Contents

List of illustrations  page xi
Contributors  xiii
Acknowledgments  xvii
Chronology of John Wesley  xix
Abbreviations  xxi

Introduction  1
RANDY L. MADDOX AND JASON E. VICKERS

Part I. Wesley’s context
1. The long eighteenth century  13
   JEREMY GREGORY

Part II. Wesley’s life
2. Wesley’s life and ministry  43
   KENNETH J. COLLINS
3. Wesley in context  60
   DAVID N. HEMPTON

Part III. Wesley’s work
4. Wesley as revivalist/renewal leader  81
   CHARLES I. WALLACE JR.
5. Wesley as preacher  98
   WILLIAM J. ABRAHAM
6. Wesley as biblical interpreter  113
   ROBERT W. WALL
7. John Wesley as diarist and correspondent  129
   TED A. CAMPBELL
8. John Wesley as editor and publisher  144
   ISABEL RIVERS
x Contents

9. Wesley’s engagement with the natural sciences 160
   RANDY L. MADDOW
10. Wesley as adviser on health and healing 176
    DEBORAH MADDEN
11. Wesley’s theological emphases 190
    JASON E. VICKERS
12. Happiness, holiness, and the moral life in John Wesley 207
    REBEKAH L. MILES
13. Wesley’s emphases on worship and the means of grace 225
    KAREN B. WESTERFIELD TUCKER

Part IV. Wesley’s legacy

14. Spread of Wesleyan methodism 245
    KENNETH CRACKNELL
15. The holiness/pentecostal/charismatic extension of the Wesleyan tradition 262
    RANDALL J. STEPHENS
16. The African American wing of the Wesleyan tradition 282
    DENNIS C. DICKERSON
17. Current debates over Wesley’s legacy among his progeny 298
    SARAH H. LANCASTER

Select bibliography 317
Index 323