

Index

- actus reus*, 15–16, 163–84, 230–34, 294
 and guilt by association, 38–39
 and humanitarian intervention, 295
 and roles, 177–81
 and State aggression, 234–41
 and superior orders, 246–49
 and the fog of war, 242–46
 related to mens rea, 245–46
- aggressive wars. See crimes of aggression
- Aquinas, Thomas
 on the Doctrine of Double Effect, 284
 view on just wars, 9, 28
- Augustine
 on principle of proportionality, 121
 view on just wars, 9, 26, 40, 47–48, 273
- Bassiouni, Cherif
 on Nuremberg trials, 147
- Bentham, Jeremy
 on the relevance of circumstances to acts, 236–37
- Berkowitz, Leonard
 on aggression, 211
- Brownlie, Ian
 on humanitarian intervention, 275–76
 on principle of priority, 74, 81–82, 87
- Buchanan, Allen
 on the international community, 66–67
- Bush Doctrine
 and principle of priority, 78, 84
- Christopher, Paul
 on principle of last resort, 85
- Clark, Roger
 on circumstances of international
 crimes, 237–39
- crimes against humanity, 3, 4
 and the international community, 52
 as jus cogens crimes, 4
 contrasted with crimes of
 aggression, 5, 15
- crimes against peace. See crimes of aggression
- crimes of aggression, 3 actus reus element, 15–16, 163–84, 230–49, 294
 and harm to humanity, 7
 and human rights, 3, 4, 44–45
 and humanitarian intervention, 45, 293–96
 and State sovereignty, 6–7
 as jus cogens crimes, 4, 152–56
The Congo v. Uganda case, 223–25 contrasted with crimes against humanity, 5, 15, 256
 contrasted with war crimes, 5, 15, 245

- crimes of aggression (cont.)
 criteria for prosecuting, 3, 11–17, 95, 107–13, 208
 defendant-oriented approach, 19–20, 338
 defense of international criminal trials, 338–41
 distinguishing from defensive wars, 6–7
 importance of rule of law in prosecuting, 20
 individual responsibility, 142–46
mens rea element, 14, 167, 203, 250–69, 294
 prosecuting terrorists, 308–15
 sources of rules prohibiting,
 149–52, 159–62
 State aggression element, 208,
 212–28, 294
- defense of self or others
 and aggression, 218
 and human rights, 215–16
 and principle of proportionality, 126–29
 as justification for war, 9–11, 27, 28, 40, 42, 100–3
 Dinstein, Yoram, on, 128–29
 Gentili, on, 76–78
 Grotius, on, 78–81
- Dinstein, Yoram
 on conspiracy theory, 263
 on principle of priority, 82–83
 on self-defensive wars, 128–29
- discrimination, principle of, 40, 44
 Grotius on, 31–33
- Drumbl, Mark
 on international criminal trials,
 329–34
- Durkheim, Emile
 on solidarity, 56, 58
- Erasmus
 and contingent pacifism, 43
- first strike. See priority, principle of
- Franck, Thomas
 on UN Charter and humanitarian wars, 42
- Fuller, Lon
 on retrospective rules, 154
- Gaja, Georgio
 on State aggression, 244
- Galen
 on natural law, 28
- Gardam, Judith
 on just wars, 126
 on principle of proportionality, 124–25
- Gellius
 and principle of priority, 79
- Gentili, Alberico, 134
 on defense of self or others as
 justification for war, 76–78
 on piracy, 298–99
 on principle of priority, 75–78
- Gomaa, Mohammed
 on aggression, 256–57, 259
- Grotius, Hugo, 38
 and contingent pacifism, 25–26, 30–34, 39
 on defense of self or others as
 justification for war, 78–81
 on faults vs. wrongs, 30–31
 on individual responsibility for
 State aggression, 142–43
 on international solidarity, 48–49
 on just wars, 6, 33, 217
 on piracy, 302
 on principle of discrimination, 31–33
 on principle of proportionality, 119–21
- Harris, Whitney
 on Nazi aggression, 228
- Hart, H. L. A.
 on moral basis for law, 58
 on rules and international law, 149–51

- Hegel
 and social groups, 60
- Hobbes, 17
- Holmes, Robert
 on contingent pacifism, 36
- human rights
 and ad bellum proportionality, 124
 and crimes of aggression, 3, 44–45, 55
 and defense of self or others, 215–16
 and State legitimacy, 215
 and terrorism, 315–18
 and the international community,
 52–53
- humanitarian intervention, 273–96
 and actus reus, 295
 and crimes of aggression, 45, 293–96
 and internal harm principle, 51
 and mens rea, 294–95
 and solidarity, 64–69
 and State aggression, 295–96
 and the Doctrine of Double Effect, 283–86
- Brownlie, Ian, on, 275–76
- Kelly, Erin, on, 278–80
- More, Thomas, on, 213
- Nicaragua case, 275
- Reisman, Michael, on, 277
- Schachter, Oscar, on, 277
- Shue, Henry, on, 283–84
- Vattel, on, 289–90
- international community
 and crimes against humanity, 52
 and human rights, 52–53
 and solidarity, 55–69
 Buchanan, Allen, on, 66–67
 Iriye, Akira, on, 53–54
 Lauterpacht, Hersch, on, 51–52
 Osiel, Mark, on, 68
- International Criminal Court (ICC), 3, 18
 and mens rea, 255
 and State aggression, 234
 determining crimes of aggression, 11–13, 94, 201, 208, 226–27
 jurisdiction in cases of aggression, 256–57
 legitimacy of, 161, 335–36
 on superior orders defense, 246–47
- Iriye, Akira
 on the international community, 53–54
- Jackson, Justice Robert
 and Nuremberg trials, 146
 on conspiracy theory, 252, 264–65
- Jaspers, Karl, 46
jus ad bellum, 94–95
 and jus in bello, 26, 29–30, 34–37, 113–16, 135–36, 310–11
jus cogens
 and crimes against humanity, 4
 and crimes of aggression, 4, 152–56
 and war crimes, 4
- jus in bello*
 and jus ad bellum, 26, 29–30, 34–37, 113–16, 135–36, 310–11
- just cause, principle of, 116
 and principle of priority, 73, 92,
 99–100, 133–36
 and principle of proportionality, 104–5, 133–36
 and prosecuting crimes of
 aggression, 107–13
 and U.N. authorization, 102–3
 Vitoria, on, 96–98, 104
- Just War theory, 5, 17, 114. See also jus
in bello and jus ad bellum
 and contingent pacifism, 7–9, 25–26, 33–34, 40
 and defense of self or others, 40
 and human rights, 44–45
 and international law, 9, 13–14, 124
 Augustine on, 47–48
 defense of self or others, 27
 Grotius, on, 33, 48–49
 on piracy, 298–302

- Just War theory (cont.)
 Vattel, on duties of humanity, 49–51
 Vitoria, on, 96–98
- Kelly, Erin
 on humanitarian intervention, 278–80
- Klabbers, Jan
 on punishment for international
 crimes, 325, 326
- Knight, Jack, 17
- Koskenniemi, Martti
 objection to international criminal law, 320–24
- Kutz, Christopher
 on individual responsibility for group acts, 239–40
- Lackey, Douglas
 on competent authority, 303
 on principle of last resort, 84
 on principle of proportionality, 121–24
- last resort, principle of, 84–87
 and humanitarian intervention, 292
 Christopher, Paul, on, 85
 Lackey, Douglas, on, 84
- Lauterpacht, Hersch, 23, 25, 32, 40–41
 on Grotius and just wars, 6
 on international legal community, 51–52
- legitimate authority and terrorists, 302–6
- Luban, David
 on international criminal trials, 333
- McMahan, Jeff
 on just causes for war, 101, 134–35
mens rea, 39
 and conspiracy theory, 198–201, 251–69
 and humanitarian intervention, 294–95
 and superior orders, 267–68
- distinct elements, 260–63
 element in crimes of aggression, 14, 167, 203, 294
 related to actus reus, 245–46
- Meron, Theodor
 on customary international law, 156–59
 on defining aggression, 221
 moral minimalism, 17, 64, 338
- More, Thomas
 view on just wars, 9, 212–13
- NATO, 129
 bombing of Serbia, 18, 109, 274, 276, 278, 283, 285
- Nuremberg, trials at, 3, 5, 44, 94, 107, 141–42, 146–49, 225–26
 and custom, 161
 Bassiouni, Cherif on, 147
 Doenitz case, 163–71, 179–84, 248 establishing actus reus, 163–84, 232–33
 establishing mens rea, 167, 203, 251–55, 263–65
 I. G. Farben case, 198–99, 201, 253–54
 Jackson, Justice Robert, 146, 252,
 264–65
 Krupp case, 186–91, 201,
 254–55
 Meron, Theodor, on, 158
 Ministries case, 164, 171–77,
 179–84, 207, 248, 251–52
 Raeder case, 181–84
- O'Brien, William
 on justifications for war, 113
- Osiel, Mark
 on conspiracy theory, 200
 on the international community, 68
- pacifism, contingent, 44–45
 and Grotius, 34, 39
 and jus in bello-jus ad bellum
 distinction, 34–37

- and Just War theory, 7–9, 25–26, 33–34, 40
- and Suarez, 34
- and the innocent attacker, 37–40
- and UN Charter, 43
- capital punishment analogy, 34, 39–40
- Holmes, Robert, on, 36
- Teichman, Jenny, on, 36
- priority, principle of, 3, 92–93
 - and Bush Doctrine, 78, 84
 - and principle of just cause, 92, 99–100, 133–36
 - and principle of proportionality, 133–36
 - and weapons of mass destruction, 89–90
- Brownlie, Ian, on, 74, 81–82, 87
- Dinstein, Yoram, on, 82–83
- “first strike” as “first wrong,” 216–18
- Gentili, on, 75–78
- in delineating aggression, 12
- Walzer, Michael, on, 83
- proportionality, principle of, 136
 - and humanitarian intervention, 289–92
 - and principle of just cause, 104–5, 133–36
 - and principle of priority, 133–36
 - and self-defensive wars, 126–29
- Gardam, Judith on, 124–25
- Grotius on, 118–21
- ius ad bellum* and ius in bello versions of, 117–19, 135–36
- Lackey, Douglas, on, 121–24
- Pufendorf, Samuel
 - on individual responsibility for State aggression, 144
- Rawls, John
 - on sovereignty and minimally decent states, 44
- Reisman, Michael
 - on humanitarian intervention, 277
- Rubin, Alfred
 - on piracy, 301
- Schachter, Oscar
 - on humanitarian intervention, 277
- self-defense. See defense of self or others
- Seneca, 37
- Shue, Henry
 - on humanitarian intervention, 283–84
- State sovereignty
 - and aggressive wars, 6–7
 - and duties of humanity in Vattel, 49–51
 - and minimally decent states in Rawls, 44
- Sterba, James, 37
- Stone, Julius
 - on mens rea, 257
- Suarez, Francisco, 132
 - and contingent pacifism, 34
 - view on just wars, 28, 115
- Teichman, Jenny
 - on contingent pacifism, 36
- terrorism, 18
- Tertullian
 - on pacifism, 26, 48
- Tuck, Richard, 25, 33
- UN Charter
 - and contingent pacifism, 43
 - on humanitarian intervention, 277
 - on justifications for war, 9–11, 23, 100, 126
 - vision of global solidarity, 18
- Valls, Andrew
 - on terrorism, 297
- Vattel, Emer de
 - on duties of humanity, 49–51, 57
 - on humanitarian intervention, 289–90
 - on individual responsibility for State aggression, 144–45

356

Index

- Vitoria, Francisco
on aggression, 216
on principle of just cause, 96–98, 104
- Walzer, Michael
on individual responsibility for
State aggression, 145
- on principle of priority, 83
war crimes, 3, 4
as jus cogens crimes, 4
contrasted with crimes of
aggression, 5, 15
- Wheaton, Henry
on individual responsibility for
State aggression, 145