

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
Contributors	xi
Bringing Cultural Analysis to the Study of Cause Lawyers: An Introduction	1
Austin Sarat and Stuart Scheingold
PART I THE CULTURAL WORK OF CAUSE LAWYERS
1 “No sacrifice is too great for the Cause!”: Cause(less) Lawyering and the Legal Trials and Tribulations of Gone With the Wind	27
William P. MacNeil
2 Purpose-Driven Lawyers: Evangelical Cause Lawyering and the Culture War	56
Kevin R. den Dulk
3 Cause Lawyers and Cracker Culture at the Constructive Edge: A “Band of Brothers” Defeats Big Tobacco	79
Tim Howard
PART II THE CULTURAL CONSTRUCTION OF LAWYERS AND THEIR CAUSES
4 “They all have different policies, so of course they have to give different news”: Images of Human Rights Lawyers in the British Press	141
Richard J. Maiman
	vii

viii	Contents
5 Ed Fagan and the Ethics of Causes: Who Stole Identity Politics? Valerie Karno	172
6 Of Windmills and Wetlands: The Press and the Romance of Property Rights Laura J. Hatcher	188
7 “The Kids are Alright”: Cause Lawyering on Television in 1960s America Thomas M. Hilbink	203
8 Nothing to Believe In – Lawyers in Contemporary Films About Public Interest Litigation Michael McCann and William Haltom	230
9 “Of course he just stood there; he’s the law”: Two Depictions of Cause Lawyers in Post-Authoritarian Chile Stephen Meili	253
10 Paulina Escobar as Cause Lawyer: “Litigating” Human Rights in the Shadows of Death and the Maiden Ben Fleury-Steiner and Aaron Fichtelberg	278
PART III THE CULTURAL RECEPTION OF LAWYERS AND THEIR CAUSES
11 Cause Lawyering “English Style”: Reading Rumpole of the Bailey Leslie J. Moran	297
12 Now You See It, Now You Don’t: Cause Lawyering, Popular Culture, and A Civil Action Stuart A. Scheingold	331
13 Not What They Expected: Legal Services Lawyers in the Eyes of Legal Services Clients Corey S. Shdaimah	359
Index	389