

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

Index

- 20–20 hindsight fallacy, 248
- 9/11, 1, 7, 20, 27, 40, 53, 200, 202, 245, 250, 273, 302, 337, 357, 433, 443
- changed policing, 218
- created a narrative about a new security-liberty balance, 371
- failure to prevent, 251
- internationalized terrorism, 116
- leadership following, 291
- like a wasp in a car, 436
- product of numerous ignored threats, 391
- product of numerous security lapses, 390
- revealed lack of agency coordination, 322
- revealed lack of preparedness, 296
- stirred up fear of Middle Easterners, 306
- 9/11 Commission Report, 328, 371
- actuarial risk models, 314–315
- actus reus, 22–23
- affect heuristic, 280
- Afghanistan
- needed a Marshall Plan, not military power, 394
- agency
- an aspect of right to privacy, 361
- airport security, 140
- al Qaeda, 20, 22–23, 31, 40, 61, 76, 107, 115, 117, 249, 252–253, 342, 391–392, 395, 414, 423
- funded by Saudis, 395
- missed opportunities by the West, 395
- al-Hazmi, Nawaf, 249, 334
- all hazards policing, 227
- alliance model of terrorists and gangs, 102
- al-Mihdhar, Khalid, 249
- American Indians
- US-sponsored terrorism against, 48
- American Society of Criminology, 444
- Amnesty International, 304
- amygdala, 277
- animal-rights extremists, 45
- anthrax attacks of 2001, 54
- appeasement
- an empirical question, 89
- Arafat, Yassir, 411
- Arar, Maher, 261
- Aristotle
- on assassination, 77
- Armenian Secret Army for the Liberation of Armenia, 429
- Atta, Mohammed, 254, 334
- Authorization for the Use of Military Force Joint Resolution, 36
- availability heuristic, 279
- Ayyash, Yahya
- assassination of, 393
- backlash effects, 432–435.
- See also* defiance theory
- beliefs common to terrorists, 73
- Bentham, Jeremy, 384, 455
- Beslan, 20
- Bill of Rights, 373
- bin Laden, Osama, 1, 61, 254, 256, 385, 387, 391, 433
- offered for arrest prior to 9/11, 395
- Black Widows, 115
- Blair, Prime Minister Tony, 392

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

462

INDEX

- blowback. See defiance theory
- bond relationship targeting, 30
- Branch Davidian incident, 200
- bunches of guys, 452
- Bush, President George H. W., 405
- Bush, President George W., 388, 390–391, 394, 405
- California, 23–25
  - laws relevant to terrorism, 21
- Central Intelligence Agency, 58, 332
  - failed communication with FBI, 269
  - failure to act, not failure to connect dots, 251
  - failures to prevent 9/11, 249, 250
  - trained Islamists in guerrilla warfare, 392
- Chechens, 20
- Cheney, Dick, 273, 290
- Chicago gangs
  - more organized than San Diego gangs, 104
- Christian extremists, 45, 49
- Churchill, Winston, 291, 295
  - resisted by George Marshall, 388
- civil liberties, 360
  - counterterrorism threats to, 143
- civil society, 363
- civility
  - decline of, 288
- clash of civilizations, 284
- Clinton, President Bill, 389
- cognitive-behavioral training, 140
- communication failures, 248
- community partnerships
  - difficult to build, 221
- community policing, 7, 142, 209, 212, 215–216, 219, 237
  - about building trust, 219
  - and terrorism, 220
  - as a fear-reduction strategy, 292
  - can reduce fear, 222
  - goals, 215
  - origins, 213
  - partnerships and prevention, 229
  - seeks to improve transparency, 234
  - varying effects on fear, 176
- COMPSTAT, 225, 260
- congressional inquiries on intelligence services, 245
- connecting dots, 246, 402
- failures by U.S. intelligence services, 248
  - involves four procedures, 248
  - logic of, 262
  - practicalities, 247
  - requires data and procedure, 247
- containment v. enlargement, 389
- containment model, 388
- COPS Program, 221
- cost-benefit, 141
- cost-benefit analysis, 141–142
- counterterrorism
  - analysis, 247
  - and crime prevention, 134
  - criminal justice model slightly better than warfare model, 396
  - interactions are a key to understanding what works, 446
  - public health model for, 383
  - regulatory model is preferable, 383
  - research issues, 144–145
  - role of police, 255
  - too little focus on demand-side, fear, 274
  - via a criminal justice model, 395
- counterterrorism strategies, 83
  - education, 84–85
  - limitations of protective strategies, 78
- crime
  - instrumental v. expressive, 163
- crime analysis, 225
- crime mapping. See crime analysis
- crime prevention, 210
  - aspects are relevant to terrorism, 130
  - evidence of effectiveness, 140
  - interventions are varied, 131
  - proactive and reactive approaches, 133
  - reactive strategies, 134
- Crime Prevention Matrix, 131–134, 136, 139, 141, 143, 146
- crime prevention strategies
  - largely irrelevant to terrorism, 129
- criminal investigation
  - three segments of, 257
- criminal justice system
  - not really much of a system, 343
- criminal profiling, 304
  - can be a self-fulfilling prophecy, 307
- criminological theory, 14
  - relevance for counterterrorism policy, 14

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

INDEX

463

- criminologists
  - and terrorism, 443
  - can contribute to understanding terrorism, 443–444, 457
- criminology
  - few empirical studies of terrorism, 411
  - has largely overlooked terrorism, 411
  - irrelevant to many aspects of terrorism, 129
  - multidisciplinary approaches, 130
- Crips and Bloods, 105
- C-SPAN, 289
- culture of fear
  - can be exploited by terrorists, 368
- culture of prevention, 269
- Defense Applied Research Projects Agency, 204
- Defense Appropriations Act of 1997, 202
- defiance theory, 384, 432, 452
- democratic policing, 209, 237
- definition, 212
  - diminished by counterterrorist activity, 239
- Department of Homeland Security, 327, 330, 338, 436
  - an umbrella of agencies, 328
  - myopic focus on terrorism, 340
  - sprawling organization chart, 349
- Department of State terrorism data, 57
- Department of State
  - changed definition of terrorism, 59
- detention of combatants, 35
- deterrence, 87, 383
  - can be more than offset by defiance, 384
  - limits of, 78
  - more effective when perceived as fair, 385
- deterrent threats
  - can be counterproductive in terrorism, 87
- Detroit
  - 1967 riot, 190, 203, 205
- developmental democracy, 89
- Dhanu, 120
- discretion
  - errors in the exercise of, 454
- driving while black, 307
- drug dealers
  - similarities to terrorists, 191
- Dulles, John Foster, 389
- El Rukn, 106, 108
- Ellsberg, Daniel, 357
- emergency response, 203
- enlargement failures, 391
- era of terrorism
  - as political hyperbole, 368
- ethnic profiling, 302, 312
  - easier when a minority, 306
  - is not always effective, 308
  - legal and ethical aspects, 303
  - reifies perceived differences, 305
- evaluation research
  - on counterterrorism, 141
- evidence-based medicine
  - benefits from large samples, 402
- evidence-based strategy, 401
- evolutionary ecology, 66
- evolutionary-ecological perspective, 67, 77, 88
- extremism
  - finding ways to deal with, 453
  - typically grounded in hatred, 453
- extremists
  - left-wing, 47
  - right-wing, 47
- false negatives, 451
- false positives, 451
- Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front, 420
- FBI Annual Reports on terrorism, 57
- fear
  - a natural human emotion, 276
  - acute, 275
  - and risk, 278
  - associated with time watching TV, 285
  - can lead to harmful policies, 294
  - culture of, 281
  - due to sense of powerlessness, 283
  - excessive fear is self-endangering, 275
  - goal of terrorism, instrument of street crime, 274
  - goal of terrorist, instrument of criminal, 165
  - is accompanied by physiological changes, 276
  - is largely a matter of biology, 277
  - is mostly learned, 277–278
  - is shaped by experience, 278

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

464

INDEX

- fear (cont.)
- is useful up to a point, 275
  - keeps us out of harm's way, 276
  - management strategies, 292–293
  - nature and sources of, 276
  - not a rare event, 173
  - of crime, managing, 292
  - of fear may be too small, 275
  - often excessive due to overestimated threats, 278
  - often inflated due to media, 282
  - political pandering, 289
  - reduction strategies, 292
  - role in crime and terrorism, 164
  - role of leadership in reducing, 295
  - social costs of, 282, 293
  - tends to increase with age, 277
- fear management, 173, 223
- fear of crime, 174
- estimating the social costs of, 451
- fear of terrorism, 152
- is inflated well beyond reason, 275
  - understand in order to prevent terrorism, 450
- fear reduction, 173, 216
- central to policing against terrorism, 232
  - interventions, 177
- fear-reduction programs
- for crime and terrorism may be similar, 177
- fear-reduction strategies, 7
- Federal Bureau of Investigation, 323, 331
- 11,633 agents in 2003, 323
  - central role in Joint Terrorism Task Forces, 329
- Federal Emergency Management Agency, 201, 329, 340, 344
- federal government
- role in homeland security, 324
- federal prosecutors, 328
- process few terrorism cases, 332
  - role in homeland security, 332
- federal-local law enforcement
- coordination, 322
  - often more costly than beneficial to locals, 344
- Financial Action Task Force, 394
- first responders, 337
- first-generation warfare, 28
- foot patrols, 215
- force, use of
- on suspected terrorists, 33
- Fort, Jeff, 106
- Fourteenth Amendment, 303, 310
- Fourth Amendment, 310
- fourth-generation warfare, 29
- freedom
- distinct from liberty, 358
  - Kleinig definition, 358
- gang crime
- falls between other crime and terrorism, 98
- gang homicides
- related more to turf than drugs, 105
- gang research, 97
- gangs, 97
- alliance and recruitment models, 5
  - and terrorist cells, 5
  - global interconnections, 105
  - less well-organized than terrorist groups, 103
  - most are weakly organized, 104
  - no allegiance to larger system, 108
- gang-suppression programs
- in need of evaluation, 109
- general strain theory, 453
- Geneva Conventions, 35
- Ghaddafi, Moammar, 393
- Gingrich, Newt, 386
- Giuliani, Rudolph, 291, 293
- Global Terrorism Database, 414–415, 418, 422, 425, 427, 429, 433, 444
- Goldstein, Herman, 216
- Graduated Reduction In Tension Theory, 386
- group polarization, 281
- guardianship
- examples at airports, buildings and subways, 168
  - may be active or passive, 154
  - role in opportunity theory, 153
- guerilla warfare. See terrorism: and guerilla warfare
- distinct from other forms of terrorism, 99
- guerillas, 54
- Halliburton, 202
- Hamas, 412
- Hamdi v. Rumsfeld*, 36

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

INDEX

465

- Hanjour, Hani, 253, 334
 hard power, 455
 hate crime, 54
 Hertzberg-Alarcon California Prevention of Terrorism Act, 25
 heuristics, 279
 Hitler, 388
 Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 295 homeland security
   core mission of federal prosecutors post-9/11, 328
   federal-local coordination, 326 networks of networks, 325
 hostis humani generis, 37
 hot spots, 220
 hot-spot policing, 140
 Hurricane Katrina, 185, 200, 203, 339,
   344, 348
 Hussein, Saddam, 1, 398
- Idris, Wafa, 118
 illegal immigration, 143
 immigrants
   threatened by police interrogations, 234
 Immigration and Customs Enforcement, 329
 improvised explosive devices (IEDs), 55
 incapacitation, 309
 incapacitative justice, 386
 Incident Command System, 339
 infiltration policing conflicts with community policing, 269
 informants
   problem of revealing their identities, 259 information pooling, 266
 insurgents, 50
 intelligence, 245
   actionable, 266
   as art guided by evidence, 402
   Brodeur's definition, 246 essential to effective prevention of terrorism, 246
   evidence-based, 402
   few definitions of, 246
   information flow, 337 role of police in gathering and analyzing, 255
 intelligence analysts make poor police officers, 255 intelligence gathering can harm police-community relations, 344
   often conflicts with goal of conviction, 260 sensitive topic in a democracy, 261 intelligence information sharing often a one-way street, 262 intelligence services
   failure to prevent 9/11, 245
   studies of the effectiveness, 245 intelligence-led policing, 231, 246 interagency partnerships
   often become bureaucratic, 341
 investigation of terrorism, 340
 Irish Republican Army, 129, 433
 Islamic terrorists, 31
 Islamist terrorism, 328
 islands of civility
   as a source of terrorism prevention, 398
- Japanese
   internment during World War II, 300, 302, 357
 Jarrah, Ziad S., 334
 Joint Terrorism Task Forces, 232, 323, 329, 340
   can have sharp internal cultural differences, 347
   consists of 38 agencies, 329
   intelligence role, 329 investigative responsibilities, 345 mission of, 329
   often become bureaucratic, 341 operations vary from place to place, 330
   varying levels of local support, 342
 Justice Commandos of the Armenian
   Genocide, 429
- Kant, Immanuel, 266
 Kennan, George, 388
 Kerner Commission, 218
 Kerry, John, 273, 290
 Korematsu decision, 357
 Ku Klux Klan, 47, 74
 Kurdish Workers Party, 115
- labeling theory, 433
 left-wing terrorists more educated than average, 72

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

466

INDEX

- legitimacy
 and transparency, 234
 lost in intelligence-gathering, 229 of the police, 8
 of wars on terrorism, 385
 police, 211–214, 216, 219, 233, 240 undermined by intrusiveness, 236 undermined by lapses in discretion, 454 undermined by poor exercise of discretion, 453
- liberty
 all constraints are not the same, 360 constraints often have undesirable side effects, 376 distinct from freedom, 358
 Kleinig definition, 359
 parallel with security, 363
- liberty and security
 a tradeoff, not a balance, 369, 377 balancing social costs, 451
- life course theory, 453
- local governments
 role in homeland security, 324
- London Metropolitan Police, 213
- London transit attack of 2005, 30
- lone wolf terrorists, 62
- MacArthur, Douglas, 389
- Madrid, attack of 2004, 416
- managing fear of terrorism. See also fear management
- Mandela, Nelson
 model of restorative justice, 388
- maneuver warfare, 28
- Marshall Plan, 388
- Marshall, General George C., 388–389, 405 decisive yet judicious, 388
 model statesman, 387
- martyrdom
 and defiance theory, 385
 makes harsh sanctions counterproductive, 87
- mass murder, 22–23, 26
- McCarthy, Senator Joseph, 389
- McLuhan, Marshall, 284
- McVeigh, Timothy, 40, 46, 49, 74, 76
 captured via license check, 224
- media, 282
 a central instrument of terrorism, 282, 284 as terrorist's oxygen of publicity, 289 capable of public service education, 295 commercialization of, 287–288 conflicting goals, 286 feeding fear and terrorism, 286 focus on extreme events, 285
 incentives for reliable reporting, 286 news as entertainment, 288
 nonprofit broadcasting, 289 objectivity, 286
 often serve terrorist aims, 52
 professionalism, 287 role in fueling fear of terrorism, 54 satisfying voyeuristic interests, 283 serve prophecies of clashing civilizations, 284
- mens rae, 22–23
- militarism
 concerns about increases in policing, 204
- military adjustments to external shifts, 195
 changes in the external environment, 188
 changing role post-9/11, 186 distinct from police by design, 186 symbiotic relationship with police, 201 tragic results in domestic events, 183 used as law enforcers, 184 used in counterterrorism activity, 184
- Mill, John Stuart, 359
- Miranda rights, 34
- mixed strategy
 to efficiently allocate scarce guardianship resources, 450
- Moorish Science Temple of America, 106
- moral panic
 preventing, 240
- Moussaoui, Zacarias, 253, 255–256
- Mubarak al-Rishawi, Sajida, 117
- Mumbai attack of 2008, 296, 416
- Murad, Abdul-Hakim, 252, 254
- Muzhakhoyeva, Zarema, 122
- myths about terrorism.
See terrorism: myths
- nation building, 394
- National Commission on Terrorist Attacks against the United States, 246
- National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States, 331

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

INDEX

467

- National Consortium for the Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism, 444
- National Counterterrorism Center, 46, 58, 420
- National Gang Crime Research Center, 108
- National Incident Management System, 338
- National Public Radio, 288
- National Response Plan, 338
- National Response Strategy, 340
- national security and national interests, 365 exploitation of it a slippery slope, 368 exploitation of it may undermine it, 367 not clearly defined, 364 relates to both borders and traditions, 365
- National Security Agency, 249
- need to know principle, 268
- negotiation
builds legitimacy, 387 supports procedural justice, 387
- Netanyahu, Prime Minister
Benjamin, 394
- netwar, 349
- network analysis
needed for criminal intelligence, 227
- networks and networks of networks, 325
centrality property, 325
- Nichols, Terry, 46
- nuclear weapon proliferation, 389
- Office for Domestic Preparedness, 331
- Office of Community Preparedness, 331
- Office of Law Enforcement
Coordination, 331
- Office of State and Local Government
Coordination, 331
- Oklahoma City bombing, 40, 46, 53, 273, 306, 337
- Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, 197–198
- open source data on terrorism, 413
- Operation Phoenix
as US-sponsored terrorism, 48 opportunity reduction strategies, 66, 78–80, 160, 169
- opportunity theory, 6, 69, 151–152, 157
and common law crime, 158
and crime displacement, 162 and fear of terrorism, 450 effective for many situations, 160 is really a class of theories, 153 limited relevance to terrorism, 152 more policy-relevant than other theories of crime, 151 place or situation unit of analysis, 151 relevance to specific situations, 157 relevance to terrorism, 163
tests of, 158
to reduce fear, 172
use of wheel locks to reduce auto thefts, 159 used to reduce gas suicides, 159 used to reduce motorcycle thefts, 159
- organized communities have low levels of crime and fear, 175
- Padilla v. Hanft*, 36
- Padilla, Jose, 107
- Palestine
plagued by disunity, 398
- Palestinian terrorism
women actively involved, 118
- Palestinians, 20
- PATRIOT Act. See USA PATRIOT Act
- peace process
unraveling of, 394
- Peel, Robert, 205, 210
- Peres, Prime Minister Shimon, 393
- Phoenix Memo, 252, 254–255
- piracy
laws against, 37
- PKK. See Kurdish Workers Party
- police accountability, 215, 219, 221
adjustments to external shifts, 197 and military, 7
changes in the external environment, 189
collaborations, 232
cult of evidence, 259
partnerships, 237
police intelligence units typical characteristics of, 258 police legitimacy. See legitimacy: police police officers make poor intelligence analysts, 255

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

468

INDEX

- police-community relations, 214
- police-community relations era, 214
- policing
  - federal versus state and local authority, 8
  - real-world constraints on, 238
- policing terrorism
  - importance of information, 223
- political criminology, 316
- political pandering. See fear: political pandering
- politicians
  - tend to err in favor of security over liberty, 377
- politics
  - as a blood sport, 289
- politics of homeland security, 58
- pork barrel in homeland security. See politics of homeland security
- Posse Comitatus Act, 33–34, 184
- precautionary principle, 291
- prediction of terrorism, 224
- prejudices
  - bound primarily in culture, not religion, 456
- prevention of terrorism
  - primary forms of, 396
  - secondary forms of, 397
  - tertiary forms of, 397
- preventive diplomacy, 404
- prisoners of war
  - terrorists as, 35
- privacy, 361
  - deontological considerations, 362
  - not merely an aspect of liberty, 362
- privacy and secrecy
  - barrier to police intelligence, 233
- proactive policing, 140
- probability neglect, 280
- probable cause
  - allows for probabilistic inference, 257
- problem solving, 222. See also
  - problem-oriented policing 220
  - through partnerships, 229
- problem-oriented policing, 7, 140, 209, 212, 215, 219, 237
  - and terrorism, 220
  - application, 216
  - difficult due to mediocrity, 222
  - origins, 213
- procedural justice, 385, 387, 404
- profiling
  - racial. See racial profiling
  - social costs of, 451
- Psychological Reactance Theory, 384
- public health model
  - relevance for counterterrorism, 396
  - three levels of prevention, 396
- Rabin, Prime Minister Yitzak, 393
  - assassination of, 398
- racial profiling, 300, 302, 357
  - based on flawed premises, 312
  - definition, 303
  - difficult to assess effectiveness of, 313
  - easier when a minority, 306
  - fundamentally unfair, 305
  - in vehicle stops, 304
  - is an ethical issue, 317
  - is not always effective, 308
  - legal and ethical aspects, 303
  - reifies perceived differences, 305
  - unclear whether it reduces crime, 307
- RAND Corporation, 425
- recruitment model of gangs, 107
- Red Brigades
  - ended by criminal justice sanctions, 395
- Red Terror, 71
- regulatory model, 383
- Reid, Richard C., 254
- responsive regulation, 403
- Ressam, Ahmed, 248
- restorative justice, 140, 386, 388, 404
  - relevance to counterterrorism, 138
- retaliation and protection, 80–81
- revolutionaries, 50
- right-wing terrorists
  - less educated than average, 72
- risk assessment
  - often distorted by emotion, 278
  - often distorted by heuristics, 279
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 295, 301
- Routine Activities Theory, 77, 138, 450
- routine activity theory, 154
  - a subset of opportunity theory, 153
  - policy implications, 155
- Rowley, Coleen, 254
- Ruby Ridge, 49
- Sa'ad, Sumayah, 118
- Saudi Arabia, 392

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

INDEX

469

- second-generation warfare, 28
- secondary deviance, 433
- Secret Service, 329
- security
- and rights, 363, 451
  - as absence of threat, 364
  - individual and collective, 363
  - proper level depends on aversion to risk, 370
- Security and Intelligence Review Committee, 249
- security and liberty. See liberty and security
- severity of punishment
- does not deter terrorists, 87
- Siddiqui, Aafia, 117, 121
- simulation
- for assessing counterterrorism strategies, 451
- situational crime prevention, 134, 138, 154–155, 178
- a subset of opportunity theory, 153
  - advantages for empirical analysis, 154
- smart power, 455
- social capital, 454
- social control theory, 5, 385
- social costs, 451
- social disorganization theory, 100
- social network analysis
- under-utilized in counterterrorism, 349
- social network theory, 325
- boundary permeability, 326
  - boundary spanning, 325–327
  - strong and weak ties, 325
- soft power, 85, 455
- Soros, George, 398
- Southern Poverty Law Center, 57
- Sri Lanka, 115
- Stalin, Josef
- tamed by George Marshall, 387
- street gangs
- bear similarities to terrorist organizations, 97
- suicide terrorists, 74
- super-terrorist
- a myth, 436
- supply-side criminology, 211
- surveillance
- and right to privacy, 361
- syllogism, 263
- systems of accountability
- can improve the exercise of discretion, 454
- Taliban, 387, 394–395
- means “scholars” in Urdu, 391
- Tamil Tigers, 115
- 30% women, 120
- target-hardening, 140
- Task Force on Disorders and Terrorism, 56
- tautology, 264
- team policing, 214
- technical core, 326
- technology
- impact of changes on military, 196
  - transfers between military and police, 187
- terror
- means fear in the extreme, 276
- terrorism
- 1986 task force definition, 42
  - acts are also criminal acts, 444
  - ancient roots of, 53
  - and aggression, 2
  - and common law crime, 163–164
  - and crime, 19, 66
  - and crime prevention, 6
  - and criminal violence, 20
  - and education, 71
  - and fear, 7
  - and federal law, 25–26
  - and guerrilla warfare, 20
  - and hate crime, 54
  - and poverty, 71
  - and profiling, 311
    - social costs, 451
  - and public policy, 33
  - and social control theory, 385
  - and state laws, 22
  - and war, 19
  - as a public health problem, 294
  - as a tactic, 67
  - as asymmetric warfare, 30
  - as crime, 2, 6, 21, 27, 32–34
  - as piracy, 37
  - as poor man’s battle, 29
  - as supply-demand problem, 142
  - as war, 27, 31, 34–35
  - barriers to empirical research on, 448
  - boundaries are vague, 445
  - by groups, 18

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

- terrorism (cont.)
- by individuals, 18
  - can be reduced, not eradicated, 89
  - causes of, 70
  - changing nature of, 47, 61
  - Combs's definition, 41
  - committed mostly by young males, like crime, 98
  - Cooper's definition, 42
  - criminal justice model a poor fit, 383
  - danger of over-dramatizing, 67
  - danger of viewing as war, 67
  - Defense Department definition, 42–43
  - defies empirical analysis for several reasons, 448
  - definition, 129, 311
  - definition of, 2, 17, 29, 33
  - definition typology, 44
  - definitions, 41
  - definitions vary by agency interests, 46
  - difficult to predict, 169
  - difficulty of predicting events, 49
  - dimensions of, 447
  - distinct from guerrilla warfare, 54
  - distinct from other forms of aggression, 445
  - ecological perspective of, 4
  - elements of (Mullins-Thurman), 45
  - evidence-based prevention, 383
  - facilitated by technology and globalization, 116
  - FBI definition, 43, 70
  - Forst's definition, 446
  - Friedman's definition, 41
  - goals more complex than for crime, 165
  - growing public awareness of, 55
  - how definitions vary, 445
  - Howard and Sawyer's definition, 42
  - in Algeria, 419
  - in Colombia, 418
  - in Germany, 416
  - in India, 416
  - in Iraq, 44
  - in Latin America, 418
  - in Northern Ireland, 433, 435
  - in South Africa, 419, 425
  - in South Asia, 418
  - in Southeast Asia, 418
  - in the Middle East, 418
  - in the United States, 47, 418, 422
  - in Turkey, 429
  - in United States history, 48
  - information gathering can backfire, 234
  - is committed for a cause beyond self-interest, 445
  - Jenkins' definition, 42
  - Krieger's definition, 41
  - Ku Klux Klan acts of, 55
  - LaFree definition, 412
  - lethality of attacks, 425
  - limited predictability of, 56
  - Lodge's definition, 41
  - many definitions of, 2–3, 41, 43, 70, 412, 445
  - Martin's typology of definitions, 44
  - media gets it wrong, 52
  - more than a crime, 445
  - myths, 411
  - need for creative thinking about, 37
  - not necessarily an irrational act, 452
  - open source data on, 413
  - Poland's definition, 42
  - predicting, 61
  - primary motives for, 76
  - prospects for research on, 449
  - rarity makes prediction difficult, 168
  - root cause analysis of, 402
  - rooted in extremist beliefs, 72
  - Sobel's definition, 41
  - socially constructed, 98
  - spatial distribution of events, 415
  - State Department definition, 43
  - taxonomy serves two useful purposes, 447
  - theory of deterrence doesn't apply, 383
  - Thornton's definition, 41
  - tool of the poor and the weak, 428
  - traditionally a subspecialty of political science, 444
  - typology of, 447
  - unlike common law crime, 167
  - unlike crime in primary goals, 164
  - US Air Force definition, 42
  - valid data are elusive, 412
  - varieties of, 18
  - war model a poor fit, 383
  - Wardlaw's definition, 41
  - weapons used in attacks, 426
  - Whittaker's typology of definitions, 44
  - women in, 5, 448

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

INDEX

471

- terrorism intelligence
  - calls for analytic skill and artfulness, 403
- terrorism investigation
  - primary responsibility is federal, not local, 345
- terrorism law, 32
- Terrorism Liaison Officer, 341
- terrorism prevention, 232, 239
  - benefits from multidisciplinary thinking, 456
  - partnerships may be key, 229
  - relevance of crime prevention models, 449
- terrorist groups, 428
  - camaraderie like gangs, 99
  - often cooperate with organized criminals, 103
  - similarities to criminal gangs, 452
  - tend to live in poor societies, 71
- terrorist incentives, 173
- terrorist motives, 74
- terrorist networks, 227
- terrorist organizations, 428
  - goals of, 102
- terrorist personality, 73
- Terrorist Screening Center
  - watch list of, 336
- Terrorist Threat Integration Center, 58
- terrorists
  - agitational, 50
  - are not like typical violent criminals, 71
  - as pirates, 37
- terror-oriented policing, 260
- theory of games
  - and counterterrorism strategies, 450
- third-generation warfare, 29
- Thirty Years War, 28
- totalitarianism
  - more effectively contained than countered, 389
- transparency
  - in policing, 221, 240
- Transportation Security Administration, 329
- Treaty of Paris, 37
- Truman Containment Doctrine, 388–389
- Truth and Reconciliation Commission, 388
- tyranny of the case file, 256
- U.S. Attorneys, 332. See also federal prosecutors
- U.S. Civil War, 28
- U.S. Coast Guard, 329
- U.S. Customs and Border Protection, 329
- USA PATRIOT Act, 26, 318, 357, 374
- USS Cole, 250
- Uyghurs, 412
- victimization surveys, 154
  - used to test opportunity theory, 160
- Vietnam, 189
  - lesson of, 188
- vigilantes, 50
- vulnerable terrorism targets, 60
- war, 67
- war model
  - is based largely on deterrence, 383
- war on terror
  - has complicated jurisdictional authority, 185
- War on Terror, 1, 5
  - alternatives, 79
- war on terrorism, 302, 375
  - and legitimacy, 385
  - can't win wars against -isms, 446
  - failures of under- and over-reaction, 405
  - is based largely on retribution, 383
- Watts
  - 1965 riot, 190, 194
- weapons of mass destruction, 23, 53
  - exploited politically, 367
- Weather Underground, 47, 86, 425
- web of controls, 398, 400, 403–404
  - more effective when more redundant, 403
- Westphalia, Peace of, 28
- women
  - as potent force for counterterrorism, 455
- women terrorists, 113, 448
  - are usually not mothers, 121
  - brief history of, 114
  - can more easily conceal explosives, 119
  - demographic profile of, 121
  - in 19th century Russia, 113

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-89945-1 - Criminologists on Terrorism and Homeland Security

Edited by Brian Forst, Jack R. Greene and James P. Lynch

Index

More information

472

INDEX

- women terrorists (cont.)
- in Chechnya, 115, 119, 121–122, 124
  - in Hamas, 118
  - in the Basque separatist movement, 119
  - in the IRA, 119
  - in the Red Brigades, 113
  - increased participation in suicide attacks, 114
  - motivated more by personal than political reasons, 115
  - motives, 113, 122
  - not related to women's liberation movement, 113
  - often active participants in terrorist organizations, 116
  - Palestinian, 119
  - rarely involved in car bombings, 118
  - redemption as motive, 123
  - revenge as motive, 122
  - stigmatization as motive, 121, 123
  - usually between adolescence and late thirties, 114
  - usually from the middle and upper classes, 114
- World Trade Center bombing of 1993, 273
- World War I, 28–29
- World War II, 29
- Worldwide Incidents Tracking System, 58
- Yousef, Ramzi, 252
- zero-tolerance policing, 212, 217
- distortion of Broken Windows approach, 260