Index

3M, open vs traditional innovation 163, 164
7 Up, critique of establishment 228
9/11, importance of sign 43–4 Aaker, David 18, 95, 194 battleship analogy 33
brand equity 74
brand identity 7
brand as management tool 30 Folgers coffee 162
social construction and consumption of brands 35–6 see also brand leadership model Absolut Vodka 59
artworks 108
brand into art 242–3 images of customer experiences 243 abstract thinking xi see also Hegel access to markets, and buying of brands 33 accountability, and consumer control through brands 207 Adbusters 230, 267
Addis, M. 245
Adobe xiii
advertising
build-up of cultural consumer knowledge 78–9 and control 79
change from information to subconscious desires 8 conflict between rational and creative approach 63–4 attitude of employees 66 concealment from client 70–1 global structure of industry 64 impression management 66–8, 70 mediator between supply and demand 64–5 reconciliation of creativity and commerce 65–6 rituals and routines of agencies 68–70 creation of lifestyles 77 creation of reality 76
global expenditure 200 influence of agencies 77 laws of human behaviour 53 level of professionalisation 55 linking of culture and commerce 60, 63, 72 positive messages 253 problems with traditional techniques 244–5 production of differences 76 scientific ideology 56–7 scientific management 54 and symbols of creativity 67 University of Advertising 54 value of 75
see also creative revolution; creativity; Kesselskramer aesthetic experience 255, 256–7 Absolut brand launch 243 and consumption 257
ING Direct café concept 243–4
moment of truth 245
and stylization 261–2 Agamben, G., communities and change 145 Ahmad, Sameena 206
brands as catalyst for free-market society 207, 208 danger of Western values to less-developed countries 210 Albert, S., identity 96 Alderson, Wroe, consumption 135
Allen, Tony 59
Alloway, Laurence, mass popular art 239 Alvesson, M. 111 systems of persuasion 118 ambivalence, and branding 229–30 American Brandstand 42
American Marketing Association 158–9
Amnesty International, use of branding 199
Anders, Günther, ontological ambiguity 5
Anderson, B., imagined communities 139
Anderson, Chris, Wikipedia 162 Anholt's City Brand Index 89 anomaly, advertising and cultural consciousness 63 Antorini, Yun Mi, and LEGO 37, 147–8, 149, 157–8 innovations by LEGO community 149–53 Appadurai, A. 41 appearance, becomes essence 103 Apple 58, 266
iPhone 23
and lifestyle 106
Macintosh community 136 Adobe program shortcuts 137 tradition and history 137–8 Araujo, L. 177
Archimedean Point 219
Arendt, Hannah, mass entertainment 231
Ariel, green marketing 218 Arnould, E. J. 135, 224, 230 consumer culture 161 Arsel, Z., homogenization 233 art, and branding 241
objects as art 242–3
see also pop art; Warhol artefacts, use in manifestation of culture 122 Arthur Andersen and Enron 25, 26
strong brand culture 130 Arvidsson, Adam 59, 179
brand experience 248, 251
brand as institution 46–7 cross-mediaity of brands 108 market research 182, 186 measurement of brand value 75 and Wedgwood 179
Askegaard, Søren 18, 22 brand hegemony 233 brands and diversity 266
brands as signs 40
AT&T, brand-building campaign 39, 110
Athos, A. 118
Atkin, D. 141
Adkins, L. 223
Austin, J. L., words and reality 176 Australian Design Review xiii awards, to ad agencies 72 Azhar, S. 19
BAA, adoption of brand 93
Baba, M. L. 194
Bacardi, alco-pops 77
Bachrach, P., dynamics of non-decision making 170
Badham, Richard 122
Bagwell, K. 75
Balzac, Honoré de, on Paris 88
Banksy, brandalism 241, 267
Baratz, S. 170
Barber, B. R., consumer society 211, 212, 214, 215, 246 civic schizophrenia 216
Barker, J. 127 barriers to entry, use of brands 33 Barthes, Roland xvi reading 107
The New Citroën 242, 254
Barwise, P. 210
Baudrillard, Jean 22
brand as shop window 145
differentiation 44
loss of human essence 226–7 Pathos of the Smile 126 pop art 240
products into events 240, 246 Bauman, Z. 211, 221
customer satisfaction 213 consumers into commodities 212, positive power of brands 266 search engines 252
Beamish, T. 129 beauty definition changed by branding 253 distinction between beauty and the sublime 253–5 Beck, Harry, London subway map 30
Beck, J. C. 140
Beck, U. 51
Becker, H. S. 260 behaviour, basic cultural assumptions 120 behaviourism, and advertising 54–5 Beigbeder, Frédéric, advertising anti-manifesto 63 Belk, R. W. 229, 233 consumer behaviour 223, 224 cult of Macintosh 137
Bell, D. 259–61
Bell, William E., consumers as innovators 158–9 Ben 61
Beneton, brand identity 104–5 Colours magazine 219 use of language and narratives 105 visual language 108 Bengtsson, Anders identity concept 96 tattoos 230
Beniger, J. R. 54
Benjamin, Walter 235 consumption management 180 Bernays, Edward 120 cigarette smoking for women 7–8, 13 Bernays, Edward (cont.)
mass-produced goods and subconscious 6–7, 8–9, 13 shift in focus of advertising 8 Bernbach, Bill, DDB, advertisements 253 creative revolution 57
Betty Crocker, promotion 9
Blackett, T. 153, 207
BMW product placement 108
takeover of Rolls Royce/MINI 33
The Hire 59
Bobbitt, P. 43, 50
Bogenhold, D. 192
Bond, Danielle, culture as driver of brand 118, 119 Bond, J. 246
Boorstin, Daniel 44 collection communities 135 boredom 255–6
art as salvation 256–7
Borgerson, J.L. 105 Borges, Jorge Luis, comparison of Menard and cervantes 99–100
Bourdieu, Pierre
advertising recruitment 66
differentiation 44
individual identity 226
Boyle, D. 141
Boyle, Danny, Trainspotting 107
BP, scrutiny of 219 Bradley, Michael, Gadens 122
brand aesthetics 257
see also aesthetic experience brand associations 35
brand awareness 35
brand communities 136, 145, 269–70
and innovation 149, 270 lack of control by companies 138, 154 disagreement with corporate agenda 157 LEGO Ambassador Programme 157 LEGO group diversity 149 obligations to others 138 online user groups 152 company benefits 152–3 interaction and innovation capacity 152 resistance to company innovation 153 rituals and traditions 136 shared consciousness 136 social construction of 138–9 and tribalization of society 270 see also lead users brand culture 132
creative consumers 132–5
brand equity 74, 193
brand experience 121
actualization by individuals 248 and co-creation 246
creation of sublime aesthetic 255 power of 247–8
see also Bacardi; Gesamtkunstwerk; ING Direct
brand function 25–6
brand hierarchy, and corporate hierarchy 34 brand leadership model 34
brand equity 35
control issue 35
brand society
objects as art 242–3
production and desire 237–8 see also pop art
brand tribes 140, 145
authenticity 141 lifestyles 140
marginality 142 rejection of change 141 rivalry 142
brand values, resistance to 130–1 Brandel, liberties 215 brands vii, x, 3, 23
authentic cultural resources 202–3 and capitalist quest for world domination 205 and consumers 39–40
as corporate catalyst 31 driver of innovation 158, 210 focus on core identity 37, 207 four elements of 36
and free-market principles 205, 206, 207, 210 and co-creation of value 207 control of boundaries 32–3 deception of freedom of choice 217 hegemonic power of 267
lifestyle concept 194, 199–200 performative nature of 194–5 and virtual world 195 impact on organizations viii management from outside in 22, 37 management tool 30, 32
importance of 38–9
interface between production and consumption 64–5, 71, 162, 172
key aspects of 38
manipulative propaganda 201 as media 31, 47, 48 phantom realities 6
and power 196, 199–200
dispersion through society 197 governementality 197 knowledge as truth 197–8 need for discourse 203
need for knowledge 197 use by public organizations and NGOs 199 property of customers 158 relationships between objects 45–6 as signs 31, 40–1, 48 added associations 41–2 combination of 42–3 and cultural codes 43
differentiation 44
signs more real than reality 43–4
and social cohesion 210
souls of corporations 264
and social cohesion 210
symbolic nature of 36 and value 9, 32
and wealth creation 209–10 see also brand leadership model; narratives brandscapes 234, 246
Branson, Richard, and Virgin brand 114 corporate approach to branding 37–8 stories 121
Braun, Thom, Unilever xvi, 177, 211 brickfilms.com 151
Brillo, associations with name 41
Brinkmann, J., Enron collapse 129
Britt, S. 189
Brown, A. D. 112
Brown, Andrew, identity 96, 112–13
Brown, S., brand meaning management 202
Brown, Stephen, ambivalent brand campaigns 229 Budweiser 197
and social cohesion 210
Buick 56, 58
Burberry, hi-jacking of brand 41
Burke, Edmund, beauty 253–4 Bush, George W. and 9/11 211
debate with Gore 216
and Iraq 213
business coaching, and qualification-requalification process 52 C2C 161
examples of 161–2
CAA 123
Caldwell, N., city branding 89
Calfon, Michel 172 economy of qualities 49, 51–2, 159 performativity of economics 176–7 progressive profiling 159, 162
implications of 160
Camus, freedom of action 235 Canguilhem, G. 130 car industry, car names 41 Carman 74
Carpenter, Cindy, Corrs Chambers Westgarth 116 branding and behaviour of staff 116
Carter, C. 33, 41
Casey, C., and Singapore Airlines 126
Castedello, M. 75
Cayla, J. 234 connectivity of brands 139 Cézanne, posthumous fame 241
Chan, A., culture as verb 127
Chaney, D., 259–61
Cheney, G. 102
Chomsky, N. 201
Christensen, Clayton M., ‘Innovator’s Dilemma’ 168
Christensen, L. T. 102
Chuck, D., Public Enemy 42 city brands 88–90, 93–4 civic advocacy 199, 201
civic schizophrenia 216–17
Clegg, S. 52
Clifton, R. 32, 33
Club Med 266
lifestyle concept 192
Coca Cola 3
brand value 32
cultural meaning of brands 35–6 and Santa Claus 109 social and cultural icon 16
and social cohesion 210
symbols of resistance 231 Cohoy, F.
development stores 180
marketing 177
co-creation
control of outcomes 157 innovation and brand communities 159, 162, 168 non-disclosure agreements 158 Cocteau, Jean xii
Cohen, M. D. 21
Coleman, Richard P., concept of lifestyle 186–7 collaboration between brands 43 Collett Dickenson Pearce (CDP), advertising revolution 58 Comme des Garçons 229 commodities vii, 16 material extension of brand 18 social and cultural icons 13, 16 Commonwealth Bank 82 community-based websites 140 Compaq, and Intel 18 competition, between cities 88–90 consumer advocates 206
consumer choice, management by brands 177 consumer engineering, see consumption management consumer society branding as process of colonization 221 common values of 211–12 and freedom 213–14
impoverishment of individuals 212–13 interpretation of brands 39 transformation from producer society ix voting power 208 see also Fair Trade movement consumption 178, 211
of brands 19
and concept of lifestyle 186 patterns and lifestyle 192 see also Rainwater cultural activity 132, 133 and consumption communities 135 and production 132–3, 138 and social content 134–5 explosion of subjectivity 245 growth in US 180
link to emotion 54
management of 180–1
and personal definition 44–5 practice, co-creation and innovation 148 and production, brands as interface between 270–1 and production-dependence effect 181 and psychology 183 and ‘inner Jones’ 184–5
social activity 183
see also demand creation; lifestyle; market research Continental, and ready-made meals 195 convenience products 180 cool, notion of 227–8 association of brands with counter-culture 228–9 operation of 229
coolhunters 229
Cooper, David xii
corporate catalysts 48 corporate differentiation strategy, need for branding 25, 29
Costa, J. A. 78
Coutu, D. 65, 66
Cova, B., tribes 141
creative revolution 56, 57–9
and cultural production 59 creativity
change in 249–50
limitations on adverts 71–2 and scientific advertising 56
creolization 233
Csaba, F. F., identity concept 96
Csikszentmihalyi, M. 19 Cubism 178 cultural change 29
and brand strategy 125 cultural forms 230–1
brands into art 259–61
see also aesthetic experience; Gesamtkunstwerk cultural relevance 42, 47 and Coca Cola 35–6 cultural swirls 167, 168 culture industry, and conformity 201 cultures, transformation of and by brands 227–31 see also ambivalence; cool; hip Curtis, Adam, The Century of the Self 6, 13 Czarniawaska, B. 102
d'Holbach, Baron 178
Danesi, Marcel 108, 109
brands as signs 31
supplementary uses of brands 41–2 Darwin, C. 178
Dasein 94
Davenport, T. H. 140
Davis, Stuart, pop art 239
DDB, xiv; see also Bernbach De Botton, A. 213
de Chernatony, L. 19, 125
d'Holbach, Baron 178
Danesi, Marcel 108, 109
brands as signs 31
supplementary uses of brands 41–2
De Certeau, M. 26, 79 creative act of consumption 132, 134
De Chernatony, L. 19, 125
De Grazia, S. 53, 55, 181
De Grazia, V. 135, 265
De Jongh, Matthijs and Ben mobile phones 61 and Brian Eno 62 and Kesselskramer 61 and own projects 62–3
Deal, T. E. 117
Debord, G. 44, 45 decision-making 220 facilitated by brand 18 and intangibles 19
Deleuze, G. 22, 47, 170
becoming 221–2
control of communication 203
souls of corporations 264
Deloitte xiv, 25, 48, 119
advertisements 29
Australia’s 7 Signals programme 28, 121, 123
brand identity 24–5, 110
change of name 27
global consistency 232
structure of 25
transformation of management through brands 267 see also Redhill, David Deloitte, William Welch, origins of firm 26 demand, creation of 181, 189 in early twentieth century 179–80 see also department stores; Galbraith; power relations Dennett, Daniel x
Denny, R. M. 193, 194
Denuo, advertising and cultural consciousness 63 department stores, transformation of buying to shopping 180–1 Descartes, R. 94 desire creation, in consumer society 213 Devlin, J. F. 19
Dewey, J., Art as Experience 248 Dichter, Ernest emotional link to product 9
the ‘Inner Jones’ 184–5, 189 Diesel 60–2 and Hieronymus Bosch 108 difference, philosophy of 22 differend 217, 219
DiMaggio, P. 79
copying 98
Disney, changing elements of identity 26 disruptive technologies 168 development in fringe markets 168 diversity, and Kesselskramer 61 Doc Martens shoes, transformation of image 40–1 and sub-cultures 47
Dodge 58
Douglas, Mary vii, 105
on consumption and culture 19 meaning as relation between objects 98 Drucker, Peter 20 organization and environment 113 Drummond, H. 129
Dubord, Guy, society of the spectacle 140 Duchamp, Marcel 260 creation equals choice 237, 261 Large Glass 237–8, 240 obsession with machines 236 reinvention as Rrose Sélavy 237 Duesenberry, James S., consumption as social activity 183 Dukerich, Janet, identity 96, 111
driver of change 111
Dutton, Jane, identity 96, 111
driver of change 111
early adopters 159
Eastwood, Matt, DDB
and Continental 195
and McDonald’s ethics 218–19 TV advertisements 71–2 easyEmpire, corporate branding 38 eBay 143, 161
and reputation 51
Eckhardt, G. M. 234
Eco, Umberto 39, 43, 238, 255 social life as sign system 250 Economist, The, brand identity 59
Edinburgh Chamber of Commerce, adoption of brand 93 Edinburgh City brand xiv, 88, 103, 107, 269 culture defined 120
definition of tone of voice 92–3 development of identity 90–1, 94 ‘Inspiring Capital’ 91 interpretation of logo 92 inward investment 93
key values of brand 91–2 outcomes of branding 93 redescription of 103
relational construct 98 use of brand by others 93 Einstein, Albert 30
Eisenstein, Sergei, control of thinking by film 201 Eliasberg, demand creation 180
Elliot, R. 223, 224
Elsbach, K. D. 112 emotion, linking of products to 7–8 employees, living brands 118, 125–7, 144 behaviour of 115, 116, 118 employer brand 123–5 Endemol, and Big Brother 133 engagement of clients and non-clients 29 Eno, Brian, criticism of Kesselskramer approach 62
Enron 25, 26
Equity Red Star 123
Erdem, T. 75
Ernst & Young 25, 27 culture as driver of brand 118 Esperanto 107
ethics, and free markets 206–7 Ethisphere, and McDonald’s 218 ethnographic research, and consumers 193–4 exploitation of poor countries 210 Ezzamel, Mahmoud xii

Facebook 81
Fair Trade movement 208–9 Falconer, Ailsa 90
see also Edinburgh City brand Fastcompany, and hip 229
FCUK, words and image creation 108
Featherstone, M., aestheticization of life 257
Feldwick, P. 182
Feuerbach, L. A. von 44 Financial Times, and Ford 17 focus groups 9
Fombrun, C., on reputation 51
Ford 117, 178 concern over reputation 14 focus on branding 17, 18 and Jaguar 33
role of brand 45 Fortune 88–90
global city status 89
Foster, R. J. 157
Foucault x, 44, 220
aestheticization of life 257 notion of governmentality 197, politics of truth 199
and power 203
problematization 221,
and truth 107
Fox, S. 16
frames of action 47
Frank, T. 213, 227, 228, advertising 55, 56, 57, 58,
freedom 213–14
or choice 215, 266–7 linked to capitalism 214 theory of liberal rights 215 see also civic schizophrenia Freehills xii
Freire, J., city branding 89 Freud, Sigmund 178
narcissism of minor differences 72 theory of the unconscious 6, 7 Friedman, Milton
ethics and free markets 206
government as problem 215
Frost, P. 129
Fueller, J. 136
Fullerton, R. A., demand creation 179, 180 functionalists 32
functionality of products, changed by branding 16 see also Ford; Nike; Swatch Furedi, F. 216
Gadens, humour in ad campaign 122 Galbraith, John Kenneth, consumption and production, ‘dependence effect’ 181, 213 Galileo 178
game patching 249
Gardner, B. B. 55
Gates, Bill, stories 121
Gaugin, posthumous fame 241
Ger, G. 229, 233
Germain, R. 193
German, Richard, advertising 77 Gesamtkunstwerk 243 and brand experience 245–7 moment of truth 245
see also ING Direct Giddens, A. 212
lifestyles 198
Gideon, S. 54, 180
Gilbreth, Frank B. and Lillian 237
Ginzburg, Carlo 4
Gioia, Dennis, image and identity 111 and Shell 112
GlasoSmithKline vii global cities, ranking of 89
Globalization and World Cities (GaWC) Research Network Leading World Cities Index 89 globalization through brands criticism of 231
global consistency 232
homogenization 232, 233–4 space between global and local 234 translation into local 233 GM, and new Pontiac 142
Godin, S. 140
Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von 88
Goffman, E., frames of action 47 identity 72
impression management 66, 67, 71
Goldman Sachs 75
Goldstein, D. B. 258
Gombrich, E. H. 241 goods, interpretation of 105 Google 3 and censoring on Chinese site 196 personalized search 195–6
Gorbachev 104
Gordon, R. 129
Gore, Al, debate with Bush 216 governmentality 197 need for truth 198
graffiti art 241
Granovetter, Mark, on Hobbes 50 criticisms of 50–1
Grant, John 231
Index

Green Marketing Manifesto 218
Green, H. E. 185
Green Marketing movement, reliance on branding 218–19 Greenberg, Clement, criticism of pop art 239 Greenberg, M., city branding 89 power of brands 107
Greenotlife.com 25, 35, 48
Greenpeace and Shell 112 use of branding 199
lifestyle brand 199
Grey, C. 212
Griggs Company, and Dr Martens 40 Guattari, F. 47, 170
becoming 221–2
control of communication 203
Gucci and hip hop 42
lifestyle brand 199
Gunn Report 72
Habermas, J., public sphere and commercial space 200 Hackley, C. 78,
Halvorsen, Kristin, Rio Tinto and Norwegian Pension Fund 209
Hamilton, Richard, pop art 239
Handel, Gerald, concept of lifestyle 186–7 Hannerz, Ulf
creolization 233
cultural swirl 167
happiness, and consumerism 213
Hardt, M. 227
Hardwick, Gary, Ikon communicatins role of media planning 81–3 measurement of impact 83
Haring, Keith, Absolut Art 108, 243
Harley Davidson outlaw brand 142 virtual greetings 136
Hatch, Mary Jo xiii, 30, 31 brand as internal organizing principle 14
identity 96
dynamic relationship with image 112, 113
and Intel 19
internal culture and external environment 131 shift to corporate branding 36–7
Haug, W. F. 181
Havas 64
Hebdige, Dick 41, 134
Hegel, G. W. F., abstract thinking xi Heidegger, Martin, identity 94, 97, 99, 212 Heilbrunn, B. 105, 108
and McDonald’s 109
Helly Hansen 42
Hennion, A. 64, 65
supply creates markets 181
Heraclitus 99, 100
Hill, R. P. 7, 224
Hilton, S., brands and wealth 209
and social cohesion 209
hip, notion of 228–9
operation of 229
hip hop culture, brand appropriation 42 hipsters 228
Hirschman 245
Hirst, Damien, business art 240–1
Hobbes, Thomas, theory of social and political order 49–50
Holbrook, M. B. 245
Hollander, Stanley C. 77, 193
Hollows, J. 259–61
Holt, Douglas 5, 17, 109 consumption and identity 223, 264 creative consumption 133–4 markets and production of difference 200 taste prescription 202 homeless, adaptation strategies 224
Hoover, President Herbert, happiness machines 8
Hopkins, Claude, science of advertising 56
Horauf, Simon, PLAY xvii, xviii Horkheimer and Adorno, consumer culture 201 HSBC comparison of services 19 local bank concept 11 Hughes, R. 238, 239
on Warhol 240
Hugh-Jones, Paul, Bacardi story 110 brand experience campaign 246–7 client experience 121 humour, and culture 122 IBM 15, 197
idea of threat to Apple 136, 137
innovator’s dilemma 168
and Intel 18
identities-in-action 87, 92, 104 see also language identity brands as mechanism for its creation 25–6, 94 from differences 97, 109–10 brands as substitute for 212–13 creation of 223, 227
advertisements 224
consumption practices 223–4
Index

identity  (cont.)
and the homeless 224 through language 101–2, 103–4 lifestyle identity 226 link to brand communities 224 and neoliberal optimism 225 Web users 225
and defining brands 268 driver of business strategy 95 fundamentally embedded in its context 94 illusory stability of 99 and repetition 100
and image 111, 112 brands 113, 114
driver of change 111–12
and instability 111, narcissistic 114
language games 268
oversimplification 97 paradox 98–9 management of by brands 99 and power of brand 95
uniqueness of organization 96 see also Edinburgh; Plato; Whetten Iggy Pop, Absolut Vodka 243 IKEA 266
lifestyle concept 192
imitation and differentiation, dynamic between 269 Ind, Nicholas, living brands 125 individual opportunity, and market state 50 information, and involvement in decision-making 171 information revolution, and info-aesthetics 249–51 creation of flat world 251 digital databases 252 information stickiness 164
ING (International Netherlands Group) xiv, 3, 15, 18, 19, 119, 120
brand experience 10
brand identity 110
brand as internal organizing principle 12, 13, 14, 21–2
core ideals 10–11 ‘easier’, the main value 11–12 barriers to becoming ‘easier’ 12 innovation 159
results from interaction 169–70 transformation of management through brands 267 see also open-source innovation
ING Direct; café concept 243–4, 245, 248
points of truth 244 innovation, see brand communities; ING; LEGO brand community; open-source innovation institutional role of brands 53, 266 integration of service lines 29 Intel 18
interactive game, programmer’s control of 170 Interbrand, Best Global Brands 75 internal functioning of organizations and ING 12, 14, 21–2
use of branding 10, 14–15, 21–2
Interpublic 64
Interurbia Report 186
iPod 3
Apple identity 137
Isherwood, Baron vii, 105 on consumption and culture 19
ISS xiii

Jackman and Russell, modern business 179 Jaguar xiii
James, Lucian, Agenda 42
Jeacle, I. 180
Joachimsthaler, E. 95
brand equity 74
Folgers coffee 162
leadership model with Aaker 34 Jobs, Steve, and Apple brand community 137–8 stories 121
Jocz, Katherine E., marketing 216
Jones Soda 161
Jopkins, Claude, ‘tell and sell’ approach 182 Journal of Marketing, suburban consumption 186
JP Morgan 75
Justus, Brad, response to LEGO users 148
Kafka, decision-making 68 Kant, Immanuel, beauty 253–4 the sublime 254–5
Kanter, R. M. 118, 192
Kapferer, J. N., brand identity 96
Karan, Donna, ‘Absolut Warmth’ campaign 243
Karmark, E. 126
Kärreman, D. 37
Kastner and Partner, and Red Bull, symbols of creativity 66–8
Katz, E. 233
Keller, Gottfried, Clothes Make People 223
Kellogg’s xii
Kemper, S. 76, 77
Kennedy, A. A. 117
Kessels, Erik, In Almost Every Picture 62 Kesselskramer xiv, 60 exploitation of culture 62–3 Nike campaign 229
Kierkegaard, Søren 171 boredom as the source of evil 255–6 freedom of action 235 repetition 100
Kirschenbaum, R. 246
Kissinger, Henry, US crusade for freedom 213
Klein, Naomi 43, 215, 246, 267
   No Logo 231
   youth culture 229
Klein, Yves, shock of new 250
Knight, Phil, and Nike 17 Knights, D., divided managers 127 knowledge, and present culture 5 and branding 5
Koehn, N. F. 179,
Koolhaas, Rem 3
Kotler, P., social marketing 199
KPMG 25, 27
Kramer, R. M. 112
Kreiner, Kristian, advertising pitch 68
Kreshel, P. J. 53, 54
Kunda, G. 126
Kwinter, S. 258
L'Oréal 266
La Mettrie, Julien Offray de 178
Laermans, department stores 180, Landor 24
   and Fedex 27 language
   and identity 101–2, 103
   and change 103–4
   social construction of reality 106–7 see also Benetton and reality 176
Larsen 110–11
Lase, K. 230
Law, Andy, and St Luke’s 65
Lawrence, Mary Wells, and Wells Rich Greene 63 LDraw 151 lead users, and innovation 164 combination of know-how 165 in communities 166 individual needs 165–6
   and sticky information 164 leadership, through culture-building 117 Lears, Jackson 16, 55, 63
LEGO, identity and image 112 Community Development Group 148 and marketing plan 147
   Mindstorm 147
LEGO brand community 149, 165 communication with 148 control of 153–4
   Ambassador Programme 157 attempts at institutionalization 157 conflicting agendas 157 diversity of 149, 165 innovations by 149 computer-related improvements 150 development of play themes 150 first-of-type innovations 151 new building techniques 150 leisure, use of 181
Leland, John, hip culture 228–9 Levine, D., lifestyle 259
Levine, R. 111
Levis, symbols of resistance 231
Levi-Strauss 109
Levitt, T., Hollywood’s identity 114
Levy, Sidney 55
lifestyle concept 191–2, 193, 265 marketing and stories 109 liberty, notion of 215 Lies, T. 233
lifestyle 43, 259, 265–6
   brand aesthetics 257–8
   brand stories 109
   brand tribes 140
   brands as raw material 175 expressions of identity 106 form of living 192 government of individuals 261 manipulation through advertising 189
   criticisms of 190–1
   master marketing concept 191–2 narrative of self-identity 198 and totalizing effect 198 new media category 258 origins of 185
   power of brands 106, 107
   tyrannical concept 214 vs standard of living 185 see also market research; power relations; Rainwater Lilien, G. L. 164
Lincoln-Douglas presidential election debate 216
Lindblom, C. 21
Lindemann, J., brand value 75
Lindström, M. 108, 245
Linux 161, 166
living brand, and employees 125–7 Louis Vuitton, and hip hop 42 loyalty 35 loyalty programmes 194
Luhmann, Niklas, organizing and decision-making 220 Lukács, G. 224
Lury, Celia 17, 53, 177, 195, 223 relational concept of brand 31, 45–6, 47 Lüthje, C. 166
Lux soap, and social cohesion 210
Lyotard, J.-F., differend 217, 219
Machin, D. 226
Cosmopolitan magazine 232 machine-age art 236
Mackenzie, Donald, economic theories 107, 177
Maertens, Klaus, and Dr Martens shoes 40–1 Maffesoli, Michel, re-tribalization 140, 141 magic 73 representations of 73
rituals 74
Malefyt, T. 68, 69, 194
advertising 59, 60, 64, 68–70
Malinowski, B., magic 73
Mallesons Stephen Jaques, client experience and branding 121 Malseed, M. 252
Man, Bruce, style 23, 258 management
and co-creation 269
and control 131, 269
effects of brands 88 of meaning 37–8
transformation by brands 267 managerialism 32
Manchester United, product markets 33
Mandeville, Sir John, traveller’s tales 4, 5 Manovich, Lev digital revolution, info-aesthetics 249–51, 251, 261 and Eisenstein 201
interactivity 170
new media object 252–3
Manzoni, Piero, shock of new 250
March, J. 164
Marchand, R. 16, 55, 77
American corporations 38, 39
Marcuse, Herbert, on mass media 200, 212
Marey, Etienne-Jules 237
market research 182
identification of ‘distinction’ 193 study of personalities 185, 186–7 typology of consumers 182
marketing actualization of brands 177 and democracy 215–16 implications of open innovation 166 inner satisfaction vs status 184–5 and magic of advertising 76 see also consumption; power relations markets information, and individuals 190 makers of morals 209 organization, and economy of qualities 51–2, 53 Marriott brand, divisions of 34
Marshall, P.D., intertextual commodity 108 Martin, Joanne, organizational culture 99, 117, 120
and consumption 134
problems with strong culture 127–8, 129
Martin, John Levi, consumption-economy thesis 179, 180
Martin, Lesley, Edinburgh City brand 90, inward investment 93
Marc, Karl viii
Marzano 126
Maslow, A., hierarchy of needs 9, 44, 74, 82, 135, 177 consumption and psychology 183 Mason, R. 183
mass-produced goods, and subconscious 6–7
Mauss, Marcel, magic 73, 75
Maybelline 197
Mayer, Martin, scientific rationality in advertising 56
Mayo, Elton, Hawthorne experiments 117
McAlexander, J. H., brand communities 136, 139, 142
McCann-Erickson 83
McCracken, G., advertising 76
McCreery, J. 73
McDonald’s 266
consumer control 207
ethical business 218
lifestyle concept 192
McGinness, Joe, makeover of Nixon 16
McGregor, D. 228
McKendrick, Neil, Industrial Revolution a revolution of demand 178 McLuhan, Marshall
advertisements 253
art 236
brand experience 243
customer research 185 and involvement in decision-making 171 and media 81
Méadel, C. 64, 65
supply creates markets 181 meaning, and use of brand 118
management of 120–3, 144
in retail firms 119
mechanizedbrick.com 151 media planning agencies, role of 80 creation of new content 81 fragmentation of communication channels 80 Ikon communications 81–3 measurement of impact 83
media revolution 248 interface and database 252
Menard, Pierre, translation of Don Quixote 99–100 Menocchio 20
cosmogony of xi, 6
and modern thinking 4
Mercedes Benz, and hip hop 42
Merrill Lynch 75
Meyer, Roberto 10
Mickey Mouse, intertextual commodity 108 Microsoft
brand value 32
idea of threat to Apple 136, 137 Miller, D. 134, 233 consumption as social activity 134 Miller, J. 19, 33, 36
Miller, Peter 12
MINI xiii, xiv Mink, J. 237
models, employed by ad agencies 69 Moeran, B. 194
advertising 59, 60, 64, 68–9
Morgan, B. 8
Morgan, G. 37
Morgan, J. P. 38
Morgan Stanley 75
Moschino, Franco, resistance against fashion 229 Mother, advertising and cultural consciousness 63 MTV 60–2, 61
Muir, D. 19, 33, 36
Muñiz, Albert M.
Apple 138
brand communities 136, 138, 139, 141, 142
and identity 224
social nature of brands 138
Murray, F., divided managers 127 Nadeau, R. A. 200, 207, 246
brand communities 139
brand identity 96
extreme self-determination 225 transformative tools 225 Naked, advertising and cultural consciousness 63 Nancarrow, C. 227
hip and cool 229
Nancy, J., communities and change 145 narcissism, and interactivity 170 narratives, of brands 108, 110–11, 114 contradictory identities 109–10 and corporate brands 110 distinct identities 110 intertextuality 108–9 Nature, study on Wikipedia 161 neoliberalism and Hobbes 50
paradoxical result of 215
Neumeyer, Marty 29
New York Times, on cigarette smoking 8
Newmark, Craig, Craig’s List 161 Nietzsche, Friedrich 16, 178, 223, 227
and change 102
identity and language 101–2, 103 judgement of good and evil 219, 235 life as aesthetic phenomenon 256–7 and zeitgeist 23 Nike 60–2
consumer control 207
exercise in user-involvement 154 ‘Just Do It’ campaign 44
lifestyle concept 192
and marketing 17, 18
and Pakistan 210 scrutiny of 219
and social cohesion 210
words and image creation 108 Nixon, S. 57, 59
creativity 72
media planning 80,
Nokia, and social cohesion 210
NRMA 123
O’Leary, Ted 12
O’Guinn, Thomas C.
brand communities 136, 138, 139, 141, 142
Oldsmobile 56, 58
social nature of brands 138
Ogilvy, David 230
Olins, Wally 17, 38, 207 branding and manipulation 201 brands as gifts to popular culture 253 staff behaviour 116
Olsen, B., and Intimate Apparel Company 77 Omnicon 64 online innovation 151 online markets, role of brands 251 open-source innovation brand-enabled exchange 167–9 and capitalist division of labour 166
criticisms of 169
and internet 171 unintended consequences 170 illusion of choice 170 implications for marketing 166 and innovation by manufacturers 163–4 open-source innovation (cont.)
intensity of producer-consumer relationship 160 motivation of 151 role of organizations 166, 168 see also lead users; LEGO organization of markets through meaning 46 organization theory, and branding 37 organizational culture 116, 123 access and management of meaning 118, 144 ambiguity 129
and brand communities 142 fragmentary nature of 127–8
and sub-cultures 128–9
identity, management by brands 267–8, 268–9 importance of 117–18
link with external environment 131 management tools 48 status quo and corporate disasters 129–30 top-down process 130
see also brand communities; employer brand; humour; living brand; rituals; Schein, culture model; stories organizations brand as transmission mechanism between disciplines 20
and concept of brands 21–2 core identity and corporate brand 37 external effects of branding 28–9, 29 and external environments brand as interface 113
and instability 20
internal structure reorganized by brand 28, 29 leadership role of brand 34 and micro-societies 26
Ortmann, Günther 21 Orwell, George and Apple Mac advertisement 58 Oceania 127
Osborne, T., public opinion 177
Ouchi, W. G. 117
Pack, Arthur, use of leisure time 181 Packard, Vance 9 criticism of lifestyle research 190 depth approach 190–1, 201 Parker, Martin, fragmentation of culture 129 Pascale, R. 118
Patteeuw, V., city branding 89
Pepsi Cola 212
Pixelego 151
Pine, B. J. 140
the experience economy 245
Practical Cycles
price of goods, and lifestyle concept 192 PricewaterhouseCoopers xiii, xiv, 25, 27
and Lehman Brothers 124
Printer’s Ink, decision-making 189
problematization 221
and brands 222
ethics of 221, 235
problem-solving 220
Procter and Gamble
consumer research 194
focus on values 15
ivy soap branding 15, 18
product placement, and intertextuality 108 performativity 176
of economies 176–7
marketing 177, 187
Perrow, Charles 20 prestige in a hospital 128 personal identity, communicated by brand 40–1 pervasiveness, of brands 23 Peters, Tom 144 brands and identity 212 corporate culture 117
arguments against 127–8
Pettinger, Lynne, retail firms 119
Pfeffer, J. 39
Picabia, Francis 236
Pine, B. J. 140
the experience economy 245
Pixelego 151
Plato, true identity 95, 96, 100, 104 play themes 150
Polet, Ruud, ING 10–12
cafés 244
Polinchoch, David, Brand Experience Lab 246 Pondy, L. 37
pop art, descriptive nature of 239 use of brands 240
see also Hirst; Warhol pop culture, and advertising 59
Pountain, D. 227
Powell, W. 79
copying 98
Power, M. 51
power relations place of working class wives in society 187–8 lack of rationality 188
manipulation through advertising 188, 189
Prahalad, C. K.
co-creation of value 143–4
evolvability 167
presentations, and advertising briefs 68 presidential elections, use of branding 16 prestige, differing ideas on 128
price of goods, and lifestyle concept 192
PricewaterhouseCoopers xiii, xiv, 25, 27
and Lehman Brothers 124
Printer’s Ink, decision-making 189
problematization 221
and brands 222
ethics of 221, 235
problem-solving 220
Procter and Gamble
consumer research 194
focus on values 15
ivy soap branding 15, 18
product placement, and intertextuality 108 product transformation, to brand magic 73–4 production and brand as interface with consumption 12, 64–5, 71, 162, 172 and consumption, interaction between 35 rational and emotional intensity 160 organization of 14 production era, turbulence of 178 and birth of consumer society 178 see also demand creation; Wedgewood products, defined by symbolic powers 13 progressive profiling 159 involvement of consumers 159–60 propaganda 201
and Bernays 7
and Eisenstein 201
Prosper 143, 161
public relations, and propaganda 7 Publicis 64
publishing industry, driver of market research 182 Putnam, R., breakdown of social organization 138 qualification-requalification process 52, 159 quality, perceived by consumer 35 Quelch, John A., marketing 216
Quintilian 223
Rainwater, Lee concept of lifestyle 186–7 findings of study 187–9 focus on housewives 187 justification for study 187 Ramaswamy, Venkat
co-creation of value 143–4
evolvability 167
Ravitch, Diane, analysis of presidential debates 216 Reagan, Ronald, neoliberalism 215 recruitment revolution 124 different employer brands 125 employee experience 124
Red Cross, use of branding 199 Redhill, David, and Deloitte 24–5
brand function 25–6
global identity 26–7 airport adverts 28–9 collaboration and partnership 27–8 human brand 27
redefinition of 28
limited controllability of brand 35 modality 26
Reich, R. 197
corporate statesmen 14
personal choice 216
relationship networks, emergence of brand 45–6 repetition, impossibility of 99–100 reputation importance to ING 11 link to branding 51
measure of success 32 networks of relations 51 and risk 26
Resor, Stanley B., J. Walter Thompson and advertising 54–5, 56 retail firms, creation of brand 119 retail therapy 9
Ries, Al, brand identity 97
Riesman, D. breakdown of social organization 138 lonely crowd 201
Riley, D. F. 19
Rilke, R. M., the beauty of the sublime 254 Ritsou, M. 224
rituals 121
Ritzer, George, McDonaldization of society 201, 202, 231
Robins, D. 227
Rochberg-Halton, E. 19
Rockefeller, J. D. 38
Roeblisberger, Dickinson, see Mayo Rorty, Richard 205 language, change and innovation 103–4 Rose, Nicolas 222
freedom 214
legitimacy and truth 198 public opinion 177
Rosso, Renzo, and Diesel 18, 246
Rotzoll, K. 78
Royal Bank of Scotland 90
Royal Mail 52
Ruscha, Ed, Absolut Art 108 Rutherford, Paul 16, 104 advertising of public goods 199
propaganda 201
Ryder, Ian, brand management 194
Rylander, A. 37
Saab, rejection of change 141
Saatchi and Saatchi 58
Said, Edward xii, 23
Samit, Edward, xii
identity 97
Salancik, G. R. 39
Salzer-Möring, M. 43
Sandage, C. W. 78, 206
Santa Clara County v. Southern Pacific Railroad case 38
Sarbanes-Oxley Act 25
Sartre, Jean-Paul, freedom of action 235
Sassen, S. 89
Saussure, F. de 42
Scanlon, Jessie, American Brandstand 43
Schau, H. J. and Apple 138
Schmidt, Eric, and Google 195
Schindler, J. E. 43, 240
Schultz, Howard, and Starbucks brand 53
Schultz, Majken xiii, 30, 31, 111
Schouten, U. J. 142
Schein, Edgar, organizational culture 117, 118, 126 culture model 119–20
Freudian influence 120
Schmid, Eric, and Google 195 and Chinese censorship 196 Schmitt, Bernd 231, 243, 245
brand aesthetics 258
Schmusch, M. 75
Schouten, U. J. 142
symbolic consumption 223
Schroeder, J. E. 43, 240
Schultz, Howard, and Starbucks brand 53
Schultz, Majken xiii, 30, 31, 111
brand as internal organizing principle 14 dynamic relationship between identity and image 112, 113 identity 96
and Intel 19
internal culture and external environment 131 organizational change and implementation of brand 125 shift to corporate branding 36–7
Scott-Heron, Gil 272 Scully, John, Apple identity 137 search engines 252
user driven 33
Second Life 81, 141, 250
Seemann, S. 128
Séraphy, Rrose, see Duchamp self-actualization 13–14
and branding 194
marketing of products 177, 183 self-interest, in Hobbes theory 50 semiotic transformation, of product to brand 42 Serres, Michel 165, 214 service firms, behaviour of employees 118, 119, 123 services, perceptions of 19 Seurat, and Pointillisme 26–7
Shah, D. V. 208
Sheldon, R. and Arens, E., consumer engineering 180 Shell, consumer control 207
Sherry, J. F., Jr. 194, 234
Shewry, Christine, Insurance Australia Group Ltd (IAG), recruitment revolution 123–5 Siemens, concern over reputation 14 Simmel, G., fashion 198
lifestyle 266
philosophy of money 45 tragedy of style 259–61 Simmons, John 59
Simonson, Alex 231, 243
brand aesthetics 258
Sims, R., Enron collapse 129
Slater, D. 8
Smircich, L. 37
Smith, Adam 166
invisible hand and equilibrium of markets 206 social identity, of objects 19 social signifiers 43, 264–5 SourceForge.net 163
Soviet Realism, and advertising 56
Sprite 229
St Luke’s, company structure 65 de-stabilization of workplace 66 employees’ attitude 66 stability, temporary illusion 99, 100 and language 102
Staney, M. 224
standard of living, replaced by lifestyle 265 Starbucks 75, 208, 234
Starkey, Ken, narcissistic identity 112–13 Starobinski, Jean, history of interaction 169, 170 status anxiety viii, 213 Stein, M., Barings collapse 129
Stendhal 131
Stewart, Martha, lifestyle brand 189, 258
Stewart, S. 70
Stolle, D. 208 stories, part of culture 121 Strasser, S. 180
StrawberryFrog, advertising and cultural consciousness 63 style, definition of 258 paradox of 259–61
Subaru xiii
words and image creation 108 subconscious, and social control 8–9 subjectivity, ethics of 223 zone of 226
Sunderland, P. L. 193, 194 supply and demand advertising as mediator 64–5 and qualification-requalification process 52–3 see also consumption-production process Surowiecki, J. 161 sustaining technologies 168 Swatch xiv
Sydney Opera House xiii
Index

symbolic nature of brand 36, 37 symbols, and self-expression 191–2 taleb, nassim 3, 71

tattoo 230
taxes, consumption-based 212 taylor, f. w. 117, 131, 178, 228, 237 tedlow, r. s., and pepsi 193 tesco, loyalty programmes 194 text messaging, creative practices of users 133 thatcher, margaret, neoliberalism 215 the other final 62
thematic apperception test 186 theor y of planned behaviour 76 thinking in alternatives 220 thomas, j. b. 112
thompson, c. j. 135, 224, 230
homogenization 233
thompson, j. walter, advertising 182 thornborrow, joanna, cosmopolitan magazine 232 tilmant, michel, ing 11 time magazine
person of the year 143
technology and individuals viii tipper, harry, demand creation 180 t-mobile, and ben 61 toffler, alvin, prosunter 142–3 tonge, a. 129
tonglet, m. 76
tönnes, breakdown of social organization 138 toscani, oliveiro, and benetton 59, 104–5 toyota 12
brand experience 247
transaction, and interaction 50 trentmann, f. 8
trout, jack, brand identity 97 trueman, m., city branding 89 tumbat, g., cult of macintosh 137 tungate, m. 57, 59
media planning 80
turner, b. a. 129

uggl a, h. 43
unethical behaviour, and reputation 51 unilever, and falconer 90 user-led innovation 162–3 studies of 163–4 see also 3m; lead users; open-source innovation valéry 227 value
co-creation of 116, 131 brands as interface between consumer and producer 142–4, 144, 145 focus on 46

see also brand culture van gogh 178, 241
van ham, p., city branding 89 van leeuwen 226
van maanen, j. 126
disneyland smile factory 130–1 van riel, c. b. m. 110
on reputation 51
van schooten, jeroen 10 vaughan, d., problems with strong cultures 129 veblen, t., conspicuous consumption 132, 183 verizon, teaching about life 197 vignettes 150
virgin 3
and identity-based strategy 114 market entries 33
see also branson virilio, p. 171
virtual aesthetics 252–3, 255 virtual worlds 250, 252–3 role of brands 251
vise, d. 252 visit scotland, adoption of brand 93 vodafone xii volkswagen beetle 57, 202
rejection of change by customers 141
brand experience 247
hierarchic split 34
voltaire, candide 220
von hippel, eric 136, 153, 157 and 3m 163 lead users 164–6
open innovation 162–3, 166, studies of user-led innovation 163–4 wä gner, richard; see gesamtkunstwerk walker, rob 17, 41, 42, 194, 223, 247 ‘marketing’ 226

wal-mart, scrutiny of 219 war for talent 124
warhol, andy 238, 239–40
absolut vodka 108, 243
advertising to art 60, 73 critique of brand society 240 waterman, robert, corporate culture 117, 144 arguments against 127–8
watson, john b.
advertising as social engineering 264 alliance with jwt 54–5, 56 laws of behaviour 60
Index

Watson, John B. (cont.)
marketing 202

Wattanasuwon, K. 223

Weber, Max 178
bureaucracy 264

Wedgwood, Josiah, ability to create demand 178–9

Weick, K. E. 176

Weiss, E. H. 185

Weissenbaeck, Johannes, PLAY xvii, xviii
Wells, Mary, advertising 58

Welsh, Irvine, Trainspotting 107
Weltz, G. 167

Wengrow, D. 178
Whetten, D. A. 96

Whyte, W. H. 228

Wikipedia 81, 161–2

Welsh, Irvine, Trainspotting 107

Whetten, D. A. 96

Whyte, W. H. 228

Wikipedia 81, 161–2

Wilkinson, J. 208, 209

Williams, R. 73

Wilson, President Woodrow 7

Wipperfürth, A. 18, 40, 110, 182, 227, 247
brand tribes 141

Wired magazine, and hip 229

Wittgenstein, L. 169
language games 106, 268

Wölfli, Adolf, Art Brut 260 workshops, performance of ad agencies 69, World Economic Forum, and corporate brand reputation 32 World of Warcraft 81

Worldwide Centers of Commerce Index 89

Wozniak, Steve, foundation of Apple 137

WPP 64

Xerox, innovator’s dilemma 168

Yankelovich, brand experience 247

Yoell, W. A. 189

Young and Rubicam, Brand Asset Valuator 74

You Tube 81

Zablocki, B. D. 192

Zaltman, G. 13, 199, 246 social marketing 199 zeitgeist, and branding 23

Zizek, Slavoj 171, 213 desire 8
freedom 215, 216

Zwick, D., markets and morals 209

Zyman, Sergio, control of consumers 181