References to works by Ernest Hemingway appear under his name. Names of baseball players, boxers, operas, plays and revues, ships, songs, and strikes are consolidated under those categorical headings. References to battles and other aspects of the First World War are consolidated under “World War I.” All biblical references are gathered under “Bible.” References to localities within a particular city (hotels, restaurants, bars, churches, schools, museums, monuments, and other sites) appear under the name of that city.
