CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

Index

Adjustment Disorder, 107–110
ADLS. See Australian Data Linkage System adolescents. See also emotional impact emotional impact on, 9, 19–21
    questions for, 25
    relationships with professionals, 23
  engagement strategies for, 60–61
    age-appropriate, 65, 70–71
    card activity for, 74
    health care professionals' roles in, 60–61 preparation for parents, 67
    recommendations and guidelines for, 66 evidence-based interventions for, 78–82
    components of, 78–79
  information sources for, 62–65
    child-friendly bibliography, 69, 72–74
    parents as, 62–65
    recommendations of, 66
  international contexts for, policy guidelines for, 54–55 impact of cancer on, 55–57
  peer support for, 65
  preparations for hospital visits, 68–69 psychological adjustments to cancer, 3 Africa, policy guidelines for cancer in, 57
African Americans, cultural contexts for, 53–54 age-appropriate cancer terms, for children, 68 anxiety, 12
  reduction of, 86
Asia. See also Taiwan family structures in, 56–57
Australian Data Linkage System (ADLS), 49

bereavement, death and, 104 age-appropriate responses to, 96 communication patterns for, by family type, 100
  coping skills
    for families, 96–99
    length of illness as factor, 98–99
    for parents, 96–99
  family support programmes, 101
    Family Resilience Theory, 101
    hospital-based, 101
  hospital visits and, 98
  long-term impact of, psychological effects, 103–104 perceptions of, 93–96
  preparations for, for children and adolescents, 93–96 coping skills in, 95
    during palliative care, 94–95
  special needs for, 107–110
  support strategies for, 104–107
  treasure box intervention, 110
Birth Registrations, 49
buddy system approach, to self-care, 120 burnout, 116–117
  symptoms of, 117

Can Teen Australia, 105–107
cancer, as chronic illness, 2–3, 29 card activity, 74
child-oriented social supports, 61 children. See also emotional impact age-appropriate cancer terms for, 68 emotional impact on
    questions for, 25
    school-age children (9–11 years), 18–19
    as second order patients, 8
    very young children (0–5 years), 17–18
  engagement strategies for, 60–61
    age-appropriate, 65, 70–71
    card activity for, 74
    health care professionals' roles in, 60–61
    preparation for parents, 67
    recommendations and guidelines for, 66
  evidence-based interventions for, 78–82
    components of, 78–79

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

children (cont.)
family communication with, underestimation of children's reactions, 39–40 gender of, mixed findings influenced by, 10–11 information sources for, 60–65
child-friendly bibliography, 69, 72–74
parents as, 62–65
recommendations of, 66
international contexts for cancer, policy guidelines for, 54–57
in Saudi Arabia, 55–56
in Taiwan, 56–57
peer support for, 65
perceptions of cancer, as word, 7
preparations for hospital visits, 68–69
Children Lives include Moments of Bravery programme, 76
Children of Somatically Ill Parents, 76
China, cultural meaning of cancer in, 49 chronic phase, of cancer, 2–3, 29 CLIMB programme, 84
communication, within families, 38–41 children's reactions during, underestimation of, 39–40 coping skills influenced by, 38 for death and bereavement, by family type, 100
open communication, 39
typography of, 40
by women, 39
compassion, 14–15
compassion fatigue, 116–117 conflict, within families, 38
marital distress, 38
coping skills
for death and bereavement
for families, 96–99
length of illness as factor, 98–99
for parents, 96–99
preparations for death, 95
for emotional impact, 22–23 emotion-focused coping, 22
problem-focused coping, 22
from evidence-based interventions, 86 family communication as influence on, 38 parental mood as factor in, 36 family dynamics and, 36 through intervention programs, 86 parenting culture and, 44 cultural contexts, for cancer, 49–54 for African Americans, 53–54 conceptual approaches to, 47–48
cultural meaning of cancer, 50–54
in China, 50
for families, 51–54
database management for, 49–50
Australian Data Linkage System, 49
Birth Registrations, 49
Family Connections, 49
Midwives Notification System, 49
national registries, 49–50
Western Australia Cancer Registry, 49
in Finland, 51
information management for, 49–50
in Iran, 51
language barriers and, 57
in Latin America, 51–53 diagnosis stage in, 52
familism values in, 53
family dynamics as factor in, 52–53
spiritual values as influence on, 53
in Malaysia, 53
parent's culture as influence on, 57 sensitivity to, recommendations for, 57 visual aids and, 57
cultural meaning of cancer, 50–54
in China, 50
for families, 51–54

death, bereavement and
age-appropriate responses to, 96
communication patterns for, by family type, 100
coping skills
for families, 96–99
length of illness as factor, 98–99
for parents, 96–99
preparations for death, 95
family support programmes, 101
Family Resilience Theory, 101
hospital-based, 101
long-term impact of, 102–104 Adjustment Disorder, 107–110
preference for place of dying, 103
perceptions of, 93–96
preparations for, for children and adolescents, 93–96

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

coping skills in, 95
during palliative care, 94–95, 103
special needs after, 107–110
support strategies for, 104–107
Can Teen Australia, 105–107
peer support, 105–106
school support, 106
depression, 12, 86
diagnosis stage, 28–29
adjustment period after, 29
crisis phase, 28
health care professionals and, role during, 28–29
in Latin America, cultural contexts for, 52
parenting culture and, 42

emotional fatigue, for health care professionals, 116 emotional impact, on families on adolescents, 9, 19–21 questions about, 25
relationships with professionals, 23
anxiety from, 12
approaches to, 8
on children
questions for, 25
school-age children (9–11 years), 18–19
as second order patients, 8
very young children (0–5 years), 17–18
coping skills for, 22–23
emotion-focused, 22
problem-focused, 22
depression as result of, 12 developmental stage as influence on, 17–21 in adolescents, 19–21
in mixed findings, 10–11
in school-age children (9–11 years), 18–19 in very young children (0–5 years), 17–18 in young children (6–8 years), 18 for fathers with cancer, 16 fear as result of, 12
health concerns influenced by, 12–13 during illness stage, 15–16 isolation as result of, 13 loss and void as result of, 12–13 mixed findings on, 9–11 age factors in, 10–11
gender factors in, 10–11
informants in, 10
outcome measures, 11
for research design, 11 on social desirability, 11 timing as factor in, 10 for mothers with cancer, 16 negative outcomes from, 11–13 perceptions of cancer, as word, 7
positive incomes from, 13–15 career choice through, 14 compassion as, 14–15
empathy as, 14–15
improved relationships, 15 maturity as, 14
post-traumatic growth, 14 resilience as, 14–15
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder as result of, 13 previous knowledge of cancer as influence on, 21–22 on relationships, 13 positive outcomes for, 15
relationships with professionals, 23, 23
sadness from, 12–13
Secret Angels game, 24, 24
sex of child as factor in, 16 somatic symptoms of, 13 stress from, 12–13
worry as result of, 12
emotional regulation, 86
emotion-focused coping, 22
empathy, 14–15
end-of-life conflict, within families, 101–102 Family Conflict at the End of Life scale, 111 evidence-based interventions, for cancer. See also treasure box intervention activities in, 84–85
by age group, 83
for children and adolescents, 78–82
components of, 78–79
Children Lives include Moments of Bravery, 76
Children of Somatically Ill Parents, 76
CLIMB programme, 84
conceptual approach to, 75–78

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

evidence-based (cont.)
coping skills from, 86
delivery mechanisms of, 83–84 face-to-face, 84
hybrid, 84
online, 83–84
dosage of, 77
family interventions, 77
FOCUS programme, 80, 81
for health care professionals, 86–88
love tokens, 89
materials as part of, 84–85 outcomes from, 85–86
psychosocial interventions, 76, 79
school-based, 88–89
visualisation exercises, 88
Wonders and Worries programme, 80, 82

face-to-face evidence-based interventions, 84 familism values, in Latin American countries, 53
Family Conflict at the End of Life scale, 111
Family Connections, 49
family dynamics characteristics of family, 35–36
well-being of members, 35
conceptual approach to, 33–34 definition of family, 33 family communication, 38–41
children's reactions during, underestimation of, 39–40 coping skills influenced by, 38
open communication, 39
typography of, 40
by women, 39
family conflict, 38
marital distress, 38
family coping skills, 36 communication as influence on, 38
parental mood as factor in, 36
family functioning, 33–35
in Family Systems Theory, 34 family resilience, 36
model of, 37
family structure and, 41–42
in Asia, 56–57
parentification behaviours, 41–42 single-parent households, 41–42 guidance practices for, 45–46 in Latin America, cultural context for cancer influenced by, 52–53 previous cancer history as influence on, 35–36
family interventions, 77
Family Resilience Theory, 101
family support programmes, 101
Family Resilience Theory, 101
hospital-based, 101
fathers, with cancer. See also parental cancer emotional impact of, 16 parenting culture for, 42–43 fear, 12
Finland
cultural context for cancer in, 51 policy guidelines for cancer, 55
FOCUS programme, 80, 81

gender. See also sex of child, mixed findings influenced by, 10–11 of ill parent, mixed findings influenced by, 10–11 good motherhood standards, 42 gratitude practices, 58

Health and Medicines Act (Sweden), 54 health care professionals. See also self-care challenges for, 117
during diagnosis stage, 28–29 emotional fatigue for, 116 in engagement strategies, for children and adolescents, 60–61 evidence-based interventions for, 86–88 institutional barriers for, 118 organisational facilitators, 118 policy implications for, 118–119 rewards for, 117
hospital visits
death and bereavement interventions through, 98 preparations for, 68–69 hospital-based family support programmes, 101 hybrid evidence-based interventions, 84

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

illness stages. See stages of illness information management, cultural context for, 49–50 information sources
  for children and adolescents, 60–65
    child-friendly bibliography, 69, 72–74
    parents as, 62–65
    recommendations of, 66
international contexts, for cancer policy guidelines for adolescents, 54–55
    impact of cancer on, 55–57
  in Africa, 57
  in Asia, family structures as influence on, 56–57 for children, 54–55
    impact of cancer on, 55–57
    in Saudi Arabia, 55–56
    in Taiwan, 56–57
  conceptual approaches to, 47–48
  in Finland, 55
  legal approaches to, 54–55
  in Norway, 54
  poverty factors, 47–48
  racism and, 47–48
  social justice issues, 47–48
  in Sweden, 54–55
    Health and Medicines Act, 54
  in United Kingdom, NICE Guidelines in, 55 Iran, cultural contexts for cancer in, 51 isolation, 13

Latin America, cultural contexts for cancer in, 51–53 diagnosis stage in, 52
  familism values in, 53
  family dynamics as factor in, 52–53
  spiritual values as influence on, 53 location of death, preferences for, 103 loss and void, 12–13
love tokens, 89

Malaysia, cultural contexts for cancer in, 53
marital distress, 38
Midwives Notification System (MNS), 49 mothers, with cancer. See also parental cancer emotional impact from, 16 family communication by, 39

National Cancer Institute (U.S.), 76
National Institute for Health Care Excellence (NICE) (U.K.), 55
national registries, 49–50
NICE. See National Institute for Health Care Excellence
Norway, policy guidelines for cancer, 54 online evidence-based interventions, 83–84

open communication, 39

palliative care, death and bereavement preparations during, 94–95, 103 parental cancer. See also emotional impact conceptual approach to, 3–5 limitations of scope in, 3, 4 variables in, 3–4
  gender of parent, mixed findings influenced by, 10–11 methodological approach to, 5–6 parentification behaviours, 41–42
parenting culture, 42–45
  conceptual approach to, 33–34 coping mechanisms in, 44 diagnosis as influence on, 42 guidance practices for, 45–46
  with ill fathers, 42–43 parental needs in, 43–45 of healthy parent, 44
    of ill parent, 44
    for social support, 44–45 role of mothers in, good motherhood standards, 42 peer support, for children and adolescents, 65
  for death and bereavement, 105–106 positive outcomes, during stages of illness, 30 post-traumatic growth, from emotional impact of cancer, 14 Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, 13, 86 poverty, cancer policy guidelines and, international contexts for, 47–48
problem-focused coping, 22
ProQOL tool, 121–122
psychosocial interventions, 76, 79

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

quality of life issues, stages of illness as influence on, 30 racism, cancer policy guidelines and, international contexts for, 47–48 resilience, of families, 36 emotional impact as influence on, 14–15

  Family Resilience Theory, 101
  model of, 37

sadness, 12–13
Saudi Arabia, policy guidelines for cancer in, 55–56 schools evidence-based interventions in, 88–89 social support through, 65–66
    for death and bereavement, 106 second order patients, children as, 8
Secret Angels game, 24
security, sense of, 86
self-care, for health care professionals barriers to, 118
  for burnout, 116–117
    symptoms of, 117
  for compassion fatigue, 116–117 definition of, 114
  emotional fatigue and, 116 organisational facilitators' role in, 118 planning for, 119–120
    buddy system approach in, 120 social support as part of, 120 profiles approaches to, 115
  ProQOL tool, 121–122
  self-assessment as part of, 114 strategies for, 119–120 squeezing exercises, 120 stretching exercises, 121 sense of security. See security sex, emotional impact influenced by, 16 single-parent households, family dynamics in, 41–42 sleep improvement, 86
social justice issues, international context for, 47–48 social support, 65–66
  child-oriented, 61
  information sources, 60–65
    child-friendly bibliography, 69, 72–74
    parents as, 62–65
    recommendations of, 66
  parental needs for, 44–45
  by peers, 65
  quality sources, 60–65
  in schools, 65–66
  selection of, 61–62
  in self-care, for health care professionals, 120 spirituality, in Latin America, cultural contexts for cancer influenced by, 53 squeezing exercises, as self-care strategy, 120 stages of illness
  chronic phase, 2–3, 29
  diagnosis, 28–29
    adjustment period after, 29
    crisis phase, 28
    health care professionals and, role during, 28–29 lifetime impacts, 30–31 psychological adjustment issues, 30–31 quality of life, 30 positive family outcomes, 30 practical guidelines during, 31 stress, 12–13
stretching exercises, as self-care strategy, 121
Sweden, policy guidelines for cancer in, 54–55
  Health and Medicines Act, 54

Taiwan, policy guidelines for cancer in, 56–57 terminal cancer. See also bereavement conceptual approach to, 91–93
  coping skills
    for families, 96–99
    length of illness as factor, 98–99
    for parents, 96–99
  family conflict and, 101–102
  family support programmes, 101
  hospital visits and, 98 positive outcomes as result of, 96
treasure box intervention, 110

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-009-00983-6 — Parenting Through Cancer
Leonor Rodriguez
Index
More Information

United Kingdom (U.K.), cancer policy guidelines, under NICE, 55
United States (U.S.), National Cancer Institute, 76

vision boards, 32
visualisation exercises, 88

Western Australia Cancer Registry (WACR), 49 women. See also mothers communication within families by, 39 good motherhood standards for, 42
Wonders and Worries programme, 80, 82
World Health Organisation, 76 worry, 12

young people. See adolescents

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org