

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

Index

---

- Aachen, wool manufacturing centre, 49 affluent masters, 82, 91 agency costs, 30, 36. See also guilds and craft guilds
 Alpine mining, 61
 Alps, cotton processing north of, 50
 Altena, scythe makers in, 137
 Amiens, guild obscurantism proof, 65
 Amsterdam craft training, 10
   glass bead manufacturing, 211
   labour mobility, 16
   market for paintings, 146–148, 161–162, 165 and membership regulations, 154
   painters' guild, 152–154
   tailors guild, 8
 Ancien Régime guilds, 22
 Antwerp building trades, 91 clothing industry, 15–16, 89*n* dyeing industry, 96
   linen weaving, 106
   linen weaving industry and guilds, 106, 111 silk weaving, 105, 109, 180*n*
   woolen clothes, 95
   collaborative painting, 93
   furniture manufacturing, 93 labor migration, 74 luxury goods manufacturing, 105, 167
   market for paintings, 146–147, 149
   decline, 152
   painters' guild, 162
 apprenticeship, 7, 9, 26, 237, 239, 279, 281, 282, 316 alternatives to guild-based, 10 and apprentices' opportunism, 61 and guilds, 7 and rate of attrition, 9
   and skills provision, 56, 63 contracts, 156, 191, 197, 214 female apprentices, 116*n* patterns of, 323 rights of apprentices, 62
   apprenticeship rules, 59, 60, 212
   apprenticing laws, 56
   armor making Cologne and Nuremberg, 85
   armourers groups, comprise of, 91
Arte della Seta (silk makers' guild), 42 artisan entrepreneurs commodity production, 12 effect of economic progress, 316 entrepreneurial masters, 60 exclusion from wholesale trade, 98–99 exploitation of, 187
   financial aids from authorities, 249–250 impact of frauds by rivals, 299–300 impact of patents, 221–222, 261 initiatives for industrial development, 110–111, 251, 255, 258–259 membership in craft guilds, 32 migration, 17, 74–75, 78, 141–142 impact of political turmoil, 217–218 opposition to innovations, 67 production risk, 12 punishments on quality issues, 41 and putting-out system, 85–86, 109, 228 quality control measures, 45, 308 restrictions on gains, 40, 82 and subcontracting, 83–84, 87–95, 100–107 trade unionism, 339
 artisan migration, technological and skills transfer, 75. See also skilled labor mobility, in pre-industrial Europe Asian silk textiles, 210
 astronomical clock dial, making of, 265
 Augsburg, 17, 48
   clock making in, 267
   master weavers in, 103
   ribbon weavers and their decline, 183, 184
   silk ribbon masters, 180
   success and decline of dial making in, 286
   textile journeymen in, 121, 122, 125, 133 travelling goldsmiths in, 122, 123

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

344 Index

- autonomous masters, 91
- balance makers, in Paris, 268
- Basel
- compositional practices, 138
  - non-guilded industries, 188–192
  - papermaking craft, 134
  - silk ribbon weaving industry, 47, 49, 182, 194
- bead making, 219*n*
- Berlin weavers, 116
- Bielefeld, industrial centre, 49
- Black Death (1348–1350), 62
- Black Forest, 99, 121, 141
- Blois, clock making in, 267
- Bohemia
- glass industry, 134–134*n*, 207, 225–226, 226*n*
  - labour mobility, 121, 125
  - linen weaving, 38–39, 49
- Bologna, 27
- leather industry in, 11
  - silk industry in, 33, 97
- Bosch, Hieronymus, 146
- Brabant, Duchy of, 100
- painters from, 146
- brassware production, 85
- Braunschweig
- brassware production in, 85
  - master clothiers, 103
- Breckerfeld
- guild for smiths, 37
  - steel production in, 37
- Britain
- craft guilds of, 4
  - instrument making in, 267
- brocade making, conflicts
- diffusion policy due to, 253
  - introduction of flying shuttle, 254
  - issues related to secrecy, 256, 257
  - priority issues, due to, 254, 256
  - record keeping issues, 254, 255
  - registration practices issues, 255, 256
  - subcontracting, due to, 253
  - vertical conflicts, 257, 260
- Brueghel, Pieter, 146
- Bruges, 90, 100, 146, 162, 167
- cloth industry and manufacturers, 100
  - fustian weaving and guilds, 109
  - zingas*, famous for, 106
- building trades, subcontracting urban industry, 90
- Butterfield, Michael, 271
- Cajés, Eugenio, 167
- calico-printing establishments, 29
- calicos, printed, 174
- capital-intensive trades, 90
- case makers' guild, 41
- catasto* or tax survey of, 1425–27, 97
- cercle*, 22
- charitable institutions, 10
- clock and watch making
- Augsburg clock making, decline, 279
  - different mechanisms in, 264, 265, 269
  - guild opposition to innovations, 269
  - apprenticeship and transfer of skills, 278, 279
  - Clay, Charles, case of, 274, 275, 276
  - Huygen, Christiaan, case of, 269, 271
  - Marshall, John, case of, 272, 274
  - pattern of opposition, 274
  - views of David Landes and Klaus Maurice, 276
- introduction of pendulums, 269, 270
- purpose of, 265
- relation with horology and instrument-making, 266
- trade regulation in the industry, 266, 267
- vs. instrument making, 267, 269
- Clockmakers' Company, 274, 329–30
- clock making industry and guilds, 5, 14
- cloth finishers' guild, 96
- cloth industry
- catasto* or tax survey of 1425–27, 97
  - dominated by trading firms, 97
  - manufacturing groups in, 101
- coach making, and guilds, 12
- coal mining, 88
- collaborative painting, 93
- collective contracts, 39. See also Craft guilds
- Cologne
- armour making in, 85
  - bans of 1685 and 1719, 183
  - centres for production of silk ribbons, 180, 182
- craft guilds in, 37
- in late medieval time, 102
  - opposition to Dutch looms in, 47
  - ribbon weaving in, 48, 190, 192, 196
  - silk industry of, 189
  - silk ribbon masters, 180
  - tanners shows, 94
  - trading centre of, 91
  - wool weavers, 104
- Common Council, in London, 98
- construction work, and division of labour, 14
- Continental Europe, guilds abolition in, 3
- conventers vs. proletarianised masters, 100
- corporate framework, 82
- County of Flanders, 100
- craft guilds, 1, 6, 32, 53. See also guilds, decline of; craft guilds, demise/abolition of process acceptance and techniques, 65

- and putting-out and subcontracting arrangements in, 88
- and technical secret, 77
- as rent-seekers, 78
- control on agency costs and co-ordination issues, 41, 47
- economic effects of, 3, 25, 27, 34
- for delegated monitoring, 36–38
  - drafting collective contracts, 38
  - for transmitting skills, 64
- impact on costs, 48
- impact on economic growth, 82
- imperial cities and Roman Empire, 179
- in late eighteenth century, 25
- in London, 13, 98
  - conditions for success, 306–309, 311, 312
  - disagreements in the guild, 185, 186
  - Goldsmiths' and the Pewterers' companies, 293, 294, 296–299, 301
  - incorporation in provinces, 291–293
  - and national jurisdictions, 288, 290
  - of Painters and Stainers, 168
  - and riots, 186, 187
  - Stationers' company and company of framework knitters, 301–305
  - stratas, 184, 185
- in promotion of human capital, 26
- in twelfth and thirteenth centuries, 66
- incremental evolution from to firms, 49
- key functions associated with, 53, 54, 56
- multiple measurement and vertical integration of production, 40, 44
- political influence in middle ages, 84
- response to technological developments, 46, 47
- technological transfer and, 75
- urban and rural, 36
- vs. political guilds, 32
- craft guilds, demise/abolition of, 172
  - ban in German Imperial cities, 181, 182, 183, 184
  - dissolution of guilds, 173
  - emergence of non-guilded industries, 188, 189, 190, 192
  - internal structure of craft guilds, 178, 179
  - London craft guilds' dissolution, 184, 185, 186, 187
  - political influence, 179
  - response to technology, 177
    - and employment structure changes, 177
    - costs and market segmentation, 176, 177
    - industrial and product upgrading, 175, 176
  - type of technological innovation, 177, 178
- craft industry, oligopolistic structure of, 60*n*
- craft-based corporations
  - in Paris, 89
  - subcontracting configurations in, 84, 88, 95
- craft-based entrepreneurship, 104
- craft-based invention
  - and technological diffusion and sources, 74–77, 131–139
- crafts
  - and tacit knowledge, 14
  - approach for investment in capital-intensive machinery, 66
  - innovation and gains from, 70
  - labour migration, 10
  - masters, regional and national associations, 63
  - opposition to capital-intensive innovations by poor, 67
  - production and contribution of guilds, 11
  - production characteristics, 5
  - craft-specific skills, 61
- credit management, by guilds, 38
- crystal working, 219*n*
- Curriers' Company, 333
- cutlery manufacture, Passau, 85

- D'Abbaco, Iseppo, 229
- Datini, the, 97
- David, Gerard, 146, 166
- Del Bene, the, 97
- Delft
  - guild, 148, 164
  - masters, 165
- dial making, success and decline of, 285, 286
- Dijck, Antonie van, 169
- Dortmund, in fourteenth-century, 103
- draw looms, 240
- drawing instruments, 265
- Dutch golden age, of paintings, 144, 146
- Dutch guilds
  - artistic history, 144–146
  - membership regulations, 154, 157, 171
  - painters' guilds, 14
  - restrictive policies, 68
  - shipbuilding and windmill technology, 73
  - tailors' guilds, 8
- Dutch loom, in Cologne, 47
- Dutch Republic, 21
- Dutch Republic's Golden Age, 73
- Dutch shipbuilding, 3n*, 18, 73

- Edinburgh, clock making in, 267
- El Greco, 167

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

346 Index

- enforcement costs, 30 engine loom technology, 173 and apogee of Baroque court culture, 174 ban of engine loom products, 180, 181 consequences of state-wise campaigns, 182, 184 rationale, 181
     state-wise campaigns, 182 first phase of diffusion process for European silk industry, 173, 174 in silk ribbon production, 175 introduction of multiple looms, 173 supply shifts, 174
 England. See also London apprentices, 8 features of, 70
   guilds, 1, 22
     decline of, 21, 111 painting industry in, 168, 169 entrepreneurial master artisans, see artisan entrepreneurs Europe, 288*n*
   clothing trade in, 15 countryside and proto-industry emergence, 20 in pre-modern time and guilds subcontracting practices, 87 urban industries and guilds dominance, 5 export-oriented crafts and guilds, 92, 102 export-oriented industries and trades, 27 putting-out and subcontracting role, 84, 85, 86, 88
 Eyck, Jan van, 146, 166

fabrique, 34, 35
 female workers, migration pattern of, 121 firms
   as centralised organisation, 31 concepts and structure of, 29, 30 modern theory of, 29 monitoring in, 30
   multiple measurement and vertical integration, 30 Flanders, 27
   painters from, 146
   wool cloth towns, 33
   wool textile industry, 36
 Flax cultivation, 106
 Florence, 59
   silk guild, statutes of, 75*n*
   silk industry in, 97
fluitschip (flute ship), contribution to Dutch trade, 15 forced migration, 134
 France, See also silk industry; Lyon and abolishment of, 1 commercial administration, 236 engine loom in, 195
   glassmaking in, 219
   guilds, 236
   silk trade in, 238
 Frankfurt cow-hide tanners, 116
 Franson, Nicolaus, 123
 Fugger, family, 96
 furniture making, and subcontracting networks, 93
 fustian weaving and weavers, 132

 Gelderland (Netherlands), linen weavers guilds in, 40
 Geneva
   clock making in, 267
   guilds in, 41, 42, 43
   manufacturing centres of, 28
   watch making, 41
 Genoa, silk industry in, 97
 German Hanseatic League, 104
 German historical school, 28
 German Imperial towns, 179
 German master wool weavers, 102
 German weavers, 133
 Germany, 16
geschenkte crafts, 118–119, 130, 136–139
 Glasgow, clock making in, 267 glass industries, 4, 5, 19
 Goes, Hugo van der, 146
 goldsmith guilds, 13
 goldsmith works, in Lucca, 85
 Goyen, Jan van, 147
 Grande Fabrique, 232, 235, 237 guild-based apprenticeship, and alternatives to, 10 guild-based export industries, 94
   subcontracting in, 111
 guild-based export trades, 82, 88, 109 and subcontracting influence, 88 guild-based production and sub-contracting, 12 guild-based ribbon makers, 47 guild-based subcontracting, 86 guild-based textile trades, 97 master artisans as entrepreneurs, 100, 107 merchant capital and subcontracting, 95, 100 guild-induced sclerosis, 72 guild-ridden Europe, 20
 guilds, See also craft guilds; crafts abolishment in France, 1 administrative limitations and disagreements in, 64 alternatives to charitable institutions, 10
     Civic Orphanage, 10 organisation, 4
   and labour mobility, 16

- and objection to new techniques, 74
- and political favors, 33
- and role of their environment, 45
- and technological conservatism, 17, 18
- and pre-industrial economy, 7
- apprenticeship arrangements, 7, 9
- artisan emigration banned by, 75
- artisans and journeyman migration effects, 78
- as rent-seeking institutions, 54
- autonomous regulation vs. state control, 34
- coercion by, 60
- conservatism approach, 69
  - and impact on Italian economy, 72
- coordination by, 13
- differentiation process, 33
- dominance to proto-industry, 20
- economic functions, 4, 11
- foundations, 21
- innovation theory, 66
- knowledge, protection and sharing, 14
- male domination of, 9
- membership and influence of origin and religion, 9, 10
- negative aspects of, 1, 55
- non-collective social benefits, 55
- produced and adopted innovations, 73
- protectionism by, 69
- regulations for product specifications and quality
  - for goods, 40
- relationship with state, 68
- response to technological innovations, 64–66
- role and support in promoting innovation, 7, 76
- significance to urban life, 2
- smiths, promoting steel production, 37
- state-sponsored and state-regulated, 35
  - for reducing production problems, 44
- types of alternatives to, 20, 24
- urban vs. rural, 36
- virtues and weaknesses of, 49
- welfare-enhancing functions of, 55
- guilds, decline of, 80*n*, 316
  - civil war impact, 325, 326
  - Great Fire impact, 327, 328
  - historiography of decline, 325
    - abuses in regulation of urban markets, 319, 320
    - and Common Council Act of 1750, 331
    - case of Coachmakers' Company, 335, 336
    - companies role, 335, 336, 337, 338
    - different companies role, 335
    - due to economic regulations, 323, 324
    - guild regulatory powers' role, 321
    - impact of Great Reform Act of 1832, 318
    - industrial development, 330
    - laissez faire* capitalism, 317, 318, 319
    - patterns of apprenticeships, 323
    - practice of licensing, 335
    - refusal to form incorporation of groups, 329, 330
    - regulatory powers' role, 322, 323
    - resistance to new technology, 328, 329, 330
    - state interventions, 320, 321
    - trade unions role, 318, 319
    - works of Unwin George, 320, 321
- impact of social change, 338, 339, 340, 341
  - ups and downs in guild regulation, 325, 326, 327, 338
- gunnery and architecture instruments, 265
- Haarlem, 190
  - apprentices in, 155–157
  - art market in, 146, 165
  - corporations of, 154
  - famous for marine and landscape painters, 165
  - painters guilds in, 151, 155, 158, 159, 162, 164
  - engine loom use for silk weaving, 174
  - statutes in artistic training, 157
- Hague, The, art market in, 164–165
- Hamburg tanners, 116
- Hammermen's corporation and clock-making industry, 267
- hammer-smiths, in Siegerland, 136
- Hautefeuille, Jean de, 271
- Hayes, Walter, 286
- heavy metal industry, 88
- Hening, Johann C., 123
- high-quality masonry skills, 61
- Holland shipwrights, 18
- Holy Roman Empire, 16, 99. See also Germany
- Hooke, Robert, 271
- Hôpital de la Trinité, Paris, 10
- horology in early modern Europe, 265
- household-workshop system, 82
- Huguenot migrations, 74
- Huygens, Christiaan
  - innovation of balance-spring regulator, 270
  - introduction of pendulum, 14, 269, 270
  - other innovations, 271
  - trade octroy or privilege for pendulum, 269
    - in France, 270
    - in London, 270
- Huygens-type microscopes, 271

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

348 Index

- Imperial cities, German, 179, 180
 Augsburg, 180
 decline of engine loom use, 183, 184
 decline of guild-based ribbon manufacturing, 183, 184
 Cologne, 180, 182
 decline of engine loom use, 183
 establishment of silk ribbon industry, 182 statutes for engine loom use, 183
 Nuremberg, 180
- Industrial Revolution and demise of guild, 22 role of skilled craftsmen and innovators, 80
- instrument makers' guilds, 14
- instrument making control of industry
 by guild, 280
 by Pascal vs. Rouen guild, 281 effects of guild control in trade, 284 guild opposition to innovation, 268, 269, 286 case of Clay, 274, 276 case of Huygens, Christiaan, 269, 271 case of Jodin, Jean, 277, 278 case of Marshall, John, 272, 274 case of Tompian, Thomas, 276, 277 division of labour, 282, 284
 pattern of opposition, 274 related to apprentices training and skills transmission, 278, 279, 281, 282
 views of David Landes and Klaus Maurice, 276
- in Britain, 267
- in European countries, 4
- in Nuremberg, 268
- innovations, 271, 272
- success and decline of dial making in Nuremberg, 284, 285
- vs. clock and watch making, 267
- intra-firm contracts, 30
- Ireland, 27
- iron bars production, 35
- iron goods industries, north-western Germany, 36
- iron-making, 61
- Italy, 17. See also Venice; Milan; Florence manufacturing towns in, 28
 Milanese woollen producers in, 72*n* skilled labour migration in, 133
- jewelers guilds, 41
- journeymen, 82
 role in guild decline, 330, 331 attack on Common Council Act of 1750, 331, 332 legal actions against strikes, 333, 334 wage demands and rights, 332, 333
- journeymen organisations, in various places, 63
- Knibbergen, Francois, 147
- knowledge sharing, 14
- Krakow painters, 117
- Krefeld
 non-guided industries, 188–192
 silk-ribbon weaving industry, 47
- labour-intensive export trades, 108, 109
- land surveying instruments, 265
- Landes, David, 2
- Languedoc, wool weaving areas of, 28
lavoranti, 97
- leather industry, in Bologna, 11
- Leiden, textile industry, 109
- light drapery industry, 101, 102
- Lille, municipal authorities, 102
- linen, 106
- linen-weaving industry, 122, 190
 in eighteenth-century Antwerp, 106, 111 weavers guilds, in Gelderland (Netherlands), 40
- Liverymen, London craft guild, 185
- London, 59
 clock making in, 267
 company of clock-makers, sundial makers, 264 craft guilds. See craft guilds, in London
 London Goldsmiths' Company, 13, 16
 London livery companies, 323, 325, 326, 327
- Lübeck, candlemakers, 117
- Lucca, silk industry in, 97
- Lüneburg shoemakers, 117
- luxury trades, subcontracting arrangements, 91
- Lyon, 232
 apprenticeship, journeyman and masterpiece, 237 brocade making, innovation in, 240, 241 collective practices of innovation, 248–251, 253; patterns, 251 horizontal conflicts, 253–257 negotiation of technical utility, 245, 246, 248 public support management, 242–245
 vertical conflicts, 257, 260
 capital investments, 239
 clock making in, 267
 guilds and innovation, 234, 236
 institutionalization of silk fabrics, 237 inventors, poor and high quality, 249 making of silk brocades, 240, 241, 242 manufacturing centres, 28
 manufacturing of silk, 15, 22, 48 mechanical engineering sector, 252

- merchandising of products, 239, 240 regulations, 238
 silk cloth weaving and, 33
 silk industry, 232
 sub-contracted workers, 237, 238
 success, 232, 233
- Mander, Karel van, 150
- master artisans, 82
 and access to foreign markets, 84 and guild-based restrictions, 82 and subcontracting networks, 84, 86 categories of, 82
- master clothiers, in Braunschweig, 103
- master ebony woodworker, 94
- master silk weavers, 98
- master tailors, 16
- master weaver, as entrepreneurs, see artisan entrepreneurs
- master wool weavers, late medieval Cologne in, 102
- mathematical artisans, 265*n*
- Memling, Hans, 166
- Mendelschen Zwölfbrüderstiftung* manuscript, 137
- merchant-entrepreneurs, 12, 97
- merchants, 82
- metal industry, 5
 Berg, and semi-autonomous guilds, 35 industries and rural guilds, 37 metal trades, putting-out and subcontracting networks in fourteenth century, 85 metal working craft (Metall Fabrique), 137 metal working, and division of labour, 14
- Meyer, Dietrich, 16
- Michelangelo, 166
- microscope, 271
- Middleburg, art market in, 165
- migration, See crafts; skilled immigrants
- Milan
 silk industry in, 97
 wool trades in, 33
- mining, and division of labour, 14
- mirror makers' guild split, 219*n*
- modern European textile manufacture, 173
- modern London apprentice, 65
- Mokyr, Joel, view about guilds, 2
- Moreelse, Paulus, 156
- multiple Jacquard loom, 194
- navigation instruments, 265
- négociants* (major trading companies), 105
- negotiation costs, 30
- Netherlands, 14
 Netherlandish painters, 165
 Netherlandish paintings, 146
- Neuss, Peter, 123
- non-guild professional institutions, 10
- Normandy, 27
- North, Douglass, institutional economics, 4
- northern Netherlands, guilds in, 45
- Nuremberg
 armour making, 85
 clock and instrument making, 266, 268
Compassmakers, 284 decline in, 285–286
 cutlery production, 138
geschenkte crafts, 136, 137 influence of local politics, 99
 instrument making in, 268
 labour mobility, 115, 122*n*, 123, 127
 technological diffusion via travel, 131, 134, 136–137
- linen and fustian manufacturing, 38 production of silk ribbons, 180 prohibition on horizontal subcontracting by guildsmen, 99
 success and decline of dial making in, 284, 285, 287
 wire makers in, 71*n*
- oligopolistic firms, 60*n*
- one-off protectionism, by guilds, 69
- orphanages, training by, 11
- outsourcing practices, 12
- Pacheco, Francisco, 168
- painting industry, 146, 147
 Brabantine painting, 146 collapse, 150
 customers, 148, 150
 export, 149
 Flemish painting, 146
 in Holland, 4 market for, 147
 Netherlandish painting, 146
 painters' guild, 151, 154
 apprenticeship contracts, 156
 Brabant and Flanders, 166
 Delft guild, 164
 Dutch guilds, 154
 Flemish guild, 167
 London's guild of Painters and Stainers, 168 role in controlling the market, 154, 158, 161 role in promoting quality, 164, 169 role in stimulating demand, 161, 164
 Seville's community of painters, 168
 Spanish art, 165, 167
 Utrecht, 156
- productivity of Dutch painters, 147, 148
- themes, 148

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

350 Index

- Pandten*, 166
 Paris, Hôpital de la Trinité in, 10
 Parisian clothing trade, 15
 Passau, cutlery industry in, 85
 Passemant, Claude Siméon, 271
 pendulum clock, 14
 Philippe Danfrie's graphometer, 272
 Porcellis, Jan, 147
 portable sundial making, 284
 pre-industrial crafts, and transferable skills in, 57
 pre-industrial economy guilds role and, 7
 pre-industrial Europe, 17 industrial innovation process, 5
   subcontracting in, 107
 pre-industrial products, 6
 pre-industrial urban economies, subcontracting significance, 83
 pre-modern Europe guild-based export trades in, 108 pre-modern industries, in traded goods, 5 printing industry, 5
 proletarianised masters, 82, 91
 propositional knowledge, 6 proto-industrialisation, 28, 78, 79
   and guild's role, 11 early regional export industries, 28 public authorities, 82 putting-out system, 49, 79, 85
   advantages of, 86
   concept of, 83
   influence in rural areas, 85
   vs. modern firms, 32
- Quare, Daniel, patent for portable barometers, 274
 QWERTY phenomena, 74
- reflecting telescopes, 271
Reichsstädte, 32 rent-seeking guilds, 47
 Rhineland journeymen, statutes of (Rheinische Knechteordnung), 118 ribbon-making, Dutch or engine, looms, 67
 Römer, Lukas, 123
 Rouen, clock making in, 267
 Rox, Peter, 123
 Royal Academy of Arts, 169
- Saint Lucas guilds, 151
 sayetteurs, the, 101
 Schetz, 96
 scythe makers in, Altona, 137
 Sectoral guilds vs. guilds of individual trades, 33
 semi-finished goods, 31
 Seville, community of painters, 168
- ship-building industry, 5, 61. See also Dutch ship building and division of labour, 14
   in Dutch, 73
 shipwrights' guilds, 18
   innovation in, 18
 shoemakers' guilds, 11
 Siegerland, hammer-smiths in, 136 silk fabrics, Lyon, 232
 guilds and innovation, 234–236
   success factor, 232 technical innovations, 233
 silk industry, See also textile industry loom invention in seventeenth-century, 68
   Lyon, 4, 48, 105
   merchant-entrepreneurs' and
     putting-out system, 97
   ribbon production in Basel, 47
     in Lyonnais, 48
   silk makers' guild and, 42
   silk weavers, 98, 105
   wage tariffs in, 212*n*
   weavers' guild and, 19
 silk ribbon industry, 173
   ban on, by German Imperial cities, 180–184
   Besel merchants, 188, 189
   Cologne silk industry, 189
   Krefeld, 191, 192
   Lyon, 192
     introduction of engine loom technology, 193
     late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries, 192
     product differentiation, 194 role of French producers, 193, 194 Stéphanois, 194
   resistance to engine loom, by London craft guilds, 187
   Rhine, 190
   role of Leyen, Adolf von der, 190 silversmith guilds, 13
 skilled immigrants, 17
 skilled labor mobility, in pre-industrial Europe
   apprentices vs. skilled workers, 116 lower strata of society, 115
   Nuremberg, 115
   organization and pattern of travel bans, 118
     clothing and drinking patterns, 118 construction workers, 125, 127
     craft workers, 127, 128 distinction between geschenkte and ungeschenkte, 118 food and product traders, 128 formation of associations, 118

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

Index

351

- goldsmith journeyman, 123
- hatmakers, 119
- journeymen in Munich, 119
- labourers involved in basic necessities, 128, 129
- labourers involved in specialized crafts, 129, 130
- married journeymen, 127–130
- migration in catchment area, 119
- seasonal migration, 125
- sixteenth-century ‘price revolution’, 130
- textile journeyman, 119, 121, 122
- tramping and, 125
- urban anxiety, 117
- pre-modern Germans, 114
- Strasbourg, 115
- technological diffusion via travel
  - abortive transfers, 135
  - closed (gesperrte) and geschenkte crafts, 136
  - diffusion by radiation and migration, 132
  - English cloth-preparers and cloth-dyers, 134
  - Italy, 133
  - metal craft industry, 137
  - permanent vs. voluntary migration, 131, 132
  - printing industry, 138, 139
  - through recruitment or enticement of craft labour, 132, 135
  - Venetian migrants, 134
  - views on, 131
- tramping, 116, 117
- useful inhabitants, 115
- skilled workers’ scarcity, 63
- skill-intensive trades
  - horizontal subcontracting in, 90
- skills training, 6
- small masters, 82
- small-scale markets
  - and less formal arrangements, 54
- Smith, Adam, 1
- Society of Apothecaries, 335
- Solingen, and abolition of the guilds, 23
- Southern Germany
  - linen and worsted industries, 36
  - trading firms, 86
- Spain, painting industry, 165, 167
- Spanish art and painters, 167, 168
- Spectacle-Makers’ Company, 268
- Spinning or milling process, 33
- state-controlled guilds, 34
- Statute of Artificers, 21, 58
- Strasbourg woollen weavers, 117
- Strozzi, 97
- sub-contracting practices and networks, 12, 85, 86
  - advantages of, 86
  - aid for master artisans, 88
  - and factors influencing, 83
  - impact on economy, 94
  - vertical and horizontal forms, 84, 88
- sundials, making of, 264, 265
- Sutton, Henry, 286
- Swabia, 27, 133
  - fustian manufacturing in, 26
  - proto-industries, textile-journeymen in, 122
  - textile industry, 121
- Swabianhill (Schwabenberg), 133
- Switzerland, 27
- tacit knowledge, 6
- tacit skills, 132*n*
- tanners’ guilds, 11
- technological innovations, 14
  - guild support for, 76
- technological transfer via diffusion role of Italy, 133–134
- telai di grazia*, 209
- textile fabrics, 5
- textile industry
  - exception to vertical subcontracting, 89
  - merchant-entrepreneurs’ control on, 97
  - relationship among labour-intensive guilded branches of, 104
  - textile journeymen, migration patterns of, 121, 122
    - Allgäu, 122
    - Augsburg, 121
    - linen-weaving region of Urach, 121
    - Swabian proto-industries, 122
    - Ulm, 122
    - weavers in Loden industry, 119
  - textile manufacturing, cloth making, 85
  - textile trades, urban, 95
- textiles bales
  - and role of crafts guilds, 26
- Thuret, Isaac, 271
- Tramping (Wanderschaft), 116, 123, 125
  - economic function of system or Geschenk, 130*n*
- Trana, Heinrich, 123
- transaction costs, 4, 26, 29, 30
- transferable skills, 26, 60*n*. See also crafts guilds
- travel patterns in skilled labors, in pre-industrial Europe, 118
  - migration patterns
    - construction workers, 127
    - goldsmith journeyman, 123
    - in hatmakers, 119
    - journeymen in Munich, 119
    - textile journeyman, 119, 121, 122
- Tyrolese laborers, migratory pattern of, 125, 126

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88717-5 - Guilds, Innovation, and the European Economy, 1400-1800

Edited by S. R. Epstein and Maarten Prak

Index

More information

352 Index

- umbrella guilds, 33
  - in Bologna, 42
- ungeschenkte* (ungifted) crafts, 118
- united provinces, merchant capitalism of, 109
- Urach, textile journeymen in, 121
- urban master artisans, in export-oriented industries, 82
- urban textile trades
  - and significance of subcontracting in, 84, 95, 108
- urban vs. rural guilds, 36
- useful and reliable knowledge' (URK), 5*n*

- van Bombergen, 96
- van der Goes, Hugo, 146
- van der Weyden, Rogier, 146, 166
- van Dijck, Antonie, 169
- van Eyck, Jan, 146
- van Goyen, Jan, 147
- van Mander, Karel, 150
- Velazquez, Diego de, 168
- Venetian guilds, 72
- Venice, 207
  - economy in seventeenth- and early eighteenth-century, 201–203
  - expansion of the non-corporate workforce, 228
  - glass industry, 204, 205, 225*n*
    - global competition, 207, 210, 211
    - labour composition and production techniques, 206
  - guild regulations, 228
  - historiography, 200
  - inter- and intra-guild conflict, 227, 229
  - labour structure, 211
    - change of careers of labourers, 216, 217
    - composition of labour, 211, 213
    - gendered division of labour, 213, 214
    - guild conflict and technological innovation, 217–221
    - highly skilled workmanship, 215, 216
    - statutes, patents and secrecy, 221–227
  - migrants, 134
  - political set up seventeenth- and early eighteenth-century, 201, 203
  - silk industry, 4, 19, 97, 203–207
    - global competition, 207, 210
    - guild, 223*n*
      - statutes, 207–209
    - women, exploitation of, 230
  - Verlagssystem*, 31, 86, 173, 188
  - Verleger*, 86
  - vertical integration, of production stages, 31
  - Vienna, survey 1742, 16
  - watch makers' guilds, 41, 43
  - watches, and clocks production, 12
  - weavers' guilds, 98, 99, 104
  - weighing and measuring instruments, 265
  - Welser, 96
  - Werkmeistergericht*, 42
  - Western Europe
    - guild-based export trades
      - subcontracting in, 108
      - proto-industries in, 27
    - Westphalia, Mark of, 34
    - Weyden, Rogier van der, 146
    - Willaerts, Abraham, 156
    - Winchester, weavers' conditions in, 98
    - windmill technology, in Netherlands, 73
    - window-makers' guild, 219*n*
    - Wollenamt*, 103
    - wool carding, 96
    - wool industry, and guilds' role in, 103
    - wool weavers, 103
      - in fifteenth-century Cologne, 104
    - woolen industry, 99
      - cloth towns for, 33
      - Languedoc, weaving areas of, 28
      - manufacturing of wool, 49
      - master wool weavers, 102
      - trades in Milan, 33
      - weavers, 104
      - wool textile industry, 36
    - Württemberg Black Forest
      - worsted-weaving guild in, 48, 99
    - Württemberg, Duchy of, 20
  - Zeisig, Nicolaus, 123
  - zingas*, 106
  - Zunftkauf* technique, 36, 38
  - Zurich, 17