance, bishopric of, too remote to exercise authority over Swiss churches, 219; unable to prevent lay aristocracy from gaining control of urban church institutions, 220; loses all parishes within Switzerland proper in 1815, 223
- Constance city, ‘natural’ capital of Thurgau, 8
- Constitutions, democratic provisions adopted in 1830s, 42; miraculous stability of the 1848 federal constitution 45;

- constitutions instrumental, minutes of political decisions, 81, Zug constitution of 1894 constantly amended, 89; 1965, cantonal constitutions practical and constantly amended, 110; Gottfried Keller on 'not stylish examination performances' 110; Bern Protestant Church similar flexible constitutions, 236; Constitution of the United States model for Swiss, 88–9; 10th Amendment on rights of states exactly the same as Article 3 of Swiss Constitution, 88; Constitution of the United States of 1787 hallowed document, hard to amend, 110
- Conzemius, Viktor (1929–) historian of Swiss church, on via media of Swiss Catholic church between authority and democracy, 229
- Corriere del Ticino*, Ticino largest daily, not on sale in Ponte Tresa (Italy) 243; sales decline in 2012, 274
- Corriere della Sera*, Milan daily newspaper, Francesco Chiesa publishes in, not in Switzerland, 155
- Cotti, Flavio (1939–) member of the Consiglio federale, 1986–1999, describes the relationship between member of the Federal Council and his or party, 123
- Counter-Reformation, 33; Swiss reject it in 1567, 220; art and style accepted but not interference in church government, 221
- Courtlayry (BE), Protestant commune in Jura, 105; votes cast in Jura plebiscite Table 4, 109
- Cranach, Lukas (1472–1553) German artist, 27
- Cratander, Andreas (? – 1540) Basel printer, 187
- Credit Suisse: not in position to get specific treaty, 114; denies responsibility for Swissair bankruptcy, 202; one of big three in 1990s 204; avoids the catastrophe of UBS in 2008, 206; September 2013; CEO Brady Dougan sees very good prospects, 209; Senator McCain exposes massive system to help American clients evade US taxes 209–10; May 2014 pleads guilty and pays the largest fine ever, and CEO Dougan resigns 210; US-Swiss agreement sets up categories for Swiss banks, to plead guilty 210; gives the names of thousands of its employees to US investigators, 210
- Cremona, J.A. Romance philologist, describes the relationship between Latin and Vernacular, 147
- Dante Alighieri (1265–1321) and Tuscan as dialect, 152
- Dougan, Brady (1959–) CEO of Credit Suisse (2007–2015), 206, 209, 210
- Dreifuss, Ruth (1940–) Swiss Federal Councillor (1993–2002) Socialist, 124
- Droz, Numa (1844–1899) Federal Councillor (1875–1892) separates Political Department (foreign affairs) from Presidency, 121
- Dübi, Ernst (1884–1947) Swiss industrialist, President of Federation of Metal and Machine Industry Employers, signs Arbeitsfrieden in 1937, 61
- Dubied, Edouard & Cie. Neuchâtel, 321
- Dubs, Jakob, (1822–1879) Swiss Federal Councillor (1861–1879) 231
- Dufour, Henri (1787–1875) Swiss general in Sonderbundkrieg, 44
- Dürer, Albrecht (1471–1528) German artist 27, 187
- ébauche, factory manufactured watch movement, 10, 197
- Écône (VS) seminary of the Order of St Pius X, 235
- Edipress, SA Swiss newspaper chain, controls French Swiss press 162–3
- Einsiedeln, cloister, feud with Schwyz in 1270s, 20
- Einwohnergemeinde*, see Commune
- Embroidery industry, centered in St Gallen, 173, 186; by 1780 100,000 employed in, 39; biggest Swiss export (1913), 178; mechanization keeps industry in households, 178–9; ruthless exploitation of children by parents, 179; high value added, low transport costs, 181; destroyed by First World War and fashion change, 182; regional economy ruined, 183
- Emmental, (Canton Bern) 181
- Engadin (GR), Ladino as spoken dialect, 6, 156; examples from Ladino, 158
- Engelberg (OW) semi-sovereign Benedictine cloister, conflict with Uri, 20; not restored in 1815; remains a separate enclave in Obwalden, 40
- Enlightenment, and history 1; Switzerland not modernized during, 11; most deeply rooted in Basel, 187; impact greater in

366 Index

- Protestant Bern and Zürich, 221, creates a version of Swissness, 222; Italian Swiss reject in 1798, 251
- Entlebuch (LU), 18
- Erasmus of Rotterdam, (1465–1536)
 Renaissance humanist, 187; purifies biblical texts, 217
- Ermotti, Sergio Pietro (1960–) chief executive officer of UBS: figure 22, 208; outline of his career, 209; his strategy to shrink UBS, 208–09; bank reports not in Italian, 250
- Eterna SA, watch-making company in Grenchen, 97, 195
- Etsi salve* (28 June, 1948) papal decree on rights of cathedral chapter of Chur, 233
- Etter, Philip (1891–1977) Federal Councillor (1934–1959), 121; proclaims Geistige Landesverteidigung (spiritual national defence) (1938) 135–6; Figure 16, 137
- European Economic Area, 114; Swiss voters reject (1992) 93, 115–16, 296; 1992 vote in Luzern against, 93–4; Swiss Air excluded from EU airports and deregulation (1997) 200–01; Ticino votes against with high turnout, 247; negative impact on EU membership, 296
- European Free Trade Area (EFTA)
 Switzerland as member of (1989) 115
- European Union (see Chapter 8 pp 282–307); democracy in and democratic deficit, 283, 285, 289, 295, 298, 307; origins of in Coal and Steel Community 283–285; as first version of Commission 285; opaque structures of 288, 291; EU and Switzerland equally difficult to understand, 305–6; acquis communautaire: essential for membership 115, 132; full definition of 295–6
- European Commission*: as source of democratic deficit 285, 294–5; Common Fisheries Policy, 286–8; opaque structures of 285, 291, 304, 306; proposes EU budget 288–9; source of legislation and regulations, directives, decisions, 293–4; citizens' initiative to, 298; reform proposal for, 298–9; threat to autonomy of, 300–01; relationship to European Parliament, 302; election of president a threat to 302–3; Myths about EU Budget size, 288–9; Council of the European Union 287; broad powers to pass legislation, 293
- European Council* quarterly meeting of the EU heads of state, summit without power to pass laws. 293
- European Court of Justice*, transforms treaty system into constitutional law 289; decisions part of the acquis communautaire 304; have direct effect and supremacy 289; Swiss critics call 'foreign judges' 22, 309
- European Parliament* anti-EU parties gain in 2014, 6, 117, 301–2; celebrate Swiss anti-immigrant vote 298; Jacques Delors proposes 'structured partnership' for EFTA to (1989) 115; violates law by election for Commission president 283; Gunter Verheugen and Charles Grant warn against 300–01; elected parliament's president for five year term, 293; Treaty of Lisbon extends powers, 294–5, 298; Secretary-General of, Klaus Welle, makes grab for more power, 299; gets 22% of EU budget 295; Table 17.
- Election Result May 1914 for European Parliament, 301
- European Union (EU) and Switzerland, 101, 279; Switzerland as model for 282–3; Switzerland surrounded by, 115; Swiss membership hindered by unification of Germany, 115; Switzerland applies for membership (20 May, 1992) 116; Roger Koppel in the Weltwoche links initiative of 9 February, 2014 with, 116; conditions impossible for Switzerland to accept, 117; meetings in Brussels strain the Bundesrat, 125; volume of EU activity impossible for seven Federal Councillors with multiple portfolios, 127; French Switzerland depends on frontaliers from 129; Bilateral Treaties with, 129; full list of 296–97; SVP blames EU for problems in Switzerland, 129; likely compromise with, 139; initiative on immigration alienates EU, 193; poverty in 200, 216; Ticino hostile to 246, 260; competition from in Ticino, 273; Lega dei Ticinesi brands relation with as treason, 276; regional integration binds Ticino to, 279; acquis communautaire incompatible with Swiss constitution, 116, 294–5; Bundesrat obliged to carry out initiative 'to the letter' 304–05; May 2014 elections to European Parliament and chances of a negotiated settlement 303; political consequences of the NO to mass immigration, 304–06; Scotland as possible model for

- YES to EU campaign, 306; Yves Rossier, Swiss negotiator with Commission and Directorates, 305–6; Right-wing parties plan campaign against, 306; Blocher and SVP call Court of Justice ‘foreign judges’ 22, 309
- Farben, I.G. Chemical cartel, 186
- Farel, Guillaume (1489–1565) Protestant reformer, 33, 219
- FATCA (Foreign Accounts Tax Compliance Act) US law valid in Switzerland from July 2014, 246
- Federal Council (Bundesrat, Conseil Fédéral, Consiglio Federale) Swiss executive branch, 7; as seven-person president, 13, 23, 34; Hoffmann resigns from, (1917), 49, 54; calls out Army in General Strike but reconciliation after it, 58–9, 62; votes to join League of Nations, 62, 86; difficulty caused by immigration vote, 86; structure typical of all Swiss executives, 91, 114–18; re-elected every four years and vote reflects support, 75; a member of attends debates in parliament but no power to influence, 87–8, 119; not a cabinet and nobody controls it, 123; members reflect language, religion, party, gender, unseating of members recently, 133–5; designs 1934 bank law, 204; relation to Swiss National Bank, 210–11; first Catholic joins, 52, 231; model for executive of Bernese Protestant Church, 236; Italian Swiss on, 246, 254; orders mobilization (1939) 268; Lega dei Ticinesi attack as elite, 276; unable to find tactic to control right, 306; decline of magic formula, 318
- Favrod, Justin (1963–) Swiss historian and journalist on the unique content of the Rütli Oath, 21–2, 308
- Favez, Jean-Claude, (1938–2013) published role of Red Cross in Holocaust, 77
- Federal Law concerning Languages (Sprachengesetz) 5 October 2007, requires officials to reply in language of the citizen, 159
- Federal Reserve: underestimates until too late the sub-prime mortgage crisis, 214; in August 2014 $4, 407; trillion on its balance sheet, 215
- Federalism, 1; Napoleon restores in 1803, 10, 310; Constitution of 1848 and the dilemma of divided authority in, 45–6; the upper and lower houses of legislature reflect, 46; federalism and semi-direct democracy enable Catholics to accept new system, 49; cantons like American states sovereign within limits, 53; as essential element in Swiss politics, 81; Swiss democracy works on three levels, 100; communal sovereignty creates opportunity to change cantons, 101–2; as part of peace-making, 102; as in 1890 Ticino civil war 262–3; depopulation of rural areas distorts democracy 111–12; as attractive to foreign investors, 160; slows legislative process, 210; Carlo Cattaneo on it as personal value, 258; essential part of Swiss political system, 307; Georg Kohler includes it as key concept in Swiss self-understanding 308, 311
- Fédération jurassienne*, anarchist party, 177
- Felber, René (1933–) Federal Councillor (1987–1993), resigned 124
- Feusisberg (SW) Russian billionaires pay enough tax that citizens pay nothing, 315
- FINMA (Eidgenössische Finanzaufsicht) un-Swiss authority with wide powers and no consultation, 212; Ständerat submits seventeen specific complaints, 213; Director Patrick Raaflaub very abrupt and dictatorial, 213
- First World War, demands for better representation (proportional) during, 180; destroys embroidery industry, 182; banking secrecy already practised, 206
- Flüe, Niklaus von (‘Brother Klaus’) (1417–87) Swiss hermit, makes peace in internal revolt (Stanser Verkommnis, 1481) 29, 61
- Fogazzaro, Antonio (1842–1911) Italian novelist, vi, 252
- Fontane, Theodor (1819–1898) German novelist, writes prose full of French, 145
- Foreign workers, (Fremdarbeiter) huge proportion of 1; Number of foreign residents in Switzerland and crossing frontier daily over 2 million, 27% of total, 313; 26.7% of resident population in Ticino foreign, 247; fourth quarter 2013, 59; frontalieri equal 21.5% employed persons in Ticino, 247–8; French and Italian cantons heavily dependent on skilled and white-collar foreign workers, 205; Italian-speaking foreigners do not use local dialect, 154; resentment of, 314; Working party in Federal Chancellery Spring 2014 on reform of, 317; Überfremdung (over-foreignised) feared, used against

368 Index

- Jews in 1930s) 65, 312, 313, 315, 316; applied to Muslims at 4.9% of population. 312; Hard to measure if Switzerland has too many foreigners, 305
- France, 8, 10; Geneva and Valais annexed to, 11; Swiss victory over Duke of Burgundy makes Valois control possible, 29; Bern and Western cantons sign secret treaty with November, 1515, 30; massacre of Huguenots in, 33; absolutism emerges in, 35; 1685 Louis XIV revokes Edit of Nantes, 36; Trücklibund signed with, 37; guarantees Genevan constitution of 1738, 40; anti-semitism in 51; Swiss between France and Germany in First World War, 55; Defeat of France 1940 endangers Switzerland 68; Vichy Regime's new tone, 69; France in EU on border, 115; French Swiss side with France in 1870 and 1914, 116; Anti-EU party in wins largest vote (2014) in European elections, 117; French Swiss belong to cultural world of, 160; Protestant Swiss another France, 161; Catastrophic decline of France lessens attraction of today, 169; richer than between 1880 and 1950, 171; represents absolutism to Swiss élites, 221; Montesquieu and Rousseau publish freely in Geneva not in France, 222; Schuman proposes coal and steel community, 284; Front National comes first in election (2014) to European Parliament, 301; France a top-down government, 325
- Franscini, Stefano (1796–1857) first Swiss Italian in Federal Council and pioneer statistician, 254, 271; as violent liberal leader, 255
- Franklin, Benjamin (1706–1790) American polymath, warns of disunity, 37
- Fráter, Georg, Professor and industrial chemist at Hoffman-La Roche, Basel on the river for important waste disposal, 188–9
- Frederick II, Hohenstaufen (1194–1250) German Emperor, 20
- French language, 53, 54; used equally with German in parliament, 87; Canton Bern establishes equality of French and German, 108–9; Swiss French regional but not dialect, 120, 140, 141, 159; French words in Swiss German, 141; prestige of French-speaking Swiss raised by economic success, 160; French Swiss identity less defined by language than German, 161; used freely in German Switzerland, 164; Jura resents Germanised version of French, 167
- French Revolution 9; imposes uniformity; 11, 47, 156; Switzerland preserves much of Europe before French Revolution, 102, 222, 308
- Freiburg, city and canton, 22, 46, 64, 160, 162, 163, 166, 181, 218, 220, 221; prosperous after depression of fourteenth century, remains Catholic, 33; French-speaking élite restores German as pre-1798 rule, 44; most conservative canton in Switzerland and last to introduce democracy, 167; University hybrid, partly Catholic under Dominican order and partly state, 233
- Frickart (or Fricker) Thüring (c 1429–1519) Swiss historian of Twingherrenstreit, 28
- Fringeli, Dieter (1942–99) Swiss writer, asserts there is 'no Swiss literature' 151
- Frisch, Max (1911–91) Swiss novelist, 120; Switzerland 'narrow', 'materialist', 173; photo of figure 19, 174; as 'educated' man among ordinary soldiers, 321
- Froben, Johannes (Frobenius), (c1460–1527) Basel Printer 187, 219
- Frontiers as artificial, 6, 8; Jews turned back at, 50, 65; army (1940) deployed on, 70; languages and, 140; Ticino with Italy, 245; Austrians close (1848), 257
- Frontalieri*, (foreign daily workers) cross Ticino borders, 154, 243; numbers, 24; fall in numbers after 1973, 272; tax levied on in Switzerland, 279, 280
- Frontaliers* (foreign daily workers) French Swiss depend on, 129
- Fuggers, wealthy medieval German family, 172
- Furgler, Dr Kurt (1924–2008) Federal Councillor (1971–86), 107
- Galen, Claudius (c130–200) Roman physician, edition published in Basel, 187
- Galarotti, Ermes (1956–) banking and energy correspondent of NZZ, explains why small private banks close after prosecution in USA, 208
- Garibaldi, Giuseppe (1807–1882) hero of unification of Italy, 256
- Gasser, Adolf (1903–1985) Swiss historian, on impact of Alps on social organization, 18

- Gauly, Dr. Thomas, on Catholic backwardness in Germany, 50
- Gazette de Lausanne*, 162
- Gehler, Jean-Paul, Sanglier leader in Protestant Jura, 107
- Geigy, Johann Rudolf (1830–1917) founds chemical firm in Basel, 186
- Geisseler, Josef, Gemeindeschreiber, Malters, 91
- General Strike (1918) 27, 56–7; the mild treatment of perpetrators, 58, 179, 325
- Geneva: 6, 27, 70, 124, 129, 132, 152, 159, 161–2, 188, 222, 224, 245, 271; borders fixed in 1815, 8; annexed to France (1798), becomes Calvinist, 33; Shirer on in 1939; oligarchical government of (1738) 38–40; becomes Swiss canton (1815) 41, 222; Pictet der Rochemnt represents at Vienna (1815), 42; League of Nations at, 62–3; impossible to defend in 1940, 70–2; low turnouts in voting, high percentage of foreigners in 160; local newspapers disappear, 162–3; Enlightenment in, 187; watch-making in, 197; decline of Protestant church, 217; Calvin and Calvinism, 219; new Catholic diocese in 1818, 223; Apostolic Vicar Mermillod expelled from (1873) 231; attempt to limit frontaliers rejected, 248
- German language: 2, 11, 131, 148; (see also Swiss German); Swiss diglossic in, 3; Swiss respond to in High German, 148; Burckhardt glad the Swiss dialect not written, 14; German as official language in Fribourg, 42; Swiss Germans read German literature as ‘theirs’ 54; German-speakers in southern Jura, 103–4; Bern parliament and, 106; Laufental switches to Canton Basel Land, 108; French and German equally represented in Bern and national parliaments, 109; Swiss version of used in parliament, 120; attempt in Zürich to teach kindergarten and first grade in High German rejected by voters, 149–50; Bichsel on Swiss writers attempt to write perfectly in, 150
- Germany, (2, 12, 20, 25, 28, 30, 45, 50, 54, 55, 56, 57, 59, 65, 70, 116, 129, 135, 171, 178, 191, 200, 215, 219, 227, 262, 270; (see also Nazi regime); Burckhardt belongs to culturally 14; devastated in Thirty Year War, 33; introduces first modern social security in 1880s, 53; Swiss collaborate with Nazis to exclude Jewish refugees, 63; active Nazi network in Switzerland, 65; invasion plans for Switzerland 69; Swiss trade with 1939 to 1943, 72–3, 74, 76, 79; Nazi gold and Switzerland 76–7; bits of Swiss territory surrounded by, 101; and EU, 115, 283, 285; wealth of in middle ages, 172; Swiss remain competitive with because of lower wages and longer hours, 181; German dyestuff industry dominant in nineteenth century, 186; Basel chemical industry only competitor with, 188; pietism spreads in, 227; Swiss Protestants impact on German churches, 228; Nazi Germany not cause of Bank Secrecy Act of 1934, 206; joins with Switzerland to build Gotthard Tunnel, 262–3
- Gersau, Republic of, 39, 40
- Ghiringelli, Giorgio, promotes successful initiative in Ticino against burqa 314
- Ghiringelli, Paolo, (1778–1861) author of Helvetischer Almanach (1812), 251–52, 271
- Gilgen, Arthur, Cantonal Councillor in Zürich, 99
- Giornale del Popolo*, Catholic daily in Ticino, reports on highest level of employment in Switzerland in Europe, 191, 243; not on sale in Ponte Tresa (Italy) 243; sales decline in 2012, 274
- Glarus, Canton: joins Swiss Confederation (1352), 25; becomes Protestant 31; peasant revolt in (1721) 38; Table 7. Vote in immigration initiative, 132; third highest vote against minarets, 247
- Glaubenberg Pass, 18
- Gobat, Albert, (1842–1914) long serving Regierungsrat in Bern, 118
- Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von (1749–1832) German poet, 169
- Goldhagen, Daniel, (1959–) author of Hitler’s Willing Executioners (1996), 76
- Gotthard Pass and tunnel, 11, 12, 19, 20, 155, 262; allows Swiss customs to control border with Italy, 263
- Graben*, Swiss French and Swiss Germans split during First World War, 55, 267; to describe conflict between French and German Swiss, 165
- Grandson, Battle of (1476), 29
- Grant, Charles, Director of the Centre for European Reform, 300–01
- Graubünden (Grisons, Grigioni, Grischun) largest canton by area in Switzerland, Romansh spoken and dialect differences, 2–3, 148; survival of, 156–7, 158–9;

370 Index

- Italian-speaking communities, 3–4, 243, 21, 89; Italian-speakers, 248; and Italian television, 155; join Ticino in claims on Bern, 267; French detach territories from 1798, 9; Napoleon creates as modern canton (1803) 10–11, 252; three leagues of independent communes, 22; ‘marvellous complexity’ of, 47; Grey League (Graubünden) formed in 1394, 25; Protestantism in, 32; commander of the Sonderbund, Johann Ulrich von Salis Soglio, from, 43; Federal government pays 41.5% of cantonal income, highest in Switzerland, 100–01; one Federal Councillor Eveline Widmer-Schlumpf from, 124; narrow vote for initiative to stop unlimited immigration, Table 7; p. 132; became part of new Diocese of Chur, 229; canton declares St Luzi Seminary inadequate, 234; right-wing politics and, 316
- Great Britain, declares war on Germany, 1939, 68; European Union Act of 2011, 299
- Gregory XVI, Pope (1830–1846), 228
- Grenchen (SO) most proletarian city in Switzerland, 97; a commune in an urban setting, 98; reduces size of communal council, 98
- Grieder, Fritz, on riots of 1893 against foreign workers, 52
- Grimm, Robert (1881–1958) Swiss Socialist, 55, 57; as member of parliament helps to reconcile authorities after General Strike, 58–9
- Grimmelshausen, H.J.C. von (1625–1676) describes Switzerland during Thirty Years War as ‘paradise’ 34, 195
- Gross National Product (1938–1971) Table 9, 183; two biggest banks twice as big as, 83; per capita in 1973, 171; tourism in 1913 equal to 5–6% of, 177, 312; government expenditure (federal, cantonal, communal) as percentage of in 1961 and 1975, 185
- Gruner, Erich (1915–2001) Swiss historian, Switzerland as land of minorities, 62; referendum affects party organization, 117
- Grüniger, Paul Ernst, (1891–1972) Swiss police captain in St Gallen, admits Jewish refugees after 1938 and is dismissed and charged for his actions. 80
- Guderian, Hans (1888–1954) German tank commander, 71
- Guisan, Henri (1874–1969) Swiss general during Second World War, Figure 7; emerges from parliament after election as General, 30 August, 1939, 65, 66; reports full mobilization on 3 September, 1939, 68; renews Rütli Oath with staff officers, 69–70; withdraws army to mountains and passes, 70–1
- Gustavus II Augustus (1594–1632) Swedish king and general, 33
- Gut, Walter (1927–) Luzern church lawyer and member of executive, 223, 225, 233–4
- Gutenberg Press, 27
- Haas, Wolfgang (1948–) Bishop of Chur (1990–97), Archbishop of Vaduz, appointment violates papal decree of 1948, 233–5
- Habermas, Jürgen (1929–) German social theorist, ‘rise of the bourgeois public sphere’ 221
- Habsburg, Rudolf von (1218–91), German Emperor, assumes throne, 1273, 20
- Habsburg dynasty, 24, 26; William Tell and, 28; changes constitution after 1848, 45
- Halder, General Franz, (1884–1972) Chief of Staff of the German Army (1938–1942) notes Hitler’s rage against Switzerland (Operation Tannenbaum) 72
- Haller, Paul (1882–1922) Swiss dialect playwright, 150–51
- Hasli Valley (BE) Bern purchases mortgage of (334) 25
- Hayek, Nicolas George, (1928–2010) founder of Swatch Group, biography and rise to power, 195–6; death of, 197
- Hayek, George Nicolas Jr ‘Nick’ (1954–). explains how floating franc of 2015 hurts Swatch Group, 199
- Hegel, G.W.F., (1770–1831), German philosopher, 16
- Helvetic Confession, (Second) 1566) secures Protestant unity, 220
- Helvetic Republic, 9–10, 35, 145, 187
- Herder, Johann Gottfried (1744–1803) German Philosopher, 169
- Hergiswil (NW) 143
- Herrmann, Irène, Associate Professor of History University of Geneva, p 9
- Herwegen, Johannes (? – 1559) Basel printer, 187
- Hesse-Cassel, Electorate of, 103, 223
- Heusler, W. (1837–1904), Basel dyestuffs manufacturer, 186

- Hitler, Adolf (1889–1945) 56, 169, 206, 229, 268; reassures Swiss (1937) of intentions, 63, 65, 70; Hitler's fury at Switzerland, 72; campaign against 'foreign words' 145
- Hoffmann, Arthur (1857–1927) Federal Councillor (1911–17) resigns after secret negotiations with Russia (1917), 55–6, 57, 123
- Hoffman-La Roche & Co. Basel (now known as Roche), 186, 188, 189, 190, 191; and controversy about anti-influenza drug, 192, 321
- Holbein, Hans, the younger, (1497–1543) German painter, 187
- Holland, see Netherlands
- Holocaust, new interest in 1990s, 75–6
- Holy Roman Empire, European Union as successor of, 27; Swiss borders reflect, 102; Switzerland still influenced by, 128, 218, 222
- Honeywell International Inc. General Electric abandons take-over of because of EU, 291
- Huber, Colonel Jakob, (1883–1953) Chief of Swiss General Staff, (1940–45) defends réduit strategy 72
- Hughes, Christopher, British historian, on complexity of Swiss voting, 84–5, 120
- Hughes, Stephen C. American historian, 9, 12, 258, 260
- Hughes, John, trader at UBS and involved in Adoboli scandal, 221
- Huguenots, 33
- Human Capital Report, World Economic Forum (2013) Switzerland invests more in health, education and talent than any other country, 171
- Hungary, Kingdom of, 141, 172
- Hungerbühler, Johannes Matthias (1805–1884), pioneer economic historian, 181
- Hunwil family, élite in medieval Obwalden, 20
- Hürlimann, Thomas, (1950–) Swiss novelist and playwright, writes dialect plays, 150, 152; notes the clash between traditional and globalized Switzerland, 200
- Ideengeflecht* (web of ideas and values); see Kohler
- Ilg, Konrad (1877–1954) Swiss trade unionist, negotiates Arbeitsfrieden (1937) 61; member of parliament, 62
- Impositata humilitati nostrae*, Papal Bull of 3 August 1824, grants Canton Schwyz rights in election of bishop, 233
- Inequality: in Swiss cities in sixteenth century, 172; explosion of today, 199; insiders 'rig' the system to enrich themselves 215–16; as threat to society, 280; inequality of wealth and of technological competence, 327; (see Minder initiative to limit executive pay)
- Initiative (Volksinitiative, Initiative populaire, Iniziativa popolare) 1, 81, 86, 116, 117, 126, 180, 200, 230, 235, 296; against mass immigration (9 February, 2014) 4, 6, 7, 48, 80, 83, 86, 99, 101, 117, 118, 129, 133, 193, 286, 297, 298, 305–06, 317; amendments to the constitution automatic 48; material must be correct for, 111; Lowell skeptical about, 48, 113; Catholics used, 50; first federal approved (1893) banned kosher butchers, 51; SVP use as plebiscitary challenge 75, 95, 127–8; on cantonal and communal level, 80, 149–50; for a separate Canton Jura 105, 107; Constitution of 1999 states regulations for, 111; favours small cantons by need for majority of cantons as well as voters, 111; Second homes initiative December 2007; Table 5 with results, 113, 315–16; as plebiscitary populism 128, 138, 314–15, 317, 318; used by the Lega dei Ticinesi 275; to abolish church tax fails, 239; Ticino votes yes to ban on minarets, muslim head cover (Ghiringelli initiative) and restriction on immigration, 247; Table 7; votes by canton on 9 February, 2014, 132; against Muslims, 313–14; Yes to Europe rejected 296; to abolish the army (1989) and conscription (2013) 320; Minder 'gegen die Abzockerei' (against 'rip-offs') adopted with huge majority, 111, 216, 322; SVP uses Muslim dress in schools (St Gallen) 313
- International Monetary Fund, 211 trouble working out why the Bernanke 'taper' sucked cash out of Emerging Markets, 214; Ralph Atkins (Financial Times) global bond markets too big for emerging markets, 214
- Italian language, 2, 3, 4, 11–12, 120–1, 159, 168, 169; history of revival of, 140–1; percentage of Swiss who speak, Table 8; p. 142; writers in, 151; dialect and history of 152–4; Chiesa conceals Swiss identity

372 Index

- in his work, 155; under-represented in government, 156; official language in Ticino, 243; spoken in Graubünden, 248; italiano-elvetico 250–1
- Italian Switzerland see Ticino
- Italy, 4, 115, 195; Ticino and the Italian revolutions of 1848, 13; Italian entry in the first world war, 55; League of Nations sanctions on Italy (1935) 63; Italian unification and language, 140; dialect still used in 1950s, 152; number of Italians crossing the border to work, 154; and battle with the Church, 227, 231; Ponte Tresa (Italy) contrast with Swiss Ponte Tresa, 243; passes law to encourage secret accounts to repatriate, 246; nearly 60,000 work in Switzerland but live in, 248; Swiss take part in 1848 revolutions in, 255; romantic appeal of the Risorgimento and unification of, 256–7; Ticino government asserts complete loyalty to Switzerland, 257, 260; joins consortium (1871) to construct Gotthard tunnel, 262–3; Swiss go to work in, 264; irredentism in 1914, 266; negotiates with both sides in 1914–15, 267; Mussolini raises prestige of and threat, 267–8; Radio Monteceneri (1932) begins broadcasts to, 268; 1943–4 Jews cross border from, 269–70; (see Jews) Italy growth post-war, 272; train (TILO) connects Ticino and 279; Switzerland returns withheld tax to (ristorno), 279–80; Ticino tries to stay separate from, 280; Italy founder member of the European Union, 284; Italy equal number of deputies to France and Germany in High Authority, 285
- Jacobins 223
- Jena, Battle of (1806), 11
- Jesuit Order, banned from Switzerland (Article 51 of Constitution of 1848), 4, 247; ban on Jesuits lifted in 1973, 75; invited to take over schools in Luzern, 43; Swiss Protestants after Sonderbundkrieg demand expulsion of, 43; Burckhart calls them a curse, 44; Luzern patricians allow as teachers, 221; Constitution of 1874 renews ban on, 232, 262; Balthasar leaves to found new order, 245
- Jews, hostility to in nineteenth century, 50–1; the first initiative to pass after 1891 anti-semitic attack on kosher butchers, 51; Federal Councillor Schulthess assures Hitler Swiss press not ‘jewified’, 63; Swiss police chief anti-semitic speech, 1938, 63; agrees with SS to put ‘J’ in Austrian and German passports 63–4; borders closed 13 August, 1942, 64; Bundesrat von Steiger, ‘the boat is full’, 64; St Gallen Police Commander, Paul Grüninger dismissed for not obeying command, 64–5; Bundesrat Kaspar Villiger, (1995) admits Switzerland ‘burdened with guilt’ 64; refugees turned back at Italian-Swiss border by Swiss army, 269–71; Oberstleutnant Naef describes desperate refugees, 270; Bergier Commission and Catholic charities report on, 270; extermination of, 283
- John Paul II, [Karol Józef Wojtyła] (1920–2005), pope (1978–2005); admits guilt of Catholics in the Holocaust, 76; forbids St Gallen to proclaim in public the choice of new bishop, 225; undoes reforms of Second Vatican Council, 233; appoints Monsignor Haas suffragan with right of succession (1988) 233; nomination of Haas violates concordat, 234; creates new Archbishopric for Haas, 234–5; excommunicates Archbishop Lefebvre, 235; alienates Catholic laity in Switzerland, 318
- Johnson, Lyndon Baines (1908–1973) president of the United States, 203
- Johnson, Samuel (1709–1784) English wit and writer, history to be analytic, not chronological, 1; praises Switzerland for its politics, 7
- Journal de Genève*, 162
- Jordan, Thomas J. Jordan, (1963–) chairman of the Governors of the Swiss National Bank, an American Ph.D., 211; clashes with FINMA, 213; warns of boom dangers and lets Swiss franc float, 316
- Julius Bär, private bank in Zürich: put in Category One under US-Swiss agreement as already under investigation for assisting tax evasion, 210, 246; pays € 50 million to German tax authority as fine, 215
- Jura, 14, 33, 57, 160, 166, 168, 186, 187, 195, 217, 297; separatist crisis in, 102–109; explanations for the peaceful outcome, 109–10; votes No to immigration initiative (2014); defends correct French, 167; anarchism in, 177–8; watch-making communities in lose population, 197–8; Protestant church in, 236

- Juncker, Jean-Claude (1954–) 12th president of the European Commission, (2014) 294, 302
- Keller Augustin, (1805–1883), a Catholic radical, convinces Aargau (1841) to close all monasteries, 43
- Keller, Gottfried (1819–1890), German Swiss novelist, 54, 187; Figure 18, 146; Swiss constitutions ‘not stylish exercises’, 110, 126; traditional German vocabulary in his prose, 145; social mobility and ‘High German’, 152; as boy visits cotton manufacturer, 187
- Kern & Sandoz, first generation of Basel dyestuff factories, 186
- Kiental (BE), site of conference of revolutionaries in exile (1916) 56
- King, Timothy, British journalist at the European Union, too many ‘presidents’ at the EU, 294
- Kirchgemeinde*, the democratic commune in a Swiss church structure, 92; in Bern, 236; does not pay pastors, 238; in Solothurn owns and maintains the cathedral, 239
- Kistler, Peter (? – 1480) rebellious mayor in Bern in Twingherrenstreit, 28
- Kleine Emme (LU), river, 93
- Kleinlützel (SO), an enclave surrounded by Alsace and Basel-Land with no border with Solothurn, 8, 101
- Kohler, Georg, (1945–) political philosopher, defines Swiss identity as an Ideengeflecht (a network of ideas), 308, 311; Islamic community and the Swiss value system, 313; initiative now detached from the set of values, 314; decline of voluntary service and, 324
- Koime*, see Italian language and dialect
- Kollegiatstift*, a monastic establishment under urban control, 218
- Koller, Arnold (1933–) Federal Councillor (1987–1999) author of ‘Lex Koller’ to limit foreign purchases of Swiss property, 315–16
- Köppel, Roger (1965–) editor-in-chief and owner of Die Weltwoche, Zürich, leading article on the initiative against mass immigration (2014), 116
- Kreis, Georg (1943–) Professor emeritus of General and Swiss history at the University of Basel, on the Rütli myth, 20–21; published eye-witness of Swiss army repelling Jewish refugees in 1943, 77, 269; on collapse of Swissair, 201; on Ticino in 1798, 251; Tell legend and quasi religious significance, 261
- Kropotkin, Peter Alexeivich (1842–1921) prince and anarchist, describes watch-makers in the Jura valleys, 177–8
- Kulturkampf*, struggle between church and state in second half of nineteenth century 241; Segesser’s tactics in Switzerland to contain, 49; Switzerland joins Bismarck in (1870s) 231; ferocity of in Ticino, 261
- Kupffer, Elisar von (1872–1942) Baltic noble and founder of homoerotic cult in Minusio (TI) 255–6
- Kyburg, medieval dynasty in Switzerland, 20
- La Charité-sur-Loire*, French commune in Département de Nièvre in Burgundy, German army captures French General Staff documents, implicating Switzerland, 69
- Labour (Swiss) Arbeitsfrieden (labour peace treaty) 37, 61; no longer uniquely Swiss, 2; proto-industrialisation and recruitment of, 174; working at home more common than conventional factory, 175; highest proportion of foreign workers in Europe (1880), 176; Swiss workers attack; (1893); Symons on wages as misleading in Switzerland, 177; light industry flourished in nineteenth century, 178; child labour and exploitation very common in embroidery, 179; labour militancy reduced by spread of democracy in nineteenth and twentieth centuries and by individualism, 180; post-1945 boom sucks labour off the land 184–5; see (Table 10); frontier crossers in Ticino, a ‘reserve army’ of, 280; EU labour law takes precedence over domestic law, 289; Switzerland, unique dependence on foreign workers, 311
- Lachat, Eugène, (1818–1886) Bishop of Basel, (1863–84) Diocesan Conference deposed (1873) for requiring priests to accept papal infallibility, 231; Segesser sees advantages in, 231–2
- Ladino, branch of Romansch, spoken in Engadin and Val Müstair, 18, 156; proverbs in, 158
- Landert, Katrin studies two kindergartens, one uses written German, the other Swiss German, 145
- Landes, David S. (1924–2013) American economic historian, expert in watch

374 Index

- history, 176; describes 'leap to hegemony' of German chemical industry, 186; Swiss chemical industry survives by specialization and high quality, 188; five basic elements in all watches, 194
- Landolt, Emil (1895–1995) Mayor of Zürich (1949–1966) local character, 99–100
- Landsgemeinde*, traditional popular assembly as legislature; Figure 11 (1922) 82; of Schwyz in Rütli oath, 20, 21, 24, 35, 44, 47, 81
- Lassere, David, (1882–1973), Swiss historian, Trücklibund crisis in Swiss history, 37
- Latini, Brunetto, (1210–94) Florentine Scholar, 169
- Laufental, district (BL), example of cellular structure of Switzerland, votes to move from Canton Bern to Canton Basel-Land 168, 310
- Laur, Ernst Ferdinand (1871–1964) General Secretary, Peasants' Union, 58
- Lausanne (VD) 72, 164, 245; peasant unrest (1723) in, 38; Federal Court in, 91; as high tech center, 160; newspapers close or merge in, 162–3; Catholic bishopric of, 219, 220; reorganized in 1819, 223; Protestantism spreads to, 219
- Le Locle (NE) 163, 197
- League of Nations, 62–3, 65; Federal Councillor Motta at, Figure 8, 67
- Lefebvre, Marcel (1905–91) Archbishop, excommunicated for rejecting Vatican II, 235
- Lehman Brothers, founded 1847, declared bankruptcy 15 September, 2008, 79, 205
- Léman, Lac (Lake Geneva) 8, 26, 103
- Lenin, V.I. (1870–1924) head of Bolshevik Party, 56, 57
- Lenzburg, medieval dynasty, 20
- Leo XIII (1810–1903) pope (1878–1903) encyclical rerum novarum (1891) introduces Catholic approach to industrial society, 52; ends Kulturkampf, 232, 261
- Leu (von Ebersol), Joseph (1800–45) Catholic leader in Luzern, outrages radicals, 43, 97
- Leventina, Valley and community in, 11, 267
- Lewis, Michael (1960–) financial journalist and author, on how 'high frequency trading' distorted markets, 214
- Lex Koller* see Koller
- Lia Rumantscha* (Romansch League) founded (1919) to promote Romansch language, 156–7
- Liberalism, (see neo-liberalism) mainly anti-clericalism, 43; basis of Swiss constitutions of 1848, 1874, depression after 1873 weakens, 54; Radicals the party of, 56, 97; Luzern battle between patricians and extremists in villages, 97; gradual erosion of in twentieth century, 163; Gregory XVI and Pius IX refuse compromise with, 228, 230, 277; Conzemius on Swiss Catholicism's compromise with, 229; Ticino liberals armed, 255; Cattaneo's economic version of, 258
- Locarno (TI), (temporary capital of Ticino, 1839–1845) 155, 245, 259, 265; ruled by the Old Confederation, 11; declares independence (1798) 251; liberals seize power by force (1839) in, 255; Austrians threaten to seize, 257; railroads extend to, 263; Piazza Grande in, 271
- Lodi, Treaty of (1451) 29
- Lombardy, 152, 155; Italian Switzerland shares culture with, 247; (1848) Austria closes border with, 257; pre-Gotthard main trade with, 264; joint train operates (TILO – Ticino/Lombardia) to connect, 279
- Louis XIV (1638–1715) King of France, 36
- Lord Lovat, (Simon Christopher Joseph Fraser, 15th Lord Lovat) parliamentary under-secretary of state for foreign affairs (1945) rebukes the Swiss about war profits, 73
- Lowell, A. Lawrence (1856–1943) American political scientist and President of Harvard, fears that initiative will become 'happy-hunting ground for extremists and fanatics', 113; federal council 'most thoroughly native and original' 117; Federal Councillors 'over-worked', 125; romantic description of unification of Italy, 256
- Luce, Edward, (1968–) Financial Times columnist, explains how corporate executives enrich themselves, 216
- Lugano (TI) 153, 155, 191, 209, 243, 246, 250, 253, 254, 261, 264; joint property of the Old Confederation to 1798, 11; crowd drives 'patriots' out of (1798), 12, 251; William Tell as symbol, 28, 261; absorbs seven smaller communes (2010)

- 112, archives of the Vocabolario located in, 154; banking business in, 246–7, 271; largest city in Ticino, 248; Fogazzaro on its beauty, 252; Cattaneo in exile in, 257–8; The radicals found secular liceo in, 258; railroads connect to 263; population in 1910, 268; Via Nassa in, 271; the new University of Italian Switzerland located in, 292
- Luther, Martin (1489–1546) Protestant reformer, 219, 227
- Luxemburg, Grand Duchy of, 68; Luxemburgisch dialect in, 141; wealth of, 171; founder member of Benelux customs union, 284; former prime minister Jean-Claude Juncker now president of the EU Commission, 294
- Luzern, city and canton, 18, 19, 25, 31, 38, 39, 42, 43, 44, 45, 49, 69, 70, 96, 142, 223, 262; city enlarges council (1336), 24; Hutwiler Bund unites peasants (1653) against taxation; Luzern signs the Trücklibund (1715) 37; one of three presiding cantons (Vorort) after 1815; liberal constitution (1841) repealed and Jesuits summoned, 43; Gemeinde and Grosser Rat and the politics of, 93–4; nature of political divisions in, 96–7; main dialects in 145–6; still Catholic majority (2000 census) 217; patricians in city take control of churches, 218–221; Concordat gives right to appoint Domherren for episcopal elections, 223–5; Segesser works out strategy after defeat in 1847, 229–31, 310; Theological Faculty in, 233
- Machiavelli, Niccolò (1469–1527) ‘Swiss are most armed and most free’, 255
- Mainberger, Gonslav, (1924–2015) ex-Dominican, critical of Haas nomination, 234
- Malters (LU) Swiss citizenship granted by commune, process described, 91; its political allegiances described, Figure 12 Christmas in, 94; subtle differences among types of Liberals, 96–7; uses postal ballot for elections but rarely votes anybody out, 97–8; wealth concealed in, 191
- Manzoni, Alessandro, Francesco, Tommaso, Antonio (1785–1873) creator of modern Italian, 54
- Manzoni, Romeo, radical liberal, advocates force in 1890 Ticino, 262
- Marchal, Guy Paul (1938–) Swiss historian, describes medieval ‘herdsman culture’, 17–19
- Mariastein (SO), a Benedictine Abbey, exclave of Solothurn, 101
- Marignano, Battle of (1515) first great Swiss military defeat 30, 31
- Martigny (VS), district of (Martinach in German), 167
- Martino, Plinio (1923–1979) Swiss Italian writer, 151
- Martov, L. (1873–1923) Russian revolutionary and later leader of the Menshevik party, 56
- Marx, Karl (1818–1883) the origins of manufacturing, 175–6; Switzerland’s ‘arrested development’, 180
- Marxist parties, 52, 54
- Masnata, François, (1934–2011), on structure of Swiss socialist party, 119–20
- Matt, Peter von (1937–) literary critic and Germanist, Swiss German ‘in two forms’ 3, 151
- Matthey, François, Neuchâtel, elected Federal Councillor but resigned, (1993) 124
- Mattioli, Aram, (1961–) professor at the University of Luzern, on Swiss anti-semitism, 51
- Mauro, Tullio De, (1932–) history of Italian language, 140; number of dialect speakers in 1950s, 152
- Maurras, Charles (1868–1952) French right-wing theorist, influenced Swiss, 54
- Mazzini, Giuseppe (1805–1872) Italian revolutionary and nationalist; Switzerland gives asylum to, 43; Lowell writes of, 256; his attack on Lombardy, 257
- McCain, John (1936–) Senior Senator from Arizona, exposes massive scheme of Credit Suisse to help American clients evade taxes, 79, 209
- Meier von Silenen, medieval patricians in Uri, 20
- Mendrisio (TI) almost annexed to Italy (1798) 9; absorbs small communes (2010), 112; dialect of 153; unable to agree on policy after 1798, 251; radical liberals seize (1839) control in, 255; Academy of Architecture (1996) located in, 276; Mario Botta teaches at, 276; rail from to Milan-Lapensa airport, 279
- Menzingen (ZG) one of four ‘free communes’ which compose Canton Zug, 40

376 Index

- Mermillod, Gaspar (1824–92), Apostolic Vicar of Geneva, expelled by Swiss government (1873), 231; Bismarck congratulates Swiss ambassador on expulsion, 50
- Metternich-Winneburg zu Beilstein, Klemens Wenzel Lothar (1773–1859), Austrian chancellor and architect of peace in 1815, describes Switzerland as ‘inexhaustible spring of unrest’ 6; furious that Switzerland protects Bonaparte family and Mazzini, 42; Sonderbund cantons negotiate secret alliance with before 1847, 43
- Metzler-Arnold, Ruth (1964–) CVP member of the Federal Council (1999–2003), unseated after one term, 75, 133
- Meyer, Eduard von, companion of Elisar von Kuppfer, co-founder of cult Klarismus, 266
- Meyer, Werner H. (1937–) Swiss medieval historian and archeologist, 14
- Milan, 27, 30, 65; as cultural and economic capital of Ticino, 155; the ‘Cinque Giorante’ (revolution of 1848) in Milan, 257, 260; Italian nationalists (1859) invite Swiss to fight in war against Austria, 260, 308
- Milano-Malpensa airport, now connected by joint Italo-Swiss train, 279
- Miller, R.A.G. historian of Swiss watch-making, 176
- Minger, Rudolf (1881–1955) Federal Councillor (1929–1940) represents the ‘peasant party’ in government, 65; dogged anti-fascist in 1930s, 68; even ‘strong’ Federal Councillors cannot control the Council, 123; Minger and the Bauern-Gewerbe-Bürger Partei (BGB) steady influence against Hitler, 129
- Minder, Thomas (1960–) Schaffhausen businessman, promotes successful initiative to limit executive salaries (against ‘rip-offs’), 111, 216, 322
- Monnier, Claude, (1938–) Swiss French journalist, describes the Journal de Genève as ‘un miracle quotidien’ 162
- Montesquieu, Charles Louis de Secondat, Baron de la Brede et Montesquieu (1689–1755) French philosopher and historian, publishes de l’esprit des lois (1748) in Geneva to avoid royal censorship, 222
- Moos von, patrician family in Uri, 20
- Morat, Battle of (1476) 29
- Morerod, Jean-Daniel (1956–) Professor of history, University of Neuchâtel, on uniqueness of the Rütli Oath, 21–2, 308
- Morgarten, battle of (1315) 24
- Motta, Giuseppe (1871–1940) Federal Councillor (1911–1940) 61; conservative Italian Swiss with sympathy for Mussolini, 63; delays League of Nations membership for USSR, 65; death of and obituary praises ‘exemplary simplicity’, 65–6; Figure 8. Motta at the League, 67; democratic virtues, 68; born in Airolo at top of the Gotthard Pass, 266–7; election to Federal Council raises prestige of Ticino
- Moutier (BE) assigned to Bern by Vienna Congress (1815) 103, 104; a Protestant village votes against Jura separatism, 105; district splits on separation, 107; vote so close that riots break out, 107–08; Table 4 records votes, 109
- Muggio, Valle di, southern district of Ticino, dialect of, 153
- Müller, Andreas, Deputy Director of L’Avenir Suisse, worked for Federal Councillor, Pascal Couchepin, who always read newspapers from Paris 165
- Müller, Johannes von (1752–1809) Swiss historian, not size but spirit (Geist) matters, vi, 247
- Murten (FR), 20
- Muslims: 4.9% of population. 312; clash of values with Swiss laws, 313; Ghiringelli initiative (2013) to ban covered faces in Ticino 247; ban on covered girls in Au school, 313–14; Federal ban on minarets, 314; Zürich school board refuses license for Islamic kindergarten, 313
- Mussolini, Benito, (1883–1945) and Swiss anti-Semitism, 63; claims Ticino as Italian, 247, 267; final days in the fascist puppet Repubblica Sociale Italiana, 269
- Müstair Valley (GR), 25; its dialect separates from neighbouring valleys 156; experiments with using Romansch in schools, 158
- Näfels, Battle of (1388), 25
- Naine, Charles, (1874–1926) Socialist journalist at party congress (1920) mocks extremists, 59
- Nancy, battle of (1477) 29
- Nantes, Edict of (1685) 36, 161

- Napoleon I (1769–1821) imposes Act of Mediation (1803) and restores Swiss cantons 10–11, 40, 222, 252, 310; preserves antiquated political structures, 36, 42; hegemony threatens small states 55–6; Hitler more powerful than in 1940, 68; reorganization of bishopric of Basel, 102–03; reorganization of 1803 not altered at Vienna Congress, 103
- Napoleon III (Bonaparte, Louis Napoleon) (1808–1873) 43, 45
- national identity: the crisis of, xiv, 2, 80, 215; pp 307 ff; complex components of, 5, 46, 84, 128; Sonderfall Schweiz (Swiss special case) a version of, 5, 80; Swiss identity stronger in Italian Switzerland than ethnic or linguistic, 12–13, 155–6; William Tell as symbol of, 15, 28; growth of in nineteenth century, 52–3, 54; Swissair as symbol of, 78; citizenship through the Gemeinde and, 92; preservation of smallest political, ethnic, linguistic, cultural units part of, 109; European Union challenges, 114, 115, 116; multi-lingualism and dialect essential components of, 141, 142–3, 147–8, 151, 168–9; French Switzerland as part of, 161–3; decline of religious identity and, 217–18, 312; Enlightenment contributes to, 222; Italian Switzerland crucial component of, 243, 245, 246; Ticino's cantonal identity part of, 249; communal independence strengthens Swiss identity, 260; First World War threatens because of conflict between Germany and France, 267; Italian Swiss fear erosion of, 280–1; a function of long historical evolution, 283; Blocher and SVP claim to represent it, 306; as Willensnation, 308; Georg Kohler's structure of ideas as base of, 308–12; Überfremdung (foreignization) threatens 312–14; the militia army no longer provides 319–22; banking scandals erode, 322–3; identity defined and illustrated, 323–7; as Willensnation, 128, 283, 308
- National-Zeitung* publishes Swiss wealth figures (1973) 171; publishes the professions of officers in a Swiss regiment, 321
- Nationalism, 9, 11; Italian Swiss reject Italian pleas, 13, 14; divides German and French Swiss, 53; Swiss authorities resist it (1914), 54; strengthened Swiss resistance, 114, 155; Gregory XVII and Pius IX reject it in nineteenth century, 228; Ticino a place to explore it, 245; irredentism in Italy before 1914, 266
- Nationalrat*, see parliament
- Nazism see Germany
- neo-liberalism, 273–4, 327
- Nestle, SA, Vevey (VD), 160; profits smaller than Roche's 190; Mario Corti comes from, 201
- Netherlands, in 1950 17.8% of population in agriculture, 177, 312; representation in Coal and Steel community, 285
- Neuchâtel, 124, 195, 212; Napoleon deposes King of Prussia as sovereign of, 11; élites use law of Holy Roman Empire against 'freedoms' of the people, 27; converted to Protestantism, 33, 219; becomes canton again in 1815, 41; dialects extinct in, 159; Denis de Rougemont on work as virtue in, 161
- Neue Zürcher Zeitung*, 7, 102, 124; attacks use of unclaimed funds to reimburse Swiss losses in Poland (1949), 74; condemns Bern city council for scheme to elect more women, 126–7; SVP distrusts, 131; calls Swatch growth 'breathless', 195; interview with director of FINMA, 213; Simon Gemperli on EU parliament elections (2014) and immigration negotiations with EU, 303; reveals existence of committee in Bundeskanzlei to reform initiative procedures, 317
- neutrality, Zwingli condemns 31; J.J. Breitinger condemns in Thirty Years War, 33; as profitable 34, 36, 172, 309; Swiss officers violate by helping Germans (1914) 54–5; Federal Councillor Arthur Hoffmann violates in 1917, 55–6; violates (1919) by joining League of Nations, 62–3; returns (1937) to traditional absolute neutrality, 63; the dark side of in World War II, 77; essential to Swiss identity, 81; Blocher advocates absolute 136; Kingdom of Italy declares it (1914) 267; Italy respects Swiss until 8 September, 1943, 269; essential to Swiss identity, 307; tradition of 'armed' neutrality 319
- Neuville, La (BE) votes in, 109
- Neversilova, Olga, Czech, philologist, 148–9
- Nicole, Léon, (1887–1965), Swiss socialist, leads Popular Front government (1935) in Geneva, 59
- Nidwalden (half-canton) 1, 20, 22, 43, 88; votes yes against unlimited immigration (2014), 132; over 60% still Roman

378 Index

- Catholic, 217, 218, original signer of Rütli Oath, 309, 310
- Nolan, Albert, O.P. (1934–) South African Dominican priest and anti-Apartheid activist, refused honorary degree by University of Fribourg, 233
- Northern Ireland, resentful minorities in, 49; escalation of violence in Jura similar to 106–07
- Novara, battle of (1513) Swiss defeat French at, 30
- Nuremberg, 172
- Oberwallis (see also Valais) mountain dialect difficult for other Swiss German speakers 3, 142, 148; war in during 1380s, 24
- Obwalden, (half-canton) 1; collective maintenance of road in 18, 20, 22; Engelberg an enclave in, 40, 43, 88; votes against unlimited immigration (2014), 132; affect on dialect in Entlebuch 145; over 60% still Roman Catholic, 217, 218; original signer of Rütli Oath, 309, 310
- Ochs, Peter (1752–1821) radical in Basel and promoter of Helvetic Republic, 187
- Ochsenbein, Ulrich (1811–1890) radical leader and member of the first Federal Council (1848–1954) but not re-elected, 44
- Olten Action Committee (1918 leadership committee of trade union movement) Bolshevik influence on, 57; surrenders after General Strike, 58; reasons for mild treatment of 58–9; Konrad Ilg, a member of, 61
- Operation ‘Tannenbaum’, German mobilization plan (October, 1940) for invasion of Switzerland, 72
- Orelli, Giovanni (1928–) Swiss Italian novelist, 151
- Ospel, Marcel (1950–) former chairman of the board of UBS, responsible for rapid expansion at Swiss Bank Corporation, 204
- Oswald, Werner (1904–1979) businessman and patron of Christoph Blocher, 136
- Padavino, Giovanni Battista (1560–1639) Venetian Diplomat, on travel in Switzerland, 33–4
- Paracelsus, (1493–1541) Swiss physician and scientist, 187
- Paris, 10, 42, 68, 106, 129, 160, 182; as cultural capital of French Switzerland, 163, 165
- Parliament, Federal Assembly (Bundesversammlung, Assemblée fédérale, Assemblée federale) 118, 119; Council of States (Ständerat, Conseil des Etats, Consiglio dei Stati) 85, 89, 119, 121, 210, 213, 316; Swiss version of the US Senate 46; percentage of women 128; represents religious divisions, 218; National Council (Nationalrat, Conseil national, Consiglio nazionale) Swiss version of the US House of Representatives, 46, 61, 68, 86, 87, 88, 118, 121, 210, 312; by 1935, the Socialist party largest in, 59; percentage of women in, 126
- Paul III (Alessandro Farnese) (1468–1549), Pope (1534–49) convenes Council of Trent (1547), 220
- Peasants, 25, 40, 42, 43, 73, 100, 221; economic depression after 1648, 35; demands rights (1831) in Bern and Basel, 52; important political force in first half of twentieth century, 57–8; support Catholic Conservatives in Luzern, 97; Helvetic Republic plans to transform, as mercenaries 15; Schiller and the myths of, 16, 222, 319; ‘free’ and bear arms, 18, 20–1, 22, 27, 38, 40; revolts by 24, 28, 35, 38, 101; manufacturing in households of, 26, 39, 57, 157, 174, 178–9, 180, 187; Leu vom Ebersol leads them (1841) 43, 97; Jonas Furer (1848) ‘Jews suck the blood of,’ 51; boom after 1945 ends small-holding, 74, 184; novels about, 151; dialects and written language, 157; specialization in dairy and meat products, 181; mythology about, 16, 222, 319
- Pellegrini, Annibale (1756–1822) tells crowd ‘We are Swiss and Free’ (1798) 12
- Petrarch, Francesco (1304–74) Italian poet, 152
- Peyer, Hans Conrad (1922–1994) historian of medieval Switzerland 14, 15, 18
- Pförtner, Stephan, (1922–2012) German Dominican, criticized Humanae Vitae of Paul VI and lost teaching post at Fribourg, 233
- Pictet de Rochemont, Charles (1755–1824) Swiss representative at Vienna Congress (1815) 42
- Pilatus Mountain (LU) army stationed on (1940), 70
- Pilet-Golaz, Marcel (1889–1958) Federal Councillor (1928–1944) 68–9; speech of 25 June, 1940, on the new order in Europe, 123

- Pius IX (Mastai-Ferretti, Giovanni, Maria (1792–1878), Pope (1846–1978) 232; rejects liberalism in all its forms, 228; issues encyclical Quanta cura (8 December, 1864) as formal condemnation of liberal ideas, 230, 261
- Pius X, Order of St. Pius, 235
- Planta, Dr Andreas von, corporate lawyer and director Novartis since 2006, 84
- Plumb, Sir John (Jack) Harold, (1911–2001) stability happens quickly, 45
- Political parties, of the right and European Convention on Human Rights, 75; on communal level, 91, 93, 98; stability of in Ticino, 271, 273; growth on the Right, 306
- Ponte Tresa (TI) 28, 43
- Porrentruy (JU) 103, 105, 106; gains importance because Swiss, 109
- Poschiavo (GR) Italian-speaking valley in Graubünden, 245; French decide its future (1798) 8; joins Gotteshausbund, 25
- Poverty in Switzerland, 200
- Preimplantation Diagnosis, Amendment of the Constitution and of the law on medical artificial fertilization*, debate in the Nationalrat 2 June 2014, no party discipline and Federal Council has no leverage for its views, 86–8
- Prongué, Bernard, (1934–) president of the Christian Democratic Party of Jura, describes Jura settlement ‘politique consensual bien helvétique’ 108
- Protestantism, 4, 52, 53, 94, 97, 129, 218, 220, 310, 312; SVP originally Protestant, 94, 129, 318; Zwingli as reformer founds, 14; St Gallen city converts to 26; divides Swiss cantons, 31; war with Catholics, 33; French Protestants flee after Revocation of Edict of Nantes, 36; Peace of Aarau and, 38; Aargau (1841) revokes Catholic rights, 43; gradual compromise with Catholics, 49–50; role in Jura conflict, 103–09; French Swiss and their ‘work ethic’, 67; percentage of Protestants living in small communities has declined, 242
- Quadri, Giovanni Battista (1777–1839) leads conservatives in Ticino before 1830, 254
- Raaflaub, Patrick, Director of FINMA (2009–2014) 213
- Raetia* 22, 25, 156; (see also Graubünden)
- Raeto-Romansch language (Rumansch Grischun), 2, 3, 4, 117; number of speakers (2012), 141; Table 8, Residents of Switzerland by mother-tongue, 142, 148; Roman origins of and current situation, 156–158, 159; official language in Graubünden, 248
- Rassemblement jurassien*, see Jura
- Red Cross: Internal Committee of: meets on 14 October 1942 to discuss holocaust evidence, 77
- Referendum, 4, 112, 124, 135, 153, 185, 305, 314; radical cantons agitate for in 1860s, 47; proportional representation introduced by (1919), 56, 58; introduced by Constitution of 1874, 86; avoids in Treaty with USA on bailout for UBS, because not specific 88, 207; Canton Zug’s Constitution of 1894, approved by, 89; on membership of the European Economic Area (1992), 93, 116, 296; fusion of Willisau-Stadt and Willisau-Land approved by (2006), 96; used in Jura conflict, 105, 106, 109; Constitution of 1999 extends it to all state treaties, 111; A. Lawrence Lowell approves of, 113; influences legislation because of possibility of, 114; parties can mobilize voters without big bureaucracy, 117; Figure 17 on ‘Save our Swiss Gold’ (2014), 138; Catholics use against government, 230; to repeal ban on Jesuit Order (20 May, 1973) 232; Ticino constitution of 1892 includes, 263; Swiss Constitution (1999) obligatory for amendments to constitution or to join a supranational community, 295; SVP and Lega plan on further legislation to curb immigration, 306
- Reinhardt, Volker, (1954–) professor of history at the University of Freiburg, new approach to Swiss history, 15
- Reuss, river, 19, 42
- Reynold, Gonzague Frédéric, Maurice de (1880–1970), writer and critic, 54; writes (1912) that Ticinesi more Italian than Romandes French 266
- Rhine, river, 3, 25, 49, 101, 156, 173, 188, 313
- Rhone, river 166, 220
- Rigi (LU) mountain, 146
- Riviera, valley through which Ticino river flows, 11
- Rossi, Angelo (1940–) Swiss Italian economist and pioneer in urban studies, 266, 268; Table of economic growth of Ticino, 271, 272

380 Index

- Rossi, Luigi (1864–1890) member of the Consiglio di Stato (1890) murdered 262, 263
- Rogge, Peter Managing Director of consultancy Prognos AG and author, 184
- Rommel, Erwin (1891–1944), German tank commander, 71
- Rossier, Yves, (1960–) State Secretary Federal Department of Foreign Affairs (appointed 1 May 2012) negotiator with the European Union, 305–6
- Rothmund, Heinrich, (1888–1961) chief of the Fremdenpolizei (aliens police) 1929–1954, helps Nazis keep Jews from Switzerland, 63–4, 65
- Rottenbund* (League of the Rhone) German language protection society in Valais, 166–7
- Rougemont, Denis de (1908–1985), Swiss writer and European federalist, vi, defines attributes of Swiss French Protestants, 161
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques (1712–1778) Swiss philosopher and novelist, the ‘general will’ and, 10; most famous Genevan of his era, 40; Figure 5. Portrait of, 41
- Ruedi, Peter (1943–), Swiss journalist and dramaturg, discuss difficulties of plays in specific dialect, 151
- Ruhr, river in Germany, 49
- Russian Revolution 56, 57
- Rütli Oath (1291?): historians question as event, 14; illustration No. 1, 16; as myth, 20–21; Hutwiler Bund imitation of by peasant revolutionaries (14 May 1653), 35; renewed by General Guisan, 25 July 1940, 69, 71
- Saignelégier (JU), seat of the district of Franches-Montagnes, 103, 105
- St Gallen: canton 9, 11, 42, 43, 64, 129, 252, 313; city includes guilds in governing (1353), 24, 103; abbot’s precinct a small state, 71, 223; bishop elected by Catholic Grand Council 225, 232; economic depression in, 59, 182, 185, 187; linen and embroidery industries in 26, 39, 173, 175, 178–9, 186; prince-abbot of 18, 35, 172–3; illustration 24 of Collegiate Cathedral, 226; Protestantism in city of, 31
- St Imier (BE), Vallon de, 105
- St Leodegar, city of Luzern converts Benedictine monastery of into church, (1455–6) 218
- St Luzi seminary (now Theological College) in the Bishop Hass conflict, 234
- Salis-Soglio, Johann Ulrich von (1790–1874), commander of Sonderbund forces, (1847), 43
- Salvioni, Carlo (1858–1920) Italian Swiss philologist, complains that Ticinesi ignorant of Italian classics, 54
- Sandoz, AG, Basel Chemical company, 186, 188; merges (1996) with Ciba-Geigy 84, 189, 191
- Sanglier*, les Protestant fighters in Jura conflict, 107
- Sargans (SG), 70
- Sarnen (OW) 18
- Savoy, Peter of (1255) protects Murten, 18; Victor Emanuel 1, (1814) revokes all laws promulgated under Napoleon, 103, 223; Kingdom of, 256
- Sax, republic of, in today’s St Gallen, 9
- Saxony, 35
- Schaffhausen, canton, becomes Protestant 31, 38; revolution (1830) 42; Popular Front government in 1930s in, 59; % turnout for Initiative against mass immigration, 99; surrounded by German territory and has German enclaves, 8, 101; Thomas Minder successful initiative against excessive salaries, 111, 322; Table 7 (p. 132) on canton’s vote in anti-immigrant initiative (2014); Schaffhausen TV broadcasts Christoph Blocher interviews, 134; cloth-making in, and wealth in middle ages, 172; joins new bishopric of Basel (1828) 223; Protestant citizens act as synod, 236
- Schams, valley of, (GR) 25
- Schellenberg, Walter (1910–1952), SS-Brigadeführer, negotiates with General Guisan, 70
- Scheurer, Karl (1872–1928) Federal Councillor (1919–1929), favours Germany in First World War 55; on long-serving colleague, 118,
- Schiller, Friedrich (1759–1805) German playwright and poet, writes William Tell (1804) 15–16
- Schlosser, Friedrich Christoph (1776–1861) Göttingen historian plans a history of Gersau, 39–40
- Scholder, Klaus, (1930–1985) German church historian on Karl Barth’s impact, 228
- Schöllenen Gorge (UR) 19

- Schönbein, Christian Friedrich, (1799–1868) pioneer Basel chemist, 187–8
- Schulthess, Edmund (1868–1944) Federal Councillor (1912–35), 58; in private audience with Hitler (23 February, 1937) reports that Jewish influence ‘contained’, 63
- Schütz, A.M., former President of Eterna, SA, explains how the 1970s watch crisis resolved, 195
- Schweizerische Gesellschaft für Mikroelektronic- und Uhrenindustrie (SMH) 196–7
- Schweizerischer Evangelischer Kirchenbund, represents Bern churches, 237
- Schwitzguébel, Adhémar, (1844–1895) Swiss anarchist, 177–8, 179
- Schwyz, canton: 8, 11, 19, 38, 40; illustration 1 representatives of at Rütli Oath, 16; freedom of the Reich obtained, 16, 20, 25; as founder of the Confederation, 21, 22, 35; 600th anniversary 1891 celebrated in 51–2; in Sonderbund 43–4; Catholic conservatism in, 96–7; Vote against mass immigration, Table 7; p. 132; still majority Catholic in, 217; granted special rights in bishopric election (1824) 233; still exist as self-governing entity after seven centuries, 309, 315
- Segesser, Philip Anton von (1818–1887) Swiss Catholic leader, Luzern only ‘fatherland’ of 46, 53, 229–30; aristocrat turned Catholic democrat, 49; referenda as weapon, 50, 310; rejects Federal Constitution of 1848 but also Pius IX and extreme reaction, 230–31, 231–2
- Sempach War, 1386, 24, 25
- Shirer, William, (1904–1993) American journalist and author of a Berlin Diary, impressions of Switzerland in 1939, 34, 68
- Siegiwart-Müller, Constantin (1801–1869) Luzern Catholic extremist, secret negotiations with Metternich 43
- Slovak language, creates nationality, 140
- Swiss economic history, its ‘peculiarities listed’ 177, 311
- Socialist Party of Switzerland, 55, 123, 162, 178; influenced 1916 by Russians, 56; general strike attracts, 56–7; divides party, 58; proportional representation pacifies, 58–9, 180; Arbeitsfrieden and, 61–2; in ‘Magic Formula’ from 1959 on, 127, 218; party loses content 96; biggest party in Zürich, 99; uses direct democracy to be both opposition and government, 117; a federation of cantonal parties, 119; embarrassing contested election for ‘socialist seat’ in Federal Council (1993), 124; first socialist in Ticino consiglio di stato (1921) 265; socialist press in Ticino censored during Second World War, 270; loses votes in Gran Consiglio (2015) Table 16; p. 275; protest at sale of commercial land to foreigners, 316
- Société Suisse pour l’industrie horlogère, 193
- Solothurn, canton and city 1, 20, 98, 236, 307; canton of, enclaves and exclaves, 81, 97, 101; signs Sempacherbrief with eight cantons (1393) 25; Catholics in, 23, 33, 218; controls religious institutions, 22; joins new bishopric of Basel (1828) and gains rights to elect bishop 223, 225, 232; Cathedral of St Ursen, illustration 23, 234; Kirchgemeinde, not diocese, owns and maintains, 239; constitutions of, 42, 47, 110, 126; French embassy located in, 31; hermit maintained by the Bürgergemeinde, 239; votes yes to initiative (9 February, 2014) to halt immigration, Table 7, 132; shortage of priests and ‘pastoral spaces’ 241
- Sommaruga, Simonetta (1960–) Social Democratic Federal Councillor responsible for Justice and Police (2010–), President of the Swiss Confederation (2015) the initiative on mass immigration must be obeyed 7, 304; declaration of the policy of the government, (20 June 2014), 86; reports on policy on mass migration to Conference of the Cantons, (23 March 2014) 101; suggests a quota system for immigrants, 305
- Sonderbund* (special alliance) Swiss civil war (1847), members of, 43; Diet declares it dissolved 43; General Dufour seizes middle cantons, 44; Luzern ultramontanes push for, 97; shatters tacit agreement between Protestant and Catholic élites, 229; defeat humiliating, 230; Liberals use to strengthen central government, 310
- Sonderfall Schweiz* (Switzerland as ‘special case’) 5, 80; Paul Widmer defines 82–3; an example to the world, 106; Swissair thought to be part of it, 201; Swiss identity and 307

382 Index

- Spies, (1927 – Dr Federico, director of the Vocabolario dei dialetti della Svizzera italiana (1973–1992) 153, 248
- Spitteler, Carl (1845–1924) writer, warns Swiss during First World War against feelings of ‘superiority’ 34; claims that no Swiss culture, only separate linguistic ones 54
- Sprecher von Bernegg, A.T.L. (1845–1924) colonel and chief of staff, agrees with Germans to supply information, 54
- Stanser Verkommnis*, agreement of eight cantons (1481) to stop conflict between cities and peasants, Brother Klaus brings peace through 29; applied to Arbeitsfrieden (1937), 61,
- Steiger, Esduard von (1881–1962) Federal Councillor responsible for police (1940–51) speech ‘the boat is full’ used to keep out Jewish refugees at border, 64, 77
- Steiner, Jörg, (1935–) Swiss political scientist, shows how threat of referendum works, 114
- Stettler, Bernhard, historian of fifteenth century Switzerland, 25
- Stich, Otto (1927–2012), Federal Councillor (1983–1995) as finance minister in a multi-party cabinet, has no political leverage, 123; not party’s first choice in election, 124
- Stojanovic, Nenad, Swiss political scientist, as immigrant learns Italian not dialect, 154; explains why among four languages allowed by university for PhD, chooses French, 168; language issues as member of Ticino legislature, 250; analysis of EU, 267
- Stoppani, Angelo, (1768–1815) leads Lugano crowd against Italian Jacobins, 12
- Strasbourg, European Parliament in, 115
- Strikes, absence of xiii, 2; see Arbeitsfrieden (1937); and General Strike (1918)
- Studer, Roman, UBS International Center of Economics, shows that Switzerland not richer than other European competitors until late nineteenth century, 171; absence of patent law until 1907 ‘free-rider factor, 179
- Subject territories (Gemeine Herrschaften) 9, 12, 18; religious divisions disturb, 33, 220; city of Zug has, 40; Bern claims former subject territories (1815) 103; Napoleon frees and creates cantons of, 222; Tagsatzung formed to administer jointly, 309
- Suisse, la* Lausanne, 162
- Suisse romande*, 160–61; newspapers disappear in, 162; no ‘national identity’ nor regional center, 163, 164; English now second language in, 165
- Surneirisch* (Raeto-Romansch dialect) 3, 156
- Surselva* (Raeto-Romansch dialect), 3, 156; speakers of reject Rumantsch grischun 157; proverbs in, 158
- Swiss Bank Corporation (Schweizerischer Bankverein) merges with Union Bank of Switzerland (Schweizerische Bankgesellschaft) (December 1997) and becomes second largest bank in the world, 79, 337; see UBS
- Swiss French, see Suisse Romande
- Swiss German (Schwyzerdütsch) 21; divided into dialects, 3; what German spoken at home and work 141; Peter von Matt on ‘German’ in two forms 3, 151; borders create languages 141; the three forms of, 141–2; as personal identity, 142–3, 147; its grammar and usage 144; sense of being ‘slow’ when Germans are present, 144–5; Luzern has five, distinctive dialects of, 145–6; spread of in usage, 147; dialect excludes foreigners, 148; what German to use in kindergarten and primary school, 148–9; Olga Neversilova on, 149; Karin Landert’s research on schools which use Swiss German and those which teach High German, 149–50; Peter Bichsel on Swiss writers and 150; use of dialect on stage, 150–51; Swiss bilingualism 151–2; the Mundart Welle (dialect wave) shows increased public use of, 150; and Italian Swiss resent, 251; comparison with French Swiss and French as a universal language, 160–61; always want to practice their French, 164; patois is negative; dialekt positive, 165; Swiss Germans 86.3% of German speakers and most mono-lingual 165–66; two German Switzerland’s ‘open’ and ‘closed’ 166; imported German Catholic priests not ‘intimate’ with congregations, 241
- Swiss National Bank, gold transactions with Nazi Germany, 73, 76; ends peg of CHF at 1.20 to 1 €, 15 January, 2015, 199; saves UBS and buys CHF 60 billion of ‘toxic’ assets, 205; opens in 1907 and still ‘private’ today 210; structure and

- responsibilities of, 210–11
 president of Thomas B. Jordan, other governors and deputies academics, 211; banking council represents professions and three linguistic areas, 212; head of FINMA clashed with Thomas Jordan 213; huge accumulation of Euros by 2015, and negative interest rates, 216
- Swiss Peoples Party: Schweizerische Volkspartei (SVP), Union démocratique du centre (UDC), Unione Democratica del Centro (UDC) formerly Bauern-Gewerbe-Bürger Partei (BGB): illustration 13; advertisement for, showing foreign hands taking Swiss passports, 130; Illustration 14; SVP National Councillor and former Federal Councillor Christoph Blocher at news conference on asylum, 131; share of vote of, 1959 75; Blocher not re-elected to Federal Council 2007 and party splits, 75, 118; new mass party grows, 78; Blocher and SVP successful initiative to stop unlimited migration, 80; gained two seats in Zug (2010), 90; Luzern (2015) second biggest party, 94; (see Table 3, 95) in Grenchen, 98; says No to EU, 117; Eveline Widmer-Schlumpf replaces Blocher and expelled from, 118; Table 6 election results 1919 to 2011, 122; SVP only one seat in Federal Council, 2015, 124; SVP tries to turn initiative victory into seats in parliament, 127–8; history of the growth of 1973 to present, 129–131; see Table 7. Vote for the initiative against mass immigration by canton, 132; Blocher transforms Zürich branch, 1970s and 1980s, 135–6; in Ticino, Bignasca's Lega much bigger than UDC; tactics for the coming struggle over EU, 306; takes on Muslims in Au (St Gallen) 313–14; still one Federal Councillor, 316; SVP and Lega ready more anti EU-initiatives, 317; SVP initiative sweeps traditional Catholic voters in central Switzerland, 318
- Swissair (Schweizerische Luftfahrtgesellschaft), grounded on 2 October, 2001, 78; collapse a result of vote against European Economic Area, Switzerland loses landing rights, 200; rejects junior role with big carrier, 201; new strategy 'grow to greatness' fails, 201; the crisis of the air line, 201–02; myth of Swiss perfection shattered, 202
- Tagsatzung* formed (1420) to administer subject territories jointly, 29, 309; an assembly of ambassadors not a legislature, 30; Diocesan Conference of bishopric of Basel compared to 225
- Talgenosenschaft* early medieval village community, 19; acquires 'free' status, 20; accustomed to participate in decisions, 21; revolts in cantons with Landsgemeinden, 24; Kohler's theory of its part in the network of Swiss assumptions, 308; continuous history of to the present, 309; and hostility to aliens, 313
- Tell, William, Illustration 2 hero in boat on raging sea, 17; Ticinesi plant Tell hat on tree (1798) 12, 261; historians debate the reality and the myth. 14–15; Schiller's play about, 15–16; appears first in White Book of Sarnen (1474) and significance for Swiss self-image, 28; takes modern form in eighteenth century, 222; Schützenfest in spirit of, 255; Swiss in World War 2 and, 270; essential to Swiss identity? 306
- Teutonic Order, Bern expels (1485) 218
- Thirty Years War (1618–1648) 34, 172, 183, 221
- Thomke, Ernst, (1939–) manager of new Swatch Group, 195
- Thürer, Georg (1908–2000) Swiss author, school teacher and professor, estimates 100,000 home workers in St Gallen textile and embroidery, 39
- Thurgau, canton, 8, 9, 11; revolution in (1830), 42, 47; votes yes in initiative against mass immigration, Table 7, 132; dependent on embroidery industry before First World War, 182; included in new bishopric of Basel (1828) 223; Napoleon raises to full canton, 252
- Ticino (see Chapter 7), 8, 9, 11, 30, 155, 156, 212; as Canton, 246, 249; Napoleon recognizes as 252; divided into Sopra- and Sottoceneri, 252; Italian in 3; Italiano elvetico in vocabulary, 250; school children in nineteenth century could not understand it, 152; dialect in, 153, 154, 250–51; subject territory 11; von Bonstetten inspects (1796) 11–12; 'We are Swiss and free' (1798), 12; inability to agree new order, 251; vicinanza, communal ownership in, 12; rejects Italian attempts to attract, 13, 65; during Italian wars of unification, 260–61; during First World War 266; under Mussolini 267–8; yes to curb on

384 Index

- immigration (2014) 13, 48; foreign workers in 154, 246; Milan cultural capital of, 155; Swissness of, 245; tax evasion for Italians in, 246; hostility to Muslims and foreigners, 247; population figures, 248; frontalieri in, 248; Constitutions: 249; too liberal (1815) 252; 1830 a new very liberal version, 254; civil war over 254–5; violent coups between 1854 and 1890, 261–2; Constitution of 1997 to promote Italian culture, 249–250; Carlo Cattaneo (1801–1869) economist in exile in, 257–260; Gotthard pass transforms, 262–64; Federal government send troops to (1890) and imposes new constitution with proportional representation 262–63; eighty years of complete political stability, 265; economic history of (Angelo Rossi) 266; asks for help from Bern, 267–8; Second World War and, 268–9; Jews turned back at frontiers of, 269–70; Oberstleutnant Naef write his experiences on Swiss-Italian border, 269–70; post-war boom transforms, 270–274; the older less well-educated and the new economy of 275–6; Giuliano Bignasca and the Lega dei Ticinesi, 274–6; The new University of Italian Switzerland and Academy of Architecture, 276–77; the Gotthard Base Tunnel will transform 278–79; Light rail (TILO) unites with Lombardy, 279; Taxation of frontalieri and repayment to Italy (ristorno) 279–281
- Toggenburg, valley, 219
- Traz, Robert de (1884–1951) 54
- Trent, Council of (1547), Swiss cities do not attend, 220; Archbishop Lefebvre celebrates mass according to, 220
- Tribolet, Maurice de, cantonal archivist of Neuchâtel (1987–2004), 27
- Tribune de Genève* after 2014 initiative against mass immigration, 132, 162
- Trotsky, Leon (1879–1940) Russian revolutionary in Swiss exile, 56
- Trücklibund* (1715) secret treaty with Louis XIV to restore Catholic losses in Peace of Aarau, 37
- Twingherrenstreit* (1470) Thüring Frickart's account of social conflict, 28
- UBS (formerly Union Bank of Switzerland, Schweizerische Bankgesellschaft) merges with Swiss Bank Corporation (Schweizerischer Bankverein) 8 December, 1997, forms second biggest bank in the world, 79; (see Ospel, Marcel), illustration 22; outgoing chairman, ex-Bundesrat Kaspar Villiger shakes hand with CEO Sergio Ermotti, 208; international treaty with USA settles culpability for tax evasion, 88; former State Secretary Michael Ambühl seeks treaty with USA not subject to referendum, 114; estimates loss to Swiss economy from floating Swiss franc, 199; denies responsibility for Swissair collapse, 202; loses $40 billion on mortgages and Swiss National bank bails out, 205; Adoboli loses $3.75 billion in speculation 205–06; Bradley Birkenfeld reveals UBS help to clients to evade US taxation, 206; US demands disclosure of 52 000 accounts, 207; pays biggest fine in history at the time, 208; emergency meeting in Singapore names Sergio Ermotti new CEO (2011), 208–09; FIMMA to regulate 212–13; settles with German tax authorities, 214–15
- United States of America, 172; relative decline of, 7; Swiss upper house like the Senate, 46; US states' constitutional rights and cantonal rights, 89; Constitution hallowed unlike Swiss record of decisions, 110; Federal Councillors enjoy respect like the President of, 110, 123; Swiss pharmaceutical giants compete with, 190, 192; accusations against Swiss pharma companies, 192, 193; Swatch Group reserve brand Longine for, 195; takes 10% of Swiss watch production, 196; Bretton Woods fixes value of dollar, 203; Switzerland benefits from, 270; ends convertibility into gold (1971) 75; UBS buys firms in, 79; Department of Justice accuses UBS of helping US tax-evaders, 114; UBS surrenders accounts to, 207; signs agreement with Switzerland (2013) on prosecution of Swiss banks, 88, 114, 210, 323; FACTA applies to Switzerland (2013), 246; US income per head (1973) 171; Swiss National Bank governors did PhDs in, 211; evangelical 'revival' in 225; Swiss emigration to (1850–1914), 246, 265; Swiss women better status than in 126
- Unterwalden, original member of Swiss Confederation, 30; Illustration 1; Rütli Oath, (1291) 16; agree to no foreign judges in the valleys, 21; community still exists today, 22, 35, 309; Italian 'patriots'

- seize representatives of (1798), 12; Conservative Catholicism in, 97
- Uri, the Gotthard Pass Canton, 36, 262; annexes the Valle Leventina in Ticino 8, 11; Leventina opts to stay under, (1798) 251; and most Germanised of Ticino districts, 252; obtains Reich 'freedom' from Emperor, 15, 20; Figure 1, 'Representatives of Uri, Schwyz, and Unterwalden meet' on shores of Lake Lucern, 16; swears oath to allow no foreign judges in the valleys, 21; still exists today, 22, 35; Hasli Valley also Imperial 'free' like Uri 25; remains strongly Catholic, 38, 97; Uri battalion 87; at Guisan's 1940 renewal of the Rütli Oath, 69; votes to limit immigration (2014) Table 7, 132
- Val Blenio, (TI) 11
- Valais, canton: 11, 97, 162, 246; (1814) becomes canton in post-war confederation, 41; joins Sonderbund, 43; village communities important in, 47; dialect still used in, 160; among most conservative religiously and politically, 167; Catholics a majority in, 217; Order of St Pius X in, 235
- Valtellina, Italian valley, 8, 9
- Varrin, Bernard, leader of Béliers, violent separatists in Jura, 105
- Vatican (synonym for papacy), Swiss patriots resist authority of, 97; attempts to evade rights of Cathedral Chapter in Chur, 231, 233; concordat with Swiss cantons (1828) 223, 225; rejects modern world in 1860s and 1870s, 229
- Vatican City, 26, 173
- Vatican Councils, First (1870) 231; Second (1962–66) 233; Archbishop Lefebvre rejects, 235; includes laity, 240
- Vellerat (JU) 70 voters opt to join Jura, 108–9
- Verheugen, Günter, (1944–), German politician and member of European Commission (1999–2010) 301–2
- Vesalius, Andreas (1514–64) publishes first edition in Basel, 187
- Vichy, pro-Nazi regime and town, 69
- Vienna, stock exchange crash (1873), 51
- Vienna, Congress of (1814–15), 8, 42, 103
- Villiger, Kaspar (1941–) Federal Councillor (1989–2003) Chairman of UBS, (2009–12), admits guilt (1995) in treatment of Jews in World War 2; figure 22; greets Sergio Ermotti as new CEO of UBS, 208
- Villmergen Wars (1656 and 1712) 36
- Vinet, Alexandre (1797–1847) Swiss theologian on the Protestant individual, 227
- Visp (VS), Battle of (1388), 25
- Vocabolario dei dialetti della Svizzera italiana*, 153
- Vogel, Bishop Hansjörg, (1951–) resigns as Bishop of Basel because of an affair (1995), 232
- Vonderach, Johannes (1916–94) bishop of Chur, 233
- Vorarlberg, Austrian province, Versailles conference (1919) denies wish to join Switzerland, 8
- Waltz, Pierre, general director, Société suisse pour l'industrie horlogère, on effect of strong franc (1973) on watch exports, 193
- Watch industry, 17, 72; absence of guilds in poor communities, favours, 39, 57; depression of 1929 and 59; Swiss franc rise after 1971 destroys, 75, 185–6, 193; as symbol of Swiss skills, 83; Grenchen centre for machinery of, 97; Swatch group in Biel/Bienne, 166; traditional production in small workshops or in homes, 175–6; half of all workers before 1914 travailleurs à domicile, 176; Swiss production dominates after 1945, 176; anarchism and 177–8; no self-image as wage-worker, 180; perfect Swiss product, little raw material, value in skill, 181; post-war boom in 184; collapse and recovery of (1973–2015) one of the greatest successes in industrial history, 193–200; see entry under Landes, David.
- Wattenwyl, von, a distinguished Bernese patrician dynasty, 221
- Weakland, Rembert George, O.S.B. (1927–) controversial Benedictine archbishop of Milwaukee (1977–2002) and advocate of church reform, involved in recent years in sexual abuse scandals, 233
- Wegelin & Co, founded 1741 in St Gallen, the oldest private bank in Switzerland, pleads guilty to helping US clients evade taxes, 207–08; (see Bank Frey)
- Weibel-Spring, Rolf, (1939–) Swiss theologian and journalist 240
- Weimar, Germany: Schiller's William Tell first performed in (March 1804) 15

386 Index

- Weimar Republic, neo-orthodox theology impact in, 229
- Weissenburg, lords of sell Hasli Valley to Bern, 25
- Weizsäcker, Ernst Heinrich Freiherr von (1892–1951) Nazi State Secretary in Foreign Office, describes Switzerland as ‘indigestible lump’ not worth invading, 72
- Welch, John Francis ‘Jack, (1935–) CEO of General Electric (1981–2001), EU blocks Honeywell merger, 291
- Welle, Klaus (1964–) Secretary General of the European Parliament, 299
- Weltwoche*, die, Swiss weekly, Rico Bandle on the Grüniger case in, 64; Roger Köppel, editor-in-chief and proprietor, writes on initiative of 9 February, 2014, 116; editorial conference at, in which dialect and written German spoken, 144
- Westphalia, Peace of (1648), 34
- Wettstein, Johann Rudolf (1594–1666), Mayor of Basel, Swiss representative at Westphalia, negotiates Swiss freedom from Imperial law, 34
- Widmer, Paul, (1949–) diplomat and author, argues that Switzerland a Sonderfall 81
- Widmer, Thomas (1963–) Swiss political scientist, 52
- Widmer-Schlumpf, Eveline (1956–) finance minister, elected to Bundesrat as SVP candidate and defeats Blocher, 118; 2011 re-elected on first ballot with 131 votes, 119; now represents a Graubünden party (BDP), 124; defends FINMA against critics in Ständerat, 213; Lega dei Ticinesi mock and insult, 276; refuses to act on tax demands in Ticino, 280
- Willisau (LU), formerly divided into Willisau-Stadt and Willisau-Land united by referendum (2006), 96, 323, 338, n. 26
- Wolfenschiessen, medieval family in Nidwalden, 20
- Württemberg, Kingdom of, Napoleon allows to incorporate small imperial states, 223
- Yverdon-les-Bains (VD) converted to Protestantism, 19
- Zanetti, Dott. Flavio, (1935–) Swiss journalist and author, how other Swiss find Ticino ‘a little paradise’, 156
- Zemp, Josef (1834–1908) first Catholic Conservative elected to the Federal Council, 52
- Zimmermann, Rolf, historian of the Swiss National Bank, 210
- Zimmerwald (BE) site of conference (1915) of exiled Russian revolutionaries 56
- Zinoviev, G. Y. (1883–1936) member of first Soviet Politburo 56
- Zug, canton and city, joins Swiss Confederation (1352), 9; remains Catholic during Reformation, 31 and today 217; signs Trücklibund (1715), 37; unrest in city in eighteenth century, 38; pre-1798, mini-confederation of with three independent peasant republics, 40; joins Sonderbund, 43–4; one of three German-speaking cantons to vote No in initiative against mass immigration (2014), 48, 131, Table 7, 132; description of constitution and politics of, 89–90; constitutional definition of Gemeinde, 90–91; canton careful to respect communes: example of an exception, 92; dialect of 143; became part (1828) of new diocese of Basel, 226
- Zürich, City and Canton, Schwyz appeals to for food sixteenth century, 19; joins Confederation (1351), 25; silk industry in 26; between Alpine and German economies, 27; Old Zürich War (1430–1450) 29; Zwingli preaches in Grossmünster in, 31, 219; pro-Swedish faction during Thirty Years War, 33; guarantees new Geneva constitution (1738), guild constitution in, 40; became one of three Director Cantons (Vorort) after 1815, 42; revolution in (1830) 42; revises constitution (1863), people sovereign in, 47–48, 307; votes No in initiative to halt immigration (2014), 48, 131; Table 7, 132; General Strike in, 58; communists in office (1920s and 1930s); Blocher transforms SVP in, 78, 117, 129–131, 135; citizens vote very often 85–6; size of canton, 89; Zürich freisinnige differ from other Liberal parties, 96; growth of 98–9; description of politics in, 98–100; small cantons can block action by the biggest, 112; Die Weltwoche published in, 116; Blocher lives in Herrliberg on ‘Gold Coast’ in, 134; Zürich dialect 142, 145, 153; Parents win initiative to stop High German in kindergarten against cantonal experts, 149–50; experiments with

- English as second language, 159;
 Tamedia of Zürich controls French Swiss press, 163; 'everybody speaks French' in, 164; University of Zürich accepts PhD in three national languages and English, 168; cotton textile industry in nineteenth century in, 178; London-Frankfurt-Zürich flights not possible after vote against European Economic Area (1992), 192; Swiss National Bank headquarters in, 211–12; Enlightenment impact on, 221; Zürich in diocese of Chur; Kulturkampf in, 230–31; Bishop Haas and the Catholic population of Zürich in conflict, 234–5; religious affiliation in both confessions has fallen, 238–9;
- Zürich Cantonal Bank and tax evasions 248; cantonal identity and Swiss identity, 307; Zürich school board refuses to approve Islamic school, 313
 Zürich Cantonal Bank: put in Category One 'under investigation' for aiding US citizens to evade taxes 246
 Zwingli, Ulrich (1484–1531) Protestant reformer, portrait of, p. 32; dislikes neutrality in religious wars, 14; declares the Word of God (1519) 31, 219, 227; killed in battle 1531, 33; accepts Catholic rights to share in government of subject territories, 172; Second Helvetic Confession compromises with Calvinism (1566) 220