

INDEX

- access to courts, state's duty to provide, 379
- act of recognition. See recognition
- act of state
- act of home state
    - as rule of applicable law, 30
    - civil claims as to. See civil claims
    - defence of, 8, 10–11, 16, 20, 27, 28, 30, 261–63
    - doctrine of, 15, 262, 278
    - foreign act of state distinguished, 525
    - non-justiciability and, 4, 59
    - overview of, 16
    - references to, 20
    - state immunity and, 16
  - foreign act of state
    - act of home state distinguished, 525
    - allocation of disputes to international law, 539–44
    - allocative functions of, 523–24
    - cause of action existing, 527
    - critiques of doctrine, 523, 524
    - defence of, 523, 525, 526
    - disputes determinable under national laws, 544–45
    - doctrine of, 477–79
    - enforcement of foreign judgments, 529
    - foreign forum as available jurisdiction, 528
    - foreign governmental acts in private international law, 526–38
    - foreign state as claimant, 525–26
    - foreign torts, 534
    - in private international law, 62
    - inter-governmental acts in public international law, 539–45
    - international commercial transactions, 529–30
    - jus cogens*, 537–38
    - non-justiciability and, 539
    - private international law and, 524
    - proof of validity of foreign law, 527–28
    - public policy and public international law, 535–37
    - title to immovable property, 531–34
    - transfers of movable property, 530–31
- Allan, T R S
- judicial review and justiciability, 224
- allocation of foreign relations power
- act of state. See act of state
  - allocative function, xxi–xxii, 5, 6, 7–10, 23–24, 28, 91–100, 219–20
  - applicability of allocative rules, 78–79, 109
  - applicable law. See applicable law
  - application of international law as, 85–91
  - beginnings of allocative approach, 33
  - choice of law. See choice of law
  - claims against foreign states, 484–87
  - constitutional provision for, 65, 72–73, 100–9
  - core idea of, 20
  - criminal law. See criminal law
  - diplomatic protection, 347–53
  - European Union. See European Union
  - jurisdiction. See jurisdiction
  - organs of government. See executive; judiciary; legislature; organs of government
  - question of, 75, 85–91, 110, 219, 524–25
  - rebalancing of power overviewed, 24–26
  - states and. See inter-state relations; state immunity
  - theories of, 41
  - to foreign state. See foreign state
  - to forum state, 95
- Alverstone, Richard Webster, 1st Viscount
- transformation doctrine, 86, 88
- amicus curiae* briefs as to doctrine of jurisdiction, 199–201

Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law

- author's reasons for study, xvii
- commitment to international law, 12
- constitutional rebalancing of power overviewed, 24–26
  - transfers of movable property. See also constitutional law; organs of government
- cooperative approach to development of, xvii
- distinctiveness of, xix
- further study needed, 12
- historical development overviewed, 31–33
- interaction of international and national laws. See international law
- international law in relation, 488–90
- scope and structure of study, 21–30
- scope of author's study, xv
- transfer of power from UK to Dominions, 32–33, 64–75
- treaties as source of law, 160–61
- United States foreign relations law and, xix, 13–14, See also Australia; Canada; New Zealand; United Kingdom

applicable law

- act of state as rule of, 30
- international law as, 19
- private international law focus, 411
- rules of recognition, 78–79

application and interpretation distinguished, 82–85armed conflict. See wararmed forces deployment

- constitutional provision for, 24, 129–34
- constitutional reform, 140–41
- executive's role, 24, 547–71
- international not national issue, 135–36
- justifications for executive control, 134
- legality under international law, 136–37
- operational effectiveness and efficiency issues, 134–35
- parliamentary mandate for, 136
- parliamentary sovereignty and legitimacy, 136
- policy not law, 135
- public scrutiny of strategic information, 136
- state monopoly on, 134
- state practice, 137–40
- visiting forces, immunity for, 517–20

Atkin, James Atkin, Baron

- one voice principle, 240
- separation of domestic and foreign affairs, 15–16
- transformation doctrine, 86–87, 88
- treaties and national laws, 80–81

Australia

- allocation of power, 69–75, 163

- armed forces deployment, 132, 133, 134, 138
- civil claims, 271–72, 283, 284, 291
- commitment to international law, xv
- common approach to foreign relations law, 10–12
- constitutional foundation for allocation of power, 33, 65, 69–75
- constitution-making, 11
- democratic deficit, 157
- diplomatic protection, 364–71
- federal foreign relations power, 151
- foreign affairs select committees, 182–83, 184
- foreign corporations, 406–8
- foreign state
  - act of state, 523, 524, 528, 533–34
  - claims against, 485
  - claims of, 424, 426, 429, 431–32
  - criminal law claims, 461, 462, 463–64
  - evidence and public interest immunity, 250
  - executive certificate of recognition, 244–45, 386, 398–99
  - immunity, 491–92, 493, 499, 503–4, 506, 508, 511, 518, 519
  - recognition policy, 384–85
  - securities regulation claims, 450–51
  - state secrets protection, 466–67, 469
  - tax recovery claims, 456, 457
- habeas corpus, 295–96
- human rights, 342
- jurisdiction and justiciability, 230–32
- legislative functions of treaties, 157, 158
- legislative limitations on power, 122–23
- nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 205
- Parliamentary control of criminal law, 101–2
- Parliamentary oversight of executive, 186, 188–89
- Parliamentary review of treaties pre-ratification, 162–67, 178–79
- Parliament's foreign affairs role, 155
- prerogative power of executive, 117, 118
- presumption against extraterritoriality, 195, 196
- public scrutiny in treaty-making, 159
- stay of proceedings for abuse of process, 239
- suppression of torture, 216
- territorial connection, 200, 201
- transfer of power from UK, 65, 67, 68
- Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement negotiations, 159
- treaties as source of law, 160
- treatise on foreign policy making, 153–54
- treaty-making, 127, 150, 162–67, 178–79
- UN terrorism measures, 106–7
- war crimes jurisdiction, 210, 212

- Bethlehem, Daniel
 international legality of armed forces deployment, 137
- Bill of Rights 1688. See Glorious Revolution of 1688
- Blackstone, Sir William
 cited as authority, 10–11, 32
 diplomatic protection, 354, 373
 international law and criminal law, 103
 Parliament's foreign affairs role, 154
 'Power of War and Peace', 129, 134
 prerogative power of executive, 35, 116, 119
 purpose of writings, 32
 reception of international law, 81, 85, 86, 88
 separation of domestic and foreign affairs, xx, 17
 state prerogative, 42–49
- Brownlie, Sir Ian
 choice of law approach, 8
 reception of international law, 85
 state immunity, 483
- Canada
 armed forces deployment, 131–32, 133, 134
 civil claims, 283–84, 288–89
 commitment to international law, xv
 common approach to foreign relations law, 10–12, 31
 constitution-making, 11
 democratic deficit, 157
 diplomatic protection, 350–52, 366–71
 doctrine of adoption, 86
 federal foreign relations power, 151
 foreign affairs select committees, 183, 184
 foreign state
 act of state, 528
 claims of, 449–50, 454, 455, 456, 461–62
 evidence and public interest immunity, 255–56
 executive certificate of recognition, 242–43, 386, 390, 401
 immunity, 481, 491–93, 500, 503, 506, 511, 517–18, 520–21
 recognition policy, 384, 390
 habeas corpus, 295–96
 human rights, 84, 307, 309–10, 312, 316–19, 323, 329–32, 341–42
 judicial review, 124
 jurisdiction and justiciability, 228–30
 legislative functions of treaties, 158
 nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 204, 206–7
 Parliamentary oversight of executive, 189
 Parliamentary review of treaties pre-ratification,
 162, 171–73, 179–80
 Parliament's foreign affairs role, 155
 prerogative power of executive, 117, 118
 presumption against extraterritoriality, 196
 territorial connection, 199, 201
 transfer of power from UK, 66, 68–69
 Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement
 negotiations, 159
 treaty-making, 126–27, 171–73
 UN terrorism measures, 107
 universal criminal jurisdiction, 210
 war crimes jurisdiction, 210–12, 214
- Chitty, Joseph
 Parliament's foreign affairs role, 154
 prerogative power of executive, 49–51, 116–17
- choice of law
 allocation of power, 98–100
 application to general international law, 89–91, See also applicable law
- civil claims
 act of state as defence, 261–63
 as to inter-state relations, 289–91 colonial acquisition cases, 281–85
 disaggregated approach to, 27
 overseas torts of public officials, 285–89
 slavery suppression cases, 278–81 state's act abroad against foreign national, 276–78
 state's act abroad against own national, 266–76 state's act at home against foreign national, 264–66
 state's act at home against own national, 263–64
 war, 291–93
- claims against foreign states
 adjudication in national court, 477–80
 allocative function of rules on claims, 484–87
 author's analytical approach, 30, 477, 479–80
 commercial acts in private international law, 511–13
 commercial or private acts in forum state, 509–11
 domestic jurisdiction principle, 478, 480–84
 foreign state power exercised at home, 513–17 foreign state power exercised in forum state, 517–23
 state immunity. See state immunity
- claims of foreign states. See foreign state claims
- Collins, Lawrence Collins, Baron
 admissibility of foreign state claims, 440
 commercial transactions, 512 human rights claims, 309–10 jurisdiction and availability of foreign forum, 528 war and state practice, 242
- colonial acquisition cases, civil claims, 281–85
- commercial transactions as act of state, 529–30

- common law and international law in relation, 488–90
- competence
 foreign governments. See foreign governments
 transfer to EU. See European Union
- conferral principle and allocation of power, 144–45
- conflict of laws. See private international law
- constitutional law
 allocation of power, 33, 65, 72–73, 100–9
 application of international law, 80–82 exercise of foreign relations power overviewed, 113–15
 foreign relations law and, 11
 Glorious Revolution. See Glorious Revolution of 1688 modern constitutional state, xxii, See also organs of government
- construction. See interpretation
- ‘control principle’ and foreign government documents, 250–51
- cooperative law enforcement and recovery, 459–66
- corporations recognition of foreign, 406–8
 state responsibility and, 508
- Crawford, James
 foreign state claims, 402, 432
 reception of international law, 85, 87, 490
 state as defendant, 482
- criminal law
 Blackstone’s international law theory, 44–45
 crimes committed on high seas, 192–93
 external acts of public officials, 204–5 foreign state claims and mutual assistance, 459–66 immunity from prosecution, 109–10
 jurisdiction as to conventions for suppression of transnational crimes, 214–17
 nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 203–7 Parliamentary control of, 101–5 piracy, 208–9 serious offences by public officials, 205–7
 state immunity, 518
 suppression of torture, 214–17
 territorial approach to jurisdiction, 56–57
 universal jurisdiction as to transnational crimes, 207–17
 war crimes jurisdiction, 209–17
- Crown. See state
- cultural heritage, foreign state claims, 441–47
- customary international law. See international law
- defence of the realm. See armed forces deployment
- denial of justice
 prize jurisdiction, 47–48
 state responsibility, 516–17
- Denning, Alfred Denning, Baron
 civil claims, 283
 foreign state claims, 428
 reception of international law, 85–86
 separation of domestic and foreign affairs, 489
- detention, habeas corpus and extra-territorial, 298–305
- Devlin, Patrick Devlin, Baron
 state seizure of private property, 470–71
- Dicey, A V
 act of state, 276–77, 288, 478, 485
 armed forces deployment, 130
 cited as authority, 10–11, 31
Conflict of Laws, 41 exclusion of claims about foreign sovereign rights, 55–56
 executive discretion as ministerial responsibility, 54
 executive powers of legislature, 25, 181–82
 extraterritoriality, 194
 foreign relations as state prerogative, 49–59
 foreign state claims, 420, 459
 historical context of writings, 32 international law as non-law, 55
Law of the Constitution, 51
 ministers’ democratic mandate, 155–56
 Parliamentary sovereignty unlimited by international law, 55 personal liability of public officials, 54
 prerogative power of executive, 117, 119–20
 protection of private rights in foreign state, 411
 retrospective ministerial accountability, 153
 separation of domestic and foreign affairs, xx–xxi, 15, 489
 treaties and national laws, 82
- diplomatic immunity
 scope of, 45
 state prerogative and, 37, 42
- diplomatic protection
 allocative function of, 28, 347–53
 author’s analytical approach, 28
 draft articles, 371–72
 duty to protect. See duty to protect foreign relations implications of, 371–74 judicial review of claims, 358
- disaggregation
 external jurisdiction of legislature, 193, 217–18
 human rights, 27–28, 326–32, 345

- notion of, 5, 6, 83, 525
 reception of international law, 87, 490
 state immunity, 517
- disputes determinable under national laws, 544–45
- distribution of foreign relations power. See allocation of foreign relations power
- division of powers. See organs of government
- domestic jurisdiction principle, claims against foreign states, 478, 480–84, 525
- Dugard, John
 diplomatic protection, 348–49
- duty to protect applicability of, 353–54
 torture cases, 357–58, 366
- effective control and competence. See foreign governments
- Eldon, John Scott, 1st Earl of separation of domestic and foreign affairs, xxi, 49
- enforcement of foreign judgments as act of state, 529
- enforcement of foreign state claims. See foreign state claims
- environmental protection, foreign state claims, 449–50, 452
- European Court of Human Rights
 as forum of last resort, 307 disaggregated approach by, 328–29
 human rights applicability, 309–10
 judicial control of executive regulation, 107–8
 military control of foreign territory, 332
 mistreatment of prisoners ruling, 324 overseas acts of state agents, 333–34, 339–41, 342–43
 state immunity, 510, 514, 519–20
 territorial jurisdictions ruling, 319–21, 324–25
- European Union
 allocative function, 142
 common foreign and security policy, 146–48
 conferral principle, 144–45
 democratic deficit, 156–57
 English court rulings as to transfer of competence, 142–43
 EU competence provisions, 143–44, 145–46
 multi-level governance, 141–42
 treaty ratification by UK, 117–18
 UN terrorism measures, 107–8
- evidence rules
 allocation of power, 26, 239–40
 foreign government documents and ‘control principle’, 250–51 public interest immunity and foreign state evidence, 222, 248–57
- executive
 allocation of powers between UK and EU. See European Union
 armed forces deployment, 24, 117–18, 129–41
 author’s analytical approach, 115–16
 common approach to foreign relations law, 11–12
 constitutional provision for allocation of power, 81
 constitutional provision for competence of, 69–70
 exclusive competence, 152–53
 executive discretion as ministerial responsibility, 54, 119–20
 external representative function of, 38–39
 federative function of, 33–42
 foreign relations power overviewed, 24–25, 113–15 international law limitations on power, 124–25 judicial review. See judicial review
 legislative limitations on power, 121–23
 ministers’ democratic mandate, 155–56
 retrospective ministerial accountability, 153
 treaty-making, 117–18, 126–29. See also state prerogative
- executive certificate
 absence of, 397–402
 legal character as to recognition, 386–90
 non-recognition by, 393–97
 not source of law, 244–48
 rationale for, 243–44
 recognition by, 240–48, 391–93
 use of, 239
- executive detention, habeas corpus and extra-territorial, 298–305
- extraterritoriality. See jurisdiction, legislative jurisdiction; territoriality
- federative function of executive, Locke’s theory of, 33–42
- foreign act of state. See act of state, foreign act of state
- foreign corporations, recognition of, 406–8
- foreign governments
 competence, 412
 ‘control principle’ and documents of, 250–51 effective control demonstrated, 412–13 effective control doubted, 414–17 exceptional recognition of, 413–14
 legal personality, 381
 recognition of, 11–12, 381

- foreign judgments, enforcement as act of state, 529
- foreign nationals
 civil claims by. See civil claims habeas corpus applied to, 297
- foreign relations as law, 5–6
 as prerogative power. See state prerogative capability for regulation, xviii–xix, xxi–xxii, 5, 75, 193, 524 constitutional provision for. See constitutional law domestic affairs separated from, xx–xxi, 3–5, 14–18, 49–59, 152 executive and. See executive; state prerogative focus of study on, 21–22
 human rights and. See human rights international jurisdiction in public law, 16
 international law and, 19 judiciary and. See judiciary; jurisdiction legislature and. See legislature Locke’s unified power theory, 39–42
 national law’s increased concern with, xvii, xxi national regulation, xviii–xix, xxi–xxii notion of, xvi traditional approach to, 14–17, See also inter-state relations
- foreign relations law
 allocative function of. See allocation of foreign relations power
 author’s analytical approach, 5–6
 constitutional law and. See constitutional law disaggregated solutions to problems of. See disaggregation drivers of change, 17
 function of, 3–21
 historical development, 22
 international law and. See international law private international law and. See private international law public law and. See public law sources of law overviewed, 22–24, See also Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law
- foreign state
 allocation of power to, 95
 Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law and, 29
 as claimant. See foreign state claims as defendant. See claims against foreign states assertion of immunity, 97–98
 author’s analytical approach, 29–30, 377–78
 consent to forum state jurisdiction, 501 exclusion from national law, 16, 56–58 exclusion of claims of, 55–56
 foreign forum as available jurisdiction, 528
 human rights and military control of territory of, 332–34 immunity. See state immunity interplay of international and national laws, 29
 legal personality, 381
 legal personality within Anglo-Commonwealth national law access to courts, 379
 author’s analytical approach, 377–78, 380
 claim of direct right or interest, 391 international law sphere compared, 378 international law sphere contrasted, 378–79 jurisdiction and state immunity in relation, 379
 non-recognition. See non-recognition recognition by executive certificate. See executive certificate recognition policy changes, 382–86
 representation. See foreign governments role of recognition, 380–81
 separation of executive and judicial functions, 379–80 non-enforcement of public rights of, 62–63
 non-recognition. See non-recognition
 private international law and, 62
 public interest immunity and foreign state evidence, 248–57
 responsibility of, 97–98
 subjection to national law, 18, See also foreign governments
- foreign state claims
 act of state, 525–26
 admissibility factors summarised, 474–76
 author’s analytical approach, 29–30
 crime related, 459–66
 cultural heritage, 441–47
 distinction between sovereign and private claims, 427–34
 environmental protection, 449–50, 452
 foreign relations and, 424–27
 function of enforcement rules, 419–22 limits of enforcement jurisdiction in international law, 422–24 protection of state secrets, 429, 466–74
 regulatory claims, 447–52
 restitution of state assets, 434–41 securities regulation, 447–49, 450–52
 state seizure of private property, 470–74
 tax recovery, 452–58
- forum state, allocation of power to, 95

- Fox, Hazel
 allocative function of foreign relations law, 9
jus cogens, 515
 state immunity, 485
- general international law. See international law
- globalisation
 international law and, xv public law and, 17–18
 treaty-making and, 157–58
- Glorious Revolution of 1688
 armed forces deployment, 129, 133–34
 diplomatic protection, 373
 foreign affairs as factor, 119
 Locke's theory of government, 35–37
 new constitutional arrangements, 32
 principle of, 31–32
- government officials. See public officials
- government organs. See organs of government
- Grotius, Hugo
 cited as authority, 43
 international law theory, 40–41
- habeas corpus
 application to external exercises of executive detention, 298–305 application to foreign nationals, 297 authorities as to, 296–97
 author's analytical approach, 296
 availability of, 295–96
 human rights applicability compared, 345
 limitations of, 296
 'subject' defined, 297
- Hale, Sir Matthew
 'subject' defined, 297
- Hamilton, Alexander
 balance of powers, 35 operation of treaties as laws, 160
- Henkin, Louis
 US foreign relations law writings, 13
- home state responsibility, allocation of power, 96–98
- Hong Kong
 civil claims, 282–83
 executive certificate of recognition, 246–48
 foreign state claims, 448
 protection of private rights in foreign state, 410–11
- Huber, Max
 territorial principle, 191–92
- human rights
 adoption of human rights standards, 306
 allocation of power, 220, 345
 and Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law generally, 305–9
 applicability of, 308
 armed conflict cases, 522
 as external jurisdictional issue, 84
 disaggregated approach to, 27–28, 326–32, 345
 extraterritorial scope, 309
 foreign relations and, 27–28
 general principles of application, 309–10 habeas corpus. See habeas corpus integration with other humanitarian law norms, 308–9 international law and, xvi judicial control of terrorism measures, 105–9 judiciary and, 114
 jurisdiction and, 315–26
 'local remedies' defined, 323
 military control of foreign territory, 332–34
 national courts as primary forum, 308
 national laws in relation, xvi national provisions, 311–15 relationship of individual and state, 18 scope of international instruments, 308, 313–14 state acts by overseas agents, 334–44
 state immunity and, xix
 state prerogatives and, xix–xx territorial connection and, 327, See also European Court of Human Rights; state responsibility
- humanitarian law norms, integration with human rights, 308–9
- immigration law, reception of international law, 90–91
- immovable property, assertion of title as act of state, 531–34
- immunity
 from prosecution, 109–10
Norwich Pharmacal principle, 251–55
 public interest immunity certificate, 222, 239–40, 248–57
 recognition of persons entitled to, 241
 state immunity. See state immunity
- incorporation, doctrine of
 scope of, 86
 transformation distinguished, 85–86, 87
- independence. See statehood
- indigenous peoples, civil claims as to land title, 281–85
- individuals. See civil claims; diplomatic protection; human rights
- inhumane treatment. See torture

- inter-governmental acts in public international law, 539–45
- international commercial transactions as act of state, 529–30
- International Court of Justice
 compulsory jurisdiction, 12
 diplomatic protection, 349, 352
jus cogens, 537
 military control of foreign territory, 333
 private rights and interests in unrecognised states, 403 scope of human rights convention, 314, 322 sovereignty and independence, 480
 state immunity, 480–81, 493–94, 502–3, 514, 515–16, 519–20, 521, 522
- international crimes. See criminal law
- International Criminal Court, jurisdiction, 211–14
- ‘international delinquency’, international law as check on, 62
- international disputes, character of, xv
- international humanitarian law, integration with human rights, 308–9
- international jurisdiction. See jurisdiction
- international law
 allocation of disputes to, 539–44 application as allocation of power, 85–91
 as applicable law, 89–91
 as check on ‘international delinquency’, 62
 as national law source, 87
 as separate legal system, 78, 88 commitment to institutions of, 12 common law in relation, 488–90
 comparative dimension of, xvii
 construction. See interpretation
 Dicey’s conception of as non-law, 55 distinction between application and interpretation, 82–85
 foreign relations and, 19
 function of, 77
 globalisation and, xv
 human rights. See human rights ‘law of nations’ theory, 43
 legality of norms of, 109
 limitations on executive power, 124–25
 national application generally, 23–24, 61, 80–82
 national law and customary international law, 81 national law in relation generally, 78–79, 470
 national law override of, 109
 national law reception of, 85–91, 490 process of reception of, 79–80 unitary concept of state, 113. See also Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law; foreign relations; foreign relations law; International Law Commission; private international law; treaty-making
- International Law Commission
 diplomatic protection, 348–50, 371–72
 ‘local remedies’ defined, 323
 responsibility of international organisations, 340–41
 state immunity, 486, 521, 522
 state responsibility, 104–5, 336–39, 505–6, 507, 508
- international tribunals as forum of last resort, 307
- interpretation
 application distinguished, 82–85
 presumption against extraterritoriality, 193–98
- inter-state relations
 allocation of power, 92–94
 civil claims as to, 289–91
- judicial review
 diplomatic protection, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 365, 366–68, 373
 habeas corpus and foreign nationals, 297 human rights protection, 107, 339–41
 justiciability, 117–18, 123–24, 223–36
 limitation on executive power, 24
- judiciary
 active role of, 60–61
 allocation of power
 between domestic law and international law, 232–36 between judiciary and executive, 219–23, 225–32
 constitutional provision for, 81–82
 constitutional provision for competence of, 70
 evidence rules, 26, 239–40
 exclusion from foreign relations, 16
 executive certificate, 239, 240–48
 foreign relations power overruled, 26 individual rights and. See human rights
 judicial review, 105–9, 123–24
 public interest immunity certificate, 239–40
 stay of proceedings for abuse of process, 26, 236–39. See also jurisdiction
- Judt, Tony
 advancement and defence of legal concepts, xv foreign relations and modern constitutional state, xxii

jurisdiction

- allocation of, 26, 29–30, 84–85, 94–96
- challenges to, 221
- consent to forum state jurisdiction, 501
- criminal law. See criminal law
- domestic jurisdiction principle, 478, 480–84, 525
- executive enforcement and, 222
- foreign forum as available jurisdiction, 528
- human rights and, 315–26
- international jurisdiction in national law, 16, 84–85
- justiciability and, 221–22, 223–36
- legislative jurisdiction
  - allocative function of foreign relations law, 193, 217
  - author's analytical approach, 193
  - common approach in Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law, 192
  - conferral by international law, 218
  - crimes committed on high seas, 192–93
  - disaggregated approach to, 193, 217–18
  - elements of, 191
  - extra-territorial acts of public officials subject to home state criminal law, 217
  - generally, 190–91
  - international law constraints on, 193, 217
  - international law principles applied to, 193
  - interpretation issues, 193–98
  - nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 203–7, 217–18
  - public power, focus on, 191
  - territorial connection, 198–203, 217–18
  - territorial principle, 191–92
  - universal jurisdiction as to transnational crimes, 207–17
- Locke's theory of government, 41–42
- prescriptive jurisdiction. See legislative jurisdiction
- private international law conception of, 327–28
- purpose and structure of doctrine of, 321
- special jurisdictional link to forum, 501–2
- state immunity as rule of, 30
- state immunity in relation, 499–502, See also justiciability; non-justiciability

jus cogens

- act of state and, 537–38
- state immunity and, 515

justiciability

- applicability of, 293, 359–60, 525, 541, 542, 544
- jurisdiction and, 221–22, 223–36

- rule of, 268–69
- scale of, 123–24, 343–44, See also non-justiciability

Knop, Karen

- reception of international law, 79–80

land title, civil claims by indigenous peoples, 281–85Lauterpacht, Sir Hersch

- allocation of functions between judiciary and executive, 219–23
- character of international disputes, xv
- diplomatic protection, 28, 355, 373
- foreign relations as law, 5–6
- foreign state claims, 428
- Grotius' international law theory, 40–41
- state immunity, 486, 514

law of nations. See international lawlegal personality of foreign state. See foreign statelegislature

- allocation of power
  - arguments against, 154–56
  - constitutional provision for, 70, 81, 163
  - distribution not separation, 81–82
  - principle of, 150, 151
  - reasons for, 156
- arguments against role of
  - avoidance of parochialism, 155
  - legislative function of Parliament, 156
  - ministers' democratic mandate, 155–56
  - need for flexibility in negotiations, 154–55
  - need for unified national approach, 154
- arguments for role of
  - democratic deficit, 156–57
  - executive accountability, 158–59
  - executive obligations of unincorporated treaties, 160–61
  - legislative functions of treaties, 156–61
  - public scrutiny, 159
- armed forces deployment. See armed forces deployment
- author's analytical approach, 150–51
- common approach to foreign relations law, 11–12
- criminal law, 101–5
- exclusion from foreign relations, 15–16, 149–50, 152–53
- external jurisdiction, 193–94, 196–97, 217, 218
- federal foreign relations power, 151
- foreign affairs role in political theory, 153–61

- legislature (cont.)
 foreign relations constraints on, 25–26, 150–51, 190–93
 public scrutiny. See also jurisdiction growth of foreign relations role, 149–50 legislative function, 156 oversight of executive constitutional importance of, 25, 181–82
 foreign affairs select committees, 182–84
 limits of powers, 185–90 Parliamentary sovereignty and international law, 55
 parochialism, 155
 regulatory limitations on executive power, 121–23
 treaty ratification role, 25, 114, 127–29, 150, 161–62, 178–81
- 'local remedies' defined, 323
- Locke, John
 cited as authority, 10–11, 153–54
 executive's external representative function, 38–39
 federative function of executive, 32, 33–42, 153–54
 Glorious Revolution of 1688, 35–37
 international state of nature, 37–38
 Parliament's foreign affairs role, 154
 'Power of War and Peace', 129, 134
 separation of domestic and foreign affairs, xx, 38
 treaty negotiation, 38
 unified foreign affairs power, 39–42
- Mann, F A
 act of state, 8, 10–11, 20, 485, 523, 524, 539
 cited as authority, 10–11
 Dicey critiqued, 32 division between domestic and foreign legal spheres, 4–5
 executive certificate of recognition, 243, 245, 393–97
Foreign Affairs in English Courts, xviii, 12
 foreign state claims, 423, 424, 428, 430, 437
 human rights jurisdiction, 316 international law as check on 'international delinquency', 62
 interplay of international and national laws, 61
 judiciary's active role, 60–61
 national regulation of foreign relations, xviii–xix non-enforcement of public rights of foreign states, 62–63
 private international law and acts of foreign
 states, 62
 reception of international law, 80
 recognition of foreign governments, 414
 territorial connection, 198, 327
 theory of foreign relations law, 59–64
 unrecognised states, 404
 US practice, 13
- Mansfield, William Murray, 1st Earl of accountability of public officials in private international law, 48
 accountability of public officials in public law, 48–49
 cited as authority, 10–11, 17, 32
 civil claims, 283
 customary international law in national law, 81 development of jurisdictional rules, 41 foreign revenue laws, 452
 habeas corpus, 297
 judgments reversed, 49, 51–53
 purpose of writings, 32
 state prerogative, 45–49
- maritime law
 Blackstone's international law theory, 44–45 external jurisdiction as to crimes committed on high seas, 192–93
 jurisdiction and international law, 84–85
 prize jurisdiction, 46–48
 universal criminal jurisdiction as to piracy, 208–9
- military intervention. See armed forces deployment; war
- Millett, Peter Millett, Baron
 foreign relations law and public law, 20–21 separation of powers, 80
- ministers. See executive
- Montesquieu, Charles-Louis de Secondat, Baron de La Brède et de
 division of powers, 33, 35
 'law of nations' theory, 43
- Moore, Harrison
 act of state, 279–80
Act of State in English Law, 12, 64
 'British act of state', 15
 separation of domestic and foreign affairs, 56
- movable property, transfer as act of state, 530–31
- multi-level governance, allocation of power, 141–42
- mutual assistance for recovery of criminal proceeds, 459–66
- national laws and international law in relation.
See international law; public law
- nationality and external criminal jurisdiction,
 203–7, 217–18

New Zealand

- armed forces deployment, 132–33, 139–40
- civil claims, 282, 283
- commitment to international law, xv
- common approach to foreign relations law, 10–12
- cultural heritage claims, 441–47
- foreign affairs select committees, 183, 184
- foreign state
  - claims of, 425–26, 456, 461, 462, 467, 468–69
  - evidence and public interest immunity, 250
  - executive certificate of recognition, 242–43, 399–401
  - foreign government's competence, 412–13
  - immunity, 482–83, 490–91, 504, 508, 510, 520
  - recognition policy, 385
- habeas corpus, 295–96
- human rights, 307, 312–13
- international law limitations on executive power, 125
- jurisdiction and international law, 84–85
- legislative functions of treaties, 157–58
- nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 205, 206
- Parliamentary oversight of executive, 188
- Parliamentary review of treaties pre-ratification, 162, 167–71, 180
- Parliament's foreign affairs role, 154
- prerogative power of executive, 117, 118
- presumption against extraterritoriality, 196–97
- stay of proceedings for abuse of process, 237–38
- suppression of torture, 216
- territorial connection, 200–1, 202–3
- transfer of power from UK, 65–66, 67, 68
- Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement negotiations, 159
- treaties as source of law, 160–61
- treaty-making, 127, 150, 162, 167–71
- UN terrorism measures, 106–7
- war crimes jurisdiction, 212, 213

Nollkaemper, André

- reception of international law, 80

non-justiciability

- act of state doctrine and, 4, 59, 539
- allocative effect of, 524
- applicability of, 284, 365, 430, 523
- doctrine of, xvii, 16, 26, 57–58, 93, 220, 275, 359, 484–85, 541, 543, 544
- plea of, 277, 533, 540

non-recognition

- avoidance of consequences of, 402–6
- exception to policy of, 413–14

- new common law principle protecting private rights, 408–12
- statutory reform as to status of foreign corporations, 406–8

Norwich Pharmacal principle and public interest immunity, 251–55*one voice principle

- critiques of, 60–61, 247
- diplomatic protection, 248
- executive certificate of recognition, 240
- rationale for, 243–44
- state immunity, 247
- support for, 240–41

Oppenheim, L F L

- separation of domestic and foreign affairs, 56

organs of government

- allocation of power, 9–10
- author's analytical approach, 115
- division of powers, theories of, 31–32, 34–35, 80, 115
- external deployment of public officials in new contexts, 17, See also executive; judiciary; legislature

overseas torts of public officials

- act of state, 534
- civil claims, 285–89

Parliament. See legislature*personal injury, state immunity, 520–22*Phillimore, Sir Robert

- state immunity and armed conflict, 522

piracy, universal criminal jurisdiction, 208–9*political character of international disputes, xv*Ponsonby, Sir Arthur

- foreign affairs select committees, 182
- Parliament's foreign affairs role, 156
- 'Ponsonby rule', 162

'Power of War and Peace'. See armed forces deployment*prerogative of the state. See state prerogative private international law

- conception of jurisdiction, 327–28
- focus on law as applied in foreign country, 411
- foreign act of state doctrine, 524
- foreign relations law and, 7–9, 20
- foreign state acts and, 62, 526–38
- general international law as choice of law
  - compared with, 89–90
- public law contrasted, 16
- state immunity and, 513
- umbrella function of, 6, See also applicable law; choice of law

- private property, foreign state claims as to seizure, 470–74
- private rights protection in unrecognised states. See non-recognition
- prize jurisdiction
 denial of justice, 47–48
 importance of, 46–47
- proceeds of crime, foreign state claims, 459–66
- property
 assertion of title as act of state, 531–34
 state immunity as to damage, 520–22
 transfer as act of state, 530–31
- public interest immunity. See immunity
- public international law. See international law
- public law
 extended cross-border regulation, 17–18
 foreign relations law and, 20–21
 international jurisdiction in, 16
- public officials
 accountability in private international law, 48 accountability in public law, 48–49 crime of torture, 216–17
   recognition policy. See also torture criminal law and external acts of, 204–5, 217 external deployment in new contexts, 17 overseas torts of, 285–89, 534 personal liability of, 54 serious offences by, 205–7
 state responsibility for conduct of, 507–8, 516
- public policy and international law, 535–37
- reception of law and transmission of law distinguished, 79–80
- recognition
 by executive certificate. See executive certificate change in recognition policy, 382–86
 common approach to, 11–12
 discretion as to, 378–79
 exceptional recognition, 413–14
 executive recognition, 379–80
 foreign corporations, 406–8
 foreign legal systems, 83 functions in municipal law, 380–81
 governments, 241–42, 412
 non-recognition. See non-recognition
 not proof of fact, 243–44
 persons entitled to immunities, 241
 recognition policy changes, 382–86
 role of, 380–81
 states, 241
 states of war, 242–43
- Reed, Robert Reed, Lord
 act of state, 262
- refugees and immigration law, 90–91
- regulatory recoveries, foreign state claims, 447–52
- Reid, James Reid, Baron
 act of state, 525
- restitution of state assets, foreign state claims, 434–41
- Roach, Kent
 human rights and War on Terror, xix
- secret state information, foreign claims for protection, 429, 466–74
- securities regulation, foreign state claims, 447–49, 450–52
- seizure of private property, foreign state claims, 470–74
- separation of powers. See organs of government
- slavery suppression cases, civil claims, 278–81
- South Africa
 civil claims, 263–64
 diplomatic protection, 363–64, 372
 stay of proceedings for abuse of process, 238
- state
 definition of, 506–7
 foreign relations. See foreign relations individual's relationship to, 18
 legal personality, 381
 recognition. See recognition unitary concept of, 113, See also national laws
- state assets, foreign claims for restitution, 434–41
- state immunity
 act of state and, 16
 allocation to international legal system, 497 armed conflict, 522–23
 as allocative rule, 515
 as rule of jurisdiction, 30 assertion by foreign state, 97–98
 common approach to, 11–12
 disaggregation, 517
 doctrine of, 11, 16, 477–79
 exercise of governmental functions, 497–98 exercise of sovereign or governmental authority, 502–5 exhaustion of local remedies, 495–96
 function of, 9, 494–98
 general principles, 488
 human rights and, xix
 identity of state, 488–508
 inter-state claims, 497
 invocation of, 28, 29, 30 jurisdiction in relation, 499–502
jus cogens and, 515
 non-justiciability and, xvii, 4

- personal injury or property damage, 520–22
 private international law and, 511–13
 protection of domestic jurisdiction, 495 reduced scope of, xxi, 18 sources of law, 488–94
 specific situations, 508–9 ‘state’ defined, 506–7
 state responsibility and. See state responsibility statutory codification, 491–94
 UN Convention, 494, 499, 501, 502–3, 509, 510–11, 515–16, 521, 522
- state of nature, Locke’s theory of, 37–38
- state of war, recognition of, 242–43
- state officials. See public officials
- state prerogative
 ‘act of state’. See act of state
 Blackstone’s theory, 42–49
 Dicey’s theory, 49–59
 diplomatic immunity and, 37, 42 foreign relations as, xix, 10, 15, 24, 26
 human rights and, xix–xx
- state responsibility
 allocation of power, 91–100
 attributable conduct, 505
 overseas acts of state agents, 334–44
 public officials, 507–8, 516
 state immunity and, 495–96
 state-owned corporations, 508
- state secrets, foreign claims for protection, 429, 466–74
- state seizure of private property, foreign state claims, 470–74
- statehood
 allocation of power and, 96 independence and, 480
 territorial control and, 480
- state-owned corporations, state responsibility, 508
- statutory interpretation. See interpretation
- stay of criminal proceedings for abuse of process, 236–39
- Stephen, J F
 act of state, 266
- Stephen, Sir Ninian
 democratic deficit, 157
- ‘subject’ defined, 297
- Talmon, Stefan
 recognition of foreign governments, 414
- tax recovery, foreign state claims, 452–58
- territoriality
amicus curiae briefs as to, 199–201
 human rights and, 327
 legislative jurisdiction, 198–203, 217–18
 presumption against extraterritoriality, 193–98
 territorial principle, 191–92
- terrorism
 civil claims, 272–76
 ‘control principle’ as to foreign government documents, 251–55
 diplomatic protection, 350–52
 habeas corpus and extra-territorial detention, 298–305
 human rights and, xix
 judicial control of executive regulation, 105–9
 torture of suspects. See torture UN measures, 9–10, 105–9
 universal criminal jurisdiction, 214–15
- title to immovable property, assertion as act of
 state, 531–34
- title to land, civil claims by indigenous peoples, 281–85
- torture
 complicity in, 252–53, 254–55, 271
 confession obtained through, 251
 diplomatic protection of terrorist suspects, 350–52
 duty to protect in cases of, 357–58, 366, 370 jurisdiction as to offence of, 109–10 suppression of, 214–17, 252, 272
 treaty ratification, 164
- transfers of movable property as act of state, 530–31
- transformation, doctrine of application of, 88
 formulation of, 86
 incorporation distinguished, 85–86, 87
 limitations of, 88–89
- transmission of law and reception of law distinguished, 79–80
- transnational crimes. See criminal law
- Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement
 negotiations, disclosure to Parliament, 159
- treaty-making
 constitutional provisions compared, 178–81 effect on national law, 31
 executive’s role, 15, 24, 117–18, 126–29
 globalisation and, 157–58
 legislature’s role, xxi, 11, 13, 15–16, 17, 24, 25, 114, 161–62
 Locke’s theory of government, 38
 national force of treaties, 80–81
 national law excluded from, 15–16
 national provisions surveyed, 162–78 reform of review process, 161–62
 scope of, 19

- treaty-making (cont.)
 treaties as source of national law, 160–61
 unincorporated treaties, 160–61
- unincorporated treaties as source of law, 160–61
- United Kingdom
 allocation of power between EU and
 allocative function, 142
 common foreign and security policy, 146–48
 conferral principle, 144–45
 English court rulings as to transfer of
 competence, 142–43
 EU competence provisions, 143–44, 145–46
 multi-level governance, 141–42
 armed forces deployment, 129–30, 133–34, 136–37, 138, 140–41
 ‘British act of state’. See act of state, act of home
 state
 civil claims, 264–71, 272–83, 285–93
 commitment to international law, xv
 common approach to foreign relations law, 10–12
 devolved power, 151
 diplomatic protection, 347–48, 349–50, 353–62, 372
 executive accountability, 158–59
 executive power of foreign relations, 114
 foreign affairs select committees, 182, 183–84
 foreign corporations, 406–8
 foreign state
 act of state, 261–62, 523, 526, 527, 528, 529–30, 531, 532–33, 534, 535–37, 539–45
 claims against, 484–85, 487
 claims of, 419, 420–21, 422–23, 424–25, 427–29, 430, 431–32, 433
 criminal law claims, 459–60, 461, 462–64, 465–66
 cultural heritage claims, 441–47
 evidence and public interest immunity, 249–50
 exceptional recognition, 413–14
 executive certificate of recognition, 240, 242–43, 244, 245–46, 386–90,
 391–97, 399
 foreign government’s competence, 414–17
 immunity, 481–82, 488–90, 491–92, 493, 499, 500–1, 503, 504–5, 506, 507–8, 511, 512–13, 516, 519, 521
 recognition policy, 382–83
 restitution of assets, 434–41
 securities regulation claims, 447–48, 451–52
 seizure of private property, 472–74
 state secrets protection, 466–74
 tax recovery claims, 452–55, 456, 457–58
 unrecognised states, 404–6
 Glorious Revolution. See Glorious Revolution of 1688
 habeas corpus, 295–303, 304–5
 human rights, 306, 307, 309–10, 311–12, 324, 325–26, 328, 343–44
 unrecognised states. See also European Court of Human Rights
 human rights and external jurisdiction, 84, 339–41
 immigration law and Refugee Convention, 90–91
 immunity from prosecution, 109–10 international law limitations on executive power, 124–25
 interpretation, 191–92
 judicial review, 105–9, 123–24
 jurisdiction and justiciability, 224–28, 232–36
 legislative limitations on power, 121–22
 nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 203–6
 Parliamentary control of criminal law, 102–5
 Parliamentary oversight of executive, 185,
 186–88
 Parliamentary review of treaties pre-ratification, 162, 174–78, 181
 prerogative power of executive, 117–20
 presumption against extraterritoriality, 194–95, 196
 protection of private rights in, 408–10
 separation of domestic and foreign affairs,
 xx–xxi
 stay of proceedings for abuse of process, 237, 238
 suppression of torture, 216–17
 territorial connection, 200, 201
 territorial principle, 191–92
 traditional approach to foreign relations, 14–17 transfer of power to Dominions, 32–33, 64–75
 treaties as source of law, 161
 treaty-making, 126, 127–29, 150, 174–78, 181
 war crimes jurisdiction, 210, 211, 212
- United Nations
 nationality and criminal jurisdiction, 206
 ‘state’ defined, 506–7
 state immunity, 494, 499, 501, 502–3, 509, 511, 515–16, 521, 522
- United Nations Charter, act of state, 538
- United Nations Security Council, terrorism measures, 9–10, 105–9

United States

- act of state, 526
- Anglo-Commonwealth foreign relations law
  - and, xix, 13–14
- Canadian implementation of UK/US treaty of 1854, 68–69
- division of powers, 35
- external jurisdiction, 246
- foreign state claims, 455
- habeas corpus, 296, 302–4
- human rights, 308
- securities regulation claims, 447–52
- state immunity, 481, 517
- tax recovery claims, 454, 456, 458
- territorial jurisdiction, 199–201
- treaties as source of law, 160
- treaty-making, 155
- ‘War on Terror’, xix, 251–55
- unrecognised states. See non-recognition

Vallat, Sir Francis

- executive certificate of recognition, 243, 386, 398

Vattel, Emer de

- territory and statehood, 480

visiting armed forces, immunity for, 517–20war

- allocation to international legal sphere, 93–94
- civil claims, 291–93
- human rights and military control of foreign territory, 332–34
- recognition of state of, 242–43
- state immunity, 522–23, See also armed forces deployment

war crimes, universal criminal jurisdiction, 209–17‘War on Terror’. See terrorismWilliams, Glanville

- act of state, 287